Why Dukes?

The nickname "Dukes" goes back to the changing of the name of the university from The University of the Holy Ghost to Duquesne University of the Holy Ghost in 1911. The Duquesne name was chosen in honor of Marquis Duquesne, who built Fort Duquesne at the confluence of the Monongahela and Allegheny Rivers in 1754, and is recognized as the first man to bring Catholic observances to the City of Pittsburgh.

Since a Marquis and a Duke dress similarly, the unofficial symbol of the school's athletic teams became a man dressed in a top hat, tails and a sash of royalty across his chest. "Dukes" being more readily known than "Marquis," the name Duke was popularly assigned to the symbol and stuck ever since the fall of 1911.

A new Duke came to town for the 2006-07 season when Duquesne University Director of Athletics Greg Amodio unveiled an aggressive look for DU's 20-sport intercollegiate athletics program with the release of a new logo July 26, 2006.

The primary mark, a determined top-hatted Duke with a flowing cape above the words "Duquesne Dukes," replaces the script "Duquesne" used by the department since the fall of 1998.

The new identity program for Duquesne Athletics was created by award-winning Rickabaugh Graphics of Columbus, Ohio.

Duquesne's school colors of red and blue, the colors of the Congregation of the Holy Ghost, have been in place since the school's inception.

First-time visitors who approach the city of Pittsburgh from Pittsburgh International Airport, enter the Fort Pitt Tunnel and emerge from the darkness to be greeted by a view unparalleled by any other metropolitan area.

Glistening skyscrapers, bordered on all sides by flowing rivers and lush green hills welcome visitors to an area known widely as one of America's most livable cities.

A big city with a small town feel, Pittsburgh has something to offer for all tastes.

The home of Duquesne University serves as the headquarters of six Fortune 500 companies; offers downtown shopping; a state park with a towering fountain; a thriving cultural district; a wonderful sampling of architecture; shops of every description; and the shortest, cleanest subway system in America.

Professional sports are an important part of the fabric of Pittsburgh. Pittsburgh offers two of the newer facilities in professional sports in Heinz Field – home of the NFL Pittsburgh Steelers and the Pittsburgh Pirates' PNC Park, widely hailed as one of the most beautiful stadiums in Major League Baseball. The city has also broken ground, just a block from campus, on a new facility that will house the NHL Pittsburgh Penguins. All three sports venues are easily accessible from the Duquesne.

WE'RE NUMBER 1 ... AGAIN

The 25th anniversary edition of "The Places Rated Almanac" ranks Pittsburgh as America's most livable city. Pittsburgh, which also claimed the top honor in 1985, is the only U.S. city to be recognized twice.

1 Pittsburgh ranks as the least expensive U.S. city in which to live. (Mercer Human Resources Consulting, June 2004)

1 Pittsburgh's PNC Park was voted "Best Ballpark in America" by ESPN.com. (September 2003)

1 The Pittsburgh music scene ranked No. 1 on Esquire magazine's list of "Top 10 Cities That Rock." (April 2004)

2 Pittsburgh's skyline rates No. 2 in America for beauty. (USA Weekend, May 2003)

4 Pittsburgh is tied for fourth nationally in number of corporate headquarters with seven. (Fortune magazine, April 2006)

5 With 152 miles of rails-to-trails paths, the Pittsburgh region ranks fifth in the country as the best place to live and ride. (BIKE magazine, 2001)

Duquesne's hilltop campus, once a residential neighborhood of row houses and cobblestone streets, has been transformed over the past 40 years, yet it retains the feel of a small town, with its brick-paved, tree-lined walkways, Victorian benches and fixtures, abundant open spaces, inviting fountains and a variety of architectural styles.

All campus buildings and facilities – living and learning centers, academic buildings, recreation facilities and more – are situated within easy walking distance. Movement around campus is unfettered by the city's vehicular and pedestrian traffic.

A glance to either side quickly reveals Duquesne's proximity to all the city has to offer. To the south lie the Monongahela River and the South Side, one of Pittsburgh's many unique neighborhoods. To the north and west are the skyscrapers of downtown, one of America's most attractive and recognizable skylines and symbol of a bustling commercial and cultural community.

