NOTE: Duquesne had five eventual 1,000-point scorers on three consecutive teams from 2009 through 2011. The '09 team, which earned an NIT bid after making a run to the A-10 Championship game, featured: Aaron Jackson (Sr.), Bill Clark (So.), Damian Saunders (So.), B.J. Monteiro (Fr.) and Eric Evans (Fr.). The following year, freshman Sean Johnson replaced Jackson with the fivesome of Clark, Saunders, Monteiro, Evans and Johnson remaining intact for the 2010 and 2011 seasons.

NOTE: The 1998 Dukes are the only team to have three active 1,000-point scorers on the same team in Kevin Price, Mike James, and Nick Bosnic (Bosnic scored 82 of his 1,021 career points as a freshman at Maryland).

NOTE: When Bill Clark and Damian Saunders took the floor for DU's College Basketball Invitational game at Oregon on March 21, 2011, it marked the first time in school history that Duquesne played two 1,500-point scorers at the same time.

NCAA TOP 10 INDIVIDUAL CAREER

Drake transfer Micah Mason finished his career as the sixth most-accurate 3-point shooter in NCAA history (has since been passed by one player). Mason ranked 1st nationally in 3-point percentage a sophomore, 7th as a junior and 32nd as a senior in his three seasons at Duquesne. His .506 percentage as a freshman at Drake would have led the nation had he met the NCAA minimum of 2.5 made per game (he made 1.3/g. that season)

MICAH MAKES 'EM

Micah Mason tied for the ninth-best 3-point shooting season in NCAA history - and best by a D-I player in 22 years - on his way to shattering Duquesne's 3-point shooting percentage record in 2013-14. In the process, he became the first Duquesne player in school history to lead the NCAA in a statistical category:

 - The St. Bonaventure game on Feb. 11 was the first televised game in Duquesne history. It was also the first televised basketball game to originate from Pittsburgh. St. Bonaventure and Duquesne were the nation's only undefeated teams at the time. Beginning with the 1953 season the NCAA decreed that colleges could not participate in two post-season tournaments in the same year.*

COVID CHALLENGES: The 2020-21 season, played in the midst of a global pandemic was like no other. Duquesne had five December games canceled or postponed for COVID-related reasons, which kept the Dukes sidelined from Dec. 2 to Jan. 2. DU which, did not have a full-team practice from Dec. 3 to Dec. 26, made the charter flight to St. Louis for a Dec. 30 game vs. SLU, but had that game postponed due to positive tests within the Saint Louis program. In a program first, DU waived its Feb. 24 home game with George Washington to play twice in two days in D.C. on Jan. 2 & 3, before playing its latest home opener in 89 years on Jan. 5 vs. Davidson. DU had a second in-season pause which forced postponement of the Feb. 7 VCU game and resulted in the eventually ppd. George Mason game being moved from Feb. 13 to Feb. 17. The Dukes also had a two-week COVID-related program pause prior to the season that ended October 29. The final count: cancellations (3, all nonconference), postponements (6, all A-10), games rescheduled (4, all A-10 including games originally ppd.). DU's 18 games played were its fewest since 1938-39.

COVID NOTES: Duquesne was idle from Dec. 20 through Jan. 7 due to pandemic-related pauses. In all, four late-December, early-January games were altered: DU's Dec. 22 non-conference game vs. Wofford was canceled, the Dec. 30 Atlantic 10 opener at Davidson was moved to Feb. 14, the Jan. 2 home game vs. George Mason was not rescheduled and the Jan. 5 George Washington home game was moved to Feb. 16. The rescheduling gave the Dukes three games in five days (and four in eight days) in mid-February.

CUMBERLAND POSEY

Class of 2016

Cumberland Posey (top left) was the first person to be inducted to both the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Cumberland Posey, Jr., recognized as the first African-American athlete in Duquesne University history, was elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, on April 4, 2016.

Posey, who played at Duquesne from 1916-18, is the first Duke to achieve basketball's highest honor.

Widely recognized as one of the top players of his time, Posey was one of 16 nominees presented to the special direct-elect Early African American Pioneers Committee.

The Pittsburgh native, who led the Dukes in scoring for three seasons under the alias Charles Cumbert, was considered - along with Harvard grad Edwin Henderson, a 2013 Naismith Hall of Fame inductee - to have been instrumental in introducing basketball to the African-American community in the early 1900s.

In addition to playing for Duquesne, Posey's impact on the future of the game of basketball began when he formed the Monticello Rifles - one of the first great Black barnstorming basketball teams. The Rifles, under Posey, won a Colored Basketball World Championship in 1911-12 before eventually absorbing all of Pittsburgh's best Black fives to form the Loendi Big Five, a team that became a dynasty by winning four-straight Colored Basketball World Championships between 1920 and 1923.

While playing for the Monticello Rifles, Posey also played baseball locally for the Murdock Grays - precursor to the renowned Homestead Grays. Posey went on to manage and eventually own the Grays after retiring from basketball in the late 1920s. Cited as a chief architect of the Negro National League, Posey remained active in baseball until succumbing to cancer in 1946.

On Feb. 27, 2006, Posey was honored for his contributions to the game by being one of 17 Negro League greats selected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame. He is the first person to be named to both the National Baseball and Naismith Basketball Halls of Fame.

Posey was inducted to the Duquesne Sports Hall of Fame as part of a pre-World War II group in 1988.

CHUCK COOPER

Class of 2019

All-American Chuck Cooper (1947-50), shown here with Boston Celtics head coach Red Auerbach, was the first African-American drafted by an NBA team.

Duquesne All-American and National Basketball Association trailblazer Chuck Cooper (1947-50) was named to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on April 5, 2019.

The first African-American drafted by an NBA team, Cooper was one of 14 nominees presented to the special direct-elect Early African-American Pioneers Committee. With his induction, the Pittsburgh native joined Cumberland Posey, class of 2016, as the second former Duquesne player in the Hall of Fame.

"I don't give a damn if he's striped or plaid or polka-dot, Boston takes Charles Cooper of Duquesne!" were the history-making words of Boston Celtics owner Walter Brown when he chose Cooper with the 13th pick (second round) of the NBA Draft on April 25, 1950. Cooper was one of three African-American players who made an indelible impact on the NBA in 1950-51 along with Nat "Sweetwater" Clifton and Earl Lloyd.

Clifton, the first African-American to sign an NBA contract, and Lloyd, the first African-American to appear in an NBA game - he took the floor one day before Cooper - were inducted to the Hall in 2014 and 2008 respectively.

Chuck began his college basketball career at historically Black West Virginia State before entering the U.S. Navy in 1945. He served in the military for two years prior to enrolling at Duquesne. Cooper's basketball career flourished on The Bluff, as he led the Dukes to a 78-19 record and two appearances in the National Invitation Tournament in three seasons. He was the captain and leading scorer for a 1949-50 team that was the first in school history to be ranked for an entire season. The 1950 squad, which reached No. 2 in the Associated Press Poll, finished with a 23-6 record and No. 6 national ranking and advanced to the semifinal of the NIT before falling to eventual champion City College of New York.

Cooper, who had 2,725 points, 2,431 rebounds and 733 assists in a six-year NBA career (1950-56), spent four seasons in Boston where he played for legendary coach Red Auerbach and was a teammate of the great Bob Cousy. He also played for the Milwaukee Hawks and Fort Wayne Pistons and was part of five playoff teams.

A member of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame, Cooper earned a bachelor's degree in education from Duquesne in 1950. After his basketball career concluded, he continued to blaze a trail, earning a master's degree in social work from the University of Minnesota in 1960. In 1970, he became the City of Pittsburgh's first African-American department head when he was named to lead the Parks & Recreation Department. He later served as Pittsburgh National Bank's first Urban Affairs Officer.

Cooper passed away in May of 1984.

The Department of Athletics retired the jerseys of five of its all-time greatest players during halftime of the Xavier game on Jan. 27, 2001, when Chuck Cooper, Sihugo Green, Norm Nixon, Dick Ricketts and Willie Somerset all had replica jerseys unveiled from the Palumbo Center rafters. Mike James was added to the list prior to the Fordham game on Feb. 22, 2017. Each of the retired replica jerseys are represented at the UPMC Cooper Fieldhouse in the east wing of the concourse. Here is a brief career summary of the six honorees listed chronologically:

#15 CHUCK COOPER

1947-50 • Pittsburgh Pa. • (Westinghouse)

Cooper, a forward, was a consensus 2nd team All-American in 1950 (First Team - Look Magazine, Converse Yearbook; Second Team - International News Service, Helms Foundation; Fourth Team - The Sporting News) ... had his jersey #15 retired in 2001 ... led the Dukes to a 78-19 record and two NIT appearances in his four-year career ... captained the 1949-50 squad - the first Duquesne team to be ranked for an entire season by the Associated Press - to a 23-6 record and No. 6 national ranking ... made basketball history as the first African-American player drafted by a National Basketball Association team when he was selected by the Boston Celtics with the first pick of the second round (13th overall) on April 25, 1950 ... went on to have a six-year NBA career ... led Pittsburgh's Westinghouse High School to a City League title before heading to historically black West Virginia State College, whose program also produced fellow NBA pioneer Earl Lloyd ... played a promising semester there before leaving to enter the military in the winter of 1944-45 ... after a tour of duty on the West Coast, Cooper returned home to Pittsburgh and enrolled at Duquesne ... was inducted to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2019.

#12 DICK RICKETTS

1952-55 • Pottstown, Pa. • (Pottstown)

Ricketts, a forward, was Duquesne's first three-time All-American ... named 2nd team in 1953, consensus 2nd team in 1954 and consensus 1st team in 1955 ... had his jersey #12 retired in 2001 ... helped DU to a 92-19 record in four seasons ... averaged 17.7 points and 12.2 rebounds per game for his career ... still holds school records for career points (1,963) and rebounds (1,359) ... one of seven Dukes to average in double-digits (scoring) for four seasons ... averaged double digits in both points and rebounds in each of his four seasons ... scored 23 points against Bowling Green in his first college game in an era when freshmen rarely played varsity ball ... was the first player to score over 600 points and average over 20 points per game in a season (20.9 ppg.) when he totaled 606 as a sophomore ... teamed with Sihugo Green to lead the Dukes to the 1955 NIT title ... led Duquesne to a Top 10 final AP rank in each of his four seasons on the Bluff (No. 4 in 1952, No. 9 in 1953, No. 5 in 1954 and No. 6 in 1955) ... was the first player chosen in the 1955 NBA draft ... went on to have a three-year NBA career with the Rochester/Cincinnati Royals (1956-58) ... also reached the major leagues as a pitcher for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1959 ... turned down a professional baseball contract offer to attend Duquesne ... helped Pottstown High School to a national scholastic record 48 consecutive wins in baseball ... hit .400 in four seasons of baseball at DU.

