Dating back to the 2023 NFL Draft, TCU has had 16 selections which is the most in the Big 12 Conference.

On the strength of the best winter sports total (242 points) in program history, TCU finished No. 33 in the final 2025-26 Learfield Director's Cup rankings, the highest finish in the Cup's history dating back to 1993-94.

TCU's 675 total points were the third-highest in the Big 12 and surpassed the previous high water mark of 669 points during the 2022-23 campaign which saw the Frogs finish No. 34.

The Horned Frogs' big winter was powered by both basketball programs advancing to the NCAA tournament in the same year for the first time in program history. Mark Campbell's women's squad advanced to the Elite Eight and earned 73 points while the men under the leadership of Jamie Dixon earned 50 points.

Rifle, a powerhouse program under the leadership of Karen Monez, was the national runner-up and earned 90 points. Women's indoor track and field picked up 29 points to add to the total.

CREDENTIALS: To request credentials, submit a request at GoFrogs.com/FootballMedia. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. Requests made on game day will not be approved. Credentials are issued to the individual.

MEDIA/SCOUTS WILL CALL AND PARKING: Due to ease of pick up at Amon G. Carter Stadium, credentials will NOT be mailed. Credential pick up is available at the media entrance in the northwest corner of the stadium and begins three hours prior to kick off.

Parking passes will also be delivered digitally to media and scouts to the phone number listed on the credential application. Parking passes will be sent during game week.

MEDIA ELEVATOR: An elevator is available for use throughout the game to allow media to travel between the field level and press box. The elevator may also be held for coaches of either team in the final minutes of each half, and media members are encouraged to use the stairwell if they are physically able to do so.

POST-GAME PRESS CONFERENCE: After a cooling off period and conversation with the team, head coach Sonny Dykes and select players will be available to the media in the Four Sevens Team Meeting Room. Post-game video is available by request.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Credentials for photographers will be issued on the basis of circulation, with priority granted to agencies covering the participating schools on a regular basis. Credentials will not be issued to freelance photographers unless they are employed by a reputable publication or the communications office of the participating schools. Credentials are issued to photographers for the purpose of media coverage only, and images of the game may not be used for commercial purposes without the expressed, written permission of TCU Athletics.

SIDELINE AREAS: Excluding select portions of the game, media sideline access is reserved for photographers/videographers. Credentialed photographers/videographers who arrive without proper equipment will not be granted sideline access. When on the sideline, media must remain outside the bench area. This includes during pre-game activities.

LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: TCU's locker room is closed at all times.

RECRUITS: Per NCAA rule, media are not permitted to have contact with a prospect or family members of a prospect during their visit (official or unofficial) to campus, including prospects in attendance at practice or games. Contact includes in-person conversations, phone calls, text messages, e-mails, etc. Media are also asked to make every effort to keep distance from prospects on campus, including at practice, during pre-game activities on the sidelines and in the stands.

PRACTICES: During the regular season, practices are open for stretch and individual periods - roughly the first 30 minutes - on Tuesday and Wednesday practices. Practices begin at approximately 9 a.m. each day. Team periods are closed. Media members should submit interview requests for student-athletes a day prior to the interview. Please let Erzhan Cochran or Brandie Davidson know in advance if you plan to attend.

Recognized as the Best Play-by-Play Broadcast in the State of Texas 14 times since 2003, the Horned Frogs Sports Network enters the 2026 football season with one of the most experienced and accomplished broadcast teams in college athletics.

The award-winning network produces more than 200 hours of TCU athletics programming annually, including live play-by-play, pregame and postgame coverage of Horned Frogs football and men's basketball.

Brian Estridge returns for his 27th season as the play-by-play voice of TCU Football and his 29th year overall with the Horned Frogs Sports Network. In addition to his TCU duties, Estridge has called games for ESPN, FOX Sports and Westwood One and is a partner in First Team Ventures, which produces 21 college football bowl games annually. He also serves as President and CEO of Fort Worth Colonial Charities.

For the first time, the Horned Frogs Sports Network will feature a three-person color analyst team comprised of former TCU standouts Marshall Newhouse, Elvis Gallegos and Landry Burdine, providing expanded analysis and insight throughout the season.

Newhouse returns after an outstanding debut season in the booth. An 11-year NFL offensive tackle, Super Bowl XLV champion and former TCU All-American, he enjoyed a distinguished professional career with the Green Bay Packers, Cincinnati Bengals, New York Giants, Oakland Raiders, Buffalo Bills, Carolina Panthers, New Orleans Saints, New England Patriots and Tennessee Titans. He also serves on the inaugural Big 12 Alumni Council, the NFLPA Athletic Advisory Board, is an advisor for the Techstars Sports Accelerator and is an Athlete in Residence at Next Play Capital.

Gallegos enters his fourth season on the English-language broadcast after making the transition from the TCU Spanish radio network in 2023. A former Horned Frogs safety, he previously spent 13 seasons as the lead analyst on the Spanish broadcasts and has also been a fixture on Bowl Season Radio national broadcasts for the past eight years.

Returning to the broadcast team this season is Landry Burdine, whose extensive knowledge of TCU football and strong connection to the Horned Frog program adds another experienced voice to the network's game coverage.

Dave Shook returns for his second season as studio host after more than a decade covering Big 12 athletics. Previously, he served as studio host for the Kansas and Baylor radio networks and has called a variety of national football, basketball and softball broadcasts for ESPN and other outlets.

Adding to the broadcast in 2026 is WFAA-TV sports reporter Michelle Montaine, who will provide feature reports and sideline coverage throughout the season.

Supporting the on-air talent is one of the Southwest's most experienced game-day crews. Brian Sperry returns as the network's longtime statistician, Wayne Gossard continues as spotter, and Kyle Cross serves as engineer and producer, helping deliver the award-winning broadcasts each week.

In addition to the terrestrial radio stations anchored by flagship station KZPS 92.5 FM, there are multiple ways to listen to the Horned Frogs Sports Network online. To listen on mobile devices, you can use the iHeart app, Varsity App, or the Riff Ram App.

The Horned Frogs Sports Network broadcasts can be heard throughout the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex on Lone Star 92.5 FM (KZPS) as part of TCU Athletics' partnership with iHeartMedia. Fans can also listen worldwide through the iHeartRadio app, SiriusXM, the official TCU Athletics app and Learfield's Varsity Network app.

SPANISH-LANGUAGE BROADCAST

The Spanish-language broadcast team also returns with Miguel Cruz entering his 17th season as the play-by-play voice of TCU Football. A veteran of the Dallas Mavericks, Texas Rangers and Dallas Cowboys coverage throughout the Metroplex, Cruz is joined once again by analyst Roberto Ramirez.

Learfield's Horned Frogs Sports Properties and TCU Athletics have partnered with KTNO 620 AM to bring Spanish-language broadcasts of TCU Football to fans across North Texas.

SONNY D LIVE RADIO SHOW

The Sonny D Live Radio Show returns to Railhead Smokehouse in Fort Worth for the 2026 season. Hosted by Brian Estridge, the one-hour program airs live beginning at 6 p.m. each Monday on Lone Star 92.5 FM KZPS. Railhead Smokehouse enters its 18th season as the home of the TCU Coaches Radio Show.

HORNED FROGS SPORTS PROPERTIES

Horned Frogs Sports Properties (HFSP) are the sole, exclusive multimedia rights holder for TCU Athletics. This honor and responsibility includes generating revenue for TCU Athletics via sponsorships, advertising, and hospitality. In recent years, HFSP is heavily involved in generating revenue for student-athletes Name, Image, and Likeness.

Learfield's exclusive rights include intellectual property, experiential and promotional assets, event signage, digital, tickets, hospitality, live event radio, and shoulder programming including coaches' TV and radio shows - customized for sponsors by a staff of nearly 400 sales and marketing professionals.

Those opportunities include: game programs, roster cards, in-stadium stadium sponsorships, at-event hospitality, at-event impact, radio network (play-by-play, coaches' call-in shows, daily report), internet and merchandising opportunities.

AMON G. CARTER STADIUM

First Game: Arkansas (Oct. 11, 1930)
Official Capacity: 46,000
Largest Crowd: 53,294 (vs. Colorado; Sept. 2, 2023)
Field Name: Moncrief Field
Field Surface: Natural Grass

Amon G. Carter Stadium has been the home of TCU football since 1930. The stadium's official capacity is 46,000, though attendance can run higher on game days when TCU adds standing-room and supplemental seating for high-demand matchups — the record crowd of 53,294 for the Sept. 2, 2023 game against Colorado was reached this way.

The stadium's most recent addition, the Legends Club & Suites, opened on the east side in 2020 and remains its premier hospitality space today, hosting both game-day suite holders and non-gameday corporate and private events.

The playing surface, Moncrief Field, is natural grass. TCU switched from artificial turf to grass prior to the 1992 season.

STADIUM HISTORY

TCU's football team outgrew its original home, Clark Field, prompting the Board of Trustees to pursue a new stadium. Momentum built after the Horned Frogs won their first Southwest Conference championship on Nov. 30, 1929, tying rival SMU 7-7 on a late fourth-quarter drive led by quarterback Howard Grubbs. Under first-year coach Francis Schmidt, TCU finished that season 9-0-1.

An Athletics Committee launched a fundraising campaign led by Fort Worth Star-Telegram publisher Amon G. Carter, initially aiming to raise $150,000 for a 30,000-seat stadium. The plan evolved into a $350,000 stadium, funded through mortgage bonds, seating 27,000 with room to expand to 60,000. Construction began in 1929, and less than a year later, on Oct. 11, 1930, the Frogs christened the new Amon G. Carter Stadium — then holding 22,000 — with a 40-0 win over Arkansas.

The stadium grew steadily over the next three decades:
1948 — East grandstand expansion adds 8,500 seats (total: 30,500)
1951 — North end zone addition adds 2,500 seats (total: 33,000)
1953 — East grandstand expansion adds 4,000 seats (total: 37,000)
1956 — A two-level press box and upper deck are added, more than doubling original capacity to 46,083. The addition included a 60-by-120-foot "TCU" logo built into the bleacher seating, visible to flights approaching DFW Airport.

TIMELINE OF RENOVATION (2006-2020)

2006 — TCU begins studying a stadium renovation. Board of Trustees chairman Luther King appoints vice chair Clarence Scharbauer to lead a renovation committee.

Aug. 16, 2010 — TCU announces a $105 million renovation of the west side and north end zone, with a stated goal of transforming the stadium into a "Camden Yards" of college football venues.

2011 — An east side renovation is added to the project, bringing the total cost to $164 million, fully funded through donor support, including a $15 million lead gift from the Amon G. Carter Foundation.

Nov. 13, 2010 — Construction begins immediately following TCU's final home game of the season, against San Diego State.

Dec. 5, 2010 — The stadium's historic south tower is removed and the west side's original upper deck is imploded.

2012 — The renovated stadium opens with a capacity of 45,000. The design, by HKS Sports & Entertainment Group (also the architect of Cowboys Stadium in Arlington), draws on the 1930s Southwestern art deco style found throughout Fort Worth.

The 2012 project added upgraded and expanded concession stands, elevators and escalators for accessibility and crowd flow, a raised seating bowl on the west and north sides, additional restrooms, a new press box, and suites, club seating and lounges on the west side. These premium spaces included the Champions Club as well as the Founder's Club.

Then-athletics director Chris Del Conte credited the university's donors and Board of Trustees, along with head coach Gary Patterson's fundraising efforts, for making the project possible.

2020 — The Legends Club & Suites open on the east side, a $113 million project adding two new levels of luxury seating above the upper deck. The addition includes 48 loge boxes, two private clubs, more than 1,000 club seats and 22 luxury suites, along with a 100-foot outdoor balcony overlooking campus and downtown Fort Worth.

With the Legends Club & Suites, Amon G. Carter Stadium gained significant year-round event space in addition to its game-day premium seating, capping more than a decade of continuous investment in the venue following the 2012 renovation.

Whether it's throwing up a peace sign and curving your fingers, chanting along with Riff Ram, or just hanging out in Funky Town, TCU is home to a number of unique traditions and rivalries

A PEACE SIGN, BUT FUNKIER

Cheerleader Chad Schrotel '82 helped our gesture of unity catch on with the crowds in 1980. Appropriately, it's like a peace sign with slightly curled fingers, symbolizing the horns of our tiny, mighty mascot, the horned frog.

ORIGIN OF 'FUNKY TOWN'

Since the 1980s, denizens of Fort Worth have leaned into calling their home Funky Town. The nickname stems from the popular 1980s song "Funkytown" by Lipps Inc. and the promotion of the city by the local soul radio station KKDA (K-104) as a place to "get down" and "get funky".

"Gotta make a move to a town that's right for me
Town to keep me movin', keep me groovin' with some energy "

Sounds like Fort Worth to us.

THE FROG FOUNTAIN

Situated at the center of campus commons, one of the most popular landmarks on campus is Frog Fountain. The fountain features four lily pads that are positioned to be different heights that signifies the flow of knowledge from our seniors (represented by the tallest lily pad) all the way to our first-years (the shortest lily pad).

RIFF RAM HISTORY

What was, during our membership in the league, the oldest cheer in the Southwest conference, Riff Ram is over 100 years old and frequently chanted by students and fans on game day at TCU.

Riff, Ram, Bah Zoo

Lickety, Lickety, Zoo, Zoo

Who, Wah, Wah, Who

Give 'em Hell, TCU!

Riff Ram could have faded away had it not been for the efforts of alumni cheerleaders to revive the yell. Dale Young '66 (MA '68), the former director of student teaching and career services for the College of Education who retired in 2013, was instrumental in reviving the cheer.

"For awhile, cheerleaders didn't even do it, they thought it was beneath their dignity," according to Young, who cheered for TCU in the 1960s and later served as the squad adviser. "But back in 1975, they let alumni cheerleaders come back, and we kept it alive."

THE FROG HORN

Every home game, every time the Horned Frogs scored a touchdown, there it is.

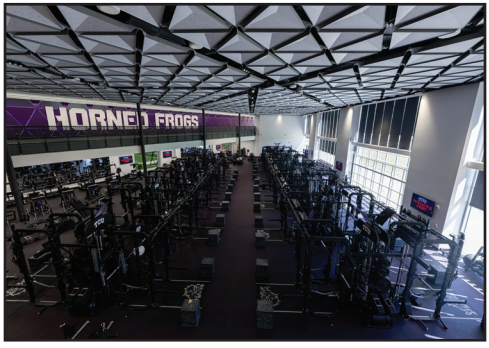

Hhwaaaaaaaaah!

The Frog Horn - a gift from Burlington Northern Railroad - was unveiled in 1994 and signals to everyone in the Metroplex that the Horned Frogs just put six on the board.

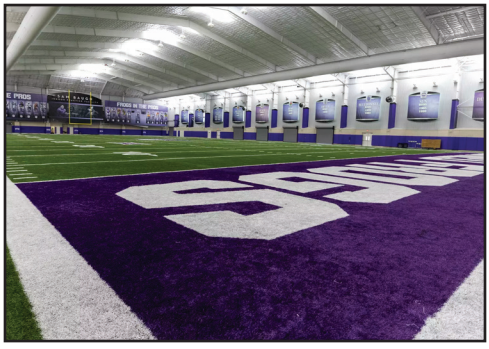

Situated around the brand new Mike and Brenda Harrison Football Performance Center (above) which includes the Jamal Powell Strength Room (right) as well as the Simpson Family Restoration Center, TCU's brand new Human Performance Center is a $50 million, 50,000-square-foot symbol of our relentless pursuit of excellence.

Inside the Harrison Performance Center, TCU football players have access to the latest in weight room technology engineered for efficiency and intensity. Outside, the Horned Frog Fuel Station fuels performance while the Lunar iDXA machine and DEXA scanners provide data-backed performance insights. The center also features an indoor track and heated yoga studio.

The Sam Baugh Indoor Practice Facility and Cox Field was dedicated to the TCU Athletics Department on May 10, 2007, and provides Horned Frog student-athletes with one of the best indoor practice facilities in all of collegiate athletics.

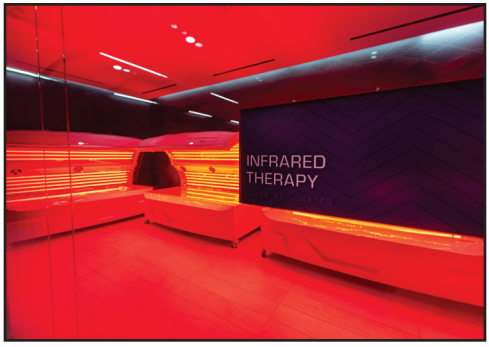

Following a $7-million gift from the Jane and John Justin Foundation and Cox Family, the Sam Baugh Indoor Practice Facility and Cox Field is an 80,000-square foot complex that features an 80-yard field with a regulation 52-yard width and two full end zones. The climate-controlled facility measures 60 feet from turf to the highest point of its vaulted ceiling, which allows for all passing and kicking drills.

The Simpson Family Restoration Center is where the Horned Frogs begin their post-practice recovery at the hydrotherapy "lazy river" which is kept between 45 and 55 degrees for a walking lap path immediately off the practice field (above). The car wash preps each player after their practice equiment has been removed.

Fitting to Coach Meyer's famous rallying cry, the restoration center also includes a recovery room that houses hydro massage pods, a traditional steam sauna, infrared therapy beds (right), and the only Snow Room in north America (right).

Each day, the room fills with snow to provide the most unique contrast therapy experience anywhere in collegiate or professional sports all while holding temperatures at 7 degrees. It must been seen and experienced to be believed.

KEY

In an attempt to moderinze our roster to provide more clarity about the makeup of the Horned Frogs, we have added four columns to the traditional layout of a roster. The key for those additions is below. Additionally, the roster format follows the NCAA's new age-based classification system as: Fr., So., Jr., Sr., 5th.

An offensive innovator, Texas native, and National Coach of the Year, Sonny Dykes serves as TCU's head football coach, a post he was named to on Nov. 30, 2021.

In his first four seasons, Dykes' 36 wins are the most by a TCU head coach since Francis Schmidt won 37 from 1929-32. His 2024 and 2025 squads posted consecutive nine-win seasons for the first time in over a decade and for just the second time in TCU's Big 12 era, and the Horned Frogs' win total ranks at the top of the Big 12 over that same span.

TCU has had seven All-Americans, 57 All-Big 12 selections, six of the top seven crowds in program history, and 13 players selected in the NFL Draft during Dykes' tenure, including eight in 2023 to lead the Big 12 and schools in the state of Texas, place fourth nationally and set a program record since the NFL went to its current seven-round format in 1994.

Since 2017, TCU has posted four nine-win or better seasons (2017, 2022, 2024, 2025). In all four seasons, Dykes has either served on staff as an analyst or as head coach. Twice in Dykes' four seasons, the Frogs have finished in the Associated Press' final top 25.

Dykes won 10 National Coach of the Year awards in 2022, his first season leading the Horned Frogs. TCU became the first program from the state of Texas to make the College Football Playoff and first from the Big 12 Conference to reach the CFP National Championship. Picked to finish seventh in the Big 12, the Horned Frogs were No. 2 in the final Associated Press poll. TCU also became the first team to be in the CFP National Championship after starting the season unranked and just the third program since 1998 to play for a national title while beginning the season outside the top 25. TCU's six wins over ranked opponents, including a victory over No. 2 Michigan in the CFP Semifinal at the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl, tied for the national lead.

Dykes is only the third head coach in the CFP era to guide his team to the playoffs in his first season at the helm. The unanimous Big 12 Coach of the Year, Dykes became the first head football coach in TCU and Big 12 history to start 12-0 in his first season. He was just the fourth head coach nationally since 1996 to accomplish the feat.