Situated high atop the heart of one of America's most livable cities with career opportunities available only in a major corporate center and academic offerings that only a comprehensive university can provide, Duquesne University offers unique educational opportunities to its undergraduate and graduate students.

Success Off the Mat

At Duquesne University, coaches and staff believe that academic excellence, combined with the competitive edge of athletics, are the keys to a successful career.

Duquesne academic counselors visit regularly with student-athletes and provide assistance on matters such as registration, degree planning and compliance with University and NCAA policies and procedures. DU counselors also have an excellent relationship with the University administration, faculty and deans.

The four or five years spent on a college campus represent one of the most important times of a young person's life. Duquesne University is the right choice for the person who has the same high goals both academically and athletically.

Graduation Rate Lauded

Duquesne University was cited among the nation's Top 15 in highest graduation rate by U.S. News & World Report in its March 18, 2002 edition. DU's student-athlete graduation rate was +8 percentage points higher than that of the general student body.

Dukes' Wrestling Report Card

- For the sixth straight year, the Duquesne University wrestling team was ranked among the nation's elite academically, boasting a team grade point average of 3.10, as released by the National Wrestling Coaches Association (NWCA). The Dukes trailed just Duke, Stanford, Brown, Princeton and Northern Iowa in the national rankings during the 2006-07 academic year. Team rankings are selected by taking the average GPA of each team's starting 10 wrestlers in addition to two backups.
- Tim Frank, Cody Midlam and Jared Ricotta were named to the 2006-07 NWCA All-Academic Team. All three student-athletes posted at least a 3.40 cumulative GPA.
- During the 2006-07 academic year, 12 of 18 wrestlers boasted at least a 3.00 GPA in the fall while 13 were above a 3.00 in the spring semester. Each of these individuals were named to Duquesne's Director of Athletics Honor Roll.
- In 2005, for the first time in school history, Duquesne had two wrestlers named to CoSIDA's ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District II At-Large Teams as voted on by the district's sports information directors. Mark Himes was named to the first team and Marc Allemang was named to the second team. Himes was chosen to the first team again in 2006.

Duquesne University's commitment to athletics is evident in a $2 million renovation of the Palumbo Center completed in the spring of 2006. The renovation - designed to benefit all DU student-athletes - features a state-of-the-art athletic training/rehabilitation facility, a new student-athlete recruitment center, meeting, film viewing and editing suites, administrative offices as well as the expansion and enhancement of a student-athlete only weight training area.

"This phase of Palumbo Center renovation provides our coaches and student-athletes with the tools to help them compete at a higher level. The improvements were designed to help all of our programs gain a competitive edge as our department continues to move forward."

— Greg Amodio, Director of Athletics

With enrollment continuing to grow and general interest in health and wellness increasing, University President Dr. Charles Dougherty made a bold move to expand the University by acquiring several blocks of Forbes Avenue for construction of a the 130,000 square-foot Power Center.

On January 7, 2008, the multi-purpose recreation center named after Duquesne's first president, Spiritan Fr. William Patrick Power, opened its doors for the first time. The complex boasts boast modern cardio-fitness exercise equipment, basketball and racquetball courts, locker rooms, exercise and dance studios, athletics offices and new classrooms. In the first phase, this multi-purpose center will also house a window-filled conference space with a ballroom, kitchen and roof-top deck, Barnes and Noble Booksellers, Starbucks and other retail shopping.

"The expansion plans give Duquesne University the ability to continue to grow, to contribute to the development of our Uptown neighborhood and to improve the appearance of our front door on Forbes Avenue."

—Dr. Charles Dougherty, Duquesne University president

Dr. Charles J Dougherty

University President

Charles J. Dougherty, Ph.D., was elected president of Duquesne University by its Board of Directors in May 2001. His selection as the 12th president of Duquesne University came with overwhelming support from the campus community and the Congregation of the Holy Spirit, the sponsors of Duquesne University.

