In 2009, Duke University and Nike Inc. reached a 10-year sponsorship agreement that will supply all 26 of the Blue Devils' athletics teams with uniforms, footwear, apparel and equipment.

Under the terms of the contract, Nike will phase in its exclusive agreement with all Duke Athletics teams over a three-year period beginning in 2008-09.

Additionally, all officially licensed Blue Devils merchandise sold by Nike will comply with labor policies consistent with Duke's position on worker's rights. Duke has long been a leader in demanding manufacturers of licensed products protect the rights of workers.

In 1997, Duke was the first university in the country to adopt a code of conduct for apparel manufacturers requires licensees, their contractors and sub-contractors to accept independent monitoring of factory working conditions. Two years later, Duke established another standard by requiring its licensees to publicly disclose the names and locations of factories that manufacture Duke items. Duke remains very involved in these issues and committed to ensuring that products bearing its name and/or trademarks are manufactured under decent and humane working conditions.

Nike will provide cash compensation annually to the Duke Department of Athletics over the term of the contract.

Nike will provide annual funding to local charities of Duke's choice.

Each year, one Duke student-athlete will receive a paid internship at Nike headquarters near Beaverton, Ore., beginning in the summer of 2009.

Ambler Tennis Stadium and Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center

Over the past decade, Duke University has invested more than $25 million to make its athletic facilities among the finest in the nation. This commitment is evident in the changes instituted directly for the Blue Devil tennis teams. Duke Athletic Director Kevin White continues to lead the way in providing Duke with top facilities to help student-athletes stay in peak condition.

Originally completed in the summer of 1987, the Duke Tennis Stadium was renovated into the Ambler Tennis Stadium. The facility was funded by Merrill Ambler and features seat-backs for fan seating, a scoreboard, new court surfaces and restrooms.

In addition to the fine outdoor courts, the Duke athletic department completed the Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center in the winter of 2000. Named after Karl and Alice Sheffield, the facility features six courts, offices for the coaches, a hall of fame room and locker rooms. It was awarded the 2000 United States Tennis Association Outstanding Tennis Facility on Feb. 25, 2001. The Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center is only the third tennis center in North Carolina to receive the award since it began in 1981.

The modern training room provides all of the equipment and services necessary to keep the Duke men's and women's tennis teams healthy and in action. The trainer's office is off the main training area, allowing the players convenient access to this care.

The weight room is another extensive area, directed by strength coordinator Dan Perlmutter. The 3,300 square-foot weight room has over three tons of free weights along with Nautilus, Hydra-Gym and Universal stations.

In 2008 the completion of the Michael W. Krzyzewski Center - Dedicated to Academic & Athletic Excellence - provided all of Duke's student-athletes with a new academics center featuring tutorial rooms, dedicated study space, computer lab areas and offices for academics staff, nearly tripling the size of the previous academics area.

Some more recent additions to the tennis facilities include a new state of the art Daktronics indoor scoring system. This project, which was installed in the fall of 2006, includes seven wireless scoreboards. There are six individual scoreboards (one mounted behind each court) that provides the player's name as well as the game and set scores. The main scoreboard shows the dual match score and scores of all six courts. Also the six main outdoor courts have been resurfaced in the US Open (Duke) blue color.

In 2015, Duke installed the Playsight system, which improved the quality of live streaming feeds on all 12 courts, while also allowing for the recording of play across all indoor and outdoor competition surfaces. In addition, a SmartCourt was designated on one indoor court, allowing for a variety of training tools and functions to maximize results from each practice.

General Information

- There is no charge for tennis matches. All indoor matches occur in the Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center. All outdoor tennis matches occur in the Ambler Tennis Stadium.
- The entrance to the Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center is located between the Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center and the Ambler Tennis Stadium.
- The handicap entrance to the Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center is located on the south side of the Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center.
- The entrance to the Ambler Tennis Stadium is located behind the bleachers of the stadium via the stairwells.
- Handicap seating is located on the south side of the courts closest to Krzyzewskiville.
- Restrooms in the Sheffield Tennis Center are located on court level under the bleachers.
- Restrooms in the Ambler Tennis Stadium are located underneath the bleachers between the two stairwells.