TCU was the first Big 12 team to complete the regular season with a 12-0 record since 2009 and the first league member to go 9-0 in conference play since 2016. TCU's 13 wins in 2022 tied a program record.

Dykes is one of just four active FBS head coaches to take four different schools (Louisiana Tech, Cal, SMU, TCU) to a bowl game. The others are Butch Jones, Lane Kiffin and Rich Rodriguez. He is also one of six active head coaches to take his team to the precipice of the college football world: the CFP National Championship game.

Dykes had three players win a total of five national awards in 2022. Quarterback Max Duggan was the recipient of the Davey O'Brien Award, Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award while finishing second in Heisman Trophy voting. Cornerback Tre'Vius Hodges-Tomlinson won the Paycom Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back, and Derius Davis captured the Jet Award as the country's Return Specialist of the Year. Additionally, offensive guard Steve Avila was a Consensus All-American.

Not restricted to the confines of Amon G. Carter Stadium, Dykes also teaches a three-hour course during the spring semester in the Neeley School of Business titled: "Leadership in Action: Lessons from the Gridiron to the Boardroom." He is one of five active head coaches in the FBS to do so, joined by Willie Fritz (Houston), Deion Sanders (Colorado), PJ Fleck (Minnesota), and Mike Locksley (Maryland).

Bold - Opponent on 2026 Schedule

Dykes arrived at TCU after serving the previous four seasons as head coach at SMU, where he completed one of the more remarkable turnarounds in college football. Behind an offense that consistently ranked among the nation's best, Dykes guided SMU to 19 weeks in the national top 25 and three consecutive winning seasons for the first time since the mid-1980s.

The son of legendary Texas Tech football coach Spike Dykes, Sonny Dykes rebuilt SMU through his deep ties to the state of Texas, focus on recruiting in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex and utilization of the transfer portal.

Dykes returned to TCU after being an integral part of past Horned Frogs' success. Before becoming SMU's head coach, he served as an offensive analyst for TCU in 2017. He was instrumental in the Horned Frogs posting an 11-3 record, reaching the Big 12 Championship Game and finishing with a No. 9 national ranking after a 39-37 victory over Stanford in the Alamo Bowl.

Dykes was 30-18 at SMU with a 25-10 record over his last three seasons. Included in that total were SMU's first consecutive victories over TCU since 1992-93. His .625 winning percentage ranked fourth in program history for head coaches of more than two seasons. The 25 victories over three years tied for the second-most by an FBS team in Texas and just one off the lead. The 2019 Mustangs went 10-3, their most wins since 1984, and earned their highest national ranking (14) since 1985.

Dykes was named a finalist for both the 2019 Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award and the Paul "Bear" Bryant Award. He was also a semifinalist for the George Munger Coach of the Year Award.

In addition to setting numerous school records and ranking among the national leaders in most major offensive categories, Dykes also left his mark on the other side of the ball. In 2019, SMU led the FBS in sacks per game and ranked third in tackles for loss. SMU's 51 sacks and 111 TFLs were program records.

Dykes also served as head football coach at Cal (2013-16) and Louisiana Tech (2010-12).

In 2011, Dykes was the Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year as the Bulldogs won the WAC Championship and earned a Poinsettia Bowl appearance against TCU.

While at Cal, Dykes took a team from one win in 2013 to an 8-5 record two years later and a win over Air Force at the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl in Amon G. Carter Stadium.

Cal's eight wins in 2015 marked the school's most since 2009. The Golden Bears also cracked the national rankings for the first time since 2010, climbing as high as No. 19. Additionally, Dykes led Cal to a pair of wins over Texas.

Dykes developed quarterback Jared Goff into the No. 1 overall pick in the 2016 National Football League Draft.

Under Dykes, Cal's offense set a modern-era record for points scored and shattered all the program's offensive marks. Cal became the first college football team in history to have six players with 40 or more receptions and three 500-yard rushers in the same season.

In Dykes' first season in Berkeley, the Golden Bears became the first team in the program's modern era to score 55 or more points in a game three times, including at least 40 on five occasions and 30 or more 10 times.

Dykes went to Cal after spending three seasons as head coach at Louisiana Tech. In his final campaign in 2012, he directed an offense that led the nation in both scoring (51.5 points per game) and total offense (577.9 yards per game). The 51.5 points per game marked the fifth-best scoring average in history by an FBS team.

After inheriting a LA Tech team that was 4-8 the year before his arrival, it took Dykes just two seasons to lead the Bulldogs to the 2011 WAC title. It was the program's first league championship in a decade. He compiled a 22-15 overall record with the Bulldogs and won 16 of 17 regular-season games during one stretch.

Dykes' 2012 Louisiana Tech team had road victories over Illinois, Houston and Virginia while reaching as high as No. 18 in the national rankings.

Prior to becoming a head coach, Dykes worked as an assistant in the Pac-12, Big 12 and SEC under Mike Stoops (Arizona), Mike Leach (Texas Tech) and Hal Mumme (Kentucky).

As offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arizona for three seasons (2007-09), Dykes helped the Wildcats to the 2008 Las Vegas Bowl and 2009 Holiday Bowl. Arizona had previously gone 10 seasons without a bowl appearance.

Under Dykes' direction, Arizona's offense set multiple school records and ranked among the national leaders in passing yards and scoring.

Prior to his tenure at Arizona, Dykes spent seven seasons at his alma mater Texas Tech, serving as receivers coach from 2000-04 and adding the title of co-offensive coordinator from 2005-06. The Red Raiders made seven straight postseason appearances and won 56 games during the span, including four bowl victories over his last five seasons. In 2006, Dykes received the Mike Campbell Top Assistant Coach Award from the American Football Coaches Association, the same year he was recognized as one of the top 25 recruiters in the country by Rivals.

Dykes began his collegiate coaching career with a two-year stint (1995-96) at Navarro College in Corsicana, Texas. He also was a baseball assistant at Monahans High School in Texas in 1994 and a football assistant at Richardson's J.J. Pearce High School in 1995.

Born in Big Spring, Texas, Dykes received his bachelor's degree in history from Texas Tech in 1993 and was a member of the Red Raiders baseball team for two seasons. He and his wife, Kate, have two daughters, Ally and Charlie, and a son, Daniel.

ANDY AVALOS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

3RD YEAR AT TCU | BOISE STATE '04

Andy Avalos joined the TCU football staff as defensive coordinator in December 2023. Avalos served the previous three seasons as Boise State's head football coach. He was the 2022 Mountain West Coach of the Year after leading the Broncos to a 10-4 record.

Before becoming a head coach, Avalos was a successful defensive coordinator at Oregon (2019-20) and Boise State (2016-18). With the Ducks, he was a 2019 semifinalist for the Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach. During his career, Avalos has been a part of 15 conference championships and 13 bowl games while coaching seven NFL Draft picks, four All-Americans, five freshman All-Americans, three conference defensive players of the year and 50 all-conference selections.

Oregon won Pac-12 championships each season with Avalos in charge of its defense. In his first year, Oregon improved significantly in nearly every major statistical category while ranking among the nation's elite units on its way to a Pac-12 title, Rose Bowl win and 12-2 record. The Ducks would go on to win a second straight Pac-12 championship in 2020, earning an invitation to the 2021 Fiesta Bowl. Oregon led the Pac-12 in sacks over the course of Avalos' two seasons as coordinator while ranking third in the conference in both rush defense and total defense. Oregon finished the 2019 season ninth in the nation in scoring defense, allowing just 16.5 points per game. The Ducks ranked 13th in rushing defense (108.9 yards per game) and 22nd in total defense (329.1 yards per game) with an improvement of nearly 57 yards from the previous season. Avalos' defense finished second in the country in interceptions (20), sixth in passes defended (76), 13th in sacks (41.0) and 21st in tackles for loss (97.0).

Prior to joining the Oregon staff, Avalos spent seven seasons coaching at Boise State, including the final three as defensive coordinator. While at his alma mater, he also served as linebackers coach (2014-15) and defensive line coach (2012-13). He was instrumental in the Broncos winning Mountain West Championships in 2012, 2014 and 2017. The 2014 Broncos earned a Fiesta Bowl trip against Arizona.

During his time as coordinator, the Broncos led the Mountain West in sacks, ranked second in rush defense and third in total defense.

In 2018, the Broncos were 10th nationally in sacks (3.0 per game) and 20th in turnovers forced (24). Included in the count were a nation's-best 17 fumble recoveries. Boise State also scored four defensive touchdowns, tying for sixth-most in the country. Boise State ranked 22nd nationally in total defense in 2017, allowing 332.6 yards per game. The Broncos' 26 forced turnovers ranked 16th in the country. The unit was led by Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year Leighton Vander Esch, a first-round selection by the Dallas Cowboys.

During Avalos' two seasons overseeing the defensive line, three Broncos combined to earn five All-Mountain West honors. Included in that total was two-time first-team honoree and Dallas Cowboys' second-round pick DeMarcus Lawrence. The Broncos ranked 11th nationally in sacks in 2012 with 2.9 per game. In Avalos' debut season with the Broncos, the Broncos were eighth nationally in scoring defense (15.8 points per game) and 12th in total defense (315.6 yards per game).

Avalos also spent time working at Colorado (2006-08), Sacramento State (2011) and Nebraska-Kearney (2009-10). He began his coaching career in his hometown of Corona, Calif., where he coached linebackers at Corona High School.

A team captain and all-conference linebacker during his playing career (2000-04), Avalos was just the second graduate of Boise State to lead the Broncos' football program. He earned first-team All-WAC honors at outside linebacker in each of his final two seasons, completing his career fourth all-time at the school with 355 tackles. He was named to the All-Blue Team during the 2016 season, a list of the 30 greatest players in Boise State history. The Broncos won three WAC championships (2002, 2003, 2004) in his four years as a starting linebacker.

GORDON SAMMIS

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

1ST YEAR AT TCU | VIRGINIA '07

Gordon Sammis serves as TCU's offensive coordinator, a role he assumed in January 2026 following a four-year run at UConn where he spent his final two seasons as the Huskies' offensive coordinator.

A 2007 University of Virginia graduate, Sammis spent four years playing guard for the Cavaliers (2003-07) before beginning his coaching career.

With Sammis running the offense, the Huskies posted consecutive nine-win seasons for the first time in program history. In 2025, Huskies quarterback Joe Fagano threw for 3,448 yards (No. 7 nationally) with 28 touchdowns to just one interception. He is the only quarterback since 1956 – according to Sports-Reference.com – to throw for more than 25 touchdowns while posting one or fewer interceptions.

Fagano's success with Sammis was also in due part to the Huskies allowing just 1.25 sacks per game, the 18th-best mark nationally, as well as the development of wide receiver Skyler Bell, a 2025 Biletnikoff Award finalist, and running back Cam Edwards. Bell's 106.5 receiving yards per game ranked No. 2 nationally (1,278 yards) as did his 101 receptions. Edwards' 1,132 rushing yards in 2025 were No. 17 nationally.

The Huskies' 2025 campaign also included victories over ACC Champion Duke as well as Boston College. It was also the first time in program history the Huskies claimed a 3,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard receiver, and a 1,000-yard rusher.

He spent his final month with UConn serving as the program's interim head coach which including leading them in the 2025 Wasabi Fenway Bowl.

Sammis set the record-breaking tone in his first season (2024) directing the offense as UConn's 5,169 yards of total offense ranked as third while the 2,590 yards rushing ranked second all-time. The Huskies finished the year scoring 415 points, the second highest total in school history.

An offensive line coach by trade and tradition, Sammis served as the Huskies offensive line coach for three seasons as well. During that time, he coached offensive guard Christian Haynes who earned Associated Press and Sporting News All-American team honors in back-to-back seasons. Haynes became just the third Husky in the FBS era to garner All-American honors and the first to do it in consecutive seasons.

Haynes was a third-round pick by the Seattle Seahawks in the 2024 NFL Draft and tackle Chase Lundt was a sixth-round pick by the Buffalo Bills in the 2025 draft. UConn also saw their other tackle, Valentin Senn, sign a free agent deal with the Arizona Cardinals after the draft and interior lineman Christopher Fortin was a first-round pick of Calgary Stampeders in the 2025 CFL Draft.

Prior to UConn, Sammis spent three seasons (2019-21) as the offensive line coach at William & Mary and spent the final two seasons as the run game coordinator. During the 2021 season, William & Mary led the CAA in rushing yards with 203.7 yards per game.

In 2019, his first season on staff, W&M nearly doubled their scoring output year-over-year and averaged nearly 100 more total yards per game than it did in the season prior to his arrival. The offensive line's play boosted the Tribe's rushing attack, which increased its production on the ground by more than 130 yards per game and scored 21 more rushing touchdowns than the squad's 2018 figures. Additionally, the Tribe's 26 rushing touchdowns was just one shy of breaking into the program's single-season top-10 list.

Experiences prior to W&M included a two-year stint at Lafayette College (2017-18) as well as Virginia Military Institute (2015-16). He also coached at Columbia for three seasons (2012-14) working with the tight ends and offensive line.

Following his graduation from Virginia, Sammis returned to the school to work as a graduate assistant (2010-12) working with the offensive line and tight ends.

MALCOM KELLY

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / WIDE RECEIVERS

5TH YEAR AT TCU | OKLAHOMA '08

Malcolm Kelly joined the TCU football staff as outside receivers coach in March 2019 and was promoted by Head Coach Sonny Dykes to assistant head coach in 2022.

Kelly has coached two first-round NFL Draft picks in the last six seasons with Quentin Johnston taken by the Los Angeles Chargers in 2023 and Jalen Reagor by the Philadelphia Eagles in 2020.

Johnston was TCU's Offensive Most Valuable Player in its 2022 College Football Playoff Semifinal win over Michigan, totaling six receptions for 163 yards with a 76-yard touchdown. He had team-best totals of 60 receptions, 1,069 yards and six touchdowns on the season. Johnston became TCU's first 1,000-yard receiver since Reagor (1,061) in 2018. Johnston's career 19.0 yards per catch average ranks first in TCU history for players with at least 100 receptions.

Johnston earned All-America honors in 2022, was a Biletnikoff Award Semifinalist and repeated as a First-Team All-Big 12 selection. Reagor was also a two-time All-Big 12 recipient.

The 2023 campaign saw Kelly coach Savion Williams into a career-best season that saw him earn All-Big 12 accolades along with Jaylon Robinson.

Kelly came to the Horned Frogs after spending the previous two seasons at the University of Houston. He was a graduate assistant in 2017 before being elevated into an analyst position for the 2018 campaign. He began his path towards becoming a collegiate coach when he worked in a quality control role at Texas A&M-Commerce in 2016.

A two-time First-Team All-Big 12 honoree and a 2005 Freshman All-American at Oklahoma, Kelly totaled 144 receptions for 2,285 yards and 21 touchdowns in just three seasons. When he left Norman, Kelly ranked second all-time at Oklahoma with his 21 touchdown catches and nine career 100-yard receiving games. He tied a school record with 11 receptions as a sophomore versus Texas Tech in 2006.

Kelly was selected in the second round of the 2008 NFL Draft by Washington and was with the Redskins for three seasons. He made 10 starts in 2009 and had 25 receptions for 347 yards. After concluding his NFL career, Kelly worked in private business before arriving at Texas A&M-Commerce.

A native of Longview, Texas, Kelly was a two-time first-team all-state selection at Longview High School.

Kelly is married to Alexis Gunn. They have a daughter, Phoenix.

A.J. RICKER

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / OFFENSIVE LINE

6TH YEAR AT TCU | MISSOURI '04

A.J. Ricker arrived at TCU in December 2021 as co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.

Over his first two seasons with the Horned Frogs, Ricker has seen five of his players sign NFL contracts. Steve Avila was a second-round draft pick of the Los Angeles Rams in 2023 with Brandon Coleman a third-round selection of the Washington Commanders in 2024. Additionally, Alan Ali (Minnesota Vikings), Andrew Coker (Las Vegas Raiders) and Willis Patrick (Los Angeles Chargers) inked free-agent contracts. All five earned All-Big 12 honors with Avila a Consensus All-American.

Ricker has been instrumental in TCU ranking among the national leaders in all major offensive categories in each of the last two seasons, including the 2022 campaign en route to an appearance in the College Football Playoff National Championship.

Before TCU, Ricker served the previous two seasons in the same roles under Head Coach Sonny Dykes at SMU.

A Broyles Award nominee, Ricker coached SMU offensive linemen Jaylon Thomas and Hayden Howerton to all-conference honors.

In his first season with the Mustangs, Ricker helped lead them to top-10 national rankings in scoring offense (41.8) and total offense (489.8). SMU was 13th in passing offense (309.0). Its highest ranking in those categories the previous season was 27th in passing offense while scoring and total offense didn't make the top 50. The Mustangs also ranked 14th in the FBS in fewest sacks allowed per game (1.31), surrendering just 17 on the season.

Ricker made the move to SMU after serving in the same capacity at Kansas in 2018. He was an offensive analyst at Oklahoma State in 2017 and Houston in 2016.

While Ricker was in Stillwater, the Cowboys posted the nation's top passing offense with 389.2 yards per game and ranked second nationally in total offense (568.9).

Ricker spent two seasons (2014-15) coaching the offensive line at Missouri, his alma mater. He helped the Tigers to an SEC Eastern Division title in 2014. Mizzou totaled 5,138 yards of offense that season, including 2,648 passing and 2,490 rushing.

At Mizzou, Ricker mentored Mitch Morse into a 2015 second-round draft pick by the Kansas City Chiefs. He also coached Evan Boehm to a fourth-round selection by the Arizona Cardinals in 2016.

Prior to his time at Mizzou, Ricker served as a graduate assistant at Western Michigan (2006-07). He was promoted to full-time offensive line coach in 2008.

Ricker served in the same capacity at St. Joseph's College in Indiana in 2009 and was promoted to head coach in 2010. Ricker then returned to Western Michigan (2011-12) to serve as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator. In 2013, he was the offensive line coach at Illinois.

Ricker was an All-Big 12 center at Missouri from 2000-03 and Team Captain for two seasons. He started a program record 47 consecutive games and was part of Mizzou's first bowl-eligible team since 1998.

Ricker earned a degree in agriculture in 2004 and went on to sign a free-agent contract with the Chicago Bears, before being allocated to the Rhein Fire of NFL Europe in 2005. He was a member of the 2006 Tampa Bay Storm in the Arena League.

He and his wife, Lauren, have two sons, Andrew and Luke, and one daughter, Carly.

TRE WATSON

PASSING GAME COORD. / SAFETIES / NICKELS

2ND YEAR AT TCU | WASHINGTON '13

Tre Watson joined the TCU football staff in January 2025 as safeties/nickels coach – passing game coordinator.

Watson served the previous four seasons as defensive backs coach at Cal. He worked with TCU Defensive Coordinator Andy Avalos at Oregon in 2019, when Avalos was the Ducks' DC and Watson was a graduate assistant.

Watson helped lead a Cal defense in 2024 that forced 22 turnovers, including 17 interceptions. He coached Nohl Williams into a First-Team All-American and semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award and Chuck Bednarik Award.

The Golden Bears' 2023 defense tied for the national lead with 28 takeaways while topping the FBS with 16 fumble recoveries. Cal also had three defensive touchdowns.

Watson coached three NFL Draft picks at Cal: Patrick McMorris, a 2024 sixth-round selection by the Miami Dolphins, Daniel Scott who was a fifth-round choice by the Indianapolis Colts in 2023 and All-American Elijah Hicks, a seventh-round pick of the Chicago Bears in 2022.

