Ambler Tennis Stadium and Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center

Over the past decade, Duke University has invested more than $37 million to make its athletic facilities among the finest in the nation. This commitment is evident in the changes instituted directly for the Blue Devil tennis teams. Duke Athletic Director Nina King continues to lead the way in providing Duke with top facilities to help student-athletes stay in peak condition.

Originally completed in the summer of 1987, the Duke Tennis Stadium was renovated into the Ambler Tennis Stadium. The facility was funded by Merrill Ambler and features seat-backs for fan seating, a scoreboard, new court surfaces, and restrooms.

In addition to the fine outdoor courts, the Duke athletic department completed the Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center in the winter of 2000. Named after Karl and Alice Sheffield, the facility features six courts, offices for the coaches, a hall of fame room, and locker rooms. It was awarded the 2000 United States Tennis Association Outstanding Tennis Facility on Feb. 25, 2001. The Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center was only the third tennis center in North Carolina to receive the award since it began in 1981.

In the fall of 2022, construction began at the Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center, which included the renovation of the locker rooms, coaches offices, team lounge/kitchen, a conference room and a training room. It reopened in January of 2024.

Some of the key renovations included were:

- New locker rooms with custom Hollman lockers
- A new student-athlete lounge with an 85-inch television, ping pong table, and kitchen area
- An added additional 1,100 square feet of team space
- Athletic medicine space with custom tables and rehab areas
- Duke branded lobby entrance with a new elevator servicing the mezzanine and office levels
- Four custom offices with a lobby and coaches locker rooms
- Revisions to the Bonk conference room with Zoom technology
- Indoor courts resurfaced with Laykold U.S. Open product
- A new sound system built in throughout the facility
- Team branding designed and installed by Zebra Dog
- The installation of Vyv antimicrobial lighting
- A staff and operations work area to include space for a press box

Following the 2022-23 season, all 12 outdoor courts at Ambler Tennis Stadium were also rebuilt on post-tensioned concrete with Laykold U.S. Open surface. The final stage of the Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center renovation project begins later this month with the addition of a 3,500-foot plaza in front of the building. That is expected to be completed in the Summer of 2024.

The weight room is another extensive area, directed by strength coordinator Jordan Bar. The 3,300 square-foot weight room has over three tons of free weights along with Nautilus, Hydra-Gym, and Universal stations.

In 2008 the completion of the Michael W. Krzyzewski Center- Dedicated to Academic & Athletic Excellence- provided all of Duke's student-athletes with a new academics center featuring tutorial rooms, dedicated study space, computer lab areas and offices for academics staff, nearly tripling the size of the previous academics area.

Some more recent additions to the tennis facilities include a new state-of-the-art Daktronics indoor scoring system. This project, which was installed in the fall of 2006, includes seven wireless scoreboards. There are six individual scoreboards (one mounted behind each court) that provide the player's name as well as the game and set scores. The main scoreboard shows the dual match score and scores of all six courts. Also, the six main outdoor courts have been resurfaced in the US Open (Duke) blue color.

In 2015, Duke installed the Playsight system, which improved the quality of live-streaming feeds on all 12 courts, while also allowing for the recording of play across all indoor and outdoor competition surfaces. In addition, a SmartCourt was designated on one indoor court, allowing for a variety of training tools and functions to maximize results from each practice.

General Information

- There is no charge for tennis matches. All indoor matches occur in the Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center. All outdoor tennis matches occur in the Ambler Tennis Stadium.
- The entrance to the Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center is located between the Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center and the Ambler Tennis Stadium as well as through the blue zone.
- The handicap entrance to the Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center is located on the south side of the Sheffield Indoor Tennis Center.
- The entrance to the Ambler Tennis Stadium is located behind the bleachers of the stadium via the stairwells.
- Handicap seating is located on the south side of the courts closest to Krzyzewskiville.
- Restrooms in the Sheffield Tennis Center are located on court level under the bleachers.
- Restrooms in the Ambler Tennis Stadium are located underneath the bleachers between the two stairwells.

