GRIZ PLAY 'MOST-COMPLETE' BASKETBALL ON SPECIAL NIGHT

MISSOULA, Mont. – On an emotional night that saw the return of former coach Blaine Taylor and a pregame presentation celebrating the life and career of Delvon Anderson, Montana put together its best basketball of the season, defeating UC Irvine, 86-68. The 18-point victory matches Montana's largest of the season and improves the Griz to a perfect 5-0 at home.

With the win, Montana is also guaranteed a winning non-conference record for the first time since 2011-12, a feat especially impressive considering the level of competition Montana has faced.

"Tonight is the first time we've put 40 minutes together on both sides of the ball," head coach Travis DeCuire said. "Our energy and the way we played together, and the way we executed on both sides of the ball, was incredible. I don't know that we've played this well as a group, as a unit, since I've been here."

Two nights after he set career highs with 17 points and 12 rebounds, junior Jamar Akoh elevated his game another notch, scoring 23 points on 7-of-12 shooting. He also had seven rebounds, three assists, a steal and a blocked shot.

Akoh continues to get better each game as a Grizzly, but another player who had a career night was freshman Timmy Falls. Playing a career-high 22 minutes off the bench, Falls was a perfect 4-of-4 from three-point range, totaling 14 points. He also had a couple no-look passes that brought the largest crowd of the season to its feet, and took a charge on defense.

"We expect it from him," DeCuire said. "I think he was tuned in and had a good practice yesterday. Sometimes as a freshman, it's very difficult to accept new roles. For him to bounce back right now, going into Christmas break, is huge."

Falls entered the contest with just 12 points all season.

Montana shot above 50 percent for the second consecutive game – and fourth straight game at home – connecting on 32 of 61 shot attempts (52.5 percent). Led by Falls, Montana also shot a season-best 46.7 percent from deep, connecting on seven treys. Seven different players scored at least seven points in the victory.

On the glass, Montana out-rebounded the Anteaters, 37-29. UC Irvine entered the night ranked No. 2 nationally for rebounding and had been out-rebounded just twice this season. Their 29 rebounds were a season low.

"Shoutout to Brandon (Ronan), our strength coach," DeCuire said. "I definitely think we're stronger, and I think the biggest difference for us is the fact that we're rebounding by committee. We're not getting broken down by penetration, but we're keeping guys out of the paint and are forcing them into bad shots."

Fifteen of Montana's 37 boards were on the offensive glass, continuing a season-long trend. The Grizzlies converted those into 19 second-chance points. The Griz also had 19 points off of 15 UC Irvine turnovers.

Montana used a 13-4 run midway through the first half to gain some separation, and led by 10 at the break, despite getting just six combined points from its top-two scorers on the season. Michael Oguine scored 12 points in the second half to finish with 16, while Ahmaad Rorie chipped in with eight, in addition to a team-high four assists.

Rorie had four points and an assist and Oguine had seven points and a steal during an 11-0 Grizzly run that pushed the lead to 19, 52-33, with 14:28 to play. Montana would lead by as many as 23 and never by fewer than 15 from that point forward.

Prior to the game, the Grizzlies recognized former player Delvon Anderson, who passed away in August at the age of 47. His family was on the court during a video ceremony and DeCuire and Taylor presented them with the Legend of the Game plaque – an award given to a former player or coach from each participating team in the 2017 Legends Classic tournament.

"In all honesty, after the ceremony I was ready for the night to end," DeCuire said. "It took a lot of energy to get to this point today, and I think it did the same to Blaine. But it was a meaningful moment. It meant a lot to me and I think our program to be able to celebrate someone who hasn't been celebrated, and someone who played a very meaningful role to this program."

DeCuire and Anderson played together in the early 1990s and Taylor was their coach. He is Montana's winningest coach in school history (.680 winning percentage) and is now an assistant coach at UC Irvine. During Anderson's two-year career at Montana, the Grizzlies won back-to-back Big Sky Conference championships. He was the conference MVP as a senior in 1992.

Next up, the Grizzlies will prepare for their non-conference finale at Washington. The Huskies lost No. 1 overall NBA Draft pick Markelle Fultz from last year, but have already matched last year's win total from the entire season, sitting at 9-3.

MONTANA BASKETBALL

MONTANA CLOSES NON-CONFERENCE SLATE FRIDAY AT WASHINGTON, A HOMECOMING FOR SEVERAL

Coming off of its most-complete performance of the season – and perhaps in the entire four-year tenure of Travis DeCuire’s career – Montana is playing with continuity and confidence entering its non-conference finale, Friday at Washington.

“I think that’s as well as we’ve played in a long time,” DeCuire said following Tuesday’s win over UC Irvine. “For us to go out and be that explosive offensively and to execute on defense like we did . . . It was the longest stretch I’ve seen this team execute with five bodies in the right places and playing hard at the same time.”

In a matter of 54 hours, the Grizzlies recorded victories over UC Riverside and UC Irvine – and both were impressive. Against the Highlanders, Montana scored 86 points on 50-percent shooting while limiting the visitors to a 38.5-percent clip – a season low for a UM opponent. Two days later, against the Big West favorites, Montana was dominant against UC Irvine, not only scoring 86 points on 52.5-percent shooting, but also playing top-notch defense that included three shot-clock violations and two 10-second whistles.

Montana is beginning to find its rhythm, and being at home for a full week for the first time all season played a role, DeCuire said. The next step is taking this growth and turning it into a consistent product.

“I think it was a sign of growth. The biggest thing for us was how we defended and how we were able to execute on the defensive side of the ball, because if you can do that every night you can give yourself a chance to win no matter who you play.”

Already guaranteed of its first winning non-conference mark in six seasons, Montana will now look to knock off a hot Washington Huskies squad. The Huskies are off to a 9-3 start and have already matched last year’s entire season win total.

