HORNED FROGS SPORTS NETWORK

For its radio call of last season's 34-13 win at Purdue, the Horned Frogs Sports Network was recognized by the Texas Associated Press Broadcasters for providing the best live sports play-by-play call in the state of Texas.

It was the 13th time since 2003 for TCU to receive the award. The TCU radio crew consists of play-by-play voice Brian Estridge, color analyst John Denton, sideline reporter Landry Burdine and studio host Kyle Tait. TCU's radio broadcasts originate from flagship station WBAP 820 AM.

The agreement, effective through the 2028-2029 academic year, includes IMG College's representation and management of game broadcasts and coaches' shows for radio and television, publications, internet sales, corporate partnerships, stadium and venue signage, game promotions and hospitality.

Each year on the TCU Sports Network, more than 200 hours of Horned Frogs sports programming is produced and distributed, including play-by-play and pregame and postgame shows for TCU football and basketball games.

TCU receives an enhanced regional presence through WBAP, which operates one of the most powerful stations in the country. The nighttime signal reaches 38 states in addition to parts of Canada and Mexico. WBAP consistently ranks as one of the top-rated radio stations in the Metroplex.

The TCU Sports Network broadcasts can also be heard in the Metroplex on KTCU 88.7-FM, as well as via stream on the TuneIn app, home games on Sirius/XM and around the world via the internet on GoFrogs.com. Additionally, TCU features a Spanish language broadcast on ZonaMX 99.1 FM.

GARY PATTERSON RADIO SHOW

The Gary Patterson Radio Show airs each Thursday throughout the season from 6-7 p.m. on 92.1 Hank FM. The show, hosted by Brian Estridge, features TCU players and coaches, and broadcasts live from Railhead Smokehouse in Fort Worth.

Gallegos also serves as the Missions Pastor for 121 Church in Grapevine.

The 2012 season opener against Grambling State marked the opening of TCU's Amon G. Carter Stadium after a $164 million rebuild to the site completely funded through donor support.

On Aug. 16, 2010, TCU announced an initial $105 million renovation of the west side and north end zone of Amon G. Carter Stadium to better enhance the football fan experience, upgrade amenities and transform the historic Fort Worth icon into the "Camden Yards" of collegiate football stadiums. With the addition of the east side renovation one year later, the total cost of the project rose to $164 million.

"We must continually provide students the best possible university experience," TCU Chancellor Victor J. Boschini Jr. said. "This includes building facilities to support a vibrant living experience and an outstanding learning environment.

"This stadium renovation, which would not have been possible without the generous support of our donors, for which we are very grateful, propels us to yet another level of excellence that positively impacts our university as well as the city of Fort Worth. We also are extremely grateful to the Amon G. Carter Foundation for their initial gift of $15 million that made this entire project possible, one that results in a significantly improved game day experience for all fans."

Construction began immediately following TCU's final 2010 home game versus San Diego State on Nov. 13, 2010. The historic south tower structure was first removed prior to the implosion of the iconic west side upper deck of the stadium during the morning of Dec. 5, 2010. Following construction, Amon G. Carter Stadium's seating capacity stood at 45,000.

TCU began examining the possibility of renovating its football stadium in 2006 when Luther King, chairman of TCU's Board of Trustees, appointed Clarence Scharbauer, vice chair of the board, to lead a stadium renovation committee. The committee's invaluable work, along with that of TCU administrators, led to a stadium renovation that lifted the historical icon to a level of national visibility on par with the University's championship-winning football team.

This is the first major renovation to Amon G. Carter Stadium, built in 1930, since the upper deck was added in 1956.

The Dan Jenkins Press Box in Amon G. Carter Stadium was dedicated on May 30, 2017.

A 1953 graduate of TCU, Jenkins brought fame to his alma mater and Fort Worth through his writings and love for the University.

Jenkins is a member of five halls of fame: World Golf Hall of Fame, Texas Sports Hall of Fame, National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Hall of Fame, the Texas Golf Hall of Fame and the TCU Lettermen's Association Hall of Fame.

Jenkins' highest honors in his profession include the Red Smith Award, the Ring Lardner Award, the PEN/ESPN Award, the lifetime achievement award in journalism from the PGA of America, and he was the first writer to receive the Old Tom Morris Award from the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America.

At his alma mater, Jenkins received the Distinguished Alumni Award in 1996 and the Frog O'Fame Award in 1971. In 1985, his family established the Dan Jenkins Sportswriting Scholarship. He also supported the John Justin Athletics Center, among other projects.

Jenkins covered many of the greatest games and personalities in college football history and served as the official historian for the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame and received their Amateur Football Award.

His sportswriting career spanned 70 years during which he wrote for the Fort Worth Press, Dallas Times Herald, Sports Illustrated and Golf Digest. He has also written 23 books. Three of his best-selling novels -- "Semi-Tough", "Dead Solid Perfect" and "Baja Oklahoma" -- were made into movies.

Jenkins was a three-year TCU golf letterman and captain (1950-52). Throughout his writing career, Jenkins covered a record 232 major championships including 68 Masters, his first in 1951 for the Fort Worth Press when Ben Hogan won his first green jacket. Jenkins remained active as a senior writer for Golf Digest until he passed away in March of 2019.

GARY PATTERSON

HEAD COACH

KANSAS STATE, 1983

20th Season as TCU Head Coach
23rd Season Overall at TCU

Since taking over the helm of the Horned Frogs in December 2000, Gary Patterson has become synonymous with TCU football and Fort Worth.

Patterson has won 22 national coach of the year honors. His 20 seasons make him the nation's second-longest tenured head coach.

The Horned Frogs' all-time winningest coach with 172 victories, which are also the most by an active head coach nationally at his current school, Patterson's .711 winning percentage (172-70) ranks fourth among active FBS coaches (minimum 10 years).

Patterson is tied for second nationally among active FBS head coaches in most AP Top-10 finishes with six (2008, 2009, 2010, 2014, 2015, 2017). He's also second among active head coaches in most top-25 finishes with 11.

Patterson led TCU to a 2014 Big 12 championship in just its third season in the conference. TCU has won six conference championships, in three different leagues, under Patterson. He has also been the coach of the year in each conference.

The Horned Frogs have won at least 10 games in 11 seasons under Patterson. Prior to his arrival on campus in 1998, TCU had just four 10-win seasons in its history.

During his 22 years on campus, including three seasons as defensive coordinator (1998-00), Patterson has seen TCU make 19 bowl appearances. TCU is 13-6 in bowl games with Patterson on its coaching staff and 11-6 with him as head coach. Prior to Patterson's arrival on campus in 1998, the Horned Frogs had only four bowl wins in their history.

In 19 seasons as a head coach, Patterson has coached 249 all-conference selections, 18 first-team All Americans, 22 Freshman All-Americans, two Academic All-Americans and a Rhodes Scholar in Caylin Moore. As TCU's head coach, Patterson has had 53 players drafted with a total of 129 in NFL camps.

Patterson's success on the gridiron is also mirrored in the classroom for his players. In eight of the last 11 seasons, TCU has been recognized by the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) as one of the nation's leaders in its graduation rate for student-athletes. TCU was one of just four programs to finish in the top 25 in the final 2010 polls and in the Academic Progress Rate (APR).

Patterson is widely regarded as one of the nation's top defensive minds. Since the NCAA began tracking statistics in 1937, TCU trails only Alabama for the most times leading the nation in total defense. The Crimson Tide have been No. 1 six times, while all five No. 1 rankings (2000, 2002, 2008, 2009, 2010) for the Horned Frogs are in the last 19 seasons under Patterson. From 2008-10, TCU became just the third program in NCAA history to lead the nation in total defense in three consecutive seasons.

TCU is 38-4 as a top-10 team under Patterson, including 27-2 when in the Associated Press or USA Today Top 5. Since 2000, TCU's 26-3 record (.897) as an AP Top 5 team is the second-best mark nationally.

Patterson received honorable-mention Big 12 Coach of the Year recognition in 2015. Despite having 20 starters sidelined at different points in the season and playing a total of 30 freshmen, which ranked second nationally, TCU posted an 11-2 record. The season culminated with a 47-41 triple-overtime victory over Oregon in the Valero Alamo Bowl. Trailing 31-0 at halftime, the Horned Frogs tied for the largest comeback win in bowl history and the second-largest ever in an FBS game. He was also named honorable-mention Big 12 Coach of the Year in 2017.

Patterson received 10 national coach of the year honors in 2014. He was honored by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, AFCA, Associated Press, Home Depot, ESPN.com, CBSSports.com and Scout.com. He also received the Eddie Robinson Award, Paul "Bear" Bryant Award and Woody Hayes Award.

Patterson became TCU's career leader in wins with a 56-0 victory over Grambling State in the 2012 season opener, a game that also marked the debut of the new Amon G. Carter Stadium. The previous TCU mark of 109 wins was held by Dutch Meyer (1934-52). The success of the program under his leadership was key in TCU securing an invitation to the Big 12 Conference and the $164 million rebuild of Amon G. Carter Stadium.

TCU's winning record in its first season in the Big 12 in 2012 came with the Horned Frogs fielding one of the youngest teams in the country. TCU tied for the national lead in most true freshmen played (16) as well as total freshmen (28) seeing the field. Nearly 70 percent of Horned Frogs who received playing time in 2012 were either freshmen or sophomores. TCU led the Big 12 in total defense with just one senior on its entire defensive depth chart.

In August 2011, Patterson was named the nation's top coach by Sports Illustrated and ESPN The Magazine. Sporting News tabbed him in January 2012 as the nation's third-best coach. In leading TCU to back-to-back BCS appearances in the 2009 and 2010 seasons, including a 2011 Rose Bowl championship, Patterson received 10 national coach of the year honors.

With 26 seniors lost to graduation off his Rose Bowl championship team, Patterson led a 2011 TCU squad to a third consecutive Mountain West championship. It was the first time the Horned Frogs won a conference title in three straight seasons. TCU was also the first team in MW history to win the league championship in three consecutive campaigns. The 2011 campaign saw TCU record its fourth straight 11-win season and become the only program nationally to reach 11 victories six times in a seven-year span (2005-11).

In 2010, Patterson guided the Horned Frogs to an undefeated season and Rose Bowl championship. TCU finished second in the final polls with a 13-0 record, its first perfect campaign since winning the national championship in 1938. Patterson was named American Football Monthly's 2010 Coach of the Year as he led TCU to its second straight BCS game. Other honors for Patterson included the Exchange Club of Fort Worth recognizing him as Fort Worth's Outstanding Citizen for 2010, while the National Football Foundation's Gridiron Club of Dallas selected him for its 2011 Distinguished Texan Award. Patterson also received the 2010 TCU Chancellor's Staff Award for Outstanding Service.

Despite losing two starters in the first two rounds of the NFL Draft and a pair of four-year starters at cornerback, TCU topped the nation in total defense in 2010.

The 2009 campaign saw Patterson selected for nine national coaching honors after leading TCU to a 12-1 record, No. 6 ranking and Fiesta Bowl appearance. The No. 6 spot in the polls in 2009 was TCU's highest season-ending ranking since 1955, when it was also sixth. The Horned Frogs had their first undefeated regular season since their 1938 national championship campaign. Despite losing seven starters to graduation, including three to the NFL, off 2008's No. 1 defense, the Horned Frogs led the nation in 2009 by allowing just 239.7 yards per game. TCU and Florida were the only schools in 2009 to rank in the top 10 nationally in total offense and defense.

Patterson was named National Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association and Sporting News while also receiving the Bobby Dodd Award, Eddie Robinson Award, Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award, George Munger Award and Woody Hayes Award.

Patterson guided TCU to an 11-2 record and a No. 7 ranking in the final 2008 AP and USA Today polls. It was the Horned Frogs' highest season-ending appearance in the polls since 1959. Included in the win total were victories over then-undefeated, top-10 teams BYU and Boise State. It was the first time since 1961 that TCU beat two top-10 opponents in the same season. TCU led the nation in total defense (217.8 yards per game) in 2008 for the third time in nine seasons.

An 11-2 record in 2006 included wins over Big 12 opponents Baylor and Texas Tech as well as a 37-7 victory over Northern Illinois in the Poinsettia Bowl. The Horned Frogs' defense ranked second nationally in run defense (60.8 yards per game) and total defense (234.9 yards per game) while placing third in scoring defense (12.3 points per game). TCU won its last eight games in 2006 by an average margin of 24.4 points. During that stretch, the TCU defense allowed per game marks of 10.8 points, 59.6 yards rushing and 185.1 in total offense.

In 2005, Patterson earned Mountain West Coach of the Year honors as he led the Horned Frogs to the conference championship in their first season of league play. It was also TCU's first outright conference championship since 1958. The Horned Frogs posted an 11-1 record for just the fourth 11-win season in school history and the second in three years. TCU also recorded its first undefeated league mark (8-0) dating back to 1938. The Horned Frogs opened and closed the 2005 season with victories over Big 12 teams. Following a 27-24 EV1.net Houston Bowl win over Iowa State, Patterson saw TCU climb to ninth in the USA Today poll and 11th in the Associated Press poll. It was TCU's highest season-ending ranking since 1959. TCU, picked to finish sixth in 2005 preseason MW polls, opened the campaign with a 17-10 victory at No. 5 Oklahoma. It was TCU's first win against an opponent ranked that high since a 6-0 victory over No. 1 Texas in 1961.

Patterson's success in 2005 was achieved while playing a total of 21 redshirt or true freshmen, tying for fourth nationally in that category. The 2005 Horned Frog defense led the nation in turnover margin (+21), interceptions (26) and takeaways (40). The offense set a single-season school record with 50 touchdowns while its 398 points scored ranked second all-time at TCU.

In his first full season as head coach with the Horned Frogs in 2001, Patterson was one of only eight coaches with no previous Division I head coaching experience to lead their teams to bowl appearances. He proceeded to take the Horned Frogs to a bowl in each of his first three years.

Patterson's 10-2 record and conference championship in the 2002 season earned him Conference USA Coach of the Year accolades. The Horned Frogs finished the season ranked 22nd in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll and 23rd in the Associated Press poll. Eleven of Patterson's career wins came in the Horned Frogs' 2003 campaign, when TCU climbed as high as sixth in the BCS rankings - the highest ranking at that time for a school from a non-automatic qualifying conference. Under Patterson's guidance, the Horned Frogs got off to a 10-0 start after opening the season ranked 25th in the Associated Press poll. They finished the season 11-2 and ranked in the top 25 for the second year in a row - the first time that had happened at TCU since the 1950s. His leadership of the 2003 squad made him a finalist for both the Eddie Robinson and Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year honors.

Patterson amassed 18 years as an assistant coach, including three with the Horned Frogs, before taking the torch from Dennis Franchione prior to the 2000 GMAC Mobile Alabama Bowl.

In 1998, Patterson's first season at TCU, the Horned Frogs scored a school-record six defensive touchdowns and allowed only 19.6 points per game - the fewest points per game in over 30 years. It was accomplished by a team that was 1-10 the previous season.

In 2000, the Horned Frogs allowed only 245.0 total yards and 9.6 points per game, ranking first in the nation in both categories. He was a finalist for the Frank Broyles National Assistant Coach of the Year award.

Prior to his arrival in Fort Worth, Patterson spent two seasons (1996-97) as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at New Mexico.

Patterson's defensive acumen dates back to his own playing days at Kansas State, where he played strong safety and outside linebacker for the Wildcats in 1980 and 1981. He served as a student assistant in 1982 and received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1983. He took the linebacker coaching position at Tennessee Tech while earning a master's degree in educational administration in 1984.

Patterson has been part of 22 bowl staffs, including one each with Kansas State, Utah State and New Mexico. The other 19 have come at TCU. Aside from being an accomplished head coach, Patterson is also a skilled guitar player. On several occasions, Patterson has entertained TCU fans with his guitar skills at pep rallies around the Fort Worth area.

A native of Rozel, Kansas, Patterson is married to the former Kelsey Hayes. He has three sons: Josh, Cade and Blake.

SONNY CUMBIE

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ QUARTERBACKS

7th Season at TCU
Texas Tech, 2004

Sonny Cumbie joined the TCU football staff in December 2013 and made an immediate impact upon his arrival in Fort Worth.

In his first season at TCU, Cumbie helped the Horned Frogs become the nation's most improved offense in total yards (+188.2 ypg) and scoring (+21.4 ppg). TCU's 21.4 points per game improvement broke the Big 12 record of 19.1 set by Oklahoma in 1999 (35.8; 16.7, 1998) and was the largest improvement by any team since Northwestern went up 24.0 points between 1999-00. The 2014 Horned Frogs ranked second in the nation in scoring (46.5 ppg) and tied for fifth in total offense (533.0 ypg). TCU set 26 school records for offense in winning its first Big 12 championship as well as the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

In 2015, for the second straight year, TCU set single-season school records in several major statistical categories. Additionally, the Horned Frogs ranked third nationally in total offense (562.8 yards per game) and seventh in scoring (42.1 points per game). Cumbie was instrumental in the development of Trevone Boykin into a two-time All-American and two-time finalist for the Davey O'Brien Award. Boykin, who earned 2014 Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year honors, was fourth in Heisman Trophy voting as a junior while tying for ninth as a senior in 2015. He signed with the Seattle Seahawks. In the 2016 Valero Alamo Bowl, Cumbie was key in quarterback Bram Kohlhausen rallying the Horned Frogs from a 31-0 halftime deficit to a 47-41 triple-overtime victory over Oregon. Making his first collegiate start, Kohlhausen earned Valero Alamo Bowl Offensive Most Valuable Player honors while also being named to the Associated Press All-Bowl Team after completing 28-of-45 passes for 351 yards and two touchdowns to go with two rushing scores.

The 2017 season saw TCU earn a trip to the Big 12 Championship Game and an AP Top 10 national ranking. Kenny Hill set a TCU season record for completion percentage (67.2) while leading the nation in third-down completion percentage (67.3). In two separate games, including the Valero Alamo Bowl when he was named the Offensive Most Valuable Player, Hill threw a touchdown pass, ran for a score and had a receiving touchdown. All other players in the nation combined to accomplish the feat just once in 2017.

In 2019, Max Duggan broke TCU true freshman records with 2,077 yards passing and 15 touchdown passes. He also placed second on the Horned Frogs with 555 yards rushing and six scores. He did not throw an interception with the first 143 pass attempts of his career, the second-longest streak in TCU history (154, Jeff Ballard, 2006) and third-longest since 2008 for a Power 5 true freshman quarterback to begin his career without a pick. Duggan was named honorable-mention Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year. Additionally, he was the Davey O'Brien Award National Quarterback of the Week after a 37-27 win over Texas.

Cumbie came to the Horned Frogs after serving four seasons as an assistant coach at Texas Tech. He was co-offensive coordinator and outside receivers coach in 2013.

Cumbie stepped into a play-calling role as interim offensive coordinator when the Red Raiders totaled 429 yards in a 34-31 win over Minnesota in the 2012 Meineke Car Care Bowl.

In 2012, Cumbie coached a pair of 1,000-yard receivers in Darrin Moore and Eric Ward. The 2011 Red Raiders featured the seventh-best passing offense in the nation with 4,145 yards. A total of 13 different receivers had 10 or more catches over the course of the campaign. In Cumbie's first season in 2010, the Red Raiders totaled 4,146 receiving yards and 39 touchdowns.

During his years as a student-athlete at Texas Tech, Cumbie worked diligently and waited patiently for his chance to serve as a starting quarterback. That opportunity came in 2004, when he led the Red Raiders to an 8-4 record. Texas Tech twice reached the 70-point mark. Cumbie capped the season by passing for 520 yards and earning Holiday Bowl Most Valuable Player honors in a 45-31 victory over No. 4 California. The 520 yards remain a Holiday Bowl record. Cumbie finished the season with 4,472 yards passing, the fifth-best total in school history and seventh best all-time in the NCAA. Cumbie received All-Big 12 honors on the field and in the classroom. He has a bachelor's degree in history.

Following graduation, Cumbie went on to play for the Los Angeles Avengers of the Arena Football League. As a rookie in 2006, he started 12 games and set a franchise record for most passes attempted without an interception (252). He was named to the AFL All-Rookie Team and was a finalist for Rookie of the Year. Upon completion of the 2006 season, Cumbie was signed by the Baltimore Ravens. Cumbie was back in the AFL in 2007, passing for 83 touchdowns in leading the Avengers to their first playoff victory in franchise history.

From 2005-09, during the AFL's off seasons, Cumbie served on the Texas Tech Sports Network as an analyst.

After the AFL ceased operations before the start of the 2009 season, Cumbie became the head coach and director of player personnel for the San Angelo Stampede of the Indoor Football League. Four games into the season, Cumbie added starting quarterback to his list of responsibilities. As he did with the Avengers, Cumbie led the Stampede to the playoffs and their first postseason win.

Cumbie and his wife, Tamra, are both natives of Snyder, Texas. They have two sons: Grey and Hays.

CHAD GLASGOW

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ LINEBACKERS

19th Season at TCU
Oklahoma State, 1995

Chad Glasgow, a member of Gary Patterson's first staff at TCU, returned in 2012 to the Horned Frogs following a one-year stint as defensive coordinator at Texas Tech.

Glasgow has been instrumental in TCU leading the Big 12 in total defense the last three seasons (2017-19). Since TCU began Big 12 play in 2012, no Power 5 program nationally has led its conference in total defense more times (five) than the Horned Frogs.

Glasgow was named TCU's defensive coordinator in 2016 after being promoted to co-defensive coordinator in February 2015. After coaching safeties his first 16 seasons at TCU, he became the linebackers coach in 2018.

The 2019 season saw Garret Wallow earn first-team All-Big 12 and honorable-mention All-America honors as he led the conference with 125 tackles. Additionally, he was named honorable-mention Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year.

In his first season with the linebackers, Glasgow coached Ty Summers who became a three-time All-Big 12 selection and seventh-round draft pick of the Green Bay Packers. Additionally, Jawuan Johnson was selected the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week in a win against Oklahoma State before closing the season by being named to the Associated Press All-Bowl Team for his efforts in the 10-7 Cheez-It Bowl overtime win against Cal.

Glasgow coached 26 all-conference selections at safety at TCU, including 2010 consensus first-team All-American and Jim Thorpe Award finalist Tejay Johnson. Sam Carter was a 2014 semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award.

Eleven safeties in the last 11 years under Glasgow signed National Football League contracts. The latest were Denzel Johnson with the Tennessee Titans in 2017, and Nick Orr with the Chicago Bears in 2018. Orr was first-team All-Big 12 as a senior.

