DEQUIRE PICKS UP 1ST WIN AT SACRAMENTO STATE, GRIZZLIES SIT ALONE ATOP BIG SKY STANDINGS

SACRAMENTO, Calif. – For the first time in four tries, Travis DeCuire and his Montana basketball team defeated Sacramento State on the road, knocking off the Hornets, 78-66, on Thursday night. The win was impressive, but especially so given the circumstances.

The Grizzlies, who were 0-5 on the season when trailing at halftime, allowed an 8-0 run late in the first half to find themselves down six. They cut that in half with a Bobby Moorehead three-pointer at the buzzer, and then immediately eliminated the deficit by scoring the first six points of the second half.

"We weren't playing Griz basketball," DeCuire said. "We wanted it to be easy and they had a good scout. They took some stuff away and made some things difficult, so we had to make some adjustments."

An Ahmaad Rorie three-pointer with 17:07 to play broke a 38-38 tie and ignited the Grizzlies on a 15-5 run that saw their lead reach double figures for the first time. Montana never trailed again, and would grow to as many as 22 points, 73-51, with just over 5 minutes to play.

"It was fun watching us out-scrap a scrappy team," DeCuire said. "In the second half we had to get dirty. Sometimes you have to win an ugly game by playing ugly basketball."

Despite trailing at the break, Montana was in control for much of the first half, trailing for just 2:45. After shooting zero free throws in the opening frame, Montana would shoot 22 in the second. Even more impressive, the Grizzlies made 19 of them, shooting 86.3 percent – second-best on the season.

"We needed to be more aggressive. It was definitely put your head down and get to the paint," DeCuire said of his halftime message.

Montana went 7 minutes without a field goal in the second half, but was still able to extend its lead by knocking down 11 free throws during that stretch. The Griz defense also held Sac State without a field goal for 7:49, limiting them to six free throws during that span.

"I trust our defense a lot more," DeCuire noted about the difference between this team from past teams. "I think we can get four or five stops if we need to. On offense, we have the personnel where if Jamar (Akoh) is having a tough night someone else will step up."

Rorie scored 19 of his team-high 23 points in the second half, including a stretch midway through in which he scored seven consecutive Grizzly points. He was a perfect 5-for-5 from the free-throw line, improving to 19-for-19 in Big Sky play.

Michael Oguine (16 points) and Moorehead (13) were also in double figures, with Moorehead knocking down three of Montana's seven three-point attempts. Fabijan Krslovic had a near-double-double with eight points and eight rebounds, in addition to strong defense against the Hornets' leading scorer.

"He did a phenomenal job in the first half on (Justin) Strings," DeCuire said of his senior. "We couldn't score for a while, and he was the one making post moves and attacking, and got us going."

The Grizzlies shot 54 percent from beyond the arc and 46 percent overall, and won despite the Hornets shooting 53 percent from the floor. Montana did so by taking 17 extra shots, out-rebounding the home team 36-22 (15-6 on the offensive glass) and forcing 17 turnovers on 14 steals.

After Sac State shot 6-of-10 from three-point range in the first half, the Hornets were limited to 1-of-4 shooting in the second half.

Montana is now 5-0 in Big Sky play, marking just the fourth time in school history that the Grizzlies have done so. DeCuire has been part of three of those milestones, twice as a coach and once as a player. Montana sits alone atop the Big Sky standings, with Idaho State losing at North Dakota and Montana State falling at Portland State. The Griz and Vikings will meet up Saturday afternoon.

"Keep your eyes on the prize," DeCuire said. "We've got Sunday and Monday off, so the guys know, 'Give us what you've got and earn that extra day off.'"

FIRST-PLACE GRIZ FACE TOUGHEST TEST

Montana is off to one of its best starts in program history, beginning Big Sky play 5-0 for just the fourth time in its 55-year history in the league. The Grizzlies are winning by an average margin of nearly 20 points per game, but that will get a big challenge Saturday afternoon at Portland State.

"For the most part, we're winning the games we're supposed to win," Travis DeCuire said about his team's start. "I think the team that can get the most sweeps on the road is the team that tends to pull away."

Montana already has one road sweep under its belt and has the opportunity for another, after picking up its first win at Sacramento State under the DeCuire era.

Even though Sac State beat Portland State two weeks ago, Portland State will present a bigger test than the Hornets. In addition to the challenges of traveling to another state, plus a quick turnaround with a 1 p.m. local start time, the Vikings are among the nation's best in a handful of different categories.

They rank first out of 351 NCAA Division I teams for steals per game (12.0) and turnover margin (+9.2). Their press defense troubled some of the nation's top teams during November and December, with the Vikings defeating Stanford and Cal, and hanging tough with Duke, Oregon and Butler.

A key for the Griz offense will be breaking the press and getting past mid-court.

"As long as we take care of the ball and get it across half court at a high rate, we should get shots," DeCuire said.

While Portland State's defense is tough, Montana also has confidence in its offense. The unit ranks first during Big Sky play for scoring (88.4 points per game) and second for field-goal percentage (.505).

Conversely, the Vikings' offense is equally as tough as their defense.

PSU ranks fourth nationally, averaging 90.1 points per game, in addition to 18.4 assists (ninth in NCAA) and 14.24 offensive rebounds (eighth). Deontae North ranks 29th in the country with 21.0 points per game, followed by Bryce Canda's 15.8. Canda is also the team leader for rebounding, steals and three-point shooting.

Once again, though, Montana's defense could match up with the Vikings' offense. While PSU puts up points at ease, Montana leads Big Sky play with a .380 opponent field-goal percentage and ranks second, holding opponents to 68.6 points per game. The Grizzlies don't press the way Portland State does, but they've been nearly as good at forcing turnovers – often times through deflections and matchup defense. Montana ranks 17th nationally with 17.12 turnovers forced per game and 22nd with a +4.0 turnover margin.

"We do it our way, they do it theirs," DeCuire said. "There will be a lot of transition, up and down the court. Hopefully we can continue to play basketball the way we have been on the defensive end."

Following the long trip, and with just one game next week, the team will take Sunday and Monday to rest and recover. DeCuire's message to his team is simple: "Give us what you've got and earn that extra day off."