“This is a tough game to prepare for,” DeCuire said. “We’ve been playing against a lot of zones, but not a zone like theirs. It’s almost like smoke and mirrors. Are they guarding me or not? Are they in the passing lanes? Can I drive? You don’t know what’s there, so we have to be able to move them around before we attack the paint or shoot too quickly. Our offense needs to be on point.”

The game will be special for several Grizzlies, not just because it’s another game, or a game against a Pac-12 opponent on national TV.

“For me personally, I grew up in Seattle,” DeCuire said. “It’s where I started my coaching career, it’s where I have family. A lot of our guys are that way.”

Four players are from the state of Washington, including Tacoma natives Bobby Moorehead and Ahmaad Rorie. In Montana’s meeting at Washington two years ago, Moorehead had a then-career-high 10 points vs. the Huskies. Rorie has played the Huskies twice, while a freshman at Oregon in 2014-15, scoring six points on 3-of-5 shooting and adding three assists in a contest at Alaska Airlines Arena.

Current Griz Donaven Dorsey, a native of Lacey, Wash., who played two seasons at the University of Washington, played against Rorie in those meetings with Oregon. Dorsey will miss Friday’s game as he recovers from season-ending hip injuries. Also redshirting is walk-on Peter Jones, a forward from O’Dea High School in Seattle.

The connection isn’t just with the players, however. Assistant coach Rachi Wortham is also from Tacoma and played a season at Tacoma Community College before transferring to, and later coaching at, Eastern Washington. DeCuire is from Seattle and has spent more than half of his life in that area, either as a prep player, high school coach or educator. The non-profit that he founded, Fastbreak Basketball Association, is also based in Seattle, transforming from a 13-player AAU team from Tacoma into an entire non-profit.

GoGriz.com will have an in-depth look at Montana’s connection to the Pacific Northwest on Thursday.

SERIES VS. THE HUSKIES

Aside from Gonzaga and Washington State, Montana has played the Huskies more than any other non-conference Division-I opponent, meeting for 54th time on Friday. The Huskies lead the all-time series, 44-9, but Montana has had some bright spots.

The Grizzlies won five of six meetings between 1982-83 and 1994-95, including three in a row during Travis DeCuire’s playing career.

“Those games were always emotional, because I wasn’t recruited by them,” said DeCuire, a Seattle native. “It’s kind of like how I coach, with a chip on my shoulder. Our team was like that. I had every reason to be revved up for those games.”

The three-game win streak featured two home wins, sandwiched between an overtime win in Seattle that DeCuire still relishes. As he recalls, the Grizzlies trailed by 11 with a minute to play. It was the first year that the clock stopped after a made basket, so Montana went into foul mode.

“It was the longest minute I’ve ever been a part of,” DeCuire said. “They missed some foul shots and we’d come down and scored, quickly in transition, off of ever missed free throw. I think it was Gary Kane who might have hit the shot to send it into overtime, and then we won it overtime.”

The series between Montana and Washington dates back to 1923-24, and the two teams played two times most seasons through 1940-41, including as Pacific Coast Conference mates for a short stretch. The series picked back up in 1961-62 and continued semi-regularly through the end of DeCuire’s playing career (20 meetings in 34 seasons).

The two teams have played five times since then, including in the 2005 NCAA tournament in Boise, Idaho. The Huskies won that meeting by 11 to snap Montana’s three-game winning streak in the series and have won the last five in the series overall. The Grizzlies gave the Huskies a run for their money in 2013-14, falling by four on the road in a game in which Montana missed a free throw with 12 seconds remaining that would have tied the game. The two teams also met in 2015-16 with DeCuire at the helm. In the loss, Michael Oguine had 22 points and nine rebounds, also adding five assists. Bobby Moorehead had 10 points while Fabijan Krslovic added nine points and two steals.

SCOUTING WASHINGTON

- Washington is off to a 9-3 start to the season, winning seven of its last eight games, including vs. No. 2 Kansas on Dec. 6 in Kansas City.
- The Huskies are led by freshman Jaylen Nowell, the cousin of Montana head coach Travis DeCuire. Nowell is averaging 17.3 points on .510 shooting.
- Junior Noah Dickerson is nearly averaging a double-double with 16.0 points and 8.0 rebounds per game. He has made 63 percent of his shots (27th in Division I).

MONTANA BASKETBALL

- David Crisp is the team's top deep threat, connecting on 26 three-pointers (35.1 percent). The junior is averaging 13.0 points per game and has a team-most 43 assists and 33.3 minutes-played-per-game average.
- Junior Matisse Thybulle is also in double figures for scoring (11.2), but his defense is most impressive. Thybulle is the nation's leader with 42 steals. He also has 21 blocked shots.
- As a team, UW ranks 19th in Division I for steals (9.1 per game) and 28th for blocked shots (5.6).
- The Huskies get to the line frequently, attempting the eighth-most free throws in Division I (317). They are shooting 68.1 percent and rank 16th for total free throws made.
- Washington averages 81.8 points per game, 58th in Division I.
- After winning nine games all of last season, the Huskies have already matched that win total.
- Six of UW's nine wins have come by 10 points or fewer.
- The Huskies are under the direction of first-year head coach Mike Hopkins, formerly the top assistant under Jim Boeheim at Syracuse. In 22 seasons with the Orange, Syracuse advanced to postseason play all but one season, including four Final Four appearances.

STARTING STRONG

Back-to-back home victories this week improved Montana's overall record to 7-4, marking the team's best 11-game start to a season since the 2010-11 squad began the year with a 10-4 mark en route to a 21-win season.

The victory over UC Irvine also guaranteed a winning non-conference record for the first time in six seasons, dating back to 2011-12. In fact, despite a storied history that is littered with conference championships and post-season berths, this season marks just the fifth time since the turn of the century that the Grizzlies have posted a winning non-conference mark. The other times were in 2005-06, 2009-10, 2010-11 and 2011-12 – with Montana advancing to the NCAA tournament three of those seasons and the CBI in 2011.