One of the winningest women's tennis coaches in the nation, Jamie Ashworth has led the Blue Devils to new heights. Since becoming the head coach in 1997, he has led the program to 17 20-win seasons and 23 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances. Under his guidance in 2009, the Blue Devils reached the pinnacle of success as they captured the program's first NCAA Championship. Over the past 20 years at the helm of the program, he has led Duke to a 522-129 (.802) overall record and a 201-40 (.834) ACC mark, while advancing to the NCAA semifinals 10 times, the NCAA Championship match twice and notching ACC Tournament Championships on eight occasions.

Following the 2014 NCAA Team Championships, Ashworth was named the Wilson/ITA National Coach of the Year, as voted on by his peers. He is also a three-time ACC Coach of the Year (2001, 2003 & 2018) recipient and five-time ITA Regional Coach of the Year (2000, 2003, 2008, 2011 & 2014).

The 2019 season saw the fourth-ranked Blue Devils finish 24-3 overall and 13-1 in league play, marking the sixth-consecutive season Duke has reached double-digit conference wins and the ninth time in 11 years. Duke also reached the NCAA Tournament for the 23rd-consecutive season and saw back-to-back trips to the semifinals on the national stage. Individually, Duke placed three student-athletes on the All-ACC list, five ITA scholar-athletes and had three singles and three doubles teams in the ITA poll.

Duke added another ACC regular season championship under Ashworth in 2017. The Blue Devils finished 13-1 against conference opponents to take a share of the regular season crown. It was the fourth straight season Duke reached double-digit conference wins and the seventh time in nine years. Duke reached the NCAA Tournament for the 21st-consecutive season and returned to the round of 16. Ashworth once again guided the Blue Devils to the ITA National Team Indoor Championships, led the Blue Devils to a final ranking of 12th in the nation. With the win over No. 23 Northwestern on Feb. 5, Ashworth collected his 450th career victory.

Individually, Duke placed three competitors on the All-ACC list and Duke now leads all other programs in the conference with 107 All-ACC selections. The Blue Devils had five players represented in the ITA singles polls as well as three doubles pairs.

Duke's success under Ashworth continued in 2016, as the team once again qualified for the NCAA Tournament and played into the second round, marking the Blue Devils' 20th-consecutive appearance in the national competition with Ashworth at the helm. Overall, Duke concluded the season with a 19-7 ledger, while also compiling an 11-3 record against ACC competition.

Individually, Duke placed a conference-best five competitors on the All-ACC list, with Beatrice Capra garnering recognition for the fourth time in her career. Capra also garnered Carolina Region Senior Player of the Year honors for her efforts throughout the season. The Blue Devils were well represented in the singles and doubles rankings as well, with no fewer than three singles players and two doubles pairs appearing among those ranked in the national poll during the 2016 campaign.

The 2015 season saw Ashworth once again guide the Blue Devils to the NCAA Tennis Championships tournament, where the team played into the second round of the event. Overall, Duke earned a record of 17-10, the 19th straight season the Blue Devils compiled a winning record under Ashworth's guidance. In addition, Duke amassed a conference mark of 11-3, the fifth time in seven years the Blue Devils earned double-digit victories against ACC foes. The Ashworth-led Blue Devils also earned a berth into the ITA National Team Indoor Championships earlier in the year after opening the dual match season with back-to-back wins during the ITA Kickoff Weekend in Durham, N.C.

Multiple Blue Devils saw success individually as well in 2015, with Duke placing three players on the All-ACC team, including four-time honoree, Ester Goldfeld. Three Blue Devils also remained stalwart representatives among the nationally ranked singles players in the country, with all three concluding the year within the top 100. Two doubles pairs also finished the season among the top 60 ranked pairs in the nation. Under Ashworth's tutelage, freshman Samantha Harris earned ITA Carolina Region Rookie of the Year honors. Ashworth's continued emphasis on academics was also made evident by three Blue Devils earning spots on the All-ACC academic team.

