2010 Spring Notebook

40 LETTERMEN, 18 STARTERS RETURN

- Duke returns 40 lettermen and 18 starters from its 2009 team that went 5-7 overall and 3-5 in ACC play
- First team All-ACC WR Donovan Varner (65 rec., 1,047 yards, 8 TDs) spearheads the list of nine offensive returnees that includes four linemen
- Junior S Matt Daniels (83 tackles) is the leading returning tackler from a year ago while senior LB Damian Thornton (60 tackles) and redshirt junior NG Charlie Hatcher (39 tackles; 7.0 TFL) also return

SEVEN STARTERS LOST FROM 2009

- Headlined by QB Thaddeus Lewis and DT Vince Oghobaase, Duke loses 15 lettermen and seven starters from last year's squad
- A two-time second team All-ACC pick, Lewis became Duke's career leader in pass attempts (1,510), pass completions (877), passing yards (10,065) and passing touchdowns (67) while Oghobaase, who earned third team All-America honors in 2009, finished his career ranking among the school's top 10 in both career tackles for loss (36.5; 6th) and quarterback sacks (14.0; 5th)
- Other starters lost to graduation include S Catron Gainey (84 tackles in 2009), OT Jarrod Holt (1,348 career snaps), DE Ayanga Okpokowuruk (11.0 career sacks), LB Vincent Rey (330 career tackles; 2nd team All-ACC in 2009) and CB Leon Wright (10 career interceptions; HM All-ACC in 2009)

COACHING STAFF CHANGES

- In December of 2009, Mike MacIntyre, Duke's defensive coordinator in 2008-09, departed the staff to accept the head coaching position at San Jose State
- Jim Knowles, the head coach at Cornell from 2004-09, was added to the coaching staff to serve as Defensive Coordinator/Safeties
- Marion Hobby was promoted to Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator while Jim Collins was promoted to Assistant Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

THREE ENROLL IN JANUARY

- Three players — QB Brandon Connette, TE Cooper Helfet & RB Josh Snead — enrolled at Duke in January for the spring, 2010 semester
- Connette (Corona, Calif.) and Snead (Smithfield, N.C.) both graduated from high school early while Helfet (Kentfield, Calif.) joined the Blue Devils after playing the last two seasons at Santa Rosa (Calif.) Junior College

REPLACING LEWIS

- The Blue Devils must replace four-year starting QB Thaddeus Lewis, who finished his career as one of just two players in ACC history to throw for more than 10,000 yards (N.C. State's Philip Rivers), and will do so with four scholarship QBs on the roster in 2010
- Redshirt sophomore Sean Renfree served as the backup to Lewis in 2009 and completed 34-of-50 (.680) passes for 330 yards with four TDs and four INTs before suffering a season-ending knee injury against Georgia Tech on November 14 ... Renfree underwent surgery to repair the torn ACL in his right knee and his availability will be limited in spring drills
- Redshirt freshman Sean Schroeder (third string QB in 2009) and true freshman Brandon Connette (enrolled at Duke in January) will split the spring snaps in Renfree's absence
- Anthony Boone, who signed his national letter of intent with Duke on February 3, will join the program this summer

SWITCHING SIDES

- Two Blue Devils will switch from offense to defense for spring practice as Johnny Williams moves from wide receiver to cornerback while Kenny Anunike shifts from tight end to defensive end

EXPERIENCE LEADERS

- Senior C Bryan Morgan enters his final season with the Blue Devils having started 24 straight games and is the active leader in snaps played with 2,017
- Behind Morgan, the most experienced Duke players are redshirt junior OT Kyle Hill (1,693 snaps), redshirt senior Chris Rwabukamba (1,357), redshirt senior DE Wesley Oglesby (1,251) and redshirt senior TE Brett Huffman (1,200)

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDED

- Redshirt junior K Will Snyderwine, a non-scholarship roster member for the past two seasons, was awarded a scholarship for the 2010 season
- In 2009, Snyderwine earned second team All-ACC honors after setting a school single-season record with 17 field goals in 20 attempts while making all 24 PATs

2010 SCHEDULE RANKS THIRD-TOUGHEST IN ACC

- Duke's 12 opponents combined for a 94-60 (.610) record last season with eight schools (Alabama [14], Boston College [8], Elon [9], Georgia Tech [11], Miami [9], North Carolina [8], Navy [10] and Virginia Tech [10]) posting eight or more victories
- Based on opponents' combined winning percentage, Duke will face the ACC's third-most difficult schedule in 2010, trailing only North Carolina (97-60; .618) and Virginia Tech (95-59; .617) and ahead of Miami (92-61; .601), N.C. State (91-64; .587), Georgia Tech (87-64; .576), Florida State (86-66; .566), Virginia (82-73; .529), Maryland (79-72; .523), Wake Forest (77-76; .503), Clemson (72-79; .477) and Boston College (68-80; .460)
- The Blue Devils are joined by Miami as the only two ACC schools that will face ledgers including four opponents that reached double figures in the win column in 2009

