MONTANA MEDIA INFORMATION AND POLICIES

FALL PRACTICE

All players report on Monday, August 10. The first practice is Wednesday, August 12 at the South Campus practice fields, located on Higgins and South Avenues. Scrimmage information will be released by UM's Sports Information Media Relations Office in a timely manner. Practice times for the first two weeks are at 8:30 a.m. and 2:45 p.m. Regular-season practices start around 3:15 p.m. at varied sites. Practices are closed on Thursday and Friday. Video/still photography is restricted to the first 30 minutes.

INTERVIEW POLICY

Three-to-four student-athletes and head coach Bobby Hauck will be available every Tuesday during the season from 1:30-2:00 p.m. in the Max and Betty Swanson Grizzly Sky Club located on the third floor of the Adams Center. Players and coaches will also be available for a limited time before or after practice Monday through Wednesday on a first-come, first-served basis, but quarterbacks are available on Tuesdays only. Please contact the Media Relations Office for all additional interview requests.

PRESS/PHOTO CREDENTIALS

All media credentials and photography passes should be requested from Associate Athletic Director Dave Guffey. Credentials will be available at the Media Relations Office in Adams Center from Thursday at noon until Friday at 4:00 p.m. Credentials not picked up by that time are available at the Will Call window at the Adams Center Box Office from 9:00 a.m. until kickoff on game day. Photographers must comply with NCAA guidelines.

VISITING MEDIA

All visiting media should make credential/parking requests through the visiting SID.

PARKING

Media parking is available on a limited basis to visiting media in several lots, all of which are located a short walking distance from Washington-Grizzly Stadium.

DIRECTIONS TO STADIUM

PROFESSIONAL SCOUTS

Pro scouts please contact Dave Guffey to obtain a press box credential, but press box seating is not available for all games.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The postgame interview room is located in the Max and Betty Swanson Sky Club in the Adams Center. The visiting SID or a representative from UM's Sports Information Office will escort the visiting head coach and a minimum of two players to the interview room. As per Big Sky Conference rules, locker rooms are closed to the media.

POSTGAME MEDIA WORK AREA

Media members may use the Media Work Room, located in Adams Center room 136 (by Sports Information offices), to file stories. Coach and player quotes are available if requested during the week prior to the game.

COVERING THE GRIZ

Mick Holien – the Voice of the Grizzlies - and KXGZ-FM

Mick Holien is in his 17th year as the "Voice of the Grizzlies" and his 25th season overall as the play-by-play announcer at The University of Montana for KXGZ Radio (Griz Country 101.5 FM) and KGVO Radio (1290 AM).

He has been selected the National Sportswriters and Sports Broadcasters Association's "Montana Sports Broadcaster of the Year" nine times. Holien and his wife, Carleen, reside in Polson. Mick has two children, a son, Chris, and a daughter, Stephanie Landers, and two stepchildren, Eric Olson and Breanne Loewen, and four grandchildren.

Phil Buck and KPAX-TV

For the 14th year in a row KPAX-TV/Channel 8 of Missoula will broadcast the UM's football coach's show "The Bobby Hauck Show," which airs on Sunday nights at 10:30.

Phil Buck begins his third year at KPAX-TV as sports director and host of the show. This season KPAX, along with its other Montana News Stations, will broadcast 10 of Montana's games live.

Fritz Neighbor and the Missoulian

Fritz Neighbor is in his sixth season covering Grizzly football for the Missoulian. A native of Harlowton, Mont., Fritz attended Arizona State and The University of Montana, studying journalism and art.

He began his professional career as a part-time sports writer at the Missoulian in 1987; he returned to the Missoulian in 2004 from the Billings Gazette, where he spent 13 years, the last two covering Big Sky Conference athletics.

Scott Gurnsey, Football Color Commentator

Scott Gurnsey is now in his 12th season as color commentator for Grizzly football.

"Gurnz" is a former (1991-94) Griz receiver and punter. He is ranked second in school history with 2,574 career receiving yards.

WASHINGTON-GRIZZLY STADIUM

The Home of the Grizzlies

The 2009 season will be the 24th year that the University of Montana Grizzly football team will call Washington-Grizzly Stadium at John Hoyt field its home.

Since playing their first game in the stadium in 1986, the Grizzlies have an overall record of 149-20 for a winning percentage of 88.2%. Montana was 9-0 at home last season.

That first game was played mid-way through the season on October 18, 1986, a 38-31 come-from-behind win over Idaho State.

Last season Montana set Big Sky Conference regular-season home attendance records, drawing 174,236 fans in seven games, averaging 24,891 per contest. The Grizzlies also set the standard for the largest crowd to attend a regular-season game with 25,326 at the Central Washington contest.

Montana led the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) in average attendance in 2005 and 2006, and have been ranked second the last two seasons. Last year UM averaged 23,923 fans in nine home games (including two playoff contests).

The Grizzlies broke the Washington-Grizzly Stadium attendance mark five times during the 2008 season in its expanded facility. The attendance at all seven regular-season home games last year is ranked in the top 20 of all-time marks of the 169 contests played there since 1986.

UM set a conference record with 27 consecutive regular-season wins from 2006-08, that skein ended with a 45-28 setback on Oct. 4 at Weber State last year. Over the past three seasons the Grizzlies are 20-0 at home in regular-season games.

No Place Like Home

Not only has Montana won 149 games in its 23 seasons in Washington-Grizzly Stadium, but beginning in 1994, the Griz reeled off 30 straight home victories. The win streak began with a 41-7 win over Sonoma State on Sept. 3 and ended with a 40-35 loss to Eastern Washington on Oct. 18 of 1997. UM's 30 consecutive home wins are the fifth most in FCS history.

Stadium History and Namesake

The plans for an on-campus football facility at Montana came to fruition in August of 1985 when Missoula businessman Dennis R. Washington and the employees of Washington Corporations provided a gift of $1 million, hence the name of Washington-Grizzly Stadium. The cost of the stadium was around $3.2 million.

There are 49 private boxes located on the east and west sides of the stadium, and they are individually decorated and furnished.

Stadium Expansions

Washington-Grizzly Stadium underwent its third expansion, at a cost of approximately $6.5 million, prior to the 2008 football season. The eastside expansion now houses a 500-seat "Stadium Club" with two membership levels: the "Canyon Room" has 125 seats inside and 125 seats outside, and the "Hellgate Terrace," which has 250 seats.

The recent expansion provided 375 Grizzly Scholarship Association priority seats, which are located between the 25-and-40-yard lines and on both sides of the 50-yard line, as well as 1,150 non-priority seats located on the 10-to-25-yard lines. This expansion increased the current seating capacity of Washington-Grizzly Stadium to 25,217.

The second expansion occurred in the spring and summer of 2003, and approximately 4,000 seats were added to the north end zone section, increasing the stadium capacity to 23,183, with a cost of about $3.5 million.

In the spring of 1995 the stadium underwent its first expansion in the north and south end zones. At that time there were 12,500 permanent seats, and seating was available, weather-permitting, in the grass end zones, which made the capacity around 15,000. The cost was approximately $2.5 million.

GrizVision, a state-of-the-art video and message center, was added in 2002. GrizVision displays game statistics, player profiles, digital replays, and shots of the crowd. The screen is one of the largest in the FCS, measuring 26 feet by 36 feet, and it came from New York City and Times Square.

A natural-grass stadium gave way to Sprin-turf prior to the 2001 season at a cost of about $1 million, and a new Sprinturf playing surface was installed in 2008, which was paid for by an anonymous donor. The field was named "John Hoyt Field" in 2001 at the request of the anonymous donor, in honor of Hoyt, a long-time Grizzly booster, who passed away in March 2001.

The Griz locker rooms measure 4,000-plus square feet. The Adams Center features a 7,000-square foot weight room, a 4,500-square foot athletic treatment center, the Jacobson Academic Center, and a meeting room with big screen videos. The women's locker room covers 4,000 square feet. There are also three additional meeting rooms totaling 2,000 square feet.

COACHING STAFF

BOBBY HAUCK

HEAD COACH BOBBY HAUCK

SEVENTH YEAR AT MONTANA: 66-16 OVERALL/39-6 BIG SKY

Bobby Hauck is the winningest coach in Big Sky Conference history in terms of victories per season (11) and conference championships (six).

His teams have compiled an amazing overall record of 66-16 and equally impressive 39-6 Big Sky slate in his six-year tenure at his alma mater (1988).

When Coach Hauck reached the 60-win plateau in the fall of 2008, he was the fifth coach in Big Sky history to accomplish that, and he hit that mark of 60 victories two seasons faster than any other coach in league history.

Hauck is ranked fourth in Big Sky history with his 66 career victories.

Under Hauck's tutelage the Grizzlies have won six straight league championships and participated in six consecutive Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) playoffs, and he is the only mentor ever at Montana to accomplish that, while his six league titles are twice as many as any other Grizzly coach.

Montana's 66 wins the past six seasons since Hauck took over the reigns in 2003 are the most by any FCS team. The Grizzlies' 11 consecutive Big Sky championships are the second most in FCS or Football Bowl Subdivision history.

Hauck, 44, is ranked fourth in Big Sky history with his 66 career victories. He is second in school history in wins, as former Griz mentor Don Read won 85 games in his 10-year tenure from 1986-95, which ranks him second in number of league wins.

Over the past three seasons Coach Hauck's (pronounced: howk) teams are 37-4 (.902) overall and 23-1 (.958) in the Big Sky games. He was voted the Big Sky's and Region 5 "Coach of the Year" in 2006 and 2007.

Last season Montana went 14-2 overall and advanced to the FCS title game for the second time in Coach Hauck's tenure (the sixth time in school history). Those 14 victories tie the school record for the second most wins in a season.

In 2007, the Grizzlies went 11-0 during the regular season (UM went 11-1 in 2008 in the regular season), which was only the sixth time in school history a Grizzly team had gone undefeated in the regular season, and it was the first time since 1996. In 2006 the Griz went 12-2 overall, losing 19-17 to UMass in a FCS semifinal playoff game, and it was the sixth time ever a Montana team has won 12 or more games.

In just his second season at the helm in 2004, the Griz advanced to the FCS championship game, losing 31-21 to James Madison in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Over the past six seasons the Grizzlies have had 20 players named to FCS All-American teams.

Prior to returning to Montana, he spent four years at the University of Washington. At UW he worked with defensive backs and special teams and was considered one of the top recruiters in college football. Before that he was at the University of Colorado for four seasons, from 1995-98, where he was the special teams and recruiting coordinator, and also coached the safeties.

Before joining the Buffaloes, Hauck coached the outside linebackers and handled recruiting duties for Northern Arizona (1993-94). He served as a graduate assistant at UCLA in 1990 to 1991 under former Bruin head coach Terry Donahue, and in 1992 he served as the on-campus recruiting coordinator. During those seasons he coached in eight Bowl games.

Hauck began his collegiate coaching career as a volunteer assistant for the Grizzlies in 1988-89, working with the secondary and then the inside linebackers.

He is an active member of the American Football Coaches Association, currently serving as the chairman of the rules committee in District 8.

A Montana native, Bobby's first coaching position was in 1987 as an assistant at Sweet Grass High School, his alma mater, working for his late father, Bob, Sr. Bobby was a three-sport standout at Big Timber High School, lettering in football, basketball, and track.

Bobby's brother Tim Hauck was an All-American defensive back at Montana from 1987-89, played 13 seasons in the National Football League and is now an assistant coach for the Tennessee Titans. Their uncle, Tom Hauck, coaches Montana's defensive tackles and was a center and linebacker for the Grizzlies from 1960-63.

Bobby was named the 33rd head football coach at Montana on December 20, 2002. At that time he was the youngest head coach in modern UM history.

Hauck lettered twice in track and field at UM. He graduated in 1988 with degrees in business and physical education and earned a master's degree in education administration from UCLA in 1991.

He is married to the former Stacey Harbin from St. Ignatius, and the couple have twin daughters, Sydney and Alexandra, 13; a son, Robby, 11; and a daughter Elise, 2. Bobby is an avid fly-fisherman and skier.

COACHES IN QATAR

Five National Collegiate Athletic Association head football coaches pose for a photograph after completing a meet and greet session for service members at Camp As Sayliyah, Qatar, July 5. From left to right: Robb Akey, University of Idaho; Chris Smeland, West Point, The U.S. Military Academy; U.S. Col. David G. Cotter, Third Army/Area Support Group Qatar commander; Command Sgt. Maj. Michael D. Howard, ASG-QA; Bobby Hauck, University of Montana; Mickey Matthews, James Madison University and David Bailiff, Rice University. The coaches were beginning a support tour of military installations in the Middle East.

CAMP AS SAYLIYAH, Qatar – Five National Collegiate Athletic Association coaches met hundreds of U.S. service members in Qatar, July 5. The NCAA coaches were touring various military installations in the Middle East to visit deployed troops. This is a first-of-its-kind event for Koeberle & Associates providing athletes and celebrities to military personnel overseas.

The assembly of coaches included: Robb Akey, University of Idaho; Chris Smeland, West Point, The U.S. Military Academy; Bobby Hauck, University of Montana; Mickey Matthews, James Madison University and David Bailiff, Rice University.

“Other than relatives, I’ve never met anyone with the same last name,” said U.S. Air Force Airman 1st Class Crystal Hauck, from Fresno, Calif., after meeting Bobby Hauck, University of Montana head coach. “I had to meet him today – we may be distant cousins.”

The hometown heroes greeted several war fighters participating in the U.S. Central Command rest and recuperation pass program at Camp As Sayliyah. Executed by Third Army/U.S. Army Central Area Support Group Qatar, the venue offers service members a respite from contingency commitments throughout Southwest Asia. Over 185,000 war fighters have participated in the program, since its inception in 2004.

“I’m a big college football fan,” said U.S. Army Sgt. Nathanael Buschmann, from Oregon, Wis., while shaking hands with Robb Akey, University of Idaho head coach. “During the season, I try to watch every game – even the ones that come on at 2 a.m.”

“This is an honor,” said Bailiff, Rice University head coach. “We’re here to show our gratitude and support for the troops, for all they do every day.”

ASSISTANT COACHES

Dominic Daste

Tight Ends/Running Game Coordinator
(Washington, 2001)
Seventh Year at Montana

Dom is currently in his seventh season as an assistant coach at Montana.

For the fourth year in a row he will be working with the tight ends. This is his inaugural season as Montana's Running Game Coordinator.

The previous two years he not only worked with the tight ends, but he also served as UM's recruiting coordinator. In his first three seasons with the Grizzlies he coached the offensive line.

The past three seasons he has been instrumental in the stellar play of tight ends Dan Beaudin and Steve Pfahler. Both Beaudin and Pfahler have been honorable mention All-Big Sky Conference selections the past two seasons.

Daste came to UM from the University of Washington, where he served as graduate assistant coach for two seasons. He worked with the offensive line during his two-year stint at his alma mater.

He was a four-year letterman for the Huskies at offensive guard. Every season during his six years at Washington as a player and coach, the Huskies participated in a bowl game. He received the "Tough Husky Award" in 1999 at UW.

While he was a player at Washington, the Huskies participated in the Aloha Bowl in 1997; the Oahu Bowl in 1998; the Holiday Bowl in 1999; and the Rose Bowl in 2001. The Huskies won the Pac-10 Conference championship in 2000. In his first season as an assistant coach at UW (2002), the Huskies played in the Holiday Bowl.

He prepped at Damien High School in LaVerne, California.

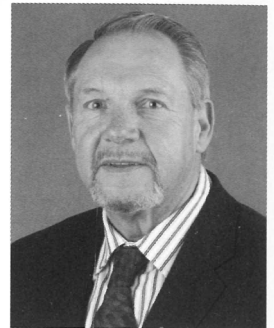

He earned his Bachelor of Arts and Science degree in geography from Washington in 2001.

Dominic is a native of San Dimas, Calif.. He is single. Dominic's parents are Maceo and Diane Daste of San Dimas.