In 2014, Ashworth once again led the Blue Devils to the NCAA Tennis Championships tournament, marking the team's 18th consecutive trip to the national tournament during his tenure. Duke reached the quarterfinal round for the 12th time with Ashworth as head coach. The Blue Devils bounced back from an injury-plagued 2012-13 season by posting a 27-5 overall record and an 11-3 conference mark. Duke opened 2014 with eight consecutive wins, four of which came during the ITA National Team Indoor Championships, where the Blue Devils earned the second ITA National Team Indoor Championship title in program history in a hard-fought contest against No. 5 UCLA. Although Duke was recognized nationally throughout the year, the Blue Devils jumped to No. 1 following their showing in the tournament, a ranking the team held for five consecutive weeks from March 18 through April 15.

Individually, three singles players ranked among the top 35 in the nation at the conclusion of the season, and four doubles pairs appeared in the top-80 of the nationally ranked doubles teams. Three All-America honors were also earned by members of the Duke team, in addition to three All-ACC accolades in 2014. With Ashworth's assistance Hanna Mar earned the ITA Carolina Region Senior Player of the Year award following a stellar senior campaign. In addition, Mar received the Most Outstanding Player honor at the conclusion of the ITA National Team Indoor Championship, during which she remained undefeated and clinched Duke's team title by securing the final singles point in a hotly-contested match against UCLA.

The 2013 season marked Duke's 17th consecutive trip to the NCAA tournament with Ashworth at the helm, as the Blue Devils reached the round of 16 for the sixth time in as many years. Ashworth guided an injury-plagued Blue Devils squad to a 16-10 overall record and 5-5 ACC ledger. The Blue Devils closed the season with a 14th-place ranking on the ITA list. In addition to the team ranking, the Blue Devils also posted four singles players and four doubles pairs on the list. Three members of the Blue Devil squad garnered All-ACC honors, the 31st, 32nd and 33rd players to earn such an honor during Ashworth's tenure.

In 2012, Ashworth led Duke to a 29-3 (.906) record overall to become the ACC's all-time wins leader. Duke finished 11-0 in the ACC to become the first team in ACC history to have a perfect 11-0 record and win the ACC tournament in the same season. The team's 29 wins tied the 2009 national championship team for the second most in a season, while the Blue Devils also tied the 2009 team for the second-longest winning streak in program history with 18 straight victories. The 2012 campaign was the fifth straight 20-win season for the program, and the eighth time that the Blue Devils reached the 25-win plateau during Ashworth's tenure. The Blue Devils reached the NCAA semifinals for the eighth time in program history, and finished the season listed No. 3 in the Intercollegiate Tennis Association's final team rankings for the second consecutive year. The Blue Devils ended the season with six players ranked in the final ITA poll, four players named to the All-ACC team, and freshman Beatrice Capra honored as ACC Player of the Year.

The 2011 season saw Ashworth lead the program to its third straight quarterfinal appearance and the 16th overall in the NCAA Championships. The Blue Devils finished the season ranked No. 3, and had all six singles players and four teams of doubles in the final ITA rankings. Nadine Fahoum, Rachel Kahan, Ellah Nze and Reka Zsilinszka were All-ACC selections. Kahan was named ACC Freshman of the Year, while Nze and Zsilinszka each concluded their college careers with four consecutive All-ACC honors.

In 2010, Ashworth reached another milestone in his career as he garnered his 300th career victory when the Blue Devils blanked ACC foe NC State 7-0 on Feb. 25, 2010. Duke posted a 22-8 overall record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals. Duke also landed four players on the All-ACC Academic team.

Under Ashworth's guidance in 2009, Duke posted 29-3 overall record and finished the year on an 18-match win streak after blanking California 4-0 in the national title match. Both numbers rank second all-time in Duke tennis history.