SERIES VS. THE VIKINGS

Montana and Portland State first met in 1965-66 and played at least once in 13 of the next 16 seasons. The two teams then took a 16-year hiatus before the series resumed in 1996-97, and have played every season since. Montana holds a 38-23 edge in the series, but the Vikings lead the meetings in Portland (16 to 14).

From 2008-09 through 2012-13, Montana won nine consecutive in the series. Since then, the Grizzlies are 5-3, including 4-1 under Travis DeCuire. The lone loss came last year in Portland.

Montana's core has had plenty of success against the Vikings:

- In the only meeting between the two teams in 2014-15, Fabijan Krslovic, then a freshman, had eight points and six rebounds in the Grizzlies' 19-point win.
- Montana shot 56 percent in a home win over Portland State in 2015-16, led by 20 points and four assists from Michael Oguine.
- On the road in 2015-16, Montana overcame a nine-point halftime deficit, receiving five points, three rebounds and three assists from Krslovic.
- In UM's only loss under DeCuire, Portland State went on a 18-3 run to open the second half, after a first half in which there were 16 lead changes. The Griz lost despite 29 points, seven rebounds and five assists from Ahmaad Rorie, 24 points and seven rebounds from Krslovic, and a double-double from Oguine.
- Montana split with the Vikings in 2016-17, holding on for a three-point win at home. In the victory, Rorie had 28 points and five assists, Oguine had 15 points and four assists, Bobby Moorehead had 10 points and six boards, and Krslovic had six points and 11 rebounds.

SCOUTING PORTLAND STATE

- Picked to finish eighth and ninth in the preseason polls, Portland State was the surprise of non-conference season, going 10-3 and defeating Pac-12 opponents Stanford and Cal. The Vikings also hung close with Duke, Butler and Oregon.
- PSU is coming off of back-to-back wins after beginning Big Sky play with losses at Sacramento State and Eastern Washington. The Vikings rallied for a win at preseason favorite Idaho before thumping Montana State on Thursday.
- PSU is a perfect 5-0 at home this season.
- The Vikings are led by Deontae North (21.0 points) and Bryce Canda (15.8 points and a team-high 6.8 rebounds).
- PSU leads the nation with 12.0 steals per game and a +9.2 turnover margin, and ranks second with 21.5 forced turnovers per game.
- The Vikings' offense is also among the nation's best, ranking fourth nationally for scoring (90.1 points per game)
- The Vikings average 18.4 assists per game (ninth in NCAA) and own a 1.5 assist-to-turnover ratio (14th). Holland Woods has 100 assists (5.9 per game; 26th in NCAA).
- Four players have at least 28 steals on the year, with each member of the quartet ranking in the top 140 nationally.
- Barret Peery is in his first season at PSU. The Vikings went 15-16 a year ago.

STARTING STRONG

Montana is off to a 5-0 start to begin Big Sky Conference play, marking the fourth time in the Grizzlies' 55-year history in the league. Travis DeCuire has been a part of three of those, twice as a coach and once as a player.

The Grizzlies have begun Big Sky play with five consecutive victories in 2017-18, 2015-16 (six), 2012-13 (12) and 1991-92 (seven).

Through five games, Montana is at the top of the conference in many offensive and defensive categories. The Grizzlies rank first for:

- Scoring offense (88.4)
- Scoring margin (+19.8)
- Field-goal defense (.380)
- Three-point percentage (.433)
- Rebounding margin (+8.0)
- Steals (10.2)

Additionally, the Grizzlies rank second in the league for scoring defense (68.6), field-goal percentage (.505), rebounding (39.0), turnover margin (+5.8) and assist-to-turnover ratio (1.5), and rank third for free-throw percentage (.805) and assists (14.6).

WINNING STREAK

Montana is not only 5-0 to begin Big Sky play, but its five-game winning streak is its largest of the season. The Grizzlies have won five in a row and seven of their last eight.

After winning back-to-back games to open the season (Nov. 10 and 13), Montana alternated wins and losses over its next nine games before winning back-to-back contests vs. UC Riverside and UC Irvine (Dec. 17 and 19). The Grizzlies narrowly lost at Washington (Dec. 22) before rattling off five wins in a row.

ROAD STREAK

After losing four consecutive road games, Montana has strung together three consecutive road wins, defeating Northern Arizona (Dec. 28), Southern Utah (Dec. 30) and Sacramento State (Jan. 11). It marks the team's first three-game road winning streak since last December/January.

ALWAYS IN FRONT

Of Montana's five Big Sky games, the Grizzlies have trailed for just 7 minutes, 36 seconds out of 200 total minutes. Montana never trailed against Northern Arizona or North Dakota, and has never trailed by more than two possessions.

TRENDING

- Montana is undefeated at home this season (7-0).
- The Grizzlies are a perfect 11-0 when leading at halftime, compared to 1-5 when trailing. Thursday marked their first win in which they trailed at the intermission.
- UM is 9-2 in games decided by double digits.
- The Grizzlies are 7-0 when scoring 80 or more points.
- Montana is 8-1 when opponents score fewer than 70 points, with the exception coming in a three-point loss at Washington.
- Montana is 9-0 when shooting above .450.
- Montana is 4-0 when opponents shoot .400 or worse.
- Ironically, the Grizzlies are 4-0 when opponents make eight or more three-pointers.
- Montana is 11-2 when turning the ball over less than its opponent.
- Montana is 7-1 when shooting more free throws.

AKOH EARNS WEEKLY HONORS

Junior forward Jamar Akoh was named player of the week by the Big Sky Conference and College Sports Madness on Monday. It was the first weekly honor of his career.

Akoh averaged 28.0 points and 9.5 rebounds per game. Against the Fighting Hawks, he had a double-double with 22 points and 11 rebounds – both team highs – in addition to three assists and a steal. Two nights later, he scored 34 points, the most by a Grizzly in eight seasons (Anthony Johnson scored 42 in the 2010 Big Sky title game vs. Weber State).

The highlight of Akoh's double-double vs. North Dakota came in the second half when he scored four points in a four-second span. He took advantage of a Griz steal for a breakaway dunk, before stealing the in-bounds pass and laying it in. Montana scored 109 points vs. North Dakota, its highest total against a Division-I opponent since 1992. The Grizzlies trailed for just 1:52 vs. Northern Colorado, in large part due to Akoh's strong start. He scored 10 points in the first 10 minutes, scoring 10 of the team's first 18 points.