One of the winningest women's tennis coaches in the nation, Jamie Ashworth has led the Blue Devils to new heights. Since becoming the head coach in 1997, he has led the program to 19 20-win seasons and 26 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances. Under his guidance in 2009, the Blue Devils reached the pinnacle of success as they captured the program's first NCAA Championship. Over the past 28 years at the helm of the program, he has led Duke to a 612-158 (.795) overall record and a 242-54 (.818) ACC mark, while advancing to the NCAA semifinals 11 times, the NCAA Championship match twice and notching ACC Tournament Championships on nine occasions.

Following the 2014 NCAA Team Championships, Ashworth was named the Wilson/ITA National Coach of the Year, as voted on by his peers. He is also a four-time ACC Coach of the Year (2001, 2003, 2018 & 2022) recipient and five-time ITA Regional Coach of the Year (2000, 2003, 2008, 2011 & 2014).

On Jan. 20, 2024, Ashworth became the quickest NCAA Division I women's coach to reach 600 career victories as he accomplished the mark in only 747 matches. Against Illinois, Ashworth helped the Blue Devils to a 4-2 victory and he became just the seventh Division I coach to reach the 600-win ledger.

Entering the 2025 dual match slate, Ashworth ranks among the winningest coaches in NCAA history-- 11th with a 79.7 winning percentage, seventh with 612 wins, fourth for winningest active coaches by percentage (79.7) and second for winningest active coaches by victories.

Ashworth recently collected his ninth ACC Championship and 11th trip to the NCAA semifinals as the Blue Devils collected a 23-4 overall and 11-2 ACC mark in 2022. Duke had a streak from April first until May 21 where the Blue Devils won 12 straight matches, including four wins over top-10 opponents. This also included victories over top-ranked North Carolina and No. 2 NC State.

The 2019 season saw the fourth-ranked Blue Devils finish 24-3 overall and 13-1 in league play, marking the sixth-consecutive season Duke has reached double-digit conference wins and the ninth time in 11 years. Duke also reached the NCAA Tournament for the 23rd-consecutive season and saw back-to-back trips to the semifinals on the national stage. Individually, Duke placed three student-athletes on the All-ACC list, five ITA scholar-athletes, and posted three singles and three doubles teams in the ITA poll.

Duke added another ACC regular season championship under Ashworth in 2017. The Blue Devils finished 13-1 against conference opponents to take a share of the regular season crown. It was the fourth straight season Duke reached double-digit conference wins and the seventh time in nine years. Duke reached the NCAA Tournament for the 21st consecutive season and returned to the round of 16. Ashworth once again guided the Blue Devils to the ITA National Team Indoor Championships and led the Blue Devils to a final ranking of 12th in the nation. With the win over No. 23 Northwestern on Feb. 5, Ashworth collected his 450th career victory.

Individually, Duke placed three competitors on the All-ACC list and Duke now leads all other programs in the conference with 107 All-ACC selections. The Blue Devils had five players represented in the ITA singles polls as well as three doubles pairs.

Duke's success under Ashworth continued in 2016, as the team once again qualified for the NCAA Tournament and played into the second round, marking the Blue Devils' 20th-consecutive appearance in the national competition with Ashworth at the helm. Overall, Duke concluded the season with a 19-7 ledger, while also compiling an 11-3 record against ACC competition.

Individually, Duke placed a conference-best five competitors on the All-ACC list, with Beatrice Capra garnering recognition for the fourth time in her career. Capra also garnered Carolina Region Senior Player of the Year honors for her efforts throughout the season. The Blue Devils were well represented in the singles and doubles rankings as well, with no fewer than three singles players and two doubles pairs appearing among those ranked in the national poll during the 2016 campaign.

The 2015 season saw Ashworth once again guide the Blue Devils to the NCAA Tennis Championships tournament, where the team played into the second round of the event. Overall, Duke earned a record of 17-10, the 19th straight season the Blue Devils compiled a winning record under Ashworth's guidance. In addition, Duke amassed a conference mark of 11-3, the fifth time in seven years that the Blue Devils earned double-digit victories against ACC foes. The Ashworth-led Blue Devils also earned a berth into the ITA National Team Indoor Championships earlier in the year after opening the dual match season with back-to-back wins during the ITA Kickoff Weekend in Durham, N.C.