Just a week after capturing the team title, Ashworth helped mentor Blue Devil freshman Mallory Cecil to the NCAA Individual Singles Championship and a No. 1 national ranking. Under his watch, Cecil, Ellah Nze and Reka Zsilinszka all captured All-America honors for singles, while Cecil was named the ITA Player of the Year. Duke was equally impressive in the classroom in 2008-09, landing an ACC-best five players on the All-ACC Academic team.

In addition to the NCAA title, the Blue Devils captured a share of the ACC regular season title and won the ACC Tournament Championship in thrilling fashion. Five Blue Devils earned at-large bids to the NCAA Tournament and seven players were ranked in the final ITA national poll.

In 2007-08, Ashworth helped put Duke back in the forefront of the nation's best teams, leading the Blue Devils to a 20-5 overall record and a runner-up finish in the ACC. Ranked ninth in the final national poll, Duke reached the NCAA Tournament for the 19th straight year and the 20th time overall. The Blue Devils advanced to the round of 16 as a team and had three individuals capture All-America honors after earning spots in the individuals tournament round of 16.

The 2006-07 campaign saw Duke go 12-10 (5-6

ACC) and reach the NCAA Tournament for the 18th straight year and 19th time overall. The Blue Devils finished the season with a national ranking of No. 21, led by sophomore Melissa Mang, who received All-ACC recognition for the second straight year, and freshman Amanda Granson, who led the squad in singles wins (23), dual match victories (15) and ACC triumphs (eight).

In 2005-06, Ashworth rounded out a decade as the head coach of the women's tennis program. His 10th year saw the Blue Devils go 20-8 overall and 9-1 in ACC play. Mang became the sixth Blue Devil freshman overall and third under Ashworth (Ansley Cargill, 2001; Kelly McCain, 2002) to receive ACC Rookie of the Year honors, as she also received All-ACC accolades along with Bercek and Jackie Carleton. Bercek and Carleton each received bids to the NCAA Singles Championships and Bercek garnered her third career All-America nod. The Blue Devils ended the campaign ranked ninth in the country.

After serving as a Duke assistant coach from 1994-95 through 1996-97, Ashworth took over the head coaching reigns on March 20, 1997, and paced Duke to a 12-1 overall record and a 4-0 conference mark to wrap up the season.

In his first full year as a head coach (1997-98), Ashworth led Duke to 27 wins, then a school record, the school's 11th consecutive ACC regular season and tournament titles, Duke's best final national ranking at No. 2, its third consecutive Final Four and the program's first appearance in the NCAA title match.

The 1998-99 season was no letdown as he guided Duke to 27 wins, its 12th consecutive ACC regular season and tournament titles, its fourth straight NCAA semifinal appearance and a final No. 3 national ranking.

In 1999-2000, Ashworth guided a young Blue Devil team to a 23-6 record, a 13th consecutive ACC Tournament title and a Sweet 16 NCAA finish. The following campaign (2000-01) saw Ashworth lead the Blue Devils to 27 victories and an Elite Eight NCAA finish, along with Duke's 14th consecutive ACC Championship and an undefeated 8-0 ACC regular season mark.

In 2001-02, Duke posted a 25-5 overall record and won the ACC regular season title with an 8-0 mark. In 2002-03, Ashworth led the Blue Devils back to the NCAA Final Four, tied an ACC record with 30 victories, won the ACC regular season and tournament titles, and claimed the National Team Indoor Championship. With one of his youngest teams in his coaching history, Ashworth led Duke to the Elite Eight and a 22-5 mark in 2003-04.

During Ashworth's term as the assistant coach, the Blue Devils recorded a 59-13 overall record and a perfect 20-0 ACC mark. In his first year as an assistant in 1994-95, Duke went 22-6, advanced to the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals and finished the year ranked No. 7. In 1995-96, he helped pace Duke to a 25-4 mark (then a school record for wins in a season), a trip to the NCAA Final Four and a national ranking of No. 3. In 1996-97, Duke advanced to its second straight NCAA Final Four, finishing the year third in the nation, once again.

Ashworth has coached 34 different All-ACC selections and 26 different All-America honorees, two national champions and Six collegiate grand slam champions during his stint with the Blue Devils. That list that includes four-time All-America and 1998 NCAA singles national champion, Vanessa Webb, who is Duke tennis' only Honda Award winner and Olympian.