Mick Delaney

Assistant Head Coach/Running Backs
(Western Montana College, 1964)
Second Year at Montana

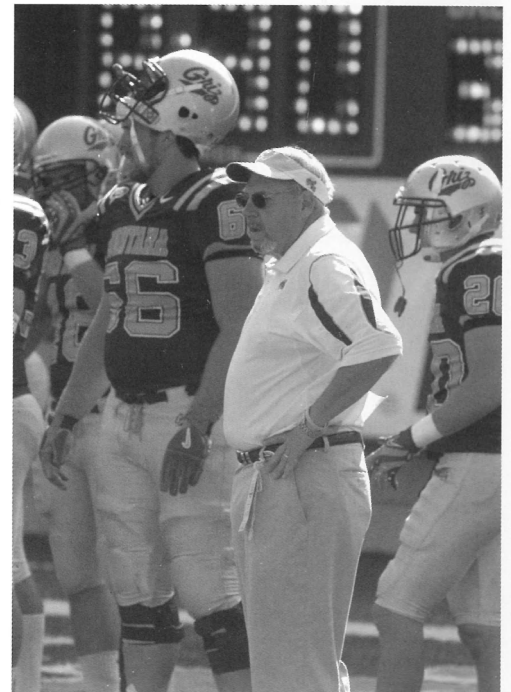

Michael (Mick) Delaney is now in his second season as an assistant football coach at The University of Montana. He was recently elevated to the position of assistant head coach, and he will continue to work with the running backs.

Last season Delaney was instrumental in the development of sophomore running back Chase Reynolds, who set a school record by rushing for 22 touchdowns.

Delaney has been in the coaching ranks for 39 years, including 27 seasons at the collegiate level and 12 in the prep ranks.

Originally from Butte, he came to Montana from Colorado State, where he was an assistant coach for former head coach Sonny Lubick for 14 years (1993-2007).

While at CSU Delaney coached some of the finest running backs in school history, including five first-team all-conference selections such as Cecil Sapp in 2000. Sapp was a finalist for the Doak Walker Award as the nation's most outstanding running back and set a school rushing record with 1,601 yards in 2002.

Prior to coaching at CSU, Delaney was at Western Montana (head coach, 1991-92); served as athletic director at Montana Tech (1983-85); was an assistant football coach at Montana State (1976-80); and was an assistant coach at Montana in 1968-69.

Delaney began his coaching career as a head wrestling and assistant football coach at Butte Central High School from 1964-67, and held the same two positions at Montana in 1968-69. He then moved on to Great Falls High School and served as the head wrestling and football coach from 1969-76. He earned his B.A. in education at UM-Western (Western Montana College) in 1964. Delaney is an inaugural inductee into the Western Montana College Sports Hall of Fame.

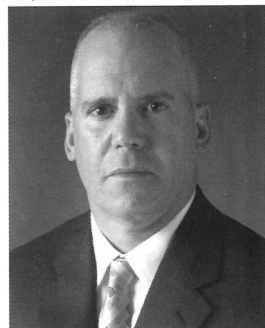

Mick and his wife Cheri have three children, son Mike, daughters Shauna Basile and Melissa Ossello, and nine grandchildren.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Mike Gerber

Football Strength Coach
(University of Maine, 1981)
Fourth Year at Montana

Mike Gerber is in his fourth season as the Grizzlies' strength coach at The University of Montana, working exclusively with football players.

He has numerous years of experience in the strength and conditioning field. Before he came to Montana he was involved in a pair of businesses in Syracuse, New York. For more than five years as the owner of "Mike Gerber Sport-Strength," and he was the co-owner and president of "Strength in Motion."

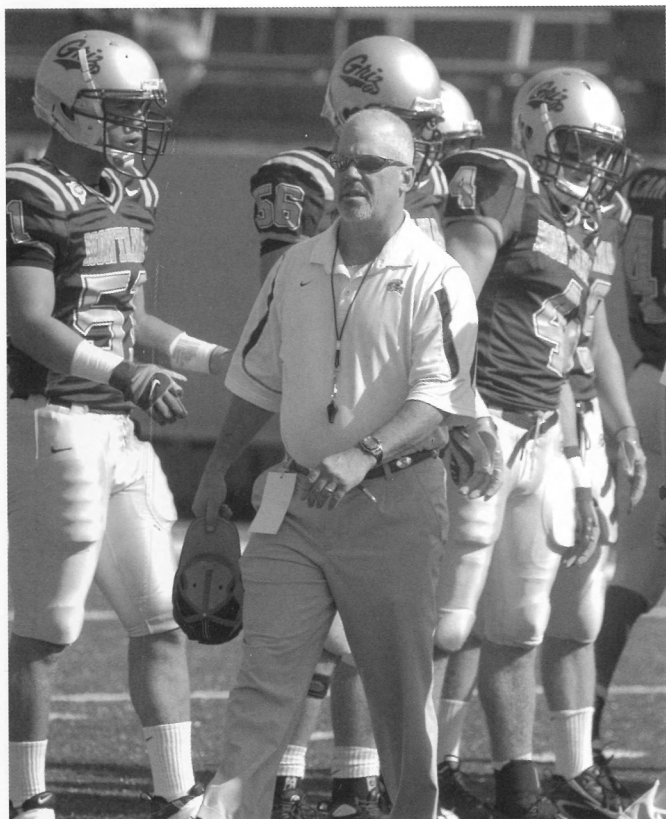

He served as the head strength and conditioning coach at Syracuse University from 1995-2000 and held assistant strength and conditioning positions at Syracuse, the University of Maryland, and was the head man at both Yale University, and Middlebury College (Vermont) from 1987-1994.

Mike is no stranger to the coaching ranks. His first stint was as an assistant football coach at Colby College in Maine in 1981. He was an assistant football coach for a couple of high schools in the East from 1982-84 and then was a grad assistant in football at Syracuse for three years (1985-87).

He became the head strength coach and defensive coordinator at Middlebury College (1987-90), and then Yale (1990-94) where he also coached the linebackers. He then moved on to Syracuse, where he worked until going into private business in June of 2000.

He earned a B.S. degree in physical education and health from the University of Maine in 1981 and an M.S. in physical education from Syracuse University in 1991.

Mike's wife's name is Erica.

Chad Germer

Offensive Line
(Montana, 1993)
First Year at Montana (7th Year Overall)

Chad Germer is in his first year as Montana's offensive line coach, but this is his second stint as a coach at his alma mater. Before returning to UM he was at the University of Wyoming for six years. He is in his 12th season of coaching at the college level.

Chad moved from his alma mater (Montana, 1993) to Wyoming in 2003 and also coached the offensive line while in Laramie. He has coached numerous all-league players the previous six seasons at Wyoming. Last season guard Kyle Howard and center Tim Bond were All-Mountain West Conference honorable mention picks.

Germer began his coaching career at Montana in 1998 as a restricted-earnings coach and was elevated to full-time status the following year.

During his six seasons as a coach at Montana, the Griz won or shared six Big Sky Conference Championships, advanced to the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) playoffs each of those six seasons, reached the FCS national title game twice (2000 and 2001) and won the 2001 national title. He coached four All-Americans during his first coaching stint at UM.

Germer's 2002 offensive line unit helped the Grizzly offense rank 18th in the nation in scoring offense (31.5 points per game) and 22nd in passing offense (245.6 yards per game). In 2001, the Grizzly offense averaged 33.8 points and 419.2 yards per game to rank 20th and 21st in the nation. The Griz also ended the 2000 season sixth in the nation in passing (313.0 yards per game) and 15th in total offense (455.9 yards per game).

An All-American, Germer started 36 consecutive games at center at Montana from 1989-91. He was a first team All-Big Sky selection and All-American in 1991. He played in the Blue-Gray All-Star Football Classic following his senior season. He signed as a free-agent with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Germer earned his bachelor of science degree in business administration, with an emphasis in marketing and management, from The University of Montana in 1993.

A native of Three Forks, Mont., he and his wife, Amy, have two sons, Nicholas and Alex.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Ty Gregorak

Linebackers/Recruiting Coordinator
(Colorado, 2001)
Seventh Year at Montana

Ty is in his seventh season with Montana, and it is his sixth year of coaching the linebackers. He was recently named UM's recruiting coordinator. In his first year at UM, in 2003, he coached the secondary.

The past three seasons he has coached some of the most prolific linebackers in school history. Last season Tyler Corwin, Brandon Fisher, Shawn Lebsock, and Tom Martin were All-Big Sky Conference honorable mention selections.

Two seasons ago Tyler Joyce, Kyle Ryan, and Loren Utterback were All-Big Sky Conference picks, and all three are ranked among the school's all-time leaders in career tackles. He has coached 10 all-conference players in his tenure at UM.

Before coming to Montana, Ty served as an assistant coach at the University of Washington in 2001 and 2002. He was a graduate assistant coach for the Huskies when they went to the Holiday Bowl in 2001 and when they played in the Sun Bowl in 2002, working primarily with the secondary and special teams.

Gregorak was a three-year letterman at linebacker for the University of Colorado, from 1997-2000. He was the recipient of the Lee Willard Award (outstanding freshman) for the Buffaloes in 1997. In 1998, CU played in the Aloha Bowl, while the 1999 squad played in the Insight.Com Bowl in Tucson, Arizona.

Ty was a 2000 Academic All-Big XII selection. That year he was a finalist for the National Academic-Athletic Achievement Award.

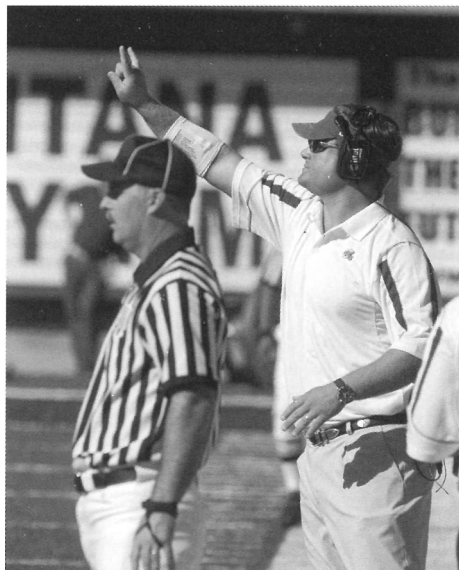

He was a standout prep athlete at West Valley High School in Spokane, Wash. He was a first-team all-state selection in high school in 1995 and 1996. He served as team captain from 1994-96.

In 1996, he was chosen the state of Washington's Defensive Player of the Year and voted Super Prep magazine's West Coast Defensive Player of the Year.

In 1997, Gregorak was named West Valley High School's Student-Athlete of the Year. He was named to several All-American teams that year and was a USA Today honorable mention. He was named team captain of the East squad in the Washington State All-Star game in 1997. He was team captain for the West in the 1997 High School All-American Game in Orlando, Florida.

Gregorak earned a B.A. degree at Colorado in communication in 2001.

Ty and his wife Annie, have a son, Gage, born Feb. 13, 2009.

Tom Hauck

Defensive Tackles
(Montana, 1964)
10th Year at Montana

Tom Hauck is the veteran of the Grizzly staff and has been coaching at the high school and college levels for more than five decades.

He is in his 10th year as an assistant at Montana, and he will be exclusively coaching the defensive tackles for the ninth season in a row. In his first season at Montana in 2000, Tom coached the defensive tackles and also worked with the defensive ends.

The past two years tackle Craig Mettler was named second team All-Big Sky Conference, while last season senior tackle Jesse Carlson was an honorable selection. The Grizzlies have had at least one defensive tackle named to the All-Big Sky team each of the last seven seasons.

Tom is a former Grizzly football standout. The 6-2, 220-pounder played center and linebacker at Montana from 1961-63, and played freshman ball for the Grizzlies in 1960.

Originally from Butte, he was a team co-captain his senior year at Montana in 1963 along with tackle Fred Calder. Tom was an honorable mention All-Big Sky Conference selection at center following his senior year, which was the inaugural season for the league.

Bobby Hauck, UM's head coach, is the son of Tom's brother, the late Robert Hauck, Sr. Tom's nephew Tim Hauck was an All-American safety for the Grizzlies (1988-89) and is currently an assistant football coach for the Tennessee Titans.

Prior to coming to Montana, Tom coached at Rocky Mountain College in Billings for 13 seasons (1987-1999), and while there he worked with the defense and special teams.

Before his stint at Rocky he coached for 19 seasons (1968-86) at Billings Senior High School. He was the head coach for four seasons from 1983-86 and an assistant coach there the previous 15 seasons. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Montana in 1964.

Tom graduated from Montana in 1965, earning a bachelor's degree in mathematics. He is single.

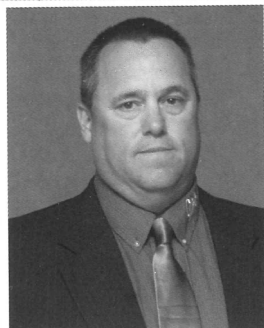

ASSISTANT COACHES

Mike Hudson

Director of Football Operations/Secondary
(University of Texas at San Antonio, 1994)
Fifth Year at Montana

Mike Hudson is currently in his fifth season at The University of Montana as an assistant football coach. He was recently named UM's director of football operations.

This will be his second season in a row of coaching the secondary. Last season Grizzlies safeties Colt Anderson and Shann Schillinger were named to the All-Big Sky Conference first and second teams, while cornerback Trumaine Johnson was an honorable mention selection.

He served as an associate head coach for the Grizzlies the previous four seasons. Two years ago Hudson worked with the running backs, and the two seasons prior to that he coached cornerbacks.

In 2007, Hudson worked with running back Lex Hilliard, one of the top-ranked rushers in the nation with 1,132 yards.

Mike is in his 21st year of coaching in the college level. For the past 18 seasons he has coached teams at the Football Championship Subdivision (I-AA) level.

Hudson came to Montana after a two-year stint at Sam Houston State (2003-04) where he was the defensive coordinator for the Bearkats for a season and the defensive line coach the year prior to that. The Grizzlies played Sam Houston State in a FCS semifinal game in Missoula in 2004, Montana winning 34-13. That year Sam Houston State registered the biggest turnaround in FCS history, improving from a 2-9 record in 2003 to a 11-3 ledger in 2004.

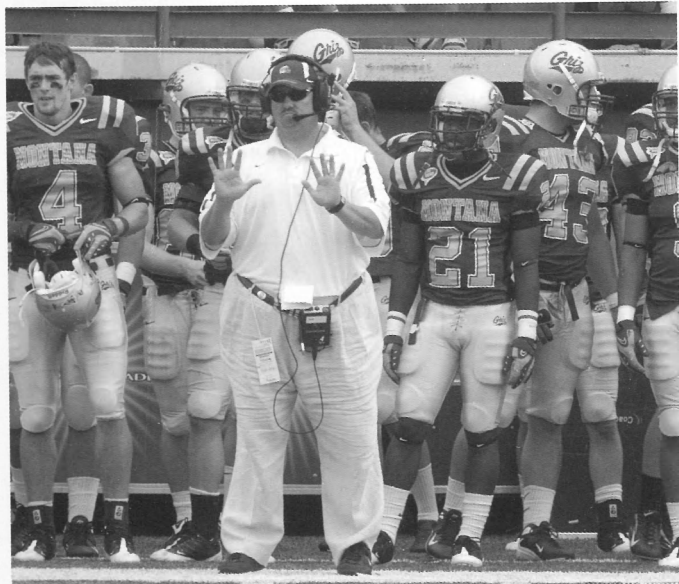

He began his collegiate coaching career at Texas State-San Marcos, working there from 1987-91. He then returned to Texas State-San Marcos and had numerous coaching and administrative responsibilities while there from 1995-2002.

He also had coaching stints at the University of New Mexico (1994) and Trinity University (1992-1993).

Hudson earned a B.S. degree in kinesiology from the University of Texas at San Antonio in 1994. He was born in Bryan, Texas, and raised in San Antonio.

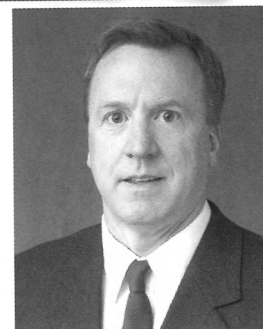

He played collegiate football at Angelo State University in 1983 and 1984, and his 1984 squad was the Lone State Conference champion.

Mike and his wife Dyan have two children, Lee, 13, and Loryn, 10.

Kraig Paulson

Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Ends
(Montana, 1987)
Sixth Year at Montana (19th Overall)

Kraig is in his sixth season as the Grizzlies defensive coordinator and in his second coaching stint at his alma mater. He also coaches the defensive ends. He served as Montana's assistant head coach the previous five seasons.