EIGHT 2010 FOES REACH POSTSEASON IN 2009

- Seven of Duke's foes participated in bowl games with three winners (Alabama, 37-21 over Texas in the BCS National Championship game; Virginia Tech, 37-14 over Tennessee in the Chick-fil-A Bowl; and Navy, 35-13 over Missouri in the Texas Bowl) while Elon earned a berth in the 2009 FCS playoffs
- Other 2010 opponents to play in bowl games last year include Boston College (lost 24-13 to Southern California in the Emerald Bowl), Georgia Tech (lost 24-14 to Iowa in the Orange Bowl), Miami (lost 20-14 to Wisconsin in the Champs Sports Bowl) and North Carolina (lost 19-17 to Pittsburgh in the Meineke Car Care Bowl)

ALABAMA TO VISIT WALLACE WADE STADIUM

- In week three (September 18), reigning national champion Alabama will visit Durham as Duke head coach David Cutcliffe faces his alma mater
- Cutcliffe, a native of Birmingham and 1976 graduate of Alabama, worked as an undergraduate assistant coach for the Crimson Tide under Hall of Fame head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant
- As the head coach at Ole Miss, Cutcliffe compiled a 2-4 record against his alma mater with wins in 2001 (27-24) and 2003 (43-28) and defeats in 1999 (30-24), 2000 (45-7), 2002 (42-7) and 2004 (28-7)
- Duke is 1-2 all-time against the Crimson Tide with a 29-26 win in the Sugar Bowl on January 1, 1945 and losses in Tuscaloosa in 1972 (35-12) and 2006 (30-14)
- The Blue Devils are 4-7 all-time against teams that captured the national championship the previous season and hold a 2-1 home ledger in such games with wins over 1937 champion Pittsburgh (7-0 on November 26, 1938) and 1951 champion Tennessee (7-0 on October 4, 1952) and a loss to 1990 champion Georgia Tech (17-6 on November 2, 1991)
- Duke's stadium namesake, Wallace Wade, coached at both Alabama (61-13-2 record from 1923-30) and Duke (110-36-7 record from 1931-41; 46-50), guided both schools to Rose Bowl appearances (1925, 1926, 1930, 1938 & 1941) and led the Crimson Tide to national championships in 1925 and 1926 before being inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1955
- Wade's bust sits outside the north entrance of the stadium that bears his name in Durham while a bronze statue of the legendary coach stands outside of Alabama's Bryant-Denny Stadium alongside Bryant, Frank Thomas and Gene Stallings

David Cutcliffe

Head Coach

David Cutcliffe, who led Ole Miss to four bowl games in six seasons and mentored Super Bowl MVP quarterbacks Peyton and Eli Manning, was named Duke University's 21st head football coach on December 15, 2007.

Cutcliffe is 9-15 (.375) in two seasons at Duke and owns an overall head coaching ledger of 53-44 (546).

Last season, Cutcliffe and the Blue Devils went 5-7 to give the program its most wins in a season since 1994. In 2008, Cutcliffe guided Duke to four victories — matching the school's win total from the previous four seasons combined.

The support for Blue Devil football was greatly enhanced in Cutcliffe's first season as Duke enjoyed four home crowds of more than 30,000 fans for the first time in school history.

Cutcliffe, born September 16, 1954, came to Duke after serving the previous two seasons as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at the University of Tennessee. His head coaching experience includes a six-year stint at the University of Mississippi from 1999-04 where he compiled a 44-29 (.603) ledger with five winning seasons, five bowl game appearances and a share of the SEC Western Division championship in 2003. Cutcliffe was named the SEC Coach of the Year in 2003 after leading the Rebels to a 10-3 record including a 31-28 victory over Oklahoma State in the Cotton Bowl.

Cutcliffe has participated in 22 bowl games including the 1982 Peach, 1983 Florida Citrus, 1984 Sun, 1986 Sugar, 1986 Liberty, 1988 Peach, 1990 Cotton, 1991 Sugar, 1992 Fiesta, 1993 Hall of Fame, 1994 Florida Citrus, 1994 Gator, 1996 Florida Citrus, 1997 Florida Citrus, 1998 Orange, 1998 Independence, 1999 Independence, 2000 Music City, 2002 Independence, 2004 Cotton, 2007 Outback and 2008 Outback. He owns a 4-1 (.800) record as a head coach in bowl tilts with victories over Oklahoma, Nebraska, Oklahoma State and Texas Tech.

As a member of the coaching staff at Tennessee from 1982-98, Cutcliffe helped the Volunteers to four Southeastern Conference championships, 16 bowl games in 17 seasons and the national title in 1998. His first tenure with the Vols featured the mentoring of quarterbacks Andy Kelly, Heath Shuler, Tee Martin and Peyton Manning.