A 1994 speech communication graduate of Maryland, Ashworth was a four-year letterwinner for the Terrapins and served as a captain of the team his junior and senior years. He recently served on the ITA Board of Directors for the fifth year and just finished his sixth year on the Division I Women's Tennis Operating Committee.

A native of Amherst, N.H., Ashworth resides with his wife Caylan, his son Bryce and his daughter Molly in Durham.

MICHELLE DASSO

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

NOTRE DAME '01
SECOND SEASON

Michelle Dasso joined the Duke women's tennis program in September of 2019 and serves as the associate head coach.

Dasso was one of the most decorated women's tennis players in Notre Dame history and was the Fighting Irish's first four-time All-American. She was named the ITA National Senior Player of the year in 2001 and still holds almost every Notre Dame record, including career singles victories (140), season singles victories (40) and combined wins in one season (74). Dasso was the 2001 recipient of the Francis Patrick O'Conner Award, presented annually by the University to student-athletes who best display the total embodiment of the true spirit of Notre Dame.

Dasso served as head coach at the University of Illinois from 2006-2015, where her teams posted a record of 122-98, including a 56-38 mark in Big Ten Conference play during that span. Dasso guided the Illini to four NCAA tournament appearances and her 2012 team earned a national ranking of No. 21.

A native of Long Grove, Illinois, Dasso helped Notre Dame to a 54-24 (.692) record during her first stint as an assistant (2003-06) in South Bend. She was named the 2006 ITA National Assistant Coach of the Year after helping the Irish to a 27-2 record and an all-time high ranking of No. 2 in the country for eight weeks before falling in the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championship. In the fall of 2005, she handled the on-court coaching as twins Catrina Thompson and Christian Thompson won the doubles crown in the ITA All-American Championships, marking Notre Dame's first grand-slam title. The Thompsons became ND's first-ever national No. 1-ranked team in the spring of 2005.

She spent the 2015-16 season as a volunteer assistant at Duke for head coach Jamie Ashworth and the 2016-17 campaign as an assistant coach under Claire Pollard at Northwestern before returning to her alma mater in the summer of 2017 to work under head coach Jay Louderback.

Most recently, Dasso was the head coach at Campbell during the 2018-19 season and helped guide the Camels to the semifinals of the Big South tournament.

STEPHEN P. WARD

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH
FIRST SEASON

Stephen P. Ward joined the Blue Devils Women's Tennis team as the volunteer assistant coach in November of 2021. Ward returns to the ACC after a successful four year stint as the assistant Men's Tennis coach for the N.C. State Wolfpack from 2008-2012.

In addition to his background in college coaching, Ward serves as the Head of Development at Hope Valley Country Club where he has been a teaching professional since 2015. He is also the Head Varsity Girls coach at Durham Academy. During his two years leading the Cavaliers, DA went 16-1 in the TISAC and finished 4th in the class 4 NC State Championship Tournament in 2020, followed up by a 3rd place finish in 2021.

Ward received his BBA in finance from The College of William and Mary where he finished top 5 all-time in singles victories and top 10 in doubles. Upon graduation, Ward won 11 titles on the French Federation of Tennis (FFT) circuit, and represented La Baule (FR) in Club play. Ward received his M.B.A from Fordham University in NYC.

TARA MOORE
ATHLETIC TRAINER
SOUTHERN MAINE '13
SIXTH SEASON

Tara Moore joined the Duke University Athletic Training staff in February of 2015.

A native of Portland, Maine, Moore graduated from the University of Southern Maine in 2013 with a bachelor's of science degree in athletic training. She was also a member of the women's soccer program at Southern Maine.

Moore served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at the University of Alabama prior to arriving in Durham.

ALEX MERRILL
CONDITIONING
KEENE STATE '08
11TH SEASON

Alex Merrill joined the Duke strength and conditioning staff in September of 2010.