All three starting TCU safeties in 2016 received postseason honors. Johnson and Orr were All-Big 12, while Niko Small was selected as the Autozone Liberty Bowl Most Outstanding Defensive Player for TCU.

The 2015 season saw Derrick Kindred earn first-team All-Big 12 honors as well as being an SI.com honorable-mention All-American. He was a fourth-round draft pick of the Cleveland Browns. Johnson, in his first season as a starter, was also All-Big 12.

In 2014, all three TCU safeties (Carter, Chris Hackett and Kindred) earned All-Big 12 honors. Hackett, a free-agent signee of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, had seven interceptions to lead the Big 12 and tie for fourth nationally.

Glasgow, a 2010 National Defensive Backs Coach of the Year by FootballScoop.com, was part of a TCU staff that helped the Horned Frogs lead the nation in total defense in each of the final three seasons (2008-10) of his first tenure with the program.

Glasgow made an immediate impact upon his return to the Horned Frogs in 2012. TCU led the Big 12 in defense with all three starting safeties receiving postseason honors. Carter was second-team All-Big 12, Elisha Olabode was an honorable-mention selection and Hackett earned Freshman All-America accolades.

Carter and Hackett received All-Big 12 recognition in 2013.

The 2011 Rose Bowl champion and second-ranked Horned Frogs, who topped the country in six defensive categories, became just the third team in NCAA history to lead the nation in total defense in three consecutive seasons (Toledo, 1969-71; Oklahoma, 1985-87).

Despite losing two starters in the first two rounds of the National Football League draft and a pair of four-year starters at cornerback, TCU's total defensive numbers improved in 2010 from the previous season.

The Horned Frogs allowed just 228.5 yards per game, 26.2 yards less than runner-up Boise State (254.7).

In addition to total defense, TCU also led the nation in scoring defense (12.0 points), pass defense (128.8 yards), pass defense efficiency (94.9 rating), opponent third-down conversion percentage (24.1) and fewest first downs allowed per game (12.0). TCU's defense also topped the country in three-and-outs per game (6.0).

Colin Jones was a sixth-round pick of the San Francisco 49ers in 2011 and a key special teams performer as the 49ers reached the NFC Championship game.

Stephen Hodge, who led the nation in sacks by a defensive back with eight in 2007, was a sixth-round draft pick by the Dallas Cowboys in 2009.

Hodge and David Roach earned All-Mountain West honors in 2007. Roach and Brian Bonner signed 2008 free-agent contracts with the New Orleans Saints and San Diego Chargers, respectively.

In 2006, Marvin White was first-team All-MW and later a fourth-round draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals. Bonner was a second-team All-MW selection.

White and Jeremy Modkins, who signed with the Cleveland Browns as a free agent, were All-MW in 2005.

Since arriving at TCU, Glasgow also tutored all-conference safeties Kenneth Hilliard, a free-agent signee with the Buffalo Bills, and Marvin Godbolt, who inked a professional contract in the Canadian Football League.

Glasgow coached safeties, including 2000 Southland Conference Player of the Year C.J. Carroll, at Southwest Texas State from 1998-00.

Prior to his stint at Southwest Texas State, Glasgow spent one year at Illinois State as the linebackers coach.

Glasgow also had coaching stops as a graduate assistant at both Oklahoma State (1994-95) under Bob Simmons and New Mexico (1996) with Dennis Franchione. Patterson was the Lobos' defensive coordinator that season.

A three-year letterwinner, Glasgow played linebacker at Oklahoma State. He earned a bachelor's degree from OSU in business administration in 1995.

Glasgow and his wife, Maida, were married in March 2010. The couple has four sons: Brance, Colt, Dayne and Breck. Brance and Colt are twins.

JARRETT ANDERSON

OFFENSIVE LINE

23rd Season at TCU
New Mexico, 1993

After coming to TCU as a graduate assistant in 1998, Jarrett Anderson is in his 23rd year overall with the Horned Frogs.

Following three seasons (2017-19) as inside receivers and tight ends coach, Anderson returned to the offensive line in 2020. It's a position he previously coached from 2014-16 when TCU set numerous school records in offense.

With the inside receivers in 2017, Anderson coached KaVontae Turpin into All-Big 12 recognition as he became the only player nationally to have touchdowns via receiving, rushing, passing, punt return and kickoff return in the same season.

In each of his three seasons with the offensive line, the Horned Frogs' attack ranked among the nation's best. The 2016 unit was led by second-team All-Big 12 selection Austin Schlottmann and Aviante Collins. Schlottmann and Collins went on to NFL careers with the Denver Broncos and Minnesota Vikings, respectively.

Center Joey Hunt and offensive tackle Halapoulivaati Vaitai received All-Big 12 recognition for the second consecutive season in 2015 and were NFL draft picks. Vaitai went in the fifth round to the Philadelphia Eagles, while Hunt was a sixth-round selection of the Seattle Seahawks.

In Anderson's first season with the offensive line, tackle Tayo Fabuluje earned All-Big 12 recognition and was a sixth-round draft pick of the Chicago Bears.

In February 2009, Anderson was promoted to co-offensive coordinator. He also became the running backs coach after serving as wide receivers coach the previous eight seasons (2001-08).

Anderson helped mentor true freshman B.J. Catalon in 2012 into becoming TCU's leading rusher with 582 yards. Catalon was also honorable mention for Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year.

In both of Anderson's first two seasons as a coordinator, TCU set single-season school records for touchdowns, points scored and first downs while also ranking among the nation's most productive units. The Horned Frogs won 25 of 26 games and made back-to-back BCS appearances, including winning the 2011 Rose Bowl.

With Anderson's guidance in 2011, Ed Wesley, Matthew Tucker and Waymon James earned honorable mention All-Mountain West honors as all three rushed for more than 700 yards.

In 2010, Anderson helped direct TCU to single-season school marks in touchdowns (73), points scored (541), total offense (6,199 yards) and first downs (327). The Horned Frogs ranked fourth nationally in scoring (41.6 points per game), sixth in passing efficiency (166.9), 10th in rushing (247.4 yards per game) and 12th in total offense (476.9 yards per game).

As a sophomore in 2010, Wesley ran for 1,078 yards to become TCU's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2003. He was a first-team All-Mountain West selection and one of 10 semifinalists for the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back.

Wesley, Tucker and James all recorded 100-yard games in the 2010 campaign.

In 2009, the Horned Frogs established previous single-season school marks for points scored (498), total offense (5,937 yards), touchdowns (65) and first downs (311).

TCU ranked fifth nationally in rushing offense (239.5 yards per game) and scoring (38.3 points per game) while placing seventh in total offense (456.7 yards per game) and eighth in passing efficiency (154.1).

Anderson helped mentor Tucker and Wesley into being the Frogs' second- and third-leading rushers with 676 and 638 yards, respectively. Those totals represented the fifth- and sixth-best rushing totals by a freshman in TCU history.

In 2008, Jimmy Young became the first TCU wide receiver to be named All-Mountain West Conference. Young had 988 yards receiving to narrowly miss just the second 1,000-yard season in TCU history. His 59 receptions tied for the fourth-best total on the Frogs' single-season chart.

Under Anderson's tutelage, three TCU receivers in eight years were drafted by NFL teams.

Cory Rodgers was a fourth-round pick by Green Bay in 2006. Adrian Madise and LaTarence Dunbar were selected in the fifth and sixth rounds in 2003 by Denver and Atlanta, respectively. All three finished their careers in the top 10 of various TCU receiving categories.

Reggie Harrell, who signed as a free agent with Dallas, became TCU's first 1,000-yard receiver in 2003. During his three-year career, Rodgers tied Mike Renfro's career TCU mark of 17 receiving touchdowns. Both Harrell and Rodgers rank among the top 10 in school history in career receptions and yards while earning all-conference recognition.

In 2006, Quentily Harmon closed his career as TCU's ninth-leading receiver with 111 catches. In addition, Michael DePriest was signed as a free-agent in 2007 by Indianapolis.

Prior to assuming his current duties, Anderson served on the TCU coaching staff as a graduate assistant from 1998-00, working primarily with the Frogs' offensive line.

Anderson spent one season (1997) as an assistant coach at Tyler Junior College, where he worked with the running backs and receivers. He began his collegiate playing career at Tyler before transferring to New Mexico. He lettered for the Lobos in both 1992 and 1993.

Anderson graduated from New Mexico in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in university studies and earned a master's degree in TCU's MLA program.

Anderson and his wife, Lisa, have two sons: Aidan and Eli.

BRYAN APPLEWHITE

RUNNING BACKS

1st Season at TCU
Northern Colorado, 1998

Bryan Applewhite joined the TCU football staff in February 2020.

Before coming to the Horned Frogs, Applewhite served the previous five seasons as running backs coach at Colorado State. In February 2018, he was promoted to the additional duties of recruiting coordinator. Two of the Rams' top-five season marks in total offense and points per game came during his time in Fort Collins.

A 21-year veteran of the coaching ranks, Applewhite spent five years at ULM (2010-14) before his arrival at CSU. He also spent one season at Montana State (2009) and six at Wyoming (2003-08) as running backs coach. Prior to joining the Wyoming staff, he coached at his alma mater, Northern Colorado, from 1999-2002.

In his four seasons at CSU the Rams have posted two of the top five scoring marks in school history (3rd—35.3 in 2016 and 5th—33.4 in 2017) and two of the top four marks for total offense, including a school-record 492.5 yards per game in 2017 (also 4th, 462.5 in 2016). Also in that span CSU's running backs have posted 24 individual 100-yard rushing games.

In 2018, Applewhite's running backs helped contribute to the 10th-best yards-per-game average in CSU history (410.5). He helped guide senior Izzy Matthews into the top 10 in school history for career rushing yards, finishing 8th with 2,654 yards, and to the No. 4 spot on the all-time rushing touchdowns list (30).

The 2017 Rams also set school records for first downs per game (25.5) and third-down conversions (50.3%). Senior Dalyn Dawkins earned second-team All-Mountain West honors in 2017 with 1,399 yards (fifth on CSU's single-season list) and finished his career third on CSU's all-time rushing list (3,185).

In 2016, Applewhite guided a successful trio of Rams running backs to an average of 217.8 yards per game to rank in the top quartile in the country (31st). Dawkins (a junior), Matthews (a sophomore) and true freshman Marvin Kinsey, Jr., each rushed for more than 500 yards and logged at least 90 carries, with each crossing the 100-yard mark in the same game on one occasion (vs. New Mexico, 11/19). In that contest, CSU totaled 412 rushing yards, the most in 15 seasons and the 8th-best mark in school history. Overall, CSU's 2,831 net rushing yards and 5.3 yards-per-carry average ranked fifth and second, respectively, in school history.

Applewhite's running backs also helped the Rams allow just 1.0 sack per game, eighth-fewest in FBS, and just one total in the final six games of the season.

In 2015, the Rams boasted the nation's 33rd-ranked rushing attack, and for the first time since 1997 at CSU featured two 700-yard running backs (Dawkins and Jason Oden, Jr.) and for the first time since 1977 featured three 500-yard running backs (Dawkins, Oden and freshman Matthews). Each member of that trio rushed for at least 140 yards in a game, making the Rams one of just two FBS teams to do so in 2015.

In his five seasons at ULM (2010-14), Applewhite served as the Warhawks' running backs coach and recruiting coordinator, and groomed two all-conference running backs. In 2012, ULM's running backs combined for a total of 19 touchdowns (17 rushing, two receiving) as ULM finished the season with eight wins and made its first appearance in a bowl game (Independence Bowl) since moving up to FBS in 1994.

In 2013, Applewhite's ULM running backs elevated further as six different running backs recorded 1,239 rushing yards and eight touchdowns. Centarius Donald missed the majority of the non-conference season, but came alive in conference play en route to All-Sun Belt honors.

Prior to joining ULM's staff, Applewhite spent one season at Montana State (2009) and six at Wyoming (2003-08) as running backs coach. In his one season at Montana State, Applewhite coached a two-headed running back tandem that tallied over 1,110 rushing yards and scored 10 touchdowns.

Under his tutelage, Applewhite groomed two of Wyoming's three all-time leading rushers in Devin Moore (2,963) and Wynel Seldon (2,672). Moore signed a free agent contract with the Indianapolis Colts and Seldon signed a contract with the Washington Redskins. Moore's 2,963 career rushing yards are the most all-time by a Cowboys player. Seldon holds the school record for most rushing attempts in a career with 636.

Prior to joining the Wyoming staff, he coached at his alma mater, Northern Colorado, from 1999-2002. A standout fullback at Northern Colorado from 1994-98, Applewhite played on teams that won two NCAA Division II National Championships (1996 and 1997), competed in the Division II Playoffs for four straight seasons (1995-98) and won North Central Conference crowns during his junior and senior seasons. During his entire tenure at UNC and Wyoming, Applewhite coached alongside former CSU defensive coordinator and linebackers coach Marty English.

Applewhite, a 1993 graduate of Brighton High School, joined the UNC coaching staff as a graduate assistant in 1999 and was elevated to full-time status in 2000. The Bears finished sixth in Division II in rushing offense (127.8 yards per game) and fourth in total offense (362.1) in 2002, and the 1999 and 2002 Bears competed in the Division II Playoffs.

Applewhite has served as a member of the American Football Coaches' Association (AFCA) Minority Issues Committee since 2006 and was recently reappointed to the Committee. In 2007, he was named to the AFCA Assistant Coaches' Committee and participated in the 2004 AFCA Coaches' Academy.

Applewhite received his bachelor's degree in psychology from Northern Colorado in 1998 and his master's degree in sports administration from Northern Colorado in 2001.

He and his wife Rachelle have two daughters, Morgan and Skylar.

ZARNELL FITCH

DEFENSIVE LINE

7th Season at TCU
TCU, 2006

Zarnell Fitch joined the TCU football staff in June 2014 as director of high school relations and was promoted to defensive line coach in January 2016.

Since being named defensive line coach, Fitch has helped TCU lead the Big 12 in combined sacks over the last four seasons while consistently ranking among the national leaders each year.

The 2019 Horned Frogs topped the Big 12 in nearly all major defensive statistical categories for the third straight season. Under Fitch's guidance, defensive tackle Ross Blacklock earned first-team All-Big 12 honors before becoming a second-round draft pick of the Houston Texans. Additionally, Corey Bethley was named honorable-mention All-Big 12 for the second consecutive season.

Fitch was a 2017 finalist for National Defensive Line Coach of the Year by FootballScoop.com. TCU's 42 sacks in 2017 were 11 more than any other conference team. The Horned Frogs were also fifth in the nation in run defense, allowing just 103.9 yards per game. The 2017 campaign saw Blacklock and Bethley earn Freshman All-America honors with Blacklock selected by the conference head coaches as the Big 12 Co-Defensive Freshman of the Year.

In his first season on the field, Fitch coached Aaron Curry into All-Big 12 recognition in 2016.

Fitch was a two-year letterman (2004-05) on the defensive line for TCU before playing two seasons in the NFL. He spent three years, including the 2013 campaign as head coach, on the football staff at Lincoln High School in Dallas, where he coached TCU wide receiver Emanuel Porter.

While at Lincoln, Fitch was also a special education teacher.

Fitch graduated from TCU in May 2006 with a communications degree and minor in social work. He then worked as a graduate assistant at TCU in both football and academic services.

After his NFL career, Fitch played an additional two seasons in arena football.

Fitch recorded two interceptions his senior year with the Horned Frogs. The second pick came in his final game, a diving grab in the EV1.net Houston Bowl win over Iowa State.

Fitch started three games at nose tackle while playing in all 12 contests in the 2005 campaign.

Fitch and his wife, Mollie, have three sons, Zarnell III, Hunter and King, and two daughters, Haylee and Hope.

PAUL GONZALES

SAFETIES

9th Season at TCU
UC-Davis, 2007

Paul Gonzales was named TCU's safeties coach in 2018 after serving the previous three seasons as cornerbacks coach.

The 2019 season saw Trevon Moehrig earn first-team All-Big 12 honors, Ar'Darius Washington named a Freshman All-American and Vernon Scott become a seventh-round draft pick of the Green Bay Packers. Pro Football Focus rated Moehrig and Washington as the nation's top-two safeties.

In his first season as safeties coach, Gonzales mentored Innis Gaines and Ridwan Issahaku into second-team All-Big 12 recognition.

Gonzales also made an immediate impact in his debut campaign with the cornerbacks in 2015, as the position was instrumental in the Horned Frogs ranking first in the Big 12 in opponent completion percentage (49.8) and fewest touchdown passes allowed (17). TCU was second in the conference in pass efficiency defense (112.6).

The 2016 campaign saw Gonzales coach Ranthony Texada into a second-team Associated Press All-Big 12 selection. Texada earned first-team All-Big 12 honors in 2017 while also being named to multiple All-America teams. He was a free-agent signee by the Washington Redskins.

Gonzales spent the previous three seasons as a graduate assistant with the TCU defense. He worked with the safeties and linebackers.

Gonzales came to TCU in 2012 after two years as the defensive backs coach at Pacific University. He served as a defensive assistant at UC Davis (2008-09) and was an offensive assistant at Pioneer High School in Woodland, Calif., in 2007.

A native of San Jose, Calif., Gonzales was a four-year letterman for the UC Davis baseball team. He earned his degree from UC Davis in communication and psychology.

Gonzales and his wife, Noel, were married in July 2016. Their son, Weston, was born March 3, 2019.

Oklahoma, 2016

Malcolm Kelly joined the TCU football staff as outside receivers coach in March 2019.

In his first season with the Horned Frogs, Kelly coached Jalen Reagor into a 2020 first-round draft pick by the Philadelphia Eagles.

Kelly came to the Horned Frogs after spending the previous two seasons at the University of Houston. He was a graduate assistant in 2017 before being elevated into an analyst position for the 2018 campaign. He began his path towards becoming a collegiate coach when he worked in a quality control role at Texas A&M-Commerce in 2016.

A two-time first-team All-Big 12 honoree and a 2005 Freshman All-American at Oklahoma, Kelly totaled 144 receptions for 2,285 yards and 21 touchdowns in just three seasons. When he left Norman, Kelly ranked second all-time at Oklahoma with his 21 touchdown catches and nine career 100-yard receiving games. He tied a school record with 11 receptions as a sophomore versus Texas Tech in 2006.

Kelly was selected in the second round of the 2008 NFL Draft by Washington and was with the Redskins for three seasons. He made 10 starts in 2009 and had 25 receptions for 347 yards. After concluding his NFL career, Kelly worked in private business before arriving at Texas A&M-Commerce.

A native of Longview, Texas, Kelly was a two-time first-team all-state selection at Longview High School.

DOUG MEACHAM

INSIDE RECEIVERS/TIGHT ENDS

4th Season at TCU
Oklahoma State, 1988

Doug Meacham rejoined the TCU program in 2020 as inside receivers/tight ends coach.

Prior to returning to the Horned Frogs, Meacham was offensive coordinator of the XFL's St. Louis BattleHawks. After leaving TCU following the 2016 season, he served as offensive coordinator at Kansas.

In each of his first two seasons at TCU (2014-15), the Horned Frogs' offensive attack ranked among the nation's best.

In 2015, for the second straight year, TCU set single-season school records in several major statistical categories. Additionally, the Horned Frogs ranked third nationally in total offense (562.8 yards per game) and seventh in scoring (42.1 points per game).

In his first season at TCU, Meacham helped the Horned Frogs become the nation's most improved offense in total yards (+188.2 ypg) and scoring (+21.4 ppg). TCU's 21.4 points per game improvement broke the Big 12 record of 19.1 set by Oklahoma in 1999 (35.8; 16.7, 1998) and was the largest improvement by any team since Northwestern went up 24.0 points between 1999-00.

The 2014 Horned Frogs ranked second in the nation in scoring (46.5 ppg) and tied for fifth in total offense (533.0 ypg). TCU set 26 school records for offense in winning its first Big 12 championship as well as the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

Meacham was a 2014 finalist for the Broyles Award, recognizing the nation's top assistant coach.

Meacham came to the Horned Frogs after serving as co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Houston in the 2013 season.

TCU marks the sixth school that Meacham has been an offensive coordinator. In addition to his role at Houston, Meacham coordinated offenses at Samford (2002-04), Henderson State (1999-00), Jacksonville State (1997-99) and Georgia Military (1994-96).

Prior to arriving at Houston, Meacham spent eight seasons (2005-12) as the tight ends/inside receivers coach at Oklahoma State. He was the Cowboys' passing game coordinator in the 2008-09 campaigns. Meacham was part of two of the most successful eras in Oklahoma State football history, first as a student-athlete (1984-87) and then during his tenure as an assistant coach. As a student-athlete, Meacham was teammates with former TCU wide receivers coach Curtis Luper.

The Cowboys ranked in the top 10 nationally in offense and averaged at least 40 points in five of Meacham's last six seasons in Stillwater. Oklahoma State was in the top five in the country in total offense in the 2010-12 campaigns, when it scored more than 50 points 15 times, broke the 60-point mark in seven contests, 70 points twice and the 80-point plateau once.

Meacham coached 2012 first-team All-Big 12 receiver Josh Stewart into one of the best sophomore seasons in OSU history with 101 catches for 1,210 yards and seven touchdowns. Stewart's 101 receptions were the fourth-most in school history and his 1,210 receiving yards trailed only Justin Blackmon (Jacksonville Jaguars) and Dez Bryant (Dallas Cowboys) on the all-time OSU list for sophomore wideouts.

Inside receiver Josh Cooper (Cleveland Browns) and tight end Brandon Pettigrew (Detroit Lions) were among other OSU standouts coached directly by Meacham.

Meacham was instrumental in establishing a record-setting offense at Samford. He directed an attack in 2004 that set several school records, including passing yards (2,986), pass completions (256) and completion percentage (59.8).

Prior to Samford, Meacham worked the same kind of magic at Henderson State, where he was offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. During the 2000 season, Meacham coached an offense that broke two Division II national passing and receiving records, four Gulf South Conference marks and nine school passing and receiving records.

Meacham's history of record-breaking offenses, however, began even before his stint at Henderson. Upon joining the staff at Jacksonville State in 1997, the Gamecocks went 7-4 and recorded the biggest turnaround in Division I-AA. During his tenure at Jacksonville State, Meacham's offensive unit broke 21 school passing and receiving records.

Meacham also spent three years as the offensive coordinator at Georgia Military College. He first joined the GMC staff in 1991 and served as offensive line and tight ends coach. In 1994, he was promoted to offensive coordinator and helped guide the school to an impressive 35-8 record during his tenure.