Kelly, who played at Tennessee from 1988-91 and graduated atop the school's career passing chart, has gone on to become the Arena Football League's career leader in pass completions, pass attempts, passing yards and touchdown passes. Shuler, a first team All-America choice in 1993 after throwing for 2,353 yards and a then school-record 25 touchdowns, was the third overall pick by the Washington Redskins in the 1994 NFL Draft. In November of 2006, Shuler was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives from North Carolina's 11th congressional district.

By throwing for 19 touchdowns against just six interceptions, Martin directed the Volunteer offense in 1998 as Tennessee went 13-0 and captured the SEC and national championships. Peyton Manning's storied career concluded in 1997 when the signal-caller threw for 3,819 yards and 36 touchdowns while earning first team All-America honors as well as the Maxwell Award presented annually to the nation's top player. Peyton Manning was the number one choice in the 1998 NFL Draft, earned league MVP honors in 2003, 2004, 2008 and 2009 and was named the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XLI as his Indianapolis Colts defeated the Chicago Bears, 25-17, on February 4, 2007.

In 1997, the Tennessee offensive unit established school single-season standards for first downs (300), pass completions (296), pass attempts (492), passing yards (3,981), passing touchdowns (37) and total offense (5,794) as the Volunteers went 11-2 and defeated Auburn, 30-29, in the SEC championship game.

In 1998, Cutcliffe was honored with the Frank Broyles Award, an honor given annually to the top assistant coach in the country. During Cutcliffe's tenure as offensive coordinator from 1993-98, Tennessee enjoyed four 1,000-yard rushers in Charlie Garner (1,161 in 1993), James Stewart (1,028 in 1994), Jay Graham (1,438 in 1995) and Jamal Lewis (1,364 in 1997). Stewart (19th overall pick by Jacksonville in 1995) and Lewis (5th overall pick by Baltimore in 2000) went on to be first round selections in the NFL Draft.

On December 2, 1998, Cutcliffe was named the head coach at Mississippi. Immediately taking the reigns, he coached Ole Miss in its 35-18 Independence Bowl win over Texas Tech to conclude the 1998 campaign.

While at Mississippi, Cutcliffe tutored 2003 SEC Player of the Year Eli Manning. Manning was a first team All-America pick as a senior, closed his career with an SEC-record 10,119 passing yards and was the top overall choice in the 2004 NFL Draft. In his fourth professional season, he guided the New York Giants to the Super Bowl and earned MVP honors after throwing for 255 yards and two touchdowns in a 17-14 win over the New England Patriots on February 3, 2008.

Cutcliffe also coached three-time All-SEC running back Deuce McAllister, who set Rebel career records for rushing yards (3,060) and rushing touchdowns (37) and was a first round selection of the New Orleans Saints in the 2001 NFL Draft.

Cutcliffe's recruiting efforts at Ole Miss produced three national award winners in Eli Manning (2003; Maxwell Award), Jon Nichols (2003; Lou Groza Award presented annually to the top kicker in the nation) and Patrick Willis (2006; Butkus Award presented annually to the top linebacker in the country). During his six seasons at the helm of the Rebel program, Mississippi set school single-season records for total offense, passing offense and scoring offense while winning twice at both Auburn and LSU, securing consecutive victories over Florida, and defeating both Arkansas and South Carolina on three occasions.

In the spring of 2005, Cutcliffe joined the coaching staff at Notre Dame, but resigned from the post for health reasons. He then returned to Knoxville prior to the 2006 season. Cutcliffe helped the Volunteers to a 19-8 record from 2006-07 with two appearances in the Outback Bowl. In 2007, Tennessee went 10-4 with a 6-2 league mark en route to winning the SEC Eastern Division crown. The Tennessee offense allowed an NCAA-low four sacks on the year, and quarterback Erik Ainge earned MVP honors of the Outback Bowl after throwing for 365 yards and two touchdowns as the Volunteers defeated Wisconsin, 21-17. Tennessee running back Arian Foster rushed for 1,193 yards on the year while wide receiver Lucas Taylor reached the 1,000-yard plateau for receiving yards. In addition, offensive guard Anthony Parker garnered first team All-SEC and second team All-America accolades.

With Cutcliffe at offensive coordinator, Tennessee scored 30 or more points in 62 of 100 games, posting a 59-3 (.952) ledger in those contests. The Volunteers compiled an overall record of 173-54-7 (.754) during his 19 seasons on staff. Cutcliffe is the only coach in SEC history to have two quarterbacks throw for over 10,000 career yards while his offenses produced the all-time leading passers, rushers and receivers at both Mississippi and Tennessee.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Cutcliffe graduated from the University of Alabama in 1976. He got his start in the coaching profession at Banks High School — his alma mater — and spent four years as an assistant coach before becoming the head coach in 1980.