The feat is even more impressive considering the level of competition Montana has faced thus far. The Grizzlies have played three Power-5 opponents (Pitt, Penn State and Stanford, all on the road), and will face a fourth this week at Washington. The Grizzlies also played six of their first nine games away from home, with an additional road game at No. 23 UCLA being canceled once the team was already on site. In addition to the Power-5 opponents, UC Santa Barbara is off to a 9-3 start while UC Irvine was predicted to win the Big West and Georgia State was selected to finish second in the Sun Belt.

DOMINANT DEFENSE

Two nights after Montana's defense held UC Riverside to 38.5-percent shooting (a season low for a UM opponent), the Grizzlies' strong defense was on full display. In an 18-point win over UC Irvine (Dec. 19), Montana's defense forced 15 turnovers, including three shot-clock violations and two 10-second whistles.

FRESHMAN FALLS

Timmy Falls scored 12 points through Montana's first 10 games of the season before breaking out vs. UC Irvine (Dec. 19). The freshman played a season-most 22 minutes off the bench and scored 14 points, including 4-for-4 shooting from three-point range. Falls also had several no-look passes and took a charge on defense.

HONORING DELVON

Prior to Montana's game vs. UC Irvine (Dec. 19), the Grizzlies recognized former player Delvon Anderson, who passed away in August at the age of 47. His family was on the court during a video ceremony and DeCuire and former head coach Blaine Taylor presented them with the Legend of the Game plaque – an award given to a former player or coach from each participating team in the 2017 Legends Classic tournament.

DeCuire and Anderson played together in the early 1990s and Taylor was their coach. He is Montana's winningest coach in school history (.680 winning percentage) and is now an assistant coach at UC Irvine. During Anderson's two-year career at Montana, the Grizzlies won back-to-back Big Sky Conference championships. He was the conference MVP as a senior in 1992.

Throughout the season, players have worn No. 24 warmup jerseys, honoring Anderson. Additionally, a black stripe has been displayed on the left shoulder of all jerseys, recognizing Anderson and former head coach Jud Heathcote.

TRENDING

- Montana is undefeated at home this season (5-0).
- The Grizzlies are a perfect 7-0 when leading at halftime compared to 0-4 when trailing.
- Montana is 5-0 when opponents score fewer than 70 points.
- Montana is 5-1 when shooting more free throws.

BE LIKE MIKE

Junior guard Michael Oguine, a third-team All-Big Sky selection in 2016-17, has scored in double figures in all 11 games this season, including 29 in a win at Pitt (Nov. 13).

Oguine ranks second on the team for scoring (15.3 points per game). Despite standing at just 6-2, he also ranks second for rebounding, averaging 5.4 boards per game. He also ranks second for assists (24) and steals (15), and is tied for the team lead with 11 blocks.

AKOH TAKING OVER

The Grizzlies had high hopes for Jamar Akoh, a transfer from Cal State Fullerton who redshirted a year ago. In his first two games, however, he combined for just four points and two rebounds, being limited to 28 total minutes due to foul trouble.

Since those first two games, Akoh has begun to take over down low, averaging 13.1 points and 7.6 rebounds, shooting 60.6 percent. He has seven double-figure scoring games during that nine-game span, including two double-doubles. Most recently, he had seasons highs of 17 points (9-for-9 from the free-throw line) and 12 rebounds against UC Riverside (Dec. 17) and a career-high 23 points vs. UC Irvine (Dec. 19).

ALL-AROUND RORIE

Ahmaad Rorie played in all 40 minutes vs. UC Santa Barbara and ranks 17th nationally for minutes played per game (36:49). He also ranks highly, however, for points (17.8 per game) and steals (1.7 per game). In fact, Rorie is one of 11 NCAA Division I players to rank in the top 130 nationally for both points and steals.

MORE MOOREHEAD

Bobby Moorehead struggled offensively for much of his sophomore season in 2016-17, averaging 3.9 points per game on .320 shooting. The junior has turned things around in 2017-18, however, ranking third on the team for points (9.1), second for minutes played (34.3) and shooting at a .400 clip.

In Montana's recent win over UC Riverside (Dec. 17), he scored six points in a 10-second span to spark a 17-0 Griz scoring run. In the previous game, at Georgia State (Dec. 9), Moorehead hit back-to-back three-pointers to get the Griz within a single possession. At Stanford (Nov. 29), he scored 11 consecutive UM points in the second half to give the Griz a 40-37 advantage.

He is tied for the team lead for three-pointers (20), ranks third for assists (16), steals (13) and rebounding (5.1 per game), and fourth for blocked shots (seven).

FORCING TURNOVERS

Montana has forced more turnovers than its opponents eight times this season, also tying Penn State with 15 apiece. The Grizzlies' aggressive defense, which focuses on getting deflections, ranks 19th nationally with 17.64 turnovers forced per game and 37th nationally with a +3.7 turnover margin.

On three occasions, Montana has forced 20 or more turnovers in a game, and in a win at Pitt (Nov. 13), the Grizzlies forced the Panthers into 19 turnovers, converting them into 30 points – an average of 1.58 points per turnover.

CRASHING THE GLASS

Montana has out-rebounded its opponents in nine of its last 10 games, which is particularly impressive considering three of those contests have come against Power-5 teams and another came against a UC Irvine team that ranked No. 2 nationally for total rebounds.

Well over one-third of Montana's rebounds have come from the offensive end (36.7 percent). That number was 28.6 percent a year ago. Michael Oguine, UM's second-leading rebounder, has more offensive boards (31) than defensive (28), as does freshman Karl Nicholas (19 to 11). Over their last seven games, the Grizzlies have out-rebounded their opponents 98-53 on the offensive glass. They are averaging 13.09 offensive rebounds per game this season (29th in NCAA). Nearly one-fifth of Montana's points have been second-chance opportunities (160 points; 19.7 percent).

