Duquesne (6-2), coming off back-to-back wins over Marshall and Longwood, will look to extend its home win streak to seven when it hosts Maryland Eastern Shore (1-8) on Thursday, Dec. 13 at 7:00 p.m. at the Palumbo Center (ESPN+). The Dukes won in dramatic fashion on Sunday, coming back from an 18-point first half deficit to defeat Longwood 80-71. DU, which was down 15 with 8:47 left, used a 16-0 run over a 3:39 span to take its first lead with 5:09 remaining. Eric Williams Jr. came off the bench to lead DU with 22 points and 12 rebounds. Freshman Lamar Norman Jr. added 15 points in his first career start. The comeback was Duquesne's best since 1997. Maryland Eastern Shore has been idle since a 70-47 loss at East Carolina on Dec. 2. The Shore, who are playing the second of six-straight road games, will remain in Pittsburgh to face Pitt Saturday afternoon. Duquesne is 13-2 under Keith Dambrot in nonconference home games.

NOTING THE DUKES

• Duquesne's three Gotham Classic wins came over opponents who averaged 20.7 wins last season: William & Mary (19-12), UIC (20-16, CIT) & Radford (23-13, NCAA). The Dukes led at Notre Dame (21-15, NIT last year) 52-51 with 6:31 left in their fourth Gotham Classic game.

• Second-year head coach Keith Dambrot's 16 wins in 2017-18 were the most by a DU first-year coach since Dudey Moore went 17-5 in 1948-49. Moore coached Keith's father, Sid, from 1952-54 during his highly-successful 10 seasons on the Bluff. There were 10 coaches between Moore and Dambrot. Dambrot engineered the seventh-best single-season improvement in school history in 2018 (+6.0, from 10-22 in 2016-17 to 16-16 last year).

• Duquesne has a roster that features 11 newcomers, including four eligible Division I transfers. The 11 newcomers are tied for third-most of any NCAA Division I program. DU is ranked 349 of 353 schools in KenPom's listing of "most experienced" college teams.

• The Dukes have seven freshmen and five sophomores on the 2018-19 roster. Of the 11 newcomers, 10 have seen action so far this season.

• Forward Kellon Taylor, a two-sport athlete who plays receiver for DU's FCS football team, was in uniform for the first time for the Marshall game. Taylor caught a team-high five passes for a team-best 97 yards in the Dukes' second round FCS Playoff loss at South Dakota State Dec. 1. It was the first time DU advanced to the second round of the FCS Playoffs. Taylor, who finished second on the team with 44 catches for 576 yards and two TDs, played in 29 consecutive basketball games last season after the joining the team for the Nov. 19 game vs. Robert Morris.

• Freshman point guard Sincere Carry had an eye-opening debut, with seven points and nine assists (without a turnover) vs. William & Mary. He followed that with 32 points and eight more assists vs. UIC. The nine assists tied the sixth-most by a DU freshman, while the 32 points tied the second-highest total by a Dukes freshman (see p.11). Carry began the week tied for 17th nationally - and first among freshmen (see below) - in steals per game.

	PLAYER, SCHOOL	G	STL	SPG
1.	SINCERE CARRY, Duquesne	8	21	2.63
2.	Tyrese Haliburton, Iowa St.	10	23	2.30
3.	Darius Brown II, CSUN	9	19	2.11
4.	Trey McGowens, Pittsburgh	10	21	2.10
	Jalen Pickett, Siena	10	21	2.10
	Cam Reddish, Duke	10	21	2.10
	Pinky Wiley, Delaware St.	10	21	2.10
	Zion Williamson, Duke	10	21	2.10

• Sophomore Eric Williams Jr., who was named second team preseason All-Atlantic 10, leads the ream in scoring (14.5) and rebounding (7.9). The A-10 All-Rookie Team pick set DU single-game freshman records for points (34 vs. George Mason) and rebounds (16 vs. Stetson) in a game last season. He also broke the school record for 3-pointers in a game with nine vs. George Mason. Williams Jr. has three double-doubles this season.

TRENDING

• Duquesne's 47 bench points vs. Longwood were its most under Keith Dambrot.

• Six players have either led or tied for the team lead in scoring in DU's first eight games.

• The Dukes are 3-2 when trailing at the half. Last year DU was 1-10 when down at intermission. Duquesne has erased 14- and 18-point deficits (vs. UIC and Longwood respectively) this season.

• The Dukes, led by freshman Sincere Carry's 45 dishes, are averaging 15.6 assists per game. DU averaged 11.9 apg. last season.

