HEAD COACH JAMES PERRY

James Perry begins his second season as the head coach of the Bryant football program in 2018. Perry was hired as third head coach in program history on January 3, 2017.

Perry wasted little time getting the Bulldogs back on track, closing the 2017 season on a four-game winning streak to a post a 6-5 record on the year. In NEC play, Bryant went 4-2, finishing in a tie for second in the final league standings after being picked sixth in the preseason poll.

Bryant's offense thrived under Perry's watchful eye, averaging nearly 100 more yards per game and finishing the year with an average of 30.3 points per game. The Black and Gold also shattered the program's passing record in 2017 as Price Wilson became just the second QB in NEC history to throw for over 3,000 yards (3,311) in a single season.

Wilson would go on to earn All-NEC Second Team honors, marking the fifth-straight year that Perry mentored an all-league signal caller. In total, Perry coached eight All-NEC selections, the NEC Defensive Player of the Year, NEC Defensive Rookie of the Year and two All-Americans in his first season in Smithfield.

Prior to arriving in Smithfield, Perry spent the past seven seasons as the offensive coordinator at Princeton University.

An outstanding quarterback during his playing days, Perry has instilled an offensive mentality of "Fast and Physical" football to each of his coaching stops. He has led Princeton to Ivy League titles in 2013 and 2016, coaching three All-Ivy League quarterbacks over the past four seasons and guiding the Tigers into one of the program's most impressive offensive eras.

This past fall, Perry's Tiger offense ranked atop the Ivy League in scoring (34.6 points per game), total offense (415.5 yards per game) and rushing offense (183.2 yards per game) on its way to the program's second Ivy League Championship in four years. He guided quarterback John Lovett to a First Team All-America recognition in 2016 after the junior paced the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) with a Princeton-record 20 rushing touchdowns. Lovett also became the second quarterback under Perry to win the Bushnell Cup as the Ivy League's Offensive Player of the Year.

In the 2013 championship season, Perry guided the Tigers to a pair of Ivy League-record offensive trends, averaging 43.7 points and 511.6 yards per game. Perry's unit finished second nationally in scoring offense, sixth in turnover margin and eighth in total offense. Under Perry's tutelage, quarterback Quinn Epperly was named the Ivy League Offensive Player of the Year and a finalist for the 2013 Walter Payton Award, given to the top offensive player in the FCS.

In total, Perry coached 36 All-Ivy League offensive selections in his seven seasons at Princeton.

A 2000 graduate of Brown University, Perry is no stranger to the Ocean State, spending three years at his alma mater as an offensive assistant before joining the Princeton staff in 2010. He coached the quarterbacks and served as recruiting coordinator for the Bears, helping them win an Ivy League crown in 2008. Michael Dougherty thrived under Perry, graduating eighth all-time in league history with 487 career completions and 11th all-time with 5,763 career passing yards while also setting a still-standing Ivy League record for total offense in a game (538 yards in 2008).

Prior to his tenure at Brown, Perry made coaching stops at the University of Delaware (2006, running backs), the University of Maryland (2004-05, offensive graduate assistant), Williams College (2002-04, quarterbacks/recruiting coordinator) and Dartmouth College (2001, quarterbacks/wide receivers assistant). While at Delaware, Perry helped shape the Blue Hens into a I-AA leader in passing offense, total offense and scoring offense.

As a quarterback at Brown, Perry led the Bears to the 1999 Ivy League Championship, finishing the season with 3,255 passing yards and 27 touchdowns. He was named a finalist for the Walter Payton Award and was the recipient of both the Bulger Lowe Award as the Outstanding Offensive Player of the Year in New England and the New England Football Writers Gold Helmet of the Year. He was a three-time First Team All-Ivy League pick and earned the 1999 Ivy League Player of the Year.

In addition to his numerous accolades, Perry set virtually every school and Ivy League passing record during his playing career. He graduated as the all-time leader in total offense in a career (9,236), passing yards in a career (9,294) and season (3,255), completions in a career (789) and season (309), and touchdown passes in a career (74) and game (6), still holding the Ivy League mark in the final three. Perry threw for over 400 yards in a game seven times in his career.