WELL CONDITIONED

Montana has three players who rank among the top 100 for minutes played. Ahmaad Rorie is averaging 36:49 per game, including all 40 vs. UC Santa Barbara (Nov. 21). Fellow juniors Bobby Moorehead (34:16) and Michael Oguine (33:49) are also among the nation's leaders. In fact, Montana is one of 10 Division-I schools nationally to have three players average 33:49 per game or better.

Montana has used a small rotation, with just eight players averaging at least 10 minutes per game and six with more than 13. Twelve different Grizzlies played at Penn State (Nov. 15), but just six played more than 7 minutes. It was the same two nights prior at Pitt (Nov. 13), as Travis DeCuire used the same five players throughout the final 7:34 of the second half and all 5 minutes of overtime.

CHARITY STRIPE

Montana shot a season-best 80.8 percent from the free-throw line at Georgia State (Dec. 9), making 21 of 26 attempts, and in its next game, vs. UC Riverside (Dec. 17), made a season-most 24 shots. Over the past four games, the Grizzlies are 75-of-107 (74.8 percent); they were shooting 62.5 percent (95-of-152) through the first seven games.

DYNAMIC DUO, PART I

Junior guards Michael Oguine and Ahmaad Rorie enter Friday's contest each averaging more than 15.0 points per game, both ranking in the top 300 of all NCAA Division I scorers.

Oguine has scored in double figures in all 11 games, while Rorie has accomplished the feat nine times – including 20-plus on six occasions.

STOUT DEFENSE

Montana is allowing its opponents to shoot at too high of a percentage, particularly from the three-point line. However, the Grizzlies are doing a good job of preventing teams from getting shots.

- 17.6 turnovers forced per game: 19th in NCAA
- +3.7 turnover margin: 37th
- 7.7 steals per game: 63rd
- 4.5 blocked shots per game: 72nd

HOME SWEET HOME

The Grizzlies hold a perfect 5-0 mark at home this season. Over the past two decades, Montana has begun a season with five or more consecutive home wins three times, including twice in the past three seasons under Travis DeCuire.

Montana has won more than 80 percent of its contests in Dahlberg Arena over the past decade, going 109-25 (.812) since the start of the 2008-09 season. All-time, the Grizzlies boast one of the best home-court advantages, going 683-240 (.740) in their home arena.

50-PLUS

In each of its last four homes games, Montana has made at least 50 percent of its shots, shooting 56 percent vs. Carroll (Nov. 26), 52 percent vs. CSUN (Dec. 3), 50 percent vs. UC Riverside (Dec. 17) and 53 percent vs. UC Irvine (Dec. 19). During those four games, the Griz are averaging 83.75 points per game and a 15.75 margin of victory.

RUNNING FROM THE START

Montana led start to finish in its win over UC Riverside (Dec. 17), using a 9-0 run to begin the game and a 17-0 run early in the second half. The Grizzlies held the Highlanders without a basket for the first 6 minutes, 20 seconds, jumping out to a comfortable lead. After UC Riverside scored on its first shot attempt of the second half, the Grizzlies held them without a point for 6:23, going on 17-0 run. Montana led by as many as 29 points in the game and never trailed, holding the Highlanders to 38.5-percent shooting, a season low for a UM opponent, including 21 first-half points (the fewest in a half this season by a UM opponent).

ROAD WARRIORS

The Grizzlies have already traveled more than 11,500 miles – taking two trips to the East Coast and three flights to the state of California. Through the first 30 days of the regular season, Montana was on the road for 19 of them.

- Following a season-opening win over Whitworth (Nov. 10), Montana was on a plane nine hours later for a six-day trip to the state of Pennsylvania (Nov. 11-16).
- After back-to-back games against Power-5 opponents (Pitt and Penn State), Montana had two home practices before flying to California to continue the Legends Classic (Nov. 19).
- The Grizzlies returned from California and had two practices in Missoula to prepare for Carroll (Nov. 26).
- Montana had just one day in between its game against Carroll and flying to Stanford (left on Nov. 28).
- Montana returned from its trip to Stanford and had two home practices before hosting CSUN (Dec. 3).
- Following its win over CSUN, the Grizzlies had one day at home before flying to UCLA and Georgia State for a six-day road trip (Dec. 5-10).

NARROW DEFEATS

Montana has already reached its highest non-conference win total in six seasons, but the Griz can't help but wonder, 'What if?' as well. Of Montana's four losses, the Grizzlies have led or been within a single possession late in the second half in all four.

- At Penn State (Big Ten), Montana held early leads and was within a single possession, 58-55, with under 4 minutes to play.
- In the championship game of the Legends Classic Malibu Region, Montana overcame a 18-point deficit to take the lead, including 48-46 with 12:51 remaining.
- At Stanford (Pac-12), Montana held multiple second-half leads, including by as many as six points, 50-44, with under 10 minutes on the clock.
- Montana overcame a 17-point halftime deficit at Georgia State, tying the game and having the ball with under a minute to play.

BUCKING THE TREND

Penn State entered its Nov. 15 contest vs. Montana ranked seventh nationally, averaging 13.0 steals per game. The Grizzlies protected the ball, however, limiting the Nittany Lions to just three steals. A week later vs. UC Santa Barbara, Montana was going up against a Gauchos squad that ranked fifth nationally, turning the ball over just 8.0 times per game. The Griz defense was active and stingy, forcing UCSB into 21 turnovers – nearly three times its season average.

Montana once again bucked the trend against UC Irvine (Dec. 19), out-rebounding the Anteaters, 37-29, despite UC Irvine entering the contest ranked No. 2 nationally for rebounding (42.3 per game). It was held to its lowest total of the season.

