» STORYLINES/OTHER BLUE DEVIL NOTES

- » Kat Rader leads Duke with six goals on the season and she owns 18 over her short career. Since scoring goals in each of the first three matches, Rader has been limited to three goals over the last eight contests. She is coming off registering a penalty kick at Pitt Thursday.
- » Rader has tallied 10 of her 18 goals against ACC opponents over her short career.
- » Since the late loss to Notre Dame, the Duke offense has struggled. The Blue Devils have attempted only seven shots on goal and scored two goals. One of those goals was a penalty kick. In the last three matches, both of Duke's goals have come in the second half and all three opponents' goals have also come in the second.
- » Duke goalkeeper Leah Freeman is coming off posting a season-high six saves at Pittsburgh. The Blue Devils allowed a season-high 20 shots by the Panthers.

- » Katie Groff and Devin Lynch have connected for two goals off corner kicks this season (West Virginia and East Carolina).
- » Duke scored goals in the first half in the first three games for the first time since the 2017 season. In 2017, the Blue Devils totaled goals in the first half in each of the first seven matches.
- » In her first two seasons, when Kat Rader scores, the Blue Devils feature a 12-3-1 ledger. She became just the sixth Blue Devil to register goals in each of her first three matches to start a season.

Robbie Church

Head Coach

23rd Season

Pfeiffer, '80

Since being named the head coach of the Duke women's soccer program on July 9, 2001, Robbie Church has built the Blue Devils into a national powerhouse, making three NCAA College Cup appearances and capturing a pair of ACC regular season championships over his 22 seasons at the helm. Over his 37-year career, which covers both the men's and women's game, Church has amassed a 470-254-73 (.636) record, while going 374-189-74 (.646) in 28 years as a women's head coach.

The 2011 and 2017 ACC Coach of the Year concluded his 22nd season in Durham in 2022 with a 287-140-63 (.650) record and has won 120 matches over the last eight seasons, guiding the Blue Devils to NCAA College Cup appearances on two occasions. Church's unparalleled success at Duke over the last 22 years has included 20 NCAA Championship appearances, advancing 14 times to the Round of 16 and 11 times to the Quarterfinals, while reaching the College Cup on three occasions -- 2011, 2015 and 2017.

In 2022, Church once again guided the Blue Devils into the quarterfinals and sophomore Michelle Cooper was named the MAC Hermann Trophy award winner, becoming the first Duke student-athlete to win the award.

Church, who replaced former head coach Bill Hempen in 2001, is only the second coach in Duke's 36-year history. Over the past numerous years, Church has brought in recruiting classes rated in the top 25 by Soccerbuzz.com and TopDrawerSoccer.com - third in 2006, seventh in 2002, eighth in 2003 and 2007, 20th in 2004 and 22nd in 2008. The 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013 classes were listed as one of the top in the nation as well, including the No. 2 class in 2014, No. 6 class in 2015 and 2023, No. 4 in 2016 and No. 5 in 2017 by TopDrawerSoccer.com.

Church earned his 100th career victory as a women's head coach against Florida International on Sept. 20, 2002, and collected his 200th career victory (men and women) on Sept. 26, 2003, against Davidson. With a 2-1 win over California in the 2010 NCAA Championship, Church posted his 200th win as a women's head coach.

Before arriving at Duke, Church compiled a 21-19-1 record in two seasons as head coach at Vanderbilt. He led the Commodores to the Southeastern Conference (SEC) Tournament semifinals in each of his two seasons.

In 1994, Church became the first head coach at UNC Charlotte, a position he held until 1998. While at Charlotte, he guided the 49ers to a 66-30-10 mark in five seasons, including the school's first NCAA Championship bid in 1998 and three Conference USA titles. Church coached men's college teams at Lynn University (1990), East Carolina (1982-84) and Belmont Abbey (1985-89), where he also served as associate athletic director. Church began his career as a head coach at East Carolina from 1982-84. In 1984, he was a men's assistant coach at Duke under John Rennie. After a one-year stint with the Blue Devils, Church accepted the head coach and associate athletic director position at Belmont Abbey.

Over the next five years, he led the Crusaders to a 69-35-1 record, while graduating 90 percent of his players. Included in that stretch were two Carolinas Conference Championships and an NAIA National Tournament appearance in 1989.

Church moved on to the College of Boca Raton, now Lynn University, in 1990, leading the men's team to a 17-4-2 mark. In one season, he guided Boca Raton to the District 25 Championship and the NAIA national finals.

Throughout his 36 years as a college head coach, Church has amassed a record of 455-249-74. He was recognized as the Carolinas Conference and NAIA Coach of the Year in 1989, the NSCAA/adidas South Region Coach of the Year in 2004, the Conference USA Coach of the Year in 1997, the Soccer America National Coach of the Year in 2011, the Southeast Region Coach of the Year in 2011 and the ACC Coach of the Year in 2011. Following the 2019 season, Church was inducted into the North Carolina Soccer Hall of Fame.

In addition, Church was the NAIA South Region Coach of the Year in 1988 and 1989. He was also tabbed the NAIA District 26 Coach of the Year in 1988 and NAIA District 25 Coach of the Year in 1990.

In 1991, Church left the college ranks to become the head men's and women's soccer coach at Charlotte Country Day School. In three seasons at the helm of the men's program, Church compiled a 40-22-9 record, including a state finals appearance in 1993. The women's program was equally successful during his two seasons as head coach, tallying a 24-7-3 mark and winning the 1992 state championship.

A four-year starter at Pfeiffer College, Church was his team's leading scorer and MVP as a senior. He was selected NAIA All-South Region, was an All-Conference performer, and was inducted into the school's Sports Hall of Fame in 1998. He graduated from Pfeiffer with a bachelor of arts degree in health and physical education in 1981. Church went on to earn his master's degree in health and physical education from the University of South Carolina in 1985.

Church and his wife, the former Linda Atkins, have two children, Ashley and Kyle. Ashley is a 2008 graduate of UNC Wilmington and was a four-year letterwinner on the women's soccer team, Kyle is a 2010 graduate of Charlotte and was a four-year letterwinner on the men's basketball squad. The Church family resides in Durham.