Following his collegiate career, Perry spent the 2001 season playing professionally in NFL Europe and the Arena Football League.

A native of Andover, Mass., Perry graduated from Brown with a Bachelor of Arts in Economics and went on to earn a Master's in Education Policy and Leadership from the University of Maryland in 2006. He attended Malden Catholic High School in Malden, Mass., where he was named the 1996 Boston Globe Massachusetts High School Athlete and Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

He and his wife, Abby, have two sons, Samuel and Nathaniel, and a daughter, Rosemary.

Game 1

Bryant 41, New Haven 31
September 1, 2018
Beirne Stadium | Smithfield, R.I. | Attn: 4,969

How it happened

- Jean Constant caught the opening kickoff at his goal line, cut back to the middle then back out to the sideline and was gone to give the Bulldogs the lead 13 seconds into the season.
- New Haven answered with a 13-play, 67-yard drive that ended in a two-yard touchdown pass to Ryan McCarthy to knot things up at seven.
- Bryant marched right back down the field to regain the advantage, going 84 yards in 11 plays, with the drive ending on a Price Wilson to David Zorrilla touchdown from 23 yards out. It was Zorrilla's first catch and first-career touchdown.
- After a holding penalty negated a New Haven touchdown, Zahir Williams jumped the route and intercepted an Ajee Patterson pass midway through the second quarter.
- A second Williams interception set up the Bulldogs at the New Haven 25-yard line and Bryant scored three plays later to extend the lead.
- Another New Haven interception set up a third Bulldogs touchdown, as Wilson and Constant connected for the third time, this one from 24 yards out, to extend Bryant's lead to 27-7.
- The Chargers responded with a seven-play drive to cut into the Bulldog advantage right before the half, with Patterson connecting with Damon Rodgers from 18 yards out. Bryant led 27-13 at the break.
- The Bulldogs started the second-half scoring on a flea-flicker as Wilson took the flip back and fired 31 yards to Constant for their third scoring connection of the day.
- New Haven cut the lead to two possessions on a 62-yard interception return for a touchdown by Josiah Schumaker.
- Alfred Dorbor closed the Bryant scoring as he capped a 10-play drive with a one-yard plunge.
- New Haven made things interesting, scoring and converting a two-point play to make it 41-31 with 3:08 left to play.
- The Bulldogs were able to handle the ensuing onside kick and hold on for the win.

Game 2

No. 23/24 Stony Brook 50, Bryant 21
September 8, 2018
LaValle Stadium | Stony Brook, N.Y. | Attn: 5,708

How it happened

- Bryant drove to the SBU 13 on its first drive of the game but missed a 36 field goal. The Seawolves responded by going 80 yards in just seven plays to take the lead on a one-yard run from Joe Carbone Senior
- Kevin Lazo (Pembroke Pines, Fla.) kept it 7-0 as he blocked a 40-yard field goal attempt with 4:21 left in the first quarter.
- The Seawolves pushed it to 13-0 with a quick three-play, 55-yard drive that was capped by a nine-yard score from Carbone.
- Bryant then pushed the ball inside the SBU 20 on back-to-back possessions but could not convert. On the second drive, EJ Fineran intercepted Wilson's pass and returned it 79 yards for a touchdown to make it 20-0.
- Ignited by a 35-yard return by Nisivoccia, the Bulldogs got on the board with a four-play, 52-yard drive. On 3rd-and-3, Wilson rolled out and found Nisivoccia in the back of the endzone to make it 20-7.
- Junior Gavin Rowley (Hampstead, Md.) then recovered his own onside kick to give the Bulldogs the ball back but Bryant's drive stalled at the SBU 17.
- Out of the halftime break, Costigan tracked down SBU running back Donald Liotine and stripped the ball. Redshirt freshman James LoChirco (Everett, Mass.) recovered the fumble and Bryant needed just six plays to make it a one-score game. Redshirt freshman Shelton McNeal (Lakeland, Fla.) posted a 15-yard reception and Wilson followed with a 14-yard scoring strike to Nisivoccia.
- Bryant's next drive was helped by redshirt freshman Tyrrell Washington (Sebastian, Fla.) as he hauled in his first-career pass, a 34-yard gain in double coverage, to put the ball at the SBU 20. Dorbor punched it in to give Bryant a 21-20 lead.
- Stony Brook would score the next 30 points to claim the victory.