FINALLY A SATURDAY

Montana will play at least 11 games on Saturdays this season – more than any other day of the week. However, the Grizzlies didn't play a Saturday game until Dec. 9, a full month into the season. Only Oklahoma played more games to begin the season without a Saturday game.

GAME CANCELED

Montana was scheduled to play five teams from Power-5 conference this season, but the Grizzlies' contest at UCLA (Dec. 6) was canceled due to wildfires that were spreading throughout the area and shut down UCLA's campus. The Griz held one practice at Pauley Pavilion and scheduled another at a nearby gym in Los Angeles, before departing for Atlanta to take on Georgia State. Ironically, there were talks of that game being canceled as well when a rare snowstorm took over the southern region of the United States and closed Georgia State's campus.

NICHOLAS FINDING HIS FORM

Travis DeCuire had high expectations for Karl Nicholas, but the freshman was limited early in the season due to foul trouble. Through his first three career games, Nicholas averaged just 7.7 minutes per game, picking up four fouls in each contest.

The Texas native had a breakout week in Malibu, Calif., however, playing 18 minutes vs. Oral Roberts (Nov. 20) and 28 minutes vs. UC Santa Barbara (Nov. 21). Nicholas averaged 10.5 points per game over the two contests, connecting on 10 of 15 shot attempts. He also added nine rebounds in the two games.

CLUTCH RORIE

Junior guard Ahmaad Rorie has scored in double figures nine times this season, averaging 18.8 points per game. The point total is impressive, but more impressive is when he is scoring. Six of Rorie's 18 points at Pitt (Nov. 13) came in the overtime period, while two nights later at Penn State (Nov. 15), he had four points, a steal and an assist during a 9-0 UM run to cut the Grizzlies' deficit to a single point, 51-50, midway through the second half.

The all-conference performer was on full display again vs. Oral Roberts (Nov. 20), scoring a team-high 18 points, in addition to six assists and three steals. Trailing 17-16 with 8 minutes to play in the first half, Montana closed the half on a 15-6 run. Rorie had nine points and two assists during that run, contributing to six of UM's eight made field goals. He was again clutch late, knocking down both free-throw attempts with 22 seconds to play to increase Montana's lead to two possessions.

Rorie was named to the Legends Classic Malibu Region All-Tournament team after playing 75 of 80 minutes and totaling 38 points, 12 assists, seven steals and six rebounds.

OGUINE RECOGNIZED BY COLLEGE SPORTS MADNESS

Junior guard Michael Oguine was the College Sports Madness Big Sky Player of the Week for games played Nov. 13-19. Oguine scored a career-most 29 points in a signature victory at Pitt (Nov. 13) and then two days later at Penn State (Nov. 15), totaled 15 points and grabbed seven boards in a narrow loss to the Nittany Lions.

A SIGNATURE VICTORY

After coming close, but not close enough, multiple times against Power-5 teams, Montana finally got over the hump and knocked off Pitt on Nov. 13 in Pittsburgh. The win snapped Montana's 14-game losing streak against Power-5 schools and was the school's first since 2010. It marked Montana's first over a team currently in the ACC since 1966.

Montana led for nearly 24 minutes against Pitt, including by as many as seven points. Below are key stats that led the Grizzlies to their signature victory:

- Montana forced Pitt into 19 turnovers, turning them into 30 points. Two of the turnovers were offensive charges, one taken by Karl Nicholas and another by Fabijan Krslovic. Krslovic finished with a team-most nine rebounds, two blocked shots and two steals.
- Montana out-rebounded Pitt, 39-38, including 14-12 on the offensive glass.
- The Grizzlies held the lead for 23:46, compared to 14:07 for the Panthers.
- Montana overcame foul trouble – three players finished the game with four fouls – and a slow start at the free-throw line. The Grizzlies began the game just 4-for-11 from the charity stripe before finishing 12-of-14 down the stretch – including 10 makes in a row at one point – to put the game out of reach.
- After trailing by a game-most seven points, 28-21, with under 5 minutes to play in the first half, Montana closed the half on a 16-7 run to head into the intermission leading by two, 37-35.
- The Grizzlies started the game 0-for-7 from three-point range before Ahmaad Rorie hit back-to-back threes late in the first half. Bobby Moorehead followed with two more, giving the Grizzlies 12 consecutive points off of three-pointers and a 33-32 advantage.
- Trailing by four, 69-65, with under 3 minutes to play, Montana went on an 8-2 run over the next 2 minutes to take a 73-71 advantage. Oguine scored all eight points for the Griz.
- After alternating baskets to begin overtime, Montana scored to take a 79-77 lead and then held Pitt without a made field goal over its final three attempts.

PARTIAL ARRIVAL

Montana's win at Pitt (Nov. 13) was huge for the program. The Grizzlies knocked off an ACC team that has played in 13 of the last 16 NCAA tournaments, on its home court no less. Pitt entered the contest with a 135-5 all-time mark in non-conference games at the Petersen Events Center and had never lost a home opener in the building.

The victory, however, will mean little if the team doesn't use it as a springboard into the rest of the season, particularly in March.

"We want to win these games in November so we can win these games in March," Travis DeCuire said afterward, noting that he schedules games like these in order to prepare his team for Big Sky Conference action and, hopefully, the postseason.

BIG-GAMER OGUINE

Junior guard Michael Oguine scored a career-high 29 points in Montana's win at Pitt (Nov. 13), but more impressive than the 29 points or team-most five assists was the fact that Oguine took over when it mattered most.

He scored 16 of his points in the final 8:32 of regulation, including Montana's final 10 points overall. Trailing 67-63 with 4:32 to play, Oguine out-scored Pitt's entire team, 10-4, to give Montana a two-point lead in the final minute of regulation.