ALL-AROUND RORIE

Ahmaad Rorie played in all 40 minutes vs. UC Santa Barbara and ranks 56th nationally for minutes played per game (35:26). He also ranks highly, however, for scoring (18.8 per game) and steals (27). In fact, Rorie is one of 16 NCAA Division I players to average at least 18.0 points and 1.5 steals per game.

MONTANA BASKETBALL

He is one of two Big Sky players to rank in the top 10 in league play for scoring (sixth), field-goal percentage (ninth) and assists (seventh). He also ranks in the top 10 for free-throw percentage (first), three-point shooting (fourth), steals (13th) and assist-to-turnover ratio (first).

PERFECT FROM THE LINE

Ahmaad Rorie is a perfect 19-for-19 from the free-throw line during conference play. On the season, he is making a team-best 83.6 percent of his free-throw attempts (61-of-73).

BE LIKE MIKE

Junior guard Michael Oguine, a third-team All-Big Sky selection in 2016-17, scored in double figures in the first 11 games of the season, including 29 in a win at Pitt (Nov. 13).

Oguine does it all for the Griz, averaging 14.2 points per game and ranking second on the team for assists (36), steals (25) and blocked shots (11). Despite standing at just 6-2, he also ranks second for rebounding, averaging 4.8 boards per game.

AKOH TAKING OVER

The Grizzlies had high hopes for Jamar Akoh, a transfer from Cal State Fullerton who redshirted a year ago. In his first two games, however, he combined for just four points and two rebounds, being limited to 28 total minutes due to foul trouble.

Over the next 14 games, Akoh took over down low, averaging 16.1 points and 7.7 rebounds, and shooting 59.4 percent. He has 12 double-figure scoring games during that 14-game span, including nine in a row prior to Thursday night's nine-point performance at Sacramento State. In the win, he did record eight rebounds and a career-high-tying three steals.

During conference play, Akoh ranks eighth in the league for scoring (20.0 points per game), fourth for rebounding (8.2) and seventh for steals (1.6). He is one of three players to rank in the top 10 for all three categories.

STOUT DEFENSE

Montana ranks in the top-100 nationally for the majority of defensive statistical categories:

- 17.12 turnovers forced per game: 17th in NCAA (2nd in BSC)
- +4.0 turnover margin: 22nd (2rd)
- 8.4 steals per game: 26th (2nd)
- +5.4 rebounding margin: 50th (2nd)
- 69.1 points allowed per game: 100th (3rd)

FORCING TURNOVERS

Montana has forced at least 13 turnovers in every game this season and ranks among the nation's best, forcing 17.12 turnovers per game (17th in NCAA). The Grizzlies have turned the ball over more times than their opponent just three times in 17 games and hold a +4.0 turnover margin (22nd in NCAA).

On three occasions, Montana has forced 20 or more turnovers in a game, and in a win at Pitt (Nov. 13), the Grizzlies forced the Panthers into 19 turnovers, converting them into 30 points – an average of 1.58 points per turnover.

CRASHING THE GLASS

Montana has out-rebounded its opponents in 14 of its last 16 games, which is particularly impressive considering four of those contests have come against Power-5 teams and another came against a UC Irvine team that ranked No. 2 nationally for total rebounds at the time.

Well over one-third of Montana's rebounds have come from the offensive end (35.5 percent); that number was 28.6 percent a year ago. Freshman Karl Nicholas has as many offensive boards (26) than defensive (26).

They are currently averaging 13.12 offensive rebounds per game this season (25th in NCAA). Nearly one-fifth of Montana's points have been second-chance opportunities (216 points; 17.5 percent).

PRIDGETT PERFORMING

Sophomore Sayeed Pridgett is Montana's first player off the bench, and he's quietly and consistently putting up strong performances for the Griz. In addition to 7.9 points per game, Pridgett is shooting at a 44-percent clip and ranks third on the team for steals (23) and assists (24), and fourth for blocked shots (10). third for assists (23) and fourth for blocked shots (10). His nine steals during Big Sky play are tied for third in the league, and tied with Michael Oguine for the team lead.

MORE MOOREHEAD

Bobby Moorehead struggled offensively for much of his sophomore season in 2016-17, averaging 3.9 points per game on .320 shooting. The junior has turned things around in 2017-18, averaging 8.4 points per game and ranking second on the team for minutes played (32:30) and three-pointers (30). His 11 blocked shots are tied for second, while his 18 steals rank fourth.

In last month's win over UC Riverside (Dec. 17), he scored six points in a 10-second span to spark a 17-0 Griz scoring run. In the previous game, at Georgia State (Dec. 9), Moorehead hit back-to-back three-pointers to get the Griz within a single possession. At Stanford (Nov. 29), he scored 11 consecutive UM points in the second half to give the Griz a 40-37 advantage.

FRESHMAN FALLS

Timmy Falls scored 12 points through Montana's first 10 games of the season before breaking out vs. UC Irvine (Dec. 19). The freshman played 22 minutes off the bench and scored 14 points, including 4-for-4 shooting from three-point range. Falls also had several no-look passes and took a charge on defense.

Since his breakout performance vs. UC Irvine, Falls has played at least 18 minutes in each game and is averaging 7.1 points. He's also added 18 assists and nine steals during the seven-game stretch. During Big Sky play, Falls ranks seventh for steals (1.6 per game) and 13th with a 2.8 assist-to-turnover ratio.

TERRIFIC TRIO

Montana is the only school in the Big Sky to have three players rank in the top 15 for scoring, with juniors Ahmaad Rorie (18.8; sixth), Michael Oguine (14.2; 14th) and Jamar Akoh (14.1; 15th) accomplishing the feat. Entering the week, Montana was one of 20 players nationally to have three players average at least 14.0 points per game.

Rorie has been in double figures 15 times – including 20-plus on eight occasions. Oguine has been in double figures in all but one contest, while Akoh has accomplished the feat in nine of his past 10 contests, including four double-doubles.

WIDE MARGIN

The Grizzlies recorded back-to-back 30-point victories (at Southern Utah,

MONTANA BASKETBALL

Dec. 30; vs. North Dakota, Jan. 4), marking the first time in 44 years that Montana had won consecutive games by 30 or more points. The last time the Grizzlies did it was in 1973-74, under Jud Heathcote. In the midst of a 13-game win streak, Montana defeated Gonzaga by 35 and Northern Arizona by 32.