Cutcliffe is married to the former Karen Oran of Harriman, Tenn., and they have four children — Chris, Marcus, Katie and Emily — and one daughter-in-law, Molly.

Ron Middleton

3rd season at Duke

Associate Head Coach

Special Teams Coordinator

Tight Ends

Ron Middleton joined the Duke gridiron coaching staff in January of 2008 and serves as associate head coach and special teams coordinator while coaching the tight ends.

In 2009, Middleton guided the Blue Devil tight ends and three players — Brett Huffman, Brandon King & Danny Parker — combined to catch 33 passes for 371 yards and six touchdowns. Duke also achieved success in the kicking game under Middleton as Will Snyderwine was an All-ACC pick after making a school single-season record 17 field goals in 20 attempts.

Middleton spent one season (2007) on the staff at Alabama and helped the Crimson Tide to a 7-6 overall record and 30-24 victory over Colorado in the Independence Bowl. Under Middleton's direction, Alabama kicker Leigh Tiffin totalled 111 points — the second-highest single-season point total in Tide history — with a school single-season record 25 field goals along with 36 extra points. In addition, Javier Arenas ranked among the SEC's top 10 performers in both kickoff and punt return average while tight end Nick Walker caught 23 passes for 204 yards and two touchdowns.

The former Auburn letterman and 10-year NFL veteran served three seasons (2004-06) as an assistant coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers under head coach Jon Gruden. While with the Bucs, Middleton coached the tight ends and assisted with special teams and helped Tampa Bay to the 2005 NFC South Division championship.

Middleton spent five seasons (1999-03) on the coaching staff at Mississippi working along side Duke head coach David Cutcliffe. While with the Rebels, Middleton coached the tight ends for three years (1999-01) and running backs for two campaigns (2002-03) and served as the special teams coordinator. Ole Miss participated in four bowl games during Middleton's tenure, and the Atmore, Ala., native mentored kicker Jonathan Nichols, who set 15 school records, earned All-SEC honors and captured the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top placekicker in 2003. That season, Nichols booted 24-of-28 field goal attempts and all 45 of his point after touchdown tries en route to scoring an Ole Miss single-season record 117 points.

Also in 2003, Mississippi punter Cody Ridgeway garnered second team All-SEC accolades while the Rebels paced the league in net punting, kickoff returns, field goals, and PAT kicking.

Before joining Cutcliffe at Ole Miss, Middleton spent two seasons (1997-98) at Troy, coaching the tight ends, offensive tackles and assisted with special teams. He also spent time in private business, serving as vice president of American Communications.

A four-year letterwinning tight end at Auburn from 1982-85, Middleton helped the Tigers to a four-year ledger of 37-12 with four bowl game appearances that produced three victories. In 1983, Auburn posted an 11-1 record, won the SEC title and defeated Michigan, 9-7, in the Sugar Bowl. Middleton earned a degree in pre-law/history from Auburn in 1988 and later received a master's degree in sports and fitness management from Troy in 1998.

Middleton's professional playing career spanned 10 seasons with five organizations. Undrafted out of Auburn, he played two years (1986-87) with the Atlanta Falcons before joining the Washington Redskins for the 1988 campaign. Following one season (1989) with the Cleveland Browns, Middleton returned to the Redskins for a four-year tenure that included a 37-24 victory over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVI. He finished his career playing single campaigns with the Los Angeles Rams (1994) and San Diego Chargers (1995).

Marion Hobby

3rd season at Duke

Assistant Head Coach

Defensive Coordinator

Defensive Line

Marion Hobby joined the Blue Devil coaching staff in January of 2008 and serves as Duke's assistant head coach and defensive coordinator while mentoring the defensive line.

Under Hobby's guidance, Duke defensive tackle Vince Oghobaase earned All-America honors from Sporting News in 2009. In 2008, the Blue Devil defense allowed 23.4 points per game — the program's lowest in 20 seasons — and held three opponents to less than 10 points for the first time since 1976.

Hobby came to the Duke program following two seasons (2006-07) with the New Orleans Saints where he coached the defensive line. In 2006, the Saints posted a 10-6 record during the regular season and won the NFC South Division championship en route to an appearance in the NFC title game. Hobby coached Will Smith, a defensive end who registered 10.5 quarterback sacks and was tabbed a starter for the Pro Bowl.

In 2005, Hobby served on the staff at Clemson, helping the Tigers to an 8-4 ledger. That year, Clemson won six of its final seven contests, defeated Colorado by a 19-10 count in the Champs Sports Bowl and was ranked 21st in the final Associated Press national poll.

Prior to his stint with Clemson, Hobby worked six years (1999-04) alongside Cutcliffe at Ole Miss. During that stretch, the Rebels went 43-29 (.603) with five winning seasons, four bowl game appearances and a share of the SEC Western Division championship in 2003.