During his playing days at Oklahoma State, Meacham was on teams that participated in four bowl games (1983 Bluebonnet, 1984 Gator, 1985 Gator and 1987 Sun). He was a three-year starter on the offensive line for the Cowboys and had a string of 35 consecutive starts. During his Oklahoma State playing career, the Cowboys fashioned an overall record of 34-9.

Meacham earned all-Big Eight honors and was an honorable mention All-American as a senior. He was a captain of the 1987 Sun Bowl team that defeated West Virginia. Meacham blocked for both 1988 Heisman Trophy winner Barry Sanders and two-time Big Eight Player of the Year Thurman Thomas.

In high school, Meacham was a three-year starter and two-time all-district selection at Arlington's Sam Houston High School.

Meacham was born on Dec. 16, 1964, in Arlington, Texas. He is married to the former Kendall Deas and they have three children: Peyton, Cole and Brooks.

JEREMY MODKINS

CORNERBACKS

9th Season at TCU
TCU, 2005

Jeremy Modkins was promoted to cornerbacks coach in January 2018.

A former TCU standout, Modkins served as a defensive analyst the previous four seasons.

Under Modkins' guidance, Jeff Gladney developed into a first-team All-Big 12 selection in 2019 and a first-round draft pick of the Minnesota Vikings. The 2019 season also saw TCU finish first in the Big 12 in total defense with a pair of true freshmen (Tre'Vius Hodges-Tomlinson and Kee'yon Stewart) making starts at cornerback.

In his first season with the cornerbacks, Modkins coached Gladney and Julius Lewis into one of the nation's top duos at the position. Gladney was a second-team All-Big 12 selection while teaming with Lewis to rank first and second, respectively, in the Big 12 in allowing the fewest receptions per coverage snaps according to Pro Football Focus.

Modkins was a second-team all-conference selection and TCU's Defensive Most Valuable Player as a senior in 2005. He was a four-year letterman who made 35 career starts. He tied for third on the team his senior year with 67 tackles while adding three interceptions.

A Marlin, Texas, native, Modkins totaled a season-best 12 stops and a forced fumble in a 2005 victory over Utah to snap the Utes' 18-game winning streak. He closed his career with five tackles, including one for loss, while forcing a fumble and breaking up two passes in the 27-24 EV1.net Houston Bowl win over Iowa State.

After earning his TCU degree in communication studies in 2005, Modkins signed a free-agent contract with the Cleveland Browns. He also played with the Green Bay Packers.

Following his playing career, Modkins returned to TCU as a graduate assistant for the 2007 and 2008 seasons, earning a master's degree in liberal arts.

Modkins' brother, Curtis, was also a TCU standout (1989-92) and has been a longtime assistant coach in the NFL. He is now the Denver Broncos' running backs coach.

Modkins and his wife, Stephanie, have a daughter, Solvei.

DAN SHARP

DEFENSIVE LINE

29th Season at TCU
TCU, 1985

One of the more popular players to ever don the TCU uniform, Dan Sharp is in his 20th year during his second stint as a member of the football staff at his alma mater.

A 2005 inductee into the TCU Lettermen's Association Hall of Fame, Sharp returned to the Horned Frogs' staff in 2001. He previously coached nine seasons (1989-97) at TCU before heading to Tulsa in 1998.

Sharp was named defensive line coach in 2015 after serving as director of player personnel for special teams in 2014.

The 2018 season saw Sharp mentor L.J. Collier and Ben Banogu into first- and second-round NFL draft picks of the Seattle Seahawks and Indianapolis Colts, respectively. They were both first-team All-Big 12.

In 2017, Banogu and Mat Boesen were recognized with multiple postseason honors. They were first-team All-Big 12 with Boesen being named a first-team All-American. He was a free-agent signee with the Buffalo Bills. Banogu was the Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year.

In 2015, Sharp coached defensive end Josh Carraway and defensive tackle Davion Pierson to first-team All-Big 12 recognition. Carraway led the Horned Frogs with nine sacks.

Carraway repeated as a first-team All-Big 12 selection in 2016 and became a seventh-round draft pick of the Tennessee Titans.

As special teams coordinator, Sharp guided true freshmen Jaden Oberkrom and Ethan Perry to Freshman All-America honors in 2012.

Oberkrom was also a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award, presented to the nation's top placekicker. Perry's 44.5-yard average ranked 14th nationally and second for a single season in TCU history.

Oberkrom was an honorable-mention All-Big 12 selection in 2013. In his first two seasons at TCU, he had two of the four-longest field goals in school history while tying a Horned Frogs' mark with 79 consecutive extra-points made.

TCU returned two kickoffs for touchdowns in 2013, making it six out of seven seasons that the Horned Frogs had at least one return for a score.

In 2011, TCU was second in the nation in kickoff return average with a 28.2-yard mark. The Horned Frogs returned three kickoffs for touchdowns with Greg McCoy receiving first-team All-America accolades and being the Mountain West Special Teams Player of the Year.

TCU had the first-team All-MW return specialist all seven seasons it was in the league (McCoy, 2011; Jeremy Kerley, 2008-10; Brian Bonner, 2006-07; Cory Rodgers, 2005).

Under Sharp's tutelage in 2010, Kerley received All-America honors and was one of three finalists for the Paul Hornung Award. He was also a 2011 fifth-round draft pick of the New York Jets.

TCU topped the nation in 2009 in kickoff return average with a 29.2-yard mark. The Horned Frogs had three special teams touchdowns. Kerley returned two punts for scores and received All-America honors as a return specialist, while McCoy returned a kickoff 81 yards for a touchdown en route to setting a single-season TCU record with a 35.9-yard average.

Sharp coached placekicker Ross Evans (2008-11) for four seasons and saw him set eight TCU records and three MW marks. Chris Manfredini was 47-of-54 on field goals in being an All-MW selection the previous three seasons (2005-07).

Placekicker Nick Browne and punter Joey Biasatti were semifinalists for the Lou Groza and Ray Guy Awards, respectively, during the 2002 campaign. Browne earned All-America honors and was the Conference USA Special Teams Player of the Year in 2003.

Three of Sharp's tight ends (Chad Andrus, Brent Hecht, Shae Reagan) were inducted into the National Football Foundation's Hampshire Honor Society for academic excellence.

Under Sharp's leadership, Matt Schobel was the second pick in the third round of the 2002 National Football League draft and the 67th player selected overall. In 2004, Cody McCarty garnered first-team all-league honors.

Sharp previously coached at TCU (1991-97) under both Jim Wacker and Pat Sullivan. He mentored the tight ends for five years and handled the defensive ends for two seasons. Before joining the TCU staff on a full-time basis, Sharp served as a graduate assistant under Wacker.

Sharp was a tight end on TCU's 1984 team which went 8-3 and earned a trip to the Bluebonnet Bowl. He had a key touchdown reception in a 32-31 win at Arkansas, the Frogs' first victory in Fayetteville in 29 years.

In addition to providing outstanding blocking for TCU's vaunted running game, Sharp earned All-Southwest Conference honors in 1984 as he caught 42 passes for 596 yards and seven touchdowns. He spent two years in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons before returning to TCU in 1988.

He received his bachelor's degree in secondary education from TCU in 1985 and his master's in liberal arts in 1992.

Sharp and his wife, Cindy, both natives of Boerne, Texas, are the parents of two daughters: Alexandra and Andrea.

NCAA INFRACTIONS

A total of 33 TCU student-athletes in three sports were paid for work they did not perform as campus summer employees, according to a Division I Committee on Infractions decision. In addition, actions by a former head swimming and diving coach caused the number of coaches in the swimming and diving programs to exceed the maximum allowed. Further, the head coach and members of his staff directed or supervised student-athletes' participation in practice time that exceeded limits. Because the head swimming coach was personally involved in the violations, he agreed that he failed to promote an atmosphere of rules compliance.

Student-athletes from the football and men's and women's basketball programs received compensation beyond the hours they worked after they did not clock out after leaving the campus job site, according to the committee's decision. The excess payments totaled nearly $20,000 over four years and resulted in 22 of the 33 involved student-athletes competing while ineligible.

In separate violations, the parties agreed that the former head swimming and diving coach instructed team managers to engage in coaching activities on numerous occasions, which resulted in the program exceeding the limit of six coaches in swimming and diving. The former head coach and members of his staff also led athletically related activities beyond the time limits allowed by NCAA rules. The committee noted these rules are in place for student-athlete well-being and competitive equity reasons. The head coach also did not ensure accurate reporting of student-athletes' countable hours to the compliance office.

The case was resolved through a cooperative summary disposition, a process where involved parties collectively submit the case to the committee in written form. All participating parties must agree to the facts of the case for this process to be used instead of a formal hearing. In this case, following a review of the summary disposition report, the committee proposed additional penalties to both the university and the head swimming coach. The university and the head swimming coach partially contested the proposed additional penalties. The university contested the penalties through an in-person expedited penalty hearing, while the head swimming coach did so through a written submission. Following the expedited hearing and review of the written submissions, the committee provided partial penalty relief to the university and the head coach but retained some of its proposed penalties. The university and the former coach may not appeal the violations concluded in this case but may appeal portions of the penalties the committee prescribed.

The committee prescribed the following penalties and corrective measures:

- One year of probation.

- A $47,148 fine. This amount includes the self-imposed penalty of $19,796, plus an additional 10% of the value of the one unit the university received for participation in the first round of the 2018 Division I Men's Basketball Championship.

- A one-year show-cause order for the former coach. During that period, any NCAA member school employing him must show cause why he should not have restrictions on athletically related activity.

DR. VICTOR J. BOSCHINI JR.

CHANCELLOR

19th Year at Texas Christian University

Working to provide a world-class, values-centered University experience

Texas Christian University is approaching its sesquicentennial in 2023, prompting plans for celebration as well as reflection upon TCU's rich heritage and traditions over the span of 150 years. Chancellor Victor J. Boschini is the 10th Chancellor and follows in the footsteps of other strong leaders with each chancellor taking TCU to new heights.

Chancellor and TCU's First Lady Megan Boschini consider themselves fortunate to have been a part of the University for the past 17 years. During that time, they have set a tone as a couple that emphasizes a "place at the table" for all members of the ever-growing TCU community. In his message at commencement, the Chancellor promotes the importance of civility in today's society, challenging graduates to perform acts of kindness and assume the best in others. This "be kind—pass it on" message is vintage Chancellor Boschini and part of the growing movement of inclusiveness on campus.

TCU today is much different from the tiny prairie school that the Clark brothers, Addison and Randolph, started back in 1873.

The TCU of today is a vibrant learning community with approximately 11,000 students (9,500 undergraduates and 1500 graduate students) and over 2,300 faculty/staff members. Combine the TCU student body and workforce with the almost 90,000 living graduates and you have a thriving enterprise where students come first and faculty and staff are valued for the enormous contribution they make to the growth and development of their students.

Topping the list of TCU's academic initiatives is the opening of the new TCU and UNTHSC School of Medicine in Fort Worth. This new college with classes on the TCU campus will eventually produce 240 MDs in Fort Worth with specialized training as empathetic medical professionals who treat patients with compassion and ingenuity. Referred to as Dorman Scholars, the first class of students began their studies on July 8, 2019. The Chancellor is extremely grateful to local philanthropist, H. Paul Dorman for agreeing to provide full scholarships to each member of this inaugural class.

While TCU has grown in both size and splendor, its upward trajectory toward greater distinction as an institution has been guided since 2003 by its strategic process, Vision in Action. TCU is currently in the third phase of the strategic process, Vision in Action: Lead On. Under the direction of the Board of Trustees, the strategic plan includes four goals centered on 1) strengthening academic profile and reputation; 2) strengthening endowment; 3) strengthening the TCU experience and campus culture; and 4) strengthening the workforce: both employees and graduates. The Board also outlined a priority commitment to several building projects over the next three to five years.

Three themes that have emerged as foundational to TCU's institutional goals and key to the University's strategic priorities include diversity and inclusion; a highly engaging TCU academic and student life experience; and student support with an integrated and holistic student success model. Efforts are underway to implement the plan in alignment with annual budgeting and assessment, with development of a dashboard to monitor progress over the course of the next few years.

Fundraising is in progress for institutional priorities embodied in this bold and ambitious strategic plan, with TCU currently in the leadership gift phase of The Campaign for TCU. At the April 2019 meeting of the Board of Trustees, the Board approved a $1 billion campaign goal. This goal signifies the Board's intent to sustain momentum at a critical time with strong leadership in place, to solidify TCU's place among its peer aspirant schools, and to deliver real-world impact. The public phase of the campaign will commence in October 2019 with a series of kick-off events across the country over the next 12-18 months.

Chancellor and Mrs. Boschini are actively engaged on campus and in the greater Fort Worth community, which strengthens the stature of TCU as Fort Worth's University. The Boschinis frequently host groups of students, faculty/staff and graduates at Minor House and attend a variety of campus events and activities. Typically, they participate in Frog Camp where they enjoy meeting new students each summer. In the past, they have been privileged to accompany incoming students to London, Paris and Seville along with Washington, D.C., Savannah and our very own Fort Worth. Dr. Boschini also teaches a class called The American University Experience each fall in the College of Education.

As First Lady, Megan Boschini has made it her goal to showcase TCU in the best light possible—from entertaining countless groups at their home to interacting with students on campus in various fine arts and athletic settings. She has been active in a variety of community boards and organizations, and currently serves on the board of Gill Children's Services. In December 2018, Mrs. Boschini teamed up with Jacqueline Dixon as well as staff and family members of Sodexo Food Service and Catholic Charities Fort Worth to host the inaugural A Very Purple Christmas, an event designed to bring together families in need for a holiday meal.

Chancellor Boschini was recently elected as Chair of the Big 12 Conference and will serve in that role for the next two years. In addition, he sits on the boards of the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra, the Van Cliburn Foundation, Moncrief Cancer Institute, and the University of Mount Union Board of Trustees.

Chancellor Boschini came to TCU from Illinois State University, where he served as president, vice president for student affairs, and associate professor in the Department of Educational Administration and Foundations. Prior to that, he held administrative and teaching positions at Butler and Indiana universities.

Chancellor and Mrs. Boschini are committed to ensuring that TCU continues on the pathway toward reaching its vision as a world-class, values-centered university, and one that offers a premier campus experience. They both believe that we share the responsibility—and the honor—to shape and transform the leaders who will shape and transform our world.

JEREMIAH DONATI

DIRECTOR OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

10th Year at TCU

Jeremiah Donati was appointed December 11, 2017, as TCU's director of intercollegiate athletics. Previously the Horned Frogs' deputy athletics director, Donati became the eighth director of intercollegiate athletics in TCU's history.

Donati has played a major role in enhancing the TCU student-athlete experience through donor-supported facility upgrades. The most recent project was the $113 million Legends Club & Suites on the east side of Amon G. Carter Stadium. The new world-class venue will open with the first home game in the 2020 football season. Other projects include new video boards for soccer and swimming and diving, a resurfacing of the Sheridan and Clif Morris Football Practice Fields and Moncrief Field at Amon G. Carter Stadium, the football locker room improvements project as well as graphics and banner updates in the Schollmaier Basketball Complex. Additionally, he secured a new equestrian facility closer to campus with the program's move to Diamond Creek Ranch in Fort Worth. Most recently, the latest named facility is the Young Family Equipment Room.

In March 2019, Donati worked with TCU football legend, Pro Football Hall of Famer and TCU Board of Trustees member LaDainian Tomlinson to create The Tomlinson Student-Athlete Development Endowment Fund. Benefiting TCU's Student-Athlete Development Department and the Team America Foundation, the fund supports student-athletes from all of TCU's sports programs to help prepare them for their lives and careers after graduation.

Under Donati, the TCU Athletics program has grown to 22 sports, the most in the Big 12 Conference, with the January 2020 announcement of the addition of women's triathlon in Fall 2022.

Donati oversees a coaching staff that has totaled 32 National Coach of the Year honors. Additionally, four head coaches (Jamie Dixon, men's basketball; Gary Patterson, football; Angie Ravaioli-Larkin, women's golf; Haley Schoolfield, equestrian) either currently serve or have just recently completed tenures as presidents of their national coaching organizations. Donati has completed contract extensions for Dixon, women's basketball head coach Raegan Pebley and soccer head coach Eric Bell.

Before the 2019-20 athletics season was cut short by the COVID-19 pandemic, nine sports were ranked in the national top 25. Men's indoor track and field won the Big 12 Championship in the 4x400 relay for the fourth time in five seasons. The defending national champion rifle program was ranked No. 2 in the country, won the Patriot Rifle Conference and was at the NCAA Championships set to defend its title. On the academic side, 90 student-athletes graduated during the academic year with 137 named to the Academic All-Big 12 Team.

In 2018-19, Donati's first full season as director of intercollegiate athletics, TCU teams and individuals combined for five NCAA championships and eight Big 12 titles. Eighteen of 21 sports were represented in postseason play, while 11 teams were ranked in the national top 25. The 2017-18 campaign saw 11 sports earn top-25 rankings with 13 programs in postseason competition, including men's basketball making its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1998 and football posting its third top-10 final ranking in four seasons.

Shortly after his arrival at TCU in 2011, Donati was instrumental in the final stages of fundraising for the $164 million rebuild of Amon G. Carter Stadium. He then led fundraising efforts for the $72 million renovation of Ed and Rae Schollmaier Arena, upgrades at Charlie and Marie Lupton Baseball Stadium at Williams-Reilly Field, the Huffman Football Center, refurbishing of the Schollmaier Basketball Complex, and the replacement of the Jane Justin Field and improved lighting at Garvey-Rosenthal Soccer Stadium.

Donati has also overseen record levels of donor support in Frog Club annual giving and overall athletics giving. The three highest totals in overall athletics giving at TCU came in the four years he oversaw fundraising in the Frog Club. Additionally, TCU reached record levels in men's basketball attendance as well as setting new marks in ticket and licensing revenues under Donati.

Prior to TCU, Donati was with Leigh Steinberg Sports and Entertainment as general counsel and director of player representation. His extensive experience in professional and intercollegiate athletics includes fundraising positions with the University of Arizona Wildcat Club, Washington State University Cougar Athletic Fund and the Cal Poly University Mustang Club.

Donati earned a B.A. in politics and government in 2001 from the University of Puget Sound, where he was a basketball student-athlete. He received a Juris Doctorate from Whittier Law School in 2005 and is a member of the California Bar Association. He is also a member of the Board of Trustees for the Davey O'Brien Foundation in Fort Worth and the National Sports Marketing Network.

Donati and his wife, Nicole, live in Fort Worth and have two daughters: Colette and Naomi.

FORT WORTH - TCU quarterback Max Duggan accounted for a pair of touchdowns, wide receiver TreVontae Hights set new career-highs in both catches (8) and receiving yards (108), and kicker Jonathan Song was 5-for-5 on field-goal attempts en route to leading the TCU Horned Frogs to a 39-7 season-opening win over Arkansas at Pine Bluff.

Song got TCU on the board first quarter with his 24-yard field goal at the 7:53 mark in the first quarter. Duggan later scored his first career touchdown with 59 seconds left in the period and TCU extended its lead to 10-0.

Over the next two quarters, Song would manage to connect on four-straight field goals (36, 19, 34, 38) and push TCU's lead to 22-0 before UAPB finally got on the board - a 1-yard touchdown run from Kesha Williams - that came at the 1:31 mark in the third quarter.

The Frogs wrapped up its scoring efforts on the evening with touchdowns from Jalen Reagor (37-yard reception) and Darwin Barlow (8-yard run), sandwiched in between a 35-yard field goal from Griffin Kell, to give TCU the 32-point victory.

Duggan led TCU's quarterback duo, connecting on 16 of his 23 passes for 165 yards and the one touchdown toss. Alex Delton led all runners on the evening, totaling 67 yards on seven attempts. Sewo Olonilua rushed seven times for 50 yards. Hights led all receivers with his 108-yard effort, while Reagor hauled in five passes for 71 yards and the lone receiving score.

Defensively, the Frogs were led by Garret Wallow's career-high 13 total tackles, with eight of those on the solo end. He tallied 3.5 tackles for loss and had a sack in the ballgame.

PURDUE	13

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. – TCU's Darius Anderson rushed for a career-high 179 yards and Sewo Olonilua added 106 to lead the Horned Frogs to a 34-13 victory at Purdue.

The Frogs held a 40:33 to 19:27 edge in time of possession and outgained Purdue 421 to 204 in total offense. Purdue was held to 23 yards rushing.

Purdue put the first set of points on the board with a 31-yard field goal from J.D. Dellinger with 11:35 to play in the first quarter.

Following a Trevon Moehrig interception with 9:17 left in the first quarter, Olonilua managed to keep TCU's offensive drive going when he bull-rushed his way for 12 yards on a 4th-and-1 play. Seven plays later, Jonathan Song tied the game with a 34-yard field goal at the 4:09 mark.

On TCU's ensuing drive, Anderson scampered his way to a 32-yard touchdown run and Song's PAT put the Frogs up 10-3 with 1:14 left in the first. Purdue countered with a 53-yard field goal from Dellinger, cutting TCU's lead to four points, 10-6, with 12:35 left to play in the second quarter.

TCU pushed its lead to 13-6 on a 40-yard field goal from Song with 1:09 left in the second quarter, giving the Frogs a seven-point lead heading into the halftime break.

The Frogs scored a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter to push their lead to 27-6. Max Duggan hooked up with Al'Dontre Davis from 22 yards out with 8:12 to play and Olonilua had his own number called when he scored from the 1-yard line on a direct snap with 1:24 to play.

Anderson scored his second touchdown of the evening with an 8-yard run at the 5:45 mark in the fourth quarter.

Anderson and Olonilua gave TCU a pair of 100-yard rushers for the first time since 2015.

FORT WORTH - No. 25 TCU outscored SMU 21-10 in the second half, but an early 15-0 deficit proved too much to overcome as the Horned Frogs fell to the Mustangs, 41-38, at Amon G. Carter Stadium.

SMU (4-0) scored on its opening drive and never trailed in the game. After the Mustangs took a 15-0 lead, Darius Anderson got the Frogs (2-1) on the board with 2:57 remaining in the first quarter on a 14-yard touchdown run.

Anderson hit paydirt again with 13:05 left in the second quarter, this time scoring from 3 yards out. The play was set up by an Anderson 77-yard run on the first snap of the series.

