MONTANA FACES LONGEST ROAD TRIP

MONTANA AT UTAH STATE / THURSDAY, OCT. 4 / 6:30 P.M. / CEDAR CITY, UTAH
MONTANA AT NORTHERN ARIZONA / SATURDAY, OCT. 6 / 8 P.M. / FLAGSTAFF, ARIZONA

The start to Big Sky Conference play – with four matches in an eight-day span – was a blur. Once one match was complete, it was time to scout and prepare for the next opponent. There was no time to rest, or even reflect on what was being achieved on the court.

Now, after a bye over the weekend, the Grizzlies had a full week in between matches.

First things first, the team rested. Once returning to Missoula on Friday, the team had two full days away from volleyball, something head coach Allison Lawrence called ‘a healthy checkout’.

“Having two days off is a luxury in our season,” Lawrence said. “I hope our team spent time with friends and family, and got some studying in and caught up on some sleep. The weekend off is something that will propel us into the next two weeks.”

In addition to rest, however, Lawrence was also able to reflect – for a minute or two – on the start her team is off to. Last week’s loss at Northern Colorado was disappointing, less so because of the final result and more because of the lack of intensity the team played with. But two weeks into Big Sky play, Montana sits at 3-1, with three victories over three teams ranked higher than the Grizzlies in the preseason poll.

“We’ve had a great start, and we’re really excited about where we’re at right now,” Lawrence said. “It’s exciting to see all of the hard work we’ve been putting in finally have some substance with results.”

Montana’s 3-1 start is its best since 2006. With seven weeks to play in the regular season, the team has already matched last year’s conference win total. But the team also knows that in order to reach its goals, it can’t reflect on the past or what it has accomplished. There’s still a lot of volleyball to be played, and two new challengers in front of them this week – both on the road.

“While our start has given us confidence in a lot of areas, we need to really understand that the real work is ahead of us,” Lawrence said. “Every day is the same, no matter what our past success or failure has been.”

First up this week is a Southern Utah team that is struggling through a 2-14 start to the year. The Thun-

ABOUT MONTANA

- Montana has already matched last year's conference win total, jumping out to its first 3-0 start since 2006. All three victories came against teams ranked ahead of UM in the preseason poll.
- Senior OH Mykaela Hammer was named the Big Sky Conference Offensive Player of the Week on Sept. 24. During conference play, she ranks fourth in the league with 3.75 kills per set.
- MB Olivia Bradley ranks sixth during Big Sky play with a .356 hitting percentage, best among freshmen.
- Junior setter Ashley Watkins has more than 2,000 career assists. She currently ranks 10th in UM history.
- Montana has used three liberos, but freshman Sarina Moreno has started each of the past 12 matches, averaging 3.80 digs per set.
- The Grizzlies have out-dug their opponents eight times this season, and out-blocked them seven times.
- Three of Montana's losses have come to top-30 teams nationally.
- UM made great strides during its first season under Allison Lawrence, seeing a three-win improvement from the 2016 campaign.
- UM improved in every statistical category from 2016 to 2017, including a 40-percent increase in blocking (132-spot improvement nationally).
- The Grizzlies return every player who earned a start in 2017, in addition to 99.9% of their kills, 99.5% of their blocks, 95.7% of their assists, 83.6% of their service aces and 81.6% of their digs.

ABOUT SOUTHERN UTAH

- SUU is just 2-14 on the season, but is coming off of a 3-1 victory at Portland State. Prior to that win, SUU had lost nine in a row. Its other win came Sept. 1 vs. Jacksonville State.
- The Thunderbirds are 0-2 at home this season.
- Sophomore OH Janet Kalaniuvalu leads the Big Sky with 12.51 attacks per set, a figure which ranks ninth in the country. She averages a team-best 3.69 kills per set (third in BSC), more than double the next-best teammate.
- Kalanieuvalu had 22 kills and 18 digs in SUU's win over Portland State last weekend.
- Sophomore MB Anna Hopkins ranks 10th in Big Sky play, averaging 0.98 blocks per set.
- The Thunderbirds' top statistical category is service aces (seventh in Big Sky). Three players lead them with 14 aces apiece.
- However, SUU ranks last in the Big Sky for digs and assists and second to last for hitting percentage and kills.

