NEW UNIFORMS

For the first time in six seasons, TCU men's basketball has a new design for their uniforms and shows off some unique features.

- The design on the side of the uniforms are "SPINES" which represent the anatomical spines on the Horned Frog.
- From an frontal and rear view, the "SPINES" are represented to imitate the spines on the top and bottom of the Frog. The view can be seen when a player is at the free-throw line and seeing just hints of the tips of the spines.

- The red line in the middle has multiple meanings - the bloodline that shoots from the eyes of the Horned Frog when threatened. It also represents the 'Blood is Thicker Than Water' mentality that a close family has in their bloodline
- The design originates from the myth/origin of the horned lizard itself. The "ZIG ZAG" motif is often found in Texas Native America culture as a representation of lightning striking the earth and the red representing the horned lizard fighting back to a much bigger foe.
- The origin of the horned lizard is a fight between the lizard and lightning. Lightning states it can defeat anything on earth and challenged the lizard to four strikes (hence the four combined ZIG ZAGS on the sides of the uniform). Lightning missed the quick lizard and the Horned Frog "SPINED" the lightning from above. As payment, lightning now sends SPINES of light throughout the sky as homage to the tiny, yet mighty, Horned Frog.

DIXON'S YOUNG ACTING CAREER

As a youngster growing up in North Hollywood, Dixon had an acting career. He still is a card-carrying member of the Screen Actors Guild. In his early 20s, Dixon was in a Bud Light commercial that featured a woman dunking on him. The commercial was one of the more popular basketball ads of the year and aired on virtually every basketball event.

At age 12, Dixon fired a space gun in a commercial for Mattel. At age 10, he was the star of a TV commercial for Rice Krispies, pretending to celebrate a birthday while eating cereal. At age 5, he did a TV commercial for Volvo, sitting in the back seat and smiling while his father played the driver. He was also in a Kentucky Fried Chicken commercial. Father Jim Dixon was an actor and screenwriter who starred in a variety of movies and productions.