Jonathan Song put three points on the board for the Frogs with 3:28 to play in the second quarter, but SMU tacked on a 9-yard TD pass from Shane Buechele to James Proche to go up 31-17 just before the break.

TCU scored the only touchdown of the third quarter when Max Duggan hit Pro Wells from 12 yards out on a 3rd-and-nine play, cutting its deficit to 31-24

In the second half, Duggan completed 15-of-26 passes for 166 yards and three touchdowns.

Trailing 38-24, the Frogs closed within 38-31 on Sewo Olonilua's first career receiving touchdown, a 5-yard toss from Duggan. SMU's Russell Roberts' 32-yard field goal with 6:36 left provided the decisive points in the game as the Mustangs' lead was extended to 41-31, before Duggan hit Wells again from 13 yards to provide the final margin of 41-38.

Darius Anderson and Sewo Olonilua both scored rushing touchdowns in the second quarter, and Jonathan Song added a late field goal to give the home team a 38-0 lead at the half.

Both of Duggan's first-half touchdown passes came on third-down plays as TCU managed to go 10-for-10 on third-down attempts through the first two quarters.

TCU's final points were scored by Mike Collins on an 11-yard run as time expired to give TCU 50-plus points for the first time since last season's opener against Southern (55-7).

KANSAS STATE	24

MANHATTAN, Kan. - Max Duggan became the first TCU quarterback to rush for 100-plus yards in a single game since 2015, but it wasn't enough as the Horned Frogs fell to Kansas State, 24-17, in Big 12 action.

With TCU trailing 17-10, Duggan registered a season-long 46-yard run to find the end zone and notch things up at 17-17 with 8:42 left to play in the third quarter. Duggan had three carries for 72 yards and a 5-yard completion for 77 yards of offense on the 75-yard scoring drive.

Both offenses were limited for much of the next quarter and a half, but K-State's Skylar Thompson scored from 3 yards out with 2:45 left to play to put the Wildcats up 24-17.

Duggan finished the game with 115 yards on the ground, TCU's most rushing yards from a quarterback since Trevone Boykin tallied 124 yards at K-State in 2015.

Jalen Reagor registered season-highs in both catches (8) and receiving yards (85). Sewo Olonilua rushed for 56 yards and notched TCU's first touchdown of the day.

TCU totaled 228 yards on the ground. It marked the fifth game this season that the Horned Frogs have rushed for 200-plus yards as a team. The TCU defense limited K-State to just 266 yards of total offense in the game.

FORT WORTH - TCU quarterback Max Duggan threw for a career-high 273 yards, tossed a pair of touchdowns and scored one on the ground, while guiding the Horned Frogs to a 37-27 home victory over No. 15 Texas.

After Texas closed within 30-27, Duggan had an 11-yard scamper with 1:59 left to provide the final points of the game and cap a 9-play, 75-yard drive that consumed 4:51 off the clock. Innis Gaines then sealed the TCU victory with an interception on the Longhorns' ensuing series, TCU's fourth pick of the contest.

With the game tied 3-3, Duggan and Pro Wells hooked up for a 24-yard touchdown with 12:18 left in the second quarter to give TCU its first lead, 10-3. Back-to-back TDs gave Texas a 17-10 advantage until Griffin Kell's 52-yard field goal as time ran off the clock made it a 17-13 game at halftime.

A Texas field goal pushed its lead to 20-13, but TCU evened things up again, 20-20, with a 1-yard run from Sewo Olonilua. The drive was keyed by a season long 51-yard pass from Duggan to Taye Barber to put TCU at the Texas 4.

On the first snap after an Ar'Darius Washington interception on the following series for Texas, Duggan found Jalen Reagor from 44 yards out to give the Frogs a 27-20 lead with less than five minutes to play in the third quarter. TCU then pushed its lead to 30-20 on a Song 33-yard field goal with 11:28 left. Texas later scored on a 2-yard rushing play to pull within 30-27 with 6:50 remaining, but Duggan's TD run pushed the lead back to 10 and put the game on ice.

STILLWATER, Okla. - The TCU Horned Frogs erased one 14-point deficit, but could not overcome the second one, falling 34-27 to the Oklahoma State Cowboys.

TCU quarterback Max Duggan led the Horned Frogs to a pair of 80-plus touchdown drives in the second quarter to overcome a 17-3 deficit and both teams went into halftime tied 17-17. OSU's Chuba Hubbard scored both of his touchdowns in the second half and despite a TD run from Sewo Olonilua midway through the fourth quarter, it proved to be more than enough for the home team.

Duggan led TD drives of 81 yards and 95 yards in the second quarter, calling his own number from 6 yards out and then a possession later finding Pro Wells for a 24-yard strike. Duggan completed four of his five passes on TCU's final drive of the first half, which included Jalen Reagor moving the chains with a 37-yard catch on third down.

Following Hubbard's second touchdown to put the Cowboys up 31-17, Olonilua capped off a nine-play 75-yard drive with a 1-yard score. Reagor had another 30-yard reception on the drive and he would go on to lead all receivers with 128 yards on seven catches in the contest.

OSU added a field goal to go up 34-24 with 2:04 left and TCU countered with Jonathan Song's second 40-yard field goal of the game to pull within seven, down 34-27.

Reagor set a new season-high with his 128 yards receiving. Reagor and Taye Barber tied for the team lead with seven catches each.

FORT WORTH - The TCU Horned Frogs dropped a heart-breaker, falling 29-23 in three overtimes to No. 12 Baylor. TCU held Baylor to 204 yards of offense at the close of regulation with the Bears finishing with 294.

TCU scored the first nine points of the game and took a 9-0 lead into halftime following field goals from Griffin Kell (47 yards) and Jonathan Song (37, 31). Baylor's John Mayers notched the next nine points of regulation with field goals from 36, 24 and 51 yards out, the final one with 36 seconds left to force overtime.

Baylor opened the first overtime period with a 3-yard rushing touchdown from Charlie Brewer to give the Bears their first lead of the game, 16-9. TCU countered with a 24-yard touchdown pass from Max Duggan to Te'Vailance Hunt on a 4th-and-9 to tie the game at 16 and force a second overtime. The touchdown was originally called an incomplete pass, but following review it was deemed that Hunt had a hand in the end zone and possession of the ball for the TD.

Sewo Olonilua put TCU back up with a 2-yard score in the second OT period, giving the Frogs a 23-16 advantage. Baylor's offensive possession came down to a 4th-and-5, but Brewer found Denzel Mims from 20 yards to send the game into a third overtime with the score knotted at 23-23.

Brewer and Mims again hooked up on Baylor's next possession, this time from 4 yards out. The Bears' 2-point attempt was not successful though, and the Baylor lead was just 29-23. TCU's final possession ended with the Bears' defense making the stops.

TEXAS TECH	31

LUBBOCK, Texas - TCU and Texas Tech traded blows back-and-forth in the second half, but the Horned Frogs defense came up big in the waning moments and helped secure a 33-31 road win over the Red Raiders.

In a game that went down to the wire, TCU's defense registered a three-and-out with 4:18 left to play and then Vernon Scott forced a fumble with Trevon Moehrig making the recovery on Texas Tech's final possession.

The Frogs scored the first 17 points of the game. Max Duggan opened the scoring with a 20-yard scamper on a 3rd-and-6 to put TCU on the board first. His 26-yard run just three plays earlier got the Frogs out of a 3rd-and-9 hole and extended the drive.

Wyatt Harris collected the first interception of his career as he picked off a Texas Tech pass on its second series. That lead to Jonathan Song's 36-yard field goal and a 10-0 lead with 7:12 still to play in the first quarter. TCU managed to score on its third straight drive when Duggan found Artayvious Lynn from 4 yards out to cap a nine-play, 83-yard drive.

The Red Raiders put their first points on the board with a 36-yard field goal at the 12:55 mark of the second quarter, but just three plays later Duggan found Jalen Reagor for a 55-yard strike and a 24-3 lead. Texas Tech countered with a pair of touchdowns to pull within eight points, 24-16. Song booted a 28-yard field with just 2 seconds left on the clock and the Frogs took a 27-16 lead into the halftime break.

Jett Duffey tossed a pair of touchdowns in the third to give Texas Tech its first lead of the game. Both 2-point conversion attempts failed though and the Red Raiders lead was just 28-27. TCU took back the lead, 30-28, on the first snap of the fourth quarter with a 25-yard field goal from Song.

The two teams traded leads over their next two drives. The Horned Frogs went back on top, 33-31, with a 20-yard field goal from Song with 5:38 remaining in the game.

#9 OKLAHOMA	28

NORMAN, Okla. - TCU fought hard and nearly completed a major comeback before dropping a 28-24 decision at No. 9 Oklahoma.

After the Sooners scored on their opening three drives of the game, taking a 21-0 lead just 2:04 into the second quarter. The Horned Frogs battled back to within four points twice, the last time being 28-24 when Vernon Scott returned an interception 98 yards for a touchdown with 12:43 to play.

The Frogs then had two possessions with the potential to take the lead but were thwarted both times by the Sooners. The second and final chance came after true freshman linebacker Wyatt Harris made the stop for no gain on a Sooners' 4th-and-1 rush from the TCU 41 with 3:16 to play.

A Max Duggan 62-yard run, the longest by a TCU quarterback since 2015, set up the Frogs' first points of the game. Two plays later, Sewo Olonilua took a direct snap and scored from 1-yard out to trim the TCU deficit to 21-7 with 8:18 left in the second quarter.

On the Sooners' ensuing possession, Trevon Moehrig forced a fumble with Scott making the recovery. Jonathan Song then capped an 8-play, 48-yard drive to make it a 21-10 game with 2:41 remaining in the first half.

TCU's defense stiffened after OU's opening three possessions as the Sooners were held to 61 yards of offense in the second quarter.

On its opening possession of the second half, Oklahoma went for it on 4th-and-3 at the TCU 42. However, Garret Wallow sacked Jalen Hurts for a 9-yard loss, with the Frogs taking over at the OU 49. Six plays later, Duggan bulldozed his way into the end zone from 11 yards out to close the TCU deficit to 21-17. The Sooners answered with a scoring drive of their own to build their margin back to 28-17.

FORT WORTH - TCU saw its season come to a close with a 20-17 loss to West Virginia.

With the game tied early in the second half, Jalen Reagor took a West Virginia punt 70 yards for a touchdown to give the Horned Frogs a 17-10 lead with 10:32 to play in the third quarter.

TCU maintained a 17-13 lead when West Virginia began a possession at its 39 with 4:47 to play in the game. After a pair of TCU penalties extended the Mountaineers' drive, Jarett Doege found Isaiah Esdale from 35 yards out on a 2nd-and-10 with 2:10 left to play for the winning score.

The Frogs were unable to convert on two final possessions, turning the ball over on downs.

After the Mountaineers took an early 7-0 lead, TCU evened the score with 5:16 left in the first quarter when Sewo Olonilua took a direct snap and scored from 2 yards out. The 75-yard drive was set up by a 64-yard carry by Taye Barber on the first play of the series.

The Frogs would take their first lead of the game with a 30-yard field goal from Jonathan Song with 9:49 left to play in the second quarter, but WVU came back to tie it at the half on a 40-yard field goal from Evan Staley with 5:18 remaining in the first half.

TCU held West Virginia to 244 yards of offense, marking the sixth time in 12 games it limited an opponent to fewer than 300 yards.

TCU is ready to embark upon its 124th year of Horned Frog football. Through all the years, with the exception of 1900, Frog ballclubs have competed on an organized basis. Even during the war years, as well as through the Great Depression, each fall TCU football squads have done battle on the gridiron.

BEGINNINGS

The newfangled game of football, created in the East, made a quiet and unofficial appearance on the TCU campus (AddRan College as it was then known and located in Waco, Texas, or nearby Thorp Spring) in the fall of 1896. It was then that several of the college's more robust students, along with the enthusiastic support of a couple of young "profs," Addison Clark Jr., and A.C. Easley, banded together to form a team. Three games were actually played that season ... all after Thanksgiving. The first contest was an 8-6 victory over Toby's Business College of Waco and the other two games were with the Houston Heavyweights, a town team.

By 1897 the new sport had progressed and AddRan enlisted its first coach, Joe J. Field, to direct the team. Field's ballclub won three games that autumn, including a first victory over Texas A&M. The only loss was to the University of Texas, 18-10. Those games with the Aggies and Longhorns launched football feuds that carried forth for 99 years. In 1899, the first game with Baylor was played to launch still another traditional rivalry. By 1902, the name of the school had been changed to Texas Christian University. The nickname, "Horned Frogs," had been added a few years earlier because "of the abundance of those creatures around campus."

TIAA ERA

In 1909, the university became a member of the old TIAA (Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association). Several TCU teams recorded outstanding records, including the 1912 Horned Frog unit, which had an 8-1 mark with the lone loss coming against Texas, a team that the Frogs did not beat until 1929.

In 1920, a post-World War I team produced TCU's best record to date, winning nine straight games in the regular season. However, a post season bowl (the Dixie Bowl) contest was booked in Fort Worth with the famed "Prayin' Colonels" of Centre College. That proved to be a mistake as Centre trounced the Frogs, 63-7. L.R. (Dutch) Meyer was an end on that TCU grid eleven.

SWC EARLY YEARS

In 1923, TCU was admitted to the still-infant Southwest Athletic Conference, a league which was destined to become the major collegiate league of the Southwest. In their initial season in the SWC, the Horned Frogs played three games and posted a record of two wins and one loss.

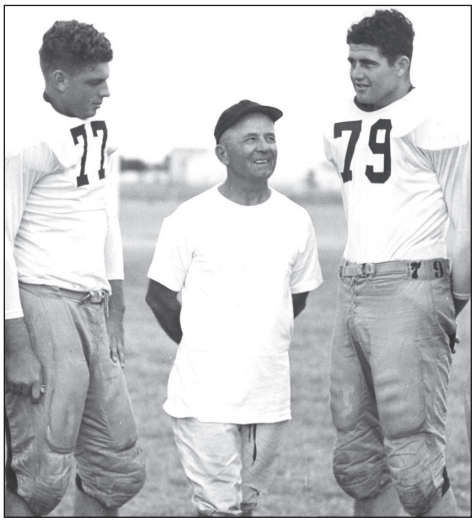

Though a young member of the SWC, over the next few years the Horned Frogs still offered some excellent results. In 1924, they won one and lost five games to finish in the cellar for the only time until 1953. In 1929, under Francis Schmidt, TCU claimed its first SWC title. Led by a brilliant young quarterback, Howard Grubbs, who later became the executive secretary of the Southwest Conference and the Horned Frogs' first in a line of great passers, TCU won four straight league games.

The Frogs clinched their first title with a 7-7 tie against SMU in the final contest of '29. During Schmidt's regime, which lasted through the 1933 campaign, the Frogs were double tough. They finished third in 1930, second in '31 and won the SWC title again in 1932 with a perfect 6-0 record. It was the first time that one Southwest Conference team had defeated all the others, since a round robin had not been played in any of the previous seasons.

DUTCH MEYER ERA

In 1934, with Schmidt being lured to Ohio State, Leo R. (Dutch) Meyer became the Horned Frogs grid coach. For the next 19 years, Meyer turned out top teams and produced a bevy of individual standouts, including Sammy Baugh, Davey O'Brien, Ki Aldrich, Darrell Lester and many others.

During Baugh's college days, the Frogs won 12, lost one in 1935; and won nine, lost two and tied a pair in 1936. As a junior, Baugh led TCU to a 3-2 victory in the Sugar Bowl and a national title, but was never able to help the Frogs claim a SWC title.

Dutch Meyer (left) and Abe Martin helped deliver seven of TCU's 18 conference titles and 12 of the program's 32 all-time bowl appearances.

His successor, Davey O'Brien, took over leadership of the Frogs for the 1937 and 1938 seasons and, during his senior year, paced the Purples to their best record in history. That magnificent '38 ballclub was considered one of the Southwest Conference's finest some 50 years later. That fall, Meyer's Horned Frogs rolled to 11 straight wins, including a 15-7 triumph over Carnegie Tech in the Sugar Bowl. The club outscored its opponents – 269 to 60 – and never found itself behind, except briefly in the Sugar Bowl encounter. After the Sugar Bowl, the Frogs were crowned national champions.

In 1941, TCU finished a solid second place in the SWC and won another championship in '44. The Dutchman's final league crown came in 1951, two years before he became full-time athletics director (Meyer would later retire as TCU's A.D. in 1963).

ABE MARTIN ERA

When Meyer retired from coaching in 1953, his backfield assistant, Othol (Abe) Martin, took over the coaching reins. Abe installed the popular T-formation, and in just three short years had found the championship formula. His 1955 TCU ballclub, led by All-American Jim Swink, waltzed to nine victories in 10 games, the only loss being to Texas A&M. In 1958, Martin found the victory formula again with good quarterbacking and defense. In 1959, the Frogs disproved the critics to tie Texas and Arkansas for the crown, posting a 5-1 league record.

During his 14-year regime, Martin compiled a 76-64-7 mark in Frogland, directed the Purples to five post-season bowl games, and produced seven All-Americans.

THE 1970s

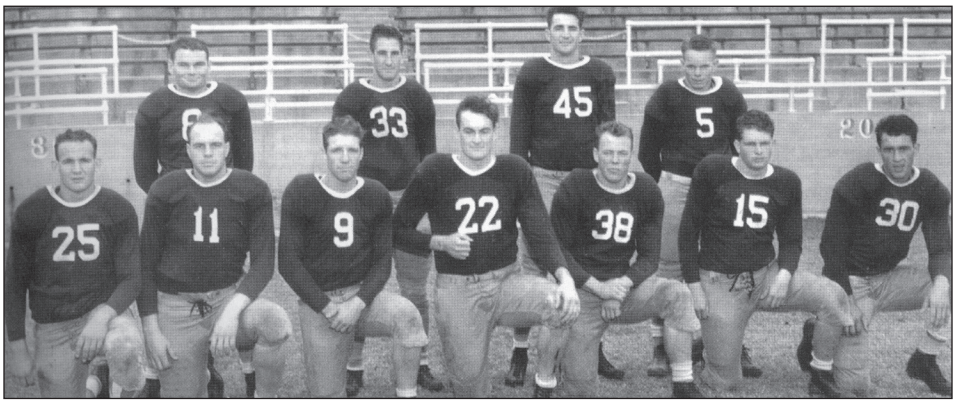

The decade of the 1970s was, for the most part, one of disappointment for the fans of TCU football. Fred Taylor, the successor to Abe Martin in 1966, guided Horned Frog teams through four seasons, with the best record being a modest 4-6. Jim Pittman was hired from a successful bowl campaign at Tulane, but tragedy struck midway through the 1971 season when Pittman was felled by a fatal heart attack during the Baylor game. His chief aide, Billy Tohill, took over and piloted TCU through the 1973 season. Then another former Frog great, Jim Shofner, returned from the NFL and led the Horned Frogs until 1977. The coaching door then swung open for F. A. Dry, who brought some impressive credentials from Tulsa. Dry's TCU teams became known for hard-ball defense and impressive aerial displays, but a 3-8 mark in 1982 proved to be Dry's best in six seasons and yet another change of direction was mandated.

JIM WACKER ERA

From 1983 through 1991, Horned Frog grid fortunes were in the hands of former NCAA Division II coaching legend Jim Wacker, who left opulent marks as well as two pairs of national championship trophies at both Southwest Texas State and Texas Lutheran. Wacker's first campaign at TCU produced a result of 1-8-2, but he steered the Horned Frogs to a dramatic 8-4 turnaround in 1984 en route to a Bluebonnet Bowl date. Several national, as well as Southwest Conference Coach of the Year honors, ultimately were awarded to the bubbly Wacker. However, an NCAA probation for discovered infractions in 1985 affected the Frogs' rise over the next several seasons.

PAT SULLIVAN ERA

On Jan. 2, 1992, Pat Sullivan was introduced as the 27th head coach in TCU football history. Sullivan probably is best remembered as a college quarterbacking great at Auburn, where he won the Heisman Trophy in 1971. Sullivan instilled confidence along with an appreciation for self-discipline into the TCU grid makeup during his initial campaign with the Horned Frogs.

Slingin' Sammy Baugh (No. 45) led TCU to its first of two national championships in the 1930s under Head Coach Dutch Meyer.

TCU FOOTBALL THROUGH THE AGES

Though the Sullivan influence on TCU's program was obvious from the outset, tangible proof of his impact in Frogland became pronounced during 1994. For the Horned Frog faithful it was a campaign of sweet memories and bona fide successes beginning in early fall with the official dedication of TCU's Walsh Complex, an ultra-impressive athletic training and weight-conditioning center. Powered by the most prolific offense in the Southwest Conference, an attack spearheaded by quarterback Max Knake and tailback Andre Davis, the Frogs fashioned a 7-4 regular-season mark. En route, they captured a share of the school's ninth SWC football championship, along with an invitation to the Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La.

TCU saw a major increase in attendance thanks to its success on the field in 1994. The increase of 11,062 folks per game (a 42.5 percent increase) was one of the nation's best that season. Sullivan resigned in November 1997 after six seasons at the Horned Frog grid helm.

WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

TCU Football in 1996 was almost a double-dose of euphoria. Not only did it mark the 100th-year celebration for the sport, but the university officially became a new member of the expanded Western Athletic Conference as well. The Horned Frogs program joined teams from Rice, SMU and Tulsa to form Quadrant 1 of the Mountain Division. Quadrant 2 members were Air Force, UNLV, Colorado State and Wyoming. Pacific Division members of the WAC were New Mexico, UTEP, BYU, along with Fresno State, San Jose State, Hawai'i and San Diego State.

DENNIS FRANCHIONE ERA

In three seasons under Dennis Franchione, the TCU football program took a giant leap forward. In his first season, Fran led the Frogs to a 7-5 record, which included an upset win over USC in the Sun Bowl.

The Frogs, which were 1-10 in 1997 under Pat Sullivan, tied Louisville for the biggest turnaround in the country with the six-win improvement in 1998. Although many believed the Frogs stood no chance, Franchione guided the Frogs to a 28-19 win over the vaunted Trojans. The victory was the first bowl win since 1957, when TCU defeated Syracuse in the Cotton Bowl.

Then in 1999, TCU claimed a share of the WAC title, earning a trip to the inaugural Mobile Alabama Bowl, where TCU knocked off East Carolina, 28-14. Tailback LaDainian Tomlinson led the country in rushing in 1999, averaging more than 168 yards per game for a season total of 1,850 yards.