Hobby got his start in coaching in 1995, working with the defensive tackles at Tennessee-Martin. He then served two seasons at Southwest Louisiana as strength and conditioning coach (1996) and defensive tackles coach (1997) before spending one year (1998) at Tennessee as assistant strength and conditioning coach. The 1998 Volunteer squad went 13-0 and won the national championship with a 23-16 victory over Florida State in the Fiesta Bowl.

A four-year letterman and three-year starter on defense at Tennessee from 1986-89, Hobby served as team captain as a senior as the Volunteers went 11-1, captured the SEC championship, defeated Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl and finished the year ranked fifth in the final Associated Press national poll. During his playing tenure, the Vols posted a record of 33-14-1 and won three bowl games.

A first team All-SEC choice in 1989 who was named to Tennessee's 100-year Anniversary squad, Hobby was a third round pick of the Minnesota Vikings in the 1990 NFL Draft and played three seasons with the New England Patriots (1990-92).

A native of Irondale, Ala., Hobby and his wife, Constance, have three children, Maria, Mariah and Camille.

Middleton, who was a member of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' training camp coaching staff in 2003 as a part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program, was selected by Gruden in 2006 to attend the NFL's Coaches Career Development Symposium. In addition, Middleton joined with other Tampa Bay coaches to host the 2004 High School Coaching Academy, a one-day clinic designed to elevate the quality of football coaching at the prep level.

Middleton has three children: Desmond, Ron II and Zaria.

Kurt Roper

3rd season at Duke

Offensive Coordinator Quarterbacks

A coaching veteran who has spent time on staffs at three SEC schools, Kurt Roper joined the Duke program in January of 2008 and serves as offensive coordinator while coaching the quarterbacks.

At Duke, Roper directed two-time All-ACC quarterback Thaddeus Lewis, who finished his career as the school's all-time leader in pass attempts (1,510), pass completions (877), passing yards (10,065) and passing touchdowns (67). One of just two players in ACC history to throw for more than 10,000 yards in a career, Lewis enjoyed one of the finest seasons by a quarterback in Duke history in 2009 by leading the ACC in total offense while throwing for 3,330 yards and 20 touchdowns against just eight interceptions.

Roper came to Duke after serving the 2006 and 2007 seasons at Tennessee where he coached the running backs. The Volunteers produced 19 wins against eight losses from 2006-07 with one SEC Eastern Division crown and a pair of berths in the Outback Bowl.

Tennessee's rushing attack in 2007 was featured by Arian Foster, who gained 1,193 yards on 245 carries while scoring 12 touchdowns on the ground. On the Volunteer single-season record charts, Foster's numbers landed him fourth in rushing attempts, tied for fifth in rushing touchdowns and ninth in yards. In addition, he had five 100-yard rushing games on the year and his 98-yard, three-touchdown performance against Georgia helped Tennessee defeat the then 12th-ranked Bulldogs, 35-14. A junior in 2007, Foster currently ranks seventh on UT's all-time rushing list with 2,394 career yards.

Roper got his start in coaching at Tennessee, serving as a graduate assistant coach from 1996-98 while working with the Volunteer defensive and special teams units. He then followed current Duke head coach David Cutcliffe to Ole Miss and spent six years in Oxford as the Rebels went 44-29 with four bowl game victories. Mississippi enjoyed one of its finest seasons in school history in 2003 when the Rebels went 10-3, captured a share of the SEC Western Division title and defeated Oklahoma State, 31-28, in the Cotton Bowl.

While with Ole Miss, Roper coached the quarterbacks all six years and added the responsibility of passing game coordinator for his final three seasons. Among his pupils was record-setting, All-America signal-caller Eli Manning, the 2003 SEC Player of the Year who was the number one overall pick in the 2004 NFL Draft.

In 2005, Roper coached the quarterbacks at Kentucky under head coach Rich Brooks.

In all, Roper has coached in nine bowl games: 1997 Florida Citrus, 1998 Orange, 1998 Independence, 1999 Independence, 2000 Music City, 2002 Independence, 2004 Cotton, 2007 Outback and 2008 Outback.

A native of Ames, Iowa, Roper earned three varsity letters on the gridiron as a defensive back and quarterback at Rice before graduating in 1995. He went on to earn a master's degree from Tennessee in 1998.

Roper is married to the former Britt Albertson of High Point, N.C., and the couple has one daughter, Reese Leslie, who was born February 8, 2008. His brother, Zac, also is a member of the Duke football coaching staff.

Matt Luke

3rd season at Duke

Offensive Coordinator Running Game Offensive Line

Matt Luke was added to the Blue Devil coaching staff in January of 2008 and serves as Duke's offensive coordinator/running game while coaching the offensive line.

In 2009, Duke's offensive line provided protection for All-ACC quarterback Thaddeus Lewis as the Blue Devils ranked third in the league in sacks allowed per passing attempt.

