DUKE NOTABLES

THE AHEN KIM ERA

• Ahen Kim is in his first season as the head coach of the Duke volleyball program in 2026.

• Kim comes to Durham after spending the previous three seasons as the head coach of American University in the Patriot League, where he posted an impressive 64-25 record.

• Prior to leading American, Kim served as the Brown head coach from 2018-22, posting a combined record of 59-39.

2026 SEASON: WHAT'S ON DECK?

• As of the Oct. 12 poll, the Blue Devils will play five teams ranked inside the AVCA Top 25. No. 2 Pitt, No. 3 Louisville, No. 5 SMU, No. 16 Stanford and No. 23 North Carolina all remain on Duke's upcoming slate of games.

• Duke is set to host Stanford and North Carolina inside Cameron Indoor Stadium.

RETURNING PRODUCTION

• Duke returns its top scoring weapon from last season, Taylor Williams, who led the Blue Devils with 331 kills and 388.0 points.

• Also returning for the Blue Devils this season is sophomore outside hitter Ashby Zubchevich, who was second on the team with 330 kills and 378.0 points.

• Of Duke's nine top point scorers last season, eight of them return for the 2026 campaign with Ngozi Iloh being the lone exception. Iloh graduated in spring of 2026 with a degree in psychology.

THE NEWCOMERS

• The 2026 Blue Devils welcome five new players to the squad, including three freshmen and a pair of graduate transfers.

• Carlyle Johnson, Riley Copenhaver and Sara Lozano – all attackers – make up the freshman class for this season. Johnson has appeared in limited action during the regular season, while Copenhaver and Lozano have not played yet.

• Nataly Moravec (Purdue) and Kyndal Ganoe (FDU) each join the Blue Devils as graduate students with one year of eligibility left.

• Moravec comes to Bull City with a plethora of Big Ten experience having started her collegiate playing career at Iowa.

• With the Hawkeyes, Moravec – a 6-3 outside hitter – played in all but one set in 2023. She was second on the team in kills with 286.

• After not competing in 2024, Moravec appeared in 16 matches and 24 sets for the Boilermakers and recorded 33 kills.

• Ganoe, a 5-7 libero/defensive specialist, spent the last three seasons playing with the FDU Knights.

• Ganoe was named NEC Defensive Player of the Week three times last season.

• She was also named to the 2025 All-NEC Second Team.

• Ganoe totaled 373 digs last season, which ranked fourth-best in the NEC.

FITTING RIGHT IN

• One of the two transfers that Ahen Kim brought to Duke is graduate student Nataly Moravec, who came to Durham after spending last season with Purdue.

• The 6-3 outside hitter has made an immediate offensive impact for the Blue Devils, as she leads the team with 241 kills through 16 matches.

• After a slow opening weekend, Moravec has been on fire since, as she has recorded double-digits kills in each of the last 13 matches. Over that stretch, she has tallied 233 kills.

• In her first weekend of ACC action, she recorded 38 kills, including 21 in Duke's four-set loss to NC State.

• She followed with 30 total kills – 15 in each game – during her second weekend of conference play.

• In last weekend's pair of wins, Moravec recorded 34 kills to help the Blue Devils record two five-set wins.

• Moravec ranks fourth in the ACC in kills per set (4.16) and sixth in points per set (4.60).

• Her kills per set average is 27th in the country, while her points per set average is 22nd nationally.

Duke University Vice President and Director of Athletics Nina King announced Ahen Kim as the head coach of the volleyball program in January 2026. Kim, a two-time conference coach of the year with more than 16 years of collegiate coaching experience, is the sixth head coach in the program's history.

Kim brings a proven track record of success from his head coaching stints at American University and Brown University, where he guided both programs to conference championships, NCAA Tournament berths and record-setting seasons, while developing all-conference and nationally recognized student-athletes.

Kim arrives in Durham after spending the past three seasons as the head coach at American University. During his tenure, he compiled a 64-25 overall record and a .719 winning percentage. In 2025, Kim led the Eagles to a historic season, posting a 25-5 overall mark, capturing the Patriot League Championship and earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament.

Kim was tabbed the 2025 Patriot League Coach of the Year, while leading his program to a sweep of the league's major awards, highlighted by selections for player of the year, setter of the year, rookie of the year and libero of the Year.

In both the 2023 and 2024 campaigns, Kim guided American to 20-win seasons, marking the most wins posted by the program since the 24-win season in 2019. He led the Eagles to the Patriot League Tournament championship match in 2023 and the quarterfinals in 2024.

During his three seasons with the Eagles, Kim mentored 12 players to All-Patriot League honors, including multiple major award winners and nationally recognized performers. He coached the 2023 Patriot League Player of the Year, an AVCA All-Region selection and AVCA Honorable Mention All-America honoree, as well as the league's 2023 setter of the year and 2024 rookie of the year.

From 2018-22, Kim served as the head coach at Brown University. During his tenure, he led the Bears to the 2021 Ivy League Championship and the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance in 20 years, before returning to the Ivy League Championshwip match in 2022. Kim produced 13 All-Ivy selections, including five major conference award winners.

In 2021, Kim was named Ivy League Coach of the Year as Brown swept the conference's top honors, including player of the year, defensive player of the year and rookie of the year accolades, while his student-athletes earned AVCA All-Region honors and AVCA All-America recognition.

Prior to his time as a head coach, Kim served as an assistant coach at American University from 2012-18, helping guide the program to an impressive 162-42 ledger. During that span, he helped lead the Eagles to five consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, including three tournament victories.

Kim also coached and recruited three AVCA Honorable Mention All-America honorees, six AVCA All-Region selections and three Patriot League Players of the Year, while overseeing the development of five Patriot League Tournament MVPs, 17 Patriot League All-Tournament selections and 15 First Team All-Patriot League recipients.

Kim also brings professional coaching experience, having served as the Director of Volleyball for the Gwangju Peppers, a professional club based in South Korea.

A 2007 graduate of Franklin and Marshall College, Kim earned his degree in sociology and American government. He is married to former collegiate volleyball standout Amy Pauly, who currently serves as the head coach of the Orlando Pro Volleyball Federation.