Multiple Blue Devils saw success individually as well in 2015, with Duke placing three players on the All-ACC team, including four-time honoree, Ester Goldfeld. Three Blue Devils also remained stalwart representatives among the nationally ranked singles players in the country, with all three concluding the year within the top 100. Two doubles pairs also finished the season among the top 60 ranked pairs in the nation. Under Ashworth's tutelage, freshman Samantha Harris earned ITA Carolina Region Rookie of the Year honors. Ashworth's continued emphasis on academics was also made evident by three Blue Devils earning spots on the All-ACC academic team.

In 2014, Ashworth once again led the Blue Devils to the NCAA Tennis Championships tournament, marking the team's 18th consecutive trip to the national tournament during his tenure. Duke reached the quarterfinal round for the 12th time with Ashworth as head coach. The Blue Devils bounced back from an injury-plagued 2012-13 season by posting a 27-5 overall record and an 11-3 conference mark. Duke opened 2014 with eight consecutive wins, four of which came during the ITA National Team Indoor Championships, where the Blue Devils earned the second ITA National Team Indoor Championship title in program history in a hard-fought contest against No. 5 UCLA. Although Duke was recognized nationally throughout the year, the Blue Devils jumped to No. 1 following their showing in the tournament, a ranking the team held for five consecutive weeks from March 18 through April 15.

Individually, three singles players ranked among the top 35 in the nation after the season, and four doubles pairs appeared in the top 80 of the nationally ranked doubles teams. Three All-America honors were also earned by members of the Duke team, in addition to three All-ACC accolades in 2014. With Ashworth's assistance, Hanna Mar earned the ITA Carolina Region Senior Player of the Year award following a stellar senior campaign. In addition, Mar received the Most Outstanding Player honor at the conclusion of the ITA National Team Indoor Championship, during which she remained undefeated and clinched Duke's team title by securing the final singles point in a hotly-contested match against UCLA.

The 2013 season marked Duke's 17th consecutive trip to the NCAA tournament with Ashworth at the helm, as the Blue Devils reached the round of 16 for the sixth time in as many years. Ashworth guided an injury-plagued Blue Devils squad to a 16-10 overall record and a 5-5 ACC ledger. The Blue Devils closed the season with a 14th-place ranking on the ITA list. In addition to the team ranking, the Blue Devils also posted four singles players and four doubles pairs on the list. Three members of the Blue Devil squad garnered All-ACC honors, the 31st, 32nd and 33rd players to earn such an honor during Ashworth's tenure.

In 2012, Ashworth led Duke to a 29-3 (.906) record overall to become the ACC's all-time wins leader. Duke finished 11-0 in the ACC to become the first team in ACC history to have a perfect 11-0 record and win the ACC tournament in the same season. The team's 29 wins tied the 2009 national championship team for the second most in a season, while the Blue Devils also tied the 2009 team for the second-longest winning streak in program history with 18 straight victories. The 2012 campaign was the fifth straight 20-win season for the program and the eighth time that the Blue Devils reached the 25-win plateau during Ashworth's tenure. The Blue Devils reached the NCAA semifinals for the eighth time in program history and finished the season listed as No. 3 in the Intercollegiate Tennis Association's final team rankings for the second consecutive year. The Blue Devils ended the season with six players ranked in the final ITA poll, four players named to the All-ACC team, and freshman Beatrice Capra honored as ACC Player of the Year.

The 2011 season saw Ashworth lead the program to its third straight quarterfinal appearance and the 16th overall in the NCAA Championships. The Blue Devils finished the season ranked No. 3, and had all six singles players and four teams of doubles in the final ITA rankings. Nadine Fahoum, Rachel Kahan, Ellah Nze, and Reka Zsilinszka were All-ACC selections. Kahan was named ACC Freshman of the Year, while Nze and Zsilinszka each concluded their college careers with four consecutive All-ACC honors.

In 2010, Ashworth reached another milestone in his career as he garnered his 300th career victory when the Blue Devils blanked ACC foe NC State 7-0 on Feb. 25, 2010. Duke posted a 22-8 overall record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals. Duke also landed four players on the All-ACC Academic team.