• DU is 13-3 under Keith Dambrot when holding opponents under 70 points. The Dukes are also 15-2 when they are the first to reach the 70-point mark.

• Duquesne is 20-1 under Dambrot when leading with five minutes left.

• DU's 9.13 steals per game average is the most by a Dukes' team since Ron Everhart's 2011 squad - led by freshman guard T.J. McConnell - led the nation with 9.91 spg.

• Sincere Carry began the week leading the nation's freshmen with a 2.63 steals per game average.

• First-year Akron transfer Michael Hughes, who is 24-of-30 (.800) from the field in his past three games (19.7 ppg. over that span) began the week sixth nationally in FG% (.709 overall). Hughes, who has scored in double digits in his past five games, has scored 19, 20 & 20 points in his past three. The 20 points are a career high.

• Junior guard Mike Lewis II needs 39 points to become Duquesne's 39th 1,000-point scorer.

• DU has added four Division I transfers, all of whom practiced with the team while sitting out in 2017-18: 5-8 So. G Tavian Dunn-Martin (Akron), 6-4 So. G Frankie Hughes (Missouri), 6-8 So. C Michael Hughes (Akron) and 6-5 So. F Marcus Weathers (Miami, Ohio). Michael Hughes and Weathers have started seven times, while Frankie Hughes and Dunn-Martin have seen significant action in all eight games off the bench.

• Dambrot and his staff assembled the tallest recruiting class in school history. The seven-man group includes 6-11 Gavin Bizeau (Plainfield, Ind.), 6-11 Dylan Swingle (Chillicothe, Ohio), 6-10 Austin Rotroff (Wauseon, Ohio), 6-9 Amari Kelly (Long Island, N.Y.), 6-3 Lamar Norman Jr. (Grand Rapids, Mich.), 6-2 Brandon Wade (Ann Arbor, Mich.) and 6-1 Sincere Carry (Solon, Ohio). An eighth recruit - 6-11 James Ellis (Pittsburgh, Pa.) - is sitting out in 2018-19. Duquesne had never had a recruiting class with more than two players 6-9 or taller.

• Duquesne was picked to finish 11th in the Atlantic 10 preseason poll of conference coaches and media released on October 18. Eric Williams Jr. was named preseason second team All-A-10. He is the first Duke since Damian Saunders (2010-11) to earn preseason second team all-conference honors.

50-YEAR LETTERMAN

Duquesne has played over 2,500 games in its 103-year basketball history. Ray Goss, the radio "Voice of the Dukes" has been behind the mic for over half of them. Now in his 51st season, Goss, 81 (birthday Jan. 6), is the longest active radio play-by-play man in NCAA Division I basketball. Goss, who graduated from Duquesne with a B.A. in Radio/TV Journalism in 1958, called his first game on March 17, 1968 when Duquesne faced Fordham in the first round of the National Invitation Tournament at Madison Square Garden. He began on a full-time basis at the start of the 1968-69 season. Goss has missed just two games in his broadcasting career - one on Jan. 7, 1978 at Penn State when he auditioned for a regional play-by-play position with the NBA, and the other on Mar. 21, 2011 at Oregon while mourning his wife, Dee, who passed away the evening of DU's CBI win at Montana five days earlier. Ray's two longest consecutive games streaks spanned 237 games (Jan. 7, 1978 miss) then 977 more prior to the last game of 2011.

Dambrot, whose father Sid played for Duquesne from 1952-54, posted a school record 305 wins at Akron. The three-time Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year, went 155-65 in regular-season conference play and 27-10 in 13 MAC Tournament appearances - highlighted by tournament championships and NCAA tournament bids in 2009, 2011 and 2013.

The Akron native, who led the Zips to 10 postseason appearances, is the 17th head coach in the 102-year history of Duquesne basketball.

DUQUESNE HIGHLIGHTS

KUDOS FROM CBS.COM: CBSSports.com college basketball writer Matt Norlander examined the 42 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball coaching changes made after the conclusion of the 2016-17 season and came up with his list of the Top 5 hires. Norlander named Duquesne's Keith Dambrot as the fifth-best coaching hire of 2017.

"Keith Dambrot was lured away from Akron to coach at Duquesne. They get the best possible candidate they could have possibly gotten there. For Duquesne to land Dambrot, that's a big-time win."