#11 SIHUGO GREEN

1954-56 • Brooklyn, N.Y. • (Boys)

Green, a guard, is the only two-time consensus 1st team All-American in school history ... was named 2nd team in 1954 and consensus 1st team in 1955 & 1956 ... had his jersey #11 retired in 2001 ... averaged 19.8 points and 11.5 rebounds for his career ... finished with 1,605 points ... had 936 rebounds while standing 6-2 ... helped DU to a 65-17 record during his three-year career ... scored a then-school record 662 points as a senior ... helped the Dukes to the 1955 NIT title and later went on to be part of the 1966 NBA World Champion Boston Celtics ... "Si Green, at 6-2, must be the best college basketball player in the country today. In a sense, he is to college basketball what Ray Robinson was to boxing - the best fighter pound for pound," said the New York Post's Milton Gross following Duquesne's 1955 NIT Championship ... played for three NIT teams at Duquesne (DU went 65-17 in his three seasons) was the first overall pick of the 1956 NBA draft ... had a nine-year NBA career with five teams.

#24 WILLIE SOMERSET

1962-65 • Farrell, Pa. • (Farrell)

Somerset, a guard, was named 1st team All-American by Coach and Athlete Magazine and Helms Foundation and 2nd team by Converse Yearbook in 1965 ... had his jersey #24 retired in 2001 ... scored more points in three seasons (1,725) than any other Duquesne player ... his 22.7 ppg. career scoring average (min. 800 points) stands as the best in school history ... topped the 30-point mark a school-record 16 times in his three-year career ... was forced to miss the 1962-63 season with a leg injury ... led DU to NIT appearances in 1962 & 1964 before earning All-America honors in 1965 ... holds the record for most points scored in a college game at Pittsburgh's defunct Civic/Mellon Arena with his 47 points vs. Xavier in 1964... played professionally for the Baltimore Bullets (one season) and ABA Houston Mavericks (two seasons) ... played in the 1969 ABA All-Star Game ... holds the distinction of being first Duquesne player drafted by Major League Baseball, when he was taken as an infielder in the 3rd round (50th overall) of the 1966 January amateur draft by the Pittsburgh Pirates ... Somerset is the highest drafted DU baseball player ever.

#10 NORM NIXON

1974-77 • Macon, Ga. • (Southwest)

"Billy is just one of the best backcourt men ever at this school, and that covers a lot of good ones," said DU head coach Red Manning prior to the 1969-70 season. "For defense and inspiration, he has no peer." Said Sports Illustrated in its 1969-70 preseason college basketball issue - which picked the Dukes No. 5: "The Dukes are famous for guards - Dave Ricketts, Sihugo Green, Willie Somerset were some of the best who played their college basketball there - and this season they have another one, Billy (Zip) Zopf, a little lefty who steals passes, feeds his teammates, scores points, earns almost straight A's and hopes to be a Rhodes Scholar after he graduates. He not only can see the Monongahela River from up on the Bluff, he can pronounce it."

WHY DUKES?

The nickname "Dukes" dates back to the changing of the name of the University from the University of the Holy Ghost to Duquesne University of the Holy Ghost in 1911 (the shortened version, Duquesne University, became official in 1935). The name Duquesne was chosen in honor of Ange Duquesne de Menneville, Marquis du Quesne, the French governor of New France who built Fort Duquesne at The Point in Pittsburgh in 1754 and was the first man to bring Catholic observances to the city. Since a Marquis and a Duke dress similarly, the unofficial symbol of the school's athletic teams became a man dressed in a top hat, tails and a sash of royalty across the chest. Dukes being more readily known than Marquis, the name Duke was popularly assigned to the symbol and it has stuck ever since.

IT ALL BEGAN ON JAN. 9, 1914

Duquesne defeated Bethany, 43-28, at home its first game on Jan. 9, 1914. The 2015-16 season was the 100th of DU basketball (DU did not field teams in 1944-45-46 due to World War II).

CUMBERLAND POSEY, JR.

Duquesne, which was at the forefront among predominately white colleges in the recruitment of Black athletes, lists Cumberland Posey, Jr. as its first recorded Black athlete. Posey, who led the Dukes in scoring for three seasons from 1916-18 under the name of Charles Cumbert, is considered to have been instrumental in introducing basketball to the Black community in the early 1900s. Prior to his stint at Duquesne, Posey formed the Monticello Rifles - one of the first great Black barnstorming basketball teams. The Rifles, under Posey, eventually absorbed all of Pittsburgh's best black fives to form the Loendi Big Five, a team that became a dynasty by winning four-straight Colored Basketball World Championships between 1920 and 1923. Posey went on to greater fame as the manager and later owner of the fabled Homestead Grays of the Negro Baseball League. On Feb. 27, 2006, Posey was honored for his contributions to the game by being one of 17 Negro League greats selected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame. On April 4, 2016 his contribution to the game of basketball was recognized when he became the first person to be named to both the National Baseball and Naismith Basketball Halls of Fame.

DUQUESNE DOES DOUBLE DUTY

March 22, 1940

Duquesne, which was coming off a three games-in-five-days, second-place finish at the NIT in New York City, made the trip to Indianapolis to face Western Kentucky seven days later. In so doing, the Dukes - along with Colorado - became one of the first two teams to appear in both the NIT and NCAA Tournament in the same season. DU went on to defeat the Hilltoppers 30-29 before falling to eventual national champion Indiana in the national semifinal. Duquesne head coach Chick Davies, who knocked off St. John's Joe Lapchick and Oklahoma A&M's Hank Iba to advance to the championship game of the NIT on March 15, added another notch to his belt with the win over WKU - and another Hall of Fame Coach - in E.A. "Ed" Diddle.

THE IRON DUKES

The legendary Iron Dukes, coached by Chick Davies, came in together as freshmen in 1937-38 and played together for four seasons. The name "Iron Dukes" was derived from the fact that only five players were used in most games. The names are fabled in DU basketball history: Moe Becker, Lou Kasperik, Paul Widowitz, Rudy Debnar, Ed Milkovich (Melvin) and Bill Lacey. They reached their zenith in the 1940 and 1941 seasons, compiling a 37-6 record while bringing national attention to Duquesne basketball. The 1940 team (20-3) was Duquesne's first 20-game winner as well as the first in college basketball history to play in both the NIT and NCAA Tournament in the same season. The '41 squad finished 17-3 and declined a bid to the NCAA Tournament to play in the more prestigious NIT.

DUQUESNE TAKES A STAND

Dec. 23, 1946

Head coach Charles "Chick" Davies, honoring the stand of Duquesne's administration, refused to yield to Tennessee coach John Maurer's refusal to send his team on the floor in protest of DU's African-American center Chuck Cooper taking part in the game. Judge Sammy Weiss, acting chairman of the Duquesne athletic committee, addressed the nearly 3,000 disappointed fans on hand: "Speaking as a Duquesne Athletic Council official I insist that no player be barred from this game by reason of race, color or creed. The principle of the entire matter means more to us than a mere basketball game." Cooper told his teammates he would not be offended if they played without him. The players immediately took the stand that they did not wish to play unless he was in the lineup. "I can't say but so much about this," said Cooper. "I appreciate the position taken by my coach and Judge Weiss. I am glad that they refused to compromise with Tennessee, although I would have stepped aside rather than disappoint all those people who turned out to see the game. You can say, however, that I am glad and proud that I am a student at Duquesne and a member of the basketball team." Said Duquesne's legendary trainer Brue Jackson - who was also African-American: "I appreciate the pressure on all of you. I wish to say - speaking both for myself and Cooper - that Duquesne is to be congratulated on its stand."

MAKING A STATEMENT

Jan. 31, 1949

In its second game ever against a ranked opponent, Duquesne rolled to a 65-37 win over previously unbeaten and eighth-ranked Villanova (12-0) before 5,627 fans at Duquesne Gardens. The 28-point margin of victory still stands as DU's largest over a ranked team. Chuck Cooper led the Dukes, who were dominant from start to finish, with 20 points while holding 'Nova standout Paul Arizin - who would go on to be named the Wildcats' first consensus All-American in 1950 - to nine points.

"Charley Cooper, as usual, was brilliant," said Carl Hughes of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, "but the Dukes were at their playmaking best because they out-teamworked even the driving Villanovans." Villanova's defeat left Hamline University of Minnesota (14-0) as the nation's only unbeaten team. The '49 Dukes moved into the AP poll for the first time in school history one week later and reached a high rank of No. 17 before falling from the poll after a season-ending loss at Cincinnati. DU finished 17-5 in its first season under head coach Dudey Moore.

CHUCK COOPER MAKES HISTORY

April 25, 1950

"I don't give a damn if he's striped or plaid or polka-dot, Boston takes Charles Cooper of Duquesne!" were the history-making words of Boston Celtics owner Walter Brown when he made Duquesne's Chuck Cooper the first African-American player drafted by a National Basketball Association team in 1950. Cooper, who attended Pittsburgh's Westinghouse High School, was a consensus second team All-American as a senior. He led the Dukes to a 78-19 record and two NIT appearances in his four-year career and captained the 1949-50 squad - the first Duquesne team to be ranked for an entire season by the Associated Press - to a 23-6 record and No. 6 national ranking. Cooper, who played in the NBA for six seasons, died on Feb. 5, 1984. He was inducted to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2019.

TRAILBLAZERS

The 1963 Loyola (Ill.) Ramblers are recognized by the NCAA as the first major college basketball team to field an all-Black lineup. Duquesne, which was among the first schools to recruit and play Black student-athletes, didn't match this feat until later. However nine years earlier, DU fielded a team whose top four scorers were African-American: starters Dick Ricketts (17.2 ppg.), Sihugo Green (13.5 ppg.) and Jim Tucker (13.4 ppg.) along with sixth man Fletcher Johnson (7.8 ppg.) all played for the 1953-54 squad which finished the season ranked No. 5 (AP) nationally with a 26-3 record. The '54 Dukes hold the distinction of being the only team in school history to hold the No. 1 ranking in the nation, which it did for two weeks that February.

WE'RE NUMBER 1!