SERIES VS. THE THUNDERBIRDS

The Grizzlies and Thunderbirds have played each season since 2011, with Montana going 5-4 overall and 2-2 in Cedar City. In a five-set home win last October, UM hit .281 behind 22 kills from Missy Huddleston, 20 from Mykaela Hammer, 16 from Maddy Marshall and 10 from Baily Permann. Setter Ashley Watkins had a career-high 66 assists. Huddleston had 11 kills in a 2016 meeting in Cedar City (3-1 loss), while Alexis Urbach had 17.

ABOUT NORTHERN ARIZONA

- Enters the week with a 10-7 mark overall, including a 2-2 record in Big Sky play. The Lumberjacks defeated Portland State and Weber State and lost to Idaho State and Sacramento State.
- NAU ranks 17th in the NCAA with 17.59 digs per set. The team has four players averaging at least 3.0 digs per set, led by libero Jordan Anderson (4.50).
- NAU ranks in the upper half of the Big Sky for every statistical category, including first for digs and opponent hitting, second for attacking, and third for aces.
- Abby Akin (27) and Aubrea Banfield (23) have combined for 50 service aces, and both rank in the top three in the Big Sky. Akin also ranks third in the Big Sky for hitting (.361) and seventh for blocking (1.06).
- NAU runs a 6-2 offense and has three players averaging between 2.3 and 3.0 kills per set.
- NAU placed fifth in the Big Sky in 2017, returning each starter from that team.
- The Lumberjacks defeated No. 8 Florida last month on their home court. NAU also has a 3-0 win over Gonzaga, a team UM beat in five sets.

SERIES VS. THE LUMBERJACKS

Montana first played NAU in 1980, and the two teams have played each year since 1987. The Grizzlies hold a 33-31 advantage overall and are 13-16 in Flagstaff. UM, though, is looking for its first win at NAU since 2010. UM has lost five in a row on the road and four straight overall. Mykaela Hammer, Missy Huddleston and Alexis Urbach have all recorded double-digit kills vs. NAU.

MONTANA VOLLEYBALL

derbirds, however, are coming off of a road win over Portland State over the weekend, and feature one of the league's top attackers in Janet Kalaniuvalu (league-best 12.51 attacks per set).

Playing on the road is never easy, but this road trip is particularly challenging. After flying in to Las Vegas on Wednesday, the team will take a 2.5-hour bus ride northeast to Cedar City. The Grizzlies will get a workout in Wednesday evening before playing the Thunderbirds on Thursday night. Then, on Friday, it's a five-hour bus trip to Flagstaff, Arizona, where the Grizzlies will play Northern Arizona the following day.

Northern Arizona has one of the nation's top back-court defenses – currently ranked 17th nationally for digs per set – but also has a strong offense, ranking in the top three in the Big Sky for hitting percentage and service aces. The Lumberjacks are 2-2 in Big Sky play (prior to Thursday's match vs. Montana State), with wins over Portland State and Weber State. Most impressive, however, was a non-conference home win over No. 8 Florida. The Gators haven't lost since, and are currently ranked 11th in the country.

"It's our longest road trip, in terms of distance traveled and hours put in, and that adds a little weight," Lawrence said. "Southern Utah has some losses but is hyper athletic, and when they're all in rhythm and playing well they can be dangerous. We need to take care of business on our side of the net. NAU has some big wins and is a really tough team to play in Flagstaff. You have to be really mentally tough in order to execute at a high level."

TALKING HISTORY

Montana has won four of its past five matches entering the week, and along the way has accomplished several rare feats.

- The Grizzlies opened Big Sky Conference play with three consecutive victories. It marked the fifth time in the 31-year history in the league that UM has started Big Sky play 3-0, including the first time since 2006 and second since 1995.
- Currently at 3-1, it is the ninth time a UM team has won three of its first four Big Sky matches, and the first since 2006.
- From Sept. 15-25, Montana won four consecutive matches overall, its longest winning streak since 2013.
- The Grizzlies are currently on a four-match home winning streak, its longest since 2011.

IN THE RANKINGS

Several individuals rank among the Big Sky leaders for several statistical categories:

- Mykaela Hammer's 3.75 kills-per-set average in Big Sky play ranks fourth. Her 23 kills vs. Sacramento State (Sept. 20) are the most by any player in a Big Sky match this season.
- Olivia Bradley ranks sixth, including first among freshmen, with a .356 Big Sky hitting percentage. Her .524 hitting percentage vs. Montana State (14 kills) is the best by a UM player this season.
- Ashley Watkins ranks fourth in Big Sky play with 10.93 assists per set.
- Baily Permann ranks eighth in Big Sky play with 1.06 blocks per set.
- Sarina Moreno ranks 10th in Big Sky play with 4.06 digs per set.