Prior to his four years at Cal, Watson was defensive backs coach at UNLV in 2020 when he was named by 247Sports to its "30-under-30" list.

Watson broke into coaching as a graduate assistant at Oregon in the 2018-19 seasons. With Avalos directing the defense, the Ducks won the 2019 Pac-12 Championship and Rose Bowl. Oregon intercepted 37 passes during Watson's two years in Eugene. He coached future NFL safeties Ugo Amadi, Jevon Holland and Verone McKinley III.

A 2013 graduate of Washington with a BA in communications, Watson played in all 26 games over his final two seasons with the Huskies. He totaled 74 tackles, including 2.5 for loss. His two interceptions included one returned 84 yards for a touchdown. He added 12 pass breakups. Prior to Washington, he played at West Hills College and Central Washington.

In between his playing and coaching careers, Watson spent three years in Seattle training NFL players in the offseason as well as college players preparing for the NFL Combine. His client list included Budda Baker, DeShawn Shead, Shaq Tompson, Bobby Wagner and K.J. Wright.

Watson is a Seattle native. He and his wife, Taryn, have a son and daughter.

BENNY BOYD

CORNERBACKS

1ST YEAR AT TCU | AURORA '00

Benny Boyd serves as TCU's cornerbacks coach, a post he assumed in February 2026 after six seasons leading the cornerbacks and co-coordinating special teams at Wyoming.

At Wyoming, Boyd helped the Cowboys led the nation in third down defense in 2024 (25.8 percent) and No. 26 in the nation in turnovers gained in 2023 as part of UW's first nine-win season in nearly 30 years. In 2025, Boyd was a part of a passing defense that ranked No. 14 nationally (175.5 yards per game). The Cowboys ranked No. 13 in the same category in Boyd's second season on staff (2021).

In his first season in Laramie, Boyd helped the Cowboys to a No. 16 overall ranking in total defense. In all, Wyoming posted a top-five passing defense in the Mountain West four of Boyd's six seasons on staff.

Prior to Wyoming, Boyd spent the 2019 leading the cornerbacks and special teams at Eastern Illinois. The Panthers ranked No. 30 that season in total defense (350.6) and No. 40 in pass defense (204.1). Boyd spent four seasons (2015-18) at Central Washington in similar roles as coordinated the defense and special teams at Aurora (Ill.), his alma mater, in 2014. For three seasons (2011-13), he led the secondary and special teams at North Dakota following nine seasons (2002-10) as the associate head coach and defensive coordinator at Luther College (Iowa).

In 2010, he was a finalist for the AFCA Division III Assistant Coach of the Year. He coached four Division III All-Americans and three Aztec Bowl participants (Division III All-Star Game) while at Luther College. A total of 19 of his players earned All-Conference honors during his time at Luther College.

Boyd played football at Aurora from 1996-99. He was a two-time All-Conference selection and held the school single-season record for passes defended. Boyd earned his bachelor's degree in social work from Aurora in 2000 and added a master's degree in social work, also from Aurora, in 2002. He has completed Bill Walsh Fellowships with four NFL teams during his career (Houston, Seattle, Oakland and Pittsburgh). Boyd is a native of Dixon, Illinois.

He and his wife, Andrea, were married in July of 2023.

MITCH KIRSCH

RUN GAME COORDINATOR / TIGHT ENDS

2ND YEAR AT TCU | JAMES MADISON '16

Mitch Kirsch arrived at TCU in December 2021.

Originally a senior offensive analyst, Kirsch was promoted by Head Coach Sonny Dykes to assistant coach with the tight ends in 2024.

In his first year as a full-fledged assistant coach, he oversaw the development of Tight Ends Chase Curtis and DJ Rogers.

The duo had a very productive season, combining for 486 yards and four scores.

In addition, Kirsch oversaw the run game that gained 1,730 yards on the ground in the 2025 campaign.

During the Alamo Bowl, Kirsch was the lead playcaller and directed TCU's offense under Ken Seals to the overtime, thrilling victory that featured a third-and-long screen play that went to the end zone to win it.

Before TCU, Kirsch was an offensive graduate assistant under Dykes at SMU.

Kirsch was a consensus FCS All-America offensive lineman at James Madison, helping lead the Dukes to a 2016 National Championship. He was the Virginia Collegiate Athlete of the Year in 2017, before signing a free-agent contract with the Chicago Bears.

A 2016 JMU graduate, Kirsch began his coaching career as an offensive assistant at St. John's High School in Washington D.C.

DEFENSIVE LINE

5TH YEAR AT TCU | OKLAHOMA '12

JaMarkus McFarland joined the TCU football staff in February 2022 as defensive line coach.

In his first season, McFarland made an immediate impact in the Horned Frogs reaching the College Football Playoff National Championship. He coached Dylan Horton into being a fourth-round NFL Draft pick by the Houston Texans. Horton set a CFP single-game record with 4.0 sacks in TCU's semifinal win over Michigan at the Fiesta Bowl.

The 2023 campaign saw two defensive linemen, Caleb Fox and Damonic Williams, earn All-Big 12 honors under McFarland's tutelage.

Before arriving in Fort Worth, McFarland served three seasons at Stephen F. Austin. As assistant head coach and defensive line coach in 2021, McFarland helped lead the Lumberjacks to an 8-4 record, national ranking and FCS playoff berth.

Under McFarland, the SFA defensive line recorded 27 sacks in 2021. It was part of 40 sacks overall, ranking third in the country. SFA's defense led the WAC in scoring defense, total defense, takeaways, sacks and opponent third down conversion percentage while also placing among the national leaders in each category.

The 2020 season saw SFA top the Southland Conference in pass defense efficiency, interceptions and takeaways while ranking second in scoring defense and total defense.

Prior to SFA, McFarland was a defensive graduate assistant at his alma mater Oklahoma. The Sooners won three straight Big 12 Championships during those years, playing in the 2016 Sugar Bowl, 2017 Rose Bowl and 2018 Orange Bowl.

A native of Lufkin, Texas, McFarland was a four-year letterman at Oklahoma. He earned All-Big 12 honors his senior year when he posted a career-high 28 tackles, including six for loss and three sacks. He totaled 17.0 TFLs and six sacks for his career, helping the Sooners to three Big 12 Championships. He was a three-time First-Team Academic All-Big 12 recipient and an ESPN.com All-Big 12 Freshman Team honoree.

McFarland was signed by the San Diego Chargers in 2013 and by the Canadian Football League's British Columbia Lions in 2015.

McFarland earned his bachelor's degree in human relations from Oklahoma in 2012. He received his master's in human relations, also from OU, in 2017 while recording a 4.0 grade point average.

McFarland and his wife, Shakiyla, have a son, JaMarkus, Jr., and daughter, Savanna.

BRAD ROBBINS

QUARTERBACKS

1ST YEAR AT TCU | UVA-WISE '10

Brad Robbins serves as TCU's quarterbacks coach, a role he assumed in January 2026 after spending the 2025 season as Tulsa's Offensive Coordinator and Quarterbacks Coach.

Robbins rejoined his former offensive coordinator Gordon Sammis in Fort Worth as the two worked together to build an offensive juggernaut at UConn in 2024, helping the Huskies set or tie seven school records that season including finishing No. 10 nationally in red zone scoring (92.5).

Together, Robbins and Sammis scored 32.3 points per game in 2024, the highest scoring offense in 21 seasons at UConn to that point. They also helped led UConn to a 9-4 record, the program's best in 14 years.

At Tulsa, under first-year head coach Tre Lamb, Robbins' offense led running back Dominic Richardson to the Golden Hurricane's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2021. Richardson posted 1,065 yards on 212 carries (5.0 ypc) with a 203-yard game against Army.

Prior to UConn, Robbins spent the 2023 season at Tennessee Tech as the pass game coordinator and wide receivers coach and the three seasons before that (2019-22) at North Greenville as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

At North Greenville, Quarterback Dylan Ramirez set school records for passing yards (2,570), total yards (2,800), and touchdowns accounted for (28) as a freshman. Running back Corey Watkins had over 1,000 yards rushing, becoming the first player at NGU to hit the century mark since 2016.

His coaching career has also included stops at Charleston Southern (2018), VMI (2013-17), and Virginia (2010-12).

Robbins graduated from The University of Virginia at Wise with a degree in business administration in 2010 and his master's degree in student affairs in higher education. He was a 2018 inductee into UVA-Wise's Athletic Hall of Fame where he was a two-sport star, finishing as the most accomplished hitter in the baseball program's history while also passing for 3,037 yards and 22 touchdowns to lead his time to a 2007 Mid-South Eastern Division Championship.

ANTONIO WILCOX

RUNNING BACKS

1ST YEAR AT TCU | FURMAN '18

Antonio Wilcox leads TCU's running backs room, a role he was named to in January 2026.

Edwards most recently worked with TCU Offensive Coordinator Gordon Sammis at UConn for three seasons (2023-25). In Storrs, Wilcox helped develop running back Cam Edwards in a 1,000-yard performer this season, the first Husky to do so since 2019. Edwards rushed for 1,240 yards on 210 carries with 15 touchdowns, all marks that rank in the top-20 nationally. Among players with 200-plus carries, Edwards' 5.9 yards per carry average ranked No. 6 nationally.

Wilcox was also named to the 247Sports 30under30 list ahead of the 2025 season.

In 2024, Wilcox coached a three-headed monster of a backfield when Edwards, Durell Robinson, and Mel Brown all ran for at least 670 yards and 5.7 yards per carry.

Prior to UConn, Wilcox spent two seasons at his alma mater, Furman (2021-22). As a player for the Paladins, Wilcox led the team in rushing as a sophomore, junior, and senior, finishing with 1,777 yards and 21 touchdowns. In 2017, he rushed for 814 yards and 14 touchdowns to led his squad to the FCS playoffs.

Following his playing career, Wilcox spent three seasons (2018-20) at North Greenville University where he first worked as a graduate assistant with the running backs before a full-time promotion to coach the wide receivers in his last season.

Wilcox earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Furman in the spring of 2018 and secured his MBA from North Greenville in 2020.

KEN WILSON

LINEBACKERS

3RD YEAR AT TCU | NORTH CENTRAL COLLEGE '86

Ken Wilson joined the TCU football program in January 2024 as linebackers coach.

Prior to TCU, Wilson served the previous two years as head coach at Nevada.

Wilson was part of 12 conference championships during his coaching career and 18 bowl games. Eight of his position players became NFL Draft picks with 10 others signing free-agent contracts. He has coached 35 all-conference selections, three conference players of the year, an All-American and Freshman All-American.

In Wilson's first season as head coach at Nevada in 2021, the Wolf Pack's defense made an immediate impact with nine takeaways in season-opening victories over New Mexico State and Texas State. Nevada totaled 35 takeaways in his two years as head coach.

Prior to taking over leadership of the program, Wilson was a Nevada assistant coach for 19 seasons which included five years as associate head coach (2008-12), four as defensive coordinator (1996-98, 2007) and 10 as a position coach (1989-95, 2004-06) with the defensive line, linebackers and safeties.

During Wilson's coaching tenures, the Wolf Pack reached 11 bowl games and twice won the Western Athletic Conference (2005, 2010) to go with five Big West Conference championships (1992, 1994-97) and two Big Sky Conference titles (1990-91)

Wilson returned to the Nevada football sidelines in 2004 as assistant head coach and linebacker coach. He was with the Wolf Pack coaching staff for nine seasons before serving six years (2013-18) as linebackers coach at Washington State.

In his first two seasons at Oregon (2019-20), the Ducks won back-to-back Pac-12 Conference championships.

In Wilson's first season at Oregon in 2019, the Ducks won the Rose Bowl with a 28-27 victory over Wisconsin led by a defensive unit that ranked among the nation's elite.

Oregon ranked either first or second in the Pac-12 in every major defensive statistical category. The Ducks were also ninth in the nation in scoring defense, allowing just 16.5 points per game. The Ducks ranked 13th in rushing defense (108.9 yards per game) and 22nd in total defense (329.1 yards per game) with an improvement of nearly 57 yards from the previous season. Oregon was also second in the country in interceptions (20), sixth in passes defended (76), 13th in sacks (41.0) and 21st in tackles for loss (97.0).

In the 2021 cycle, Wilson continued to help Oregon be a national leader in recruiting as he was ranked No. 8 among Pac-12 coaches. The Ducks closed with the sixth-ranked class in the country while finishing with the Pac-12's top class for the second consecutive year.

Wilson first made his mark in the Pac-12 at Washington State. The Cougars led the Pac-12 and tied for 16th nationally in sacks (38) while ranking in the top three in the conference in takeaways, rushing defense and third-down defense.

Wilson's linebacker group helped Washington State finish in the top four in the Pac-12 in tackles for loss each of his last four seasons in Pullman, highlighted by a league-best 103.0 in 2017 to place eighth nationally. The Cougars also finished in the top three in the Pac-12 in rushing defense each of his final three seasons (2016-2018).

A Virginia, Ill., native, Wilson is a graduate of North Central College while completing all course work in two years of graduate school at New Mexico.

Wilson and his wife, Heather, have a son, Tyler, and daughter, Baylie. Tyler was a long snapper at Nevada from 2012-14.

MARK TOMMERDAHL

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH

5TH YEAR AT TCU | CONCORDIA COLLEGE '84

Mark Tommerdahl returned to TCU in December 2021.

After serving as special teams coordinator his first two seasons back with the Horned Frogs, he became special assistant to the head coach in 2024. He was initially a Horned Frog for three seasons (1998-2000) as special teams coordinator and tight ends coach.

Tommerdahl was the architect of one of college football's moments of the year in 2022 when TCU's "Bazooka" play saw Griffin Kell convert a 40-yard field goal as time expired for a 29-28 win over Baylor. Kell earned First-Team All-Big 12 honors. Tommerdahl's impact was felt in all aspects of TCU's special teams as Derius Davis was the 2022 recipient of the Jet Award as the nation's top return specialist.

Before arriving back in Fort Worth, Tommerdahl spent the previous three seasons (2019-21) as associate head coach and overseeing the special teams units at Texas Tech.

In his first season at Texas Tech in 2019, Tommerdahl coached punter Austin McNamara into Freshman All-America honors and freshman place-kicker Trey Wolff to All-Big 12 accolades. The Red Raiders blocked seven kicks during Tommerdahl's time in Lubbock.

Tommerdahl's special teams units played a significant role in Purdue's success in 2018. True freshman Rondale Moore was a standout in the return game en route to winning the Paul Hornung Award as the nation's most versatile player.

In Tommerdahl's lone season (2017) at Utah State, the Aggies led the Mountain West and ranked fourth nationally with four blocked punts.

The Golden Bears led the Pac-12 and ranked 14th nationally in kick return defense during Tommerdahl's final season, limiting opponents to only 18.0 yards per return. Kicker Matt Anderson was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award.

Trevor Davis became one of the most explosive players in the country under Tommerdahl's guidance in 2014, earning First-Team All-Pac 12 honors after averaging a school record 32.6 yards per kick return which ranked second nationally. He became only the 20th player in FBS history to return two kickoffs for a touchdown in a game as he found the end zone from 100 and 98 yards at Washington State.

Prior to his arrival at Cal, Tommerdahl coached one of the top punters in NCAA history in two-time Ray Guy Award winner Ryan Allen at Louisiana Tech. He became the first player to win the accolade in consecutive seasons (2011-12) and only the second two-time recipient. Tommerdahl also mentored tight end Dennis Morris to All-America honors during his first season in 2009. Tommerdahl moved to Louisiana Tech from ULM in 2008, where he stayed one season as the assistant head coach, special teams coordinator and tight ends coach. Before that, he spent five years at Texas A&M where he oversaw the Aggies' special teams and tight ends.

Tommerdahl was also the special teams coordinator and tight ends coach in similar stops at Alabama (2001-02), New Mexico (1997) and Minnesota (1995-96).

A native of Fergus Falls, Minn., Tommerdahl began his coaching career in 1984 as a graduate assistant at Wyoming. He spent 11 seasons in various capacities with the Cowboys, helping Wyoming to four bowl appearances and three WAC titles during that time.

Tommerdahl earned his bachelor's degree in business and physical education from Concordia College in Minnesota and an MBA with an emphasis in marketing from Wyoming in 1986.

Tommerdahl's wife, Annette, holds a doctorate degree in counseling education with an emphasis in university administration.

GAME DETAILS

Date	Sept. 1, 2025
Kick Time	8:08 p.m. ET
Stadium	Kenan Memorial Stadium
Location	Chapel Hill, N.C.
Attendance	50,500

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. – North Carolina (0-1) tallied 83 yards on their first offensive drive of the game to take a 7-0 lead, and then TCU (1-0) went on to dominate the remaining 56 minutes of play, outgaining the Tar Heels 542 to 222 in front of a sell-out crowd and prime time national audience on ESPN for a 48-14 victory.

TCU quarterback Josh Hoover led the way for the Horned Frogs passing attack, going 27-36 for 284 yards and a pair of passing touchdowns scores. But, after an offseason of questions about TCU's ground game, it was the play of the offensive line and running backs that stole the show away from the head coach occupying the opposing sideline.

After both teams exchanged punts on the subsequent possessions, Hoover found Dwyer for a 27-yard touchdown to put TCU on the board for the first time in 2025 with 4:08 remaining in the first quarter.

It was all Frogs from there.

FORT WORTH – In the 104th rendition of the Battle for the Iron Skillet on Saturday afternoon, the TCU offense exploded for over 500 yards, and the Horned Frogs pulled away from SMU late for a 35-24 victory in front of a record student crowd at Amon G. Carter Stadium.

After forcing a Mustang three and out to open the game, the TCU offense marched down the field and found the end zone thanks to an improvised play by Hoover on third and long.

SMU would respond with a field goal, but the Frog offense was able to march right down the field again to take an early 14-3 lead.

The Mustangs did not let up however, finding the end zone about halfway through the second to make the score 14-10 going into the locker room.

Trailing in the fourth quarter, the Horned Frogs rattled off two unanswered touchdowns, both to McAlister, to take a double-digit victory over SMU (2-2).

TEMPE, Ariz. – No. 24 TCU dropped a close contest in its Big 12 opener on the road to Arizona State, 27-24, on Friday night at Mountain America Stadium.

The Horned Frogs were able to take an early 14-0 lead thanks to strong efforts by Battle and Payne to reach across the goal line. Arizona State found a response for the first time of the night by way of a 57-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead to 10. The Sun Devils would continue to fight back, finding the end zone again to cut the lead to three heading into the locker room.

ASU drove down the field before settling for a field goal to tie the game halfway through the third quarter. It didn't take long for TCU to regain the lead, marching downfield in a drive that lasted just under three minutes to go in front 24-17. Facing a fourth down at the goal line inside two minutes remaining, Arizona State found the end zone to even the score. After a fumble, Arizona State would proceed to nail a 23-yard field goal to take the lead with just 1:14 left in the game to seal the game.

FORT WORTH — Despite an early deficit, TCU battled back and pulled away late to claim a 35-21 victory over Colorado on Saturday night at Amon G. Carter Stadium.

Colorado (2-4) opened up a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter, but the Frogs were able to generate a response to close the first half on a high note. The first touchdown came with 2:38 remaining in the second quarter as Hoover scored on a quarterback sneak to cut the lead to one score.

The two defenses shut down the offenses in the third quarter, but within the first minute of the fourth Hoover found Lafayette Kaiuway in the end zone on fourth down to give the Frogs a seven-point lead. Following a CU touchdown, TCU's offense took advantage of a muffed punt, with Hoover finding Manjack for a score to give the Frogs a 28-21 lead. Facing a fourth down with under 30 seconds remaining in the game, Hoover found a wide-open McAllister to cement a double-digit victory for TCU.