"Time was when Pittsburgh was a football and baseball city. The University of Pittsburgh Panthers under Coach Jock Sutherland were the terrors of the collegiate football world, and the Pittsburgh Pirates were perennial first-division players. Times have changed. Nowadays, with the Pirates in the depths and the Panthers rebuilding, Pittsburgh is basketball-crazy over the Duquesne Dukes. Last week, after the Dukes had beaten the strong, star-studded Quantico Marines, who had won 28 of their last 30 games, basketball coaches and sportswriters voted undefeated Duquesne the No. 1 team in the U.S." read the March 1, 1954 issue of Time magazine. The '54 Dukes, under the direction of head coach Dudey Moore, reeled off 22-straight wins to open the season and moved to the top of both the AP and UPI polls on Feb. 16. Duquesne, led by Dick Ricketts, Si Green and Jim Tucker, held the top spot for two weeks before dropping back-to-back games at Cincinnati and No. 16 Dayton on Feb. 26 & 27. DU, which finished 26-3, rallied to reach the championship game of the NIT where it fell to No. 9 (AP) Holy Cross. The Dukes ended up fifth in the final 1953-54 AP poll.

GREEN & RICKETTS ARE THE TOAST OF NEW YORK

March 20, 1955

Consensus All-Americans Si Green and Dick Ricketts combined to score Duquesne's first 44 points - including all 35 in the first half - as the Dukes pulled away in the second half to defeat Dayton, 70-58, to claim the 1955 NIT title. Green, playing in front of a hometown crowd at Madison Square Garden, finished with a game-high 33 points, while Ricketts ended up with 23. Said Milton Gross of the New York Post following the game: "Si Green, at six-two, must be the best college basketball player in the country today. In a sense, he is to college basketball what Ray Robinson was to boxing - the best fighter pound for pound." Green averaged 23.3 ppg. in the three-game NIT run, while Dick Ricketts scored 20 or more in each game on his way to averaging 21.3 ppg. Said head coach Dudey Moore following the win: "I've had teams with better all-around material, but this is the finest ball club. The spirit of these kids is almost unbelievable. I never thought they could do what they have done - but they refused to fold even when everything seemed to be against them. It's the most coachable team I ever had. They did everything I asked of them without complaint or question. There wasn't a bit of selfishness in any of them. Dick and Si were both real All-Americans, too - neither went for personal glory but instead always was ready to help the other get a score."

Si Green Selected First In NBA Draft

Sihugo Green is taken by Rochester as the first pick in the 1956 NBA Draft, making Duquesne the first - and only - team to have the No. 1 overall pick in the draft in back-to-back seasons. Green's teammate, Dick Ricketts, was taken with the first pick in the previous year's draft by Milwaukee. Green, the only two-time consensus All-American in school history, was selected ahead of San Francisco star Bill Russell. According to United Press International, teams were wary of Russell for three reasons: "(1) He wouldn't be available until late December because of his commitment to the U.S. Olympic team, (2) It was feared that the Harlem Globetrotters would bid high for his services and (3) There was doubt among some pro coaches that Russell would star in the pro game as he did in college."

DU TAKES DOWN NO. 2

Mar. 1, 1961

"The scene on the basketball floor after last night's Duquesne win over St. Bonaventure resembled the hysterical mobs that roamed the city streets when the Pirates won the World Series last fall," wrote Bob Drum in the March 2, 1961 edition of The Pittsburgh Press. "The students thundered out of the stands and mobbed the five men who played the whole way, including overtime, for the Dukes. And St. Bonaventure, which went with only one sub all night, slowly walked away unnoticed." What set off the standing room crowd of 5,439 at Pitt Field House? It was unranked Duquesne's 79-74 overtime win over the No. 2 Bonnies. Ned Twyman, who a week prior had written a letter to the National Invitation Tournament telling them to base a Duquesne bid on the Bonnies game - assuring the committee that DU would win - led the Dukes with 31 points. Duquesne University President Rev. Henry J. McAnulty, caught up in the excitement of the win over the 21-2 Bonnies, cancelled the next day's classes, giving DU students the opportunity to celebrate the upset victory. The Dukes, who won their final four games to finish 14-7, were overlooked for that desired NIT berth. The win over the No. 2 Bonnies - which stands as the highest-ranked team Duquesne has ever beaten - paved the way to a 22-7 record and NIT semifinal appearance in 1962.

SOMERSET LIGHTS UP THE CIVIC ARENA

Jan. 26, 1964

Junior guard Willie Somerset hit 17-of-31 shots and all 13 of his free throws in scoring a then-school record 47 points in leading the Dukes to an 83-76 win over Xavier before 5,833 fans at the Civic Arena.

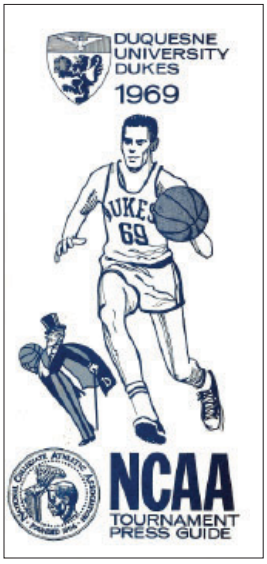
"Wonderful Willie Somerset roamed all over the hardwood in the downtown arena in one of the finest individual performances ever seen here ..." wrote the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette's Jack Sell. "... and, best of all, swished in his team's final eleven markers when the classy Cincinnati array threatened to catch up in the closing minutes." Somerset's 47 points, which broke the school record of 46 he set 22 days earlier in a 97-95 loss at St. Bonaventure, stood as the most points ever scored in a college game at the Civic Arena (1961-2010). Somerset finished his career with the most 30-point scoring games in school history (16).

A HEARTBREAKER IN COLLEGE PARK

Mar. 13, 1969

Duquesne, down 67-53 with 12 minutes left, made a furious comeback only to fall short in a 79-78 loss to heavily favored North Carolina in the 1969 NCAA East Regional Semifinal played at Maryland's Cole Field House. The ninth-ranked Dukes cut the lead to three, at 70-67, with six minutes left when North Carolina, which entered the game ranked fourth nationally, went into a stall to the consternation of the crowd on hand. The Dukes pulled within one when Barry Nelson intercepted a pass and scored with 30 seconds left to make it 75-74. UNC's Charlie Scott then unleashed an 85-foot pass to 6-10 Lee Dedmon, who didn't get back on defense on the previous possession. Nelson hustled back and slammed into Dedmon as he was shooting and knocked the ball away with 27 seconds left. The play was ruled goaltending by the nearest official. Dedmon missed the free throw and Willie Hines answered with a score to make it 77-76 with 16 seconds left. Following a timeout, Scott dribbled underneath the UNC basket and found Dedmon for a bucket to give the Tar Heels a three-point lead. DU's Billy Zopf hit a long jumper just before the buzzer for the final margin. Scott, a 1968 Olympian who was coming off a 40-point game in North Carolina's Atlantic Coast Conference tournament championship win over Duke, scored 18 points in the first half vs. Duquesne. Scott, who scored 28 of his 40 against Duke in the second half, was limited to just four second-half points (on one field goal) by DU sophomore Jarrett Durham, who guarded Scott in a box-and-one defense. Durham finished the game with 21 points. Duquesne finished with seven more field goals than the Tar Heels, who attempted 33 free throws to the Dukes' 17. Five busloads (and a number of carloads) of Duquesne students made the trip to Maryland.



GUZIAK GETS 50

March 6, 1968

Duquesne, despite coming off back-to-back losses which dropped its record to 17-6, headed to Altoona with a National Invitation Tournament bid in hand. Saint Francis, which felt it was being snubbed by the NIT, came into the game with something to prove. The fact that the two had split the earlier meetings - with Duquesne winning at home and Saint Francis winning in double overtime at the Quaker City Tournament in Philadelphia - only added to the atmosphere in the last regular season game for DU. With the Jaffa Mosque buzzing, the two teams put on a show with the Dukes coming away as 109-103 winners. In a night that saw the most combined points scored in a Duquesne game at the time, it was Ron Guziak who stole the show with a school record 50 points. Guziak, who had 34 points in a game against Westminster a month earlier, went 24-of-35 from the field and 2-of-3 from the foul line in the win. The senior, who scored 20 points in the second quarter alone, smashed the previous school record for field goals in a game (18) set by Jim Tucker in 1952. Despite a box-and-one defense, and being fronted by 6-3 future NBA star Norm Van Lier - who scored 35 points of his own, the 6-6 Guziak used his height advantage to hit a number of fall-away jumpers in the lane. "I remember Billy Zopf was injured, so they were looking for someone to supply some added scoring. It was just one of those games when everything I threw was going in," said Guziak to the Pittsburgh Press on the 20th anniversary of his big night. Guziak, who was drafted by the NBA Seattle Supersonics and ABA New York Nets in 1968, opted to pursue a law degree and went on to have a highly successful career as an attorney in the Washington, D.C. area.

FIGHTING IRISH DONE IN BY A FULL NELSON

Jan. 18, 1971

Barry and Garry Nelson combined for 33 points and 27 rebounds as the Dukes upset No. 9 (AP) Notre Dame, 81-78, before a crowd of 10,131 in what many consider DU's top Civic Arena win. Mickey Davis, who was held to one field goal in regulation, found Garry Nelson - who finished with a team-high 22 points - for the go-ahead basket in overtime and then scored five points in the final two minutes to seal the win. Barry Nelson's left wing bank shot tied it at 69-69 with 1:03 left in regulation to force the overtime. ND's Austin Carr - widely considered to be the top offensive player in the country - scored a game-high 31 points, but took 36 shots to get there. Jarrett Durham, who along with Mike Barr helped "hold" Carr to a 13-of-36 performance, scored 21 for the Dukes. Russ Franke's lede in the next day's Pittsburgh Press read: "When one of the greatest games ever played at the Civic Arena was over, a fanatic band of Duquesne students poured onto the floor and lifted Jarrett Durham above their heads, and Durham in turn lifted both forefingers signifying that on this night the Duquesne basketball team was No. 1." The victory - which was the fourth in what became a 15-game win streak - brought national attention to the Dukes, who added an 89-68 home win over No. 10 (AP) St. Bonaventure five days later. The following week, DU entered the AP poll at No. 17 and stayed ranked for the remainder of the season. The '71 Dukes, who finished with a 21-4 record and No. 15 (AP) national rank, saw their magical season ended with a 70-65 loss to No. 5 Penn in the NCAA East Regional at Morgantown, W.Va.