Paulson is now in his 22nd season of coaching at the collegiate level and his 19th year overall at Montana.

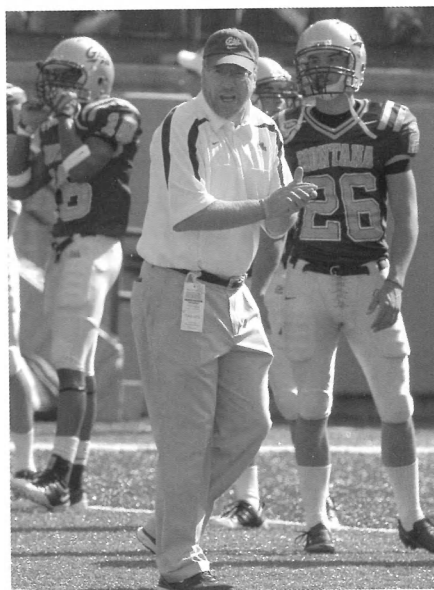

The past four seasons Paulson has overseen one of the top defenses in the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision ranks. Last year Montana was ranked 10th in the FCS, allowing only 17.75 points a game, and 13th in the nation in turnover margin (+1.0).

Last season ends Jace Palmer and Mike Stadnyk were honorable mention All-Big Sky Conference picks. Montana had 11 defensive players named to the All-Big Sky team in 2008. Two years ago senior defensive end Kroy Biermann was named the Big Sky's defensive MVP and was the first player in school history to receive the Buck Buchanan Award.

Paulson returned to UM in 2004. Prior to that he was the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Utah State for former (1996-99) Montana head coach Mick Dennehy.

In 2006, Kraig was selected as the "Assistant Coach of the Year" at the FCS level by the All-America Football Foundation. Paulson served as an assistant coach of the 2005 New Era Bowl in Japan.

He was an assistant coach for the Grizzlies from 1987-99, working with linebackers, the defensive line, and the secondary. During his first stint at Montana, the Grizzly defense was ranked among the national leaders in rushing defense 11 of his 12 seasons during his tenure.

He began his coaching career at UM in 1987 as a graduate assistant. He has also coached the linebackers (1988-90) and defensive line (1991-99). He was UM's defensive coordinator in 1998-99.

Kraig earned four letters in football at Montana from 1983-86, playing full-back. In 1984 he was chosen UM's "Outstanding Sophomore," while in 1986 he received the Terry Dillon Award, given annually to the outstanding back/receiver.

He is a 1987 graduate of Montana, earning a B.A. degree in education. His brothers Kevin, Kerry, and Keith all competed in track for the Grizzlies. His brother, Kent, ran track at the University of Montana-Western.

Kraig was a two-time all-state football player at Plentywood High School. He earned four letters in both football and track.

He and his wife, Jody, have three sons: Keogh, 16; Eilas, 14; and Rokken, eight.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Robin Pflugrad

Wide Receivers

(Portland State, 1980)

First Year at Montana (10th Year Overall)

Robin Pflugrad (flew-grad) has coached in the prestigious Pac-10 Conference the previous 13 seasons, with stints at Oregon, Washington State, and Arizona State.

He is now in his 29th season overall and his 28th at the college level.

He comes to UM from the University of Oregon, where he served as the wide receivers coach for the previous three seasons.

Prior to his stint in his hometown of Eugene, Rob coached the tight ends and served as the recruiting coordinator for five seasons (2001-05) at WSU. He was the wide receivers and recruiting coordinator at ASU from 1995-2000.

During his career he has been instrumental in the development of seven quarterbacks or receivers who received All-American recognition, along with 20 all-conference honorees, 152 academic all-conference athletes and 12 academic All-Americans.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Portland State, in 1980. A year later he had a one-year stint at South Eugene High School, and then returned to the college ranks for good.

He was a part-time assistant coach and the director of football operations at PSU in 1982, and then served as an assistant coach for the Vikings from 1983-85, working with the tight ends and wide receivers. After his PSU tenure, he came to Montana in 1986 when Don Read was named the Grizzlies' head coach.

Pflugrad, 50, is now in his second stint at Montana. He was an assistant coach for the Grizzlies and Coach Read from 1986-94. While at UM he worked with the quarterbacks, running backs and wide receivers, and was promoted to assistant head coach in 1991.

Among the Grizzly standouts he worked with was quarterback Dave Dickenson, who won the Walter Payton Award in 1995, broke 25 school records and three national marks, and guided Montana to the national championship (1995).

Pflugrad is a 1980 graduate of PSU with a degree in business administration. He was an academic All-American as a wide receiver and team captain as a senior in 1979.

Robin and his wife, Marlene, have a son, Aaron, and a daughter, Amanda.

Rob Phenicie

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

(University of Memphis, 1989)

Seventh Year at Montana

Rob is in his seventh season as the Grizzlies' offensive coordinator, and he also coaches the quarterbacks.

The past six seasons Montana has been ranked among the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision's leaders in several offensive categories.

Last season Montana was one of the highest scoring teams in the FCS, ranked 21st in scoring at 31.8 points a game, and UM was 26th in total offense with 393.3 yards per contest.

The past few seasons Phenicie oversaw the progress of quarterback Cole Bergquist, who was 31-6 as a starter. Bergquist ended his career ranked third in school history in touchdown passes (58) and total yards (8,434), and fourth in passing yards (7,505).

In 2006, Rob was selected as the "Assistant Coach of the Year" at the FCS level by the All-America Football Foundation. Phenicie served as the offensive coordinator of the 2005 New Era Bowl in Japan.

Prior to joining the Griz coaching staff, Rob served as the co-offensive coordinator at the University of Wyoming where he oversaw the Cowboy's passing game. He was an assistant coach at Wyoming from 2000-2002. He was the recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach for the Cowboys in 2001, and that season Wyoming was ranked 15th in the nation in passing offense, averaging 282.4 yards a game. In his first season at Wyoming he coached the wide receivers.

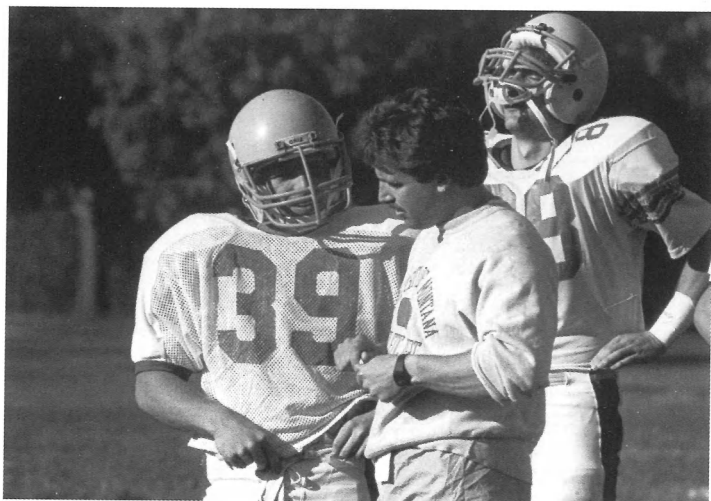

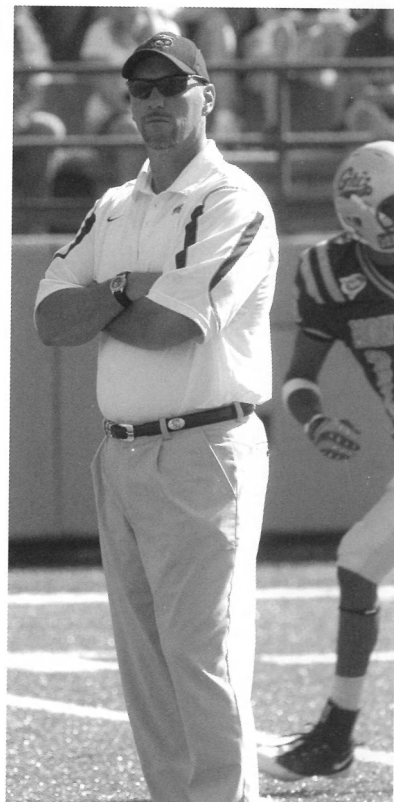

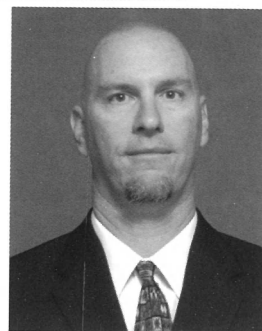

Before coaching in Laramie, he was an offensive assistant coach at UNLV for a season. Prior to that he was the offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at Cal State Northridge in 1997 and 1998. In 1997 Northridge led the FCS in passing yards and was fifth in total offense.

Phenicie began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of Memphis, from 1989-90. He worked at UCLA in 1991-92 as a graduate assistant coach.

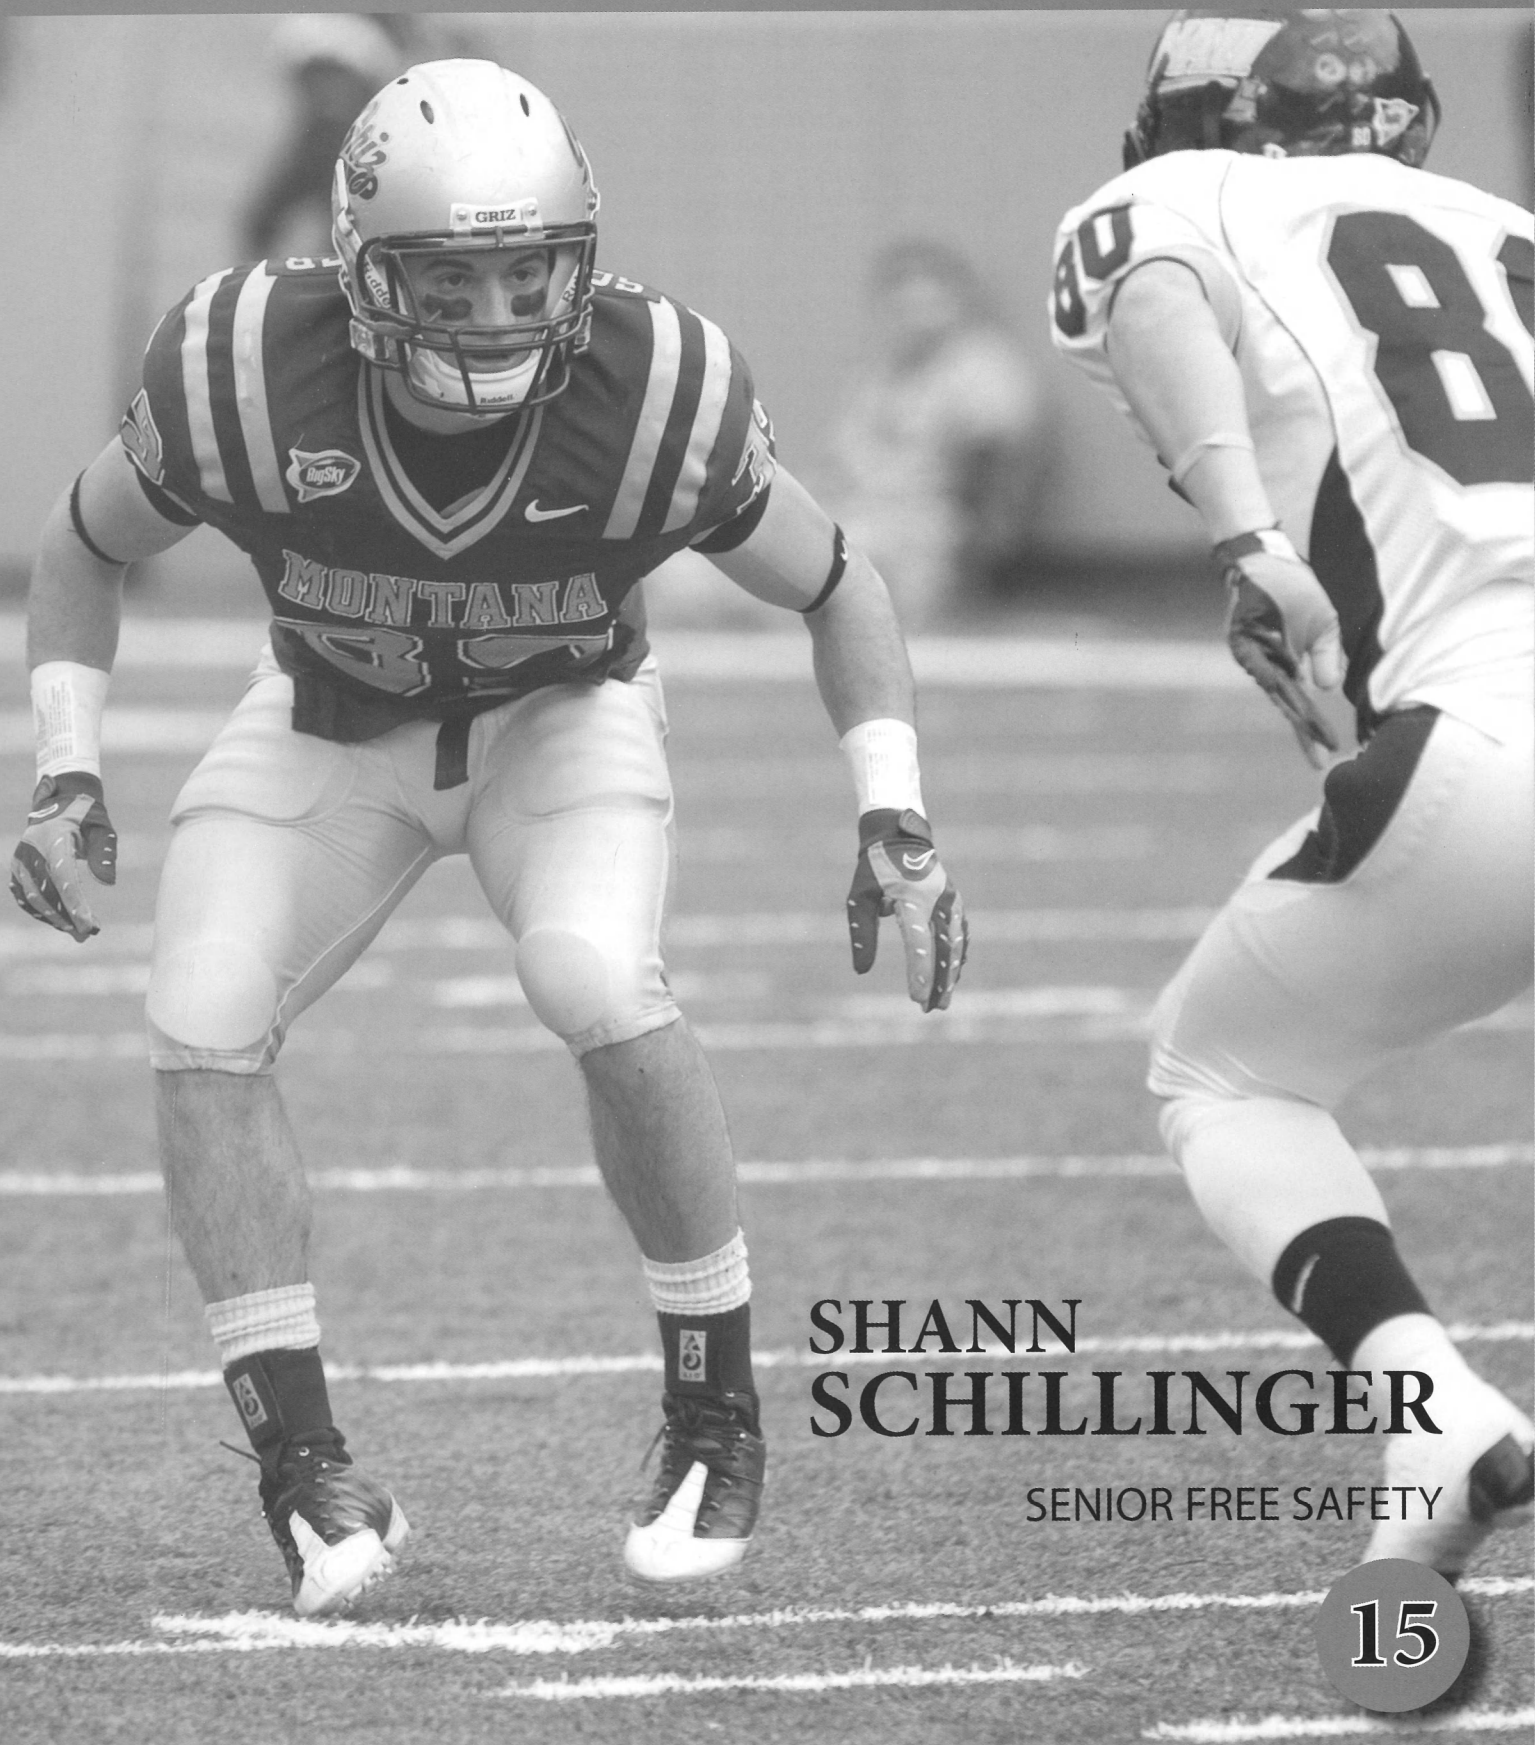

In 1992, he was hired as the quarterbacks and wide receivers coach at Los Angeles Valley College, coaching there until 1996. L.A. Valley was the top-ranked team in the nation in 1995 and led the country in scoring (45.7 ppg).

