NEED TO KNOW

- Duke enters the 2017 NCAA Tournament as a No. 1 seed for the second time in school history, the other coming in 2011. This is the 23rd NCAA appearance and 14th in the last 15 seasons for the Blue Devils.
- The Blue Devils captured its third ACC regular season championship and first since 2011 with a perfect 10-0-0 record in conference play. Duke is the first program since Virginia went 13-0-0 in 2013 to finish with a perfect record in the league.
- Duke took home four of the five ACC individual awards and a league high nine All-ACC honors last week. Robbie Church was named Coach of the Year, while Imani Dorsey (Offensive POTY), Schuyler DeBree (Defensive POTY) and Rebecca Quinn (Midfielder of the Year) pulled in the other three honors.
- Duke won a program best 19-straight matches from Aug. 20 - Nov. 3. The previous record was eight straight in 2000.
- The Blue Devils' 19 wins in 2017 are second in DWS history. The school record is 22, set in 2011.
- Robbie Church's squad shut out eight of its 10 ACC opponents, which set a new school record, breaking the previous one set in 2011 with seven.
- Leading the Duke attack are junior Kayla McCoy and senior Imani Dorsey, who lead the squad with 28 and 27 points along with 11 and 10 goals, respectively. Dorsey has tallied a point in 14 matches, while McCoy has five goals and four assists in the last 10 contests.

Burns, DeBree and Reid have started all 21 contests and recorded 13 clean sheets. Reid has gone the distance in 19 matches this year, while DeBree has 18 such performances and Burns and Mitchell have 12.
- Senior EJ Proctor has been nothing short of dominant in goal this year. She has drawn 19 starts (1634:09 minutes) and leads the ACC in goals against average (0.44) and save percentage (.846). She is second in the league with 10 shutouts and is third in the Duke record book with 31 for her career.

No. 1 On The Dance Floor...

For just the second time in school history, the Blue Devils will enter the NCAA Tournament as one of the field's four No. 1 seeds. Duke's stellar season, which featured a program record 19-match winning streak and the third ACC regular season title in school history, propelled the squad to a top seed. The only other time this feat was accomplished was in 2011, when Duke made one of its three College Cup appearances in school history.

The selection marks the 23rd time in history that the Blue Devils have made the Big Dance and the 14th time in the last 15 seasons.

Setting The Scene...

The Blue Devils took down the fourth seed Virginia Cavaliers on Friday to advance to their first ACC Tournament Final in 17 seasons thanks to a goal from Ella Stevens early in the second half, with assists going to Schuyler DeBree and Chelsea Burns. However, Duke would fall in the championship match to No. 2 North Carolina, who scored in the opening minute of the second half and fought off a number of Blue Devil attempts to secure the victory.

Friday, Nov. 3

No. 1 Duke def. No. 4 Virginia, 1-0

Sunday, Nov. 5

No. 2 North Carolina def. No. 1 Duke, 1-0

A Win Would...

- Give Duke a win in its NCAA Tournament opener for the 7th-straight appearance
- Be the 20th win of the season, putting the Blue Devils two wins from tying the school record
- Improve Duke's NCAA Tournament record to 34-20-9
- Be Duke's first NCAA Tournament win against UNCG (0-1-0)

Duke In The Top 25...

The Blue Devils enter the opening week of NCAA Tournament play ranked third in the nation. Duke has been ranked in the top five across the board for eight-straight weeks.

A Look At The RPI...

The first official NCAA women's soccer RPI was released seven weeks ago, with Duke opening the year at No. 6. That is the highest Duke has begun a season in the RPI since starting out at No. 3 in the first rankings of 2011. Duke moved up to No. 4 six weeks ago and held strong there in the latest release. UNCG is ranked 104th.

A Look At The Spartans...

UNCG is looking to improve its winning streak to seven-straight matches after capturing the SoCon Tournament title last week. UNCG is led by Cienna Rideout, who tops the team with seven goals and 16 points. Aiyannah Tyler-Cooper has been the mainstay in goal, allowing 18 scores (0.93 GAA) in 1747:59 minutes of work with 97 saves.

The Series With UNCG..

Saturday will mark the first time these two programs have met since 2011, which was a 2-0 win for Duke. The Blue Devils lead the series, 13-5-0, but UNCG owns the one meeting in NCAA Tournament play, a 3-1 decision in 1997.