Under Ashworth's guidance in 2009, Duke posted a 29-3 overall record and finished the year on an 18-match win streak after blanking California 4-0 in the national title match. Both numbers rank second all-time in Duke tennis history.

Just a week after capturing the team title, Ashworth helped mentor Blue Devil freshman Mallory Cecil to the NCAA Individual Singles Championship and a No. 1 national ranking. Under his watch, Cecil, Ellah Nze, and Reka Zsilinszka all captured All-America honors for singles, while Cecil was named the ITA Player of the Year. Duke was equally impressive in the classroom in 2008-09, landing an ACC-best five players on the All-ACC Academic team.

In addition to the NCAA title, the Blue Devils captured a share of the ACC regular season title and won the ACC Tournament Championship in thrilling fashion. Five Blue Devils earned at-large bids to the NCAA Tournament and seven players were ranked in the final ITA national poll.

In 2007-08, Ashworth helped put Duke back in the forefront of the nation's best teams, leading the Blue Devils to a 20-5 overall record and a runner-up finish in the ACC. Ranked ninth in the final national poll, Duke reached the NCAA Tournament for the 19th straight year and the 20th time overall. The Blue Devils advanced to the round of 16 as a team and had three individuals capture All-America honors after earning spots in the individuals' tournament round of 16.

The 2006-07 campaign saw Duke go 12-10 (5-6 ACC) and reach the NCAA Tournament for the 18th straight year and 19th time overall. The Blue Devils finished the season with a national ranking of No. 21, led by sophomore Melissa Mang, who received All-ACC recognition for the second straight year, and freshman Amanda Granson, who led the squad in singles wins (23), dual match victories (15) and ACC triumphs (eight).

In 2005-06, Ashworth rounded out a decade as the head coach of the women's tennis program. His 10th year saw the Blue Devils go 20-8 overall and 9-1 in ACC play. Mang became the sixth Blue Devil freshman overall and third under Ashworth (Ansley Cargill, 2001; Kelly McCain, 2002) to receive ACC Rookie of the Year honors, as she also received All-ACC accolades along with Bercek and Jackie Carleton. Bercek and Carleton each received bids to the NCAA Singles Championships and Bercek garnered her third career All-America nod. The Blue Devils ended the campaign ranked ninth in the country.

After serving as a Duke assistant coach from 1994-95 through 1996-97, Ashworth took over the head coaching reigns on March 20, 1997 and paced Duke to a 12-1 overall record and a 4-0 conference mark to wrap up the season.

In his first full year as a head coach (1997-98), Ashworth led Duke to 27 wins, then a school record, the school's 11th consecutive ACC regular season and tournament titles, Duke's best final national ranking at No. 2, its third consecutive Final Four and the program's first appearance in the NCAA title match.

The 1998-99 season was no letdown as he guided Duke to 27 wins, its 12th consecutive ACC regular season and tournament titles, its fourth straight NCAA semifinal appearance, and a final No. 3 national ranking.

In 1999-2000, Ashworth guided a young Blue Devil team to a 23-6 record, a 13th consecutive ACC Tournament title, and a Sweet 16 NCAA finish. The following campaign (2000-01) saw Ashworth lead the Blue Devils to 27 victories and an Elite Eight NCAA finish, along with Duke's 14th consecutive ACC Championship and an undefeated 8-0 ACC regular season mark.

In 2001-02, Duke posted a 25-5 overall record and won the ACC regular season title with an 8-0 mark. In 2002-03, Ashworth led the Blue Devils back to the NCAA Final Four, tied an ACC record with 30 victories, won the ACC regular season and tournament titles, and claimed the National Team Indoor Championship. With one of the youngest teams in his coaching history, Ashworth led Duke to the Elite Eight and a 22-5 mark in 2003-04.

During Ashworth's term as the assistant coach, the Blue Devils recorded a 59-13 overall record and a perfect 20-0 ACC mark. In his first year as an assistant in 1994-95, Duke went 22-6, advanced to the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals, and finished the year ranked No. 7. In 1995-96, he helped pace Duke to a 25-4 mark (then a school record for wins in a season), a trip to the NCAA Final Four and a national ranking of No. 3. In 1996-97, Duke advanced to its second straight NCAA Final Four, finishing the year third in the nation, once again.