He began his college playing career as a tight end at the University of Nebraska in 1984. He transferred to Memphis where he completed his playing career. He received his B.A. degree from Memphis in 1989 and his master's degree from there in 1991.

A native of Huntington Beach, Calif., Rob and his wife, Jennifer, have a daughter Meghen, 11.

2009 SEASON OUTLOOK

13 STARTERS BACK FROM 14-2 TEAM

Despite finding themselves in an unfamiliar rebuilding state a year ago, The University of Montana Grizzlies greatly exceeded all expectations, advancing to the Football Championship Subdivision title game for the sixth time in school history.

With 13 starters returning from a 14-2 team, the Grizzlies begin the 2009 season tabbed as one of the preseason favorites in the FCS and the Big Sky Conference.

Why not? After all, Montana has now participated in the FCS playoffs a record 16 years in a row, and along with that string of appearances, the Grizzlies have racked up 11 conference championships in a row. The Grizzlies have won 105 games this decade – the most wins by any FCS or Football Bowl Subdivision team in the nation.

Last year the division's premier team made it to the title game for the sixth time in 14 seasons. Montana won national crowns in 2001 and 1995 and was the runner-up in 2008, 2004, 2000, and 1996.

Nevertheless, the Grizzlies' "rebuilding" team finished ranked second in the nation by the Sports Network and has been ranked in that organization's top 25 for 150 consecutive weeks. Montana's 14 victories tied the school standard for the second most wins in a season.

Junior Wide Receiver/Quarterback Jeff Larson

Montana's FCS playoff run now stretches from 1993 to 2008. The Grizzlies have won (or shared) the Big Sky crown since 1998, and UM has finished atop the league 14 of the past 16 seasons.

"Every season is different, but it was really enjoyable last season to have it all come together," said seventh-year UM head coach Bobby Hauck. "We were in what we considered a rebuilding mode last year and things just came together. Obviously it was quite a season – amazing to say the least.

"This year we lost a lot of key components off that team: three offensive linemen, two defensive tackles; an All-American safety; a starting defensive end and linebacker; a prolific receiver; and one of the winningest quarterbacks in our school history," said Hauck, who is 66-16 in his tenure and has won twice as many (six) Big Sky titles as any coach in Montana history.

"With that being said, our winter conditioning and spring practices were very productive," Hauck said. "I think our first group on both sides of the ball have the ability to compete at a high level. The rest of the guys have a ways to catch up. We need to continue to develop our depth."

Along with 13 starters (seven offense, six defense) are 48 lettermen, plus a couple of kickers.

However, Montana lost several key players to graduation.

On offense, quarterback Cole Bergquist threw 28 touchdown passes and rushed for eight scores last year and was the second most successful quarterback in UM history, going 31-6 as a starter. Wide-out Mike Ferriter finished his career ranked ninth in school history with 2,089 receiving yards. Offensive linemen Colin Dow, J.D. Quinn, and Brent Russum all earned all-league and All-American recognition.

Strong safety Colt Anderson was named to every FCS All-American team a year ago, and his 313 career tackles rank him fifth in school history. Other starters lost to graduation on the defense are defensive end Mike Stadnyk, tackles Jesse Carlson and Craig Mettler, along with linebacker Tyler Corwin.

However, the cupboard was not left bare on either side of the football.

The Grizzlies return their leading rusher and receiver in junior halfback Chase Reynolds and senior wide-out Marc Mariani. Starters back on the O-line include tackles Chris Dyk and Levi Horn, and guard Terran Hillesland, all seniors. Bookend tight ends Dan Beaudin and Steve Pfahler both return for their final seasons. Also returning for his fourth year as a starter is senior fullback Kevin Klaboe.

"I like our offensive line, but I don't like the depth on our offensive line, and we need to have some young guys come along there," Hauck said. "Our running back core, I think is solid. We've got a great blend of different types of players in our backfield, and that's been a good thing for us over the years. At wide receiver we need some young guys to step up and make some plays. Obviously, Marc Mariani is back, but guys who have been role players, like Ty Palmer and Jabin Sambrano, have to have big years for us. When you look at Beaudin, Pfahler, and (Rob) Overton, I think that our tight ends are as good as any in the nation."

Back on "D" as starters are Shann Schillinger, an All-Big Sky free safety and UM's second-leading tackler last year (108 stops), and linebackers Shawn

Lebsack (102 tackles) and Brandon Fisher (68 tackles) who were UM's fourth and fifth leading tacklers, respectively.

Another starter back is senior defensive end Jace Palmer, who had a team-high 8.5 sacks. In the secondary, seniors Andrew Swink and Keith Thompson and sophomore Trumaine Johnson accounted for all 16 starts at cornerback.

Kicker Brody McKnight, who earned the starting job early in the 2008 season, also returns, as does fellow sophomore Russell Schey.

"We lost some really fine players off the defense, especially up front with three of our four starters departing," Hauck said. "We play a lot of players on the defensive side on the ball week-in and week-out, so we have some players who have played a substantial number of snaps for us in games, so we won't be completely green coming in there."

"But I think our defense is a little up in the air in how we will be," Hauck continued. "What I do know is that we will be physical. We'll play hard. We will tackle well like we do every year, and that gives us a chance to be solid."

Mariani has been one of the leading punt returners in the FCS the past two seasons, but Rob Schulte, one of the leading kickoff returners in the country the past three seasons, graduated.

"The kicking game has been a real strength for us, and we need that to continue," said Hauck, who also coaches Montana's special teams. "Last year we did not punt or kick the ball as well as we have in past years, but Brody McKnight had a very good spring. We will upgrade the kicking position because he's better than a year ago, and so is (sophomore) Russell (Schey). The punting position was adequate last year, and we need to get better there."

"Our punt return game was as good as any in the nation," Hauck said. "We had some big plays there. On the other side of the coin, our kickoff return team was not good enough. It wasn't up to our standards, although it was solid, we need to improve."

2009 SEASON OUTLOOK

THE OFFENSE

Last season Montana was one of the highest scoring teams in the FCS, ranked 21st in scoring (31.8 ppg) and 26th in total offense (393.3 ypg). That total offense average was due in a large part to the rushing of Reynolds, as UM was 25th in the nation in rushing (175.1 ypg).

However, a substantial amount of that offensive production was due to Bergquist, who was ranked eighth in the country in passing efficiency, as he passed for 3,156 yards and 28 touchdowns, and he also rushed for eight scores. Bergquist accounted for 3,512 total yards, or 51% of UM's 6,292 total yards.

Ferriter, a three-year starter, was UM's second-leading receiver last season with 50 catches for 820 yards and 10 touchdowns. Halfback Andrew Schmidt also graduated, and he was UM's second-leading rusher with 466 yards. Montana had 3,490 receiving yards in 2008, and 2,418 (69.3%) of those yards were by players returning this season.

Dow and Quinn started all 16 games at left guard and center, respectively, while Russum started the first nine contests at right tackle until he was sidelined with an injury.

QUARTERBACK: Andrew Selle is UM's most experienced signal-caller. Oregon transfer Justin Roper, also a junior, will compete with Selle for the starting job. Redshirt freshman Gerald Kemp is also in the mix.

Selle has passed for 489 career yards and five touchdowns in 13 career games. Roper played in six games last season at Oregon, and was 48-of-91-4 for 610 yards and three touchdowns, and he also rushed for a score. Kemp is perhaps the best overall athlete at the position, and he has the ability to run the option.

"We are not sure who will be our starting quarterback going into fall camp, but we feel very good about the players we have there," Hauck said.

RUNNING BACK: When Lex Hilliard completed (in 2007) his superb four-year career with his record-setting 50 touchdown runs, the Griz faithful held their collective breaths to see who would emerge at halfback.

Reynolds, a Walter Payton Award Candidate this year, burst upon the FCS scene, though, rushing for a school-record 22 touchdowns, while his 1,583 yards were the second most ever in a season at UM. Reynolds, a second team All-Big Sky pick last season, started in 13 games and rushed for 100 or more yards in eight contests. His 98.9 rush yards a game ranked him 30th in the nation.

Senior Thomas Brooks-Fletcher, who has rushed for 845 career yards, had an outstanding spring and will share some of the load with Reynolds. Sophomore Beau Donaldson was pressed into service last season as a "true" freshman, and he will be a factor as well.

Redshirt freshman Tel Reynolds, Chase's younger brother, displayed substantial talent this past spring. Sophomore Dan Moore was unable to play last year due to NCAA rules, but he had a prolific prep career, so both Tel Reynolds and Moore could be in the mix at running back.

OFFENSIVE LINE: There is a good nucleus back in Dyk (11 starts), Hillesland (10 starts), and Horn (15 starts). Horn was a second team all-league pick in 2008, while Dyk and Hillesland were honorable mention selections.

Junior Alex Verlanic saw a lot of action a year ago and will start at center, while sophomore Jon Opperud, who played as a "true" freshman last season, will get the starting nod at left guard.

The only other players back who have any game experience are sophomores David Arndt and Charles Burton, along with junior transfer (Western Washington) Russell Piette. Redshirt freshmen Blake Lebeau and Kyle Kmet may also contribute.

WIDE RECEIVER: In 2008 Mariani had team-highs of 69 catches for 1,308 yards and 15 touchdowns and was a first team All-Big Sky choice. Both his receiving yardage and touchdown grabs are the second most in UM history in a season.

Senior Tyler Palmer had the fifth most (20) catches on the team a year ago. Sambrano, a speedy sophomore, has battled injuries recently, but has outstanding potential. Larson will also be a factor.

Youth will definitely be a factor at wide receiver. Levi Buckles, Sam Gratton, and Connor Smith, who are all redshirt freshmen, could all see playing time.

TIGHT END: This will once again be a strong position for the Grizzlies. Pfahler and Beaudin have both been honorable mention all-league picks the last three seasons and have shared the starting job, and 2009 will be no different. A year ago Pfahler was the Grizzlies' third-leading receiver with 24 receptions, while Beaudin had the seventh most (14). Overton had an excellent spring, and redshirt freshman Greg Hardy will be in the mix too.

FULLBACK: Klaboe, who has started in 38 games, is a three-time honorable mention All-Big Sky selection, and invaluable as a blocker and deep snapper. Junior Nick Lebsack should also see action.

Senior Cornerback Andrew Swink

THE DEFENSE

Montana's opportunistic and "bend-but-not-break" defense led the Big Sky and was ranked 10th in the FCS, allowing only 17.75 points a game. Scoring defense has been the Grizzlies' forte recently, as they were second in the country in scoring defense in 2007, giving up a measly 14.8 points per contest.

Overall the Grizzlies were ranked 45th in total defense (330.9 ypg). The Grizzlies were 13th in the nation in the all-important turnover margin category (+1.0).

Anderson, a Buck Buchanan Award finalist, was Montana's leading tackler with 129 stops a year ago,

Senior Defensive Tackle Austin Mullins

2009 SEASON OUTLOOK

while Corwin was third with 104. Stadnyk, who was a second round draft pick by Saskatchewan following his junior year, was second on the team with eight-plus sacks last season.

Schillinger was outstanding last season and a second team all-conference pick. Despite not starting, junior Erik Stoll was UM's 10th leading tackler (45 TT) and will start at strong safety.

Palmer is a proven commodity at defensive end, as are Johnson, Swink, and Thompson at cornerback. Fisher and Lebsock each started every game in 2008, and up-and-coming sophomore Alex Shaw has the inside track at the starting job at weakside linebacker.

Tyler Hobbs improved with each game last season, and fellow junior tackle Carson Bender is expected back after missing the crux of last season with an injury. Senior Austin Mullins started three games last season when Mettler was injured, and he was UM's 11th leading tackler (38 TT). That trio of Bender, Hobbs, and Mullins gives Montana a good nucleus to the middle of its D-line.

DEFENSIVE END: Jace Palmer, an honorable mention all-league pick, had 27% (8.5) of Montana's 32 sacks last year. Sophomore Ryan Fetherston is a solid pass-rusher and may get the starting nod at the other D-end spot, but senior George Mercer, who missed spring drills due to an injury, may challenge him for that job if he is healthy.

Junior Severin Campbell will also see action along with redshirt freshman Josh Harris. Sophomore Bobby Alt, a junior college transfer (Mt. San Antonio College) to UM, will also vie for "PT."

DEFENSIVE TACKLE: Junior Tyler Hobbs and Bender are listed as the starters on the pre-fall depth chart, but may be challenged by senior Austin Mullins for one of the starting berths. Bender was lost for the season when he suffered an injury at Weber State last year and was unable to participate in spring drills.

Junior college transfer Brett Hutter (Mt. Sac JC), along with junior Braydon Schilling and sophomore Bryan Waldhauser add depth.

LINEBACKER: Fisher and Lebsock were both Big Sky honorable mention picks a year ago, and what they might lack in size they more than make up for with their quickness and aptitude. Shaw ended spring drills as the starter at weakside linebacker, while and fellow sophomore Caleb McSurdy saw considerable action as a "true" freshman last season and will see "PT" this year.

Sophomore Cole Lockwood and redshirt freshmen Brooks Rabold and Josh Stuber are vying for playing time.

CORNERBACK: Johnson had a team-high (tie) four interceptions in his 11 starts, and he missed the last few games due to an injury, but participated in spring drills. Swink was the team's seventh leading tackler with 58 and started in all 16 games. Thompson played in all 16 contests and was UM's 12th leading tackler (37 TT).

Junior college (College of the Sequoias) transfer Brandon Dodson, and sophomores Nick Haynes and Donny Lisowski will provide depth.

SAFETY: Schillinger had four picks to go along with 100-plus tackles and is a heady player with excellent speed. Also in the mix is sophomore Mike

Sophomore Cornerback Nick Haynes

McCord, who was moved from cornerback to free safety last spring.

Stoll has the inside track as the starter at strong safety, but sophomore Mike Cummings had an outstanding spring and will see plenty of playing time. Seniors Tim Anderson and Ryan Nelson add depth.

SPECIAL TEAMS

KICKER: McKnight was one of the most improved players in spring drills, while Schey, a talented athlete with potential, may redshirt this season.

PUNTER: The Grizzlies added Sean Wren (Fullerton JC) to their roster this past summer, and he is expected to be the starter.

RETURNS: Mariani was also a first team All-Big Sky pick at returner. He was ranked fourth in the nation in punt returns (16.2 ypr) and averaged 22.9 yards per kickoff return. Sambrano and Thompson should see action as returners this season.

THE SCHEDULE

Following its season opener, Montana is on the road to play a talented UC Davis team. The Aggies gave the Grizzlies everything they wanted when the teams played last season, the Grizzlies winning 29-24 in the final minutes of the game. UC Davis returns 17 starters, including nine players on offense.

The Grizzlies start their Big Sky slate early, on Sept. 19, hosting a Portland State Viking team that returns 16 starters and led the FCS in passing last season.

A week after the PSU contest, the Griz have a road game in the Walkup Skydome of Northern Arizona. The Lumberjacks return 14 starters from a 6-5 squad.

After an open week (Oct. 3), Montana faces one of the top teams in the FCS, hosting the Cal Poly Mustangs, in its homecoming game on Oct. 10. The Mustangs return 14 starters, including eight on defense. Cal Poly was 8-3 last year, and Montana nipped the host Mustangs 30-28 in their 2008 opener.