In five conference games, Montana is out-scoring its opponents 442-343, winning by an average of 19.8 points per game.

TRIPLE DIGITS

Montana scored 109 points in a blowout win over North Dakota, an offensive performance that was historic on many levels:

- Montana reached the century mark for the first time since December 2009 vs. Great Falls.
- It was Montana's first 100-point performance against a Division-I opponent since December 1999 vs. Youngstown State.
- The 109 points were tied for the third-most in school history, and the most against a Division-I opponent since the Grizzlies scored 109 points on Idaho State, in March 1991.

FRESHMAN CONNECTION

Freshman Karl Nicholas scored a career-high 17 points on a perfect 8-for-8 shooting vs. North Dakota (Jan. 4), including four thunderous dunks that brought the crowd to its feet. The first two came on back-to-back possessions, both coming off of turnovers. The next two also came in transition and were fed by his freshman roommate Timmy Falls. First, Falls delivered a no-look, behind-the-head pass. He followed that up with an alley oop that he lobbed from half court.

Nicholas also ranks seventh in the league with five blocked shots, while falls ranks in the top 15 for assists and steals.

EARLY LEADS

Montana has led from start to finish three times in the past month, and playing a key role has been its ability to jump out to early leads.

- Against UC Riverside, Montana led 9-0 before the Highlanders finally scored 6:20 into the contest. The Grizzlies also used a 17-0 run in the second half.
- Against Northern Arizona, Montana jumped out to a 7-0 lead.
- Despite trailing Southern Utah early, Montana went on a 33-6 first-half run, holding the Thunderbirds without a field goal for 12:42 (0-for-16 shooting).
- The Grizzlies led North Dakota 14-0 before the Fighting Hawks finally scored, 7:16 into the contest (0-for-10 to start).

SEASON LOWS

Montana's defense held Northern Arizona (Dec. 28) to season lows for field goals (16) and field-goal percentage (.327). Both figures were season lows for UM opponents this season as well. Those marks lasted just two days, however, as the Griz defense was again dominant two days later. Southern Utah (Dec. 30) was held to 49 points, 15 field goals and .263 shooting.

The 49 points and 15 field goals were the fewest by an opponent since North Dakota scored 46 on 15-of-56 shooting on March 3, 2016. The field-goal percentage was the lowest by an opponent since Montana State shot .259 on Jan. 17, 2015.

HOME SWEET HOME

The Grizzlies hold a perfect 7-0 mark at home this season. Over the past two decades, Montana has begun a season with six or more consecutive home wins three times, including twice in the past three seasons under Travis DeCuire.

Montana has won more than 80 percent of its contests in Dahlberg Arena over the past decade, going 111-25 (.816) since the start of the 2008-09 season. All-time, the Grizzlies boast one of the best home-court advantages, going 685-240 (.740) in their home arena.

50%

In each of its last six homes games, Montana has made at least 50 percent of its shots, shooting 56 percent vs. Carroll (Nov. 26), 52 percent vs. CSUN (Dec. 3), 50 percent vs. UC Riverside (Dec. 17), 53 percent vs. UC Irvine (Dec. 19), a season-high 62 percent vs. North Dakota (Jan. 4) and 51 percent vs. Northern Colorado (Jan. 6).

During those six games, the Griz are averaging 88.8 points per game and a 17.0 margin of victory.

WELL CONDITIONED

Entering January, Montana had three players who averaged at least 33:00 minutes played per game. Ahmaad Rorie was averaging 36:36 per game, including all 40 minutes vs. UC Santa Barbara (Nov. 21). Fellow juniors Bobby Moorehead (33:50) and Michael Oguine (33:00) were also among the nation's leaders. In fact, Montana was one of 14 Division-I schools nationally to have three players average 33 minutes per game or better. All three averages ranked in the top 10 in the Big Sky.

Montana has used a small rotation, with just eight players averaging at least 4 minutes per game. Twelve different Grizzlies played at Penn State (Nov. 15), but just six played more than 7 minutes. It was the same two nights prior at Pitt (Nov. 13), as Travis DeCuire used the same five players throughout the final 7:34 of the second half and all 5 minutes of overtime.

NON-CONFERENCE SUCCESS

Montana closed its non-conference season with a winning record (7-5) for the first time in six seasons. In fact, despite a storied history that is littered with conference championships and postseason berths, this season marks just the fifth time since the turn of the century that the Grizzlies have posted a winning non-conference mark. The other times were in 2005-06, 2009-10, 2010-11 and 2011-12 – with Montana advancing to the NCAA tournament three of those seasons and the CBI in 2011.

The feat is even more impressive considering the level of competition Montana faced. The Grizzlies played four Power-5 opponents (Pitt, Penn State, Stanford and Washington, all on the road). The Grizzlies also played six of their first nine games away from home, with an additional road game at No. 23 UCLA being canceled once the team was already on site. In addition to the Power-5 opponents, UC Santa Barbara is off to a 11-4 start while UC Irvine was predicted to win the Big West and Georgia State was selected to finish second in the Sun Belt.

NARROW DEFEATS

Montana finished non-conference play with its first winning record in six seasons, but the Griz can't help but wonder, 'What if?' as well. Of Montana's five losses, the Grizzlies have led or been within a single possession late in the second half in all five.

- At Penn State (Big Ten), Montana held early leads and was within a single possession, 58-55, with under 4 minutes to play.
- In the championship game of the Legends Classic Malibu Region, Montana overcame a 18-point deficit to take the lead, including 48-46 with 12:51 remaining.

MONTANA BASKETBALL

- At Stanford (Pac-12), Montana held multiple second-half leads, including by as many as six points, 50-44, with under 10 minutes on the clock.
- Montana overcame a 17-point halftime deficit at Georgia State, tying the game and having the ball with under a minute to play.
- At Washington (Pac-12), Montana led with 4:16 to play and had the chance to tie the game with two free-throw opportunities with 5.1 seconds left on the clock.

ROAD WARRIORS

The Grizzlies traveled more than 12,000 miles during non-conference play – taking two trips to the East Coast, three flights to the state of California and one to nearby Seattle. Through the first 30 days of the regular season, Montana was on the road for 19 of them.