We Are The Champions...

Thanks to a Notre Dame-UNC draw and a 1-0 victory at No. 10 Virginia on the final night of the regular season, the Blue Devils captured the third ACC regular season championship in program history and first since 2011. Duke capped a perfect 10-0-0 conference season, becoming the first team since Virginia in 2013 to finish perfect in ACC play. The conference crown makes the Blue Devils the second school in ACC history to capture at least three regular season titles, joining North Carolina.

All ACC, All Duke...

Last Thursday's announcement of the 2017 All-ACC Awards just kept reaffirming what we already know. Duke has been nothing short of dominant. There were 13 total honors for the Blue Devils, with four individual awards and a league-high and program record nine All-ACC selections. Robbie Church was named ACC Coach of the Year for the second time in his career (2011) and becomes the sixth coach in ACC history to earn the award multiple times.

Imani Dorsey (Offensive POTY), Schuyler DeBree (Defensive POTY) and Rebecca Quinn (Midfielder of the Year) pulled in the individual honors. Dorsey, DeBree and Quinn were also named All-ACC First Team, along with Kayla McCoy and EJ Proctor. Ella Stevens and Taylor Racioppi were tabbed All-ACC Second Team, while Ashton Miller earned third team laurels and Taylor Mitchell was named to the conference's freshman team.

Showing Out In The Classroom...

Duke women's soccer has a long tradition of excellence in the classroom and on Thursday, that tradition carried on. Imani Dorsey, Schuyler DeBree, EJ Proctor, Kayla McCoy and Chelsea Burns were tabbed CoSIDA Academic All-District III First Team, putting them on the ballot to be named CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in December.

Long Time, No See...

Friday's win catapulted Duke to the ACC Tournament Finals for just the fifth time in history, the first time in 17 seasons and the first time in the Robbie Church era.

A Streak For The Record Books...

When the 2017 season is looked back upon, one of the major headlines will be the incredible 19-match winning streak the Blue Devils put together from Aug. 20 - Nov. 3. During the longest winning streak in DWS history, Duke defeated six ranked opponents, shut out 13 foes and went 2-0 at its home tournament for the first time since 2012. The 19-game stretch of wins was the longest in Duke athletics history since the men's basketball program reeled off 25-straight wins from 2010-11 and finished tied for the 12th-longest streak in the athletic department's history.

Another Day, Another Record Broken...

The winning streak was not the only record the Blue Devils own this year. Duke racked up a program record 10 ACC wins, defeating Virginia Tech, No. 18 Notre Dame, Pitt, Louisville, NC State, No. 16 Florida State, Miami, Boston College, Syracuse and No. 10 Virginia.

Early Goal Emphasis...

Heading into the Florida State contest, head coach Robbie Church put a heavy emphasis on scoring within the first 15 minutes of play and his squad responded. Prior to that game, Duke had just one score within the first 15 minutes, but since then Ella Stevens (2:37 vs. Florida State), Taylor Racioppi (3:35 at Boston College), Kayla McCoy (8:21 at Syracuse) and Chelsea Burns (13:01 vs. Boston College, ACCT) have netted early goals.

A majority of Duke's 45 goals have come midway through the first half and in the early portion of the second, as the it has tallied 10 in the 45:01 - 60:00 stretch and nine from 15:01 - 30:00. Twenty-three scores have come in the second half.

Perfect Year At Koskinen...

Duke is a perfect 11-0-0 at home this year. That currently stands second in school history in single-season home wins, three away from tying the record of 14 set in 2011.

Set Em Up, Shut Em Down...

There have been a number of storylines to this year's Duke women's soccer squad, but one of the best has been the play of the Blue Devil defense. On the year, Duke has allowed just 10 goals, outscoring opponents 45-10, and has posted 13 total shutouts after the Virginia win last Friday. Over the last 10 matches, the Blue Devils have outscored foes 20-5 and shut out six opponents, including picking up three ranked victories.

Duke leads the ACC with a .472 goals against average and a .619 shutout percentage, which stand 11th and 13th in the NCAA, respectively. The Blue Devils kept the performance going strong through ACC play, as they earned clean sheets against eight of their 10 conference opponents. That mark is the most in program history.