"Our non-league schedule is probably about what it should be," Hauck said. "Davis is historically a strong football program. They will play hard and well against us, like they did a year ago. Cal Poly has almost become a rivalry game. The non-conference schedule will be demanding."

In the second half of the season Montana plays six Big Sky games. The Grizzlies host Eastern Washington, Weber State, and Northern Colorado, with road contests at Sac State and Idaho State sandwiched in between those three league battles. The regular season concludes in Bozeman on Nov. 21 against Montana State in the 109th Grizzly-Bobcat clash.

Montana's three league home opponents all return several starters. The Eagles have 14 starters back from a 6-5 team; the Wildcats (a 10-4 team last year) return 13 starters, including four first team all-league players; while the Bears have 17 starters back.

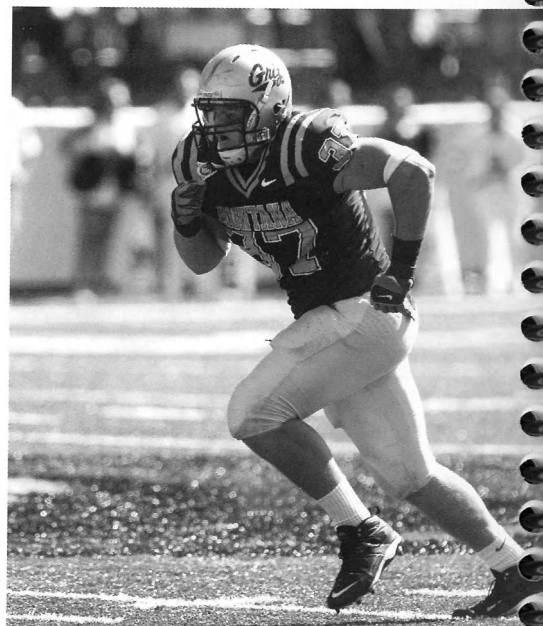

The Grizzlies three conference road foes also have veteran squads. The Hornets return 14 starters from a 6-6 team; the Bengals have 14 starters back; while the Bobcats return 15 starters from a 7-5 squad.

"The conference is a little bit of a mystery to me," said Hauck, who sports a gaudy 39-6 Big Sky ledger (UM is 23-1 in league the past three seasons). "I am not sure who will be real good, but I think from top to bottom it's going to be very solid.

"I watch what Sac State has done in recruiting, and I think they're dangerous," he said. "Portland State can go up and down the field on people, and they play extremely hard and well against us in general, just like everybody in the league does.

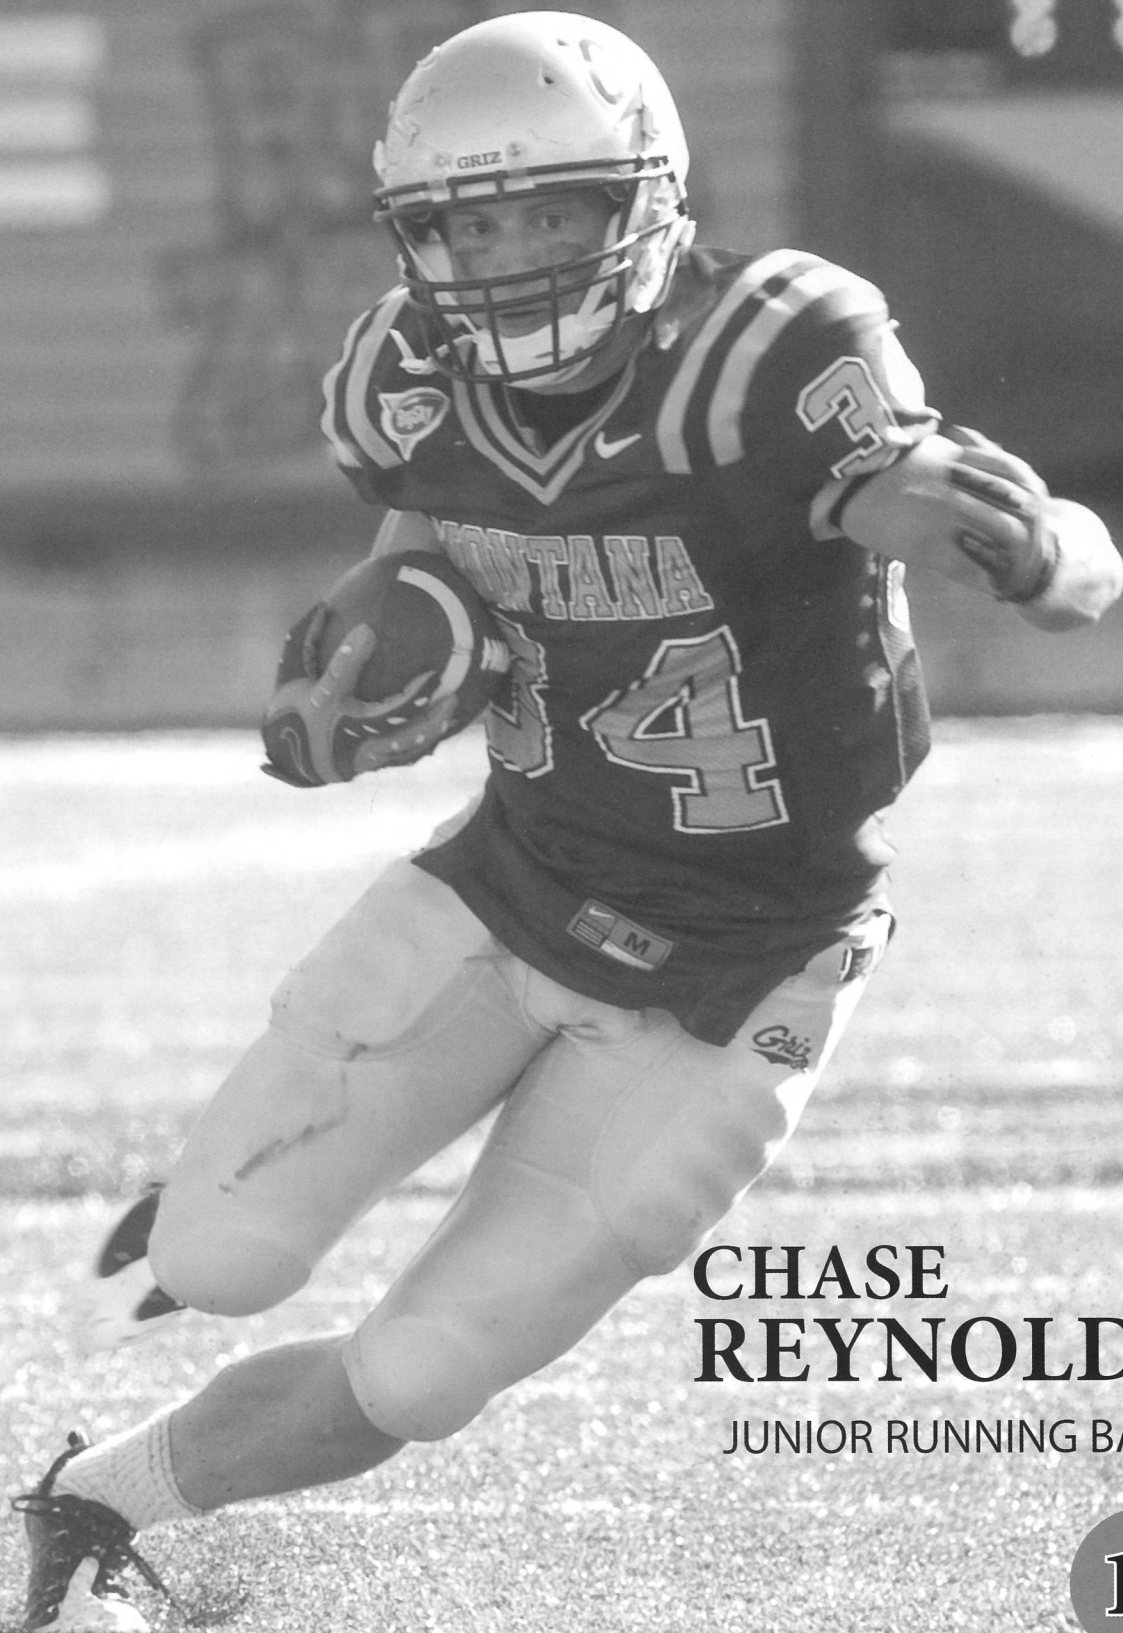

"Weber State's got a lot of good players back from the very good team that they had a year ago," Hauck continued. "I think NAU feels strongly about their football team's chances. Eastern Washington has a great quarterback in Matt Nichols and has a lot of guys back, and they have a chance to have a good year.

"Everybody, from top-to-bottom, has a legitimate chance to win the conference," Hauck said. "It wouldn't surprise me if any team in the league came up and challenged to win the title this year."

JUNIOR RUNNING BACK

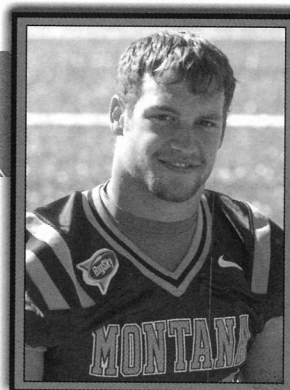

WALTER PAYTON AWARD CANDIDATE

CHASE REYNOLDS

#34

Junior Running Back
Drummond, Montana

6-0, 195, Jr., 2V
Drummond High School

Montana: In just one season Chase etched his name in the Grizzly record books in numerous areas. He begins his junior campaign already ranked fourth (tie) in school history in touchdown runs, 11th in career rushing yards, while his 138 points last year are a school record and rank him 20th career-wise.

2008: He rushed for a school-record 22 touchdowns, while his 281 carries and 1,583 yards are the second most in UM's single-season history. His 1,756 all-purpose yards are the fourth most ever in a season at Montana.

His 138 points in 2008 tie him for the sixth most in Big Sky history, while his 1,583 rush yards are the 13th most ever in the conference. Reynolds was ranked second in the league in yards per game with 98.9 (the ninth highest per season average in school history), which ranked him 30th in the Football Championship Subdivision.

Chase was also second in the conference in scoring at 8.6 points per game, which ranked him 14th in the FCS. He was twice named the league's player of the week on offense.

He was second in the Big Sky with eight 100-yard rushing games, while his eight multiple TD games led the league. In Montana's four FCS playoff games last season he rushed 109 times for 588 yards (5.4-yard average) and seven touchdowns.

He was a second team All-Big Sky selection and named honorable mention All-American by the Sports Network.

2007: He played in 10 games and had nine tackles on special teams. In the spring of 2007 he was moved back to his original position of running back from wide receiver.

2006: He was a redshirt.

High School: He was one of the most prolific running backs in the state playing eight-man football at Drummond High School. He set a Montana prep record with 5,261 career rushing yards, scoring a gaudy 114 touchdowns in his four-year, 44-game career. He averaged 10.1 yards per carry in his career. His football teams won three straight Class "C" championships, going a perfect 35-0. His high school football coach was Jim Oberweiser.

He earned 12 letters: four each in football, basketball, and track. He was a four-time all-state selection in football and three time pick in track. He was team MVP in football three times. He was also an all-conference pick in basketball.

Personal: His major is sociology. His dad is Chuck Reynolds of Butte and his mom is Sherry Reynolds of Drummond. Birth date: October 22, 1987. Chase and his wife Kila have a three-year-old son Talen.

Career Highs: He had 38 carries (ties him for the most ever in a game at UM) for 233 (the third most by a UM back in a contest) yards versus Texas State in a first round FCS game in 2008. He had a 67-yard touchdown run at home against Northern Arizona last season. He had 4 receptions at Portland State a year ago. He had 50 receiving yards (three catches) and a career-long 27-yard scoring grab in an FCS semifinal game at James Madison.

Says Coach Hauck: "Obviously Chase had a big year for us last year, rushing for almost 1,600 yards. He set a school record for touchdown runs in a season. We expect him to have a big year. Most of his production came over the last eight games of the season, and we look for him to do the same thing during the course of the 2009 season. He's got good speed, good power, and good vision. He gets downhill fast. He's got the ability to run around people. He's also got the ability to break tackles."

ALL - AMERICAN CANDIDATE

DAN BEAUDIN

Senior Tight End
Noxon, Montana

6-5, 252, 3V
Noxon High School

#87

Montana: Dan and fellow senior Steve Pfahler give the Grizzlies one of the best tight end tandems in college football. He is Montana's fifth leading returning receiver this season.

2008: He played in 13 games but was hampered by injuries. He had 14 catches for 131 yards and one touchdown (against Central Washington). He was an honorable mention All-Big Sky Conference selection. He was also an all-league academic team pick.

2007: He shared starting duties with Pfahler, starting in six games and playing in all 12. He was an honorable mention All-Big Sky selection. He had six catches for 55 yards and a touchdown and five tackles on special teams. He was an all-league academic team pick.

He was a rare three-sport letter-winner for the Grizzlies, earning monikers in football, basketball, and in track and field. He placed second in the 2008 Big Sky track meet in the discus throw.

2006: He played in all 14 games and started in 11. He had 12 catches for 150 yards and a touchdown. He also contributed on special teams with six tackles.

2005: He was a redshirt at Montana. He was tabbed the "Outstanding Scout Team Player of the Year" on offense.

High School: He was a versatile prep athlete, earning 11 letters at Noxon High School. He lettered four times in football and track, and three times in basketball.

He was an all-state and all-league pick in football and started at tight end and linebacker. He also handled the punting and kicking duties.

He was a two-time all-conference pick at center in basketball and an all-state selection as a senior. His high school teams won conference championships in basketball in 2002 and 2004.

He was team captain in football and basketball as a senior. He also lettered in track and was an all-state performer in that sport as well.

Personal: Dan's major is education. His parents are Ken and Kathy Beaudin of Noxon. Birth date: Oct. 28, 1986.

Career Highs: Dan had three catches against Wofford in 2007 in a FCS playoff game and had a 20-yard touchdown reception in that game. His career-long is a 50-yard touchdown grab against McNeese State in a FCS first-round game in 2006.

Says Coach Hauck: "Dan has lettered in three sports here in his time at Montana. He is a terrific football player. He plays extremely hard. He's good at both parts of the tight end position, which are blocking in the run and catching balls in the pass game. We expect him to have a very productive year."

#75

Senior Offensive Tackle
Dillon, Montana

6-8, 297, 2V
Beaverhead County High School

Montana: Chris has steadily improved each season and ended spring drills as the starter at right tackle.

2008: He played in all 16 games and started in 11 contests, four at left tackle and seven at right tackle. He was an honorable mention All-Big Sky Conference pick.

2007: He played in several games at both guard and tackle.

2006: He had a promising freshman season end prematurely, as he played in just one game, the season opener at Iowa, missing the rest of the season with an injury.

2005: He was a redshirt at UM.

High School: He was first team all-state selection in 2002, 2003, and 2004 and an honorable mention pick as a freshman in 2001 at Beaverhead County High School. His high school football team won the state "A" football championship in 2003. His prep football coach was Terry Thomas, former (1978-80) Griz cornerback and punter.

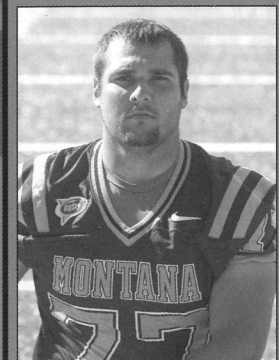

He was also a standout basketball player. He excelled in track, throwing the discus and shot put.

Personal: His major is sociology. His parents are Joe and Gwen Dyk of Dillon. Birth date: August 5, 1986.

Says Coach Hauck: "From the time he walked in the door here, Chris has been a player with great potential. He has started to realize some of that potential over the last year or so. He had a great spring practice. He's 6-8, and it's hard to pass-rush him on the edge. I expect him to have a great season protecting our quarterback."

TERRAN HILLESLAND

Senior Offensive Guard
Sidney, Montana

6-7, 320, 3V
Sidney High School

#77

Montana: Terran is a veteran on Montana's offensive line. He has played in 42 career games and started 29 times. He concluded 2009 spring drills as the starter at right guard.