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Offensive miscues and turnovers led to TCU's fourth consecutive loss in Kansas State's Bill Snyder Family Stadium. The Horned Frogs (4-2) had a flurry of dropped passes and penalties, along with allowing two Kansas State (3-4) defensive touchdowns, in the loss.

In the second, Hoover led his team on a methodical 12 play, 93-yard drive down the field to give the Frogs a 7-0 lead. After being forced to short gains by the TCU defense through almost the entire first half, Kansas State's offense completed 31- and 32-yard passes over the course of three plays to even the score.

Kansas State's defense flipped the game once again, intercepting Hoover and returning it to the end zone.TCU's offense continued to struggle on the ensuing possession, and Kansas State proceeded to take a three-score lead late in the third quarter.

FORT WORTH — Baylor and the elements were not able to hold back TCU on Saturday. The Frogs seized control of the game in the second quarter, and then held off Baylor despite three lightning delays in the fourth quarter. TCU's defense was spectacular, holding the nation's best passing offense to below a 50-percent completion rate.

Baylor was able to take an early lead 7-0. The Frogs would not sit idly by, marching down the field to score. Then the rain started. During and after a downpour, TCU outscored BU 14-3 the remainder of the half to take a 21-10 lead into the intermission. As is typical in a rivalry game, Baylor scored a touchdown and field goal to give the Frogs some game pressure in the fourth quarter. TCU responded, this time by breaking off a long touchdown run just three plays into the drive to regain a two-score lead.

The fourth quarter saw three different rain delays. After returning to play, Barnes ripped off a touchdown run to give the Frogs a 21-point lead.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. – TCU went into West Virginia and left with a victory in its final game before a crucial bye week. TCU posted five fourth down stops to help keep the Mountaineers at arm's length. The Horned Frogs used excellent field position to open up a lead, with their first three drives starting in West Virginia territory.

The TCU defense was able to pick up a couple of pivotal fourth down stops as the Frogs jumped out early to a 10-0 lead. West Virginia's touchdown lit a fire under the Horned Frog offense, as it went on its longest drive of the season to put the lead back up to two scores.

After stopping the home team offense on fourth down early in the fourth, the TCU offense embarked on drive that ate up nearly seven minutes of game time to gain a 13-point lead. West Virginia would find the end zone quickly and despite a couple of anxiety-inducing moments on the final possession, the Frogs would be able to run the clock out a survive a trip to The Mountain State.

FORT WORTH — TCU had opportunities to take control of the game but faltered at home in a 20-17 loss to Iowa State on Saturday.

The Frogs struggled to gain momentum early, and thanks to two timely interceptions Iowa State was able to take a 6-0 lead in a slugfest of a game early. Hoover was able to lead the TCU offense down the field and find Dwyer in the end zone for the home teams first touchdown of the day.

The Frogs took advantage of an interception, marching down the field and scoring a touchdown early in the fourth to take a 17-6 lead. Iowa State would not go away quietly by answering quickly to cut it back down to one possession with just over eight minutes remaining.Needing a game-changing play, the Cyclones found it by way of a punt returned for a touchdown to regain the lead and overcome an 11-point TCU lead with just over six minutes remaining in the game.

PROVO, Utah – TCU was never able to generate much life in a 44-13 loss to 12th-ranked BYU in front of an over-capacity crowd in Provo.

TCU's defense started uncharacteristically slow, allowing the Cougars to take a 17-0 first half lead to get the home crowd even more energy. The game didn't get much better from there, as TCU would get on the board with a field goal but BYU marched right back down the field to extend their commanding lead.

TCU would finally find the end zone late in the second quarter, but the defense once again did not provide much resistance to the BYU offense and allowed the Cougars to take a 27-10 lead headed into halftime. The Frogs generated some life by way of an opening drive field goal in the second half, but the first half issues would continue to repeat themselves to allow BYU to put it out of reach.

HOUSTON – TCU overcame adversity on the road to post a gritty 17-14 victory over 23rd-ranked Houston. The win marked TCU's first over a ranked opponent since it defeated No. 2 Michigan in the 2022 College Football Playoff Semifinal.

The Frogs stormed out of the gates in the Space City, outgaining the Cougars by 128 yards to take a 14-0 lead in the first quarter.

With TCU threatening once again in the third quarter, the Frogs turned the ball over for the fourth time of the game to continue to keep Houston alive in the game. For the second time of the afternoon, the Cougars made TCU pay and marched downfield for a score to tie the game with just over five minutes left in the third quarter.

After the two teams exchanged punts, Jordan Dwyer delivered an electric 53-yard punt return to put the Frogs in field goal range, and TCU went up 17-14 with 11-minutes and change remaining in the game.

FORT WORTH – Jeremy Payne ran for 174 yards and TCU endured a lengthy first quarter weather delay en route to its eighth victory of the season. Payne also added 44 receiving yards, bringing his all-purpose number up to 218.

TCU (8-4, 5-4 Big 12) was rolling early, forcing a fourth-down stop in plus territory that led to a score to take an early lead. However, after another defensive stop, the game entered a 90-minute-plus lightning delay, the second game of the season plagued by such a delay. Right after the delay, the Frogs did not waste much time by marching right down the field to take an early 14-0 lead for the second straight week.

A flurry of chunk plays for the Bearcats allowed them to stay within striking distance throughout the first half, but a late touchdown for TCU extended the lead back up to 14 going into the locker room. The Horned Frogs didn't waste much time, scoring just over four minutes into the second half to push the advantage up to 21.

SAN ANTONIO – Ken Seals, in his first start in his final game as a TCU Horned Frog, led a furious rally from an 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to an overtime victory over No. 16 USC to add to TCU's storied history of thrillers in the Alamo Bowl.

Facing 3rd-and-20 in the game's first overtime period, having watched USC's explosive offense held to a field goal, Seals dumped the ball off to running back Jeremy Payne who proceeded to make one defender miss, then another, and another, and yet one more. Payne's feet stayed in bounds, and it was all purple daylight from there to send the partisan TCU crowd into a frenzy.The Frogs managed just 35 total yards of offense compared to 40 yards of penalties in the third quarter and trailed 24-14 with 9:37 to go. Then, Seals and the offense went on an 11-play, 75-yard drive to draw it to within a field goal, capped by Payne's first score of the game. On USC's ensuing possession, attempting to salt away the game, TCU was able to force a punt. Seals and the offense, cool as ever, went 59 yards on 13 plays to setup Kyle Lemmerman's 27-yard field goal as time expired to tie the game and force overtime. And with Bram Kohlhausen watching along from the sidelines, new legends of the Alamo were born.

HISTORY

Through all the years, with the exception of 1900, Frog ballclubs have competed on an organized basis. Even during the war years, as well as through the Great Depression, each fall TCU football squads have done battle on the gridiron.

BEGINNINGS

The newfangled game of football, created in the East, made a quiet and unofficial appearance on the TCU campus (AddRan College as it was then known and located in Waco, Texas, or nearby Thorp Spring) in the fall of 1896. It was then that several of the college's more robust students, along with the enthusiastic support of a couple of young "profs," Addison Clark Jr., and A.C. Easley, banded together to form a team. Three games were actually played that season ... all after Thanksgiving. The first contest was an 8-6 victory over Toby's Business College of Waco and the other two games were with the Houston Heavyweights, a town team.

By 1897 the new sport had progressed and AddRan enlisted its first coach, Joe J. Field, to direct the team. Field's ballclub won three games that autumn, including a first victory over Texas A&M. The only loss was to the University of Texas, 18-10. Those games with the Aggies and Longhorns launched football feuds that carried forth for 99 years. In 1899, the first game with Baylor was played to launch still another traditional rivalry. By 1902, the name of the school had been changed to Texas Christian University. The nickname, "Horned Frogs," had been added a few years earlier because "of the abundance of those creatures around campus."

TIAA ERA

In 1909, the university became a member of the old TIAA (Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association). Several TCU teams recorded outstanding records, including the 1912 Horned Frog unit, which had an 8-1 mark with the lone loss coming against Texas, a team that the Frogs did not beat until 1929.

In 1920, a post-World War I team produced TCU's best record to date, winning nine straight games in the regular season. However, a post season bowl (the Dixie Bowl) contest was booked in Fort Worth with the famed "Prayin' Colonels" of Centre College. That proved to be a mistake as Centre trounced the Frogs, 63-7. L.R. (Dutch) Meyer was an end on that TCU grid eleven.

SWC EARLY YEARS

In 1923, TCU was admitted to the still-infant Southwest Athletic Conference, a league which was destined to become the major collegiate league of the Southwest. In their initial season in the SWC, the Horned Frogs played three games and posted a record of two wins and one loss. Though a young member of the SWC, over the next few years the Horned Frogs still offered some excellent results. In 1924, they won one and lost five games to finish in the cellar for the only time until 1953. In 1929, under Francis Schmidt, TCU claimed its first SWC title. Led by a brilliant young quarterback, Howard Grubbs, who later became the executive secretary of the Southwest Conference and the Horned Frogs' first in a line of great passers, TCU won four straight league games.

The Frogs clinched their first title with a 7-7 tie against SMU in the final contest of '29. During Schmidt's regime, which lasted through the 1933 campaign, the Frogs were double tough.

They finished third in 1930, second in '31 and won the SWC title again in 1932 with a perfect 6-0 record. It was the first time that one Southwest Conference team had defeated all the others, since a round robin had not been played in any of the previous seasons.

DUTCH MEYER ERA

In 1934, with Schmidt being lured to Ohio State, Leo R. (Dutch) Meyer became the Horned Frogs grid coach. For the next 19 years, Meyer turned out top teams and produced a bevy of individual standouts, including Sammy Baugh, Davey O'Brien, Ki Aldrich, Darrell Lester and many others.

During Baugh's college days, the Frogs won 12, lost one in 1935; and won nine, lost two and tied a pair in 1936. As a junior, Baugh led TCU to a 3-2 victory in the Sugar Bowl and a national title, but was never able to help the Frogs claim a SWC title.

His successor, Davey O'Brien, took over leadership of the Frogs for the 1937 and 1938 seasons and, during his senior year, paced the Purples to their best record in history. That magnificent '38 ballclub was considered one of the Southwest Conference's finest some 50 years later. That fall, Meyer's Horned Frogs rolled to 11 straight wins, including a 15-7 triumph over Carnegie Tech in the Sugar Bowl. The club outscored its opponents – 269 to 60 – and never found itself behind, except briefly in the Sugar Bowl encounter. After the Sugar Bowl, the Frogs were crowned national champions.

In 1941, TCU finished a solid second place in the SWC and won another championship in '44. The Dutchman's final league crown came in 1951, two years before he became full-time athletics director (Meyer would later retire as TCU's A.D. in 1963).

Slingin' Sammy Baugh (No. 45) led TCU to its first of two national championships in the 1930s under head coach Dutch Meyer

ABE MARTIN ERA

When Meyer retired from coaching in 1953, his backfield assistant, Othol (Abe) Martin, took over the coaching reins. Abe installed the popular T-formation, and in just three short years had found the championship formula. His 1955 TCU ballclub, led by All-American Jim Swink, waltzed to nine victories in 10 games, the only loss being to Texas A&M. In 1958, Martin found the victory formula again with good quarterbacking and defense. In 1959, the Frogs disproved the critics to tie Texas and Arkansas for the crown, posting a 5-1 league record.

During his 14-year regime, Martin compiled a 76-64-7 mark in Frogland, directed the Purples to five post-season bowl games, and produced seven All-Americans.

THE 1970s

The decade of the 1970s was, for the most part, one of disappointment for the fans of TCU football. Fred Taylor, the successor to Abe Martin in 1966, guided Horned Frog teams through four seasons, with the best record being a modest 4-6. Jim Pittman was hired from a successful bowl campaign at Tulane, but tragedy struck midway through the 1971 season when Pittman was felled by a fatal heart attack during the Baylor game. His chief aide, Billy Tohill, took over and piloted TCU through the 1973 season. Then another former Frog great, Jim Shofner, returned from the NFL and led the Horned Frogs until 1977. The coaching door then swung open for F. A. Dry, who brought some impressive credentials from Tulsa. Dry's TCU teams became known for hard-ball defense and impressive aerial displays, but a 3-8 mark in 1982 proved to be Dry's best in six seasons and yet another change of direction was mandated.

JIM WACKER ERA

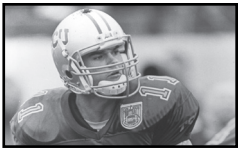

From 1983 through 1991, Horned Frog grid fortunes were in the hands of former NCAA Division II coaching legend Jim Wacker, who left opulent marks as well as two pairs of national championship trophies at both Southwest Texas State and Texas Lutheran. Wacker's first campaign at TCU produced a result of 1-8-2, but he steered the Horned Frogs to a dramatic 8-4 turnaround in 1984 en route to a Bluebonnet Bowl date. Several national, as well as Southwest Conference Coach of the Year honors, ultimately were awarded to the bubbly Wacker. However, an NCAA probation for discovered infractions in 1985 affected the Frogs' rise over the next several seasons.

PAT SULLIVAN ERA

On Jan. 2, 1992, Pat Sullivan was introduced as the 27th head coach in TCU football history. Sullivan probably is best remembered as a college quarterbacking great at Auburn, where he won the Heisman Trophy in 1971. Sullivan instilled confidence along with an appreciation for self-discipline into the TCU grid makeup during his initial campaign with the Horned Frogs.

Though the Sullivan influence on TCU's program was obvious from the outset, tangible proof of his impact in Frogland became pronounced during 1994. For the Horned Frog faithful it was a campaign of sweet memories and bona fide successes beginning in early fall with the official dedication of TCU's Walsh Complex, an ultra-impressive athletic training and weight-conditioning center. Powered by the most prolific offense in the Southwest Conference, an attack spearheaded by quarterback Max Knake and tailback Andre Davis, the Frogs fashioned a 7-4 regular-season mark. En route, they captured a share of the school's ninth SWC football championship, along with an invitation to the Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La.

Ki Aldrich (left), a member of the CFB Hall of Fame, helped TCU post the most wins of any program during the 1930s. Max Knake (right) helped lead the program to a SWC title and its first bowl game in a decade during the 1994 season.

WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

TCU Football in 1996 was almost a double-dose of euphoria. Not only did it mark the 100th-year celebration for the sport, but the university officially became a new member of the expanded Western Athletic Conference as well. The Horned Frogs program joined teams from Rice, SMU and Tulsa to form Quadrant 1 of the Mountain Division. Quadrant 2 members were Air Force, UNLV, Colorado State and Wyoming. Pacific Division members of the WAC were New Mexico, UTEP, BYU, along with Fresno State, San Jose State, Hawai'i and San Diego State.

DENNIS FRANCHIONE ERA

In three seasons under Dennis Franchione, the TCU football program took a giant leap forward. In his first season, Fran led the Frogs to a 7-5 record, which included an upset win over USC in the Sun Bowl.

The Frogs, which were 1-10 in 1997 under Pat Sullivan, tied Louisville for the biggest turnaround in the country with the six-win improvement in 1998. Although many believed the Frogs stood no chance, Franchione guided the Frogs to a 28-19 win over the vaunted Trojans. The victory was the first bowl win since 1957, when TCU defeated Syracuse in the Cotton Bowl.

Then in 1999, TCU claimed a share of the WAC title, earning a trip to the inaugural Mobile Alabama Bowl, where TCU knocked off East Carolina, 28-14. Tailback LaDainian Tomlinson led the country in rushing in 1999, averaging more than 168 yards per game for a season total of 1,850 yards.

The Frogs came back with one of the best seasons in school history as the new millennium got underway. Moving as high in the polls as No. 9 and carrying the nation's longest winning streak for a stretch, the Frogs put together a 10-2 campaign. Tomlinson again led the nation in rushing, this time with over 2,000 yards, en route to the Doak Walker Award. Following the season he was the fifth player selected in the NFL Draft.

CONFERENCE USA

The Frogs took on a new look in 2001 as they made the move into Conference USA. The 11-member football league included Army, Cincinnati, East Carolina, Houston, Louisville, Memphis, Southern Miss, South Florida, Tulane and UAB. Despite the change in leâagues, TCU continued its strong run with a school record six consecutive bowl game appearances and back-to-back top 25 finishes for the first time since the 1950s. Highlighting TCU's four-year stint in Conference USA was the 2002 CUSA Co-Championship, which the Frogs shared with Cincinnati.

MOUNTAIN WEST CONFERENCE

TCU began Mountain West Conference play in 2005 and immediately posted a record-breaking campaign. The Frogs, picked to finish sixth, went 8-0 in their debut season to claim their first outright conference title since 1958. TCU became just the third team in MWC history to go undefeated and the first to be 8-0. The Frogs went 41-7 in their six seasons of MWC play and left the league with 24-consecutive victories in conference play.

GARY PATTERSON ERA

The defensive coordinator under Franchione, Gary Patterson assumed the head coach's chair prior to the 2000 GMAC Bowl and led the Frogs for all or parts of 22 seasons. Over that time, Patterson's leadership elevated not only TCU Athletics but the entirety of Texas Christian University and Fort Worth at large.

A 22-time National Coach of the Year, Patterson posted a 181-79 career record with 11 10-win seasons. He passed legendary coach Dutch Meyer (109 wins) for the top position on TCU's career victories list with a win against Grambling State in the 2012 season opener.

A transformational leader as TCU's head coach, Patterson compiled a 181-79 career record as he led the Horned Frogs from Conference USA to the Mountain West and then to the Big 12. His teams combined for 11 final AP Top 25 rankings, including seven top-10 finishes, a No. 2 ranking in 2010 and a No. 3 ranking in 2014. His 181 career victories rank No. 12 all-time among coaches at one school and No. 35 all-time in college football history.

Patterson led TCU to 18 bowl appearances and an 11-6 bowl record (one game canceled), highlighted by victories in the 2011 Rose Bowl, 2014 Peach Bowl and an appearance in the 2010 Fiesta Bowl. The Rose Bowl win marked the program's first ever appearance in a Bowl Championship Series game, and his 11 bowl victories tie him at No. 11 all-time for most overall bowl wins. His teams recorded 11 seasons with at least 10 wins, including a perfect 13-0 season in 2010.

Regarded as one of the nation's preeminent defensive coaches during his career, five of his defenses finished ranked No. 1 nationally in total defense during his head coaching career. He coached 21 First-Team All-Americans, three Academic All-Americans, 90 First Team all-conference players while mentoring Heisman Trophy finalists Andy Dalton, Trevone Boykin and Max Duggan.

Patterson won six conference championships, guiding TCU to titles in Conference USA (2002), the Mountain West (2005, 2009, 2010, 2011) and the Big 12 (2014). He was named Conference Coach of the Year four times, including Conference USA (2002), Mountain West (2005, 2009) and the Big 12 (2014). He was named National Coach of the Year a total of 22 times, with the Associated Press, AFCA, FWAA and Walter Camp each recognizing him in both 2009 and 2014.

Beyond the field, Patterson co-founded The Big Good Foundation with Grammy Award-winning artist Leon Bridges, raising more than $5 million to support education, children's health and workforce readiness in Fort Worth. The National Football Foundation Gridiron Club of Dallas presented him its Distinguished Texan Award in 2011, and Patterson served as president of the American Football Coaches Association in 2020. He was inducted into the TCU Athletics Hall of Fame as a member of the class of 2025 and was a first-ballot College Football Hall of Famer in the class of 2026.

SONNY DYKES ERA

A one-time assistant under Patterson in 2017, Sonny Dykes came back to Fort Worth from SMU where he led a revival of the then-American Athletic Conference Mustangs' program.