The Frogs came back with one of the best seasons in school history as the new millennium got underway. Moving as high in the polls as No. 9 and carrying the nation's longest winning streak for a stretch, the Frogs put together a 10-2 campaign. Tomlinson again led the nation in rushing, this time with over 2,000 yards, en route to the Doak Walker Award. Following the season he was the fifth player selected in the NFL Draft.

CONFERENCE USA

The Frogs took on a new look in 2001 as they made the move into Conference USA. The 11-member football league included Army, Cincinnati, East Carolina, Houston, Louisville, Memphis, Southern Miss, South Florida, Tulane and UAB. Despite the change in leagues, TCU continued its strong run with a school record six consecutive bowl game appearances and back-to-back top 25 finishes for the first time since the 1950s. Highlighting TCU's four-year stint in Conference USA was the 2002 CUSA Co-Championship, which the Frogs shared with Cincinnati.

MOUNTAIN WEST CONFERENCE

TCU began Mountain West Conference play in 2005 and immediately posted a record-breaking campaign. The Frogs, picked to finish sixth, went 8-0 in their debut season to claim their first outright conference title since 1958. TCU became just the third team in MWC history to go undefeated and the first to be 8-0. The Frogs went 41-7 in their six seasons of MWC play and left the league with 24-consecutive victories in conference play.

GARY PATTERSON ERA

Gary Patterson has won 22 national coach of the year honors and posted 10 seasons with 11-or-more wins since 2003.

In 19 seasons, making him the nation's second-longest tenured head coach entering the 2020 campaign, Patterson owns a 172-70 career record. His .711 winning percentage ranks sixth among active coaches nationally (minimum 10 years). He passed legendary coach Dutch Meyer (109 wins) for the top position on TCU's career victories list with a win against Grambling State in the 2012 season opener.

TCU enters the 2020 season as one of just seven programs nationally (Alabama, Clemson, Georgia, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Penn State) to finish in the top 10 of the season-ending polls at least three times in the last six years. Over the past six seasons, the Horned Frogs' 52-26 overall record and 33-21 conference mark rank second in the Big 12.

In his tenure, Patterson has coached 249 all-conference selections, 18 first-team All Americans, 22 Freshman All-Americans, two Academic All-Americans and a Rhodes Scholar. He has had 53 players drafted with a total of 129 in NFL camps. Patterson has been named conference coach of the year four times in three different leagues. He was named National Coach of the Year by 10 outlets following TCU's 2014 season that saw the Horned Frogs go 12-1, win their first Big 12 championship and finish the season ranked No. 3 nationally after a 42-3 victory over Ole Miss in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

TCU has garnered the country's attention in nearly every season under Patterson, including campaigns that sent the Frogs to the 2010 Fiesta Bowl and 2011 Rose Bowl.

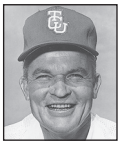

The 2009 Frogs experienced the program's most successful season since the 1930s by earning an at-large bid to the Fiesta Bowl--the school's first BCS berth since the system was adopted by major college football. TCU, which went 8-0 on its way to the Mountain West Conference title, captured the national spotlight with a perfect 12-0 regular season capped by a No. 4 ranking by both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches' polls. The team finished the year No. 6 in both polls. Three Frogs were named All-Americans, including defensive end Jerry Hughes, who became only the second consensus first-team pick in school history. Hughes also reeled in a pair of major national honors in the Ted Hendricks Award and Lott IMPACT Trophy.

In 2010, TCU (13-0) defeated Wisconsin, 21-19, in the Rose Bowl to cap its first undefeated season since capturing the 1938 national championship with an 11-0 ledger. It was the first 13-win season at TCU and just the second undefeated and untied campaign in program history. The Frogs finished second in the Associated Press and USA Today polls, marking its highest season-ending ranking since 1938. The Frogs posted their third straight top-10 final ranking, marking the first time TCU has finished in the top-10 in three consecutive seasons. TCU was the only school in the nation to finish in both the AP and USA Today top 10 in three consecutive years (2008-10).

TCU led the nation in total defense for a third straight year in 2010. Individually, senior Jake Kirkpatrick claimed the Rimington Trophy, given to the nation's best center. Safety Tejay Johnson became the third consensus first-team All-American in TCU history.

The 2010 campaign proved to be the culmination of several successful Frog seasons in the decade of the 2000's under Patterson. The 2003 Frogs won their opening 10 games, while the 2005 squad opened the campaign with a 17-10 victory at No. 5 Oklahoma on its way to an 11-win season. TCU recorded victories in the 2002 Liberty Bowl, 2005 Houston Bowl, 2006 Poinsettia Bowl, 2007 Texas Bowl and 2008 Poinsettia Bowl leading up to their first BCS appearance in the 2010 Fiesta Bowl. The 95-29 record compiled by the Frogs in the 2000's ranked No. 7 nationally.

Despite losing 26 seniors to graduation off his Rose Bowl championship team, Patterson led a 2011 TCU squad to a third consecutive Mountain West championship. It marked the first time the Horned Frogs won a conference title in three straight seasons. TCU was also the first team in MWC history to win the league championship in three consecutive campaigns.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

The Horned Frogs have left their mark in the Big 12 since beginning play in 2012.

Over the last six seasons, entering the 2020 campaign, TCU's 52-26 (.667) overall record and 33-21 (.611) conference mark rank second in the league.

In 2017, the Horned Frogs won at least 11 games for the third time in four years with an 11-3 record, 7-2 in conference play, and appearance in the Big 12 Championship Game. TCU also defeated Stanford, 39-37, in the Valero Alamo Bowl.

In just their third season in the Big 12 in 2014, the Horned Frogs went 8-1 to capture their first Big 12 championship, the sixth conference crown in three different leagues under head coach Gary Patterson. TCU capped the season with a 42-3 victory over Ole Miss in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

The 2015 season saw the Horned Frogs end the campaign with more bowl success. No. 11 TCU defeated No. 15 Oregon, 47-41 in triple-overtime in the 2016 Valero Alamo Bowl after trailing 31-0 at halftime. TCU's remarkable second-half effort tied for the largest comeback in a bowl game and the second-largest rally in any FBS game.

TCU began its inaugural season in the Big 12 in 2012 and won its first conference game Sept. 15 at Kansas. The Frogs added league victories at Baylor, West Virginia and Texas before finishing the season with a 7-6 overall record. Patterson led the team to the postseason for the eighth straight year, a matchup against Michigan State in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP TEAMS

1935

TCU was tabbed No. 1 in the nation by the Williamson System, the only rating organization to publish a list after the New Year's Day Bowl contest, and ranked among the top five teams in the country by all rating services at the conclusion of the regular season. Featuring stars Sammy Baugh and Darrell Lester, the Frogs won 10 straight games before falling to SWC Champion SMU in the next-to-last game of the regular season. The Horned Frogs later defeated LSU, 3-2, in the 1936 Sugar Bowl. TCU ended the year with a record of 12-1.

1938

This remarkable Frog combine was ranked No. 1 by all the rating systems. TCU's first undefeated and untied team won the SWC Championship, then followed that feat with a Sugar Bowl victory over Carnegie Tech, 15-7. The 1938 lineup included three All-Americans – Davey O'Brien, who was the first footballer to win the Walter Camp, Heisman and Maxwell trophies the same year, plus Ki Aldrich and I.B. Hale. The Frogs ended the season with a record of 11-0.

TCU IN THE FINAL NATIONAL RANKINGS

1929 (NO. 7)
TCU's first Southwest Conference championship team, led by halfback Cy Leland, quarterback Howard Grubbs and All-America guard Mike Brumbelow, finished the season undefeated (9-0-1) and was placed No. 7 in the nation in an unofficial AP ranking. The familiar AP poll of today was not originated until 1936.

1932 (NO. 4)
The undefeated Horned Frogs (10-0-1) rose to true national prominence in '32 as they romped through the Southwest Conference race with ease and wound up No. 4 in the country in the final rankings of Illustrated Football magazine, the game's leading authority of the era. Six members of the starting line, anchored by All-America guard Johnny Vaught, were named all-conference, as were both halfbacks, Blanard Spearman and Red Oliver. When Pittsburgh was invited to the Rose Bowl over TCU, the Frogs tried to arrange a post-season game against Tulane, another highly regarded team, but nothing came of it.

1933 (NO. 9)
Coach Francis Schmidt produced three teams in the nation's Top 10 during his five seasons at TCU. The 1933 squad was the third. Paced by halfback Charlie Casper, the Frogs rolled to a 9-2-1 record but closed fast with stunning victories over Texas (30-0), Rice (26-3) and SMU (26-6). This finish impressed the syndicated sportswriter Grantland Rice so much he put TCU No. 9 in the final national rankings of his popular annual ratings service known as Grantland Rice's Cities Service Football Guide.

1935 (NO. 1 • NATIONAL CHAMPIONS)
As a TCU lineup produced two All-Americans for the first time – quarterback Sammy Baugh and center Darrell Lester – the Frogs reached the zenith of a national championship in the thrilling season of '35. The Frogs were tabbed No. 1 after the bowl games by the Williamson Rating System, the most authoritative poll in the land at the time. TCU wound up No. 1 after its 3-2 victory over powerful LSU in the Sugar Bowl. The Frogs' only loss had been a narrow one (20-14) to SMU in "The Game of the Century." But when the Mustangs were upset by Stanford 7-0 in the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day, the same afternoon that TCU whipped LSU in New Orleans, Williamson crowned TCU No. 1.

1936 (NO. 5)
Injuries, freaky upsets and a couple of foul-weather scoreless ties couldn't keep Sammy Baugh from repeating as an All-American and leading the Frogs to No. 5 in the nation in the final Williamson Rating System. Along the way, Baugh knocked off conference champion Arkansas, rudely upset the nation's last remaining perfect-record team, Santa Clara, and then won a duel with Marquette in the inaugural Cotton Bowl Classic. All of that left the Frogs with a 9-2-2 record.

1938 (NO. 1 • NATIONAL CHAMPIONS)
A dream season. This incredible Frogs team handily went 11-0, including the 15-7 victory over No. 5 Carnegie Tech in the Sugar Bowl. TCU captured every meaningful No. 1 ranking – AP, Williamson, Helms – turned out eight all-conference players on various selections, and three All-Americans, quarterback Davey O'Brien, center Ki Aldrich, and tackle I.B. Hale. O'Brien received the Heisman, Maxwell and Camp trophies. As the true national champions, the Frogs outpolled three other undefeated elevens in '38 – Tennessee, Oklahoma and Duke.

1941 (NO. 10)
Quarterback cohorts Kyle Gillespie and Emery Nix led the Frogs to a 7-2-1 record with the aid of All-America tackle Derrell Palmer and all-conference end Bruce Alford. Their only losses were to top-10 teams, No. 6 Fordham and No. 9 Texas A&M. But later, Nix sparked TCU to a memorable 14-7 upset of No. 1-ranked Texas. Ultimately, at the end of the regular season, the Williamson Rating System thought highly enough of the Frogs to rank them No. 10 in the nation. They became the first Southwest Conference team to play in the Orange Bowl, where they lost a wild one to Georgia, 40-26.

1951 (NO. 10)
Sophomore Ray McKown, running and passing out of the old Dutch Meyer spread formation, carried the Frogs to their most surprising conference title with only a 6-4 record. Still, these Frogs were ranked No. 10 in the nation in the UPI poll at the season's end. In so doing, McKown earned All-America honors, as did Keith Flowers and tackle Doug Conaway. In the Cotton Bowl game, TCU outgained Bear Bryant's Kentucky team by a huge margin, but saw no fewer than five drives stall inside Kentucky's 10-yard line, and were outscored, 20-7.

1955 (NO. 5)
Jim Swink set rushing and scoring records galore as the Frogs loitered the whole season among the nation's elite and won the Southwest Conference championship. In the end, with a 9-1 regular season record, they were ranked No. 3 by the Litkenhouse System, No. 5 by UPI, and No. 6 by AP. Swink was a unanimous All-America halfback and runner-up for the Heisman Trophy and center Hugh Pitts also made All-America.

1958 (NO. 9)
The Frogs breezed to an 8-2 record and the conference crown behind the passing of Hunter Enis, the running of Jack Spikes and Marvin Lasater, and the line play of All-America tackle Don Floyd. TCU was ranked No. 9 in the final UPI poll and No. 10 by the AP. In the Cotton Bowl game they fought undefeated and No. 6-ranked Air Force to a 0-0 tie.

1959 (NO. 7)
These Frogs basically put three All-Americas on the field with fullback Jack Spikes and tackles Don Floyd, a repeat selection, and Bob Lilly, who would be a unanimous choice in '60. They bruised their way to another 8-2 record, tying Texas and Arkansas for the conference title. When all the votes were in from the final polls, TCU was ranked No. 7 by AP and No. 8 by UPI.

2000 (NO. 18 ESPN/USA TODAY; NO. 21 AP)
LaDainian Tomlinson became one of college football's greatest ball carriers – only the second player in history to rush for more than 2,000 yards in a season and more than 5,000 in a career. Behind "LT," the Frogs sped to a 10-2 season record and the WAC championship. This performance enticed the Dunkel Index, one of the eight selectors for the Bowl Championship Series, to rate the Frogs No. 7 in the nation, their highest ranking in 40 seasons.

2002 (NO. 22 ESPN/USA TODAY; NO. 23 AP)
After a season-opening overtime loss at Cincinnati, the Frogs reeled off 10 wins in their next 11 games. The Frogs gained a share of the Conference USA title and posted an AXA Liberty Bowl win over Colorado State. Linebacker LaMarcus McDonald, the league's Defensive Player of the Year, led a squad that ranked first in the nation in both total defense and in stopping the run.

2003 (NO. 24 ESPN/USA TODAY; NO. 25 AP)
The Frogs reeled off 10 straight wins to open the season, climbing as high as No. 10 in the national rankings. Their success, which included five three-point wins, caught the attention of the nation, as they moved to sixth in the BCS standings, the highest ranking ever for a school from a non-BCS conference. A late season loss at Southern Miss kept the Frogs from winning their second-straight conference title. The Horned Frogs hosted nationally-ranked Boise State in the inaugural PlainsCapital Fort Worth Bowl and dropped an exciting 34-31 contest. Nick Browne was the Conference USA Special Teams Player of the Year and earned All-America accolades. Defensive end Bo Schobel set a school record for sacks while earning second-team All-America honors from the AP. Head coach Gary Patterson was one of three finalists for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year honors.

2005 (NO. 9 USA TODAY; NO. 11 AP)
TCU (11-1, 8-0) closed the season ranked ninth by USA Today for its highest appearance in a final poll since finishing seventh in the 1959 campaign. TCU opened and closed 2005 with victories over Big 12 bowl teams, winning at Oklahoma and then defeating Iowa State. In its first season of Mountain West Conference play, TCU became just the third team in league history to post an undefeated record (8-0). In the process, TCU captured its first outright league championship since sweeping through the Southwest Conference en route to the 1938 national title. TCU paced the Mountain West Conference with 18 all-conference selections with Cory Rodgers a consensus All-American at kick returner. Gary Patterson was the MWC Coach of the Year with tailback Aaron Brown named Freshman of the Year. Linebacker Jason Phillips and defensive end Tommy Blake were Freshman and Sophomore All-Americans, respectively.

2006 (NO. 21 USA TODAY; NO. 22 AP)
TCU (11-2, 6-2) posted its fourth 10-win season in the last five years. The Frogs became one of just five teams in the nation to reach 11 victories three times in the last four campaigns. The Frogs finished the campaign ranked 21st by the AP and 22nd in the USA Today poll. It represented the fifth time in the past seven years that TCU closed the season in the top 25. The Frogs ranked second nationally in total defense (234.9 yards per game) and run defense (60.8 yards per game) while placing third in scoring defense (12.3 points per game). TCU was one of three teams nationally to not allow a 100-yard rushing game by an opposing running back.

2008 (NO. 7 USA TODAY; NO. 7 AP)
TCU finished with its highest national ranking in half a century when it appeared at No. 7 in the final release of the AP and USA Today polls. The Frogs reached 10 wins for the fifth time in seven years with an 11-2 record. The only losses came at the hands of then-No. 2 Oklahoma, which played in the BCS Championship Game, and Utah, the nation's only undefeated team at 13-0. A Poinsettia Bowl win over previously-unbeaten Boise State capped off the season. The Horned Frogs featured the nation's top-ranked defensive unit in 2008, leading the nation in total defense for the third time in nine seasons by surrendering just 217.8 yards per game, in addition to topping the country in run defense (47.1 ypg). Junior defensive end Jerry Hughes was a consensus first-team All-America selection after leading the nation with 15 sacks and six forced fumbles.

2009 (NO. 6 USA TODAY; NO. 6 AP)
The 2009 Frogs experienced the program's most successful season since the 1930's by earning an at-large bid to the Fiesta Bowl--the school's first BCS berth since the system was adopted by major college football. The team finished the year No. 6 in both polls for its best end-of-season ranking since the 1938 national title season following a 17-10 loss to Boise State in the Fiesta Bowl. Three Frogs were named All-Americans, including defensive end Jerry Hughes, who became only the second consensus first-team pick in school history, while Patterson was honored with nine different National Coach of the Year awards. Hughes also reeled in a pair of major national honors in the Ted Hendricks Award and Lott Trophy, while quarterback Andy Dalton was named MWC Offensive Player of the Year. The Hughes-led defense led the nation in total defense (239.7 ypg) for the fourth time in the decade, while the Frog offense broke school records for points scored (38.3 ppg) and total offense (456.7 ypg).

2010 (NO. 2 USA TODAY; NO. 2 AP)
TCU (13-0) defeated Wisconsin, 21-19, in the Rose Bowl to cap its first undefeated season since capturing the 1938 national championship with an 11-0 ledger. It's the first 13-win season at TCU and just the second undefeated and untied campaign in program history. The Frogs finished second in the AP and USA Today polls, marking its highest season-ending ranking since 1938. The Frogs posted their third straight top-10 final ranking, marking the first time TCU has finished in the top-10 in three consecutive seasons. TCU is the only school in the nation to finish in both the AP and USA Today top 10 the last three years. TCU led the nation in total defense for a third straight year in 2010 and has now finished first in that category more times (five) than any other program since the NCAA began tracking statistics in 1937. Jake Kirkpatrick claimed the Rimington Trophy, given to the nation's best center, while Tejay Johnson became the third consensus first-team All-American in TCU history.

2011 (NO. 13 USA TODAY; NO. 14 AP)
Bolstered by a win at No. 5 Boise State, TCU posted its fourth-straight top-15 finish in both polls in 2011. The Frogs are one of just four schools to finish in the top-15 of both major polls over the last four seasons. The Horned Frogs opened the year No. 14 in the Associated Press poll and No. 15 in the USA Today. TCU fell out of the polls after a loss to SMU, but closed the year with eight-straight wins, including a 31-24 triumph over Louisiana Tech in the Poinsettia Bowl. Its biggest win of the season came Nov. 12, when TCU went on the road and defeated No. 5 Boise State. In snapping Boise State's 35-game home winning streak, TCU paved the way for its third-straight Mountain West title.

2014 (NO. 3 USA TODAY; NO. 3 AP)
Behind a high-powered offense and stingy defense, the Horned Frogs closed the season No. 3 nationally, marking its seventh all-time top-five finish. The Horned Frogs went 12-1 and capped their season with a 42-3 rout of No. 9 Ole Miss in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, marking their fifth win over a ranked opponent.

2015 (No. 7 USA TODAY; No. 7 AP)
By appearing at No. 7 in both major polls, the Horned Frogs posted their second straight top-10 final ranking. TCU's 11-2 record marked its eighth 11-win campaign in the last 11 seasons. The Horned Frogs closed the year by rallying from a 31-0 halftime deficit for a 47-41, triple-overtime victory over Oregon in the Valero Alamo Bowl. The comeback tied for the largest ever in a bowl game and the second-largest in any FBS game in history. TCU's successful 2015 season came despite suffering a rash of injuries that saw 20 starters sidelined at various points in the year.

2017 (No. 9 USA TODAY; No. 9 AP)
Picked to finish fifth in the preseason Big 12 poll, the Horned Frogs proved the prognosticators wrong by placing second in conference play with a 7-2 record and earning a spot in the Big 12 Championship Game. The Horned Frogs were 11-3 overall and capped their season by rallying from an 18-point deficit for a 39-37 victory over Stanford in the Valero Alamo Bowl. TCU was ninth in season-ending polls to become one of just five programs nationally to earn a top-10 final ranking in at least three of the past four seasons.

THE IRON SKILLET: TCU-SMU SERIES

During the post-World War II college football boom, the TCU and SMU student bodies created a traveling trophy called the Iron Skillet that was presented to the winner of the annual football game between the rivals. The tradition eventually died, and the skillet was lost. In 1993, the tradition was revived as SMU defeated TCU, 21-15. The skillet is presented to the winning team after each game.

BOWL HISTORY

1936 SUGAR BOWL
TCU 3, LSU 2 · Jan. 1, 1936

NEW ORLEANS, La. — Bernie Moore, coach of the LSU football team, was skeptical that TCU's 3 to 2 victory in the Sugar Bowl game was a conclusive test of the squads. "My conclusion of the game was that the slippery field eliminated at least 30 percent of the offensive power of both teams," he said. Dutch Meyer, coach of TCU, said he thought the contest before a capacity crowd of 35,000 was the "finest I've ever seen played in the rain."

Yesterday's "baseball score" game was a thriller which kept the spectators in their seats despite a slow rain which fell throughout the second half ... LSU scored in the second quarter after passes and runs brought the ball to the TCU two-inch line where it changed hands on downs. When (Sammy) Baugh attempted to pass from behind the goal line he stepped over the end zone, automatically giving LSU a safety for a two-point lead. The Texans came back in the same period to recover a Louisiana fumble on the Louisiana 40 and pushed down to the LSU 16. Taldon Manton then kicked a field goal from the Tiger 26. From that point on the game was a battle of mighty defensives.

TCU played most of the game minus the services of three of her brightest stars — Left Halfback George Kline, All-American Center Darrell Lester and Halfback Rex Clark ... Clark played only one down and that was by the courtesy of Coach Meyer who wanted the injured senior star to be able to say he played in the 1936 Sugar Bowl game ... Baugh made the longest run of the day — a 44-yard gallop.

1937 COTTON BOWL
TCU 16, Marquette 6 · Jan. 1, 1937

DALLAS — With a sling-back attack that whipped over a field goal and two touchdowns in the first 25 minutes of play and with a sturdy defense that piled up the Marquette Golden Avalanche, TCU captured a spectacular football game here this New Year's Day. The score in the Cotton Bowl classic was 16-6.

