PAM BUSTIN

A two-time ACC and NFHCA South Region Coach of the Year and a member of the USA Field Hockey Hall of Fame, Pam Bustin enters her 13th season with the Blue Devils. Bustin was introduced as the head coach December 7, 2010, Bustin came in and quickly revitalized the Duke field hockey program as the Blue Devils advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals in her first season at the helm. Bustin was named the 2011 ACC Coach of the Year for her work in her first season.

Over the course of her 12 seasons, Bustin has amassed a 144-96 record. Under Bustin's watch, Duke has earned bids to the NCAA Tournament eight times and advanced to the NCAA title game in 2013. The Blue Devils captured the 2016 ACC regular season title, the first since sharing it in 1990. In addition to the many team honors, Bustin has mentored some of the top Blue Devil players during her time, including 2020 ACC Rookie of the Year Darcy Bourne.

Under Bustin's watch, Duke field hockey has garnered 23 All-America awards, 40 All-ACC honors and 55 NFHCA All-South Region recognitions. Off the field, Duke field hockey is equally as accomplished as the Blue Devils regularly have 20 members represented on the NFHCA All-Academic team as well as on the ACC Academic Honor Roll. In 2021-22, Duke field hockey goaltender Piper Hampsch was awarded an ACC Top Six for Service award for her contributions to the Duke and Durham community.