- Following a season-opening win over Whitworth (Nov. 10), Montana was on a plane nine hours later for a six-day trip to the state of Pennsylvania (Nov. 11-16).
- After back-to-back games against Power-5 opponents (Pitt and Penn State), Montana had two home practices before flying to California to continue the Legends Classic (Nov. 19).
- The Grizzlies returned from California and had two practices in Missoula to prepare for Carroll (Nov. 26).
- Montana had just one day in between its game against Carroll and flying to Stanford (left on Nov. 28).
- Montana returned from its trip to Stanford and had two home practices before hosting CSUN (Dec. 3).
- Following its win over CSUN, the Grizzlies had one day at home before flying to UCLA and Georgia State for a six-day road trip (Dec. 5-10).

HEARTBREAK VS. THE HUSKIES

Montana had several chances at an additional non-conference victory over a Power-5 program, taking Washington down to the wire (Dec. 22). In the three-point loss, Montana held multiple second-half leads, including one with under 4 minutes to play.

Despite the loss, Montana out-rebounded the Huskies, 41-27, including 20-6 on the offensive glass. The Grizzlies also had 12 assists compared to Washington's four, and converted 18 turnovers into 24 points. Washington, however, got to the free-throw line 21 times compared to just six for Montana.

DOMINANT DEFENSE

Two nights after Montana's defense held UC Riverside to 38.5-percent shooting (a season low for a UM opponent), the Grizzlies' strong defense was on full display. In an 18-point win over UC Irvine (Dec. 19), Montana's defense forced 15 turnovers, including three shot-clock violations and two 10-second whistles. On offense, the Grizzlies shot better than 50 percent and scored a season-high-tying 86 points. Afterward, Travis DeCuire said his team's performance was the best of the season, and perhaps the best he's seen his team play in his four years as head coach.

"Tonight is the first time we've put 40 minutes together on both sides of the ball," DeCuire said. "Our energy and the way we played together, and the way we executed on both sides of the ball, was incredible. I don't know that we've played this well as a group, as a unit, since I've been here."

HONORING DELVON

Prior to Montana's game vs. UC Irvine (Dec. 19), the Grizzlies recognized former player Delvon Anderson, who passed away in August at the age of 47. His family was on the court during a video ceremony and DeCuire and former head coach Blaine Taylor presented them with the Legend of the Game plaque – an award given to a former player or coach from each participating team in the 2017 Legends Classic tournament.

DeCuire and Anderson played together in the early 1990s and Taylor was their coach. He is Montana's winningest coach in school history (.680 winning percentage) and is now an assistant coach at UC Irvine. During Anderson's two-year career at Montana, the Grizzlies won back-to-back Big Sky Conference championships. He was the conference MVP as a senior in 1992.

Throughout the season, players have worn No. 24 warmup jerseys to honor Anderson. Additionally, a black stripe has been displayed on the left shoulder of all jerseys, recognizing Anderson and former head coach Jud Heathcote, who also passed away in August.

RUNNING FROM THE START

Montana led start to finish in its win over UC Riverside (Dec. 17), using a 9-0 run to begin the game and a 17-0 run early in the second half. The Grizzlies held the Highlanders without a basket for the first 6 minutes, 20 seconds, jumping out to a comfortable lead. After UC Riverside scored on its first shot attempt of the second half, the Grizzlies held them without a point for 6:23, going on 17-0 run. Montana led by as many as 29 points in the game and never trailed, holding the Highlanders to 38.5-percent shooting, including 21 first-half points.

BUCKING THE TREND

On several occasions, Montana has held its opponents far below their season averages for specific statistical categories:

- Penn State entered its Nov. 15 contest vs. Montana ranked seventh nationally, averaging 13.0 steals per game. The Grizzlies protected the ball, however, limiting the Nittany Lions to just three steals.
- A week later vs. UC Santa Barbara, Montana was going up against a Gauchos squad that ranked fifth nationally, turning the ball over just 8.0 times per game. The Griz defense was active and stingy, forcing UCSB into 21 turnovers – nearly three times its season average.
- Montana once again bucked the trend against UC Irvine (Dec. 19), out-rebounding the Anteaters, 37-29, despite UC Irvine entering the contest ranked No. 2 nationally for rebounding (42.3 per game). It was held to its lowest total of the season.
- Southern Utah entered Dec. 30 ranked second in the conference and 57th nationally with 81.7 points per game. The Grizzlies limited the Thunderbirds to a season-low 49 points on 28.3-percent shooting.

FINALLY A SATURDAY

Montana will play at least 11 games on Saturdays this season – more than any other day of the week. However, the Grizzlies didn't play a Saturday game until Dec. 9, a full month into the season. Only Oklahoma played more games to begin the season without a Saturday game.

GAME CANCELED

Montana was scheduled to play five teams from Power-5 conference this season, but the Grizzlies' contest at UCLA (Dec. 6) was canceled due to wildfires that were spreading throughout the area and shut down UCLA's campus. The Griz held one practice at Pauley Pavilion and scheduled another at a nearby gym in Los Angeles before departing for Atlanta to take on Georgia State. Ironically, there were talks of that game being canceled as well when a rare snowstorm took over the southern region of the United States and closed Georgia State's campus.

MONTANA BASKETBALL

NICHOLAS FINDING HIS FORM

Travis DeCuire had high expectations for Karl Nicholas, but the freshman was limited early in the season due to foul trouble. Through his first three career games, Nicholas averaged just 7.7 minutes per game, picking up four fouls in each contest.

The Texas native had a breakout week in Malibu, Calif., however, playing 18 minutes vs. Oral Roberts (Nov. 20) and 28 minutes vs. UC Santa Barbara (Nov. 21). Nicholas averaged 10.5 points per game over the two contests, connecting on 10 of 15 shot attempts. He also added nine rebounds in the two games.

CLUTCH RORIE

Junior guard Ahmaad Rorie has scored in double figures 13 times this season, averaging 18.6 points per game. The point total is impressive, but more impressive is when he is scoring. Six of Rorie's 18 points at Pitt (Nov. 13) came in the overtime period, while two nights later at Penn State (Nov. 15), he had four points, a steal and an assist during a 9-0 UM run to cut the Grizzlies' deficit to a single point, 51-50, midway through the second half.