Luke came to Duke following two seasons at Tennessee where he served as recruiting coordinator while coaching the tight ends and assisting with the offensive line.

During Luke's two-year stay (2006-07) in Knoxville, the Volunteers went 19-8 with one SEC Eastern Division championship and two appearances in the Outback Bowl. In 2007, Tennessee tight end Chris Brown caught 41 passes for 282 yards and six touchdowns while fellow end Brad Cottam's 31-yard touchdown reception proved to be the difference in the Vols' 21-17 win over Wisconsin in the Outback Bowl.

On the recruiting front, Tennessee's 2007 class was rated third-best nationally by Rivals.com and fourth-best in the country by Scout.com.

A native of Gulfport, Miss., Luke lettered four seasons (1995-98) as a center at Ole Miss. A starter in 33 career games for the Rebels, he served as team captain in 1998 as Ole Miss posted a 7-5 ledger and defeated Texas Tech in the Independence Bowl. He was named the 1998 Ole Miss Most Valuable Senior by the Jackson (Miss.) Touchdown Club and twice earned Academic All-SEC honors.

Following his playing career, he served as a student assistant coach at Ole Miss under current Duke head coach David Cutcliffe in 1999, helping the Rebels to an 8-4 ledger with regular season wins against Auburn, South Carolina, LSU and Arkansas as well as a 27-25 triumph over Oklahoma in the Independence Bowl. He graduated in May of 2000 with a degree in business administration.

Luke then spent two years (2000-01) coaching the offensive line at Murray State before returning to his alma mater to guide the Rebel tight ends and offensive line for four seasons (2002-05). Ole Miss won two bowl games during that stretch, defeating Nebraska in the Independence Bowl to close the 2002 season and upending Oklahoma State in the Cotton Bowl a year later to cap a 10-3 campaign that included a share of the SEC Western Division championship.

Luke is married to the former Ashley Grantham of Oxford, Miss., and the couple has one son, Harrison Thomas, who was born February 18, 2008. His father, Tommy, was a defensive back at Mississippi in the 1960s while his brother, Tom, quarterbacked the Rebels from 1989-91.

Jim Knowles

Defensive Coordinator

Safeties

1st season at Duke

Jim Knowles was added to the Blue Devil staff on December 28, 2009 and serves as defensive coordinator while coaching the safeties. He was the head coach at Cornell for six seasons (2004-09) and a member of David Cutcliffe's staff at Ole Miss in 2003.

A 1987 graduate of Cornell, Knowles spent nine years (1988-96) as an assistant coach at his alma mater, helping the Big Red to Ivy League championships in 1988 and 1990. In his first stint at Cornell, he coached defensive line (1988), running backs (1989-94) and linebackers (1995-96) while coordinating the staff's recruiting efforts (1995-96). He was named Cornell's 25th head football coach in January, 2004, and guided the Big Red to an overall ledger of 26-34 with a 16-26 record in Ivy League play.

In his first season at the helm of the Big Red program, Knowles turned a 1-9 squad that lost seven games by at least two touchdowns into a 4-6 unit that went 4-3 in conference play and lost all six contests by 10 points or less. Cornell's 2004 squad became the first team in Ivy League history to go from zero conference wins to a winning league slate in just one season. Under Knowles, Cornell posted three consecutive seasons (2005-06-07) at .500 or better for the first time since 1990-91-92 and, in 2007, enjoyed a stretch of scoring 30 or more points in four straight games for the first time since 1921 while home attendance nearly doubled from the 2006 campaign.

In his lone season at Ole Miss, Knowles aided the Rebels to a 10-3 record, a share of the SEC Western Division championship and a 31-28 victory over Oklahoma State in the Cotton Bowl. Coaching the linebackers while serving as recruiting coordinator, Knowles helped the Ole Miss defense rank 14th in the nation in rushing defense while the Rebels held eight opponents -- including eventual national champion LSU -- to 21 or fewer points.

Knowles spent six seasons (1997-02) on the staff at Western Michigan University, serving the last two campaigns as defensive coordinator. In 2002, the Broncos led the Mid-American Conference and ranked 28th nationally in total defense and featured Jason Babin, the MAC Defensive Player of the Year and the school's first NFL first round draft pick. In 2001, Western Michigan paced the conference and ranked 17th nationally in pass defense. Knowles' tenure with the Broncos also included three shutouts during the 2000 season -- the school's highest total since 1971 -- and the development of two-time All-MAC pick Dan Falcon (1997-98) and Ryan Bauer, who led the league in sacks in 1997.

A native of Philadelphia, Pa., Knowles was a three-year letterman and All-Ivy League selection as a defensive end at Cornell before graduating in 1987 with a bachelor's degree from the School of Industrial and Labor Relations. He and his wife, Nancy, have three children - Halle, Luke and Jack.