BERNING DOWN THE HOUSE

Jan. 31, 1974

Bernie O'Keefe took a feed from freshman guard Norm Nixon and buried a buzzer-beating 20-footer from the right corner to give the Dukes a memorable 88-87 overtime win over No. 8 (AP) Providence at the Civic Arena. O'Keefe's jumper served as redemption for Nixon, who missed a layup at the end of regulation with the scored knotted at 77-77. Coach Dave Gavitt's Friars looked to have sealed the win on back-to-back baskets by Gary Bello and Kevin Stacom that made it 87-84 late in the overtime period. O'Keefe answered with a layup, but Providence had the ball following a timeout with eight seconds left. Nixon, who was held to four points on 2-of-13 shooting, intercepted a pass near midcourt with four seconds left and found O'Keefe, who finished with eight points, for the game-winner. Providence, which entered the game 16-2, was one year removed from an NCAA Final Four appearance. The Friars came into the Civic Arena with 6-9 forward Marvin Barnes - the nation's leading rebounder - and the 6-5 Stacom ably filling the void left by departed guard Ernie DiGregorio. Barnes was as advertised, finishing with 27 points and 23 rebounds in a losing effort. Senior Lionel Billingy, who battled Barnes down low, finished with 21 points and 15 rebounds despite running into first half foul trouble. Kip McLane paced the Dukes - who entered the game with 6-7 record - with 24 points. McLane added 14 rebounds.

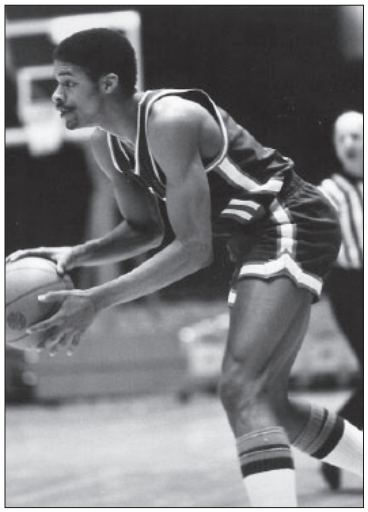
NORM'S NIGHT

Feb. 19, 1977

The University of Detroit, coached by Dick Vitale and led by standouts John Long, Terry Deurod and Terry Tyler, came into the Civic Arena with a 21-game win streak and No. 15 (AP) national rank. Duquesne, which entered the game with an 11-12 record, was a heavy underdog to the 21-1 Titans on what was being celebrated as Norm Nixon Night. Forty minutes and two overtimes later, Detroit found itself on the short end of a 95-88 score. Nixon was marvelous for the Dukes, scoring 29 points and handing out eight assists - with just one turnover - before leaving the game for the first time to a rousing ovation with 10 seconds left. The 6-1 guard set the tone for the win with a dunk just under two minutes into the second half. According to a news report: "With both teams coming out at a furious clip and the score see-sawing in a close nail-biter, Norm tipped a pass loose and burst in for a layup with a whole half court vacant before him. No fingertip layin here. With his parents up from Macon, Ga. to watch their gifted son, Norm started his takeoff just past the foul line, effortlessly revolved 180 degrees as he floated to the hoop, extended his arms full and reverse slam dunked the ball with his face to the opposite hoop and the rest of the players. As he hung on the rim for a moment, it froze the electricity of his play and then the arena burst with applause." The Dukes, unaffected by the ensuing technical foul, rode the emotion to the win. Vitale was so upset following the loss that he ordered his players onto the team bus without the benefit of a post-game shower.



DUKES STORM TO THE NCAAS

March 1977

Duquesne, led by future NBA great Norm Nixon's 67 points and 20 assists, reeled off consecutive wins over Penn State, Massachusetts and Villanova at Philadelphia's Spectrum to earn the Eastern Collegiate Basketball League's inaugural bid to the NCAA Tournament. The Dukes, who finished the regular season 3-7 in the ECBL West, entered the tournament with a 12-14 record. Nixon's influence was evident in the Dukes' 89-82 semifinal win over UMass. With the game tied at 69-69 and just over six minutes left, the senior guar called for a press during an on-court huddle before Richard Cotten hit two free throws. The Dukes immediately forced a pair of Minutemen turnovers to take control of the game. "Norm does things like that," said DU assistant coach Bill Chamberlain. The next night, Don Maser, who thought his basketball playing career was over two years earlier due to a kidney disorder, hit a pair of free throws with six seconds left to secure DU's 57-54 title game win over Villanova. "This is sweet," said Nixon to the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette as he cradled the championship trophy. "Hey, now I'm a 20-point scorer on an NCAA team. Sounds nice. Real nice."

A WILD, WONDERFUL WEEKEND

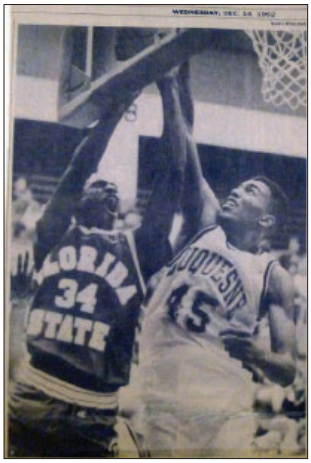
Dec. 29 & 30, 1978

"For Duquesne's B.B. Flenory, the West Virginia Coliseum is 'Almost Heaven,'" wrote the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette's Phil Axelrod after watching Flenory put together the top two-game scoring performance in school history in leading the Dukes to the 1978 West Virginia Classic title. All the 6-2 guard did was score 89 points in two days in back-to-back wins over Marshall and Ohio U. Said Axelrod, "Flenory could do no wrong. He squirmed and twisted his way for baskets from in close. He swished effortless 20-footers. He almost made it look too easy." Flenory scored 41 in an opening round win over Marshall and broke the WVU Coliseum scoring record - then held by Notre Dame great Austin Carr - with 48 points in the title game win over Ohio U. Flenory's 48 points, on 19 field goals, were two shy of Ron Guziak's school record. "I really wanted 50," said Flenory following the game. "I'm smart enough to know I can't keep this up," he continued. "I know there will be days when I can't score at all, so I know I'm going to have to roll with the punches."

A SEMINOLE STUNNER

Dec. 15, 1992

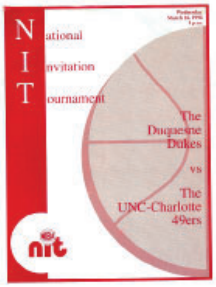
Things looked bleak for Duquesne when Florida State's Bob Sura scored 10 of his game-high 34 points in the first 1:47 of the second half to give the tenth-ranked Seminoles a 58-41 lead over the homestanding Dukes. In fact, many were headed for the exits when Doug Edwards threw down his second of back-to-back dunks with 12:25 left to make the score 68-52. It was then that Duquesne's Effrem Whitehead put on a long-distance shooting show. Whitehead, who hit all five of his 3-pointers in the second half, made four from long distance over the next 6:49, the last of which tied the game at 76-76 with just under five minutes left. From there it was all Duquesne, as the Dukes set a then-Palumbo Center record with 10 3-pointers. Derrick Alston led the Dukes with 20 points and 12 rebounds. Whitehead scored all 15 of his points in the second half for DU. Edwards finished with 17 and Sam Cassell, Sura's backcourt mate, added 14 for FSU. The Seminoles, who dropped to 3-3 following the loss, went on to finish the season 25-10 (2nd in the ACC at 12-4) and advance to the NCAA Championship Southeast Regional Final.



AN NIT RETURN

March, 16 1994

In Duquesne's first post-season appearance in 13 years, Derrick Alston came up big with a game-high 28 points, seven rebounds and five steals to lead Duquesne to a 75-73 win over Charlotte in the opening round of the 1994 NIT at Palumbo Center. Duquesne, which led by 16 in the opening moments of the second half, survived a furious Charlotte comeback to take the lead for good on a 10-foot jumper by Alston with 10 seconds left. Alston went on to be drafted in the second round (33rd player overall) by the Philadelphia 76ers. He was the highest Duquesne draftee since Norm Nixon was taken in the first round (22nd overall) by the Los Angeles Lakers in 1977.



A CINCY SURPRISE

Feb. 28, 2004

In a game that put a serious damper on Xavier's NCAA Tournament hopes, Bryant McAllister scored 21 points to lead four Dukes in double figures in a 74-68 win in Cincinnati. Duquesne, which entered the game 11-14, limited Xavier to two field goals over the last 10:51 and converted nine of 10 free throws down the stretch to pull off the upset. In becoming just the fifth visiting team to win in the four-year history of XU's Cintas Center, Duquesne also completed its first ever regular-season sweep of the Musketeers. All was not lost for then 17-10 Xavier, however, as the Musketeers would re-group and go on to win their next nine in a row - including an 87-67 win over No. 1, and previously undefeated, Saint Joseph's in the Atlantic 10 Tournament second round. After the loss to Duquesne, Xavier did not taste defeat again until a 66-63 loss to No. 6 Duke in the NCAA Tournament Atlanta Regional Final.

AN XCELLENT OUTING

Feb., 7, 2009

Aaron Jackson scored 21 points and sophomore Bill Clark added 18 as Duquesne rode an 81 percent shooting first half to a 72-68 win over No. 9 (AP) Xavier at the Palumbo Center. The victory, which snapped an 11-game Xavier win streak, was DU's first over a ranked team since 1997 and first over a Top 10 team since December of 1992. The Dukes, who led from the 17:43 mark of the first half on, built leads of 15 points in each half, before Xavier cut it to four on a banked-in 3-pointer with 17 seconds left. That's when Jackson slammed the door by burying four consecutive free throws. Clark hit one of two from the line with three seconds left to seal the win. The game was played before a sellout crowd of 5,358 - many of whom stormed the court at the final horn - marking just the second Palumbo Center sellout since 1994. Xavier, which entered the game 20-2, was the highest ranked team to fall to Duquesne since DU posted an 88-87 overtime win over No. 9 (AP) Providence on Jan. 31, 1974. Duquesne finished at 53.3 percent from the field against a XU team that entered the game ranked ninth nationally in field goal percentage defense. Clark scored 14 of his 18 points in the first half, Melquan Bolding added 12 and Jason Duty had 10 for the Dukes.