The all-conference performer was on full display again vs. Oral Roberts (Nov. 20), scoring a team-high 18 points, in addition to six assists and three steals. Trailing 17-16 with 8 minutes to play in the first half, Montana closed the half on a 15-6 run. Rorie had nine points and two assists during that run, contributing to six of UM's eight made field goals. He was again clutch late, knocking down both free-throw attempts with 22 seconds to play to increase Montana's lead to two possessions.

Rorie was named to the Legends Classic Malibu Region All-Tournament team after playing 75 of 80 minutes and totaling 38 points, 12 assists, seven steals and six rebounds.

OGUINE RECOGNIZED BY COLLEGE SPORTS MADNESS

Junior guard Michael Oguine was the College Sports Madness Big Sky Player of the Week for games played Nov. 13-19. Oguine scored a career-most 29 points in a signature victory at Pitt (Nov. 13) and then two days later at Penn State (Nov. 15), totaled 15 points and grabbed seven boards in a narrow loss to the Nittany Lions.

A SIGNATURE VICTORY

After coming close, but not close enough, multiple times against Power-5 teams, Montana finally got over the hump and knocked off Pitt on Nov. 13 in Pittsburgh. The win snapped Montana's 14-game losing streak against Power-5 schools and was the program's first since 2010. It marked Montana's first over a team currently in the ACC since 1966.

Montana led for nearly 24 minutes against Pitt, including by as many as seven points. Below are key stats that led the Grizzlies to their signature victory:

- Montana forced Pitt into 19 turnovers, turning them into 30 points. Two of the turnovers were offensive charges, one taken by Karl Nicholas and another by Fabijan Krslovic. Krslovic finished with a team-most nine rebounds, two blocked shots and two steals.
- Montana out-rebounded Pitt, 39-38, including 14-12 on the offensive glass.
- The Grizzlies held the lead for 23:46, compared to 14:07 for the Panthers.
- Montana overcame foul trouble – three players finished the game with four fouls – and a slow start at the free-throw line. The Grizzlies began the game just 4-for-11 from the charity stripe before finishing 12-of-14 down the stretch – including 10 makes in a row at one point – to put the game out of reach.
- After trailing by a game-most seven points, 28-21, with under 5 minutes to play in the first half, Montana closed the half on a 16-7 run to head into the intermission leading by two, 37-35.

- The Grizzlies started the game 0-for-7 from three-point range before Ahmaad Rorie hit back-to-back threes late in the first half. Bobby Moorehead followed with two more, giving the Grizzlies 12 consecutive points off of three-pointers and a 33-32 advantage.
- Trailing by four, 69-65, with under 3 minutes to play, Montana went on an 8-2 run over the next 2 minutes to take a 73-71 advantage. Oguine scored all eight points for the Griz.
- After alternating baskets to begin overtime, Montana scored to take a 79-77 lead and then held Pitt without a made field goal over its final three attempts.

PARTIAL ARRIVAL

Montana's win at Pitt (Nov. 13) was huge for the program. The Grizzlies knocked off an ACC team that has played in 13 of the last 16 NCAA tournaments, on its home court no less. Pitt entered the contest with a 135-5 all-time mark in non-conference games at the Petersen Events Center and had never lost a home opener in the building.

The victory, however, will mean little if the team doesn't use it as a springboard into the rest of the season, particularly in March.

"We want to win these games in November so we can win these games in March," Travis DeCuire said afterward, noting that he schedules games like these in order to prepare his team for Big Sky Conference action and, hopefully, the postseason.

BIG-GAMER OGUINE

Junior guard Michael Oguine scored a career-high 29 points in Montana's win at Pitt (Nov. 13), but more impressive than the 29 points or team-most five assists was the fact that Oguine took over when it mattered most.

He scored 16 of his points in the final 8:32 of regulation, including Montana's final 10 points overall. Trailing 67-63 with 4:32 to play, Oguine out-scored Pitt's entire team, 10-4, to give Montana a two-point lead in the final minute of regulation.

"Mike's one of those guys where when he's mad he's better," Travis DeCuire said. "If he thinks it's time to put everybody on his back, he's going to get it done. He carried us when we needed him to."

100 AND COUNTING

Nov. 13 was a special night for the Montana basketball program, but for two Grizzlies in particular.

Fabijan Krslovic played in his 100th consecutive game. The senior from Australia has played in every UM game since the start of the 2014-15 season (now 115, including 99 starts). Additionally, the game against Pitt was Travis DeCuire's 100th game as head coach. The former Griz player was 59-41 following the signature victory, the fifth-best mark through 100 games out of Montana's 25 head coaches. DeCuire has led Montana to a 2014-15 regular-season conference title and back-to-back appearances in the Big Sky Conference tournament championship game (2015 and 2016).

LOOKING AHEAD

Montana will have just one game next week, facing rival Montana State in Bozeman. The Grizzlies are 147-148 all-time vs. the Bobcats.

PRESEASON NOTES

RETURNING TALENT

The Grizzlies have the pieces to contend this season, returning three of their four consistent starters from 2016-17, in addition to a pair of guards – Sayeed Pridgett and Bobby Moorehead – who each started about one-third of last year's contests.

In total, Montana returns the majority of its production in all aspects of the game, bringing back its top two scorers, and four of its top five. On the other end of the floor, Montana had six players with 90 or more rebounds a year ago; five of them are back on the court.

NEW GUYS COMING IN

While Montana returns the majority of its production from a year ago, the team also turned over roughly half of its roster, with several newcomers expected to slide in and fill roles immediately. The Grizzlies signed six freshmen, in addition to sophomore JUCO transfer Niko Bevens.

- Admir Besovic – Originally from Bosnia and Herzegovina, has spent the past two seasons at the Virginia Episcopal School in Lynchburg, where he averaged 11.2 points and 6.8 rebounds last year as a team captain.
- Niko Bevens – As a freshman at North Idaho College, led the Cardinals to an NWAC Eastern Conference championship by making 50 percent of his three-point attempts.
- Lars Espe – 2016-17 Young Player of the Year in the BLNO, Norway's premier professional basketball league.
- Timmy Falls – 2016-17 East Bay Athletic League MVP.
- Peter Jones – Played in 26 games as a senior at O'Dea High School, averaging 4.8 points per game.
- Kelby Kramer – No. 2 prep prospect from the state of Wyoming, being named to USA Today's All-USA Wyoming Boys Basketball Team
- Karl Nicholas – As the 17th-best prep prospect from the state of Texas, was named the 2016-17 Texas District 22-6A MVP.