2008: He played in all 16 contests and started in 13, including the last 10 games in a row last season. He was an honorable mention All-Big Sky Conference selection.

2007: He played in all 12 games and started five, two at left guard and three at right guard.

2006: He started in Montana's first eight games and had nine total starts. He was slowed down by an injury but still participated in all 14 contests.

2005: He was a redshirt at Montana.

High School: He was a three-sport athlete at Sidney High School, earning three letters in basketball and two each in football and track.

He was twice named first-team all-state at offensive tackle. His senior football team went 8-1. He participated in both Montana's annual East-West Shrine Game and in the Badlands Bowl. His high school football coach was Mike Gear.

He was also a three-year letterman in basketball.

Personal: He is a history major. His parents are Chris and Therese Hillesland of Sydney. Birth date: June 3, 1986.

Says Coach Hauck: "Terran has been an outstanding player for us. He just gets better and better each year, and I expect his senior season this fall to be even better yet."

#72

Senior Offensive Tackle
Spokane, Washington

6-7, 315, 3V
Oregon/Rogers High School

Montana: Levi has been a starter for the Grizzlies off and on the past three seasons. He finished 2009 spring drills as the starter at left tackle. He has played in 38 career games and has 22 starts.

2008: He had a stellar junior year, playing in all 16 games. He started in 15 contests, including 12 times at left tackle and three games at right guard. He was a second team All-Big Sky Conference pick.

2007: He played in all 12 games and started in two – at left tackle at Sacramento State and left guard against Northern Colorado.

2006: He had immediate impact at Montana after transferring from the University of Oregon, starting five games and playing in 10 at right tackle.

2005: He was a redshirt at Oregon and was moved from tight end to offensive tackle in fall camp.

High School: He was a prolific tight end at Rogers High School for head football coach was Ted Lyons. As a senior he hauled in 37 passes, gaining 850 yards and scoring six touchdowns in 10 games.

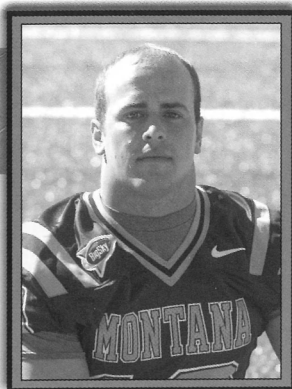

He was selected first-team all-state at the Class 4A level at tight end by the Associated Press and WashingtonPreps.com following his senior campaign. He was the first player from his high school in the past 25 years to earn first-team all-state honors. He was also a defensive stand-out, leading his team in tackles and tackles for loss his senior year.

Personal: His major is sociology. His mom is Julia Faye Horn of Spokane. Birth date: October 2, 1986.

Says Coach Hauck: "Levi is an outstanding football player. He's got All-American potential. He is a tough guy, who plays very physically. He's the kind of guy who you want protecting the quarterback from the blind side."

ALL - AMERICAN CANDIDATE

SHAWN LEBSOCK

Senior Linebacker
Billings, Montana

6-0, 225, 3V
Skyview High School

#10

Montana: Shawn will be starting for the second season in a row, and with 190 career tackles, will soon move on to Montana's career tackles leaders list. He is the Grizzlies' second leading returning tackler in 2009. He has played in 41 career games.

2008: He started all 16 games at middle linebacker and was the team's fourth leading tackler with 102 stops. He was fifth on the team with six tackles for loss. He was tied with four other players for the most forced fumbles with two.

He was tabbed honorable mention All-Big Sky Conference. He was Montana's co-recipient of the Golden Helmet Award (hardest hitter) with senior strong safety Colt Anderson.

He is also an outstanding student and named to the league's all-academic squad for the third time in 2008.

2007: He missed the 2007 season after undergoing surgery and red-shirted.

2006: He was the Grizzlies' seventh leading tackler with 78 stops and played in all 14 games. He was an All-Big Sky academic team pick.

2005: He played in 11 games as a "true" freshman and had one start (vs. Cal Poly on Oct. 22). He was named to the Big Sky academic squad.

High School: He was voted as Montana Gatorade Player of the Year in 2004 and tabbed the co-MVP on defense at the "AA" level. He was a first team all-state selection at running back and at linebacker as a junior and senior. He participated in Montana's East-West Shrine Game and was one of the captains for the East squad. He also played in the annual Montana-Dakota All-Star game.

He was an integral player for Billings Skyview's state championship team in 2003 and its runner-up squad in 2004. He also lettered in basketball and track.

Personal: His high school football coach was his dad, Ron Lebsock, who is a former starting center at Montana. His older brother, Matt, was a safety at UM from 2003-06. His younger brother, Nick, is a junior fullback at UM. Birth date: May 17, 1986. His major is business administration. His parents are Ron and Bartie Lebsock of Billings.

Career Highs: He had 12 tackles against UC Davis in 2008. He had a sack and a forced fumble against Montana State last season.

Says Coach Hauck: "The best way to describe Shawn is that he is just a fine, all-around player. He's got a lot of pop at the point of attack. He gets on and off blocks, and he runs things down. He's worked himself into being a great football player."

MARC MARIANI

Senior Wide Receiver/Returner
Havre, Montana

6-0, 185, 3V
Havre High School

Montana: Marc begins his senior season ranked sixth at Montana in career all-purpose yards (3,316), 11th in career receiving touchdowns (16), and 19th in career receiving yards (1,539).

He has been ranked among the top Football Championship Subdivision returners the past two seasons, and last year he added one of the FCS's premier receivers to that list.

2008: He set a school record with 2,265 all-purpose yards, which is the fifth most in Big Sky Conference history. His 1,308 receiving yards for 15 touchdowns are the second most in a season at UM.

Mariani led the Big Sky in punt returns, averaging 16.22 an attempt, which ranked him fourth in the nation. He was ranked 29th in the country in receiving yards per game (81.75). His 94-yard punt return against Idaho State tied the league record set by the Grizzlies' Tuff Harris at Eastern Washington (2006).

He was a first team all-league pick at both wide receiver and as a returner. He was named second team All-American by the Sports Network and an honorable mention pick on the College Sporting News "Fab 50."

He led the Big Sky with four multiple touchdown receiving games, while his five 100-yard receiving games were the third most by a Big Sky player in 2008.

He tied a school mark with four touchdown catches against Southern Utah, and his 208 receiving yards in that game are the sixth most (tie) ever by a Griz player in a game. He started all 16 games.

2007: He led the Big Sky and was 11th in the FCS in punt returns (13.32-yard average). He was an honorable mention All-Big Sky selection as a returner.

2006: He played in all 14 games, mostly on special teams, and had eight tackles in that role. He did not have a reception.

2005: He was a redshirt at Montana.

High School: He earned 10 letters at Havre High School: three each in football and basketball and four in tennis. He was named all-state at wide receiver and at safety as a senior and at safety as a junior. He was named to the Great Falls Tribune's "Super State" team at safety as a junior and at wide receiver as a senior. His senior season he had 48 receptions for 1,237 yards and 16 touchdowns.

He served as a team captain as a senior in football. His 2004 football team was 12-0 and the state "A" champion. His head football coach was Troy Purcell. He participated in Montana's annual East-West Shrine Game. He was a three-time team MVP in tennis. His varsity tennis teams won four straight state and conference titles. Mariani was also a team captain his junior and senior seasons in both basketball and tennis.

Personal: He is a business major. His parents are Steve and Julie Mariani of Havre. Birth date: May 2, 1987.

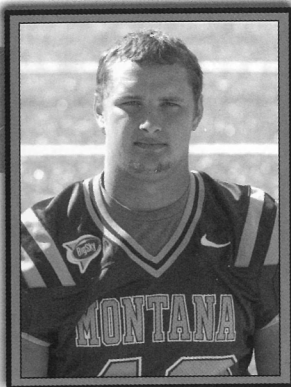

Career Highs: He had 8 receptions for 208 yards for four touchdowns and 289 all-purpose yards against Southern Utah last season. He returned four punts for 127 yards and had a 94-yarder for a score against Idaho State last year. He had 5 kickoff returns for 105 yards at Weber State in 2008, and his long kickoff return was a 62-yarder against the Wildcats in 2007.

Says Coach Hauck: "Marc is one of the most explosive players on our football team. He had an extremely productive season last year, both in the return game and at wide receiver. He's a good blocker in the run game. Marc is really a complete player, and we like the way that he finishes plays in the end zone."

ALL - AMERICAN CANDIDATE

JACE PALMER

Senior Defensive End
Missoula, Montana

6-3, 240, 3V
Big Sky High School

#42

Montana: Jace starts his final collegiate season ranked among the Grizzlies career leaders in sacks and tackles for loss. His 11.5 sacks are the 20th most in school history, which his 18.5 tackles for loss tie him for 23rd.

He will be starting for the second year in a row in 2009. He is Montana's sixth leading returning tackler. He has played in 40 career games.

2008: He was ranked fifth in the Big Sky Conference in sacks with .53 a game, while his 0.88 tackles for loss per contest ranked him sixth. He was an honorable mention all-league selection. His 50 tackles were the ninth most on the team.

Despite battling an injury mid-way through the season, he started in all 16 games. He led the Grizzlies in both sacks (8.5) and tackles for loss (14). His five pass deflections ranked him fifth on the team, while his two forced fumbles tied him with four other players for the most on the squad.

2007: He played in 11 of 12 contests and had 23 tackles. His three sacks were the third most on the team. He was moved from linebacker to defensive end in the spring.

2006: He played in 13 games, mostly on special teams. He was moved from safety to linebacker in the spring. He was an All-Big Sky academic team selection.

2005: He was voted as UM's "Outstanding Scout Team Player" on defense as a redshirt.

High School: He earned four letters in track, three in basketball, and two in football at local Big Sky High School.

He was named first team all-state at linebacker and second team at tight end as a senior and first team all-league both ways as a senior. He played in Montana's annual East-West Shrine Game and was a team captain with his brother, Tyler, and two other players for the West squad. His Gary Ekegren-coached football team went 7-4 en route to the conference championship in 2004.

He served as a team captain in football and basketball as a senior. He was voted team MVP in track as a junior, competing in sprints and multi-events.

Personal: His major is business administration. His parents are Scott and Teresa Palmer of Missoula. His twin brother, Tyler, is an honors candidate at wide receiver this season at Montana. Birth date: October 5, 1986. His cousin, Colt Palmer, lettered in football at Montana from 2001-2004.

Career Highs: He had six tackles against UC Davis last season and against Albany in 2007. He had two sacks at Portland State in 2008 and three tackles for loss in that game. He also had two sacks against Albany two seasons ago. He had two pass deflections versus Idaho State last year. He had fumble recoveries against Montana State and Texas State last season.

Says Coach Hauck: "Jace continues to develop as a football player. He came in as a safety and then a linebacker, and now as a defensive end he has been very productive for us the past couple of years. If his sacks and tackles for loss increase this year, it would be big for our football team."

#88

Senior Tight End
Frenchtown, Montana

6-5, 246, 3V
Frenchtown High School

Montana: Steve and fellow senior Dan Beaudin have given the Grizzlies a quality tandem the past three seasons. He is Montana's second-leading returning receiver.

He has played in 40 contests and started in 27.

2008: He started in all 16 games. He was Montana's third leading receiver with 24 receptions. His 282 receiving yards were the fourth most on the team. He was an All-Big Sky Conference honorable mention selection.

2007: He started in six games and played in 11 contests. He was an All-Big Sky honorable mention pick and also named to the league's all-academic team.

He also saw action on special teams and had three tackles in that capacity.

2006: He played in 13 games (he missed the Portland State game due to an injury) as a "true" freshman and started in five. He had three tackles on special teams.

High School: Steve earned 12 letters at nearby Frenchtown High School: four in football, basketball, and track.

He was a three-time all-state pick at tight end and twice all-state choice at defensive end. Career-wise he had 71 receptions for 1,417 yards and 24 touchdowns.

He served as team captain in football for coach Steve Pinsoneault as a senior. Frenchtown compiled a record of 25-6 during his three-year varsity career. Pfahler caught four touchdown passes in his team's 33-24 loss to Billings Central in the state "B" semifinal game in 2004. He participated in Montana's annual East-West Shrine Game.

He was a three-time all-league selection in basketball. He was a three-time all-state selection in track and has a personal best of 210-11 in the javelin. He was team captain in basketball as a junior and senior.

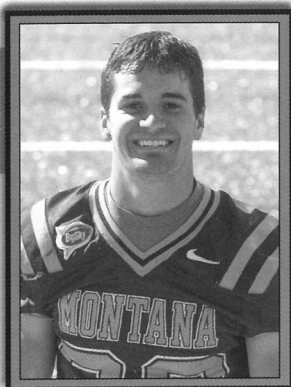

Personal: His parents are Tim and Jean Ann Pfahler of Frenchtown. His major is health and human performance. Birth date: August 21, 1987.

Career Highs: He had four catches for 55 yards at Northern Colorado in 2008. His career-long reception was 35 yards at Weber State last season. He had a 16-yard touchdown catch in a FCS semifinal game at James Madison last year.

Says Coach Hauck: "Steve has done a very nice job of working his way into this position. He was a wide receiver in high school, but it was evident that he was going to be a great tight end for us early in his career. He is a hard-working guy. He's a smooth route runner. He's good in both aspects of the game; he a good blocker in the run game, and he's a good pass-catcher in the passing game."

SHANN SCHILLINGER

Senior Free Safety
Baker, Montana

6-1, 199, 3V
Baker High School

#39

Montana: Shann has played in 42 consecutive games. He is the Grizzlies' leading returning tackler with 108 stops a year ago.

2008: He started in all 16 games and was Montana's second leading tackler. He led the Grizzlies with 10 pass deflections, and his .88 passes defended per game ranked him ninth in the Big Sky Conference.

He had a team-leading (tie) four interceptions. He also tied for the team lead in forced fumbles (two) and fumble recoveries (two). He had five or more tackles in 14 of 16 games, and eight or more stops in six contests.

He was a second team All-Big Sky selection. He was chosen the recipient of UM's 2008 Tony Barbour Award (Best Exemplifies Grizzly Football).

2007: He played in all 12 games, and although he did not start, he was the team's 10th-leading tackler. He was tied with two other players for the most fumble recoveries with two.

2006: He played in all 14 games.

2005: He was slated to play as a "true" freshman but suffered a leg injury and was forced to redshirt.

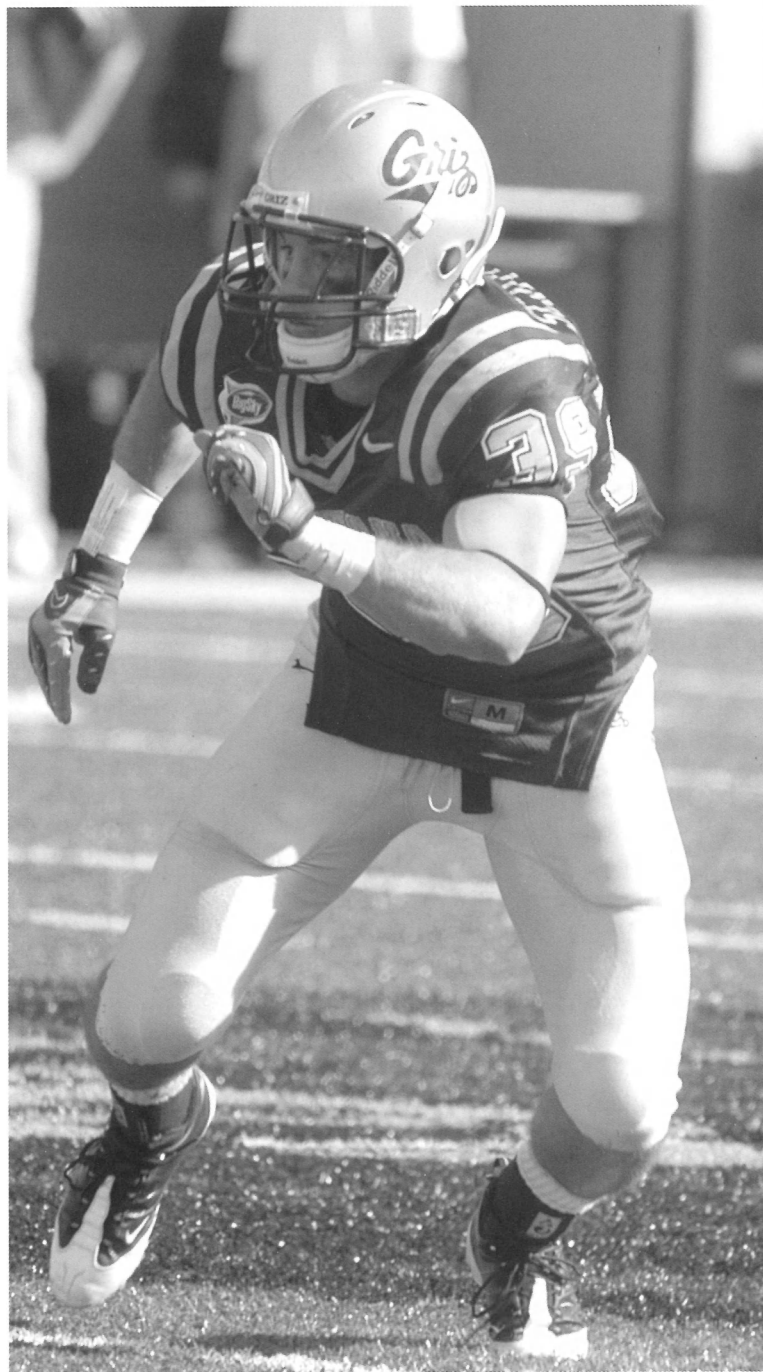

High School: He was a four-year letterman in football, and his varsity teams had an amazing overall record of 49-1. He was a two-time all-state selection. As a senior he passed for 1,059 yards and 15 touchdowns, rushed for 650 yards and 14 touchdowns, and had three interceptions.