8 DAYS IN MARCH

Over an eight-day span in March of 2009, Duquesne made a splash on the national scene. DU's run to the final game of the Atlantic 10 Championship - the school's first appearance in the title game since 1981 - was chronicled by CBS Sports Network regional television (which aired quarterfinal and semifinal games) and the title game 69-64 loss to Temple was aired nationally by ESPN2. A Damian Saunders dunk and an Aaron Jackson drive from the championship final against the Owls were both featured on the Gym Gems portion of ESPN's College GameDay that evening. In addition, a photo of a smiling Melquan Bolding cradling a loose ball during DU's A-10 semifinal win over Dayton graced the front page of ESPN's web site the morning of March 14. The media coverage continued as the Dukes made their first National Invitation Tournament appearance since 1994, at Virginia Tech, four days later. The double-overtime 116-108 loss - during which DU's Aaron Jackson scored 46 points - was also televised live nationally by ESPNU. Highlights from that game were the lead story on ESPN's SportsCenter that evening. In all, it was a whirlwind stretch of five games in eight days that saw the Dukes earn part of the national spotlight for their own version of March Madness.

A GRAND FINALE

March 18, 2009

Aaron Jackson - playing in Duquesne's first NIT game in 15 years - gave the fans in Blacksburg, Va., as well as a national ESPNU audience, a night to remember with his 46-point performance in a 116-108 double-overtime defeat at Virginia Tech. Jackson, who five days earlier led the Dukes to within six points of an NCAA Tournament bid in a loss to Temple in the Atlantic 10 Championship title game, had just six points at the half before exploding for 40 points in 26 second-half and overtime minutes. The 6-4 guard had 23 in the second half, 11 in the first overtime and six in the second extra period, in tying the fourth-highest point total in school history. Jackson scored 16 straight DU points during a 6:39 stretch of the second half in posting the highest point total in VT's Cassell Coliseum history (opened in 1961-62). It was the most points scored against Virginia Tech since Houston's Elvin Hayes had 51 vs. the Hokies in 1968. Jackson tied the school record with eight 3-pointers as the Dukes set a new school mark with 17 3-pointers in 30 attempts. The season-ending outburst gave Jackson 1,428 career points in a school record-tying 120 games.

ARCH DE TRIOMPHE

Feb. 27, 2014

Tenth-ranked Saint Louis (25-2), riding a 19-game winning streak, needed one victory to clinch the Atlantic 10 regular season title when 11-15 Duquesne strolled into town on Feb. 27, 2014. The upstart Dukes, led by a then career-high 22 points from sophomore guard Micah Mason, stunned the sellout crowd with a 71-64 win - DU's first road victory over a Top 10 team in 52 years. The Dukes finished strong, making 12 of their last 15 shots after Saint Louis had taken its largest lead at 42-35 with just under 14 minutes left. Mason, who went 4-of-5 from 3-point, started Duquesne's game-closing run with a 30-foot 3-pointer at the shot clock buzzer. Jerry Jones, who scored 19 points off the bench, followed with another 3-pointer and layup to give the Dukes their first lead of the second half with 11:35 left. Dominque McKoy gave the Dukes the lead for good with 11:06 remaining. McKoy's bucket ignited a 10-0 run that pushed the Duquesne lead to 53-44. Duquesne went 8-of-15 from 3-point against a SLU defense that began the week leading the nation in 3-point field goal defense (.266). Mason, the nation's leading 3-point shooter, and Jones were a combined 7-of-9 from the arc. The win was DU's first over a Top 10 team since a 72-68 win over No. 9 (AP) Xavier on Feb. 7, 2009. It was also DU's first road win over a Top 10 team since a 73-72 victory at No. 6 (AP) Bradley on March 5, 1962. It was the 16th time in school history - and just the third time since 1975 - that an unranked Duquesne team defeated a Top 10 opponent. The game was televised nationally by NBCSN.

A RIDE FOR THE AGES

March 13-17, 2024

Despite an 0-5 start to Atlantic 10 play, Duquesne won 10 of its final 13 conference games to secure the sixth seed in the 2024 Atlantic 10 Championship. Buoyed by a deep rotation, the Dukes earned four wins in five days in Brooklyn, N.Y., at the Barclays Center, to claim their first Atlantic 10 Championship and automatic bid to the NCAA Championship since 1977. As the No. 6 seed in the 2024 Atlantic 10 Championship, the Dukes defeated Saint Louis, #24 Dayton, St. Bonaventure and VCU en route to the tournament crown. Senior guard Dae Dae Grant was named the 2024 Atlantic 10 Championship Most Outstanding Player after averaging 16.3 points, 2.3 rebounds and 3.5 assists in four games while shooting 42.6 percent (23-for-54) from the field, including 41.4 percent (12-for-29) from beyond the arc. Joining Grant as a member of the 2024 Atlantic 10 All-Tournament Team was guard Jimmy Clark III, who averaged 15.8 points, 5.0 rebounds and 4.3 assists while converting 13 of his 15 opportunities at the free-throw line (86.7%). The four wins stretched the winning streak for Duquesne to eight.

2024 ATLANTIC 10 TOURNAMENT

Game-by-Game Capsules

Duquesne 83, Saint Louis 73 (Second Round)
March 13, 2024 | Brooklyn, N.Y.

Less than four minutes into the contest Duquesne owned a double-digit lead, 12-2, on the strength of a balanced attack offensively. Jimmy Clark III and Dae Dae Grant each connected from beyond the arc, while the inside game produced layups from Dusan Mahorcic, Tre Williams and David Dixon. The Dukes were able to keep their lead in double figures, including 17-7 after a pull-up jumper from Grant, but the Billikens used a 13-4 run to close to within 21-20. SLU was never able to grab the lead, as a 9-2 burst helped Duquesne open up a 41-32 advantage en route to a five-point lead at halftime, 43-38. Clark III opened the second half with three-pointers on consecutive possessions to again push the advantage back to double digits, and his turnaround jumper at the 17:24 mark opened up a 51-39 cushion for the Dukes.

Duquesne 65, (#24 AP) Dayton 57 (Quarterfinals)
March 14, 2024 | Brooklyn, N.Y.

DaRon Holmes II gave the Flyers a 52-48 lead with 7:15 to go after knocking down a pair of free throws, but Duquesne used a 10-0 burst to jump in front, 58-48. David Dixon got the rally started with a dunk off an offensive rebound, and Jake DiMichele put the Dukes on top for good, 53-52, with a triple from the top of the key with 5:06 remaining. Dae Dae Grant added a pair of free throws 37 seconds later, and his triple just inside of four minutes to go gave Duquesne some breathing room. Holmes would stem the tide with a hook shot in the paint and was also fouled in the process. He completed the three-point play to close Dayton (24-7) to within 58-55, but DiMichele answered on the other end with a driving layup to help keep the Flyers at bay.

Duquesne 70, St. Bonaventure 60 (Semifinals)

Dae Dae Grant gave the Dukes a 48-37 lead with 9:08 remaining with a floater in the lane, but the Bonnies used a 13-2 run to close to within 50-46 with just under three-and-a-minutes to go. Grant came through for the Dukes to stem the tide, as his off-balance attempt from beyond the arc on the wing in front of the Duquesne bench hit banked in to stretch the lead to 53-46. Out of the final media timeout of the contest, Jake DiMichele was left alone on the near wing and drained a triple to push the advantage to 56-48, and after a three-pointer by Assa Essamvous for St. Bonaventure (20-13), Jimmy Clark III answered with one of his own from deep. Clark III helped seal the win, as his driving layup with 1:51 left while drawing contact for the foul and subsequent three-point play extended the lead to 62-53.

Duquesne 57, VCU 51 (Final)
March 17, 2024 | Brooklyn, N.Y.

Owning a 36-22 advantage at halftime, the Rams (22-13) chipped away in the second half, closing to within 44-41 after a dunk from Toibu Lawal. Duquesne answered, getting a layup from David Dixon on a feed from Dae Dae Grant to pump the lead back to five, 46-41. Duquesne shot just 17.2 percent (5-for-29) from the field in the second half, but Jakub Necas came up big, as he took an outlet pass from the paint from Dixon and buried a three-pointer to help push the Dukes lead to 49-41. VCU didn't fold, scoring the next seven points to trim its deficit to 49-48 with 1:36 left, but on the next possession Jimmy Clark III found Jake DiMichele alone in the paint for a floater at 1:07 to push Duquesne to a 51-48 edge. The Dukes sealed the win at the free-throw line, including four from Clark III and a pair from Fousseyni Drame.

47 YEARS LATER, DUKES ARE DANCING

Peter K. Afiyo/Associated Press

Duquesne players and staff celebrate after beating VCU, 57-51, on Sunday in the A-10 Conference tournament championship game in Brooklyn, N.Y. The Dukes earned a spot in the NCAA tournament — their first since 1977 — and will play BYU on Thursday in Omaha.

GOING OUT ON TOP

March 18, 2024

One day after leading Duquesne to its first NCAA Championship since 1977, head coach Keith Dambrot announced at a press conference in the ballroom of the Power Center that he would retire at the conclusion of the 2023-24 season. Dambot, a native of Akron, Ohio, was named head coach of the Dukes March 28, 2017, and guided the program to a record of 116-96 (.547) in his seven years on the Bluff. The veteran coach wasted no time making an impact on the Duquesne program with 65 wins in his first four seasons, while his three 20-win campaigns, in just seven years, ranks third in program history. Dambrot's 116 wins rank fourth on the Dukes' all-time victory list. During the 2023-24 campaign, Dambrot led the Dukes to an overall record of 25-12 (.686), including a nine-game winning streak that culminated with Duquesne winning its first game in the NCAA Tournament since 1969. The 25 wins were the most in program history since 1953-94, when Duquesne finished 26-3 (.897) and appeared in the NIT. That team featured Sid Dambrot, Keith's father. Dambrot reached a significant milestone Feb. 8, 2023, when he posted his 500th career victory with a 75-52 victory over George Mason at the UPMC Cooper Fieldhouse. In 26 years as a head coach, Dambrot compiled an overall record of 529-305 (.634), and was one of 28 active NCAA Division I coaches with 500 more wins.

ONE FINAL SHOT BEFORE RETIRING

Lucy Schaly/Post-Gazette

Duquesne head basketball coach Keith Dambrot announced Monday he will retire at the end of the season during a news conference at the Power Center Ballroom on the university campus. News of Mr. Dambrot's decision comes just one day after the Dukes won the A-10 tournament championship, thereby earning a spot in the NCAA tournament for the first time since 1977. Mr. Dambrot, 65, will lead Duquesne (24-11) against BYU in a first-round game at 12:40 p.m. Thursday in Omaha, Neb. Story in Sports, C-1.