So sudden, sharp and dazzling was the sweep of action of the battle that 15,000 spectators, who braved threatening weather, forgot the gray gloom of the afternoon. Led by Sammy Baugh, who out-passed and outplayed "Buzz" Buivid to cinch his claim to the title of the greatest passer of the season, the Texans uncorked an offense that flared into long gains both on the ground and in the air. Although it was Baugh who paced the attack and won the attention of the crowd, it was L.D. Meyer who did the real damage..

He scored all of TCU's 16 points. He kicked a 33-yard field goal for the first three points in the opening minutes. Before the first quarter had ended, Meyer collaborated with Sambo on a 55-yard pass-and-run gain for the first Frog TD, and in the second quarter he took an 18-yard heave from Vic Montgomery for the last score. Meyer even converted after the first touchdown.

A 60-yard punt return by Art Guepe in the first quarter accounted for all of Marquette's points.

1939 SUGAR BOWL
TCU 15, Carnegie Tech 7 · Jan. 2, 1939

NEW ORLEANS, La. — It was with power, passes and kicking that the Christians made the two touchdowns and one field goal that enabled them to win, 15-7. Carnegie's most consistent method of attack was a bristling, quick-starting and hard-hitting offense, but it was with a brilliant 38-yard pass in the last seconds of the first half that the Skibos scored ... The second half started with the Pittsburghers leading, 7-6. The first time they got possession of the hoghide, the Frogs proved irresistible. Moving with giant strides, they went 80 yards and a touchdown on five plays.

TCU punted one time. That fact alone indicates accurately how fearfully effective was the ground-gaining maneuvers of the big white-shirted representatives ... The one punt figured in making TCU's first touchdown ... When the Skibos punted out, the TCU regulars took over and went 48 yards on 11 plays to take a 6-0 lead ...

Carnegie took the next kickoff and went to town with big, fast and tough George Muha doing most of the dirty work ... Earl Clark intercepted a pass and ran 25 yards to the Carnegie 35 yard-line, but Durward Horner, a TCU end, had been offsides so the play was called back ... It was on fourth down of this series of plays that Petey Moroz cut loose with his long fine pass for the Carnegie touchdown ...

The third quarter (Davey) O'Brien passed to Horner down the middle ... The end caught the ball between two Skibos, but evaded both of them and ran 24 yards across the goal line.

1942 ORANGE BOWL
Georgia 40, TCU 26 · Jan. 1, 1942

MIAMI, Fla. — In the wildest, weirdest football battle ever waged in this corner of the country, the Georgia Bulldogs outscored the courageous TCU Horned Frogs 40-26 ... Coach Wally Butts' fast team, well-equipped on ground and in the air, almost chased the Frogs off the field for 35 minutes... The score mounted to 40-7 with only a few minutes played in the second half.

But the Frogs are not quitters ... Everything was against them. They couldn't hold the enemy, they couldn't move themselves and they were battered and weary from their empty-handed efforts. But there was too much tradition behind those purple shirts. Suddenly, almost as if a fresh wind had blown into the stadium, the tide turned. They knocked over three touchdowns in rapid order. They turned back every Georgia thrust. The great comeback in the last 25 minutes saved the Frogs from humiliation.

Bruce Alford was the Frog star ... He blocked a punt, he made two great catches for touchdowns... After the rest period, Texas supporters hoped for a rally. But Georgia stepped out and banged 80 yards for still another touchdown that promised to make it a rout ... From that moment to the final gun it was the Bulldogs who held on and the Frogs who ripped.

1945 COTTON BOWL
Oklahoma A&M 34, TCU 0 · Jan. 1, 1945

DALLAS — With speed, spirit and spiraling passes, the Cowboys of Oklahoma A&M completely outclassed the TCU Horned Frogs in the ninth annual Cotton Bowl football game here this crystal clear New Year's afternoon to win, 34-0. Except for the second quarter when they staved off repeated threats, the Frogs were never able to cope with the double-pronged attack ... The first touchdown, scored in the fifth minute, climaxed a 59-yard advance. The second whirled 61 yards, the third 62 yards, the fourth 40 yards and the fifth 66 yards .

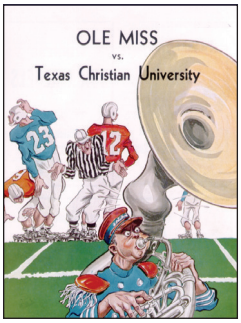

The Frogs moved on the ground several times when in their own territory, but after crossing the 50-yard line they were always thwarted by the bulling tactics of the burly Cowboy line ... Only once did the Frogs get inside the A&M 35-yard line and that was on a pass interception.

Bob Ruff was the only TCU back who was able to gain with any consistency, although Jesse Mason did some good work for a short time.

Coach Dutch Meyer tried all kinds of defenses against the Aggies, including a seven-man line which moved fullback Cox into the line. None of them worked for more than a few minutes at a time. The Aggies were too good in too many different ways.

1948 DELTA BOWL
Ole Miss 13, TCU 9 · Jan. 2, 1948

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — Trailing a hard-trying TCU team by nine points, the great Charley Conerly suddenly soared to the dramatic heights of football throwing expected of him. In just five minutes his rifle arm accounted for two touchdowns as the Confederates bested the Christians, 13-9, in the first Delta Bowl game.

In the closing minutes of the third period, Conerly launched a passing flurry that carried exactly 80 yards in eight plays ... The Frogs, still going strong, marched right back to the Rebel 37 where an intercepted pass sat Conerly up in business again. This time he threw only two passes...and they ate up just 63 yards to win the ball game.

In more ways than one, it was a tough game for the Frogs to lose... But they fumbled badly, losing the ball twice at crucial moments.

There were nine minutes yet to play and the Frogs gave the enemy fans a heart attack by holding the leather. Just six of them from their one-yard line, where Otis Kelvey was dropped on the kickoff, the Christians powered right up field for 59 yards... But the last threat died when Knox's pass was batted up and intercepted by the Ole Miss linebacker on the Reb 38.

BOWL HISTORY

Kentucky 20, TCU 7 · Jan. 1, 1952

DALLAS — TCU, distressingly flat except for one magnificent minute-and-half surge late in the third quarter, succeeded only in making it a masterpiece of frustration. And so the four-times-beaten Wildcats from the Bluegrass State thoroughly trounced the Southwest Conference champions before a capacity throng of 75,349 ... 20-7. Kentucky scored on two surges of 52 and 57 yards in the first and second quarters to post its 13-0 halftime lead.

Frogs, who had bogged down once on the four, wasted another 59-yard push to the 24 early in the second quarter. Here, Clark intercepted a Mal Fowler pass returned to the Kentucky 43 and the Wildcats tromped on from here for 57 yards and another touchdown in 11 plays ... TCU made its 48-yard move to the five after this and came back later in the quarter with its 51-yard march to the one all for nothing ... (Gilbert) Bartosh drew his first chance of the game ... Here Bartosh called a direct snap — back Bobby Jack Floyd went 43 yards for touchdown on the longest run of the day.

Against the wind in the fourth Bartosh guided the Frogs 40 yards ... The TCU command sent in McKown to punt and he obliged with his neat kick-out on the 8. But here, where holding 'em was imperative for TCU, Tom Fillion broke loose for 17 yards on a third-down-seven-to-go-play ... Kentucky held the ball, put TCU in the hole with the kick and Bartosh was spilled for losses.

1956 COTTON BOWL
Ole Miss 14, TCU 13 · Jan. 2, 1956

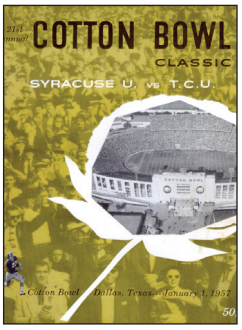

DALLAS — The University of Mississippi Rebels, champions of the Southeastern Conference, spotted the TCU Horned Frogs, champions of the Southwest Conference, 13 points in the 20th annual Cotton Bowl football game before 75,000 spectators here this warm and sunny Monday afternoon and then swung back to win by the margin of a single point, 14-13 ... (TCU) actually lost the game for being in motion on a conversion effort.

They made the 14th point on the first try, but because a player was in motion, they had to try again from five yards farther back, and missed. They probably lost the game on the opening kickoff when quarterback Chuck Curtis made the mistake of receiving and running with the ball. He was so badly injured when tackled that he never returned to action ... In spite of the handicap, the Horned Frogs scored a touchdown in the first quarter and counted in the second to lead 13-0 before the Rebels got their first touchdown to make it 13-7 at the half ... Mississippi won the game in the 11th minute of the fourth quarter ... Billy Lott scored on a five-yard gallop around his right wing. The Rebs' winning move traveled exactly the same distance as their first touchdown parade: 66 yards ... The Frogs went 44 and 75 yards for their touchdowns.

1957 COTTON BOWL
TCU 28, Syracuse 27 · Jan. 1, 1957

DALLAS — Harold Pollard's four-for-four conversions and the blocking of Syracuse's third point-after-touchdown attempt by (Chico) Mendoza produced a 28-27 Cotton Bowl victory for TCU after 18 years of waiting. The Frogs had dropped five successive bowl appearances and had not recorded a post-season triumph since 1939. It was a moving offensive show all the way with the TCU passing providing a balance Syracuse couldn't stop and the Saltine Warriors riding powerfully on a running game spearheaded by the All-America halfback, Jim Brown. He gained 132 yards and was voted the game's outstanding back. The Frogs' All-American tackle, Norman Hamilton, was the one defender who came nearest to stopping Brown consistently and he was chosen as the game's outstanding lineman.

Syracuse scored in the last two minutes to give the game its touch of such hair-breadth closeness. For much of the afternoon it was TCU's game and a couple of times seemed on the verge of turning decisive.

There was a unique twist to the first-half scoring in that each team intercepted passes and then drove 70 yards to score and each recovered fumbles and pushed out short yardage for the second touchdowns.

1959 COTTON BOWL
Air Force 0, TCU 0 · Jan. 1, 1959

DALLAS — The gentlemen operating the scoreboard had the easiest occupation in all land as the Southwest Conference champions (TCU) and the future generals (Air Force Academy) from Colorado Springs played the second 0-0 deadlock in the 23-year history of the New Year's Day classic ... It was the fourth tie game ever unreeled before a Cotton Bowl assemblage ... It was a disappointing final for both clubs. The Horned Frogs took the field bearing an 8-2 record. The Falcons were unbeaten in 10 games and had their season immaculate but for a tie with Iowa. The Frogs fumbled the ball on eight occasions and on three of these wasted possession. One of these came early in the final period and surely tried the composure of Coach Abe Martin as he saw the Falcons reclaim a bobble just eight steps from the Air Force Academy's end zone.

The field, covered by tarpaulin during the snow fall earlier in the week, was damp and contributed to the uneasy handling of the ball. The visiting Falcons also had difficulty retaining the sphere and lost control on three of their five fumbles. Jack Spikes attempted both of TCU's field goals, the first early in the opening period ... The Airmen offered their severest threat midway of the second quarter ... It was here that the Frog line gave its best performance, restraining the Silver and Blue on the six, the spot from where George Pupich missed a field goal.

1959 BLUEBONNET BOWL
Clemson 23, TCU 7 · Dec. 19, 1959

HOUSTON — The Frogs were drowned, 23-7, by a deadly sprinkle of Clemson passes in a seven-minute period of the final quarter ... The sudden Clemson scoring flood washed away a 7-3 lead TCU carried into the fatal final period. A narrow margin, but one that, at the time, appeared enough to send the luckless Tigers down to their fourth straight bowl defeat ... Neither team had threatened seriously after Clemson's second quarter 22-yard field goal by Lon Armstrong, and TCU's lone touchdown, a 19-yard pass from Jack Redding to Harry Moreland with 5:45 left in the first half. Clemson had completed only one gaining pass all afternoon, that a 5-yard throw from Tiger quarterback Harvey White.

White must have spotted the silver lining in the gathering darkness for Tiger hopes. He took plenty of time behind the mammoth line and arched a long, high shot toward right end Gary Barnes, racing past TCU's Larry Dawson at the Frog 35. Armstrong added the extra point ... Two plays after the kickoff, Armstrong lassoed a pass from TCU quarterback Donald George ... From there, Lowndes Shingler, overwhelmingly voted outstanding back, came back to guide the Tigers for the final slap on the cheek to a proud TCU team which had gained wide respect as the class of the Southwest Conference, winning seven games to finish in a 3-way tie for the title.

1965 SUN BOWL
Texas Western 13, TCU 12 · Dec. 19, 1965

EL PASO, Texas. — The Miners sulked off the field with a 10-point deficit at the intermission, but then pumped up Billy Stevens' arm and Joe Cook's foot and eventually deflated the Frogs, 13-12. Stevens, who gained second rank among the nation's passers this season, proved his stardom to TCU by racking up 208 yards on 21 pass completions, the most ever against an Abe Martin team. The skinny sophomore had only seven strikes in the first half as the ball-controlling Frogs rammed into a 10-0 lead. Stevens made the 31st annual post season game a vastly different story in the second half.

Stevens shot a 34-yard touchdown pass to 165-pound flanker Chuck Hughes and a startling comeback was begun ... The Miners drove 70 yards for a tying 21-yard field goal by Cook... Texas Western, a raging defensive team by this time, hopped on a TCU fumble at the Frog 29.

Cook kicked an 18-yard three-pointer FG four plays deep in the final period to boot the Miners into a 13-10 cushion. TCU's final two points were a gift. With 43 seconds left in the game ... The Miner quarterback raced back in his end zone for a safety ... The Frogs got their last chance. They could get only eight yards before the clock ran out.

Although Stevens won the great air race in the end, TCU's senior quarterback, Kent Nix got a head start.

David Smith hauling in Nix's 11-yard pass for the score ... The Frogs had another scoring opportunity in the first period ... (Bruce) Alford missed a kick from the 28.

BOWL HISTORY

1984 BLUEBONNET BOWL
West Virginia 31, TCU 14 · Dec. 31, 1984

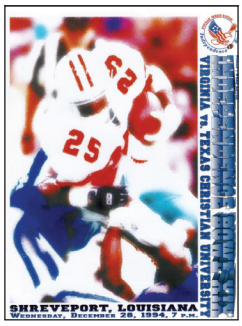

HOUSTON — What had promise of being the exciting finish to an "unbelievable" season turned closer to a nightmare ... at least until TCU's dramatic, fourth-quarter comeback restored some degree of respect to the outcome in the 25th edition of the Bluebonnet Bowl. The final score was West Virginia 31, TCU 14. But for the Horned Frogs there were lots of dips and swerves along the way. For starters, a 21-point West Virginia blitz during a 14-minute span of the first half had somewhat of a sobering effect on the Purples. So did the loss of All-American running back Kenneth Davis, to a knee injury, in the early moments of the postseason classic.

After being shoved up and down the field by the Mountaineers' offense (355 yards), while countering with little punch themselves (148 yards) during the first 30 minutes, the Horned Frogs did make a contest of it after the intermission, scoring the only touchdown of the second half while mounting a couple of other drives which nearly resulted in points. Much of TCU's second half turnaround was due to the passing arm of senior Anthony Gulley who finished with 150 yards passing including TD tosses to Dan Sharp and Keith Burnett. Senior receiver James Maness caught five passes for 90 yards but was no match statistically for the six-catch, 152-yard performance of WVU lightning bug.

1994 INDEPENDENCE BOWL
Virginia 20, TCU 10 · Dec. 28, 1994

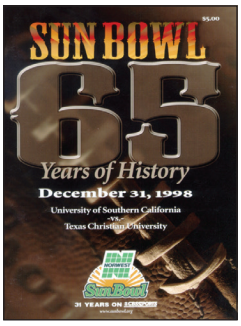

SHREVEPORT, La. — A decade slipped by before TCU's Horned Frogs resurfaced from oblivion into the post-season... The Frogs mostly slipped however, as they trudged and muddied themselves on the rain-drenched field of Independence Stadium... Some 27,242 fans – a majority of them TCU supporters – withstood the temptation to stay home ... The view became painstakingly clear no matter the vantage point ... Virginia proved too good for these upstart Frogs and captured its first bowl triumph in five attempts since 1987 with the 20-10 victory ... "We can't use the field as an excuse in any way," TCU coach Pat Sullivan said. "I couldn't be more proud of our football team, but we weren't quite good enough in a couple of ways."

The 15th-ranked Cavaliers (9-3) dominated at the point of attack, where so many games will be won or lost ... The Frogs and their Southwest Conference-leading offense, which averaged 411.6 yards per game during the regular season, sustained nothing on this chilly, wet night. Virginia, which entered the contest with the nation's No. 1-ranked defensive unit against the run, surrendered only 191 yards and 11 first downs to the Frogs.

The running of junior tailback Andre Davis, who rushed for 97 yards on 24 carries, failed to provide enough offense on a night when (quarterback Max) Knake struggled. "The truth of it is I played terrible," said Knake. "If I could have played better, there may have been a different outcome."

1998 NORWEST SUN BOWL
TCU 28, USC 19 · Dec. 31, 1998

EL PASO, Texas — With only six wins, many thought TCU was not worthy of a bowl appearance. But, the Horned Frogs proved their critics wrong in a big way.

Basil Mitchell rushed for 185 yards and two touchdowns on only 19 carries as TCU earned its first bowl victory in 41 years with a 28-19 win over USC in the 65th Sun Bowl.

Quarterback Patrick Batteaux added 94 yards and two scores for TCU, which recorded its first post-season win since defeating Syracuse in the 1957 Cotton Bowl.

TCU (7-5) dominated the line of scrimmage, rushing for 314 yards while holding USC to a Sun Bowl record minus-23, breaking by two yards the mark set by Florida State in 1951. The Trojans (8-5) also posted the lowest rushing total in school history, eclipsing the previous record of minus-11 yards against Iowa in 1976.

Mitchell fell just short of Charles Alexander's Sun Bowl rushing record of 197 yards. He opened the scoring with a three-yard run 7:07 into the first quarter.

True freshman Carson Palmer completed 17-of-28 passes for a season-best 280 yards to rally USC.

The Horned Frogs put away the game by chewing more than six minutes off the clock before pinning USC inside its 15 with less than two minutes remaining.

1999 MOBILE ALABAMA BOWL

TCU 28, East Carolina 14 · Dec. 22, 1999

MOBILE, Ala. — LaDainian Tomlinson ran for 124 yards and two touchdowns to lead TCU to a 28-14 victory over No. 20 East Carolina in the inaugural Mobile Alabama Bowl.

It was the second consecutive bowl upset for TCU (8-4). East Carolina (9-3) entered the game as six-point favorites.

That didn't bother the Horned Frogs, who completely shut down the Pirates' running game, holding them to minus-16 yards.

East Carolina went into the game focusing on stopping Tomlinson, whose 1,850 yards edged Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne for the NCAA Division I rushing title.

TCU, which alternated between quarterbacks Casey Printers and Patrick Batteaux, made it impossible for the Pirates to adjust.

Early in the first quarter, Printers gained seven yards on an option run to move TCU to the 2. Batteaux came in on the next play and pitched the ball to Tomlinson, who ran in for the touchdown. That tied the game at 7 and TCU slowly pulled away from there.

East Carolina, which couldn't run the ball at all against TCU, had to go to the air in the second half. It initially worked, but early in the fourth quarter, Russell Gary intercepted Garrard's pass and returned it 32 yards for a touchdown. That gave TCU a 28-14 lead with 14:04 to play.

2000 GMAC MOBILE ALABAMA BOWL

Southern Miss 28, TCU 21 · Dec. 20, 2000

MOBILE, Ala. — Jeff Kelly's 28-yard touchdown pass to freshman Kenny Johnson with eight seconds left lifted Southern Miss to a 28-21 victory over No. 13 TCU in the Mobile Alabama Bowl.

In the first major bowl game of the season, TCU tailback LaDainian Tomlinson ran for 118 yards, his lowest total of the season. The Heisman Trophy finalist carried 28 times and scored two TDs in the third quarter.

Southern Miss (8-4) got a second chance after a fourth missed field goal, and trusted their senior quarterback instead of the shaky kicking game.

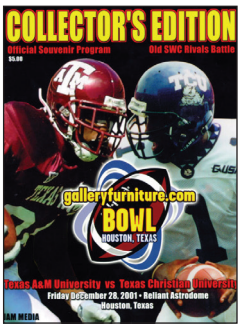

With 33 seconds left, they took over at the TCU 43-yard line after Mobile native Etric Pruitt got a hand on John Braziel's punt. Kelly threw two incompletions, then scrambled 14 yards for a first down. On the next play, he lofted a perfect strike over the middle just above safety LaVar Veale's outstretched arm, victimizing the nation's top defense.

The Horned Frogs (10-2) endured a December coaching change and uncertainty over who would lead them into the game. In the end, former defensive coordinator Gary Patterson replaced Dennis Franchione on the sidelines. Franchione left for Alabama Dec. 1 and was initially expected to coach the bowl game. TCU officials decided late last week to allow the Patterson era to begin a season early.

Texas A&M 28, TCU 9 · Dec. 28, 2001

HOUSTON — Byron Jones intercepted three passes in his first start and Joe Weber scored two touchdowns, helping Texas A&M end a four-game bowl losing streak with a 28-9 victory over TCU (6-6) in the galleryfurniture .com Bowl.

The Aggies (8-4) beat their former Southwest Conference rivals for the 24th straight time.

Weber, voted offensive player of the game, broke a 7-7 second-quarter tie with a 2-yard touchdown run and added a 14-yard run that put the Aggies in control with 1:14 left in the third quarter.

TCU's Casey Printers was intercepted four times.

Jones earned MVP honors and also was the defensive player of the game with three tackles. Starting in place of injured Sean Weston, Jones had only two broken-up passes on his defensive chart in 11 games before he returned his first interception 62 yards in the first quarter to the Frog 35.

The Aggies couldn't score on that chance but Jones had a 15-yard interception to the TCU 1-yard line in the second quarter, setting up Mark Farris' quarterback keeper for the score.

Charlie Owens scooped up a fumble by A&M running back Derek Farmer and returned it 89 yards for a TCU touchdown with four minutes left in the half for a 7-7 tie. It was the second longest fumble return in school history.

BOWL HISTORY

2002 AXA LIBERTY BOWL
TCU 17, Colorado State 3 · Dec. 31, 2002

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — TCU figured out how to stop Colorado State standout Cecil Sapp after just two runs in the Liberty Bowl.

