» WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT DUKE

"Offensively it was hard. We knew that was going to be difficult. I said this before the game -- maybe not as much to our kids -- I thought theirs is the best defense that I've seen and we've played against some really good teams both here and at Bucknell over the years. This was the best defense that I've seen on film and they're going to bother a lot of people and have bothered a lot of people."

- Aaron Roussell, Richmond Head Coach (2019-Present); Bucknell Head Coach (2012-2019); University of Chicago Head Coach (2004-2012)

"Against Duke, you really gotta work hard to create easy passes and get the ball moving. They're going to full-court press you. They're gonna put ball pressure, they're going to challenge passing lanes, they're going to take away some passes, they're going to utilize the switch one-through-four to take things away. I think they're a top-20 team in the nation."

- Karl Smesko, FGCU Head Coach (2007-Present | 82.4 Career Winning %)

"They just played so hard. I think that it was once we beat the press, it was after that they sped us up and so we never could get into an offensive flow. Very rarely could we set our offense. I thought Duke did a really good job of never letting us feel comfortable in our offense and got us into a lot of low-clock situations where we had to force up some shots and we never settled down offensively once we got it into half-court."

- Joni Taylor, Texas A&M Head Coach

"Celeste [Taylor] is an All-American. She might be player of the year in the ACC. She's an all-around really good player. She's using every bit of her ability right now."

- Nell Fortner, Georgia Tech Head Coach

BIO SNAPSHOT

Former WNBA and Olympic Champion Kara Lawson was named Duke University's sixth head women's basketball coach on July 11, 2020. Lawson enters her third year at the helm in 2022-23.

Lawson brought her decorated basketball career, both on and off the court, to the Blue Devils after spending the 2020 season as an assistant coach with the Boston Celtics. She helped Boston to a 43-21 record and a third-place standing in the Eastern Conference prior to the stoppage of the 2019-20 NBA season due to COVID-19. Lawson was the Celtics first female coach in the franchise's 73-year history.

Lawson helped Team USA make history in the summer of 2021 as she guided the United States 3x3 Women's National Team to a gold medal in its Olympic debut in Tokyo. It marked her 10th overall gold medal in USA Basketball competition and seventh as a coach. Lawson is one of only three women in Olympic history to win gold as both a player and head coach in basketball, joining Anne Donovan and Dawn Staley.

Her impact on the women's basketball community is evident as she was named one of the 100 most influential people in women's college basketball, as announced by Silver Waves Media in the summer of 2020. Lawson is also a founding board member for the Boston Celtics United for Social Justice.

Following an exceptional playing career, Lawson spent two years as the primary television analyst for the Washington Wizards while also broadcasting games for ESPN Radio. In addition to her role covering the Wizards for NBC Sports Washington, Lawson served as a game and studio analyst for men's and women's college basketball and the NBA for ESPN. On January 12, 2007, she became the first female analyst for a nationally-televised NBA game. Lawson also served as a color announcer during the 2021 Olympics in Tokyo with NBC.