THREE DAYS IN MARCH

March 21-23, 2024

Duquesne traveled to Omaha, Neb., for its first NCAA Championship appearance since 1977 and continued its magical run, earning its first win in the NCAA Tournament since 1969 with a 71-67 victory over BYU at CHI Health Center. Duquesne jumped out in front, 9-0, with Dae Dae Grant draining a triple on the first possession of the game to spark a fast start. In the first half, the Dukes shot 48.5% from the floor and held a double-digit lead four times. The DU advantage got up to as many as 12 points, 33-21, at the 2:51 mark after a 14-1 run answered BYU's first lead of the game. The Dukes extended their halftime lead, 38-30, to a game-high 14 just over three minutes into the second half, 46-32, but DU had to fend off the a comeback effort by the Cougars. BYU chipped away and tied the game at 60 with 1:48 to play. Duquesne responded with five consecutive points from Jimmy Clark III, including a driving layup with 26 seconds left that helped seal the win.

Boisterous fans revel in team's rapid ascent as Dukes topple BYU

MEANWHILE ...

March 21-23, 2024

Just 912 miles away from the CHI Health Center back home in Pittsburgh, Pa., stands PPG Paints Arena, which hosted the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament for the second time in three years. A total of 54,879 fans over the course of three sessions were treated with upsets, records and free basketball. Oakland, out of the Horizon League, upset Kentucky, 80-76, in the first round behind a 10-for-20 performance from beyond the arc from Jack Gohlke, with both his three-point field goals and attempts setting a PPG Paints Arena record. Fans were also treated to a 40-point performance from Jermaine Couisnard of Oregon in an 87-73 triumph over South Carolina, the most points scored by a player in the building's 15-year history, while the two games in the NCAA Second Round both went to overtime. North Carolina State advanced with a 79-73 overtime win over Oakland, while Creighton needed two overtimes to surge past Oregon, 86-73. Over the course of the six games, a whopping 10 double-doubles were recorded, including a 30-point, 13-rebound effort from Trey Townsend of Oakland against North Carolina State.

ALL-AMERICANS

Duquesne has had a total of 11 players named All-American a total of 16 times. The Dukes have had a pair of consensus First Team All-Americans in Sihugo Green (1955 & '56) and Dick Ricketts (1955). Three time All-American Dick Ricketts is one of 13 who have played both in the NBA and Major League Baseball. The first overall pick in the 1955 NBA Draft by the St. Louis Hawks, Ricketts played three seasons for the Hawks and Royals before giving up basketball - and a then-sizable five-figure salary - to pursue a career in baseball. Ricketts, who pitched and played first base at Duquesne, pitched in 12 major league games for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1959. He continued playing minor league ball through 1964.

DUQUESNE'S NBA HISTORY

Duquesne University has had a total of 33 players drafted, with 21 Dukes having seen action in an NBA game. Chuck Cooper became the first Duquesne player - and first Black player - drafted in the history of the National Basketball Association when he was chosen in the second round of the 1950 draft by the Boston Celtics.

The first DU players to see action in the NBA were Moe Becker, Ed Melvin and Walt Miller, who all debuted in 1946 with the Pittsburgh Ironmen (Becker also played for the Boston Celtics and Detroit Falcons that season).

Duquesne has had three first round picks in Dick Ricketts (1955), Si Green (1956) and Norm Nixon (1977). Ricketts and Green were both the first players selected in the draft, making Duquesne the only school in NCAA history to have the back-to-back first picks in the NBA Draft. Few remember that Green was selected ahead of San Francisco's Bill Russell in '56.

DU was most recently represented in the NBA by Aaron Jackson, who was signed by the Houston Rockets prior to the last regular-season game of 2017-18. Jackson played in eight games (one regular season and seven playoff) for the Western Conference finalists.

Jackson was preceded by guard Mike James, who played for the Dukes from 1995-98. James, who originally signed as a free agent with the Miami Heat in 2001, completed a 12-year NBA career with the Chicago Bulls in 2013-14. James played for 11 teams in 12 NBA seasons.

DID YOU KNOW?

All-American guard Willie Somerset holds the distinction of being first Duquesne player drafted by Major League Baseball. Somerset, who was taken as an infielder in the 3rd round (50th overall) of the 1966 January draft by the Pittsburgh Pirates, is the highest drafted DU baseball player ever. (1966 was also the first year in which a January draft was held in addition to the regular June draft. The practice of holding two drafts per year would last until the 1986 Amateur Draft, after which it was discontinued.)

DID YOU KNOW?

Duquesne not only produced the first African-American player to be drafted by an NBA team (Chuck Cooper by the Boston Celtics in 1950), but that a former Duke, Jim Tucker, along with Earl Lloyd were the first two African-Americans to play for an NBA Championship team (the Syracuse Nationals in 1954-55).

 - Mickey Davis was selected in the 1971 ABA Special Circumstance Draft which included underclassmen who did not satisfy the "four-year rule" regarding the regular draft. The draft itself inlcuded just three selections.*

+ - When the NBA expanded to include ABA teams from Denver, Indiana, New York & San Antonio, players from the two remaining ABA teams - the Kentucky Colonels and Spirits of St. Louis - were made available in a dispersal draft on August 5, 1976. Mike Barr was the last of 12 players chosen.

DID YOU KNOW?

Jim Tucker is also part of another NBA footnote. On February 20, 1955, the rookie forward took just 17 minutes to reach double digits in three statistical categories - the fastest triple-double in NBA history - in a 104-84 win over the New York Knicks. Tucker finished the game with 12 points, 10 rebounds and 12 assists. The mark stood until Denver's Nikola Jokic broke it in 14:33 of court time vs. Milwaukee (30-17-15) on Feb. 15, 2018.

The ABL was formed in 1961 by Harlem Globetrotters owner Abe Saperstein in response to the NBA moving to the West Coast in 1960. The league folded midway through its second season.

The Associated Press college basketball poll began on Jan. 20, 1949 as a top 20 poll. The AP ranked just 10 teams from 1961 through 1968, before returning to a top 20 poll in 1969. In 1990, the AP adopted its current top 25 format.

JANUARY 31ST

If you are a ranked team playing Duquesne, you better hope the game is not on January 31st, as the Dukes are 3-0 all-time against ranked teams on the final day of January. On Jan. 31, 1949 - in DU's second game ever versus a ranked opponent - the Dukes defeated No. 8 Villanova 65-37. On Jan. 31, 1955, No. 4 Duquesne defeated No. 20 Niagara 65-48 and on Jan. 31, 1974, freshman Norm Nixon intercepted an inbounds pass with six seconds left in OT and fed Bernie O'Keefe who buried an 18-footer at the buzzer to give the unranked Dukes an 88-87 upset win over No. 9 Providence.

UPI/USA TODAY COACHES POLL

The United Press International college basketball (coaches) poll began in 1950-51 as a top 20 poll. UPI ranked 20 teams from its inception through 1990, before adopting its current 25-team format for the 1990-91 season. The UPI poll was taken over by USA Today in 1992-93. Beginning with the 1993-94 season, the Coaches published their final poll after the NCAA tournament.

NCAA AND NIT IN THE SAME SEASON

Duquesne and St. John's are the only schools in NCAA history to make multiple appearances in both the NIT and NCAA Tournament in the same season (Duquesne in 1940 & 1952 and St. John's in 1951 & 1952). Duquesne declined NCAA Tournament bids to play in the NIT in 1940-41 and 1946-47.

1952	St. John's (N.Y.)

Beginning with the 1952-53 season the NCAA decided that colleges could no longer participate in two post-season tournaments in the same year.

Duquesne's Jarrett Durham had the highest field goal percentage in the 1969 NCAA Tournament. Durham, a sophomore at the time, scored 64 points (21.3 ppg.) on 26-of-38 shooting (68.4%) in DU's three games on his way to being named to the All-East Regional Team.

NOTES: Duquesne earned its first win in the NCAA Tournament since 1969 with the victory over the Cougars ... The Dukes grabbed an early 9-0 lead at the first media timeout, with a three-pointer from Dae Dae Grant on the first possession of the game sparking the fast start ... The Dukes shot 48.5% from the floor in the first half and held a double digit lead four times ... Duquesne extended its eight-point advantage at halftime to its largest lead of the contest, 46-32, just over three minutes into the second half ... BYU chipped away and tied the game at 60 with 1:48 to play ... Duquesne responded with five points in a row and held on for the four-point win ... The Dukes went 9-for-10 at the free-throw line in the final 88 seconds with attempts from three different players, including a 4-for-4 performance from Grant ... Head coach Keith Dambrot announced his retirement three days prior after seven seasons with the Dukes and 26 years overall as a head coach ... The win was Dambrot's first in four tries at the NCAA Tournament (0-3 at Akron in 2009, 2011 and 2013) ... Grant led the way with 19 points ... Freshman Jakub Necas added a career-high 12 points and six rebounds in a season-high 30 minutes of action ... Jimmy Clark III had 11 points to go along with four assists and four steals, while Fousseyni Drame pulled in a team-high eight rebounds and scored eight points ... On the defensive end, DU recorded seven blocks and seven steals ... Duquesne held the lead for 38:50 of the 40 minutes ... The Dukes entered the game as the 11 seed in the East Region, with the Cougars the sixth seed.

NOTES: The historic run for Duquesne came to an end in the second round of the 2024 NCAA Tournament in Omaha, Neb., with No. 3 seed Illinois posting an 89-63 win over the Dukes at CHI Health Center Arena ... Terrence Shannon, Jr., and Marcus Domask combined for 52 points as the Illini shot 59.3 percent (35-for-59) from the field ... Illinois jumped out to leads of 16-6, 24-9 and 32-11 before eventually owning a 50-26 lead at the break ... Shannon, Jr. (14), Domsak (13) and Coleman Hawkins (11) each scored in double figures in the opening 20 minutes of action as Illinois connected on 20 of its 30 attempts (66.7%) from the field in the first half ... The game featured the final contest in the Duquesne careers of seven student-athletes, including guards Dae Dae Grant and Jimmy Clark III, who combined for 1,114 points during the 2023-24 season ... Clark III paced the Dukes against Illinois with 14 points and also added four assists, while Grant finished with seven points, five rebounds, two assists and a steal ... Grant and Clark III became the third duo in program history to score 500 points each in a season, joining Dick Ricketts (523) and Shihugo Green (551) in 1954-55 and Derrick Colter (609) and Micah Mason (608) in 2015-16 ... Grant finished the year with a team-high 559 points, four more than Clark III ... Duquesne also got 13 points and three rebounds from forward Fousseyni Drame, who shot 5-of-8 from the field, including 2-for-2 from deep, while going 1-for-2 at the free-throw line.