HOME-COURT ADVANTAGE

Sept. 25 was a special night for the Montana volleyball team. Not only did the Grizzlies defeat rival Montana State in come-from-behind fashion to even the all-time series ledger at 56-56, but with the victory, Montana improved to 3-0 in Big Sky play for the first time since 2006.

What's more, though, the match was played in front of 1,314 fans, the largest crowd since 2009 and the 10th-largest on record.

"That was probably one of the most special moments for me in eight years here," head coach Allison Lawrence said. "To see the crowd that showed up for that match, along with the band, it was such a unique energy, and really gave us excitement and motivation. It was a special night for our program, and I'm really proud of our performance."

HAMMER NAMED PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Senior outside hitter was named the Big Sky Conference Offensive Player of the Week on Sept. 24. Hammer averaged a double-double with 19.5 kills and 10.0 digs over two matches, doing so on an impressive .443 efficiency. Her 4.88 kills-per-set average was nearly double the next-closest Grizzly.

In a come-from-behind victory over Sacramento State, Hammer recorded a career-high 23 kills on .409 hitting, eclipsing her previous high for kills on the final swing of the match. The Grizzlies found themselves trailing two sets to none, but closed the third set on a 10-5 run to extend the match. Hammer had three kills during that stretch. Trailing 15-11 in the fourth set, Montana used a 9-4 run to take the lead. During that period, Hammer had four kills. The Grizzlies then scored three of the final four points to earn a 25-23 advantage, with a pair of kills coming from Hammer. In the deciding fifth frame, the Grizzlies jumped out to a 5-0 lead and never trailed. Hammer had two kills during the 5-0 run, plus the final point of the match.

Two nights later vs. Portland State, Hammer again led the Grizzlies, this time with 16 kills on .500 hitting. The outside hitter also recorded three service aces.

Montana jumped out to an 11-5 lead in the first set, with Hammer recording four kills and serving five points during the run. Leading by just one, 13-12, in the second set, Hammer had three consecutive points – a kill and back-to-back service aces – to force a Vikings timeout. She had seven kills, an ace and a block in Montana's Set-3 victory to seal the match.

CELEBRATING ITS PAST

For the first time in more than a decade, Montana hosted an alumni weekend (Sept. 21-22), welcoming back 13 former players – including All-Americans, school record-holders, conference champions and some of the top students and athletes in school history.

"That was one of the highlights of my whole coaching career, not just as a head coach," Allison Lawrence said at the time. "The moment that the alumni saw each other, to see them and feel their energy and hear their stories was really special for me and for our team."

The night before the match, the past and present Grizzlies ate dinner together, reminiscing and sharing stories, in addition to passing along advice to the younger group.

"The biggest thing was to see their relationships now," Lawrence continued. "I don't think they talk very frequently; they have their own busy lives. But the way those bonds come back when they're in this environment I think made our team realize what the bigger picture is and what this is all about, which is who you are for your teammates."

SETTING UP THE GRIZ

Setter Ashley Watkins moved into 10th place in Montana history last month, now holding more than 2,000 career assists. Making the feat even more impressive, Watkins is just a junior, and she spent her freshman season hitting during half of the team's rotations. At her current pace, Watkins could finish her career near the top five in school history.

NON-CONFERENCE COMPETITION

Of the 12 teams Montana played in the preseason, four have either been nationally ranked or have received votes in the AVCA top-25 coaches' poll this season. The Grizzlies challenged themselves by playing two teams from the Pac-12 and another from the Big 12, but all around, their opponents had success throughout the first month of the season. The combined non-conference winning percentage of Montana's 12 preseason opponents was .570 (81-61), with nine teams posting a .500 record or better.