Ashworth has coached 35 different All-ACC selections and 26 different All-America honorees, two national champions, and six collegiate grand slam champions during his stint with the Blue Devils. That list includes four-time All-America and 1998 NCAA singles national champion, Vanessa Webb, who is Duke tennis' only Honda Award winner and Olympian.

A 1994 speech communication graduate of Maryland, Ashworth was a four-year letterwinner for the Terrapins and served as a captain of the team during his junior and senior years. He recently served on the ITA Board of Directors for the fifth year and just finished his sixth year on the Division I Women's Tennis Operating Committee.

A native of Amherst, N.H., Ashworth resides with his wife Caylan, his son Bryce and his daughter Molly in Durham.

DANIEL LEITNER

ASSISTANT COACH
SOUTH ALABAMA '15
THIRD SEASON

Daniel Leitner joined the Duke women's tennis program in October of 2022 and serves as an assistant coach.

Since arriving in Durham, he has helped the Blue Devils advance to two NCAA Championship appearances along with coaching Chloe Beck to All-America honors along with Beck, Georgia Drummy, Emma Jackson, Ellie Coleman and Shavit Kimchi to All-ACC accolades.

Leitner spent the previous five seasons with the Iowa women's tennis program. After serving as the program coordinator beginning in 2017, Leitner was elevated to associate head coach in August of 2021.

In 2021-22, Leitner helped Iowa sophomore Alexa Noel ascend as high as No. 3 in the Intercollegiate Tennis Association's national rankings, the highest ranking by a student-athlete in program history.

In addition to his coaching duties, Leitner was instrumental in all aspects of the program, including successfully coordinating the 2021 ITA Women's Central Regional Championships in Iowa City, in which representatives from 29 different institutions participated.

Leitner assisted the Hawkeyes through a record-breaking season in 2020-21. Iowa finished with a 12-6 overall record and a 12-4 Big Ten ledger, the best conference record in program history. Iowa ended its 2021 season ranked No. 41 in the final ITA rankings, and reached as high as No. 37 on the season, the highest team ranking since 2011. Noel, a freshman, was selected to compete at the 2021 NCAA Women's Tennis Championships in Orlando, Florida. Noel earned the Big Ten's automatic qualifier, becoming the third player in program history to make the singles draw and the first All-American in program history. Noel ended the season 24-1 while competing at the No. 1 singles position. She was named ITA Rookie of the Year and Big Ten Conference Player of the Year and Freshman of the Year, becoming the first Hawkeye in program history to earn conference Player of the Year honors. Noel was ranked as high as No. 13 nationally. Senior Elise van Heuvelen Treadwell became the first player in conference history to earn All-Big Ten first-team honors five times in a career and was awarded the Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsmanship Award.

In the shortened 2020 campaign, Leitner helped lead the Hawkeyes to a 6-6 record. The Hawkeyes had their first win over a ranked opponent since 2014 defeating No. 50 Kansas State. The season was canceled by Big Ten Conference and NCAA on March 12 due to concerns about the coronavirus (COVID-19).

Leitner joined the Hawkeyes from Middle Tennessee State, where he served as an assistant coach on the MTSU men's team for two seasons. While at Middle Tennessee State, Leitner helped the Blue Raiders reach as high as No. 49 in the country. Nine of his players earned all-conference recognition and the team won the MTSU Director's Cup Award for community service working with local schools. In 2016, MTSU secured the No. 25 recruiting class in the nation. In May 2017, Leitner graduated from MTSU with a Master of Science in Leisure and Sport Management. He played collegiately at South Alabama before graduating in 2015. As a student-athlete, he was named Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year in 2014 and 2015. He was a four-time first-team all-conference honoree, and reached as high as No. 49 in the national singles rankings. As a senior in 2015, he was named South Alabama Male Student-Athlete of the Year and the regional winner of the ITA Arthur Ashe, Jr. Sportsmanship and Leadership Award.