He saw immediate success as he led led the Horned Frogs to a College Football Playoff National Championship appearance by way of a thrilling 51-45 victory over Michigan in the CFP Semifinal at the Fiesta Bowl.

The Horned Frogs never trailed and had 488 yards of total offense against a Wolverines defense allowing 277.1 per game. TCU ran for 263 yards on a Michigan unit surrendering 85.2 ypg on the ground. In doing so, TCU became the first program from the state of Texas to reach the College Football Playoff and first from the Big 12 Conference to play in the CFP National Championship.

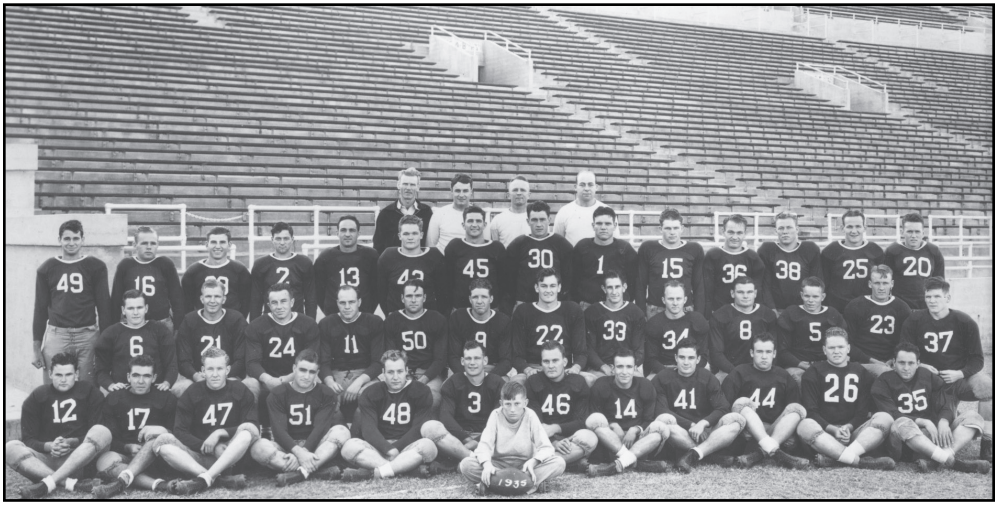

For his part, Dykes received 10 National Coach of the Year honors while also being the unanimous Big 12 Coach of the Year as TCU completed a 12-0 regular season.

The 2022 campaign saw quarterback Max Duggan win the Davey O'Brien Award, Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award while placing second in Heisman Trophy voting. Tre'Vius Hodges-Tomlinson was the Paycom Jim Thorpe Award recipient, while Derius Davis received the Jet Award as the nation's top return specialist. Additionally, offensive lineman Steve Avila was a Consensus All-American.

With a wealth of talent off to the NFL following that season, the Frogs slipped to a 5-7 mark in 2023 but have rebounded with back-to-back nine-win seasons in 2024 and 2025 under Dykes' leadership, marking the first time in TCU's Big 12 era the Frogs have posted consecutive nine-win-or-better seasons.

The 2025 campaign showed signs of TCU's return to the national conversation as it was capped with yet another memorable Alamo Bowl victory which saw the Frogs rally from a 10-point fourth quarter deficit to win in walk-off fashion over No. 16 USC.

TCU was tabbed No. 1 in the nation by the Williamson System, the only rating organization to publish a list after the New Year's Day Bowl contest, and ranked among the top five teams in the country by all rating services at the conclusion of the regular season.

Featuring stars Sammy Baugh and Darrell Lester, the Frogs won 10 straight games before falling to SWC Champion SMU in the next-to-last game of the regular season. The Horned Frogs later defeated LSU, 3-2, in the 1936 Sugar Bowl. TCU ended the year with a record of 12-1.

1938

This remarkable Frog combine was ranked No. 1 by all the rating systems. TCU's first undefeated and untied team won the SWC Championship, then followed that feat with a Sugar Bowl victory over Carnegie Tech, 15-7.

The 1938 lineup included three All-Americans – Davey O'Brien, who was the first footballer to win the Heisman and Maxwell trophies the same year, plus Ki Aldrich and I.B. Hale. The Frogs ended the season with a record of 11-0.

HOW IT'S TRACKED

All-Americans recognized are provided from NCAA official selectors only. Since 2002, the five selectors designated by the NCAA are included here.

Since 1924, when the NCAA designated official selectors, many other publications have been included. Research is on-going to add recognized Frogs from those lists to the media guide.

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

TCU has had 18 CoSIDA / CSC Academic All-Americans, the nation's top academic award chosen by the country's sports information directors each season.

Seven TCU players have finished in the top-five in voting for the Heisman Trophy, college football's most prestigious award.

Most recently, it was Max Duggan as the runner-up in 2022 as he led the Horned Frogs to an appearance in the College Football Playoff National Championship.

In 1938, Davey O'Brien became the first football player from both TCU and the Southwest Conference to win the award. Sammy Baugh placed fourth in 1936, the second year the trophy was presented.

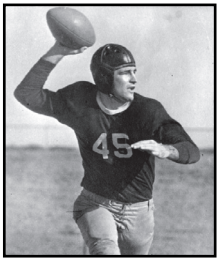

Jim Swink finished second in 1955, while Kenneth Davis was the next Horned Frog to receive serious consideration for the honor in 1984 when he finished fifth.

In 1999, LaDainian Tomlinson was 14th as a junior. He finished fourth after his senior season in 2000 when he also won the Doak Walker Award.

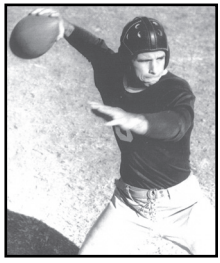

Quarterback Andy Dalton was ninth in Heisman voting during TCU's 2010 Rose Bowl Championship season. Fellow signal caller Trevone Boykin was fourth following the 2014 campaign and tied for ninth in 2015.

Davey O'Brien accepts the Heisman Trophy at New York's Downtown Athletic Club in 1938, the same same year he led TCU to its second national championship.

TCU celebrates Davey O'Brien's historic Heisman Trophy in the Jane and John Justin Hall of Fame, located inside Ed and Rae Schollmaier Arena.

DAVEY O'BRIEN, 1938

HEISMAN TROPHY
Nation's Top Player

MAXWELL AWARD
Nation's Top Player

O'Brien won TCU's first Heisman while leading his team to an undefeated season. He is the smallest player to win the Heisman at 5-7, 151 pounds and the first Heisman winner from the Southwest Conference.

O'Brien was born in Dallas, Texas. He attended and played high school football at Woodrow Wilson High (later attended by 1987 Heisman winner Tim Brown). While there, he was an All-State selection and led his team to the Texas state playoffs in 1932.

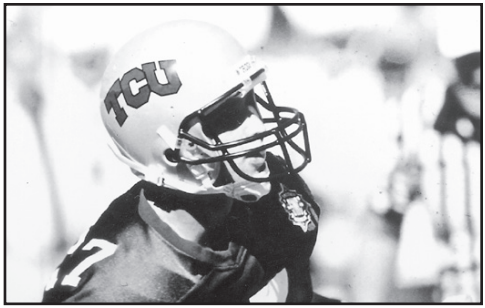

Texas Christian was his school of choice, where coach Dutch Meyer had built a reputation for his pass-heavy "double wing" offense. After backing up Sammy Baugh, O'Brien became the starting quarterback as a 1937 junior and passed for 947 yards and five touchdowns as TCU went 4-4-2.

He exploded as a 1938 senior, completing 93 of 166 passes for 1,509 yards and 19 touchdowns with just four interceptions. He also ran for 462 yards and had six interceptions for 85 yards on defense. For his efforts, he won the Heisman over Marshall Goldberg of Pittsburgh.

A good runner and punter, he was an outstanding selector of plays. After a brilliant 15-7 Sugar Bowl victory over Carnegie Tech, in which he kicked a field goal and threw a touchdown pass, the Philadelphia Eagles recruited him with a $12,000 bonus and a two-year contract.

In his first season, O'Brien passed for 1,324 yards, breaking Sammy Baugh's record. In his second season, he completed a still unchallenged record of 33 out of 60 passes against the Redskins.

O'Brien retired to become an FBI agent and followed that stint in the early '50s by becoming a business executive. He was elected to the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame in 1955.

MICHAEL REEDER, 1995

LOU GROZA AWARD
Nation's Top Placekicker

Michael Reeder became the first sophomore to win the Lou Groza Award after a 1995 season that saw him kick 23 field goals, a TCU record, as well as 20 extra points.

Reeder further entrenched himself in the long annuals of TCU football by making a school record 13 consecutive field goals. He did not miss a field goal inside of 39 yards, and was often called the Horned Frogs' security blanket.

For his efforts, Reeder was named a consensus All-American. Reflecting on his magical 1995 season, Reeder said, "It means that for at least one year, I was the best college kicker in the country. The countless hours of practice paid off."

Reeder led the nation in Field Goals made with 23. In addition, he led the Southwest Conference in Field Goal Percentage, with an impressive .920.

LADAINIAN TOMLINSON, 2000

DOAK WALKER AWARD
Nation's Top Running Back

The 2000 recipient of the Doak Walker Award, LaDainian Tomlinson helped return TCU football to prominence while rushing his way into the record books. He becomes the eighth Horned Frog player to enter the College Football Hall of Fame.

Voted a unanimous First-Team All-American selection as a senior, Tomlinson led the nation in rushing in both 1999 (1,850) and 2000 (2,158), and he finished fourth in the voting for the 2000 Heisman Trophy. The all-time leading rusher in both conference and school history, Tomlinson set NCAA records for most yards in a half (287) and most yards in a game (406) in a victory against UTEP in 1999. The 1999 WAC Offensive Player of the Year led TCU to consecutive co-shares of the conference title and three consecutive bowl berths, including wins in the 1998 Sun Bowl and the 1999 Mobile Alabama Bowl. Named the Football News Offensive Player of the Year in 2000, he earned First-Team All-WAC honors three times and owns seven conference and 15 school records.

Selected as the fifth overall pick of the 2001 NFL Draft by the San Diego Chargers, Tomlinson enjoyed a successful 11-year career with the Chargers and Jets. The 2006 NFL MVP twice led the league in rushing, and he finished his career fifth all-time in rushing yards (13,684) and second in career rushing touchdowns (145). A five-time Pro Bowl selection and four-time All-Pro selection, Tomlinson was also named the Walter Payton Man of the Year in 2006.

A stalwart in the community, Tomlinson supports various efforts through his Touching Lives Foundation, including LT's 21 Club, LT's School is Cool Scholarship, Camp LT and LT Celebrity Invitational Golf Tournament. He recently partnered with the Center for BrainHealth at the University of Texas at Dallas to create a program promoting health and academic achievement at Thomas A. Edison Middle Learning Center in Dallas. The Waco, Texas, native also serves as an analyst for the NFL Network.

JERRY HUGHES, 2009

TED HENDRICKS AWARD
Nation's Top Defensive End

Jerry Hughes capped an incredible career as a TCU Horned Frog with one of the best seasons by a TCU defensive end of all time.

His performance led him to winning the Ted Hendricks Award, along with the Lott Trophy while being a Unanimous All-American. He also earned Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year.

He posted a career-high 54 tackles and 11.5 sacks, which tied for seventh in the nation.

His impressive season helped the TCU defense rank first nationally in total defense, allowing 233 yards per game.

In addition, the Horned Frogs ranked sixth nationally with just 12.4 points allowed per game.

Following his TCU career, he went on to have a 15 year NFL career with three different teams.

JAKE KIRKPATRICK, 2010

DAVE RIMINGTON AWARD
Nation's Top Center

To cap an incredible career with the Horned Frogs, Jake Kirkpatrick was named the winner of the Dave Rimington Award in 2010.

He also was one of four finalists and the lone offensive player for the 2010 Rotary Lombardi Award, recognizing the nations top lineman.

The Tyler native earned Walter Camp and Sporting News first-team All-American selections, while the Associated Press, SI.com, CBSSports.com and Phil Steele named him toa second-team All-American.

In addition, he was First Team All-Mountain West Conference along with earning a spot in the Senior Bowl.

As a senior, he started all 13 games, which extended his streak to 26 consecutive contests which he left college with.

He was the leader on the front lines for TC, setting the blocking scheme on every play and didn't commit a single penalty on the year.

As the anchor of the line, the Horned Frogs ranked fourth nationally in scoring (41.6 points per game), 10th in rushing (247.4 yards per game) and 12th in total offense (476.9 yards per game).

He also was instrumental in TCU tying for fifth nationally for fewest sacks allowed with nine.

The Horned Frogs' offense in 2010 was a record-setting one, setting then-single season records for touchdowns (73), points scored (541), first downs (327) and total offense (6,199 yards).

TREVON MOEHRIG, 2020

JIM THORPE AWARD
Nation's Top Defensive Back

Trevon Moehrig became TCU's first Thorpe Award winner in 2020.

He earned multiple All-America team selections, and was selected First Team All-Big 12 by the conference head coaches and AP for the second straight season.

A leader in the locker room, he was a team captain in every game.

His biggest moment of the year came against No. 15 Oklahoma State, earning a game-saving, one handed interception in the victory.

For the season, he racked up 47 tackles, 11 PBUs and two interceptions.

He recorded a career-high three pass breakups to go with three tackles against Oklahoma and totaled 10 stops at West Virginia.

Along with this, he had two PBUs and eight tackles in a win against Baylor and picked up an interception the next week against Texas Tech.

On the year, he had five games with at least six tackles.

The incredible season came on the heels of a sophomore campaign where he was the highest-graded safety in the FBS by Pro Football Focus.

MAX DUGGAN, 2022

MAXWELL AWARD
Nation's Top Player

UNITAS GOLDEN ARM AWARD
Nation's Top Quarterback

In one of the most memorable seasons in TCU history, Max Duggan earned the Maxwell Award and the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award.

Duggan steered the Horned Frogs, a team picked to finish seventh in the Big 12 Conference during the preseason, to an appearance in the National Championship Game and a 13-2 overall record. Against then-No. 2 Michigan in the College Football Playoff Semifinal, he accounted for four total touchdowns and 287 yards of offense in a 51-45 victory over the heavily-favored Wolverines.

On the year, the native of Council Bluffs, Iowa, completed 267 of 419 passes (63.7 percent) for 3,698 yards and 32 touchdowns. In addition, he rushed 137 times for 423 yards and nine touchdowns. TCU finished the season with seven comeback wins.

The Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year and unanimous first-team all-conference selection ranked seventh in points responsible for (248), tied for 10th in passing touchdowns (32), 12th in passing yards (3,698), 12th in yards per pass attempt (8.8), 13th in passing yards per completion (13.9) and 16th in passing efficiency (159.2).

The 6-foot-2, 210-pound signal caller directed one of the nation's most prolific offenses, as TCU finished the year ranked ninth in the NCAA in scoring offense at 38.8 points per game. Duggan was the ninth straight Davey O'Brien Award recipient to lead his team to the College Football Playoffs and the seventh in that group to play in the national title game.

Duggan also won the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award in 2022. Additionally, he was the Heisman Trophy runner up, the highest finish by a Horned Frog player since Jim Swink in 1955.

TRE'VIUS HODGES-TOMLINSON, 2022

JIM THORPE AWARD
Nation's Top Defensive Back

Joining Duggan as an award winner in the 2022 season, Tre'Vius Hodges-Tomlinson earned the Jim Thorpe Award.

It was the second time in three seasons for TCU to have the Paycom Jim Thorpe Award winner. Tre'von Moehrig was the 2020 recipient.

Hodges-Tomlinson helped lead TCU to its first College Football Playoff appearance with a 13-2 record, including a 9-0 Big 12 regular season.

Hodges-Tomlinson was First-Team All-Big 12 for the third consecutive season and Honorable-Mention Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year. He took part in a takeaway in four consecutive games with three picks and a forced fumble. He had an interception and three pass breakups as TCU held Texas to no offensive touchdowns and just 199 yards of offense in a 17-10 win in Austin. For the season, he totaled 42 tackles, including two for loss, with three interceptions, 11 pass breakups and a forced fumble.

Pro Football Focus rated Hodges-Tomlinson the No. 1 cornerback in the Big 12 in pass rush grade (91.8). He also led Big 12 cornerbacks with 857 snaps played in the 2022 season.

RETIRED JERSEYS

Three great TCU Horned Frogs are honored for their contributions to TCU football and TCU Athletics. The numbers 5, 8 and 45 for LaDainian Tomlinson, Davey O'Brien and Sammy Baugh, respectively, have been removed from circulation and those numbers are considered retired.

#5

LaDainian Tomlinson
1996-00

- Doak Walker Award Winner
- Unanimous All-American
- National Rushing Title (1999, 2000)
- Fourth-highest single-season rushing yard total in NCAA history at the time
- 12-year NFL career
- 2006 NFL Most Valuable Player
- 2006 NFL Man of the Year

One of the greatest running backs in the history of college and professional football, LaDainian Tomlinson was officially inducted into the TCU Lettermen's Association Hall of Fame in 2012. Tomlinson helped kick off TCU's resurgence in football during the turn of the millennium when he recorded an All-America career highlighted by a pair of national rushing titles during his final two seasons in 1999 and 2000. His 2,158 yards as a senior marked the fourth-highest single-season total in NCAA history at the time, while his 5,263 career rushing yards ranked sixth. In 2000, Tomlinson was a finalist for the Heisman Trophy, finishing fourth, and won the Doak Walker Award as nation's top running back.

LT carried over his success in college to the NFL, where he became one of the best backs in league history during a 12-year career with the San Diego Chargers and New York Jets. He turned in his top individual season in 2006, when he became only the second player to earn both NFL Most Valuable Player and Man of the Year awards in the same campaign. The record-breaking year saw Tomlinson set a single-season league record by scoring 31 touchdowns, while he recorded the first of two consecutive individual rushing crowns with a career-best 1,815 yards. Tomlinson retired during the 2012 offseason as the NFL's fifth all-time leading rusher (13,684 yards). His 162 total touchdowns ranked No. 3 all-time, while his 145 rushing scores were No. 2 when he retired.

#8

Davey O'Brien
1935-38

- Heisman Trophy Winner
- Walter Camp Trophy Winner
- Maxwell Trophy Winner
- National Champion
- Held national records at the time

Davey O'Brien became the first person to win the Heisman, Walter Camp and Maxwell trophies as the nation's outstanding football player. After directing the Horned Frogs to the national championship in 1938, he was the first winner of the coveted Heisman to come from the Southwest Conference. He did it all – running, passing, place-kicking, returning kicks, punting and intercepting passes.

O'Brien held national records for number of punts returned in a season (58 in 1937); total punt and kickoff returns in a season (72 in 1937); and total punt returns in a career (116). He held many other passing and total offense records that slowly have been broken through the years. He led the nation in passing both in 1937 and 1938, and was the tops in total offense across the nation in 1938. The Horned Frogs' amazing quarterback threw a touchdown pass in every game in 1938. He played all but 14 minutes of the entire 1937 season.

#45

Sammy Baugh
1934-36

- Set multiple school records
- Sugar Bowl and Cotton Bowl Champion
- Unanimous two-time All-SWC Selection
- Consensus All-American
- Nine-time All-Pro

Perhaps no other player made a more powerful impact on football in the Southwest than did Slingin' Sammy Baugh of TCU during the 1930's. A flawless passer, a dandy punter and a gifted defensive back, the angular Baugh was called by Dutch Meyer "the greatest athlete I ever saw." Generally considered the first of the great passers in college football, all Baugh did was rewrite the SWC and TCU passing and punting record books and sprinkle in a few interception (not thrown but caught) marks for good measure.