Dougherty, 57, is a nationally recognized scholar and expert in health care ethics, and has served on numerous health care advisory commissions and projects. Most recently, Dougherty has worked with the Not-for-Profit Hospital Trustees Project at the Hastings Center and the New York Academy of Medicine, as well as the National Coalition on Catholic Health Care. He has served on the Board of Trustees of the Catholic Health Association and the Board of Editors at both Creighton University Press and "Health Progress." Dougherty has also served as a Commissioner for the State of Nebraska Accountability and Disclosure Commission, a government ethics panel.

He is a member of the Board of Directors of Mercy Hospital; Mercy Health Systems in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; The Allegheny Conference on Community Development; Pittsburgh Downtown Partnership; World Affairs Council of Pittsburgh; and the Urban League of Pittsburgh. He serves on the board of the Association of Independent Colleges and Universities of Pennsylvania and is the Chair of the President's Committee of the Pittsburgh Council on Higher Education.

Dougherty has published extensively on the subject of ethics and health care. His publications on the subject include two books published by Oxford University Press and more than 50 scholarly articles.

He received his master's and doctorate degrees in philosophy from the University of Notre Dame in 1973 and 1975; he received his bachelor's degree in philosophy from St. Bonaventure University in 1971.

Dougherty comes to Duquesne from Creighton University in Omaha, Neb., a Catholic university operated by the Jesuits. He served as academic vice president from 1995 to 2001 and as acting president of Creighton in the summer of 2000. Dougherty joined the Creighton faculty in 1975, and chaired the department of philosophy from 1981 to 1989. He also has held faculty appointments in medicine, pharmacy, dentistry and nursing, and served as the first director of the Creighton Center for Health Policy and Ethics from 1988 to 1995.

Born in New York City on June 28, 1949, Dougherty has been educated in Catholic schools all his life, including St. Anthony's High School in Smithtown, NY. The oldest of four children, Dougherty was the first in his family to attend college.

Dougherty and his wife, Sandra, who is a judge on the Nebraska District Court in Douglas County, have two children: a daughter, who is a Notre Dame and Georgetown University graduate working as a lawyer in Washington, D.C.; and a son, a Creighton alum who works as an employment counselor in Omaha.

Greg Amodio

Director of Athletics

Greg Amodio, named Duquesne University director of athletics on August 4, 2005, has made significant strides in moving DU's 20-team department forward in his first two years on the job. Amodio, who came to the Bluff after a 10-year stay at Xavier University, wasted no time upgrading Duquesne's athletics programs by administering completion of a $2 million renovation of the A.J. Palumbo Center. He also introduced a contemporary look for the department with the introduction of a new athletics logo in the summer of 2006.

On the personnel front, Amodio was responsible for the hiring of head men's basketball coach Ron Everhart and head women's basketball coach Suzie McConnell-Serio. He also added full-time assistant coaches for four other sports and created a marketing and promotions department.

In January 2007, Amodio spearheaded Duquesne's move to the Northeast Conference as an associate member in football beginning with the 2008 season. The move to the NEC will coincide with the granting of 18 scholarships beginning in February of 2008. The scholarship number will increase by two for the ensuing three years. In addition, both the women's soccer and lacrosse teams have seen their available scholarship numbers increase.

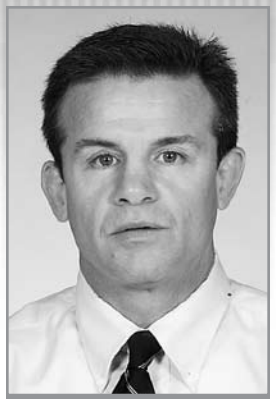

In his decade at Xavier, the 45-year-old Amodio moved up from assistant director of marketing and promotions, to assistant athletic director and finally to associate athletic director. As associate AD, he managed a strategic, integrated program focused on increasing attendance, enhancing alumni participation in athletics and increasing fund-raising. During his last seven seasons at XU, men's basketball attendance reached 97 percent capacity and women's basketball attendance increased 150 percent. Amodio directed the corporate partner programs, season and group ticket sales strategy, advertising campaign, fund-raising initiatives and game operations for Xavier athletics. In addition, the Long Island, N.Y. native served as administrator for the men's soccer program and participated in the Atlantic 10 Conference Men's Soccer Committee and the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA).