"Mike's one of those guys where when he's mad he's better," Travis DeCuire said. "If he thinks it's time to put everybody on his back, he's going to get it done. He carried us when we needed him to."

100 AND COUNTING

Nov. 13 was a special night for the Montana basketball program, but for two Grizzlies in particular.

Fabijan Krslovic played in his 100th consecutive game. The senior from Australia has played in every UM game since the start of the 2014-15 season (now 109, including 92 starts). Additionally, the game against Pitt was Travis DeCuire's 100th game as head coach. The former Griz player was 59-41 following the signature victory, the fifth-best mark through 100 games out of Montana's 25 head coaches. DeCuire has led Montana to a 2014-15 regular-season conference title and back-to-back appearances in the Big Sky Conference tournament championship game (2015 and 2016).

STARTING STRONG

Montana's wins over Whitworth (Nov. 10) and Pitt (Nov. 13) gave the Grizzlies their first 2-0 start to a season since the 2009-10 squad began the year with three consecutive wins. That team finished with a 22-10 record, winning a Big Sky championship and advancing to the NCAA tournament.

WORKING OVERTIME

Montana won its first overtime game in nearly two years on Nov. 13, defeating Pitt, 83-78. Prior to that, Montana's last overtime victory was a double-overtime win at Northern Arizona on Dec. 31, 2015. The Grizzlies lost both overtime contests in 2016-17.

GOING SMALL

One of the expected strengths to Montana's roster this year is its height compared to a year ago. The Grizzlies have three players listed at 6-8 or taller compared to just one a year ago (UM also has three players 6-8 or taller who are redshirting this season).

However, several times this season Travis DeCuire has gone with a smaller lineup. The smaller unit allowed Montana to go on a second-half run in its season opener vs. Whitworth (Nov. 10) and has allowed the team to spread the ball better and quicker.

HOME-OPENING SUCCESS

With Montana's win over Whitworth (Nov. 10), the Grizzlies improved to 15-3 in home openers since the turn of the century.

DEBUTING

Montana's season opener vs. Whitworth (Nov. 10) marked collegiate and UM debuts for several Grizzlies. Junior Jamar Akoh, a transfer from Cal State Fullerton, earned the start. Also seeing consistent time were freshmen Timmy Falls and Karl Nicholas. In the final minute of the game, Travis DeCuire inserted Admir Besovic, Niko Bevens and Lars Espe.

LOOKING AHEAD

After posting its best non-conference winning percentage in at least six seasons, Montana will turn its attention to what is expected to be a competitive Big Sky schedule. First up is a trip to NAU and Southern Utah.

MONTANA BASKETBALL

PRESEASON NOTES

RETURNING TALENT

The Grizzlies have the pieces to contend this season, returning three of their four consistent starters from 2016-17, in addition to a pair of guards – Sayeed Pridgett and Bobby Moorehead – who each started about one-third of last year's contests.

In total, Montana returns the majority of its production in all aspects of the game, bringing back its top two scorers, and four of its top five. On the other end of the floor, Montana had six players with 90 or more rebounds a year ago; five of them are back on the court.

NEW GUYS COMING IN

While Montana returns the majority of its production from a year ago, the team also turned over roughly half of its roster, with several newcomers expected to slide in and fill roles immediately. The Grizzlies signed six freshmen, in addition to sophomore JUCO transfer Niko Bevans.

- Admir Besovic – Originally from Bosnia and Herzegovina, has spent the past two seasons at the Virginia Episcopal School in Lynchburg, where he averaged 11.2 points and 6.8 rebounds last year as a team captain.
- Niko Bevans – As a freshman at North Idaho College, led the Cardinals to an NWAC Eastern Conference championship by making 50 percent of his three-point attempts.
- Lars Espe – 2016-17 Young Player of the Year in the BLNO, Norway's premier professional basketball league.
- Timmy Falls – 2016-17 East Bay Athletic League MVP.
- Peter Jones – Played in 26 games as a senior at O'Dea High School, averaging 4.8 points per game.
- Kelby Kramer – No. 2 prep prospect from the state of Wyoming, being named to USA Today's All-USA Wyoming Boys Basketball Team
- Karl Nicholas – As the 17th-best prep prospect from the state of Texas, was named the 2016-17 Texas District 22-6A MVP.

DYNAMIC DUO, PART II

Montana boasts one of the top duos in the Big Sky with junior guards Ahmaad Rorie and Michael Oguine. The two combined to score well over one-third of the team's points a year ago, also ranking No. 1 and 2 for minutes played.

A transfer from Oregon, Rorie made a name for himself during his first season in the league, earning second-team All-Big Sky honors. He started all 31 contest, and led the Grizzlies in minutes (32.5 per game), points (17.6), assists (97), field goals made (192), three-pointers (63) and free-throw percent-age (.833). His 1.2 assist-to-turnover ratio helped Montana have the 12th-fewest turnovers in Division I in 2016-17.

After recording the second-most points ever for a Montana freshman, Oguine followed up his debut season with an even better sophomore campaign. He averaged 11.9 points per game – including 13.3 during conference play – and shot .481 from the floor. He ranked second on the team for points, re-bounds (6.0 per game) and steals (37), and earned third-team all-conference honors.

Both players have been named to various publications' preseason all-conference teams, with Rorie being one of six players selected to the official preseason All-Big Sky team voted on by the league's coaches.

FABULOUS SENIOR

Montana's lone senior is Australian Fabijan Krslovic, who entered the season having played in 100 consecutive games – starting 83. Krslovic was Montana's top rebounder in 2016-17, with more than one-third of his boards coming on the offensive glass. He also led Montana with 15 steals and 20 blocked shots and was one of just three Big Sky players to rank in the top 15 in the conference for both categories.

Krslovic will admit he's not the most athletic player on the court, but he's consistent and is the glue of the team, according to the coaching staff. After being forced to be more of a center last year because of Montana's lack of height, he will now transition into a more natural role as a 6-8 forward.