He was a team captain for the East (along with Griz teammate Shawn Lebsock) in Montana's annual East-West Shrine Game. He also played in the Knights of Columbus Badlands Bowl (Montana-North Dakota All-Star Game). He lettered four times in both basketball and track. His head football coach was his uncle, Don Schillinger.

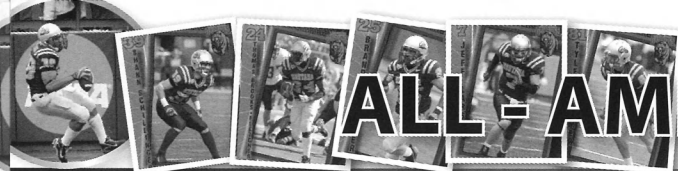

Career Highs: He had 12 tackles (seven unassisted, as well as a forced fumble) in UM's 35-27 FCS semifinal win at James Madison last season. He had two interceptions against Idaho State in 2008.

Personal: He is majoring in history. His parents are Jim and Debi Schillinger of Baker. Birth date: May 22, 1986. His dad, Jim Schillinger, is the head track coach at Baker High School, an assistant football coach there, and was a running back for the Grizzlies in 1969-70. His older brother Jace was a running back at Dickinson (N.D.) State and is that school's all-time leading rusher.

Says Coach Hauck: "Shann has a big frame. He also has great speed. He is a good all-around athlete. He's smart. He gets himself in a position to make plays. I think he will have tremendous production for us at the safety position. It's a playmaker's position, and he's got the ability to make a lot of plays there for us this year. It's great to have a safety with great ball skills like Shann has."

Deer Lodge, Montana
Powell County High School

24

THOMAS BROOKS-FLETCHER
Senior Running Back
5-10, 210, 3V
Bellevue, Wash.
Interlake High School

Montana: Carson missed 2009 spring drills, as he was still recovering from a season-ending injury but is still the projected starter at one of UM's two defensive tackle positions. He was chosen by former teammate Loren Utterback to wear the coveted number 37, which Utterback passed down to him prior to the 2008 season, in a tradition at Montana since 1983.

2008: He played in six games before suffering a season-ending injury at Weber State on Oct. 4. He started in the Grizzlies' 30-28 opening-season victory at Cal Poly.

2007: He played in 10 games. He was named to the All-Big Sky Conference academic team.

2006: He redshirted at UM.

High School: He was an all-state pick at tight end and also at defensive end following his senior season. He was named to the Great Falls Tribune "Super State Football Team."

He was a Montana East-West Shrine Game participant and also played in the Montana/Dakota Badlands Bowl Game. He served as a team captain for his Powell County High School conference championship team.

Bender was a three-time all-conference pick and a three-year football letterman. His high school football coach was Al Cutler.

He was a three-year starter in basketball and an all-conference pick in hoops as a junior. He was an all-state athlete in track in the shot put. He was a three-time all-conference selection in track as a sophomore, junior, and senior. He also earned all-state academic honors in football, basketball, and track.

Personal: His major is secondary education. His parents are Gary Bender of Deer Lodge and Cathy and Steve Redfern of Deer Lodge. Birth date: August 20, 1987.

Career Highs: He had three tackles, one-and-a-half stops for loss, and half-a-sack against Fort Lewis in the 2007 season opener.

Says Coach Hauck: "We're counting on Carson having a break-out year at the defensive tackle spot. He needs to have his best year as a Grizzly this fall. He is a player who has shown the ability to play, and play at a high level. Now we need him to do that through the season."

Montana: Thomas has been a solid contributor at running back the past three seasons and is just 155 yards away from breaking the 1,000-yard career mark. He had an exceptional spring and concluded spring drills as the back-up to Walter Payton Award candidate Chase Reynolds. He is the Grizzlies second leading returning rusher in 2009.

2008: "TBF" was Montana's fourth leading rusher with 240 yards. He played in 11 games and started against Central Washington. He rushed for a season-high 61 yards on 11 carries against Southern Utah. His touch-down run was at home against UC Davis.

2007: He was one of the Grizzlies top rushers with 126 yards. He played in all 12 games and started at Idaho State.

2006: He had a team-high 5.4 yards per rush attempt and was the third leading rusher on the team with 479 yards. He had three 100-yard rushing games (100 at Northern Colorado, and 113 versus McNeese State and 106 against Southern Illinois in a pair of Football Championship Subdivision playoff contests).

2005: He was injured in fall drills and redshirted at UM.

High School: He was first team All-Seattle Area as a senior as an all-purpose back, when he rushed 171 times for 1,282 yards, and had 50 catches for 611 yards for 18 touchdowns. He was a first team all-league pick as a junior and senior and first team All-King County those seasons as well.

He was a team captain, MVP and "Most Inspirational" in football his senior season. He was a three-year football letterman at Interlake High School, where his football coach was Luke Huard, younger brother of former National Football League quarterbacks Damon and Brock Huard.

He also lettered in basketball (two), baseball (two), and track (one).

Career Highs: His career highs in rushing came in a pair of FCS playoff games in 2007, as he had 25 carries against Southern Illinois and gained 113 yards against McNeese State. He rushed for two touchdowns at UNC in 2006. He had a 13-yard reception against UNC in 2007. He had three catches at Eastern Washington in 2008, including a career-long 20-yarder.

Personal: His major is sociology. His parents are Lynette Brooks-Fletcher of Bellevue, and Thomas Fletcher of Federal Way, Washington. Birth date: April 16, 1987.

Says Coach Hauck: "You always need depth at the running back position; it's pretty volatile. Thomas had his best spring practice (in 2009) in his time here. He is very consistent. He's a guy who has rushed for more than 100 yards in a football game for us. We expect him to get a lot of carries this fall and help our football team."

Montana: Brandon will be starting for the second season in a row at outside linebacker. He is UM's third leading returning tackler. He has played in 40 career games.

2008: Despite suffering a mid-season injury, he started all 16 games. He was Montana's fifth-leading tackler with 68 stops. He was an honorable mention All-Big Sky Conference selection. He is an outstanding student with a 3.90 in business marketing and was an All-Big Sky academic team pick.

He was moved from strong safety to linebacker in the spring of 2008.

2007: He played in all 12 games, mostly seeing action on several special teams. He was named to the league's academic team.

2006: He played in 12 of 14 games. He was an all-league academic team pick.

2005: He played in UM's first three games but suffered a season-ending leg injury in practice.

High School: He was a football letterman and team captain at Christ Presbyterian Academy. As a senior he had 108 tackles, three forced fumbles, and three fumble recoveries. He was a three-time all-state pick and an All-Mid-State selection as a junior and senior.

Fisher was named Shoney's all-state football team as a senior. His 2002 football squad won the state championship. His high school football team was coached by Jay Mathews.

He was one of four prep players in the nation named to the National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame's South Region team, given to the 2005 High School Scholar-Athlete of the Year, maintaining a 4.0 GPA.

Career Highs: He had 10 tackles in Montana's 35-27 FCS semifinal win at James Madison last season. He had two interceptions at Portland State last year. He had a sack against Idaho State and a fumble recovery against Texas State in 2008.

Personal: His major is business. His parents are Jeff and Juli Fisher of Franklin, Tennessee. Birth date: June 16, 1987. Brandon's dad, Jeff Fisher, is the head coach of the NFL's Tennessee Titans.

Says Coach Hauck: "Brandon has worked through a lot of injury problems in his career here. He's done a great job fighting through it and has proven he has the ability to overcome adversity. He's also a very instinctive, intelligent player and always puts himself in the right place. He has a tendency to be the player who is in the right place at the right time."

TYLER HOBBS

Junior Defensive Tackle
6-4, 265, 2V
Spokane, Washington
West Valley High School

Montana: Tyler came on strong last season and is a projected starter at one of UM's two defensive tackle positions. He is one of the Grizzlies leading returning tacklers.

2008: He played in 13 games, and was Montana's 20th leading tackler and was 10th on the squad with three stops for losses.

2007: He played in several games, mostly on special teams.

2006: Hobbs was a redshirt at Montana.

High School: He was a first team all-league selection at defensive end and averaged 1.2 sacks per game at West Valley High School. He participated in Washington's East-West All-Star Game.

He was a three-year starter and letterman in football. He was all-league in football as a sophomore and junior. His prep grid head coach was former (1989-90) Griz wide receiver Craig Whitney.

He was also a four-year letterman and three-year starter in basketball, and league MVP in that sport as a senior. His senior basketball team was one of the top-ranked teams in Washington. He was first team all-league in basketball his junior and senior years. His hoop team finished fourth in the state tournament his junior season.

Career Highs: He had four tackles in a home win against Sacramento State in 2008.

Personal: His stepfather is Dan Love of Spokane. He is a business administration major. Birth date: October 27, 1987.

Says Coach Hauck: "Now it is Tyler's time to be a guy who is a factor for us. He, along with (fellow junior defensive tackle) Carson Bender, need to be the men who we can build our defense around. They can control the inside of our four-man front."

HONORS CANDIDATES

Sophomore Cornerback
6-3, 197, 1V
Stockton, California
Edison High School

Montana: Trumaine is a gifted athlete with the ability to play several positions. He is UM's 13th leading returning tackler.

2008: He was a rare starter as a "true" freshman and especially unique to start at cornerback. He started in Montana's first 11 games and was a Big Sky Conference honorable mention selection. He tied for the team lead with four interceptions and tied for sixth in the Big Sky with .36 picks a game. He suffered an injury against Idaho State and was unable to play after that.

High School: He had an outstanding season at quarterback as a senior, passing for 1,800 yards (with just 5 interceptions), rushing for 500 yards, and scoring 22 total touchdowns. He was named first team all-league at quarterback and at defensive back following his senior year. He was voted to his high school's football "Hall of Fame" at defensive back.

As a junior he was first team all-league at wide receiver with 750 receiving yards and 10 touchdowns, and chosen his team's MVP. His high school football coach was Elliot Burke.

He also earned three letters in basketball. As a senior in hoops he was team captain, team MVP, and an all-conference pick.

Career Highs: He had five tackles against UC Davis and Central Washington last season. He had two interceptions against Southern Utah.

Personal: His parents are Lynn Stallworth and Curtis Johnson of Stockton. His major is undecided. Birth date: January 1, 1990.

Says Coach Hauck: "Trumaine is coming off a knee injury. He's done a nice job coming back from that. He had a good spring practice. We need him to evolve as a football player and become a more complete player. If he does that he can be a great player for us."

KEVIN KLABOE

Senior Fullback/Snaps
6-2, 225, 3V
Billings, Montana
West High School

Montana: Kevin will be starting at fullback and has been an honorable mention All-Big Sky Conference pick at that position the past three seasons. He also serves as UM's deep snapper for field goals and PATs. He has played in 38 games and started in 38 as well.

2008: He was slowed down with an injury but still started in 14 contests. He was an honorable mention All-Big Sky selection. He had seven catches (for 34 yards) in seven different games a year ago. He had four tackles on special teams. He was named to the league's all-academic squad for the third consecutive year.

2007: He started 10 games and was an honorable mention All-Big Sky pick.

2006: He had 10 receptions for 80 yards, including a three-yard touchdown grab at Weber State. His 10 catches tied him for the seventh most on the team. He was an honorable mention all-league selection. He started in all 14 games.

2005: He was a redshirt at UM.

High School: Klaboe prepped at Billings West High School, where he was a first team all-state pick both ways as a senior at linebacker and tight end. He participated in Montana's annual East-West Shrine Game as well as the Knights of Columbus Badlands Bowl.

His senior season he garnered 135 tackles, including 19 stops for losses, and also had five fumble recoveries. He had 21 receptions for 228 yards and seven touchdowns at tight end.

He lettered four times in football and four times in basketball. He was one of the top wrestlers in the state, and finished second at 215 pounds his junior year.

Kevin's high school football coach was his dad, Paul Klaboe, the long-time head mentor at Billings West High School.

Career Highs: He had two receptions in three different games in 2006. His longest grab was a 24-yarder versus Fort Lewis in 2007. He had two tackles against Northern Arizona in 2006.

Personal: He is a business administration (finance) major. His parents are Paul and Maureen Klaboe of Billings. Birth date: June 26, 1986.

Says Coach Hauck: "Kevin is our long snapper as well as our starting fullback. He does a great job. It shows up a lot of the time, down in the goal line area. It shows when someone is lined up wrong up front, he lets them know. He does a great job of adjusting on the fly. He's a hard charger and a tough guy, and he does whatever he needs to do to help us win."

JON OPPERUD II

Sophomore Offensive Guard
6-7, 305, 1V
Portland, Oregon
Milwaukie High School

Montana: Jon had an excellent spring and emerged as the starter at left guard.

2008: He saw action in several games as a "true" freshman, playing on both the offensive line and on special teams.

High School: He earned three letters in football, three in basketball, and two in track at Milwaukie High School.

He was chosen his team's Outstanding Offensive Lineman of the Year as a senior, when he started both ways. His high school football coach was Roland Aumuller.

Opperud served as a team captain in football, basketball, and track.

He was team MVP and all-league in basketball as a senior when he averaged 18 points and 10 rebounds a game.

He was also MVP and a second team all-state pick in track his senior year, and he placed fourth in the state in the discus. He was the conference champion in the discus and shot put in 2008.

Personal: His parents are Jon and Gail Opperud of Portland. His major is business. Birth date: Feb. 13, 1990.

Says Coach Hauck: "Jon played as a true freshman last year which is unique at his position on the offensive line. He looks good and has worked hard in the weight room. We've had a history of great offensive linemen here, and I think that he could be next in line on that list of great players."

Palmer played in Montana's annual East-West Shrine Game and was one of the team captains for the West squad. His prep football coach was former Grizzly player (1959-61) and assistant football coach (1977-79) Gary Ekegren.

He served as a team captain in football and basketball as a senior. He was track MVP in the jumps as a junior.

Career Highs: He had four receptions for 115 yards, including a career-long 75-yard touchdown grab at Weber State last season. He had a career-high three tackles at Montana State in 2007.

Personal: His major is history. His parents are Scott and Teresa Palmer of Missoula. Birth date: October 5, 1986. Tyler's twin brother Jace (who is three minutes older than he) is a senior defensive end for the Grizzlies.

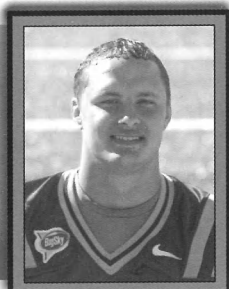

Says Coach Hauck: "When we lost (to graduation) Mike Ferriter in our receiving corps, we lost a lot of production. Ty has the ability to have a big year. He is a good blocker in the run game. He's a hard worker. When he catches the ball he is a big target. If he can stay healthy, he will have a big year for us."