Some of his school records stood for over 50 years. In three years (1934-35-36), Baugh, whose jersey was formally retired by TCU in 1993, deftly helped the Horned Frogs to 29 victories, a Sugar Bowl crown and a Cotton Bowl title. The Sweetwater, Texas native was a unanimous two-time All-SWC selection and a consensus All-American in 1936. He later became a nine-time All-Pro during his 16 illustrious seasons with the Washington Redskins. Baugh is a member of every collegiate and professional football hall of fame.

HOW IT'S TRACKED

TCU utilizes the database at Pro-Football-Reference.com to track modern day NFL #ProFrogs as well as their status as starters.

Frogs at the professional level are added to the guide at the conclusion of the preceding season, meaning newly graduated Frogs would appear in the media guide of the following season.

1936 SUGAR BOWL

Jan. 1, 1936 | 35,000
Tulane Stadium | New Orleans, La.

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
TCU	0	3	0	0	—	3
LSU	0	2	0	0	—	2

NEW ORLEANS, La. — Bernie Moore, coach of the LSU football team, was skeptical that TCU's 3 to 2 victory in the Sugar Bowl game was a conclusive test of the squads. "My conclusion of the game was that the slippery field eliminated at least 30 percent of the offensive power of both teams," he said. Dutch Meyer, coach of TCU, said he thought the contest before a capacity crowd of 35,000 was the "finest I've ever seen played in the rain."

Yesterday's "baseball score" game was a thriller which kept the spectators in their seats despite a slow rain which fell throughout the second half ... LSU scored in the second quarter after passes and runs brought the ball to the TCU two-inch line where it changed hands on downs. When (Sammy) Baugh attempted to pass from behind the goal line he stepped over the end zone, automatically giving LSU a safety for a two-point lead. The Texans came back in the same period to recover a Louisiana fumble on the Louisiana 40 and pushed down to the LSU 16. Taldon Manton then kicked a field goal from the Tiger 26. From that point on the game was a battle of mighty defensives.

TCU played most of the game minus the services of three of her brightest stars — Left Halfback George Kline, All-American Center Darrell Lester and Halfback Rex Clark ... Clark played only one down and that was by the courtesy of Coach Meyer who wanted the injured senior star to be able to say he played in the 1936 Sugar Bowl game ... Baugh made the longest run of the day — a 44-yard gallop.

1937 COTTON BOWL

Jan. 1, 1937 | 15,000
Cotton Bowl Stadium | Dallas, Texas

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
TCU	10	6	0	0	—	16
Marquette	6	0	0	0	—	6

DALLAS — With a sling-back attack that whipped over a field goal and two touchdowns in the first 25 minutes of play and with a sturdy defense that piled up the Marquette Golden Avalanche, TCU captured a spectacular football game here this New Year's Day. The score in the Cotton Bowl classic was 16-6.

So sudden, sharp and dazzling was the sweep of action of the battle that 15,000 spectators, who braved threatening weather, forgot the gray gloom of the afternoon. Led by Sammy Baugh, who out-passed and outplayed "Buzz" Buivid to cinch his claim to the title of the greatest passer of the season, the Texans uncorked an offense that flared into long gains both on the ground and in the air. Although it was Baugh who paced the attack and won the attention of the crowd, it was L.D. Meyer who did the real damage..

He scored all of TCU's 16 points. He kicked a 33-yard field goal for the first three points in the opening minutes. Before the first quarter had ended, Meyer collaborated with Sambo on a 55-yard pass-and-run gain for the first Frog TD, and in the second quarter he took an 18-yard heave from Vic Montgomery for the last score. Meyer even converted after the first touchdown.

A 60-yard punt return by Art Guepe in the first quarter accounted for all of Marquette's points.

1939 SUGAR BOWL

Jan. 2, 1939 | 50,000
Tulane Stadium | New Orleans, La.

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
TCU	0	6	6	3	—	15
Carnegie Tech	0	7	0	0	—	7

NEW ORLEANS, La. — It was with power, passes and kicking that the Christians made the two touchdowns and one field goal that enabled them to win, 15-7. Carnegie's most consistent method of attack was a bristling, quick-starting and hard-hitting offense, but it was with a brilliant 38-yard pass in the last seconds of the first half that the Skibos scored ... The second half started with the Pittsburghers leading, 7-6. The first time they got possession of the hoghide, the Frogs proved irresistible. Moving with giant strides, they went 80 yards and a touchdown on five plays.

TCU punted one time. That fact alone indicates accurately how fearfully effective was the ground-gaining maneuvers of the big white-shirted representatives ... The one punt figured in making TCU's first touchdown ... When the Skibos punted out, the TCU regulars took over and went 48 yards on 11 plays to take a 6-0 lead ...

Carnegie took the next kickoff and went to town with big, fast and tough George Muha doing most of the dirty work ... Earl Clark intercepted a pass and ran 25 yards to the Carnegie 35 yard-line, but Durward Horner, a TCU end, had been offsides so the play was called back ... It was on fourth down of this series of plays that Petey Moroz cut loose with his long fine pass for the Carnegie touchdown ...

The third quarter (Davey) O'Brien passed to Horner down the middle ... The end caught the ball between two Skibos, but evaded both of them and ran 24 yards across the goal line.

1942 ORANGE BOWL

Jan. 1, 1942
Burdine Stadium | Miami, Fla.

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Georgia	19	14	7	0	—	40
TCU	7	0	7	12	—	26

MIAMI, Fla. — In the wildest, weirdest football battle ever waged in this corner of the country, the Georgia Bulldogs outscored the courageous TCU Horned Frogs 40-26 ... Coach Wally Butts' fast team, well-equipped on ground and in the air, almost chased the Frogs off the field for 35 minutes... The score mounted to 40-7 with only a few minutes played in the second half.

But the Frogs are not quitters ... Everything was against them. They couldn't hold the enemy, they couldn't move themselves and they were battered and weary from their empty-handed efforts. But there was too much tradition behind those purple shirts. Suddenly, almost as if a fresh wind had blown into the stadium, the tide turned. They knocked over three touchdowns in rapid order. They turned back every Georgia thrust. The great comeback in the last 25 minutes saved the Frogs from humiliation.

Bruce Alford was the Frog star ... He blocked a punt, he made two great catches for touchdowns... After the rest period, Texas supporters hoped for a rally. But Georgia stepped out and banged 80 yards for still another touchdown that promised to make it a rout ... From that moment to the final gun it was the Bulldogs who held on and the Frogs who ripped.

1945 COTTON BOWL

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Oklahoma A&M	14	0	7	13	—	34

DALLAS — With speed, spirit and spiraling passes, the Cowboys of Oklahoma A&M completely outclassed the TCU Horned Frogs in the ninth annual Cotton Bowl football game here this crystal clear New Year's afternoon to win, 34-0. Except for the second quarter when they staved off repeated threats, the Frogs were never able to cope with the double-pronged attack ... The first touchdown, scored in the fifth minute, climaxed a 59-yard advance. The second whirled 61 yards, the third 62 yards, the fourth 40 yards and the fifth 66 yards .

The Frogs moved on the ground several times when in their own territory, but after crossing the 50-yard line they were always thwarted by the bulling tactics of the burly Cowboy line ... Only once did the Frogs get inside the A&M 35-yard line and that was on a pass interception.

Bob Ruff was the only TCU back who was able to gain with any consistency, although Jesse Mason did some good work for a short time.

Coach Dutch Meyer tried all kinds of defenses against the Aggies, including a seven-man line which moved fullback Cox into the line. None of them worked for more than a few minutes at a time. The Aggies were too good in too many different ways.

1948 DELTA BOWL

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — Trailing a hard-trying TCU team by nine points, the great Charley Conerly suddenly soared to the dramatic heights of football throwing expected of him. In just five minutes his rifle arm accounted for two touchdowns as the Confederates bested the Christians, 13-9, in the first Delta Bowl game.

In the closing minutes of the third period, Conerly launched a passing flurry that carried exactly 80 yards in eight plays ... The Frogs, still going strong, marched right back to the Rebel 37 where an intercepted pass sat Conerly up in business again. This time he threw only two passes...and they ate up just 63 yards to win the ball game.

In more ways than one, it was a tough game for the Frogs to lose... But they fumbled badly, losing the ball twice at crucial moments.

There were nine minutes yet to play and the Frogs gave the enemy fans a heart attack by holding the leather. Just six of them from their one-yard line, where Otis Kelvey was dropped on the kickoff, the Christians powered right up field for 59 yards... But the last threat died when Knox's pass was batted up and intercepted by the Ole Miss linebacker on the Reb 38.

1952 COTTON BOWL

Bowl MVP - Keith Flowers, FB

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL

TCU	0	0	7	0	—	7

DALLAS — TCU, distressingly flat except for one magnificent minute-and-half surge late in the third quarter, succeeded only in making it a masterpiece of frustration. And so the four-times-beaten Wildcats from the Bluegrass State thoroughly trounced the Southwest Conference champions before a capacity throng of 75,349 ... 20-7. Kentucky scored on two surges of 52 and 57 yards in the first and second quarters to post its 13-0 halftime lead.

Frogs, who had bogged down once on the four, wasted another 59-yard push to the 24 early in the second quarter. Here, Clark intercepted a Mal Fowler pass returned to the Kentucky 43 and the Wildcats tromped on from here for 57 yards and another touchdown in 11 plays ... TCU made its 48-yard move to the five after this and came back later in the quarter with its 51-yard march to the one all for nothing ... (Gilbert) Bartosh drew his first chance of the game ... Here Bartosh called a direct snap — back Bobby Jack Floyd went 43 yards for touchdown on the longest run of the day.

Against the wind in the fourth Bartosh guided the Frogs 40 yards ... The TCU command sent in McKown to punt and he obliged with his neat kick-out on the 8. But here, where holding 'em was imperative for TCU, Tom Fillion broke loose for 17 yards on a third-down-seven-to-go-play ... Kentucky held the ball, put TCU in the hole with the kick and Bartosh was spilled for losses.

DALLAS — The University of Mississippi Rebels, champions of the Southeastern Conference, spotted the TCU Horned Frogs, champions of the Southwest Conference, 13 points in the 20th annual Cotton Bowl football game before 75,000 spectators here this warm and sunny Monday afternoon and then swung back to win by the margin of a single point, 14-13 ... (TCU) actually lost the game for being in motion on a conversion effort.

They made the 14th point on the first try, but because a player was in motion, they had to try again from five yards farther back, and missed. They probably lost the game on the opening kickoff when quarterback Chuck Curtis made the mistake of receiving and running with the ball. He was so badly injured when tackled that he never returned to action ... In spite of the handicap, the Horned Frogs scored a touchdown in the first quarter and counted in the second to lead 13-0 before the Rebels got their first touchdown to make it 13-7 at the half ... Mississippi won the game in the 11th minute of the fourth quarter ... Billy Lott scored on a five-yard gallop around his right wing. The Rebs' winning move traveled exactly the same distance as their first touchdown parade: 66 yards ... The Frogs went 44 and 75 yards for their touchdowns.

DALLAS — Harold Pollard's four-for-four conversions and the blocking of Syracuse's third point-after-touchdown attempt by (Chico) Mendoza produced a 28-27 Cotton Bowl victory for TCU after 18 years of waiting. The Frogs had dropped five successive bowl appearances and had not recorded a post-season triumph since 1939. It was a moving offensive show all the way with the TCU passing providing a balance Syracuse couldn't stop and the Saltine Warriors riding powerfully on a running game spearheaded by the All-America halfback, Jim Brown. He gained 132 yards and was voted the game's outstanding back. The Frogs' All-American tackle, Norman Hamilton, was the one defender who came nearest to stopping Brown consistently and he was chosen as the game's outstanding lineman.

Syracuse scored in the last two minutes to give the game its touch of such hair-breadth closeness. For much of the afternoon it was TCU's game and a couple of times seemed on the verge of turning decisive.

There was a unique twist to the first-half scoring in that each team intercepted passes and then drove 70 yards to score and each recovered fumbles and pushed out short yardage for the second touchdowns.

DALLAS — The gentlemen operating the scoreboard had the easiest occupation in all land as the Southwest Conference champions (TCU) and the future generals (Air Force Academy) from Colorado Springs played the second 0-0 deadlock in the 23-year history of the New Year's Day classic ... It was the fourth tie game ever unreeled before a Cotton Bowl assemblage ... It was a disappointing final for both clubs. The Horned Frogs took the field bearing an 8-2 record. The Falcons were unbeaten in 10 games and had their season immaculate but for a tie with Iowa. The Frogs fumbled the ball on eight occasions and on three of these wasted possession. One of these came early in the final period and surely tried the composure of Coach Abe Martin as he saw the Falcons reclaim a bobble just eight steps from the Air Force Academy's end zone.

The field, covered by tarpaulin during the snow fall earlier in the week, was damp and contributed to the uneasy handling of the ball. The visiting Falcons also had difficulty retaining the sphere and lost control on three of their five fumbles. Jack Spikes attempted both of TCU's field goals, the first early in the opening period ... The Airmen offered their severest threat midway of the second quarter ... It was here that the Frog line gave its best performance, restraining the Silver and Blue on the six, the spot from where George Pupich missed a field goal.

HOUSTON — The Frogs were drowned, 23-7, by a deadly sprinkle of Clemson passes in a seven-minute period of the final quarter ... The sudden Clemson scoring flood washed away a 7-3 lead TCU carried into the fatal final period. A narrow margin, but one that, at the time, appeared enough to send the luckless Tigers down to their fourth straight bowl defeat ... Neither team had threatened seriously after Clemson's second quarter 22-yard field goal by Lon Armstrong, and TCU's lone touchdown, a 19-yard pass from Jack Redding to Harry Moreland with 5:45 left in the first half. Clemson had completed only one gaining pass all afternoon, that a 5-yard throw from Tiger quarterback Harvey White.

White must have spotted the silver lining in the gathering darkness for Tiger hopes. He took plenty of time behind the mammoth line and arched a long, high shot toward right end Gary Barnes, racing past TCU's Larry Dawson at the Frog 35. Armstrong added the extra point ... Two plays after the kickoff, Armstrong lassoed a pass from TCU quarterback Donald George ... From there, Lowndes Shingler, overwhelmingly voted outstanding back, came back to guide the Tigers for the final slap on the cheek to a proud TCU team which had gained wide respect as the class of the Southwest Conference, winning seven games to finish in a 3-way tie for the title.

EL PASO, Texas. — The Miners sulked off the field with a 10-point deficit at the intermission, but then pumped up Billy Stevens' arm and Joe Cook's foot and eventually deflated the Frogs, 13-12. Stevens, who gained second rank among the nation's passers this season, proved his stardom to TCU by racking up 208 yards on 21 pass completions, the most ever against an Abe Martin team. The skinny sophomore had only seven strikes in the first half as the ball-controlling Frogs rammed into a 10-0 lead. Stevens made the 31st annual post season game a vastly different story in the second half.

Stevens shot a 34-yard touchdown pass to 165-pound flanker Chuck Hughes and a startling comeback was begun ... The Miners drove 70 yards for a tying 21-yard field goal by Cook... Texas Western, a raging defensive team by this time, hopped on a TCU fumble at the Frog 29.

Cook kicked an 18-yard three-pointer FG four plays deep in the final period to boot the Miners into a 13-10 cushion. TCU's final two points were a gift. With 43 seconds left in the game ... The Miner quarterback raced back in his end zone for a safety ... The Frogs got their last chance. They could get only eight yards before the clock ran out.

Although Stevens won the great air race in the end, TCU's senior quarterback, Kent Nix got a head start.

David Smith hauling in Nix's 11-yard pass for the score ... The Frogs had another scoring opportunity in the first period ... (Bruce) Alford missed a kick from the 28.

HOUSTON — What had promise of being the exciting finish to an "unbelievable" season turned closer to a nightmare ... at least until TCU's dramatic, fourth-quarter comeback restored some degree of respect to the outcome in the 25th edition of the Bluebonnet Bowl. The final score was West Virginia 31, TCU 14. But for the Horned Frogs there were lots of dips and swerves along the way. For starters, a 21-point West Virginia blitz during a 14-minute span of the first half had somewhat of a sobering effect on the Purples. So did the loss of All-American running back Kenneth Davis, to a knee injury, in the early moments of the postseason classic.

After being shoved up and down the field by the Mountaineers' offense (355 yards), while countering with little punch themselves (148 yards) during the first 30 minutes, the Horned Frogs did make a contest of it after the intermission, scoring the only touchdown of the second half while mounting a couple of other drives which nearly resulted in points. Much of TCU's second half turnaround was due to the passing arm of senior Anthony Gulley who finished with 150 yards passing including TD tosses to Dan Sharp and Keith Burnett. Senior receiver James Maness caught five passes for 90 yards but was no match statistically for the six-catch, 152-yard performance of WVU lightning bug.

SHREVEPORT, La. — A decade slipped by before TCU's Horned Frogs resurfaced from oblivion into the post-season... The Frogs mostly slipped however, as they trudged and muddied themselves on the rain-drenched field of Independence Stadium... Some 27,242 fans – a majority of them TCU supporters – withstood the temptation to stay home ... The view became painstakingly clear no matter the vantage point ... Virginia proved too good for these upstart Frogs and captured its first bowl triumph in five attempts since 1987 with the 20-10 victory ... "We can't use the field as an excuse in any way," TCU coach Pat Sullivan said. "I couldn't be more proud of our football team, but we weren't quite good enough in a couple of ways."

The 15th-ranked Cavaliers (9-3) dominated at the point of attack, where so many games will be won or lost ... The Frogs and their Southwest Conference-leading offense, which averaged 411.6 yards per game during the regular season, sustained nothing on this chilly, wet night. Virginia, which entered the contest with the nation's No. 1-ranked defensive unit against the run, surrendered only 191 yards and 11 first downs to the Frogs.

The running of junior tailback Andre Davis, who rushed for 97 yards on 24 carries, failed to provide enough offense on a night when (quarterback Max) Knake struggled. "The truth of it is I played terrible," said Knake. "If I could have played better, there may have been a different outcome."

EL PASO, Texas — With only six wins, many thought TCU was not worthy of a bowl appearance. But, the Horned Frogs proved their critics wrong in a big way.

Basil Mitchell rushed for 185 yards and two touchdowns on only 19 carries as TCU earned its first bowl victory in 41 years with a 28-19 win over USC in the 65th Sun Bowl.

Quarterback Patrick Batteaux added 94 yards and two scores for TCU, which recorded its first post-season win since defeating Syracuse in the 1957 Cotton Bowl.

TCU (7-5) dominated the line of scrimmage, rushing for 314 yards while holding USC to a Sun Bowl record minus-23, breaking by two yards the mark set by Florida State in 1951. The Trojans (8-5) also posted the lowest rushing total in school history, eclipsing the previous record of minus-11 yards against Iowa in 1976.

Mitchell fell just short of Charles Alexander's Sun Bowl rushing record of 197 yards. He opened the scoring with a three-yard run 7:07 into the first quarter.

True freshman Carson Palmer completed 17-of-28 passes for a season-best 280 yards to rally USC.

The Horned Frogs put away the game by chewing more than six minutes off the clock before pinning USC inside its 15 with less than two minutes remaining.

MOBILE, Ala. — LaDainian Tomlinson ran for 124 yards and two touchdowns to lead TCU to a 28-14 victory over No. 20 East Carolina in the inaugural Mobile Alabama Bowl.

It was the second consecutive bowl upset for TCU (8-4). East Carolina (9-3) entered the game as six-point favorites.

That didn't bother the Horned Frogs, who completely shut down the Pirates' running game, holding them to minus-16 yards.