DYNAMIC DUO, PART II

Montana boasts one of the top duos in the Big Sky with junior guards Ahmaad Rorie and Michael Oguine. The two combined to score well over one-third of the team's points a year ago, also ranking No. 1 and 2 for minutes played.

A transfer from Oregon, Rorie made a name for himself during his first season in the league, earning second-team All-Big Sky honors. He started all 31 contest, and led the Grizzlies in minutes (32.5 per game), points (17.6), assists (97), field goals made (192), three-pointers (63) and free-throw percent-age (.833). His 1.2 assist-to-turnover ratio helped Montana have the 12th-fewest turnovers in Division I in 2016-17.

After recording the second-most points ever for a Montana freshman, Oguine followed up his debut season with an even better sophomore campaign. He averaged 11.9 points per game – including 13.3 during conference play – and shot .481 from the floor. He ranked second on the team for points, re-bounds (6.0 per game) and steals (37), and earned third-team all-conference honors.

Both players have been named to various publications' preseason all-conference teams, with Rorie being one of six players selected to the official preseason All-Big Sky team voted on by the league's coaches.

FABULOUS SENIOR

Montana's lone senior is Australian Fabijan Krslovic, who entered the season having played in 100 consecutive games – starting 83. Krslovic was Montana's top rebounder in 2016-17, with more than one-third of his boards coming on the offensive glass. He also led Montana with 15 steals and 20 blocked shots and was one of just three Big Sky players to rank in the top 15 in the conference for both categories.

Krslovic will admit he's not the most athletic player on the court, but he's consistent and is the glue of the team, according to the coaching staff. After being forced to be more of a center last year because of Montana's lack of height, he will now transition into a more natural role as a 6-8 forward.

ADDED HEIGHT

A year ago, Fabijan Krslovic (6-8) was the Grizzlies' tallest player, which forced him to play a different role as Montana's only true post player. This year, he is one of five players at 6-8 or taller. It was a conscious effort by DeCuire, looking to add more height and depth to his team's roster.

MONTANA BASKETBALL

Admir Besovic (7-0) and Kelby Kramer (6-10) are still raw as true freshmen, adjusting to the quicker style of play in the college game, but both can play a true center position. Kramer is more of a shot-blocker and rebounder, while Besovic has the ability to clog the lane and make it tough for opposing offenses to penetrate to the rim.

Montana believes it has a solid low-presence combination of Krslovic and transfer Jamar Akoh, and also has 6-8 Karl Nicholas, who can be an athletic force on both ends of the court.

MORE RETURNING TALENT

In addition to Montana's senior and pair of all-conference guards, the team returns three other players, including Sayeed Pridgett and Bobby Moorehead.

As a true freshman, Pridgett earned 11 starts and ranked ninth in the Big Sky with a .524 field-goal percentage. He was also the team's third-best rebounder (3.9 per game) and ranked fourth on the team for points (8.1 per game) and assists (4.4). In his second collegiate season, Moorehead started 10 games and averaged 2.8 rebounds per game while adding 3.9 points, 10 total steals and nine blocked shots. Sophomore guard Trever Spojka is also back. The Billings native saw action in eight contests as a redshirt freshman, totaling 10 points on 3-of-7 shooting.

STARTING THEM YOUNG

Montana is one of 11 NCAA Division I schools nationally to have at least nine newcomers and just one senior.

Kentucky leads the nation with 12 newcomers and zero seniors, while Auburn has a dozen newcomers and one senior. Tennessee, Toledo and Wofford each have 10 newcomers and one senior, while Montana, Bowling Green, Holy Cross, Kansas State, Louisiana Tech and Oklahoma have nine new players and one expected graduate.

DORSEY TO MISS SEASON

The Grizzlies will be without junior forward Donaven Dorsey this season. Dorsey, who redshirted in 2016-17 after transferring from the University of Washington, suffered a pair of hip injuries that require separate surgeries. The first was performed on Oct. 23. He played in 55 games over two seasons with the Huskies, earning eight starts. He totaled 166 points and 77 rebounds.

PICKED TO FINISH 3RD

Montana has high expectations for itself, and those who follow Big Sky basketball feel similar. In the preseason polls, Montana was picked to finish third by both the coaches and media. The Grizzlies were slotted to finish behind Idaho and Weber State in both polls (complete listing on Page 10).

Travis DeCuire said being picked to finish in the upper echelon is a sign of respect, but he and his team have their own set of goals, especially after winning a regular-season championship in 2015 and playing in the conference tournament title game in both 2015 and 2016.

TOUGH SCHEDULE

A year ago, Travis DeCuire believed he compiled the most-challenging schedule in program history, facing an all-Division-I slate. This year, it may be even tougher. The Grizzlies open the season with 13 non-conference games, five of which are against Power-5 teams. The team's first road trip is at Pitt (ACC) and Penn State (Big Ten) – part of the prestigious Legends Classic. The tournament will continue the following week in Malibu, Calif., as Montana takes on Oral Roberts and either UC Santa Barbara or host Pepperdine.

The Grizzlies will get their air miles several weeks later, traveling to Georgia State, in addition to three contests against Pac-12 foes – Stanford, UCLA and Washington. The Bruins are ranked in the AP pre-season top-25 poll.

In Missoula, Montana will host Cal State Northridge, Carroll, UC Irvine, UC Riverside and Whitworth. The 18-game league schedule will begin Dec. 28 and include home-and-home contests against Montana State, North Dakota, Northern Arizona, Northern Colorado, Portland State, Sacramento State and Southern Utah. Montana will also will travel to Eastern Washington and Idaho, and will host Idaho State and Weber State to close the regular season.

The Big Sky Conference tournament will be held in Reno, Nev., for the final year before moving to Boise, Idaho, next spring.

TEAM BONDING IN COSTA RICA

The Grizzlies got a head start to the basketball season, taking a foreign tour to Costa Rica in early August. The NCAA allows for teams to participate in such trips once every four years. The trip was beneficial in several facets. In addition to key bonding time – being in a foreign country with your teammates and being able to partake in several activities, including pool time and a zip line through a jungle – and service initiatives – the team spent a day at an orphanage, playing sports with the children and reading to them – the team also competed in a pair of scrimmages and was allotted 10 practices in Missoula leading up to the trip.