Merrill oversees program design and implementation for men's and women's golf, wrestling and track & field.

Before joining Duke, Merrill was the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach at Attain Sports Performance, a private training facility in Western Massachusetts.

He holds a Bachelor's degree from Keene State College in Physical Education and a Master's degree from Springfield College in Applied Exercise Science. He is a Certified Strength & Conditioning Specialist through the National Strength & Conditioning Association.

Merrill also earned certification from Nike Golf 360 in 2013. The Nike Golf 360 is a holistic approach to improving golfers' performance through physical evaluation and training, custom fitting of equipment and digital tracking tools.

Nina King

VICE PRESIDENT & DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
NOTRE DAME '00

After 13 years on the department's executive leadership team, Nina King was named Duke's Vice President, Director of Athletics and Adjunct Professor of Business Administration on May 19, 2021. King succeeded Kevin M. White, who retired after 13 years in the post.

In 2021-22, King will serve as the Chair of the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee for the second consecutive year. The 10-person group's charge, among many duties, is the selection, seeding, and bracketing for the annual NCAA Women's Basketball Championship. King also serves on several ACC and Duke University committees and previously was a member of the NCAA Committee on Institutional Performance.

In addition, King teaches a sports business course in Duke's Fuqua School of Business as part of Duke's MBA program. She also championed the creation and launch of the Rubenstein-Bing ACE program, a collaboration between Stanford and Duke for global civic engagement for student-athletes from both athletic departments.

In her former role within the Duke Athletics leadership group, King facilitated daily operation and oversight of the department, had oversight responsibilities for the Human Resource operation, Recreation and Physical Education program, and all legal matters, including the development and execution of department contracts while serving as the liaison to the University Legal Counsel Office. She led the senior staff/sport administrator group that is responsible for administration of Duke's 27 varsity sports. In addition, she assisted with oversight and planning for special projects within the department, coordinated strategic planning initiatives and is the primary contact between Duke Athletics and the university administration, including the Board of Trustees, President's office, and senior administration. She also handled the primary administrative duties for Duke's women's basketball and football programs.

In February of 2018, King was named to Sports Business

Journal's Forty Under 40 Class of 2018. The annual list honors 40 executives for excellence and innovation in their respective careers, all before the age of 40. Later that year, she was tapped to the Leaders Under 40 Class of 2018, honoring sports business executives from around the world. In 2019, Sports Business Journal named King among the leading power players in college sports, while Adidas selected her to the "Next Up" class in 2016, which recognized senior-level administrators ready to take the next step as athletic directors.

Born October 3, 1978 in Tampa, Fla., King received her bachelor's degree in accountancy from the University of Notre Dame in 2000 where she served as a student manager and eventually the head manager for the women's swimming and diving program, and her juris doctor degree from Tulane Law School in 2005. She served internships in the Notre Dame Athletics Department, NCAA and Nike, Inc.

Prior to joining Duke University, King served as the Director of Rules Education in the Notre Dame Athletics Department from 2005-08.

King is a member of Women Leaders in College Sports, Sports Lawyers Association, University of Notre Dame National Monogram Club and the Florida Bar Association. Additionally, King serves on the Arizona State University College of Law Sports Law and Business Program Advisory Board as well as the Durham Academy Board of Trustees.

King and her husband, Rick, reside in Durham and are the parents of Connor Stephan and Austin Casey.

ACC TOURNAMENT HISTORY

From 1977 through the 1981 season, the ACC women's tennis tournament was held in the fall. Starting with the 1982-83 academic year, the tournament took place in the spring. Beginning with the 1986 tournament, the order of finish was determined on the basis of dual match format. Beginning in 1990, the tournament determined the ACC team champion while the singles and doubles champions were determined in regular-season play.

2009 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS

After watching Duke roll through 12 straight victories en route to both the ACC regular season and ACC Tournament titles, head coach Jamie Ashworth truly allowed the reality of winning the national championship started to creep into his mind. He liked the attitude of his team and that they had been in almost every imaginable situation on the court.