Goals On Goals On Goals...

The Blue Devils continue to dominate on the offensive side of the ball as well, tallying 16 multi-goal matches this season. Duke has scored 45 times, which leads the ACC and is 11th in the NCAA. Ten Blue Devils have scored this year, showing the array of weapons coach Robbie Church has at his disposal, led by junior Kayla McCoy (11 goals) and senior Imani Dorsey (10 goals).

Proctor Nearly Flawless Between The Posts...

It's been business as usual for EJ Proctor this season. She has been solely responsible for 10 of Duke's 13 shutouts this year, putting her career total at 31, which is third in Duke history.

On the year, Proctor leads the ACC in goals against average (.441) and save percentage (.846), standing ninth and 31st in the nation. She is also second in the conference and 12th in the nation with her 10 clean sheets.

Racking Up The Trophies On A Weekly Basis...

For the fifth week this season, a Blue Devil brought home a weekly honor, as Chelsea Burns and Kayla McCoy took their turn in the spotlight.

Burns was tabbed the ACC Defensive Player of the Week after a weekend that saw her help shutout No. 10 Virginia and tally her sixth goal against Boston College in the opening round of the ACC Tournament. It is the first weekly honor in Burns' career and the third for a Blue Devil this season, marking the third-straight season that Duke has earned at least three weekly awards.

After tallying a goal and two assists, including the dime on the game winner at No. 10 Virginia, McCoy was named to the TopDrawerSoccer Team of the Week. This is the first weekly honor of the season for McCoy and her first since earning ACC Co-Offensive Player of the Week honors on Sept. 20, 2016.

DeBree's Golazo Spurs Duke To Victory At BC...

Senior Schuyler DeBree made her first-career goal one she'll never forget, drilling a 45-yard free kick over the keeper to give Duke its winning goal at Boston College. DeBree's strike garnered national attention, landing at No. 6 in SportsCenter's Top 10 Plays. The goal came on her first trip back to BC since 2015, when an ACL tear ended her sophomore season early.

No Shots For You...

The Blue Devils put together one of the most dominating defensive showings in school history against Miami, shutting out the visitors, 3-0, and holding them without a shot. That is the first time Duke has held an opponent shotless since Aug. 29, 2003, when it defeated Campbell, 6-0.

Shutting It Down In September...

To say that the Blue Devils enjoyed the month of September would be a bit of an understatement. Duke went 8-0 during the month, including wins against three ranked opponents (4-0 at No. 3 WVU; 2-1 vs. No. 21 Utah; 3-0 at No. 18 Notre Dame). Church's squad was lights out on defense in that stretch, outscoring opponents 20-3 and shutting out six opponents, with five of those coming from senior EJ Proctor. The stretch marked the first time in school history that the Blue Devils have swept through the month of September with a perfect record.

No More Drought Against Louisville...

Before the match on Sept. 29, neither Duke or Louisville had ever tallied a goal in the previous four meetings. Four matches, four ties, presenting one of the most unlikely trends in the sport.

That all ended that Friday, as Duke captured the first win in series history with a 3-2 victory. The only constant that remains? It took two overtimes to capture the win, continuing the streak that none of the five meetings between the two teams have ended in regulation.

Burns Continues PK Excellence...

Junior Chelsea Burns continued her streak of PK excellence against Virginia Tech, putting one into the back of the net just before the half to secure her third game-winning goal of the season. The Jacksonville, Fla., native is 4-for-5 this season on penalty kicks.

Blue Devils Reel In Weekly Awards...

Another successful weekend meant a number of awards coming in for the Blue Devils. For her shutout performance at No. 3 West Virginia and season-high five saves to go with it, senior EJ Proctor was named the ACC Defensive Player of the Week. It's the third weekly honor of the Wilson, N.C., native's career, as she earned DPOTW honors Sept. 1, 2015 and Oct. 11, 2016.

Fellow senior Imani Dorsey has also pulled in a number of awards, landing on TopDrawerSoccer's Team of the Week three-straight weeks from Sept. 5-19. She was also tabbed the Duke Student-Athlete of the Week on Sept. 13.

Most recently, Schuyler DeBree was tabbed ACC Co-Defensive Player of the Week on Oct. 10 after a pair of shutouts, while Ella Stevens earned her first TDS Team of the Week honor of the year that same week.