East Carolina went into the game focusing on stopping Tomlinson, whose 1,850 yards edged Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne for the NCAA Division I rushing title.

TCU, which alternated between quarterbacks Casey Printers and Patrick Batteaux, made it impossible for the Pirates to adjust.

Early in the first quarter, Printers gained seven yards on an option run to move TCU to the 2. Batteaux came in on the next play and pitched the ball to Tomlinson, who ran in for the touchdown. That tied the game at 7 and TCU slowly pulled away from there.

East Carolina, which couldn't run the ball at all against TCU, had to go to the air in the second half. It initially worked, but early in the fourth quarter, Russell Gary intercepted Garrard's pass and returned it 32 yards for a touchdown. That gave TCU a 28-14 lead with 14:04 to play.

Southern Miss	7	0	7	14	—	28

MOBILE, Ala. — Jeff Kelly's 28-yard touchdown pass to freshman Kenny Johnson with eight seconds left lifted Southern Miss to a 28-21 victory over No. 13 TCU in the Mobile Alabama Bowl.

In the first major bowl game of the season, TCU tailback LaDainian Tomlinson ran for 118 yards, his lowest total of the season. The Heisman Trophy finalist carried 28 times and scored two TDs in the third quarter.

Southern Miss (8-4) got a second chance after a fourth missed field goal, and trusted their senior quarterback instead of the shaky kicking game.

With 33 seconds left, they took over at the TCU 43-yard line after Mobile native Etric Pruitt got a hand on John Braziel's punt. Kelly threw two incompletions, then scrambled 14 yards for a first down. On the next play, he lofted a perfect strike over the middle just above safety LaVar Veale's outstretched arm, victimizing the nation's top defense.

The Horned Frogs (10-2) endured a December coaching change and uncertainty over who would lead them into the game. In the end, former defensive coordinator Gary Patterson replaced Dennis Franchione on the sidelines. Franchione left for Alabama Dec. 1 and was initially expected to coach the bowl game. TCU officials decided late last week to allow the Patterson era to begin a season early.

HOUSTON — Byron Jones intercepted three passes in his first start and Joe Weber scored two touchdowns, helping Texas A&M end a four-game bowl losing streak with a 28-9 victory over TCU (6-6) in the galleryfurniture .com Bowl.

The Aggies (8-4) beat their former Southwest Conference rivals for the 24th straight time.

Weber, voted offensive player of the game, broke a 7-7 second-quarter tie with a 2-yard touchdown run and added a 14-yard run that put the Aggies in control with 1:14 left in the third quarter.

TCU's Casey Printers was intercepted four times.

Jones earned MVP honors and also was the defensive player of the game with three tackles. Starting in place of injured Sean Weston, Jones had only two broken-up passes on his defensive chart in 11 games before he returned his first interception 62 yards in the first quarter to the Frog 35.

The Aggies couldn't score on that chance but Jones had a 15-yard interception to the TCU 1-yard line in the second quarter, setting up Mark Farris' quarterback keeper for the score.

Charlie Owens scooped up a fumble by A&M running back Derek Farmer and returned it 89 yards for a TCU touchdown with four minutes left in the half for a 7-7 tie. It was the second longest fumble return in school history.

Bowl MVP - LaTarence Dunbar, WR

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — TCU figured out how to stop Colorado State standout Cecil Sapp after just two runs in the Liberty Bowl.

Sapp reeled off big gains of 59 and 25 yards on the Rams' first two possessions, but had 22 yards the rest of the game, and TCU tailback Ricky Madison stole the show with 111 yards rushing and a touchdown as the Horned Frogs beat No. 23 Colorado State 17-3 Tuesday.

It was the Horned Frogs' 500th victory in school history.

Madison ran for 107 of his yards in the rainy second half as TCU's offense came alive after a sloppy opening by both teams.

In the first half, the teams combined for three lost fumbles, two interceptions, a missed field goal and an unsuccessful faked field goal. Their sloppy play made for the lowest scoring first half of a Liberty Bowl since Penn State led Tulane 6-0 in 1979.

TCU (10-2) finally put together a seven-play, 62-yard scoring drive led by Lonta Hobbs in the closing minutes of the second quarter. The freshman ran for 39 yards in the drive, capped when Sean Stilley threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to LaTarence Dunbar with 1:21 remaining to put TCU up 7-0 at the break.

The Rams were held to 89 yards rushing - compared with 197 for TCU - for their lowest total of the season. TCU also outgained Colorado State 338-149.

FORT WORTH — Ryan Dinwiddie, who ended his career as the most efficient passer in college football, threw for 325 yards and three touchdowns to lead the No. 18 Broncos (13-1) to a 34-31 win Tuesday night over No. 19 TCU in the inaugural Fort Worth Bowl.

Their bowl win on TCU's campus wasn't secured until sophomore Mike Wynn was well short on a 51-yard field goal attempt, the first kick in his college career, with 7 seconds left.

TCU (11-2) had its school-record 13-game home winning streak snapped. The Frogs had been in contention for a Bowl Championship Series spot until their only regular-season loss Nov. 20 and then turned down an invitation to last week's GMAC Bowl because it conflicted with exams.

Dinwiddie hit 19 of 35 passes with two interceptions, but his last touchdown was an 18-yarder to Derek Schouman for the winning score with 12:43 left.

"I thought we beat them on both sides of the football. Three big plays beat us," TCU coach Gary Patterson said. "There's a reason they've won a lot of games."

HOUSTON — Peter LoCoco hit a 44-yard field goal with 5:25 left in the game to put TCU on top 27-24 and the defense held Iowa State in check on the ensuing drive for the victory at Reliant Stadium.

The TCU defense forced four Iowa State turnovers and Robert Merrill reached the century mark in rushing yards for the 10th time in his career as he ran for 109 yards on 11 carries with a touchdown to help lead the Frogs to the win.

TCU scored on its opening two possessions for a 14-0 lead just 6:36 into the contest. The two touchdowns came in a 1:55 span. The Horned Frogs took the opening kickoff and drove 80 yards in 12 plays, capped by a 20-yard Merrill touchdown run.

On the second play of Iowa State's ensuing possession, Jeremy Modkins forced a fumble that was recovered by Drew Coleman, giving the Frogs possession at the Cyclone 21. Three plays later, an Aaron Brown 7-yard scoring run extended TCU's lead to 14-0.

Iowa State scored 17 points in a 4:30 stretch of the second quarter to take a 17-14 lead with 10:30 left in the first half.

The Cyclones' third turnover of the first half, a fumble recovery by David Roach, led to the Frogs going back on top. The first snap of TCU's ensuing series saw Jeff Ballard connect on an 84-yard touchdown pass to Michael DePriest to give the Frogs a 21-17 lead with 4:05 left.

SAN DIEGO — Penned in by a bunch of tough Horned Frogs, Garrett Wolfe had nowhere to run.

The national rushing leader was held to 28 yards, a whopping 130 below his average, and No. 25 TCU won a Poinsettia Bowl mismatch against Northern Illinois 37-7.

While Wolfe was repeatedly stuffed by one of the nation's best defenses, led by end Tommy Blake, Horned Frogs quarterback Jeff Ballard ran for three touchdowns and threw for another.

Ballard looked like more of a running back as he scored on runs of 10, 1 and 6 yards. He threw a 6-yard TD pass to tight end Brent Hecht and finished with 258 passing yards.

TCU's Lonta Hobbs rushed for 114 yards and one TD.

Wolfe came in leading the nation with an average of 158.3 yards rushing and 178.9 all-purpose yards.

The Horned Frogs, though, were fourth nationally in run defense after allowing only 67.6 yards per game. TCU kept alive its string of not allowing a 100-yard rusher, one of only four teams to do so this year.

Wolfe, who carried 20 times, came dangerously close to his career-low of 24 yards set in his first game, the 2004 season opener. The Huskies had only five first downs and 60 yards of total offense, compared to 23 first downs and 456 yards for TCU.

HOUSTON — Justin Watts had scored exactly one touchdown in his career at TCU before the Texas Bowl.

TD No. 2 marked the go-ahead touchdown early in the fourth quarter to help TCU to a 20-13 win over Houston.

The junior wove through the defense and danced into the end zone for an 8-yard touchdown run that made it 17-10 and gave TCU (8-5) its first lead of the game against its old Southwest Conference rival. He and Ryan Christian split carries against Houston (8-5) after starter Joseph Turner injured his knee in the first quarter and didn't return.

Quarterback Andy Dalton also ran for a touchdown for TCU. Dalton was 21-of-30 for 249 yards with one interception. Watts and Christian combined for 88 yards rushing on 12 carries.

A 15-yard leaping reception by Jimmy Young on third down kept the drive that ended in Watts' touchdown going. Young outjumped Carson Blackmon to grab the ball and managed to keep his left leg in bounds as he landed. It was initially ruled an incomplete pass, but the call was overturned after a review by officials.

The Cougars had a chance to tie it with less than 30 seconds to play but Case Keenum's pass sailed just beyond the fingertips of Jeron Harvey in the end zone. He had two more shots at the end zone, but the ball fell short on the first one and Chase Ortiz hit him as he threw the second one to end the game.

SAN DIEGO — Joseph Turner dove into the end zone for the winning score, and LaDainian Tomlinson went nuts on the sideline.

Turner's 17-yard run midway through the fourth quarter gave the No. 11 Horned Frogs their first lead of the night, during a 17-16 victory over No. 9 and previously undefeated Boise State in the Poinsettia Bowl.

BSU was trying to finish 13-0 for the second time in three seasons. The Broncos took a 10-0 lead on Ian Johnson's 20-yard touchdown run midway through the first quarter, but their high-scoring offense bogged down against TCU's fast, aggressive defense.

TCU piled up yards if not points until finally wearing down the Broncos' defense in the fourth quarter. The Horned Frogs moved 80 yards in 10 plays on the winning drive, with Turner finishing it off by shedding a tackle inside the 5-yard line and diving into the end zone for a 17-13 lead.

After Turner's TD, Boise State got to the TCU 14 before having to settle for Kyle Brotzman's 33-yard field goal to pull to 17-16.

The Broncos got the ball back with 6 seconds left on their 33 and tried to lateral the ball after a catch, but Jeremy Childs' desperation flip was grabbed by TCU's Matt Panfil.

TCU outgained Boise State 472 yards to 250.

PHOENIX, Ariz. — Boise State reached into its bag of tricks again and stunned TCU in a Fiesta Bowl duel of unbeaten BCS busters. It was the first time two schools from leagues without automatic BCS bids have met in one of college football's biggest bowls.

After the Broncos pulled off a gutsy fake punt at their own 33-yard line, Doug Martin scored the decisive touchdown to give No. 6 Boise State a 17-10 victory over third-ranked TCU.

A 10-10 stalemate came alive when punter Kyle Brotzman hit wide-open Kyle Efaw with a 30-yard strike with about 9 minutes to play. Four plays later, Martin dove over a tackler from 2 yards out as the Broncos became the second school ever to go 14-0, joining Ohio State in 2002.

The Broncos caught the Horned Frogs napping on the fake punt by Brotzman. Kellen Moore then completed three straight passes to advance to the 2, and Martin scored to put Boise State up 17-10 with 7:21 to go.

TCU took over at its own 1 with 1:06 remaining and marched to the Boise State 30 before cornerback Brandyn Thompson disrupted a pass by Andy Dalton, and Winston Venable picked it off to end the threat. Thompson set up the winning drive with his second interception of the game. He returned his first pick 51 yards for the game's first score.

TCU's touchdown came on a 30-yard pass from Dalton to Curtis Clay that pulled the Frogs to within 10-7 at halftime.

Bowl MVP - Andy Dalton, QB & Tank Carder, LB

PASADENA, Calif. — Andy Dalton threw a touchdown pass and ran for a score, linebacker Tank Carder swatted down a 2-point conversion pass attempt with 2 minutes to play, and No. 3 TCU completed a perfect season with its first Rose Bowl victory, 21-19 over fourth-ranked Wisconsin on Saturday.

Bart Johnson caught an early TD pass and recovered a late onside kick for the Mountain West champion Horned Frogs (13-0), who followed up their second straight unbeaten regular season by busting the BCS in dramatic fashion.

Dalton passed for 219 yards for TCU, which won't win the national title - that will go to either Auburn or Oregon. They meet in the BCS championship game in nine days.

Luke Shivers' 1-yard TD run put TCU ahead 21-13 early in the third quarter, but neither team scored again until Wisconsin mounted a 77-drive in the waning minutes. Montee Ball rushed for a 4-yard score with 2 minutes to play, but Carder made a perfectly timed leap at the line to bat down Scott Tolzien's throw to the end zone. The intended receiver was open in the end zone.

Dalton went 15 for 23 and rushed for a first-quarter score, winning the game's offensive MVP award. But the defense deserved the credit for hanging on when TCU couldn't score in the game's final 26 minutes.

Carder was the leader all game and the man at the end.

SAN DIEGO - Casey Pachall and the TCU Horned Frogs are headed to the Big 12 Conference on an eight-game winning streak.

Pachall highlighted a record-setting game with a 42-yard touchdown pass to Skye Dawson with 4:26 left to lift No. 16 TCU to a 31-24 victory against Louisiana Tech in the Poinsettia Bowl on Wednesday night.

It was the eighth straight victory for Mountain West Conference champion TCU (11-2), which moves to the Big 12 next year. It was the third time this season TCU overcame a fourth-quarter deficit to win, including a 36-35 victory at Boise State on Nov. 12, the Broncos' only loss.

Pachall was 15 of 29 for 206 yards. He set school single-season records with 228 completions, 2,921 yards and a completion percentage of 66.5, breaking marks previously held by Andy Dalton.

On the winning play, the sophomore took the snap in the shotgun and Dawson ran past safety Chad Boyd to pull in the long pass.

The Horned Frogs, who beat Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl last season, had hoped to make it to a BCS bowl for the third straight season.

TEMPE, Ariz. — Dan Conroy kicked a 47-yard field goal with 1:01 left, Le'Veon Bell ran for 145 yards, and Michigan State rallied to beat TCU 17-16 in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl.

Michigan State labored through the first half before going on a 90-yard march capped by Connor Cook's 15-yard touchdown pass to Aaron Burbridge in the third quarter. The Spartans recovered a muffed TCU punt at the 4-yard line midway through the fourth quarter, and Bell scored two plays later by racing around left end for a 14-13 lead.

TCU rallied to set up Jaden Oberkrom for a 53-yard field goal but left Conroy too much time for his second straight postseason game-winner.

Bell, who entered the game as the nation's third-leading rusher, had nowhere to go early on. Filling holes inside and stringing plays out toward the sidelines, TCU stuffed the back on nearly every touch, holding him to 38 yards on 11 carries in the first half. MSU produced only three first downs and 76 total yards in the opening stanza.

The Frogs started gashing the Spartans for decent-sized chunks with their option midway through the first quarter, setting up Matthew Tucker's 4-yard touchdown on an end-around.

Oberkrom followed with a 47-yard field goal and added another from 31 yards after Trevone Boykin hit Josh Boyce on a 61-yard pass to put TCU up 13-0 at halftime. Boykin threw for 201 yards for TCU.

Bowl MVP - Trevone Boykin, QB & James McFarland, DE

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Ole Miss	0	0	0	3	—	3
TCU	14	14	14	0	—	42

ATLANTA — No. 6 TCU rode three touchdown passes from Trevone Boykin and a dominant defense to a 42-3 rout of No. 9 Ole Miss in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

Josh Doctson had two touchdown catches and Aaron Green ran for a score and added a touchdown reception for the Horned Frogs (12-1).

Bo Wallace threw three interceptions, including one caught in the Rebels end zone by defensive end James McFarland for a touchdown.

The action was as lopsided as the score. TCU finished with 423 yards and allowed only 129 to Ole Miss. The Rebels were held to 9 yards rushing in the biggest margin of victory in Peach Bowl history.

Ole Miss ranked first in the nation with its average of only 13.8 points allowed. Turnovers and TCU's quick-strike offense were too much to overcome. Wallace completed only 10 of 23 passes for 109 yards.

Late in the first half, Wallace tried to avoid a safety when pressured in his end zone by tossing the ball away, but McFarland snatched the ball up before it hit the turf for an instant touchdown and a 28-0 lead Wallace was sacked five times - all in the first half.

The rout continued in the third quarter as Boykin threw a touchdown passes of 27 yards to Doctson. The scoring catch moved Doctson past Reggie Harrell's team-record total of 1,012 yards receiving in 2003.

Bowl MVP - Bram Kohlhausen, QB & Travin Howard, LB

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
Oregon	21	10	0	0	10	41
TCU	0	0	17	14	16	47

SAN ANTONIO — Bram Kohlhausen's 8-yard touchdown run in the third overtime carried No. 11 TCU to a wild 47-41 victory over No. 15 Oregon in the Alamo Bowl as the Horned Frogs stormed back from a 31-0 halftime deficit behind a backup quarterback. The 31-point comeback to win tied the record for a bowl game, matching Texas Tech in the 2006 Insight Bowl against Minnesota.

Oregon stormed to the big lead early behind quarterback Vernon Adams Jr., but he was knocked out of the game late in the second quarter. Kohlhausen started in place of TCU's Trevone Boykin and passed for 351 yards and two touchdowns and ran for two more scores.

After trailing 31-0 at halftime, TCU scored on all of its possessions in the second half and overtime. The Horned Frogs started their march back with 17 points in the third quarter, twice scoring touchdowns on fourth down. Kohlhausen threw a touchdown pass to Jaelen Austin, then ran 2 yards for his first score. Jaden Oberkrom's 22-yard field goal with 19 seconds left tied it, and TCU scored first in the first overtime when Kohlhausen hit Emanauel Porter for a 7-yard touchdown. Oregon answered with Royce Freeman's third touchdown run.

After the teams exchanged field goals in the second overtime, Kohlhausen sneaked around the right end on an option, and seemingly disappeared behind his blockers until he was in the end zone. TCU's 2-point conversion pass attempt failed, but Oregon's final chance to tie and keep the game going ended with an incomplete pass on fourth down near the goal line.

TCU	9	7	7	0	—	23

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - No matter how difficult it was to find running room early on, Georgia kept trying to establish its ground attack.

That stubborn approach eventually paid off.

Nick Chubb and Sony Michel combined to rush for 229 yards and two touchdowns Friday as Georgia came from behind in the fourth quarter to beat TCU 31-23 in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

Chubb rushed for 142 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries, while Michel ran for 87 yards and a score on 16 attempts.

Held in check for much of the game, Chubb closed the third quarter with a 48-yard burst that set up Rodrigo Blankenship's field goal to put Georgia ahead 24-23 with 13:27 left. Chubb then rushed for 57 yards in the final period, including a 13-yard touchdown with 2:48 remaining.

Missed opportunities proved costly for the Horned Frogs, who led 16-7 in the first half and carried a 23-21 advantage into the fourth quarter.

Kenny Hill threw a pair of touchdown passes to John Diarse and also ran for a third score.

SAN ANTONIO — Kenny Hill passed for two touchdowns, ran for another and even caught one as No. 13 TCU rallied from a big early deficit to beat 15th-ranked Stanford 39-37 in the Valero Alamo Bowl.

Cole Bunce's 33-yard field goal with just over 3 minutes to play won it for the Horned Frogs (11-3), who trailed 21-3 before storming back behind big plays from Hill and a 76-yard punt return from Desmon White. TCU rallied from 31 down to beat Oregon in the 2016 Alamo Bowl.

Stanford (9-5) running back Bryce Love, a Heisman Trophy finalist, rushed for 145 yards and had a 69-yard touchdown run in the third quarter. K.J. Costello had three touchdown passes to J.J. Arcega-Whiteside, the last one giving Stanford a 37-36 lead.