Jim Collins

Assistant Defensive Coordinator

Linebackers

9th season at Duke

Jim Collins was named to the Duke coaching staff in January of 2008 for his third stint with the Blue Devils. Collins was a graduate assistant with head coach Steve Sloan in 1983 and later served five campaigns from 1985-89 under both Sloan and Steve Spurrier. Collins serves as the assistant defensive coordinator and coaches the Blue Devil linebackers.

In 2008 and 2009, Collins coached a pair of honor-earning linebackers in Michael Tauiiliili and Vincent Rey. Tauiiliili earned All-America accolades in 2008 after leading the ACC in tackles with 140 while Rey was an All-ACC selection in 2009. Both players finished their respective careers ranking among the top tacklers in Duke history.

A native of Greensboro, N.C., Collins began his coaching career at Page (N.C.) High School in 1974. He then served as the defensive coordinator at Lees-McRae Junior College in 1980 before coaching the defensive backs and outside linebackers at Appalachian State from 1981-82. After one season at Duke as a graduate assistant coach, he was the defensive coordinator at Jacksonville State in 1984.

In 1985, Collins returned to Durham for a five-year stint with the Blue Devils. Coaching Duke's linebackers, he mentored Mike Junkin, a second team All-America pick in 1986 who became the school's all-time leading tackler and was a first round selection of the Cleveland Browns in the 1987 NFL Draft. Collins served as Duke's co-defensive coordinator in 1989 as the Blue Devils posted an 8-4 record, won seven straight games to close the regular season, captured the ACC championship and participated in the All American Bowl in Birmingham, Ala.

Collins then went with Spurrier to Florida, serving on the staff from 1990-01. During his tenure with the Gators, he worked with the linebackers, defensive ends and tight ends while also serving as recruiting coordinator as Florida compiled an overall record of 122-27-1. The successful 12-year run included the 1996 national championship with a 52-20 victory over Florida State in the Sugar Bowl as well as an 82-12 record in SEC regular season action, nine 10-win seasons, 10 campaigns ranked in the top 10 of the final Associated Press national poll, six SEC titles, 11 bowl game appearances, 81 All-America citations and 13 first round NFL Draft selections.

In 2002-03, Collins worked with the NFL's Washington Redskins, coaching the linebackers while assisting with special teams. He then Collins joined the staff at Marshall where he guided the defensive backs in 2004 before coordinating the defense for the next two years. In 2005, his Thundering Herd defensive unit led Conference USA in total defense while ranking 12th nationally against the pass.

During his college coaching career, Collins has participated in 13 bowl games: 1989 All American, 1992 Sugar, 1992 Gator, 1994 Sugar, 1995 Sugar, 1996 Fiesta, 1997 Sugar, 1998 Citrus, 1999 Orange, 2000 Citrus, 2001 Sugar, 2002 Orange and 2004 Fort Worth.

Collins played defensive back at Elon College before graduating in 1974 with a degree in physical education. He later earned a master's degree in education from North Carolina A&T in 1979. He and his wife, Geri, have one daughter, Jennifer.

Zac Roper

3rd season at Duke

Recruiting Coordinator

Running Backs

Special Teams

Zac Roper was added to the Duke coaching staff in January of 2008 and serves as recruiting coordinator while coaching the running backs and assisting with the special teams.

In 2009, Duke achieved success in the kicking game as Will Snyderwine garnered All-ACC accolades after making a school single-season record 17 field goals in 20 attempts as well as all 24 of his PAT attempts. The 75 total points rank as the ninth-highest single-season total in Duke history.

In 2008, Roper managed the unexpected loss of returning starting running back Re'quan Boyette by preparing three backs – Clifford Harris, Jay Hollingsworth and Tony Jackson – for action despite the trio combining for a total of 92 career rushing attempts entering the year. The combination rushed for 1,003 yards while catching 51 passes for an additional 421 yards on the year. In addition, Hollingsworth became the first true freshman to lead Duke in rushing since 1998.

From 2005-07, Roper helped Cornell University to an overall ledger of 16-14. He coached the running backs and tight ends during his first two seasons before switching to cornerbacks in 2007 and also served as special teams coordinator. Roper coached or recruited eight Ivy League Player of the Week selections during his three seasons.

On the special teams front in 2007, Cornell paced the league in punt return average — returning two punts for touchdowns during the year — and kickoff coverage. The Big Red also posted touchdowns via fake field goal and kickoff return.

Coaching the running backs in 2006, Roper tutored Luke Siwula, who rushed for 885 yards in 2006 en route to receiving second team All-Ivy League honors. In 2005, he mentored the tight ends as Cornell finished the year ranked 10th nationally in rushing offense.

Roper's work with the Cornell placekickers yielded zero missed point after touchdown attempts over his three seasons as A.J. Weitsman and Peter Zell combined to boot 84 consecutive extra points. In addition, Weitsman established a Cornell single-season record with 14 field goals while punter Michael Bolling downed 23-of-52 punts inside the 20 yard-line without a touchback in 2005.