Sapp reeled off big gains of 59 and 25 yards on the Rams' first two possessions, but had 22 yards the rest of the game, and TCU tailback Ricky Madison stole the show with 111 yards rushing and a touchdown as the Horned Frogs beat No. 23 Colorado State 17-3 Tuesday.

It was the Horned Frogs' 500th victory in school history.

Madison ran for 107 of his yards in the rainy second half as TCU's offense came alive after a sloppy opening by both teams.

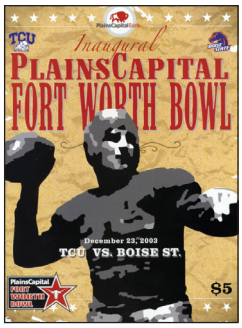

In the first half, the teams combined for three lost fumbles, two interceptions, a missed field goal and an unsuccessful faked field goal. Their sloppy play made for the lowest scoring first half of a Liberty Bowl since Penn State led Tulane 6-0 in 1979.

TCU (10-2) finally put together a seven-play, 62-yard scoring drive led by Lonta Hobbs in the closing minutes of the second quarter. The freshman ran for 39 yards in the drive, capped when Sean Stilley threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to LaTarence Dunbar with 1:21 remaining to put TCU up 7-0 at the break.

The Rams were held to 89 yards rushing - compared with 197 for TCU - for their lowest total of the season. TCU also outgained Colorado State 338-149.

2003 PLAINSCAPITAL FORT WORTH BOWL
Boise State 34, TCU 31 · Dec. 22, 2003

FORT WORTH — Ryan Dinwiddie, who ended his career as the most efficient passer in college football, threw for 325 yards and three touchdowns to lead the No. 18 Broncos (13-1) to a 34-31 win Tuesday night over No. 19 TCU in the inaugural Fort Worth Bowl.

Their bowl win on TCU's campus wasn't secured until sophomore Mike Wynn was well short on a 51-yard field goal attempt, the first kick in his college career, with 7 seconds left.

TCU (11-2) had its school-record 13-game home winning streak snapped. The Frogs had been in contention for a Bowl Championship Series spot until their only regular-season loss Nov. 20 and then turned down an invitation to last week's GMAC Bowl because it conflicted with exams.

Dinwiddie hit 19 of 35 passes with two interceptions, but his last touchdown was an 18-yarder to Derek Schouman for the winning score with 12:43 left.

"I thought we beat them on both sides of the football. Three big plays beat us," TCU coach Gary Patterson said. "There's a reason they've won a lot of games."

2005 EV1.NET HOUSTON BOWL
#14 TCU 27, Iowa State 24 · Dec. 31, 2005

HOUSTON — Peter LoCoco hit a 44-yard field goal with 5:25 left in the game to put TCU on top 27-24 and the defense held Iowa State in check on the ensuing drive for the victory at Reliant Stadium.

The TCU defense forced four Iowa State turnovers and Robert Merrill reached the century mark in rushing yards for the 10th time in his career as he ran for 109 yards on 11 carries with a touchdown to help lead the Frogs to the win.

TCU scored on its opening two possessions for a 14-0 lead just 6:36 into the contest. The two touchdowns came in a 1:55 span. The Horned Frogs took the opening kickoff and drove 80 yards in 12 plays, capped by a 20-yard Merrill touchdown run.

On the second play of Iowa State's ensuing possession, Jeremy Modkins forced a fumble that was recovered by Drew Coleman, giving the Frogs possession at the Cyclone 21. Three plays later, an Aaron Brown 7-yard scoring run extended TCU's lead to 14-0.

Iowa State scored 17 points in a 4:30 stretch of the second quarter to take a 17-14 lead with 10:30 left in the first half.

The Cyclones' third turnover of the first half, a fumble recovery by David Roach, led to the Frogs going back on top. The first snap of TCU's ensuing series saw Jeff Ballard connect on an 84-yard touchdown pass to Michael DePriest to give the Frogs a 21-17 lead with 4:05 left.

2006 SAN DIEGO COUNTY CREDIT UNION POINSETTIA BOWL

#25 TCU 37, No. Illinois 7 · Dec. 19, 2006

SAN DIEGO — Penned in by a bunch of tough Horned Frogs, Garrett Wolfe had nowhere to run.

The national rushing leader was held to 28 yards, a whopping 130 below his average, and No. 25 TCU won a Poinsettia Bowl mismatch against Northern Illinois 37-7.

While Wolfe was repeatedly stuffed by one of the nation's best defenses, led by end Tommy Blake, Horned Frogs quarterback Jeff Ballard ran for three touchdowns and threw for another.

Ballard looked like more of a running back as he scored on runs of 10, 1 and 6 yards. He threw a 6-yard TD pass to tight end Brent Hecht and finished with 258 passing yards.

TCU's Lonta Hobbs rushed for 114 yards and one TD.

Wolfe came in leading the nation with an average of 158.3 yards rushing and 178.9 all-purpose yards.

The Horned Frogs, though, were fourth nationally in run defense after allowing only 67.6 yards per game. TCU kept alive its string of not allowing a 100-yard rusher, one of only four teams to do so this year.

Wolfe, who carried 20 times, came dangerously close to his career-low of 24 yards set in his first game, the 2004 season opener. The Huskies had only five first downs and 60 yards of total offense, compared to 23 first downs and 456 yards for TCU.

2007 TEXAS BOWL

TCU 20, Houston 13 · Dec. 28, 2007

HOUSTON — Justin Watts had scored exactly one touchdown in his career at TCU before the Texas Bowl.

TD No. 2 marked the go-ahead touchdown early in the fourth quarter to help TCU to a 20-13 win over Houston.

The junior wove through the defense and danced into the end zone for an 8-yard touchdown run that made it 17-10 and gave TCU (8-5) its first lead of the game against its old Southwest Conference rival. He and Ryan Christian split carries against Houston (8-5) after starter Joseph Turner injured his knee in the first quarter and didn't return.

Quarterback Andy Dalton also ran for a touchdown for TCU. Dalton was 21-of-30 for 249 yards with one interception. Watts and Christian combined for 88 yards rushing on 12 carries.

A 15-yard leaping reception by Jimmy Young on third down kept the drive that ended in Watts' touchdown going. Young outjumped Carson Blackmon to grab the ball and managed to keep his left leg in bounds as he landed. It was initially ruled an incomplete pass, but the call was overturned after a review by officials.

The Cougars had a chance to tie it with less than 30 seconds to play but Case Keenum's pass sailed just beyond the fingertips of Jeron Harvey in the end zone. He had two more shots at the end zone, but the ball fell short on the first one and Chase Ortiz hit him as he threw the second one to end the game.

2008 SAN DIEGO COUNTY CREDIT UNION POINSETTIA BOWL

#11 TCU 17, #9 Boise State 16 · Dec. 23, 2008

SAN DIEGO — Joseph Turner dove into the end zone for the winning score, and LaDainian Tomlinson went nuts on the sideline.

Turner's 17-yard run midway through the fourth quarter gave the No. 11 Horned Frogs their first lead of the night, during a 17-16 victory over No. 9 and previously undefeated Boise State in the Poinsettia Bowl.

BSU was trying to finish 13-0 for the second time in three seasons. The Broncos took a 10-0 lead on Ian Johnson's 20-yard touchdown run midway through the first quarter, but their high-scoring offense bogged down against TCU's fast, aggressive defense.

TCU piled up yards if not points until finally wearing down the Broncos' defense in the fourth quarter. The Horned Frogs moved 80 yards in 10 plays on the winning drive, with Turner finishing it off by shedding a tackle inside the 5-yard line and diving into the end zone for a 17-13 lead.

After Turner's TD, Boise State got to the TCU 14 before having to settle for Kyle Brotzman's 33-yard field goal to pull to 17-16.

The Broncos got the ball back with 6 seconds left on their 33 and tried to lateral the ball after a catch, but Jeremy Childs' desperation flip was grabbed by TCU's Matt Panfil.

TCU outgained Boise State 472 yards to 250.

BOWL HISTORY

2016 TOSTITOS FIESTA BOWL
#6 Boise St. 17, #3 TCU 10 · Jan. 4, 2010

PHOENIX, Ariz. — Boise State reached into its bag of tricks again and stunned TCU in a Fiesta Bowl duel of unbeaten BCS busters. It was the first time two schools from leagues without automatic BCS bids have met in one of college football's biggest bowls.

After the Broncos pulled off a gutsy fake punt at their own 33-yard line, Doug Martin scored the decisive touchdown to give No. 6 Boise State a 17-10 victory over third-ranked TCU.

A 10-10 stalemate came alive when punter Kyle Brotzman hit wide-open Kyle Efaw with a 30-yard strike with about 9 minutes to play. Four plays later, Martin dove over a tackler from 2 yards out as the Broncos became the second school ever to go 14-0, joining Ohio State in 2002.

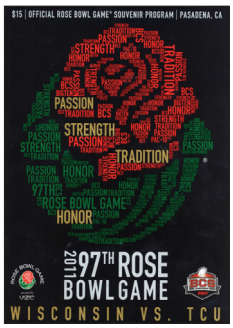

The Broncos caught the Horned Frogs napping on the fake punt by Brotzman. Kellen Moore then completed three straight passes to advance to the 2, and Martin scored to put Boise State up 17-10 with 7:21 to go.

TCU took over at its own 1 with 1:06 remaining and marched to the Boise State 30 before cornerback Brandyn Thompson disrupted a pass by Andy Dalton, and Winston Venable picked it off to end the threat. Thompson set up the winning drive with his second interception of the game. He returned his first pick 51 yards for the game's first score.

TCU's touchdown came on a 30-yard pass from Dalton to Curtis Clay that pulled the Frogs to within 10-7 at halftime.

2011 ROSE BOWL
#3 TCU 21, #5 Wisconsin 19 · Jan. 1, 2011

PASADENA, Calif. — Andy Dalton threw a touchdown pass and ran for a score, linebacker Tank Carder swatted down a 2-point conversion pass attempt with 2 minutes to play, and No. 3 TCU completed a perfect season with its first Rose Bowl victory, 21-19 over fourth-ranked Wisconsin on Saturday.

Bart Johnson caught an early TD pass and recovered a late onside kick for the Mountain West champion Horned Frogs (13-0), who followed up their second straight unbeaten regular season by busting the BCS in dramatic fashion.

Dalton passed for 219 yards for TCU, which won't win the national title - that will go to either Auburn or Oregon. They meet in the BCS championship game in nine days.

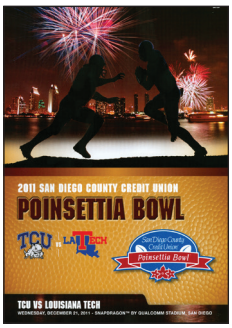

Luke Shivers' 1-yard TD run put TCU ahead 21-13 early in the third quarter, but neither team scored again until Wisconsin mounted a 77-drive in the waning minutes. Montee Ball rushed for a 4-yard score with 2 minutes to play, but Carder made a perfectly timed leap at the line to bat down Scott Tolzien's throw to the end zone. The intended receiver was open in the end zone.

Dalton went 15 for 23 and rushed for a first-quarter score, winning the game's offensive MVP award. But the defense deserved the credit for hanging on when TCU couldn't score in the game's final 26 minutes.

Carder was the leader all game and the man at the end.

2011 SAN DIEGO COUNTY CREDIT UNION POINSETTIA BOWL
#16 TCU 31, La. Tech 24 · Dec. 21, 2011

SAN DIEGO - Casey Pachall and the TCU Horned Frogs are headed to the Big 12 Conference on an eight-game winning streak.

Pachall highlighted a record-setting game with a 42-yard touchdown pass to Skye Dawson with 4:26 left to lift No. 16 TCU to a 31-24 victory against Louisiana Tech in the Poinsettia Bowl on Wednesday night.

It was the eighth straight victory for Mountain West Conference champion TCU (11-2), which moves to the Big 12 next year. It was the third time this season TCU overcame a fourth-quarter deficit to win, including a 36-35 victory at Boise State on Nov. 12, the Broncos' only loss.

Pachall was 15 of 29 for 206 yards. He set school single-season records with 228 completions, 2,921 yards and a completion percentage of 66.5, breaking marks previously held by Andy Dalton.

On the winning play, the sophomore took the snap in the shotgun and Dawson ran past safety Chad Boyd to pull in the long pass.

The Horned Frogs, who beat Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl last season, had hoped to make it to a BCS bowl for the third straight season.

2012 BUFFALO WILD WINGS BOWL

Michigan State 17, TCU 16 · Dec. 29, 2012

TEMPE, Ariz. — Dan Conroy kicked a 47-yard field goal with 1:01 left, Le'Veon Bell ran for 145 yards, and Michigan State rallied to beat TCU 17-16 in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl.

Michigan State labored through the first half before going on a 90-yard march capped by Connor Cook's 15-yard touchdown pass to Aaron Burbridge in the third quarter. The Spartans recovered a muffed TCU punt at the 4-yard line midway through the fourth quarter, and Bell scored two plays later by racing around left end for a 14-13 lead.

TCU rallied to set up Jaden Oberkrom for a 53-yard field goal but left Conroy too much time for his second straight postseason game-winner.

Bell, who entered the game as the nation's third-leading rusher, had nowhere to go early on. Filling holes inside and stringing plays out toward the sidelines, TCU stuffed the back on nearly every touch, holding him to 38 yards on 11 carries in the first half. MSU produced only three first downs and 76 total yards in the opening stanza.

The Frogs started gashing the Spartans for decent-sized chunks with their option midway through the first quarter, setting up Matthew Tucker's 4-yard touchdown on an end-around.

Oberkrom followed with a 47-yard field goal and added another from 31 yards after Trevone Boykin hit Josh Boyce on a 61-yard pass to put TCU up 13-0 at halftime. Boykin threw for 201 yards for TCU.

2014 CHICK-FIL-A PEACH BOWL

#6 TCU 42, #9 Ole Miss 3 · Dec. 31, 2014

ATLANTA — No. 6 TCU rode three touchdown passes from Trevone Boykin and a dominant defense to a 42-3 rout of No. 9 Ole Miss in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

Josh Doctson had two touchdown catches and Aaron Green ran for a score and added a touchdown reception for the Horned Frogs (12-1).

Bo Wallace threw three interceptions, including one caught in the Rebels end zone by defensive end James McFarland for a touchdown.

The action was as lopsided as the score. TCU finished with 423 yards and allowed only 129 to Ole Miss. The Rebels were held to 9 yards rushing in the biggest margin of victory in Peach Bowl history.

TCU led 28-0 at halftime.

Ole Miss ranked first in the nation with its average of only 13.8 points allowed. Turnovers and TCU's quick-strike offense were too much to overcome.

Wallace completed only 10 of 23 passes for 109 yards.

The Horned Frogs turned two Ole Miss turnovers into 14 points. On the Rebels' third snap of the game, a pass from Wallace was picked off by safety Chris Hackett.

Late in the half, Wallace tried to avoid a safety when pressured in his end zone by tossing the ball away, but McFarland snatched the ball up before it hit the turf for an instant touchdown and a 28-0 lead.

Wallace was sacked five times - all in the first half.

The rout continued in the third quarter as Boykin threw a touchdown passes of 27 yards to Doctson. The scoring catch moved Doctson past Reggie Harrell's team-record total of 1,012 yards receiving in 2003.

2016 VALERO ALAMO BOWL

#11 TCU 47, #15 Oregon 41 · Jan. 2, 2016

SAN ANTONIO — Bram Kohlhausen's 8-yard touchdown run in the third overtime carried No. 11 TCU to a wild 47-41 victory over No. 15 Oregon in the Alamo Bowl as the Horned Frogs stormed back from a 31-0 halftime deficit behind a backup quarterback. The 31-point comeback to win tied the record for a bowl game, matching Texas Tech in the 2006 Insight Bowl against Minnesota.

Oregon stormed to the big lead early behind quarterback Vernon Adams Jr., but he was knocked out of the game late in the second quarter after taking a hard hit to the head. Oregon gained only 18 yards in regulation in the second half.

Kohlhausen started in place of TCU's Trevone Boykin and passed for 351 yards and two touchdowns and ran for two more scores.

After trailing 31-0 at halftime, TCU scored on all of its possessions in the second half and overtime. The Horned Frogs started their march back with 17 points in the third quarter, twice scoring touchdowns on fourth down. Kohlhausen threw a touchdown pass to Jaelen Austin, then ran 2 yards for his first score.

Jaden Oberkrom's 22-yard field goal with 19 seconds left tied it, and TCU scored first in the first overtime when Kohlhausen hit Emanauel Porter for a 7-yard touchdown. Oregon answered with Royce Freeman's third touchdown run.

After the teams exchanged field goals in the second overtime, Kohlhausen sneaked around the right end on an option, and seemingly disappeared behind his blockers until he was in the end zone. TCU's 2-point conversion pass attempt failed, but Oregon's final chance to tie and keep the game going ended with an incomplete pass on fourth down near the goal line.

2016 AUTOZONE LIBERTY BOWL
Georgia 31, TCU 23 · Dec. 30, 2016

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - No matter how difficult it was to find running room early on, Georgia kept trying to establish its ground attack.

That stubborn approach eventually paid off.

Nick Chubb and Sony Michel combined to rush for 229 yards and two touchdowns Friday as Georgia came from behind in the fourth quarter to beat TCU 31-23 in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

Chubb rushed for 142 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries, while Michel ran for 87 yards and a score on 16 attempts.

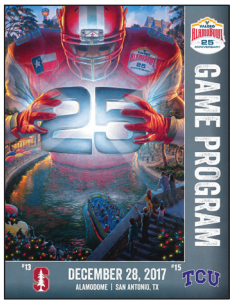

Held in check for much of the game, Chubb closed the third quarter with a 48-yard burst that set up Rodrigo Blankenship's field goal to put Georgia ahead 24-23 with 13:27 left. Chubb then rushed for 57 yards in the final period, including a 13-yard touchdown with 2:48 remaining.

Missed opportunities proved costly for the Horned Frogs, who led 16-7 in the first half and carried a 23-21 advantage into the fourth quarter.

Kenny Hill threw a pair of touchdown passes to John Diarse and also ran for a third score.

#13 TCU 39, #15 Stanford 37 · Dec. 28, 2017

SAN ANTONIO — Kenny Hill passed for two touchdowns, ran for another and even caught one as No. 13 TCU rallied from a big early deficit to beat 15th-ranked Stanford 39-37 in the Valero Alamo Bowl.

Cole Bunce's 33-yard field goal with just over 3 minutes to play won it for the Horned Frogs (11-3), who trailed 21-3 before storming back behind big plays from Hill and a 76-yard punt return from Desmon White. TCU rallied from 31 down to beat Oregon in the 2016 Alamo Bowl.

Stanford (9-5) running back Bryce Love, a Heisman Trophy finalist, rushed for 145 yards and had a 69-yard touchdown run in the third quarter. K.J. Costello had three touchdown passes to J.J. Arcega-Whiteside, the last one giving Stanford a 37-36 lead.

Hill then drove TCU to Bunce's game-winner. The Horned Frogs defense sealed it with an interception by Innis Gaines with 2:01 left.

Hill finished with 314 yards passing, a team-high 60 yards rushing and caught a 27-yard TD pass from White in his final game.

2018 CHEEZ-IT BOWL
TCU 10, California 7 (OT) · Dec. 26, 2018

PHOENIX — Following an interception by Jawuan Johnson on Cal's possession in the first overtime, Jonathan Song hit a 27-yard field goal to lift TCU to a 10-7 victory in the Cheez-It Bowl at Chase Field.

Sewo Olonilua ran for a TCU bowl record 194 yards on a career-high 32 carries to earn Cheez-It Bowl Offensive MVP honors in a game that was a defensive slugfest.

The Horned Frogs had five of those interceptions from five different players, tying for the single-game high in head coach Gary Patterson's tenure.

Cal scored first on a 4-yard touchdown by Chase Garbers in the first quarter, but picks by Julius Lewis, Niko Small and Jeff Gladney kept the deficit to a minimum heading into the locker room at halftime.

TCU got on the scoreboard with three seconds remaining in the third quarter when Olonilua powered his way into the end zone from the 1-yard line to tie the game and set up Song's game-winner in overtime.

The victory gives the Frogs a winning record for the 15th time in Patterson's 18 years as head coach at TCU as they finish the 2018 campaign at 7-6.

RAGS MATTHEWS (1925-27)

Raymond (Rags) Matthews became the first player in TCU football history to earn All-America honors in 1927, during his second straight All-Southwest Conference season as an end. Matthews was somewhat of a rags to riches story. A product of Polytechnic High School of Fort Worth, he was regarded as a big and awkward but unusually aggressive recruit. As a sophomore, he was used at guard. Prior to his junior year, Rags was shifted to end. He became the third person in TCU annals to earn varsity letters in four sports. Before picking up his diploma, Matthews had numerals for football, basketball, baseball and track. "The Raggedy Man," as he was called by some scribes, made a reputation for himself and his school with his taunting, verbal challenges to opposing players.

CY LELAND (1928-30)

Cy Leland stands out as one of the most successful multi-sport athletes in TCU history, as he ranks as one of the school's best both on the football field and on the track. An All-Southwest Conference halfback on the Frogs' 1929 unbeaten conference championship team, Leland rushed for 100 yards four times in his career and three times in 1929. His 13 rushing touchdowns that season stood as a school record for 26 years, while his 17 career scores sat at the top of the TCU career charts until 1956. He led the nation in 1929 with a 7.2 yards per attempt rushing average, and his 93-yard punt return for a touchdown against Baylor that season remains the school record. Despite his football exploits, Leland's crowning athletic achievment came on the track, as he tied the world record in the 100-yard dash with a mark of 9.4 seconds at the 1930 Kansas Relays.

JIMMY LAWRENCE (1933-35)

Jimmy Lawrence may be the most underrated player in the history of Frogs football, playing his most brilliant football in the shadow of the great Sam Baugh. Lawrence had three great seasons for TCU, leading the team in rushing in 1933 and 1935 and in scoring in 1934 and 1935, while also tying as leading receiver in 1935. The native of Harlingen, Texas, was described as "the heart of the Frogs' power attack and one of Sam Baugh's best targets in the forward pass." Primarily a halfback, Lawrence also served as the team's punter and played safety on defense. He was named All-Southwest Conference as a sophomore and as a senior. Legend has it that he would have made it as a junior if he hadn't punched out the umpire in a game that season. Lawrence played professionally for the Chicago Bears from 1936-38 and for the Green Bay Packers from 1939-41.