Hill then drove TCU to Bunce's game-winner. The Horned Frogs defense sealed it with an interception by Innis Gaines with 2:01 left.

Hill finished with 314 yards passing, a team-high 60 yards rushing and caught a 27-yard TD pass from White in his final game.

PHOENIX — Following an interception by Jawuan Johnson on Cal's possession in the first overtime, Jonathan Song hit a 27-yard field goal to lift TCU to a 10-7 victory in the Cheez-It Bowl at Chase Field.

Sewo Olonilua ran for a TCU bowl record 194 yards on a career-high 32 carries to earn Cheez-It Bowl Offensive MVP honors in a game that was a defensive slugfest.

The Horned Frogs had five of those interceptions from five different players, tying for the single-game high in head coach Gary Patterson's tenure.

Cal scored first on a 4-yard touchdown by Chase Garbers in the first quarter, but picks by Julius Lewis, Niko Small and Jeff Gladney kept the deficit to a minimum heading into the locker room at halftime.

TCU got on the scoreboard with three seconds remaining in the third quarter when Olonilua powered his way into the end zone from the 1-yard line to tie the game and set up Song's game-winner in overtime.

The victory gives the Frogs a winning record for the 15th time in Patterson's 18 years as head coach at TCU as they finish the 2018 campaign at 7-6.

GLENDALE, Ariz. — TCU led from start to finish in a thrilling 51-45 win over Michigan in the College Football Playoff at the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl in Glendale, Ariz.

Leading 51-45 with 52 seconds to play and Michigan beginning a series at its own 25, TCU held the Wolverines without a first down to secure the victory.

The Horned Frogs' defense came up big again early against Michigan. On the first snap, Bud Clark had a 41-yard interception return for a touchdown to give TCU a 7-0 lead. Dee Winters, the Defensive MVP, later added another Pick 6 for the Frogs. TCU's defense again made an impact in the second quarter. With Michigan having a 1st-and-goal at the 1, a fumbled handoff was recovered in the end zone by Clark for a touchback.

The Frogs took their largest lead of the game at 41-22 on a Max Duggan 1-yard run with 49 seconds left in the third quarter. Emari Demercado rushed for a career-high 150 yards, including a career long 69-yard carry to set up a 1-yard Duggan scoring run to give TCU its biggest lead of the game at 41-22 with 49 seconds left in the third quarter.

Quentin Johnston earned Offensive MVP honors after totaling six catches for 163 yards, including a 76-yard touchdown.The Horned Frogs totaled 488 yards of offense against a Michigan defense that entered the game allowing just 13.4 points and 277.1 yards per game.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. — Josh Hoover broke TCU's season record for passing yards and threw for four touchdowns to lead TCU to a 34-3 win over Louisiana on Saturday afternoon in the Isleta New Mexico Bowl.

The Horned Frogs started fast, scoring on their opening four possessions and five-of-six to build a 27-0 halftime lead.

TCU (9-4) closed its season with a four-game winning streak and victories in six of its final seven games.

Hoover completed 12 straight passes in one stretch and broke the TCU season mark for yards with a 20-yard scoring toss to JP Richardson with 57 seconds left in the first half to give the Horned Frogs their 27-point lead at the break. Hoover's 3,949 yards surpassed the previous mark of 3,901 by Trevone Boykin in 2014.

A dominant TCU defense limited the Ragin' Cajuns to just 209 yards with nearly half that total (96 yards) coming in the fourth quarter when the game was decided.

Eric McAlister was Hoover's favorite target with eight receptions for 87 yards, including a 1-yard touchdown in the back of the end zone on a 4th-and-goal play in the first quarter. It came after a Hoover scramble to avoid a sack.

SAN ANTONIO – The Legend of the Alamo.

Ken Seals, in his first start in his final game as a TCU Horned Frog, led a furious rally from an 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to an overtime victory over No. 16 USC to add to TCU's storied history of thrillers in the Alamo Bowl.

Facing 3rd-and-20 in the game's first overtime period, having watched USC's explosive offense held to a field goal, Seals dumped the ball off to running back Jeremy Payne who proceeded to make one defender miss, then another, and another, and yet one more. Payne's feet stayed in bounds, and it was all purple daylight from there to send the partisan TCU crowd into a frenzy.

TCU moved to 3-0 in the Alamo Bowl, and in each game, the good guys have trailed by at least 10 points.

The Frogs managed just 35 total yards of offense compared to 40 yards of penalties in the third quarter and trailed 24-14 with 9:37 to go. Then, Seals and the offense went on an 11-play, 75-yard drive to draw it to within a field goal, capped by Payne's first score of the game.

On USC's ensuing possession, attempting to salt away the game, TCU was able to force a punt. Seals and the offense, cool as ever, went 59 yards on 13 plays to setup Kyle Lemmerman's 27-yard field goal as time expired to tie the game and force overtime.

And with Bram Kohlhausen watching along from the sidelines, new legends of the Alamo were born.

BLOCK T HALL OF FAME

There are currenty 167 individuals and one complete team inducted into TCU's Block T Hall of Fame. In order to be considered for the Hall of Fame, a nominee must be ten years removed from their playing career, and nominations are reviewed by a Selection Committee comprised of former athletes, current Hall of Fame members, and TCU coaches and administrators.

THE PLACE

Texas Christian University is a major private teaching and research university with the residential, person-centered environment usually found on a small college campus. While accomplishing its mission of educating individuals to think and act as ethical leaders and responsible citizens in the global community, the University provides the unique TCU experience.

The mission of Texas Christian University, a private university, is to educate individuals to think and act as ethical leaders and responsible citizens in the global community through research and creative activities, scholarship, service, and programs of teaching and learning offered through the doctoral level.

Founded in 1873, TCU has grown from a small school on the cattle frontier to a major center of independent higher education in a dynamic city.

A community dedicated to learning, the University affirms its commitment to rationality, objectivity, diversity, freedom of inquiry, creativity and civility.

Education fosters the capacity for rational decision-making, creative thinking and expression, and responsible living.

STRATEGIC PILLARS

Inspired by our core values, TCU's new strategic plan, LEAD ON: Values in Action™, is built upon four foundational pillars and crafted through the active engagement of over 10,000 voices in the Horned Frog community.

PILLAR 1: STUDENT-CENTERED GROWTH

At TCU, students come first. We nurture an engaging learning environment where students can thrive academically, personally and professionally. We aim to create more of the values-based leaders the world needs by thoughtfully growing enrollment while maintaining a high standard of student-centered experiences that prepare students for success in their careers and for meaningful lives of impact and purpose.

PILLAR 2: RESEARCH, SCHOLARSHIP & CREATIVE ACTIVITIES

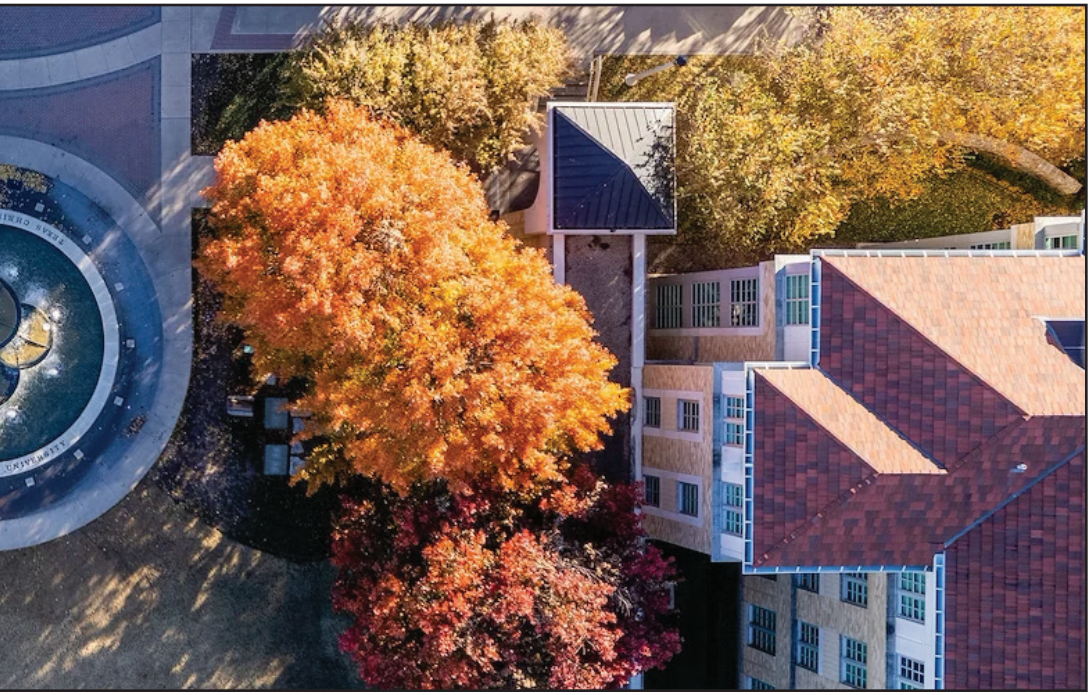

With a commitment to curiosity and innovation, TCU fosters a research culture that encourages academic discovery, creativity and scholarship across disciplines. We aspire to grow as a leading center for research and creativity, drive new knowledge, inspire interdisciplinary connections and make a lasting impact on society.

PILLAR 3: ATHLETICS

Excellence and integrity are at the heart of TCU's athletics programs. This pillar underscores our dedication to building athletic programs that embody TCU values, shaping student-athletes into leaders on and off the field. We aspire to lead nationally in collegiate athletics, celebrating not only our achievements but also our commitment to sportsmanship, teamwork and community spirit.

PILLAR 4: COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

With a deep commitment to our community, TCU seeks to strengthen meaningful connections that drive social and economic development both locally and beyond. Through collaborative initiatives, we strive to be a valuable community partner and a resource for change, fostering partnerships that make a lasting difference in the lives of our neighbors and our students alike.

FORT WORTH

Discover the Modern West

The City of Cowboys & Culture is the 10th-largest city in the United States with a population of 1,028,117 as of 2025. It is the fourth largest city in Texas. Fort Worth is part of the No. 1 tourist destination in Texas, welcoming 8.8 million visitors annually.

Nicknamed Cow Town and Funky Town, Fort Worth is comprised of seven primary entertainment districts each offering distinct dining, shopping, entertainment and cultural amenities. In only a few days, you can enjoy a range of experiences from NASCAR racing to rodeos,world-class museums to cowboy cuisine, boutique shopping to the nation's No. 1 ranked zoo, biking to horseback riding.

Fort Worth is conveniently located 17.5 miles from DFW International Airport. With over 1,800 flights daily, DFW Airport serves as a gateway for visitors from around the globe, making Fort Worth an easily accessible international and domestic leisure destination.

The heart of downtown Fort Worth is Sundance Square, a 35-block shopping and entertainment district where you'll find a multitude of restaurants, shops, galleries and performance venues.Fort Worth restaurants offer everything from Tex-Mex and barbecue to world-class cuisine.

Once home to cowboys, cattlemen and outlaws, today the Stockyards National Historic District is one of the most popular attractions in Texas. Day and night, visitors come to the Stockyards to get a taste of the true American West.

THINGS TO DO

Fort Worth combines open-air experiences, independent shops, live music, and an ever-evolving dining and nightlife scene.

If history and landmarks spark your interest, be sure to visit the iconic Fort Worth Stockyards, where you can explore vintage buildings from the Old West and watch the twice-daily cattle runs (which count among the most popular attractions in Fort Worth). If you're in a museum mood, head to the Stockyards Museum, where you can learn the whole history of the Fort Worth Livestock Exchange and how cattle-raising helped build this city into a thriving Texas metropolis.

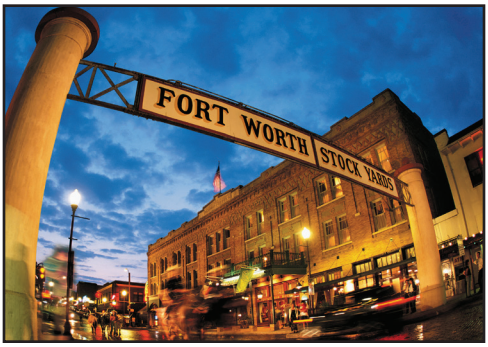

In Downtown Fort Worth, explore 37 blocks of art, dining, retail and entertainment, then unwind with free live music in Sundance Square Plaza Wednesday–Sunday.

Fans of art museums can also find plenty to entertain them; popular art museums in Fort Worth include the Kimbell Art Museum, where you can see works from Michelangelo, Picasso, Monet, and Matisse. The Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth (designed by famed Japanese architect Tadao Ando) includes pieces by Andy Warhol, Jackson Pollock, and Mark Rothko in its collection.

If you're into nature, explore the nationally-acclaimed Fort Worth Zoo, the Trinity Trails and other attractions in our handy outdoor activities itinerary. There's no shortage of things to do in Fort Worth.

DANIEL PULLIN

UNIVERSITY CHANCELLOR

2ND SEASON AS CHANCELLOR | OKLAHOMA '98

Daniel W. Pullin, an accomplished educator, leader and innovator, became Texas Christian University's 11th Chancellor on June 1, 2025. Guided by an entrepreneurial spirit and a steadfast commitment to student success, Chancellor Pullin is dedicated to advancing TCU's mission, vision and values. His early career in world renowned business organizations, combined with two decades of higher education experience, uniquely positions him to lead TCU into a future of continued excellence and impact.

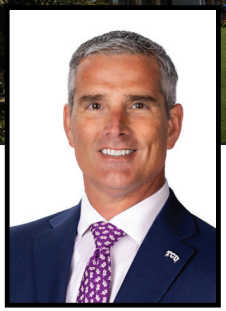

Before becoming Chancellor, Pullin served as the John V. Roach Dean of the Neeley School of Business and later as TCU President. Bringing operational expertise and a culture of innovation to the university's leadership team, he spearheaded the development of a new strategic plan. Launched in January 2025, LEAD ON: Values in Action is a bold, values-centered roadmap designed to build on TCU's momentum and elevate student success, academic achievement and institutional impact. Shaped by the input of more than 10,000 stakeholders, TCU's strategic plan aims to strengthen the university's excellence by: 1) Enhancing the student experience through student-centered growth; 2) Elevating academic distinction through significant increases in research, scholarship and creative activities; 3) Achieving excellence across athletics in support of student-athletes and programs; and 4) Expanding community engagement in Fort Worth and beyond.

In the first year of LEAD ON: Values in Action, TCU surpassed several major milestones. The university's endowment exceeded $3 billion for the first time in its history; first year enrollment rose 12.3% for fall 2025; research and creative activities expenditures set new university records; major investments in emerging technologies and a campus-wide AI framework are underway; and continued success across athletics programs is enhancing engagement, audience growth and international visibility. The university is also investing in campus enhancements to support strategic growth, with new residence halls coming in fall 2027 that will provide 2,450 additional beds. TCU is currently ranked in the top 100 national universities by U.S. News & World Report. Known for its unmatched student experience, TCU is ranked No. 1 for Happiest Students, No. 2 for Best Quality of Life, No. 3 for Best Run Colleges and No. 4 for Most Beautiful Campus, among other top national rankings from The Princeton Review.

Chancellor Pullin is committed to civic and higher education leadership, serving on the Fort Worth Economic Development Partnership Executive Council, Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, Dallas Regional Chamber Board of Advisors and is a member of Valliance Bank Board. He actively engages with industry leadership groups, including Big 12 Conference presidents, Independent Colleges and Universities of Texas (ICUT), the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges (AGB), the Education Advisory Board (EAB) University Presidents Roundtable and the CCI University Presidents Roundtable. He is honored as one of Fort Worth, Inc's 500 Most Influential People in Fort Worth and D CEO Magazine's 500 Most Influential Business Leaders in North Texas.

Pullin earned undergraduate degrees from the University of Oklahoma and an MBA from Harvard Business School before returning to OU to earn a Juris Doctor. Chancellor Pullin and his wife, Ann Bluntzer Pullin, Ph.D., are avid sports fans and enjoy attending TCU fine arts and athletic events with their family.

MIKE BUDDIE

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

2ND SEASON | WAKE FOREST '93

Mike Buddie became TCU's ninth Director of Intercollegiate Athletics on January 1, 2025, bringing decades of leadership experience across Division I athletics. Since arriving in Fort Worth, Buddie has worked quickly to elevate TCU Athletics on the national stage.

Impact at TCU

During Buddie's tenure, beach volleyball captured its first NCAA National Championship, while women's basketball won the Big 12 Championship and advanced to the Elite Eight for the first time in program history. Buddie secured the program's future by extending the contracts of championship-winning head coaches Hector Gutierrez and Mark Campbell.

That trend continued into his first fall on campus when women's soccer advanced to the College Cup for the first time in program history as head coach Eric Bell was named the national coach of the year by Top Drawer Soccer. Football also secured a final top-25 finish, following a thrilling overtime victory in the 2025 Valero Alamo Bowl over No. 16 USC, for the first time since 2022.

His first full season at the helm of the Horned Frogs (2025-26) coincided with TCU's highest-ever finish in the Learfield Director's Cup rankings, coming in at No. 33 nationally.

In November 2025, Buddie's influence expanded beyond campus when he joined TCU Chancellor Emeritus Victor J. Boschini, Jr. as the newest members of the Armed Forces Bowl Executive Council. He is also an active member of the board of the Davey O'Brien Foundation.

The momentum carried through to March when Campbell's Frogs repeated as the undisputed champions of the Big 12 and were chosen to host the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament yet again. It also marked the first time in program history that both TCU's men's and women's basketball programs participated in March Madness in the same season.

Success at the United States Military Academy (West Point)

Before TCU, Buddie served more than five years as Director of Athletics at Army West Point (2019-24), where he guided Army Athletics to historic success. The Black Knights' football program earned a College Football Playoff ranking in 2024, winning a program-record 12 games, tying the best single-season mark for any service academy.

Buddie also launched the "Fruits of Victory" strategic plan in September 2023, strengthening the cadet-athlete experience and enhancing leadership development. His tenure included major facilities investments, highlighted by the $170 million Michie Stadium Preservation Project, the largest private gift-funded construction initiative in West Point history.

He secured football-only membership in the American Conference in 2024, where Army went undefeated in its debut season and won the league championship while remaining a contender for the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy. The Black Knights won or shared the CIC Trophy in three of Buddie's five seasons.

Buddie played a central role in Army West Point's television contract with CBS, expanded bowl partnerships, extended a long-term deal with Nike, and served nationally as Chair of the Division I Baseball Committee. He also retained top coaching talent, extending contracts for head football coach Jeff Monken and several Patriot League Coach of the Year award-winners.

Leadership at Furman University and Wake Forest

Before West Point, Buddie spent four years as Director of Athletics at Furman (2015-19), where he negotiated a major Nike partnership, delivered the school's first balanced athletics budget, and helped return the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament to Upstate South Carolina in 2017. He secured significant financial gifts, including three separate $1 million endowments, and oversaw 26 Southern Conference Championships.

Earlier in his career, Buddie spent a decade at Wake Forest as senior associate athletic director for administration and development (2003-15). He supervised multiple sports, including baseball, women's soccer, and men's golf, and worked closely with the football and men's basketball programs.

Playing Career and Education

A 1993 Wake Forest graduate with a degree in communications, Buddie was a standout pitcher for the Demon Deacons. He was selected by the New York Yankees in the fourth round of the 1992 MLB Draft and went on to pitch for the Yankees and Milwaukee Brewers from 1998 to 2002. He was a member of the Yankees' 1998 World Series Championship team.