The tour allowed for Travis DeCuire to introduce concepts to his team – particularly the newcomers – much earlier than he usually would, and noted that the team was ahead of where they normally were early in fall camp.

SECURING THE BALL

Montana averaged just 10.8 turnovers per game a year ago, the 12th-fewest in all of NCAA Division I basketball.

PROUD HISTORY

Travis DeCuire is well aware of Montana's proud history, and has experienced it firsthand. During the 1990s, Montana won the Big Sky Conference and played in the NCAA tournament three times in a seven-year period, including DeCuire's sophomore campaign. The two-time All-Big Sky selection still holds Montana's record for career assists.

Since Montana's first conference championship in 1975, no Big Sky team has won more conference titles (10) than Montana. Additionally, the Grizzlies have won nine tournament titles and have nine runner-up finishes – including three championships and three runner-up finishes in the past eight seasons. In the league's history, Montana has won more games than any Big Sky school except for Weber State.

DECUIRE REACHES MILESTONE

Midway through last season, DeCuire's third in Missoula, the Grizzlies defeated Northern Colorado to earn the head coach his 50th victory. He is the second-fastest Griz coach to reach that milestone (84 games). The fastest to 50 was Blaine Taylor, DeCuire's head coach when he played for the Griz.

MONTANA BASKETBALL

TRAVIS DECUIRE

Head Coach | Fourth Season | Montana, 1994

In his first two seasons as the University of Montana's 27th men's head basketball coach, Travis DeCure accomplished something no other coach in UM history had: he posted two 20-win seasons in his first two seasons.

Now entering the fourth season at his alma mater, DeCure is once again poised to put the Grizzlies back on the road to a 20-win campaign.

DeCure (pronounced: dee-CURE) was formally introduced as the Grizzlies' head basketball coach in June 2014, at a press conference at UM's Adams Center after the initial announcement from UM's Director of Athletics Kent Haslam in May of that year.

In his first season at the helm of a program with a rich history of success, DeCure's Griz started the year picked to finish eighth in the conference. Led by future European professional Jordan Gregory, UM would go on to defy expectations and win the Big Sky regular-season championship and advance to the National Invitational Tournament (NIT) before finishing the season 20-13 (14-4 BSC).

At the time, he became only the second coach in UM history to notch 20 victories in his first season at the helm – a feat also accomplished by Blaine Taylor in 1991-92 (27-4).

In DeCure's second year, he followed up with another 20-win season and another trip to the Big Sky championship game, this time led by future European professional Martin Breunig. DeCure's Grizzlies would once again advance to the postseason, competing in the first round of the CBI tournament against Nevada, finishing with a 21-12 (14-4 BSC) record.

Paced by 10 underclassmen and just two seniors who played significant time, the Grizzlies went 16-16 (11-7 BSC) in 2016-17, earning a first-round bye in the Big Sky tournament. During the season, DeCure became the second-fastest UM head coach to reach 50 wins (doing so in 84 contests). He coached a pair of UM sophomores – both returning in 2017-18 – to All-Big Sky Conference recognition.

The 2016-17 season was also the second consecutive year in which the Grizzlies have posted a team grade-point average above 3.0, earning NABC Team Academic Excellence recognition both seasons.

Prior to returning to his alma mater as head coach, DeCure spent six seasons (2008-09 through 2013-14) on the University of California coaching staff – including the final four as associate head coach. Regarded as one of the top tutors in the game, DeCure helped former Montana mentor Mike Montgomery – a member of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame – transform Cal into one of the winningest programs in the Pac-12 during his time in Berkeley. The Bears reached the postseason all six years he was on the staff, including the NCAA tournament four times. The Golden Bears boasted 130 wins in his six seasons – the best six-year stretch in school history – winning the 2010 Pac-10 championship. He coached numerous all-conference selections, including conference players of the year Jerome Randle (2010) and Jorge Gutierrez (2012).

DeCure he spent five seasons (2003-04 through 2007-08) as an assistant coach at Old Dominion, under former Griz head coach and player Blaine Taylor. There, he helped the Monarchs to a combined record of 117-53. The mark included 94 wins during his final four seasons – the most in school history over a four-year stretch. ODU reached the postseason each of those four seasons and advanced to the NCAA tournament in both 2005 and 2007 – winning a school-record 28 contests in 2005. Additionally, the Monarchs reached the NIT semifinals in 2006 and the quarterfinals of the College Basketball Invitational in 2008.

DeCure, from Seattle, Wash., also has head coaching experience from stints at Sammamish High School and Green River Community College in Washington. At GRCC, DeCure took over a last-place program and guided it to a conference championship and its first 20-win season in more than 20 years, earning league coach-of-the-year honors in 2003 – his second season. At Sammamish High School in Bellevue, DeCure led his team to a pair of conference titles, a state tournament appearance and three consecutive trips to the district tournament.

As a point guard for Montana from 1992-94 DeCure was named All-Big Sky Conference as a junior and senior. He set a school record in just three seasons with 435 career assists. He also established UM's single-season mark with 199 assists as a senior in 1993-94, when he was ranked 12th in the nation, averaging 7.1 assists a game. He was the recipient of the Grizzlies' Carl Dragstedt Award (MVP) as a junior and senior, and received the John Eahart Award (Outstanding Defensive Player) following his senior year.

As a freshman at Chaminade-Hawaii, he was a starter and team MVP in 1990. He then transferred to Montana and redshirted in 1991. DeCure attended Mercer Island High School (Wash.), where he was a three-year starter and all-state, team MVP, and a McDonald's All-America honorable mention pick as a senior.

He has a strong commitment to community service and founded and acted as president of the Fastbreak Basketball Association – an organization that assists in teaching life lessons and building self-esteem through basketball to more than 500 students in the Seattle-Tacoma area. Additionally, he has extensive experience in counseling at the Echo Glen Children's Center in Snoqualmie, Wash., from 1996-98, and with the Ryther Children's Center in North Seattle, from 1995-97.

DeCure graduated from Montana in 1994 with a degree in business marketing. He and his wife, Sabrina, have two daughters – Brianna (24) and Tamia (5).