ADDED HEIGHT

A year ago, Fabijan Krslovic (6-8) was the Grizzlies' tallest player, which forced him to play a different role as Montana's only true post player. This year, he is one of five players at 6-8 or taller. It was a conscious effort by DeCuire, looking to add more height and depth to his team's roster.

Admir Besovic (7-0) and Kelby Kramer (6-10) are still raw as true freshmen, adjusting to the quicker style of play in the college game, but both can play a true center position. Kramer is more of a shot-blocker and rebounder, while Besovic has the ability to clog the lane and make it tough for opposing offenses to penetrate to the rim.

Montana believes it has a solid low-presence combination of Krslovic and transfer Jamar Akoh, and also has 6-8 Karl Nicholas, who can be an athletic force on both ends of the court.

MORE RETURNING TALENT

In addition to Montana's senior and pair of all-conference guards, the team returns three other players, including Sayeed Pridgett and Bobby Moorehead.

As a true freshman, Pridgett earned 11 starts and ranked ninth in the Big Sky with a .524 field-goal percentage. He was also the team's third-best rebounder (3.9 per game) and ranked fourth on the team for points (8.1 per game) and assists (44). In his second collegiate season, Moorehead started 10 games and averaged 2.8 rebounds per game while adding 3.9 points, 10 total steals and nine blocked shots. Sophomore guard Trever Spojka is also back. The Billings native saw action in eight contests as a redshirt freshman, totaling 10 points on 3-of-7 shooting.

STARTING THEM YOUNG

Montana is one of 11 NCAA Division I schools nationally to have at least nine newcomer and just one senior.

Kentucky leads the nation with 12 newcomers and zero seniors, while Auburn has a dozen newcomers and one senior. Tennessee, Toledo and Wofford each have 10 newcomers and one senior, while Montana, Bowling Green, Holy Cross, Kansas State, Louisiana Tech and Oklahoma have nine new players and one expected graduate.

DORSEY TO MISS SEASON

The Grizzlies will be without junior forward Donaven Dorsey this season. Dorsey, who redshirted in 2016-17 after transferring from the University of Washington, suffered a pair of hip injuries that require separate surgeries. The first was performed on Oct. 23. He played in 55 games over two seasons with the Huskies, earning eight starts. He totaled 166 points and 77 rebounds.

PICKED TO FINISH 3RD

Montana has high expectations for itself, and those who follow Big Sky basketball feel similar. In the preseason polls, Montana was picked to finish third by both the coaches and media. The Grizzlies were slotted to finish behind Idaho and Weber State in both polls (complete listing on Page 9).

Travis DeCuire said being picked to finish in the upper echelon is a sign of respect, but he and his team have their own set of goals, especially after winning a regular-season championship in 2015 and playing in the conference tournament title game in both 2015 and 2016.

TOUGH SCHEDULE

A year ago, Travis DeCuire believed he compiled the most-challenging schedule in program history, facing an all-Division-I slate. This year, it may be even tougher. The Grizzlies open the season with 13 non-conference games, five of which are against Power-5 teams. The team's first road trip is at Pitt (ACC) and Penn State (Big Ten) – part of the prestigious Legends Classic. The tournament will continue the following week in Malibu, Calif., as Montana takes on Oral Roberts and either UC Santa Barbara or host Pepperdine.

The Grizzlies will get their air miles several weeks later, traveling to Georgia State, in addition to three contests against Pac-12 foes – Stanford, UCLA and Washington. The Bruins are ranked in the AP pre-season top-25 poll.

In Missoula, Montana will host Cal State Northridge, Carroll, UC Irvine, UC Riverside and Whitworth. The 18-game league schedule will begin Dec. 28 and include home-and-home contests against Montana State, North Dakota, Northern Arizona, Northern Colorado, Portland State, Sacramento State and Southern Utah. Montana will also will travel to Eastern Washington and Idaho, and will host Idaho State and Weber State to close the regular season.

The Big Sky Conference tournament will be held in Reno, Nev., for the final year before moving to Boise, Idaho, next spring.

TEAM BONDING IN COSTA RICA

The Grizzlies got a head start to the basketball season, taking a foreign tour to Costa Rica in early August. The NCAA allows for teams to participate in such trips once every four years. The trip was beneficial in several facets. In addition to key bonding time – being in a foreign country with your teammates and being able to partake in several activities, including pool time and a zip line through a jungle – and service initiatives – the team spent a day at an orphanage, playing sports with the children and reading to them – the team also competed in a pair of scrimmages and was allotted 10 practices in Missoula leading up to the trip.

The tour allowed for Travis DeCuire to introduce concepts to his team – particularly the newcomers – much earlier than he usually would, and noted that the team was ahead of where they normally were early in fall camp.

SECURING THE BALL

Montana averaged just 10.8 turnovers per game a year ago, the 12th-fewest in all of NCAA Division I basketball.

PROUD HISTORY

Travis DeCuire is well aware of Montana's proud history, and has experienced it firsthand. During the 1990s, Montana won the Big Sky Conference and played in the NCAA tournament three times in a seven-year period, including DeCuire's sophomore campaign. The two-time All-Big Sky selection still holds Montana's record for career assists.

Since Montana's first conference championship in 1975, no Big Sky team has won more conference titles (10) than Montana. Additionally, the Grizzlies have won nine tournament titles and have nine runner-up finishes – including three championships and three runner-up finishes in the past eight seasons. In the league's history, Montana has won more games than any Big Sky school except for Weber State.

DECUIRE REACHES MILESTONE

Midway through last season, DeCuire's third in Missoula, the Grizzlies defeated Northern Colorado to earn the head coach his 50th victory. He is the second-fastest Griz coach to reach that milestone (84 games). The fastest to 50 was Blaine Taylor, DeCuire's head coach when he played for the Griz.