GERHARD GRUNDELINGH

ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND SEASON

Gerhard Grindeligh enters his second season as assistant coach with the Blue Devils, after a four-year stint as an assistant professional at the Innis Arden Golf Club in Old Greenwich, Conn. He was responsible for developing and promoting tennis programs for all age groups, including the junior's league and women's team. Grindeligh organized practices, clinics and private lessons at the club and provided feedback to athletes to improve their game.

In March of 2023, Grindeligh was hired as an associate head coach at the USTA National Campus in Orlando, Fla., where he worked to plan, organize and implement high quality lessons, clinics, camps and other tennis programs. He also worked directly with the Director of Racquet Sports and other head professionals to identify areas of growth and options for increased revenue for the national training center.

A four-year letterwinner at the University of South Alabama, Grindeligh compiled a 60-50 overall singles record during his tenure, including a 44-37 mark in dual matches. He was a two-time All-Sun Belt Conference honoree in doubles, earning second team honors with Manuel Belda in 2014 and first team accolades with fellow Duke assistant coach Daniel Leitner a year later. His partnership with Leitner resulted in a 12-3 mark at No. 1 and a 17-5 record overall. Grindeligh went 4-4 at No. 1 with Belda and posted a 15-8 overall doubles record.

Grindeligh graduated from South Alabama with his bachelor's degree in business management in 2017, before going back to earn his master's degree in health education in 2019.

TARA SIESEL
ATHLETIC TRAINER
SOUTHERN MAINE '13
NINTH SEASON

Tara Siesel joined the Duke University Athletic Training staff in February of 2015. Siesel is the primary athletic trainer for the women's tennis and men's soccer programs at Duke.

A native of Portland, Maine, Siesel graduated from the University of Southern Maine in 2013 with a bachelor of science degree in athletic training. She was also a member of the women's soccer program at Southern Maine.

Siesel is a member of the Duke Sports Science Committee and helps manage men's soccer GPS load monitoring/wellness/recovery programs. She was a recipient of the Duke Presidential Meritorious Service Award in 2018 for changing an NCAA rule for men's and women's soccer.

Prior to her arrival in Durham, Siesel earned her master's degree from the University of Alabama, while also serving as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the Crimson Tide.

In 2018, she married Kevin Siesel and the couple lives in Durham with their dog, Lady.

JORDAN BAR
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF
SPORTS PERFORMANCE
HARTFORD '12
EIGHTH SEASON

Joined the Duke Sports Performance Staff in the Fall of 2016 as an assistant director of sports performance. He handles women's tennis, women's golf, men's golf along with men's and women's cross country.

Before coming to Duke, Bar worked in the public and private strength and conditioning field working with elite youth, high school, collegiate athletes, as well as current professional athletes in various sports.

Bar attended Fairfield University for two years before transferring to the University of Hartford, where he earned his bachelor's degree in Exercise Science with a concentration in Spanish Language in 2012.

He is a Certified Strength & Conditioning Specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association, holds Titleist Performance Institute certifications in fitness and power, along with a USA Weightlifting L1 and FMS certifications.

Bar played soccer as a goalkeeper at the elite youth level, winning the US Club Soccer National Championship in 2006, as well as the collegiate level winning the MAAC Championship with Fairfield University in 2008. He then spent time playing soccer at the professional level in Europe, before returning to earn his bachelor's degree and play soccer for the University of Hartford.

Bar also works with professional athletes in golf (PGA & Korn Ferry Tours), Basketball (NBA), Baseball (IL) and Softball (AU).

Bar resides in Durham with his wife, Larisa, along with their son, Britton, and dog Bailey. He is a four-time club champion at the Duke Golf Club (2017, '19, '21, '22).

ACC TOURNAMENT HISTORY

From 1977 through the 1981 season, the ACC women's tennis tournament was held in the fall. Starting with the 1982-83 academic year, the tournament took place in the spring. Beginning with the 1986 tournament, the order of finish was determined on the basis of dual match format. Beginning in 1990, the tournament determined the ACC team champion while the singles and doubles champions were determined in regular-season play.

2009 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS

After watching Duke roll through 12 straight victories en route to both the ACC regular season and ACC Tournament titles, head coach Jamie Ashworth truly allowed the reality of winning the national championship started to creep into his mind. He liked the attitude of his team and that they had been in almost every imaginable situation on the court.