"I think towards the end of the regular season, just the attitude [really put the national championship in sight]," Ashworth said. "The ACC tournament match against North Carolina, it was then when I saw that how well we were playing in doubles. That was the first time that I really thought that we could win the whole thing."

The Blue Devils earned the No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament and hosted the opening two rounds at Ambler Tennis Stadium. While they knew they had to be ready for every match, the one match circled on everyone's calendar was the potential quarterfinal contest with ACC rival Miami.

"We had this whole thing of thinking that the winner of us and Miami is going to win the national title," Ashworth said.

After clearing the way to College Station with wins over Richmond and Virginia, Ashworth noticed a certain swagger about his team.

"This was the first team I've ever had that wasn't going into the round of 16 with the mindset of, 'we could win it', but they honestly believed that they should win it, and it was such a noticeable thing," Ashworth said.

The Blue Devils met up with Arkansas in the round of 16 and for the first time since April 1, they lost the doubles point. Ashworth saw the loss as a wakeup call for his team. The squad quickly rebounded with four singles wins to earn a spot in the quarterfinal round against Miami.

The quarterfinal match that Duke circled had arrived and the Blue Devils were confident heading into the contest against the Hurricanes.

This time though, the match was filled with less drama. Duke took the doubles point with wins from Mang and Granson at No. 1 and Ellah Nze and Zsilinszka at No. 2.

Cecil came out on fire in singles and got off the court quickly with a 6-2, 6-1 win to give Duke a 2-0 lead in the match. Miami got a point back to make it 2-1. Unfolding on court four was perhaps the highlight of the match. Granson, who had lost to Michaela Kissell twice before, turned in a stellar performance. The junior dropped the opening set 6-3, but buckled down to take the next two sets 6-1, 6-3 and put Duke ahead 3-1. Zsilinszka clinched the match and sent Duke to its first semifinal appearance since 2003.

"We had a lot of confidence in that match, especially when we won doubles," Ashworth said. "We just had a belief that we were going to win. I think beating Miami in the quarters of the NCAA tournament was the biggest match for us the entire year, because it let our team realize that if we got by them, we could win the tournament."

As predicted, the quarterfinal proved to be Duke's toughest test of the tournament. The Blue Devils raced past Georgia 5-2 in the semifinals despite No. 1 Cecil losing her first match since March 22.

"I hate to see people lose, but it showed our team that we could beat a top five team without [Mallory] winning," Ashworth said. "It all started with the doubles."

Riding high on its 17-match win streak, Duke made it 18 with the biggest victory of the year on May 19. The Blue Devils took on No. 8 California in the title tilt and made quick work of the Bears in a 4-0 victory.

Doubles play was strong with wins at No. 2 and No. 3, and Zsilinszka made quick work of her opponent in singles action for the 2-0 lead. Then the magic started to unfold on courts five and six.

Playing in the final match of their careers, the senior tandem of Mang and Robinson stamped Duke's place in the history book as they won their matches within moments of each other. Robinson turned in a furious rally in the second set to come back from a 4-2 deficit to win 6-2, 6-4 at No. 6. At the opposite end of the stadium it was Mang punching the ticket for the Blue Devils with a forehand winner for the 6-1, 6-3 triumph at No. 5.

"It's unbelievable," Robinson said following the match. "I don't even have any words to describe the feeling. I love these girls and it's an amazing feeling."

"It hasn't quite sunk in yet, but it's unbelievable," Mang said. "I'm just so proud of these girls. To win this with Jess [Robinson] in our senior year is amazing. I could not ask for anything better."

Zsilinszka took home the tournament's Most Valuable Player Award after going 5-0 and not dropping a single set during the 10 days.

While the talent the Blue Devils possessed on the court was great, it was the team's ability to pull together and fight for each other throughout the season that led them to the top Ashworth believes.

"I think this was by far the closest team I had as far as trusting each other, believing in each other and wanting to win for each other," Ashworth said. "And I think that we had a lot of leaders in different ways and that really was so important to our success. I'm so proud of them. I couldn't have asked for more out of these girls."