Services: The UM sports information department provides rosters, releases and updated statistics prior to every game at the Dahlberg Arena press row. Printed box scores will also be available for media during and immediately following the completion of home games. A complete box score will be emailed to media outlets and competing schools after the conclusion of each match.

Interviews: All player and coaching staff interviews must be made through Nic Hallisey at least one day in advance to assure a time slot. Players and coaches are not available prior to games.

Parking: Parking passes will be issued to media upon request. Please request parking from Nic Hallisey.

Photographers: Photographers are limited to the marked areas along sidelines and baselines in accordance with NCAA guidelines. Photographers will not be allowed in team bench areas or behind the official scorer's table.

Practices: Media is allowed at Griz basketball practice when proper notice has been given. Please call Nic Hallisey to check practice status (open or closed), as well as time and location.

Postgame: Following a 10-minute cooling-off period, head coach Travis DeCuire and selected UM basketball players will be available to the media. Interviews are to take place on the Dahlberg Arena floor unless otherwise noted. TRAVIS DECUIRE

Head Coach | Fourth Season | Montana, 1994

In his first two seasons as the University of Montana's 27th men's head basketball coach, Travis DeCure accomplished something no other coach in UM history had: he posted two 20-win seasons in his first two seasons.

Now entering the fourth season at his alma mater, DeCure is once again poised to put the Grizzlies back on the road to a 20-win campaign.

DeCure (pronounced: dee-CURE) was formally introduced as the Grizzlies' head basketball coach in June 2014, at a press conference at UM's Adams Center after the initial announcement from UM's Director of Athletics Kent Haslam in May of that year.

In his first season at the helm of a program with a rich history of success, DeCure's Griz started the year picked to finish eighth in the conference. Led by future European professional Jordan Gregory, UM would go on to defy expectations and win the Big Sky regular-season championship and advance to the National Invitational Tournament (NIT) before finishing the season 20-13 (14-4 BSC).

At the time, he became only the second coach in UM history to notch 20 victories in his first season at the helm – a feat also accomplished by Blaine Taylor in 1991-92 (27-4).

In DeCure's second year, he followed up with another 20-win season and another trip to the Big Sky championship game, this time led by future European professional Martin Breunig. DeCure's Grizzlies would once again advance to the postseason, competing in the first round of the CBI tournament against Nevada, finishing with a 21-12 (14-4 BSC) record.

Paced by 10 underclassmen and just two seniors who played significant time, the Grizzlies went 16-16 (11-7 BSC) in 2016-17, earning a first-round bye in the Big Sky tournament. During the season, DeCure became the second-fastest UM head coach to reach 50 wins (doing so in 84 contests). He coached a pair of UM sophomores – both returning in 2017-18 – to All-Big Sky Conference recognition.

The 2016-17 season was also the second consecutive year in which the Grizzlies have posted a team grade-point average above 3.0, earning NABC Team Academic Excellence recognition both seasons.

Prior to returning to his alma mater as head coach, DeCure spent six seasons (2008-09 through 2013-14) on the University of California coaching staff – including the final four as associate head coach. Regarded as one of the top tutors in the game, DeCure helped former Montana mentor Mike Montgomery – a member of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame – transform Cal into one of the winningest programs in the Pac-12 during his time in Berkeley. The Bears reached the postseason all six years he was on the staff, including the NCAA tournament four times. The Golden Bears boasted 130 wins in his six seasons – the best six-year stretch in school history – winning the 2010 Pac-10 championship. He coached numerous all-conference selections, including conference players of the year Jerome Randle (2010) and Jorge Gutierrez (2012).

DeCure he spent five seasons (2003-04 through 2007-08) as an assistant coach at Old Dominion, under former Griz head coach and player Blaine Taylor. There, he helped the Monarchs to a combined record of 117-53. The mark included 94 wins during his final four seasons – the most in school history over a four-year stretch. ODU reached the postseason each of those four seasons and advanced to the NCAA tournament in both 2005 and 2007 – winning a school-record 28 contests in 2005. Additionally, the Monarchs reached the NIT semifinals in 2006 and the quarterfinals of the College Basketball Invitational in 2008.

DeCure, from Seattle, Wash., also has head coaching experience from stints at Sammamish High School and Green River Community College in Washington. At GRCC, DeCure took over a last-place program and guided it to a conference championship and its first 20-win season in more than 20 years, earning league coach-of-the-year honors in 2003 – his second season. At Sammamish High School in Bellevue, DeCure led his team to a pair of conference titles, a state tournament appearance and three consecutive trips to the district tournament.

As a point guard for Montana from 1992-94 DeCure was named All-Big Sky Conference as a junior and senior. He set a school record in just three seasons with 435 career assists. He also established UM's single-season mark with 199 assists as a senior in 1993-94, when he was ranked 12th in the nation, averaging 7.1 assists a game. He was the recipient of the Grizzlies' Carl Dragstedt Award (MVP) as a junior and senior, and received the John Eahart Award (Outstanding Defensive Player) following his senior year.

As a freshman at Chaminade-Hawaii, he was a starter and team MVP in 1990. He then transferred to Montana and redshirted in 1991. DeCure attended Mercer Island High School (Wash.), where he was a three-year starter and all-state, team MVP, and a McDonald's All-America honorable mention pick as a senior.

He has a strong commitment to community service and founded and acted as president of the Fastbreak Basketball Association – an organization that assists in teaching life lessons and building self-esteem through basketball to more than 500 students in the Seattle-Tacoma area. Additionally, he has extensive experience in counseling at the Echo Glen Children's Center in Snoqualmie, Wash., from 1996-98, and with the Ryther Children's Center in North Seattle, from 1995-97.

DeCure graduated from Montana in 1994 with a degree in business marketing. He and his wife, Sabrina, have two daughters – Brianna (24) and Tamia (5).