HIGHLIGHTS FROM PRESEASON

- Montana earned victories over Gonzaga (3-2), UTEP (3-0) and South Dakota (3-2).
- Senior outside hitter Mykaela Hammer was named to the Montana Invitational and Borderland Invitational all-tournament teams. At the Roadrunner Classic, outside hitter Alexis Urbach and setter Ashley Watkins earned all-tournament honors.
- Montana out-blocked its opponents six times during the preseason, averaging 2.1 blocks per set. Sophomore middle blocker Baily Permann has led the Grizzlies for blocking six times.
- During a seven-match stretch from Aug. 31 through Sept. 14, Montana was out-dug just one time (in a victory at UTEP). The stretch featured three matches vs. top-30 opponents.
- Montana hit a season-best .229 in a five-set loss to New Mexico State. It marked the first time in more than a year that the Aggies, who now own a 16-match home win streak, had been pushed to five sets at home.
- The Grizzlies out-hit their opponents twice during the Borderland Invitational, holding UTEP to .150 efficiency.
- The Grizzlies recorded more service aces than their opponents in each of the final two matches of non-conference play (CSU Bakersfield and South Dakota).
- Hammer recorded 20 kills vs. New Mexico State. She has led the Grizzlies for kills a team-high five times this season.
- Junior outside hitter Missy Huddleston has recorded double-figure kill totals six times, including 24 on .333 hitting in a five-set win over Gonzaga. Trailing 14-13 in the fifth set, she had a kill and service ace to set up match point for Montana. She also has three double-doubles and has led UM in hitting percentage a team-high four times.
- Urbach had 21 kills on .390 hitting vs. CSU Bakersfield and 16 kills at a .483 clip in the season opener against UC Riverside. She has led Montana for kills four times this season.
- Watkins has four double-doubles and a team-high 12 service aces.
- Over the past four matches, freshman middle blocker Olivia Bradley is averaging 2.07 kills and 1.07 blocks per set. She has led the Grizzlies in blocking four times this season.
- True freshman Sarina Moreno has started eight matches at libero, averaging 3.71 digs per set in those matches, including a career-high 20 vs. Gonzaga. She also has six service aces.

MONTANA VOLLEYBALL

- During the Montana Invitational, junior middle blocker Janna Grimsrud totaled 12 blocks over two matches. On the season she is averaging 1.50 blocks over 10 sets.
- Against New Mexico State, Montana used an 8-0 run to force a deciding fifth set. The Grizzlies and Aggies were tied at 13-13 in the final frame before NMSU won the final two points.
- The Grizzlies learned how to close out tight sets late at UTEP. They led 23-22 in the first set before winning two of the final three points. The two teams were knotted at 23-23 in Set 2, before Montana won the next two points. Tied at 24-24 in the third set, the Grizzlies got back-to-back kills to seal the match.

SEARCHING FOR THE RIGHT LINEUP

In 16 matches, Montana has used 13 different starting-lineup combinations, not repeating the same one until the eighth match of the season. Setter Ashley Watkins and outside hitter Mykaela Hammer have started all 16 matches, while outside hitter Missy Huddleston has started 13.

A SIGNATURE WIN

After a 0-5 start to the year, the Grizzlies earned a signature win over Gonzaga (Sept. 1), winning the first two sets before rallying in the fifth frame to win, 17-15. In the deciding set, Montana trailed 14-13 before scoring four of the next five points.

"I think I jumped as high as I have since college," head coach Allison Lawrence said after the match. "I was very emotional. We had players crying, we had coaches hugging. We're a program that has been starved for wins, and I want us to be so hungry that when that last ball falls, it's the feeling of coming up for air and all of your emotions come pouring out."

The result was even more important considering Gonzaga is one of Montana's regional recruiting rivals.

MONTANA VOLLEYBALL

HANGING WITH THE BEST

Montana knew the challenge would be steep, facing a pair of top-30 teams nationally. The Grizzlies were up for the challenge, however. Despite losing in straight sets to both Utah and Iowa State (Aug. 31), Montana showed fight, and pushed the Power-5 teams in many sets.

Against No. 22 Utah, the Grizzlies jumped out to an early lead and forced the Utes to call timeout first. Montana led by as many as three points, and as late as 17-16. In the third set, Montana was within a single point, 15-14, midway through the frame. Montana was even better against Iowa State. In the second set, the Grizzlies led by as many as seven points, 15-8, and were tied at 21-21. The two teams were knotted at 20-20 in Set 3, before Iowa State again closed the set on a run.

SARINA'S DEBUT

Freshman Sarina Moreno, who did not travel with the team to Montana's first tournament in California, made her collegiate debut during the second set vs. Utah (Aug. 31). She had six digs vs. the Utes, and has continued to find her comfortability. In her 12 starts, the libero has averaged 3.90 digs per set, in addition to eight service aces.

COMING HOME

Montana played a home match in the month of August for the first time since 2014, hosting the four-team Montana Invitational (Aug. 31-Sept. 1). A year ago, Montana played its first 15 matches away from home, playing its own gym for the first time on Sept. 28.