Prior to his stint at Xavier, he served as the promotions manager for the Professional Golfers, Association of America, with a focus on national fundraising programs and junior golf initiatives. He also served as coordinator of Community Programs and Educations with the American Heart Association in New York City and spent five years as a high school teacher/coach.

Amodio earned his master's degree in exercise physiology from the City University of New York, Queens College. While at Queens College, he served as a research assistant in the Department of Health & Physical Education. Amodio received his bachelor's degree in education in 1984 from Davis & Elkins College.

Active among the leaders of the Atlantic 10 Conference, Amodio is currently serving as a member of the A-10 Television Committee.

Amodio and his wife, Kerry, have two children: Jake (14) and Alexandra (12). The Amodios reside in Pine Township.

Head Coach

Eleventh Season

John Hartupee

John Hartupee returns for his 11th season as Duquesne's head wrestling coach in 2007-08. Hartupee, who was an assistant at Duquesne for three seasons prior to taking over the head coaching duties, is just the second wrestling coach since the sport's resurrection in 1991.

In his 10 seasons as head coach, Hartupee has accumulated a 96-83-3 career record, including a school record 13 wins in 2006-07. The 2005 East Region Coach of the Year has sent at least one wrestler to the NCAA Championships every year and has directed the Dukes to two NCAA East Regional Championships (2000 and 2005).

In recent years, Hartuppe led the Red and Blue to four straight runner-up showings at the NCAA East Regional Championship before capturing the crown in 2004-05, sending four DU wrestlers to National's.

In 2001-2002, Duquesne set a then school record for wins in a season with 12 while winning the National Catholic Championships and the East Regional Duals meet and in 2002-03, won its second straight National Catholic Championship, sending three wrestlers to NCAA's.

Hartupee's coaching career began in 1981 as an assistant at Clemson University. In 1983 he worked as a graduate assistant at the University of Michigan before taking an assistant position at the University of Pittsburgh in 1985. Hartupee remained at Pitt until accepting an assistant job at his alma mater of Central Michigan University in 1988. He then began teaching and coaching at the high school level in Michigan before joining the Duquesne staff in 1994.

Prior to coaching, Hartupee had a celebrated wrestling career. He was a three-time Michigan high school champion as well as a two-time high school All-American. In addition, he went on to be a Junior Olympics National Champion and a Junior World National Champion. In college, as a 118-pounder, Hartupee was a two-time Mid-American Conference champion, a NCAA runner-up and an All-American. After college, he went on to receive accolades as a two-time AAU Senior National Champion, a Canadian Senior National Champion, a first alternate for the 1980 United States Olympic Team and was a member of the US National Team. Most recently, he was a 1993 Masters World Champion.

Asssistant Coach

First Season

Brad Cipriani

Brad Cipriani returns to his alma mater for his first stint as a collegiate coach. The 2007 Duquesne graduate is eighth all-time in victories at DU with 76 and will bring a wealth of knowledge and experience to the Dukes.

A four-year letterman, Cipriani posted a 76-55 career record for the Red and Blue from 2004-07. He led the team with 34 wins as a senior, including two by fall, five major decisions and a technical fall.

Cipriani resides in Pittsburgh.

Asssistant Coach

First Season

Mark Himes

Mark Himes returns to his alma mater for his first stint as a collegiate coach. A 2006 Duquesne alum, he is sixth all-time at the University with 83 victories and was an East Regional champion and NCAA qualifier in 2005.

A four-year letterman, Himes posted an 83-59 career record for the Red and Blue from 2002-06. As a senior, he posted a 23-11 record, including a 13-1 mark in dual matches, winning twice by fall, once by technical fall and twice by major decision.

Himes resides in Pittsburgh.

The Duquesne University wrestling team returns seven lettermen, including five starters from last year's 13-11 team and has added nine newcomers to bolster the 2007-2008 roster. The Dukes lost five talented seniors to graduation who combined for 113 wins, but shouldn't miss a beat this year with hungry returning veterans ready to fill in the vacant weight classes for 11th-year head coach John Hartupee.