RECAP

Freshman Austin Rotroff and Eric Williams Jr. scored 17 points each to lead Duquesne (1-0) to a 84-70 season-opening win over William & Mary (1-1) in a Gotham Classic game at the Palumbo Center. Michael Hughes added 13 points, seven rebounds and three steals. Freshman Sincere Carry had a game-high nine assists without a turnover for the Dukes, who shot 62.1 percent in the second half. William & Mary, which was led by Nathan Knight's 26 points and 11 rebounds, took a 40-38 lead - the Tribe's only of the game - on a Matt Milon jumper in the early moments of the second half. The lead was short-lived as Mike Lewis II started a game-changing 20-4 run with a jumper in the lane. Carry followed with a layup as the Dukes got baskets from six players, to make it 55-44 with under 12 minutes left. DU held the Tribe to 10-straight misses to start the run. Duquesne, which hit 13 of its first 16 shots of the half, got 3-pointers from Tavian Dunn-Martin, Rotroff and Frankie Hughes to build its lead to 63-46 with 10:01 to go. The Dukes made it a 20-point game on another Frankie Hughes 3-pointer with 9:27 left. DU, which went 8-of-12 from the arc in the second half, maintained at least a 14-point lead the rest of the way. Lewis II, Dunn-Martin and Williams Jr. hit early 3-pointers in helping the Dukes jump out to a 12-2 lead. The lead reached 12 - at 31-19 - on another 3-pointer by Williams Jr., before the Tribe outscored the Dukes 14-5 over the final 5:09 to make it 36-33 at the half. Duquesne, which outshot William & Mary 52.5 percent to 45.6 percent, finished 12-of-26 from the arc with Dunn-Martin and Rotroff leading the way with three 3-pointers each. Williams Jr. led DU with eight rebounds.

NOTES

Duquesne moved to 86-17 in season openers, including 81-4 when opening at home ... Michael Hughes eclipsed his previous career high (6 vs. Adrian set as a freshman at Akron) with just over 11 minutes left in the first half ... Sincere Carry's nine assists - in addition to being the most by a DU freshman in a season opener - were the most by a DU freshman since Derrick Colter handed out 11 vs. Charlotte on Mar. 6, 2013 ... Carry did not have a turnover in 29 minutes ... Duquesne's largest lead was 20, the last of which came at 77-57 with 6:59 to go ... the Dukes trailed for just 39 seconds of the 40 minutes.

RECAP

Duquesne, down 15 with under nine minutes left, put together its top comeback in 21 years to defeat Longwood, 80-71 at the Palumbo Center. Eric Williams Jr., who ignited a 16-0 second half run with one of his three 3-pointers, led the Dukes (6-2) with 22 points and 12 rebounds. Lamar Norman Jr. added a career-high 15 points in his first career start for the Dukes, who held Longwood (7-4) to seven second-half field goals. Duquesne, which trailed by 18 in the closing seconds of the first half, posted its top comeback since rallying from 19 down to defeat Radford on Dec. 6, 1997. Longwood, which led 47-32 at the half, was up 62-47 following the second of back-to-back 3-pointers by Kamil Chapman with 9:16 left. It was then that Duquesne turned it around, beginning with a Williams Jr. 3-pointer. Norman Jr. followed with a bucket to make it a 10 point game. An Amari Kelly dunk following a Tavian Dunn-Martin steal made it 62-59. Dunn-Martin, who scored all of his 11 points in the second half, capped the 16-0 run by giving the Dukes their first lead at 63-62 on a pair of free throws with just over five minutes left. Longwood tied it twice before Sincere Carry gave Duquesne the lead for good on a layup at the 3:24 mark. Dunn-Martin added a pair of free throws and a 3-pointer to give the Dukes a 74-65 lead with 1:42 remaining. DU maintained at least a six point advantage the rest of the way. Longwood's largest lead was 47-29 with seven seconds left in the first half. Duquesne outscored Longwood 48-24 and held the Lancers to 30.4 percent shooting in the second half while turning 14 Longwood second-half turnovers into 15 points.

NOTES

The 18-point comeback was the best since the 1997-98 Dukes rallied from 19 back (28-47) with 18:31 left to defeat Radford, 88-82, on Dec. 6, 1997 ... it was the first time DU won after trailing by 15 in the second half since a 60-56 win over West Virginia on Dec. 11, 2012 at PPG Paints Arena (DU was down 15, 23-38, with 19:14 to go) ... DU was without leading scorer Michael Hughes (injured) ... there were three ties and one lead change before DU took the lead for good on a Sincere Carry layup with 3:24 left ... Longwood's largest lead was 18 at 47-29 with seven seconds left in the first half ... Duquesne's largest lead was nine points, the last of which was the final score ... Duquesne led for 4:23, Longwood led for 34:36 ... the game was tied for 1:01.