RANKED FOES IN MISSOULA

For just the fourth time ever, and the first time in 15 years, a nationally ranked volleyball team played in Missoula. The Grizzlies hung tough with No. 22 Utah, leading by as many as three points in the first set, and as late as 17-16.

WE'RE (ALL) BACK!

The 2017 season was a rebuilding year, with a new head coach and zero seniors on roster. But the Grizzlies made promising strides a year ago, and now have the benefit of returning every statistical leader. In fact, every player who earned a start in 2017 is back.

Returning Production

- Kills: 99.9%
- Blocks: 99.5%
- Assists: 95.7%
- Service Aces: 83.6%
- Digs: 81.6%

TRENDING UP

The Grizzlies saw a three-win improvement during Alison Lawrence's first season as head coach. Even more impressive, UM improved in every statistical category from 2016 to 2017, including a 40-percent increase in blocking (132-spot improvement nationally).

It was a similar trend in Big Sky Conference play, with Montana improving its ranking in hitting percentage, opponent hitting, assists, kills, blocks and service aces.

WELCOME TO UM

In addition to returning nearly every contributor from 2017, the Grizzlies also added five freshmen to their roster. The newcomers made an immediate impact during fall camp, with Lawrence praising each of them for what they brought to the court.

"Olivia (Bradley) is fast and she thinks on her feet," Lawrence said of the Nampa, Idaho, native. "When she doesn't know what she's supposed to be doing – which is rare – she kind of pushes through it and grinds it out."

Bradley made two starts during her opening weekend, leading the team with five blocks vs. Akron (Aug. 25). She has played in 14 of UM's 16 matches (nine starts), and is averaging 1.70 kills on a team-best .287 hitting, plus 0.75 blocks per set.

Montana's other freshmen are outside hitter Elsa Godwin (Missoula, Mont.), defensive specialist Sarina Moreno (Missoula, Mont.), defensive specialist Kelsey Nestegard (Pullman, Wash.) and setter Casey Stites (Bozeman, Mont.). Moreno has started at libero each of Montana's last 12 matches.

LOOKING AHEAD

Following three consecutive matches on the road, Montana will return home to host Eastern Washington (Oct. 11) and preseason favorite Idaho (Oct. 13).

MONTANA VOLLEYBALL

ALLISON LAWRENCE

Head Coach | 2nd Season/9th Overall | Oregon State, 2005

The 2018 season is Allison Lawrence's second year as head coach of the Montana volleyball program, her ninth overall. She was hired in January 2017 after serving the previous seven years as an assistant.

Lawrence joined the Grizzlies in the summer of 2010 after one season as an assistant coach at Trinity University in San Antonio, Texas.

Montana went 8-21 in Lawrence's first year as head coach, matching the most wins for the program since 2013.

In Lawrence's seven seasons as an assistant, Montana three times finished .500 or better in Big Sky Conference matches and three times made the league's postseason tournament.

At the 2013 Big Sky tournament, No. 5 Montana defeated No. 4 Northern Arizona in the quarterfinals, the Grizzlies' first postseason victory since 1996.

Since Lawrence has been on staff, Jaimie Thibeault earned first-team All-Big Sky honors in 2010, Kayla Reno in 2013 and Hannah Sackett in 2015. The Grizzlies also have had three second-team selections during that time.

Lawrence, from Alta Loma, Calif., was a four-year starter at outside hitter for Oregon State, from 2001 to 2004. She graduated from OSU in 2005 with a degree in philosophy and added a master's degree in applied women's studies from Claremont Graduate University in 2008.

Lawrence was a freshman on Oregon State's NCAA tournament team in 2001 and would go on to earn honorable-mention All-Pac-10 honors as a junior and senior. She was awarded Pac-10 academic honors in 2002, 2003 and 2004, and was an academic all-district selection as a junior.

One of the top outside hitters in Beaver history, Lawrence finished her career ranked among OSU's leaders in both kills (1,255) and digs (965).

Lawrence was a volunteer assistant coach at Oregon State in 2005 and an assistant coach at Pomona-Pitzer in 2007 and La Verne in 2008, both NCAA Division III schools in Southern California. She also gained extensive coaching experience at the club level during that time.

Lawrence spent the 2009 season at Trinity. She helped lead the Tigers to a 30-win season and a spot in the NCAA Division III national quarterfinals. She is married to Nate Michael. They are the parents of two sons, Wyatt and Carson.