First Meetings, First Wins...

With the win against Utah, the Blue Devils have swept all three of their first-time opponents for the 2017 regular season. Along with the 2-1 comeback victory against the Utes, Duke defeated Xavier, 3-1, and Bucknell, 2-0, in its other battles against first-time opponents.

Monday Night Thriller At Koskinen...

With their backs against the wall and less than 15 minutes remaining in the match, the Blue Devils mounted a big-time comeback to take down No. 21 Utah, 2-1. A goal at the 48:56 mark gave the Utes a 1-0 lead and had Duke trailing in a contest for the first time this season. Then the clock hit the 82nd minute and everything changed.

On a beautiful cross into the box from Taylor Mitchell came a Kayla McCoy header into the back of the goal that tied things up at 1-1. The junior's third goal in the last two games had everyone thinking overtime until 45 seconds later. There Rebecca Quinn fought off Utah defenders and caught the keeper sleeping with a rocket shot from about 25 yards out to give the Blue Devils the 2-1 lead it needed to capture victory.

Dorsey's Brush With History...

Senior Imani Dorsey reeled off one of the most impressive stretches in the early stages of the 2017 season. Dorsey earned a point in each of Duke's first seven matches, including a scoring a goal in six-straight contests. Her goal-scoring streak tied a school record set by Casey McCluskey in 2004.

Snapping Streaks In Morgantown...

Friday night's shutout win in Morgantown did more than give the Blue Devils revenge for a pair of losses last season, including a heartbreaker in the NCAA quarterfinals. Duke also delivered West Virginia its first home loss in regulation since Aug. 29, 2014 (43-straight match streak), when the Blue Devils shut out the Mountaineers 2-0.

Goal No. 1 For McDonald...

Junior Kat McDonald is known for her heart, hustle and grind on the field. Friday night she added goal scoring to the list. The Raleigh, N.C., native tallied her first-career goal in Duke's 4-0 win at West Virginia with a running shot from just outside the 18' at the 37:44 mark.

The G.O.A.T. Captures Win No. 200...

Duke's win versus UNCW was more than just a mark in the win column for the Blue Devils. The victory gave head coach Robbie Church his 200th victory as the boss of Duke women's soccer, a career that spans over 17 seasons with 14 NCAA Tournament appearances and two NCAA Finalist nods. With the win, Church becomes the sixth active ACC coach to capture 200 victories at his or her respective school.

Dorsey's Xavier Goal Named A Top Play...

In the final seconds of the Blue Devils' 3-1 victory against Xavier, senior Imani Dorsey took possession on the Duke half of the field and made a run to the left side of the box, finishing with a beautiful shot over the goalie to give the Blue Devils their third goal. That play was named one of NCAA Soccer's top plays from opening weekend, which they announced Tuesday morning on social media.

Looking Back at 2016 NCAA Tournament Run...

Duke advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championship last year behind a 3-0 win against Charlotte, a 3-1 victory versus Illinois State and a 1-0 win against Northwestern. It marked the third time in history the Blue Devils posted three or more goals in the opening rounds of the tournament.

Toni Payne was on fire with three goals and two assists for eight points, while Ella Stevens notched two goals and two assists for six points. Four different Blue Devils scored over the tournament run, while Duke totaled five of its seven goals in the second half.

Duke allowed only seven shots over the first three games of the 2016 NCAA Tournament, which is the fewest allowed by its defense to start a tournament. It is the only time Duke has held three consecutive tournament opponents to three or fewer shots.

Starters Returning...

A number of familiar faces from the 2016 season return this year, as head coach Robbie Church brings back 10 starters and 24 total letterwinners. The 10 returning starters include:

Sr. M/F Imani Dorsey (22 starts, 7 goals, 7 assists, All-ACC)

Newcomers Arrive For 2017 Season...

With the arrival of preseason also comes the arrival of the new crop of Blue Devils, as eight new freshmen began their Duke careers. The 2017 class continued head coach Robbie Church's dominance on the recruiting trail, as the class finished ranked sixth in the nation by TopDrawerSoccer.com. Along with the freshmen, redshirt freshman keeper Brooke Heinsohn will debut, as she missed the 2016 campaign while playing with the U.S. U-20 women's national team.