"I think towards the end of the regular season, just the attitude [really put the national championship in sight]." Ashworth said. "The ACC tournament match against North Carolina, it was then when I saw that how well we were playing in doubles. That was the first time that I really thought that we could win the whole thing."

The Blue Devils earned the No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament and hosted the opening two rounds at Ambler Tennis Stadium. While they knew they had to be ready for every match, the one match circled on everyone's calendar was the potential quarterfinal contest with ACC rival Miami.

"We had this whole thing of thinking that the winner of us and Miami is going to win the national title," Ashworth said.

After clearing the way to College Station with wins over Richmond and Virginia, Ashworth noticed a certain swagger about his team.

"This was the first team I've ever had that wasn't going into the round of 16 with the mindset of, 'we could win it', but they honestly believed that they should win it, and it was such a noticeable thing," Ashworth said.

The Blue Devils met up with Arkansas in the round of 16 and for the first time since April 1, they lost the doubles point. Ashworth saw the loss as a wakeup call for his team. The squad quickly rebounded with four singles wins to earn a spot in the quarterfinal round against Miami.

The quarterfinal match that Duke circled had arrived and the Blue Devils were confident heading into the contest against the Hurricanes.

This time though, the match was filled with less drama. Duke took the doubles point with wins from Mang and Granson at No. 1 and Ellah Nze and Zsilinszka at No. 2.

Cecil came out on fire in singles and got off the court quickly with a 6-2, 6-1 win to give Duke a 2-0 lead in the match. Miami got a point back to make it 2-1. Unfolding on court four was perhaps the highlight of the match. Granson, who had lost to Michaela Kissell twice before, turned in a stellar performance. The junior dropped the opening set 6-3, but buckled down to take the next two sets 6-1, 6-3 and put Duke ahead 3-1. Zsilinszka clinched the match and sent Duke to its first semifinal appearance since 2003.

"We had a lot of confidence in that match, especially when we won doubles," Ashworth said. "We just had a belief that we were going to win. I think beating Miami in the quarters of the NCAA tournament was the biggest match for us the entire year, because it let our team realize that if we got by them, we could win the tournament."

As predicted, the quarterfinal proved to be Duke's toughest test of the tournament. The Blue Devils raced past Georgia 5-2 in the semifinals despite No. 1 Cecil losing her first match since March 22.

"I hate to see people lose, but it showed our team that we could beat a top five team without [Mallory] winning," Ashworth said. "It all started with the doubles."

Riding high on its 17-match win streak, Duke made it 18 with the biggest victory of the year on May 19. The Blue Devils took on No. 8 California in the title tilt and made quick work of the Bears in a 4-0 victory.

Doubles play was strong with wins at No. 2 and No. 3, and Zsilinszka made quick work of her opponent in singles action for the 2-0 lead. Then the magic started to unfold on courts five and six.

Playing in the final match of their careers, the senior tandem of Mang and Robinson stamped Duke's place in the history book as they won their matches within moments of each other. Robinson turned in a furious rally in the second set to come back from a 4-2 deficit to win 6-2, 6-4 at No. 6. At the opposite end of the stadium it was Mang punching the ticket for the Blue Devils with a forehand winner for the 6-1, 6-3 triumph at No. 5.

"It's unbelievable," Robinson said following the match. "I don't even have any words to describe the feeling. I love these girls and it's an amazing feeling."

"It hasn't quite sunk in yet, but it's unbelievable," Mang said. "I'm just so proud of these girls. To win this with Jess [Robinson] in our senior year is amazing. I could not ask for anything better."

Zsilinszka took home the tournament's Most Valuable Player Award after going 5-0 and not dropping a single set during the 10 days.

While the talent the Blue Devils possessed on the court was great, it was the team's ability to pull together and fight for each other throughout the season that led them to the top Ashworth believes.

"I think this was by far the closest team I had as far as trusting each other, believing in each other and wanting to win for each other," Ashworth said. "And I think that we had a lot of leaders in different ways and that really was so important to our success. I'm so proud of them. I couldn't have asked for more out of these girls."