DARRELL LESTER (1933-35)

One of TCU's all-time two-way line performers, Darrell "Iron Man" Lester carved his niche into SWC football lore during the early 1930s. Called "Iron Man" because of his burning desire to play every second, Lester anchored the Horned Frogs football team from 1933 to 1935, winning a total of 30 ball games, including captaining the 1935 12-1 squad. A native of Jacksboro, Texas, the 220-pound Lester not only was a consensus-choice All-American selection in 1934 – the university's first ever– but he repeated those honors after the 1935 season, becoming the Southwest Conference's first two-time All-America player (1934 and 1935). Lester helped TCU to a stirring 3-2 Sugar Bowl victory over LSU. Lester performed for a pair of seasons with the Green Bay Packers (1937 and 1938) before a shoulder injury forced his early retirement from the sport. A founder of the Bluebonnet Bowl, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1988.

ALL-TIME LEGENDS

DUTCH MEYER (HEAD COACH 1934-52)

L.R. (Dutch) Meyer ranks as one of college football's true coaching legends, leading the Horned Frogs as head coach from 1934 to 1953 and then as the director of athletics from 1950-63. Under his guidance, the Frogs won two national championships (1935 and 1938) and a trio of Southwest Conference titles. During that 20-year period "The Saturday Fox" – a master of the major upset – helped TCU to a 138-82-15 record as well as posting an 85-71 varsity baseball mark. An innovator, inspirational orator and football tactician of immense talents, Meyer introduced to college football the spread offense, thus enhancing the passing game with the help of two of the greatest passers in the game: Davey O'Brien and Sammy Baugh. Meyer spent his entire career at TCU, gaining the nickname in the Fort Worth area of "Mr. Football." He began his Horned Frog career as the freshman coach in 1923 before gaining the head coaching position in 1934. He led TCU to seven bowl games.

SAM BAUGH (1934-36)

Perhaps no other player made a more powerful impact on football in the Southwest than did Slingin' Sammy Baugh of TCU during the 1930s. A flawless passer, a dandy punter and a gifted defensive back, the angular Baugh was called by Dutch Meyer "the greatest athlete I ever saw." Generally considered the first of the great passers in college football, all Baugh did was rewrite the SWC and TCU passing and punting record books and sprinkle in a few interception (not thrown but caught) marks for good measure. Some of his school records stood for over 50 years. In three years (1934-35-36), Baugh, whose jersey was formally retired by TCU in 1993, deftly helped the Horned Frogs to 29 victories, a Sugar Bowl crown and a Cotton Bowl title. The Sweetwater, Texas native was a unanimous two-time All-SWC selection and a consensus All-American in 1936. He later became a nine-time All-Pro during his 16 illustrious seasons with the Washington Redskins. Baugh is a member of every collegiate and professional football hall of fame.

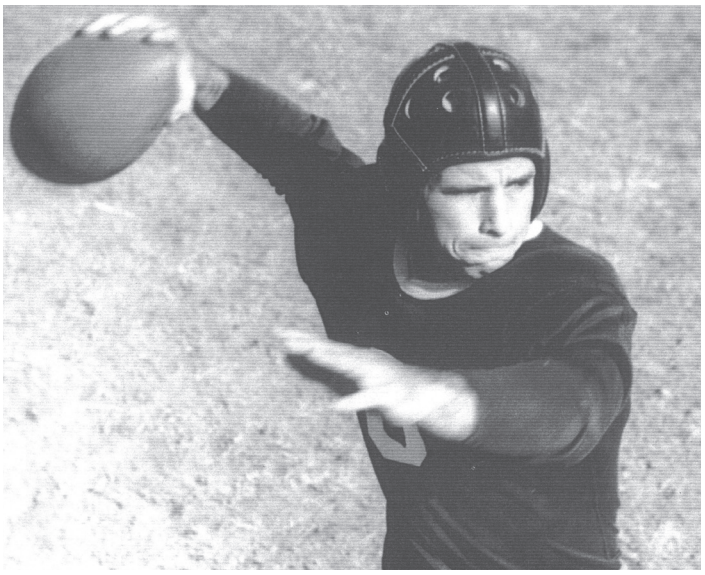

JOHNNY VAUGHT (1934-36)

Rare individuals come along who leave their Hall of Fame marks on the gridiron as both a player and coach; former TCU great Johnny Vaught managed to pull it off, captaining the Horned Frogs' 1932 conference championship and heading the Ole Miss football program for a quarter century. From 1930-32, he earned All-Southwest Conference honors twice and consensus All-America honors as a guard. Vaught, the first genuine All-American footballer developed and displayed on the Fort Worth playing fields, served as a standout lineman for the Horned Frogs teams during the 1930-31-32 campaigns. He helped the team to a 28-4-2 record and its second-ever SWC championship under the leadership of Coach Francis Schmidt. Vaught began his coaching career at North Carolina from 1936-41. In 1946, he assisted at Ole Miss for a year before moving up to head coach in 1947. In his 25-season tenure with the Rebels, 18 of his teams went to bowl games, 10 rated in the nation's Top 10, and four ranked among the top five. He led the school to six Southeastern Conference titles and compiled 190 victories before retiring in 1970. An election to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame followed soon after in 1979.

DAVEY O'BRIEN (1936-38)

Davey O'Brien became the first person to win the Heisman, Walter Camp and Maxwell trophies as the nation's outstanding football player. After directing the Horned Frogs to the national championship in 1938, he was the first winner of the coveted Heisman to come from the Southwest Conference. He did it all – running, passing, place-kicking, returning kicks, punting and intercepting passes. O'Brien held national records for number of punts returned in a season (58 in 1937); total punt and kickoff returns in a season (72 in 1937); and total punt returns in a career (116). He held many other passing and total offense records that slowly have been broken through the years. He led the nation in passing both in 1937 and 1938, and was the tops in total offense across the nation in 1938. The Horned Frogs' amazing quarterback threw a touchdown pass in every game in 1938. He played all but 14 minutes of the entire 1937 season.

KI ALDRICH (1936-38)

"Aldrich is probably the greatest defensive center in history." That's the way LIFE magazine described TCU's center-linebacking demon, Charles "Ki" Aldrich, following the 1938 season when the Horned Frogs won the national championship. Aldrich, the 5-11, 198-pounder from Temple, Texas, had been a consensus All-American (after earning some first team A-A honors the previous season) that year, plus he was named all-Southwest Conference for the third time. He was considered so important to TCU that his teammates named him MVP of the team, a surprising feat when one considers that it was Davey O'Brien who became the Southwest Conference's first Heisman Trophy winner that same season. Many years later, former Horned Frog teammate and one-time childhood neighbor, Sam Baugh, said of the phenomenal Aldrich: "Ki was absolutely the toughest player I was ever around." After being drafted in the first-round of the 1939 draft, Aldrich played professionally with the Chicago Cardinals and the Washington Redskins. He was elected to the National Football Hall of Fame in 1960.

I.B. HALE (1936-38)

The physically impressive I.B. Hale was hailed as the "greatest lineman in America" by famed sportswriter Francis Wallace in 1938. As well as serving as team captain, the 6-2, 245-pound Hale anchored the offensive and defensive lines from his tackle spot for the Frogs' 1938 national championship team. He gained All-America honors in both 1937 and 1938, as well as all-SWC recognition both his junior and senior seasons at TCU. Hale, whose brilliant college career spanned both the first-ever Cotton Bowl (TCU vs. Marquette in 1937) and the 1939 Sugar Bowl, had been a teammate of Davey O'Brien at Dallas' Woodrow Wilson High School. After his career at Frogland, Hale was a first-round pick in the NFL. Later a high school coach, a member of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and a top-rated Southwest Conference football official prior to his death in 1971, Hale was inducted posthumously into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1985.

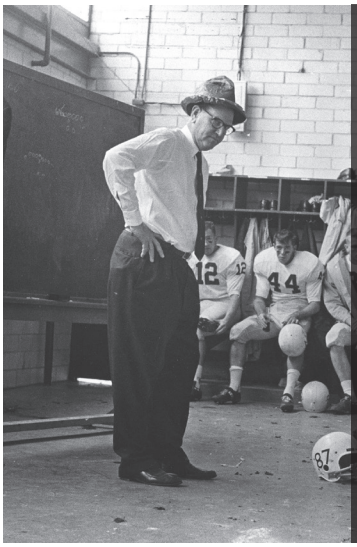

LINDY BERRY (1946-49)

It was only natural for a guy named after that famed aerialist Charles Lindbergh to become one of the best passers in the nation. So, it was no surprise to some when Lindy Berry became just that in the late 1940s. After gaining second-team all-Southwest Conference honors as a sophomore, Berry saved the best for last, making the first all-league teams as a junior, and as a senior, when he capped his career with prominent All-America mention in 1949. Berry led Southwest Conference football in both rushing and total offense as a junior during the 1948 season and found himself as the busiest back in the nation with his 324 total offensive plays. He ranked No. 4 in the NCAA in total offense. Captain as a senior, Berry again paced the SWC in total offense, ranking third in the nation. Although known mostly for his offensive fireworks and feats, Berry was quite a defensive star, too. His interception of a Texas pass in the fourth quarter of the 1949 game near the TCU goal enabled the Horned Frogs to hang on for a 14-13 upset.

ABE MARTIN (HEAD COACH 1953-66)

Othol "Abe" Martin led the Frogs to a 74-64-7 record over 14 season prior to serving as TCU athletics director for a decade from 1966 through 1975. A founding member of TCU's Southwest Conference dominance, having played on the first TCU team to win the SWC championship in 1929, Martin began his TCU coaching career as the head coach of the freshman football team in 1945 before his promotion in 1953 following the Dutch Meyer era. Truly a player's coach, Martin's TCU ballclubs won three SWC crowns and played in five post-season bowl games, including victories in three Cotton Bowls. Also, some of the university's greatest football players — Jim Swink, Don Floyd, Bob Lilly, Hugh Pitts, Norman Hamilton, Jack Spikes, and Tommy Joe Crutcher just to name a few — were produced during the Abe Martin era. Seven of them claimed All-American honors, and more than a dozen all-Southwest Conference recognition. Martin was named SWC Coach of the Year in 1955 and 1958.

JIM SWINK (1954-56)

Few players in the history of college football have enjoyed as much success against one team as Jim Swink did against the rival Texas Longhorns during his three-year stint of 1954-55-56. During that three-game series, Swink did practically everything to the Longhorns except barbecue Bevo, rushing for an average of 168 yards per game while scoring 19 points per contest. He averaged 13.3 yards every time he carried the pigskin from scrimmage against the Horns. The "Rusk Rambler" is still regarded as one of the greatest running backs ever to play for TCU and in the SWC; his great games were numerous, with his gliding, side-stepping running style. As a junior in 1955, he was the nation's leading scorer and second-leading ground gainer, totaling 125 points and rushing for 1,283 net yards. A two-time All-American, Swink finished runner-up for the Heisman Trophy for his performance that season and was later named to the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame in 2000. Half a century later, Jim Swink's legend still surrounds TCU.

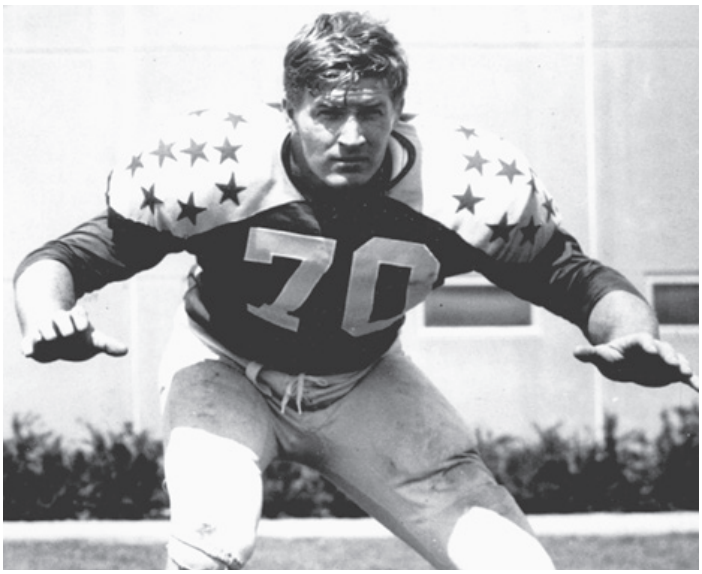

DON FLOYD (1957-59)

The fabulously-gifted Don Floyd was the stalwart of TCU's stellar forward walls of the 1958 and 1959 campaigns. By clearing massive paths for such standouts as All-American Jack Spikes and all-SWC Marvin Lasater on offense, and while supplying some punishing stops on the other side, Floyd helped the Horned Frog gridders to a pair of conference crowns and two consecutive bowl showings. Floyd, a product of Midlothian, Texas, captured all-Southwest Conference and All-America honors at tackle in both his junior and senior campaigns, including consensus All-America credentials in 1959. Floyd's impressive two-way performance versus Texas in 1958, clearing a major hurdle in TCU's drive to the Cotton Bowl, earned him Associated Press National Lineman-of-the-Week honors. Floyd helped captain the '59 team. Although not overly large for his position (he played college ball at 6-3 and 220 pounds), Floyd played for eight NFL seasons (1960-67) with the Houston Oilers.

BOB LILLY (1958-60)

It is somewhat debatable whether Bob Lilly's collegiate football career or his professional one was more impressive since both were absolutely superb tenures of Hall of Fame proportions. A member of the all-time SWC Dream Team, this great from Throckmorton was the main thrust behind the 1958-59-60 Horned Frog teams which captured two Southwest Conference titles, plus appeared in the 1959 Cotton Bowl, as well as the Bluebonnet Bowl the following season. Lilly was a consensus All-America choice in 1960. And in the spring of 1961 he became the Dallas Cowboys' first-ever draft choice. He would later go on to earn the nickname "Mr. Cowboy." For 14 seasons, nine times as an All-Pro, Lilly terrorized the National Football League as a dominating defensive tackle. He became Dallas' first member of the "Cowboy Ring of Honor" and was inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in 1980. Lilly was named to the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team in 1994.

MICHAEL REEDER (1994-97)

The top place kicker in TCU history, Michael Reeder set a new standard for Frogs in the department from 1994 through 1997. The 1995 Lou Groza Award winner as the nation's top kicker, Reeder led the NCAA in field goals as a sophomore, drilling 23 field goals on 25 attempts to claim consensus first-team All-America honors. He concluded his TCU career owning school records for points by a kicker (259), field goal attempts in a season (25) and a career (76), field goals made in a season (23) and a career (57) and consecutive PATs made (79). Reeder drilled a school-record 57-yard field goal in 1996 against UTEP that still ranks as the longest in TCU history and overall owns three of the seven longest kicks ever made by a Horned Frog. He was named to the TCU Letterman's Association Hall of Fame in 2009.

LADAINIAN TOMLINSON (1997-2000)

LaDainian Tomlinson was an unheralded player coming out of Waco's University High when he arrived on the Fort Worth campus in 1997. Early in his junior season, he rushed for 269 yards against Arkansas State, then followed that up two weeks later with a 300-yard performance against San Jose State. L.T. later galloped into the national spotlight with an NCAA record 406 yards on 43 carries with a school-record six touchdowns vs. UTEP. He grabbed the 1999 national rushing title with 1,850 yards, just ahead of Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne of Wisconsin. L.T. not only repeated as the NCAA rushing champion in 2000, but also became the first back in school history to gain 2,000 yards on the ground. His 2,158 yards as a senior was the fourth-highest single-season total in NCAA history at the time, while his 5,263 career rushing yards ranked sixth. Tomlinson was a finalist for the 2000 Heisman Trophy, finishing fourth, and was the winner of the Doak Walker Award given to the nation's top running back. Tomlinson carried that success with him to the NFL with the San Diego Chargers, as he was selected fifth overall in the 2001 NFL Draft.

JERRY HUGHES (2006-09)

Jerry Hughes put the cap on one of the most dominating careers ever for a TCU defensive player in 2009, when he became only the second two-time consensus first-team All-American in school history. Hughes helped put a face on a Frog defense that dominated the decade of the 2000s. TCU led the nation in total defense an NCAA-best four times in 10 seasons. Hughes emerged as a major force for TCU as a junior and finished his career with 26.5 sacks and 34.5 tackles for loss over the last 26 games of his career. A breakthrough 2008 campaign, featuring a nation-best 15.0 sacks, put him in the national spotlight, and he followed with 11.5 more sacks as a senior to help lead TCU to a perfect 12-0 regular season and a berth in the 2010 Fiesta Bowl. Hughes, who won the Lott Trophy and the Ted Hendricks Award as a senior, was selected with the 30th overall pick in the 2010 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts. He currently owns the Nos. 2 and 3 single-season sack totals in school history. He is tied for second in career sacks with 28.5.

ANDY DALTON (2007-10)

The holder of every major TCU passing record, Andy Dalton had a 42-7 record as a starting quarterback. He is the Horned Frogs' all-time leader in wins, breaking the previous mark of 29 held by Slingin' Sammy Baugh (1934-36). Dalton was the Horned Frogs' career leader in completions (812), attempts (1,317), completion percentage (61.7), passing yards (10,314) and touchdown passes (71). His career interception percentage (2.3) ranked as the third-lowest mark among active quarterbacks in 2010. The Katy, Texas, native rushed for 1,611 yards and 22 touchdowns in his career. The 22 rushing scores are the most by a quarterback in TCU history while placing seventh overall on the Horned Frogs' all-time list. A 2010 finalist for the Manning Award, Johnny Unitas Award and Bobby Bowden Award, Dalton was also a semifinalist for the Maxwell Award and Davey O'Brien Award. He finished ninth in Heisman Trophy voting. Dalton was a two-time Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Year. He set TCU single-season records with a 66.1 completion percentage and 27 touchdown passes in his final season. Dalton concluded his TCU career as the Rose Bowl Offensive Most Valuable Player in the Horned Frogs' 21-19 win over Wisconsin. It was his third bowl game MVP award. Dalton was the 35th overall selection in the 2011 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals.

JAKE KIRKPATRICK (2007-10)

Jake Kirkpatrick was the anchor of TCU's offensive line that enabled the Frogs to set single-season school records for touchdowns (73), points scored (541), first downs (327) and total offense (6,199 yards) and win the Rose Bowl in 2010. He was the recipient of the 2010 Rimington Trophy, given to the nation's top center, and was also the lone offensive player to be one of four finalists for the Rotary Lombardi Award. Under Kirkpatrick's leadership, TCU ranked fourth nationally in scoring (41.6 points), 10th in rushing (247.4 yards) and 12th in total offense (476.9 yards). The Frogs tied for fifth in fewest sacks allowed, surrendering just nine in 13 contests (0.7 per game). In his senior season, Kirkpatrick was named a first-team All-American by Walter Camp and Sporting News. Kirkpatrick, who set the blocking scheme on each play for the Horned Frogs, did not commit a penalty or allow a sack in his senior year. He started every game for TCU in 2009 and 2010, including the program's first two BCS bowl appearances.

ALL-TIME LEGENDS

JASON VERRETT (2011-13)

A first-team All-American by the Walter Camp Football Foundation in 2013, cornerback Jason Verrett was selected in the first round of the 2014 National Football League Draft, the 25th player overall, by the San Diego Chargers.

Verrett, a two-time first-team All-American, was tabbed the 2013 Big 12 Co-Defensive Player of the Year by the conference's head coaches. He was a Jim Thorpe Award semifinalist and Lott IMPACT Trophy quarterfinalist. Verrett was also the State's Defensive Player of the Year by Dave Campbell's Texas Football.

Despite not many balls being thrown his way in his final campaign, Verrett led the Big 12 and tied for sixth nationally with 1.5 passes defended per game (two interceptions, 14 pass breakups). Over his final two seasons in a Horned Frog uniform, he topped the nation with 38 passes defended (eight interceptions, 30 pass breakups).

JOSH DOCTSON (2013-15)

Doctson was a 2015 unanimous consensus first-team All-American and finalist for the Biletnikoff Award. He led the nation with 132.7 receiving yards per game and was the only player in the country to rank in the top six in receiving yards per game, receptions per game (7.9) and touchdown catches (14). His 79 receptions, 1,327 yards receiving and 14 touchdowns were TCU single-season records.

Despite missing three games and parts of two others due to injury, Doctson still topped all Big 12 receivers with 61 catches and 1,001 yards receiving in conference play. Doctson joined two-time Biletnikoff Award winner Michael Crabtree from Texas Tech as the only players in the last 20 years to have six straight games with at least 100 yards receiving and multiple touchdown catches. Doctson is one of just eight players in Big 12 history to have multiple seasons of at least 1,000 yards receiving and 10 touchdown catches.

A Mansfield, Texas, native, Doctson holds TCU career records for receptions (180), receiving yards (2,785) and touchdown catches (29).

HORNED FROGS IN THE HEISMAN TROPHY VOTING

In the 72-year history of the Heisman Trophy, six TCU players have finished in the top-five in voting for the prestigious trophy.

Sammy Baugh finished fourth in 1936, the second year the trophy was presented.

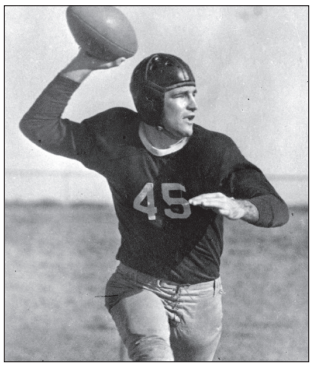

In 1938, Davey O'Brien became the first football player from both TCU and the Southwest Conference to win the award.

Jim Swink finished second in 1955, while Kenneth Davis was the next Frog to receive serious consideration for the honor in 1984 when he finished fifth.

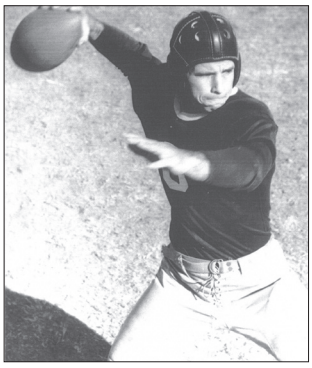

In 1999, LaDainian Tomlinson placed 14th as a junior. He was fourth after his senior season in 2000.

Quarterback Andy Dalton was ninth overall in the Heisman voting after the 2010 season.

Junior quarterback Trevone Boykin was fourth overall in the Heisman voting following the 2014 season and tied for ninth following the 2015 season.
