TEAM NOTES

THE ROAD TO OKLAHOMA CITY

Over the last three seasons, the Blue Devils have taken the next step to reaching the Women's College World Series.

After reaching the Super Regional round for the first time in 2022, Duke then earned the right to host last season after earning the No. 8 seed - the highest in program history.

This year, Duke earned its fourth-consecutive bid to the NCAA Softball Championship after being selected the No. 10 seed during the 2024 NCAA selection show.

The Blue Devils advanced to the program's third straight Super Regional after going 3-0 in the Durham Regional, defeating Morgan State and South Carolina (twice) ... over the three-game weekend, Duke's pitching staff of Cassidy Curd, Jala Wright and Lillie Walker, relinquished just two runs while striking out 26 combined batters.

Duke then defeated seventh-seeded Missouri, 4-3, in Sunday's nine-inning thriller to punch its ticket to the 2024 Women's College World Series.

D'Auna Jennings sparked the rally in the top of the ninth with a lead-off home run over the right field wall to break the 0-0 deadlock ... A few batters later, Amiah Burgess pushed the Blue Devils ahead again with an RBI-triple to score Francesca Frelick, who reached on a hit by pitch ... Burgess then came home on Ana Gold's RBI-double during the ensuing at-bat ... Kelly Torres followed with another double to right field to plate Gold and extend Duke's lead to 4-0.

The Tigers battled back in the home half with a three-run shot from Abby Hay but the Blue Devils were able to record the final two outs and preserve the win.

Duke is now 13-8 all-time in the NCAA Championship and has outscored its opponents, 93-56, during that stretch.

YOUNG IN THE WCWS

Head coach Marissa Young is set to make her third trip to the NCAA Women's College World Series, but first appearance as a head coach.

MEET THE COACHES

Marissa Young - Head Coach

Seventh Season Michigan, 2003

In her seventh year at the helm of the Duke softball program, Marissa Young holds a 265-104 (.719) career record.

Young guided the program to a record-setting 2023 campaign, compiling a program-best 48 wins, earning the Blue Devils the No. 8 national seed in their third NCAA appearance and the right to host the NCAA Super Regional for the first time. Young's coaching and leadership allowed the program to reach new heights and led to the development of freshman All-American D'Auna Jennings. Jennings became the fourth NFCA All-American in the program's six-year history after earning second team honors.

Under her leadership, the Blue Devils became ACC Champions for the first time and reached the NCAA Regionals, as part of a 44-12 campaign in 2021. Before the 2020 season was shortened by COVID-19, Young's squad saw its best start in program history with a 23-4 record. The Blue Devils ended their season at No. 25 in the final ESPN.com/USA Softball Collegiate Top 25 Poll, marking the first time Duke has cracked into the national polls. Young put together a challenging schedule in 2019, playing 11 teams who went on to play in the NCAA Tournament, and finished Duke's second season at 25-31. In the program's inaugural season, Young led the Blue Devils to a 29-27 record, including a 13-11 finish in ACC action to earn the No. 7 seed in the 2018 ACC Tournament. The Blue Devils' 29 wins were the fifth most by an ACC program in its first season while becoming the second school in league history to finish its inaugural campaign with a winning record.

Prior to being tabbed to build the Duke softball program, Young spent the prior two seasons across town at North Carolina, with her primary responsibilities included coaching the pitchers and catchers. In the spring of 2015, Young helped the Tar Heels to a 37-16 overall record and a berth in the NCAA Tournament after the squad won 24 contests the prior season. Young's pitchers posted a 3.30 earned run average with 234 strikeouts in 335.1 innings pitched.

Young spent the 2012 and 2013 seasons as an assistant coach at Eastern Michigan, where she served as the compliance liaison, recruiting coordinator and managed team travel and the operational budget, among other duties. She helped coach five Academic All-America picks and five player of the week selections during her tenure at Eastern Michigan. Prior to her stint at EMU, Young was the head coach at Concordia University (NAIA) in Ann Arbor, Mich., from 2008-11. In less than three years, she turned the 2-20 program to a 23-23 record, the second-most wins in a single season since an appearance in the 2002 NAIA National Tournament.

As a player, Young was a three-time All-America selection as a pitcher at the University of Michigan and was named the 2002 Big Ten Pitcher of the Year and 2003 Big Ten Player of the Year. Young graduated from Michigan in 2003 as the all-time strikeout leader (927) and her 88 career wins became the second highest in program history. She also matched the then-program single-season home run record with 13 in 2003. Young played two years of professional softball, one overseas in Italy and the second year with the Texas Thunder of the National Pro Fastpitch.