Leading the charge for DU is 2007 East Region champion and NCAA participant senior Cody Midlam (157 pounds). Midlam, who posted 26 wins last season, is joined by fellow returning senior starters Jonathan Bittinger (125) and Joe D'Orsie (HWT) as well as sophomores Jayk Cobbs (141) and Ryan Sula (174). Other returning lettermen include junior Scott Black at 174 pounds and sophomore James Sellers at 197 pounds.

Also looking to fill open starting spots for the Red and Blue are former Dukes senior Brad Shrum at 149 pounds and junior Dan Pauley at 165 pounds. Both took a year off in 2006-07 and should be fresh this season.

Upper weights (184, 197, HWT)

Despite losing two starters in the upper weight classes, the Dukes are deep here with at least two wrestlers filling each spot. D'Orsie and Sellers manned the heavyweight position last year, but with the addition of Richardson at heavyweight, Sellers may drop to the vacated 197 pound class. Also competing for mat time at 197 will be freshmen Mitchell and Farah. Graduation also left a gap at 184 pounds, but Black, who went 4-6 there last season, is the front-runner with newcomer Hebert looking to push him. Sula may also see some time at 184.

Middle weights (157, 165, 174)

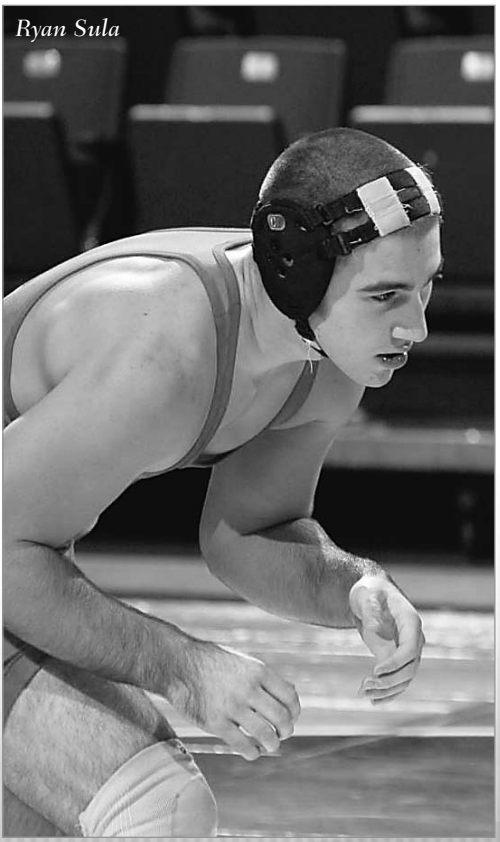

Four wrestlers will handle the bulk of the workload here in Midlam, Gregg, Pauley and Sula. Midlam is the incumbent at 157 and will likely continue his career at that weight class. With an open spot at 165, Pauley and Gregg should split time there while Sula will continue to wrestle at 174 where he registered 10 victories last year. Reinhart and Black could also compete here.

Light weights (125, 133, 141, 149)

The light weight classes will see five Dukes competing for four starting spots, including the vacant spots at 133 and 149. Bittinger will be the starter again at 125 while Cobbs will be in the mix at 133 and 141. Bittinger turned in a 12-10 record last season and was an NCAA qualifier as a freshman while Cobbs led all freshmen last year with 19 wins. Chapman will at least spell both wrestlers if not earn the starting nod at 133. Shrum and Reinhart will battle for time at 149 pounds with Shrum possible filling in at 141 and Reinhart possibly moving up.

Schedule

The Dukes will compete in four very competitive tournaments in November and December before opening the dual portion of their schedule at home on Dec. 9 versus Princeton. The Red and Blue will face roughly 20 opponents in dual matches including highly touted foes such as Pitt, George Mason and Duke. The season culminates with the East Regional Championships on Sunday, March 9 at Liberty with individual qualifiers advancing to the NCAA Championships to be held in St. Louis, Mo. from March 20-22.