Prior to joining the Big Red staff, Roper spent four years at Ole Miss as a graduate administrative aide and graduate assistant coach under current Duke head coach David Cutcliffe, working with the wide receivers, tight ends and placekickers. Mississippi's 2003 squad won 10 games with a share of the SEC Western Division title and defeated Oklahoma State, 31-28, in the Cotton Bowl.

Ole Miss kicker Jonathan Nichols enjoyed a sensational season in 2003 by earning All-SEC and All-America honors while winning the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top kicker. He graduated as the school's all-time leader in total points (344) and finished his career having made 117 consecutive PATs. Punter Cody Ridgeway was an all-league choice in 2003.

Roper was an undergraduate assistant coach at Oklahoma under head coach John Blake from 1996-98. He graduated from Ole Miss in 2001 with a degree in political science and went on to earn a master's degree in higher education/student personnel two years later.

A native of Knoxville, Tenn., Roper is married to the former Rebecca Harvey of Bossier City, La., and the couple has one son, Joshua David, who was born January 5, 2009. Roper's brother, Kurt, also is a member of the Duke football coaching staff.

Derek Jones

3rd season at Duke

Defensive Backs

Derek Jones joined the Blue Devil coaching staff in January of 2008 and coaches the defensive backs.

One of Jones' pupils, Leon Wright, concluded an outstanding career in 2009 by earning honorable mention All-ACC honors after totaling 58 tackles, five interceptions and eight pass breakups. Wright was instrumental in Duke's 35-19 come-from-behind win at Army in week two of the 2009 season, returning two interceptions for touchdowns in the fourth quarter.

In 2008, the Blue Devil defense allowed 23.4 points per game – the lowest total in 20 seasons – and held three opponents to less than 10 points for the first time since 1976.

Prior to joining the Duke staff, Jones helped Memphis to a 7-6 overall record in 2007 – a five-game improvement in the win column from the previous year – with a berth in the New Orleans Bowl. One of Jones' pupils, LaKeitharun Ford, was named co-MVP of the squad after posting 45 tackles and two interceptions.

In 2006, Jones coached the cornerbacks at Tulsa as the Hurricane defense ranked first in Conference USA in pass defense and total defense. Tulsa posted an 8-5 ledger that season and participated in the Armed Forces Bowl. Cornerback Nick Graham earned all-conference honors and is a current member of the Philadelphia Eagles.

Prior to joining the Tulsa staff, Jones worked one season as an assistant coach at Middle Tennessee State University where the Blue Raiders ranked 30th nationally against the pass.

Jones received his start in coaching at Ole Miss in 1998 as a graduate assistant for football operations and recruiting. He then served as a defensive graduate assistant coach in 1999 with the Rebels under current Duke head coach David Cutcliffe.

From 2000-04, Jones served as cornerbacks coach and recruiting coordinator at Murray State, mentoring seven all-conference selections in five years. The Racers enjoyed defensive success during Jones' tenure, leading the Ohio Valley Conference in pass defense in 2003 and, one year later, ranking 11th nationally in total defense and 23rd nationally in scoring defense.

A native of Woodruff, S.C., Jones lettered four seasons as a cornerback at Ole Miss from 1993-96. He was a two-time second team All-SEC pick, captained the Rebels in 1996 and was selected to play in the prestigious Blue-Gray All-Star Classic following his senior campaign. He also earned All-SEC accolades in track and field as a sprinter.

Jones received a degree in public administration from Ole Miss in 1996, and then played professionally with the Toronto Argonauts and Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League and Nashville Kats of the Arena Football League. He and his wife, Naketa, have two daughters, Madison and Brooklyn Savannah. Jones has another daughter, Darquisha.

 September 12, 2009 • Michie Stadium

- Richmond QB Eric Ward passed for 143 yards to lead the defending FCS champion Spiders past Duke, 24-16, in front of 33,311 fans at Wallace Wade Stadium.
- The Spiders took the lead midway through the opening period by returning a blocked punt for a touchdown, and led 14-9 at intermission. Richmond extended its lead to 24-9 in the fourth period before Duke QB Thaddeus Lewis accounted for the final margin with a 21-yard scoring pass to WR Austin Kelly.
- Lewis completed 34-of-55 passes for 350 yards and two scores on the evening, breaking his own school single-game record for most pass attempts without an interception.
- Blue Devil WR Johnny Williams had seven receptions for 115 yards including a 54-yard touchdown.
- LB Vincent Rey paced Duke with 14 tackles.
- Richmond held the Blue Devils to just 19 net rushing yards and won the time of possession battle, 33:22 to 26:38.
- Neither team committed a turnover.
- The crowd of 33,311 was Duke's largest at home since 2001.