NOTES: Duquesne, which finished 3-7 in the Eastern Collegiate Basketball League (ECBL) West, reeled off consecutive wins over Penn State, Massachusetts and Villanova in the post-season championship to rise above the .500 mark and earn bid to the NCAA tournament where it faced Southern Conference champion VMI ... the Dukes, led by future NBA star Norm Nixon, entered the tournament with the worst record in the 32-team field at 15-14 ... VMI, at 25-3, returned the nucleus of a squad that upset Tennessee and DePaul in advancing to the 1976 East Regional Final ... the Dukes had leads of five and six points as Norm Nixon scored 15 of his game-high 27 points in the first half ... Ron Carter, a graduate of Pittsburgh's Perry High School, scored 14 of his team high-tying 18 points in the first 20 minutes to help the Keydets rally to a 33-33 tie ... Duquesne took its last lead when Don Gambridge scored the first bucket of the second half ... VMI built its lead to as many as seven, but the Dukes didn't fold, cutting the margin to 61-60 with 4:38 left ... VMI scored the next four points to up the lead to five ... the Dukes would get no closer than three the rest of the way ... the game featured nine ties and five lead changes ... Nixon, who scored nine straight points for the Dukes early in the first half, became fatigued in the second half and did not score over the last 8:22 ... Duquesne was outscored 15-2 from the foul line ... Pete Gillen was an assistant coach for VMI at the time.

NOTES: Penn, coached by Dick Harter, was one of two undefeated teams in the nation at the time of the game (Marquette was the other) ... Duquesne's Red Manning entered the game looking for his 200th career win ... the crowd of 13,861 was the largest to ever see a single NCAA tournament game and also the largest to ever see a basketball game in the state of West Virginia ... DU held Penn without a field goal over the final 3:30, but the Quakers hit 9-of-10 free throws over that span to seal the victory ... the Dukes fell victim to their own mistakes, turning it over 14 times to five for Penn ... Penn's Bob Morse scored 20 of his game-high 24 points in the first half against Duquesne's zone defense ... Jack Wojdowski held Morse to one field goal (and two free throws) in the second 20 minutes ... the defeat marked the first time in four NCAA tournament appearances that the Dukes lost their first game ... the loss ended the "Nelson Era" at Duquesne (59-16 from 1969-71) ... it was also the last game for fellow seniors Jarrett Durham and Steve McHugh.

NOTES: Co-captain Moe Barr hit the first of two free throws with five seconds left to break a 72-72 tie ... Jarrett Durham rebounded Barr's miss and converted two more foul shots with two seconds left for the final margin ... the win prevented Duquesne from posting back-to-back losses ... the Dukes did not lose back-to-back games all season ... Durham went 8-of-9 from the field in scoring 24 points for the Dukes ... the sophomore forward finished the three-game regional with 64 points (21.3 ppg.) on 26-of-38 shooting (68.4%) to earn a spot on the All-East Regional team ... his field goal percentage was the best of any player in the tournament ... Bill Zopf flirted with a triple-double with 23 points, 11 assists and eight rebounds for the Dukes ... St. John's was lead by Billy Paultz's 24 points and 12 boards ... the win completed a season sweep of St. John's by the Dukes who defeated the Redmen 72-62 in the first round of the Steel Bowl on Dec. 6 ... the game started at noon with a large portion of the crowd rooting for a Duquesne team that took heavily favored North Carolina to the wire two days prior.

NOTES: Duquesne, down 67-53 with 12 minutes left, made a furious comeback only to fall short in the 79-78 loss to the heavily favored Tar Heels ... the Dukes cut the lead to three at 70-67 with six minutes left when North Carolina went into a stall to the consternation of the crowd on hand ... the Dukes pulled within one when Barry Nelson intercepted a pass and scored with 30 seconds left to make it 75-74 ... UNC's Charlie Scott then unleashed an 85-foot pass to 6-10 Lee Dedmon, who didn't get back on defense on the previous possession ... Nelson hustled back and slammed into Dedmon as he was shooting and knocked the ball away with 27 seconds left ... the play was ruled goaltending by the nearest official ... Dedmon missed the free throw and Willie Hines answered with a score to make it 77-76 with 16 seconds left ... following a timeout, Scott dribbled underneath the UNC basket and found Dedmon for a bucket to give the Tar Heels a three-point lead ... DU's Billy Zopf hit a long jumper just before the buzzer for the final margin ... Scott, a 1968 Olympian who was coming off a 40-point game in North Carolina's Atlantic Coast Conference tournament championship 85-74 win over Duke, scored 18 points in the first half vs. Duquesne ... Scott, who scored 28 of his 40 against Duke in the second half, was limited to just four second-half points (on one field goal) by DU sophomore Jarrett Durham who guarded Scott in a box-and-one defense ... Durham finished the game with 21 points ... Duquesne made seven more field goals than the Tar Heels who attempted 33 free throws to the Dukes' 17 ... five busloads (and a number of carloads) of Duquesne students made the trip to Maryland.

NOTES: Jim Tucker's game-high 29 points were not enough as Illinois handed the Dukes a 74-68 defeat in the East Region Final ... the victory gave the Big 10 champions a passport to Seattle for the NCAA National Semifinal ... the Illini, which outscored the Dukes by a slim margin in each quarter, didn't put the game out of reach until the final two minutes which enabled them to waive eight free throws to retain possession of the ball and seal the win ... DU trailed 67-65 when a basket by Hal Cerra was disallowed and instead Illinois' Johnny Kerr was awarded a free throw ... Kerr made the free throw and the Illini went into a freeze for the remainder of the game ... Jim Bredar (16 points) scored five of his eight field goals in the fourth quarter to lead Illinois ... freshman Dick Ricketts added 22 points for Duquesne ... Tucker, a sophomore, scored 19 of his 29 in the first half for the Dukes, he finished the season with a DU single-season record 512 points on his way to earning second team All-America honors.

NOTES: Duquesne, smarting from back-to-back defeats at the NIT nine days earlier, used a 21-point fourth quarter to put away Ivy League champion Princeton in the East Regional Semifinal at Chicago Stadium ... the victory was the school record 23rd for the Dukes ... Jim Tucker, despite going 4-of-19 from the field, surpassed the school record for points in a season set by Ed Dahler (474 points in 1949-50) with a basket in early in the second quarter ... Tucker finished with 11 points and 19 rebounds ... freshman Dick Ricketts added 18 boards as the Dukes outrebounded the Tigers 54-25 ... DU's defense held Princeton's Fred Tritschler to four points, marking the first time Tritschler was held to single digits all season ... Duquesne shot 31.3 percent from the field, an improvement over the 28.0 percent and 16.0 percent the Dukes shot in back-to-back NIT losses to La Salle and St. Bonaventure, but still below its 40-plus percentage for the season ... said DU coach Dudey Moore after the game: "We'll have to improve a couple of hundred percent to give Illinois a battle. But off our form in the last couple NIT games, we were improved about 500 percent."

RECAP: Dae Dae Grant scored a career high-tying 28 points but it wasn't enough to overcome hot-shooting Rice, as the fifth-seeded Dukes (20-13) fell to the 12th-seeded Owls (19-15), 84-78, in the opening round of the Discount Tire College Basketball Invitational at Ocean Center in Daytona Beach, Fla. The Dukes, who trailed by 13 with just over two minutes left in the first half, rallied to take a brief second-half lead, but could not hold on as the Owls shot 57 percent. Jimmy Clark III scored all 13 of his points in the second half, and Tevin Brewer had 11 for the Dukes who went 14-of-36 from the 3-point arc. Rice did its damage in the paint, outscoring the Dukes 46-18 in that area. Rice went on an 11-0 run to take a 28-20 lead. The advantage reached 35-22 before Grant scored eight late points to help the Dukes cut it to 37-32 at the half. DU scored the first five points out of the break and took a 40-39 lead on a Brewer 3-pointer. Duquesne took its last lead on a Joe Reece dunk that made it 58-57 with 9:43 left. Rice led by five with just under three minutes remaining before putting together a quick 6-0 run to take a 78-67 lead. The closest DU would get the rest of the way was 83-78 on a Clark III 3-pointer with six seconds left. Rice, which went 5-of-17 from the 3-point arc, converted 27 of its 39 two-point attempts (69 percent). Grant (6-of-12), Brewer (3-of-7) and Clark III (3-of-8) combined for 12 of the Dukes' 14 3-pointers. Duquesne shot 42 percent for the game.

NOTES: Duquesne's largest lead was four, the last of which came at 17-13, with 10:04 left in the first half ... Rice's largest lead was 13, the last of which came at 35-22, with 2:08 left in the first half ... there were eight ties and nine lead changes in the game ... Rice took the lead for good on a Travis Evee basket that made that made it 59-58 with 8:44 left ... Rice led for 20:42 ... Duquesne led for 14:57.

RECAP: Brent Arrington scored 15 of his team-high 17 points in the first half, and DeJuan Marrero scored 10 of his 14 in the second, to lead Morehead State to an 82-72 win over Duquesne in the quarterfinal of the College Basketball Invitational at Morehead, Ky. Senior Micah Mason scored a game-high 24 in his final game for Duquesne (17-17). Fellow senior Derrick Colter added 16 for the Dukes. Xavier Moore had 15 for the Eagles (21-12). The Dukes trailed by three with 9:32 left before Marrero converted a three-point play and jumper to put Morehead State up seven. MSU took its first 10-point lead on a Marrero free throw with 7:22 remaining. Duquesne would get no closer than seven the rest of the way. There were five ties and six lead changes, before MSU mounted a 10-2 run capped by a buzzer-beating halfcourt shot by Arrington that made it 43-36 at the first half horn. Duquesne got eight early points from Mason early in the second half to stay within striking distance, before Marrero's three-point play gave MSU some separation. Morehead State pulled down 11 of its 15 offensive rebounds and outscored the Dukes 24-10 in the paint in the second half. Forwards Eric James and Nakye Sanders both fouled out for the Dukes. Morehead State, which shot 44.1 percent, scored 21 points off 12 Duquesne turnovers. Duquesne finished at 41.5 percent, including 9-of-29 from 3-point.

NOTES: Mason went 4-of-12 from the arc to bring his school single-season record for 3-pointers in a season to 118 ... Duquesne's largest lead was +1 (34-33), the last of which came with 2:16 left in the first half ... Morehead State's largest lead was +12 (82-70) with :01 left ... there were five ties and six lead changes before Lamontray Harris gave the Eagles the lead for good on a free throw with 2:15 left in the first half.