Game 3

Bryant 37, Marist 27
September 15, 2018
Beirne Stadium | Smithfield, R.I. | Attn: 3,673

How it happened

- Bryant took the early lead with a quick 5-play, 65-yard drive four minutes into the game. Facing 3rd-and-5, Price Wilson ran a beautiful play action and found Jean Constant down the middle of the field for a 49-yard touchdown.
- Marist tied the game with 4:20 left in the first quarter with a quick offensive strike. Moments after a Bryant missed field goal, Mike Husni connected with Justin Christian for an 80-yard touchdown.
- The Black and Gold responded with a 14-play, 58-yard drive to retake the lead. Freshman Daniel Adeboboye and Brenden Femiano both converted on 4th-and-short to keep the drive alive and Adeboboye capped the drive with his first-career touchdown to make it 14-7.
- Junior Gavin Rowley then capped an 11-play drive with a 28-yard field goal to make it 17-7.
- Marist, however, would score the next 13 points to take a 20-17 lead. Grant Dixon intercepted Wilson's pass and returned it 62 yards for a touchdown with just 25 seconds left in the first half.
- The Red Foxes then took the lead with their first drive in the second half. Darryn Jordan picked up 30 yards to open the drive and then added 19 more to put the ball at the Bryant 20. Christian then made a beautiful grab in the endzone to make it 20-17.
- After Marist missed a 45-yard field goal, the Bulldogs retook the lead with a seven-play, 73-yard drive. After Femiano recovered his own fumble, junior Alex Rasmussen hauled in a 15-yard pass and senior Vincent Nisoviccia took a reverse 30 yards to the Marist 5. Dorbor then plowed it in from a yard out.
- Bryant put the game away with scores on each of its first two drives of the fourth quarter. Runs from three different Bulldogs got the ball to the Marist 25 to set up the score. Wilson fired a bubble screen to Constant and the athletic wideout made two men miss for a 25-yard score.
- Four minutes later, McNeal matched Constant's ankle-breaking moves. The rookie caught the pass in the open field, made one man miss and then was able to get across the goal line despite the defender pulling on his facemask. The scoring strike went for 62 yards.
- Husni's eight-yard TD run with three seconds left in the game accounted for the final score.

September 22, 2018
Beirne Stadium | Smithfield, R.I. | Attn: 3,792

How it happened

- Tomas Wright's first strip sack of the afternoon led to Bryant's first score. Isaac McCray caught a 14-yard pass to convert a fourth down and then Jean Constant capped the 11-play drive with a four-yard TD reception.
- On the ensuing kickoff, Gavin Rowley knocked the ball free to give the Bulldogs the ball back. McCray converted again on fourth down and Price Wilson connected with Shelton McNeal to make it 14-0.
- Nick Bisceglia capped a nine-play, 72-yard drive with a 25-yard field goal to make it 14-3.
- Bryant quickly answered with a 2-play, 51-yard drive. Vincent Nisoviccia hauled in a 22-yard pass and Daniel Adeboboye raced 29 yards for a score.
- The Colonials responded with a 14-play drive as Alijah Jackson punched it in from 1-yard out.
- The Black and Gold came right back with another 11-play drive to make it 28-10. McCray put Bryant inside the 10 and Declan Burt caught the first TD pass of his career to cap the drive.
- The third quarter was a back-and-forth affair as Terence Stephens opened the second half with a 97-yard return. Walker's four-yard pass to Matthew Gonzalez capped the drive.
- It took Bryant just two plays to respond as a 44-yard completion to McNeal was followed by a nine-yard TD run from Brenden Femiano.
- Robert Morris converted a turnover into seven points as Stephens scampered 19 yards to make it 35-24.
- Again, it took Bryant just two plays to score. Wilson found Burt in the flat and the tight end exploded down the sideline for a 60-yard touchdown.
- RMU then scored the next 22 points to take the lead. Jackson punched it in from two yards out, Walker called his own number to make it a three-point game and then scored again to give the Colonials the lead.