FG% - UO .393, DU .483; FT% - UO .769, DU .500; 3-PT% - UO .360, DU .464; Turnovers - UO 15, DU 17; Blocked Shots - UO 3 (Nared 2, Singler), DU 7 (Saunders 3, Johnson 2, Monteiro 2); Steals - UO 11 (Nared 4, Armstead 2, Singler 2, Sim, Strowbridge, Williams), DU 9 (Clark 3, Evans 3, Johnson, Saunders, Talley); Technicals - None. Officials - Dixon, Giarratano, Cota; Attendance - 5,369.

RECAP: Garrett Sim led four players in double figures with 20 points as Oregon survived a late rally to defeat Duquesne 77-75 in the quarterfinal of the CBI. The Dukes, who were down six with under two minutes left, had a chance to tie it when Sean Johnson drew a foul on a 3-point attempt with 1.5 seconds remaining. Johnson, a 71.4 percent free throw shooter, missed the first, made the second and intentionally missed the third. UO's Joevan Catron, who had 14 points and 11 rebounds, corralled the rebound as time expired. Bill Clark, whose 3-pointer with 1:55 left and layup with 10 seconds to go cut Oregon's lead from six to one, finished with a team-high 19 points. Johnson had 13 and Damian Saunders added 11 points, 10 rebounds and three blocks. The Dukes held the Ducks to 29 percent shooting in the second half and 39.3 percent for the game. Duquesne, which had five more field goals - including four more 3-pointers - than Oregon, was outscored 20-4 from the foul line as the Ducks shot 26 free throws to DU's eight. DU, which went 13-of-28 from the 3-point arc, jumped out to a 13-6 lead and was up 19-15 before Tyrone Nared started a 21-5 run with a jumper. Sim, who scored all of his 12 first-half points during the run, hit a 3-pointer to give the Ducks a lead they'd never relinquish. Duquesne cut it to 50-49 on an Eric Evans 3-pointer with 14:07 to go, but Oregon built the lead back to eight just over three minutes later on back-to-back 3-pointers. The Dukes cut it to three four times and to two once before Catron put Oregon up six on a layup with 2:08 left. It was then that Clark put together his personal 5-0 run to cut it to one. E.J. Singler hit two free throws with seven seconds left before Johnson drew the 3-shot foul from Armstead.

NOTES: Duquesne was the only team to win a road game in the tournament.

RECAP: Sean Johnson led five players in double figures with a career high-tying 19 points as Duquesne advanced to the second round of the CBI with an 87-76 win at Montana. T.J. McConnell had 15 points and four steals, Bill Clark scored 13 and B.J. Monteiro and Damian Saunders had 11 each for DU. Saunders, who was playing despite a stomach flu, added five steals and five blocks as the Dukes handed the Grizzlies just their second home loss in 15 games. Duquesne, which led by as many as 22 in the first half, shot 54.2 percent against a UM team that entered the game ranked 14th nationally in scoring defense (60.1 ppg.) and 15th in field goal percentage defense (39.4%). There was one tie and three lead changes before Johnson put the Dukes up for good with a 3-pointer at the 14:31 mark of the first half. DU used its speed and quickness to up the lead to 22 on a Monteiro jumper before Montana closed the half with a 10-2 run to make it 49-35. Nine of the 10 Dukes who played scored in the first half and all 10 had at least one rebound. The Grizzlies cut it to six on a Gordon Wood follow with 9:14 left before Clark answered with a 3-pointer. The Dukes led by seven with 7:42 left before Clark began a 6-0 run with a pair of free throws. Andre Marhold, who scored all of his career high seven points in the second half, added a layup and Monteiro scored off a pass from McConnell to give DU a 74-61 lead. Montana would get no closer than 10 the rest of the way.

NOTES: The win was Duquesne's first in post-conference tournament play since a 75-72 victory over Charlotte in the opening round of the 1994 NIT at the Palumbo Center.

RECAP: Douglas Davis came off the bench to score a game-high 16 points, including 10 during a 17-3 run to end the first half, as Princeton advanced to the quarterfinal round of the College Basketball Invitational with a 65-51 win over Duquesne at Jadwin Gym. Kareem Maddox added 15 points and Ian Hummer had 14 for the Tigers. Damian Saunders led Duquesne with 14 points. B.J. Monteiro and Sean Johnson added 10 each. Duquesne jumped out to a 20-11 lead as Princeton missed its first seven shots. Davis, who scored 13 in the first half, hit the first of three 3-pointers in the final 7:46 of the half to ignite Princeton's 17-3 run. Duquesne, which shot 37 percent for the game, missed eight of its last nine shots as the Tigers took a 28-23 lead at the half. DU briefly cut it to one on a Melquan Bolding layup a little over two minutes into the second half, before Princeton answered with a 15-3 run to take a 43-30 lead with 11:31 to go. Maddox, who was 6-of-10 from the field, scored eight points and assisted on another basket during the run. Princeton maintained a double-digit lead the rest of the way. Princeton, which shot 52 percent in the second half, finished at 47.1 percent. The Tigers went 4-of-14 from the 3-point arc with Davis accounting for all four makes. The Tigers outrebounded the Dukes 41-26. Duquesne was 1-of-13 from the 3-point arc before Johnson hit 2-of-3 in the game's closing minutes. The Dukes, who entered the game shooting 60.8 percent from the foul line, hit just 8-of-18 free throw attempts.

AT PITTSBURGH

Duquesne went 35-13 with 12 titles while competing in the Pittsburgh-based Steel Bowl with the University of Pittsburgh from 1952-53 through 1975-76 (DU did not compete in the first Steel Bowl in 1951-52). The first 13 tourneys were played at Pitt's Fitzgerald Field House - which served as DU's home court from 1956-57 through 1963-64 - and the last 12 at Pittsburgh's Civic Arena. The Pennsylvania Classic was also played at the Civic Arena the final year of the Steel Bowl. The Steel Bowl was reincarnated as the Pittsburgh Classic in December of 1976 in Duquesne and Pitt's first season as members of the Eastern Collegiate Basketball League (ECBL). The last city tournament featuring Duquesne and Pitt was the Golden Triangle Classic in 1983-84 (Pitt's second season in the Big East). DU also hosted the Duquesne Holiday Tournament in 2005-06.

THE DUKES AT MSG

Duquesne is 37-29 all-time at Madison Square Garden. DU's first game at MSG was a 31-20 win over Manhattan on Jan. 30, 1935. Duquesne hasn't played in the Garden since a 114-107 win over Iona on Jan. 22, 1991. The Iona game was the first of a doubleheader followed by Connecticut vs. St. John's. Prior to the Iona game, DU's previous game at MSG was an 84-69 loss to St. John's on Feb. 11, 1978 (the first half of a doubleheader with Rutgers and North Carolina State). Duquesne is 15-15 in NIT games at the Garden (all between 1940 and 1970). DU won its lone national championship in the 1955 NIT at Madison Square Garden (70-58 over Dayton).

DUQUESNE'S HOME COURT HISTORY

UNIVERSITY GYMNASIUM

21 seasons 1922-23 thru 1942-43

Duquesne played on a slanted stage below the chapel prior to 1922-23. The campus gym seated 1,200 and expanded by 800 more seats in 1941-42. The 1942-43 season marked the last time Duquesne played its home games on campus prior to the opening of the A.J. Palumbo Center in December of 1988.

DUQUESNE GARDENS

After suspending basketball due to World War II (1944-45-46), Duquesne reinstated the program while playing at various local high schools as well as Duquesne Gardens in 1946-47 & 1947-48. The season with the majority of games at the Gardens was 1948-49.

Duquesne 69, Dayton 64

Located on the site of the former A.J. Palumbo Center, UPMC Cooper Fieldhouse made its debut as the home of Duquesne men's and women's basketball as well as volleyball in February of 2021.

The opening marked the culmination of a 22-month renovation project that began in March of 2019.

Constructed during a global pandemic, the facility made its debut before a national ESPN2 audience that saw men's basketball defeat Dayton, 69-64, on Feb. 2, 2021.

The facility, named after Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer and Duquesne alumnus Chuck Cooper, features six suites, 55 club level seats as well as four unique fan corners with excellent sightlines to the playing floor. Wider, more accessible concourses as well as enhanced concession areas are among the many fan amenities.

Two high-definition Daktronics video boards, four lower level ribbon boards as well as a new scorer's table and sound system bring the building to life.

UPMC Cooper Fieldhouse houses the Folino Sports Performance Center featuring nearly 10,000 square feet of training equipment, sports performance labs and a nutrition center for all student-athletes, as well as the Joe and Kathy Guyaux Player Development Center which includes two regulation practice basketball courts.

Other areas of note include the spacious Gilliand Pavilion which offers unparalleled views of downtown Pittsburgh and serves as the home of the Merle Gilliand Duquesne Sports Hall of Fame presented by Sherwin-Williams.

The PNC Leadership Academy, designed to enhance the student-athlete experience by providing comprehensive programming to enable success in the classroom as well as in the transition into life after college athletics, is within the Gilliand Academic Center for Success in the Fieldhouse.

Access to the facility is provided by the A.J. Palumbo Atrium - which recognizes the namesake of Duquesne's previous on-campus home - located at the top of Magee Street, and the Clearway Community Energy Gate which provides building access from Forbes Avenue.

Duquesne adopted PPG Paints Arena - located one block from campus - as its "home away from home" in 2010-11.

The home of the National Hockey League Pittsburgh Penguins offers flexible seating up to a capacity of 19,100 for basketball.

PPG, in conjunction with Duquesne, has served as host of NCAA Men's Basketball Championship First and Second Round games in 2012, 2015, 2018, 2022 and will do so again in 2024.

The Atlantic 10 also called the arena home for the Men's Basketball Championship in 2017.

The Dukes, who walk to their home games at PPG, have a dedicated locker room in the state-of-the-art facility.

PPG PAINTS ARENA FACTS

August 1, 2010 • Building is dedicated.

December 1, 2010 • First college basketball game is played between Duquesne and Pitt.

336 • Approximate yards from the center of Duquesne's locker room at UPMC Cooper Fieldhouse to the middle of its dedicated locker room at PPG Paints Arena located one block from the DU campus (its 540 steps, trust us, we counted).

Oct. 4, 2016 • Building name is changed from CONSOL Energy Center to PPG Paints Arena.