SAN LOUIS OBISPO, CALIF. – Fifth-ranked Montana opened the 2008 season with a key road win over 11th-ranked Cal Poly, a 30-28 victory at Alex G. Spanos Stadium.

The Grizzlies, up by just two points with no timeouts left and 38 seconds left on the game clock, watched as Cal Poly kicker Andrew Gardner lined up for a 27-yard field goal attempt. Gardner, who hit the game winner against San Diego State the week before, wasn't able to do it again, and the ball hit the left upright.

Montana senior running back Andrew Schmidt carried the ball 26 times for 145 yards and a touchdown. Quarterback Cole Bergquist completed 13-of-22 passes for 163 yards and two touchdowns, both scoring strikes to receiver Mike Ferriter.

Cal Poly quarterback Jonathan Dally completed 16-of-23 passes for 248 yards and two touchdowns. Wide receiver Ramses Barden caught both those touchdown passes and caught seven balls for 131 yards.

Montana's defense forced Cal Poly to punt on its first possession. Schmidt blocked it, giving his offense field position on Cal Poly's 39-yard line.

Montana's first offensive play resulted in a quick six points when Bergquist connected with Ferriter on a 34-yarder for the game's first score.

The Mustangs quickly fired back with a score of their own when Dally connected with Barden up the middle on a play action pass, tying the game at 7-7 late in the first quarter.

Bergquist put Montana up 14-7 after scampering 15 yards for a score on a quarterback draw. The scoring drive followed a Cal Poly shanked punt.

Dally threw a strike to Barden on a post pattern, tying Montana again at 14-14 early in the second quarter.

Cal Poly took its first lead of the game with six minutes left in the first half when wingback James Noble scored from two yards out, making it 21-14.

In the second half Schmidt rushed eight times for 54 yards on the first drive. Bergquist then hit Ferriter from 20 yards out to tie the game at 21-apiece. The 12-play, 80-yard drive that took 5:50 was kept alive by Bergquist who was able to convert two huge fourth down runs.

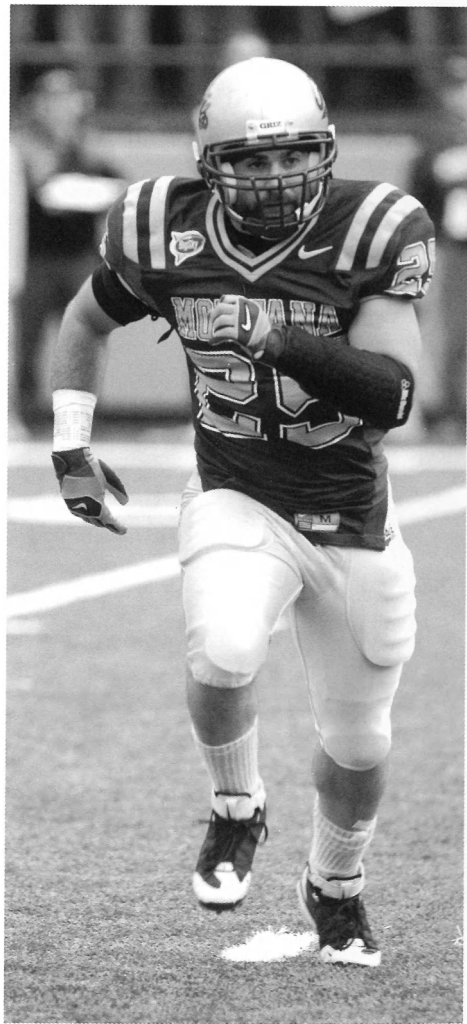

After Montana's special teams pinned the Mustangs deep in their territory, Grizzly linebacker Brandon Fisher stripped the ball out of Dally's hands, which Cal Poly recovered in the endzone resulting in a safety, giving Montana a two-point lead at 23-21.

Early in the fourth quarter, Montana, for the third time in the game, went for it on fourth down, with Schmidt pounding it up the middle for a first down by mere inches. The next play, Bergquist went to the air for a 26-yard completion to Marc Mariani giving UM a first-and-goal from the 5-yard line. Schmidt capped off the drive with a 5-yard TD rush, making it 30-21, Griz.

With 8:32 left, Cal Poly put together an impressive 12-play, 72-yard drive, Noble scoring from 2 yards out, cutting the UM lead to 30-28.

With 5:47 remaining, Montana went for it again on fourth down. This time, Cal Poly came up big by sacking Bergquist and giving their offense a chance to take back the lead. Down by only two, the potent and experienced Mustang offense drove down the field to Montana's 9-yard line, but Gardner missed the three-pointer, sending the Montana sideline into a frenzy as they knew all the offense had to do was run out the clock for the victory.

Grizzly linebacker Brandon Fisher stripped the ball out of a Mustang player's hands, and Cal Poly recovered it in the endzone resulting in a safety and giving Montana a two-point lead at 23-21.

MISSOULA, MT - University of Montana junior wide receiver Marc Mariani tied a school record with four touchdown receptions. Sophomore quarterback Andrew Selle threw four touchdown passes, and UM tied a school record with six scoring passes, as the fifth-ranked Grizzlies defeated the Southern Utah Thunderbirds 46-10 Saturday afternoon in a non-conference game in UM's Washington-Grizzly Stadium.

A record crowd of 25,056 was on hand to see the Grizzlies win their 2008 season opener in expanded Washington-Grizzly Stadium breaking the old attendance mark of 24,018 set against Montana State in 2006.

It was a lack-luster first quarter by both teams and there was no scoring, but Montana (2-0) of the Big Sky Conference outscored Southern Utah (1-2) of the Great West Conference 23-0 in the second stanza and never looked back.

In that second quarter, the Grizzlies scored on touchdown passes of 14 and 66 yards from senior quarterback Cole Bergquist to Mariani, while Selle connected with "true" freshman Jabin Sambrano on a 15-yard scoring pass. Freshman kicker Russell Schey opened the scoring in the second period with his first career field goal, a 30-yarder. The Grizzlies out-gained the T-Birds 231 to 79 in total yards in the first half, and had 11 (13 to two) more first downs.

Montana tacked on 10 more unanswered points in the third quarter, as Mariani and Selle hooked up for a 32-yard scoring pass and senior wide receiver Mike Ferriter booted a 27-yard field goal - the first three-point attempt of his career. That made it 32-0 Grizzlies after three periods. The Griz went ahead 39-zip on a 14-yard touchdown throw from Selle to senior wide receiver Rob Schulte with 13:26 left to go in the game.

The T-Birds finally got on the board on a 19-yard TD pass from senior quarterback Cody Stone to sophomore wide-out Tyson Poots. Senior kicker Steve Pulver cut the Griz lead to 39-10 on a 42-yard field goal with 9:40 to play. Mariani's fourth touchdown grab and Selle's fourth scoring pass, this one covering 36 yards, came with 7:09 remaining, making it the final score of 46-10.

Mariani, from Havre, had career-highs of 8 catches for 208 yards. His 208 receiving yards tied him for the sixth most in single-game history (208, Joe Douglass at Montana, 1995). His four TD receptions tied three others for the most ever scoring grabs in a contest. He had 289 all-purpose yards (208 receiving and 81 via returns).

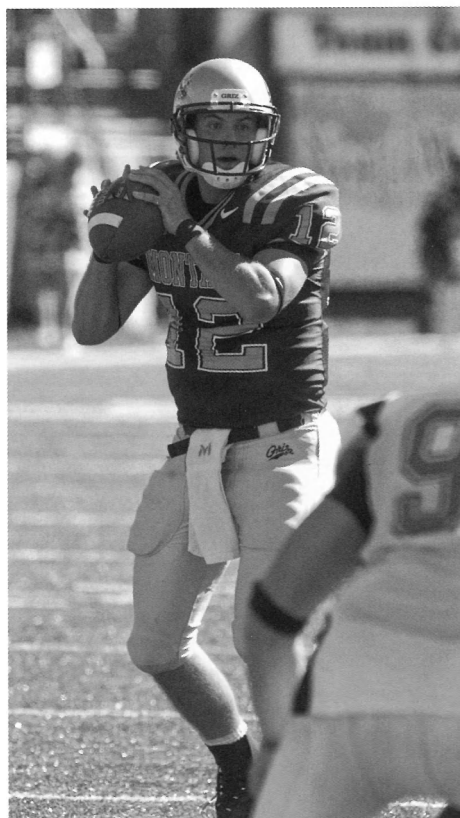

Montana's six touchdown passes, two by Bergquist and four by Selle, tied the school record set in 1998 at Stephen F. Austin and in 1995 at home against Boise State. UM had 10 different receivers with at least one catch.

Selle, who came in for a banged up Bergquist, was 13-of-20-0 for 204 yards and the four scores, while Bergquist, who improved to 19-4 as a starter, was 7-of-15-1 for 129 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

UM junior halfback Thomas Brooks-Fletcher had 13 carries for 61 yards, while sophomore Chase Reynolds picked up 41 yards on 13 totes. Senior halfback Andrew Schmidt had seven carries for 21 yards and left the game with an apparent injury.

Junior defensive tackle Austin Mullins led the Griz with 10 tackles, a sack and 1-½ stops for losses, while senior tackle Craig Mettler had 8 tackles, a sack and 1-½ stops for losses as well. Freshman cornerback Trumaine Johnson had two interceptions.

For the T-Birds, Stone was 11-of-24-3 for 133 yards and a TD and was sacked five times. Poots had team-highs of four catches for 52 yards and a touchdown. Sophomore halfback Decker Alexander had game-highs of 26 carries for 86 yards.

Andrew Selle threw four touchdown passes, and UM tied a school record with six scoring passes against Southern Utah.

MISSOULA, MT -- Fourth-ranked Montana (3-0) beat UC Davis (1-3) 29-24 in a homecoming game played in front of a record-setting crowd (25,209) at Washington-Grizzly Stadium.

The Griz have won 16 homecoming games in a row and 24 straight regular-season games.

The Aggies took their first lead of the game with 6:36 left on the clock at 24-23, but Montana came surging back to go ahead on a seven-yard touchdown pass from Cole Bergquist to Marc Mariani.

Bergquist completed 19-of-29 passes for 255 yards and two touchdowns. Mariani caught seven balls for 98 yards and a touchdown, while senior wide receiver Mike Ferriter caught four passes for 83 yards and a score.

UC Davis quarterback Greg Denham threw for 251 yards on 31-of-38 passes with one touchdown and one interception. Chris Carter led the Aggies receiving corps with seven catches for 68 yards. Running back Brandon Tucker rushed 21 times for 81 yards and one touchdown.

On third-and-long in UM's opening drive, Ferriter made a finger-tip catch for 33 yards on a pass from Bergquist. Sophomore running back

Chase Reynolds capped off the drive with a four-yard score and his first career TD.

Sophomore safety Houston Stockton came up big on special teams by blocking a punt, and on UM's first play after the block Bergquist hit Ferriter for a 26-yard touchdown pass. The PAT was blocked, giving the Grizzlies an early 13-0 lead.

UC Davis' second drive was a 15-play, 53 yard drive, which ate up 8:45 on the clock, and was capped off by a 36-yard field goal by Sean Kelley, making it 13-3 Griz with just over a minute left in the first quarter.

Freshman kicker Brody McKnight made his first field goal attempt as a Grizzly, a 46-yarder which extended UM's lead to 16-3.

On the Aggies' next drive Denham completed six passes to five different receivers for 65 yards, with Tucker scoring on a one-yard run, making it 16-10, UM.

On a third-and-three from Montana's 45-yard line, Denham dropped back for a pass and his throw bounced off a Grizzly player's helmet and it was picked off by cornerback Trumaine Johnson who returned it 53 yards to the Aggie

5-yard line. Griz running back Thomas Brooks-Fletcher capitalized on the turnover two plays later on a 3-yard touchdown run, giving Montana a 23-10 halftime lead.

After a scoreless third quarter, Denham scored from one yard out, bringing UC Davis to within six points at 23-17.

With 6:36 left in the game, the Aggies took their only lead of the game at 24-23 on a 7-yard touchdown pass from Denham to Bakari Grant.

Mariani and Bergquist connected three times for 48 yards on the ensuing drive, and Mariani's nine-yard TD grab gave Montana a 29-24 advantage.

The Aggies, facing a fourth-and-two from their own 40-yard line, elected to go to the air, and Denham's short pass was batted down by Grizzly linebacker Brandon Fisher and Montana took over on downs.

Griz running back Thomas Brooks-Fletcher capitalized on a UC Davis turnover, scoring two plays later on a 3-yard touchdown run, giving UM a 23-10 lead.

MISSOULA, MT - Redshirt freshman place-kicker Brody McKnight connected on a 42-yard field goal with one second left, as Montana edged the upset-minded Wildcats.

It was a battle between two unbeaten teams. The Wildcats, ranked seventh in Division II, entered the game 4-0, while the Grizzlies, ranked fourth in the Football Championship Subdivision, came in at 3-0.

The win gave Montana a 4-0 start for the second year in a row. The last Griz teams to accomplish that were the 1969 and 1970 squads.

Montana extended its school and Big Sky Conference records by winning its 25th straight regular season game. Since opening the 2006 season with a loss to Iowa, Montana has won 25 straight regular-season games (10 in 2006, 11 in 2007 and four this season). UM broke the previous Big Sky mark of 23 straight regular-season victories it set from 1969-71.

For the third straight week, the Grizzlies set a Big Sky record for the largest home crowd at a non-conference game, as 25,326 packed the newly-expanded Washington-Grizzly Stadium to watch UM nip CWU. The Griz also set attendance records earlier this year against Southern Utah (25,056) and UC Davis (25,209).

Central Washington capitalized on five turnovers by Montana, but the visitors from Ellensburg, Wash., also showed a lot of grit, overcoming an 11-point deficit with 7:30 remaining.

The Wildcats cut the Grizzly lead to 35-32, when quarterback Mile Reilly hit wide-out Johnny Spevak for a 56-yard scoring pass with 7:30 to go. A pass from Reilly to tight end Jared Bronson was good for the two-point conversion.

CWU recovered the ensuing on-side kick, and six plays later kicker Garrett Rolsma's 44-yard field goal knotted the score at 35-all with 2:47 left to play.

Starting from their own 35-yard line, UM eked its way down the field, with the key plays, two catches by Mike Ferriter, covering 40 yards. McKnight then nailed the game-winner with one tick left on the clock.

Thanks to a Griz fumble, CWU took an early 7-0 lead on a 32-yard touchdown pass from Reilly to Ryan Dyer. But the Grizzlies made it 7-7 a few minutes later when Bergquist hit tight end Dan Beaudin for a 2-yard touchdown pass.

CWU took a 14-7 lead when linebacker Buddy Wood scooped up a Bergquist fumble and raced 20 yards for a score. CWU took its biggest lead, 21-7, with 8:50 to go until halftime, when Reilly and Bronson hooked up for a 17-yard scoring pass.

Montana rebounded with back-to-back touchdown passes from Bergquist to Marc Mariani of 64 and 42 yards, which tied the score 21-21 with 2:47 left until intermission.

Reynold's first touchdown run, a 12-yarder around left end, came at the 3:05 mark of the third quarter, and was the only scoring in that stanza, setting up the dramatic final 15 minutes.

Bergquist was 25-of-34 for a career-high 377 yards and three touchdowns. Ferriter had a career-high 133 receiving yards and matched his career best with eight receptions, while Mariani had six grabs for 161 yards and two scores.

Reynolds rushed for a career-best 87 yards on 16 carries, and had the first two touchdown-day of his career as well.

Senior safety Colt Anderson had a team-high 10 tackles, while junior linebacker Shawn Lebsock had eight stops and a tackle for a loss.

Reilly, from Kalispell, was 21-of-35-0 for 280 yards and three touchdowns, while Spevak had seven receptions for a game-leading 136 yards. CWU senior linebacker Chris James had a game-high 15 tackles.

Redshirt freshman place-kicker Brody McKnight connected on a 42-yard field goal with one second left in the game to give Montana a 38-35 win over CWU. (Mike Bashor photo)

OGDEN, UTAH – Montana's streaks of 25 regular season wins and 16 straight Big Sky Conference victories came to a halt at Weber State, as the third-ranked Grizzlies (4-1/0-1) were unable to overcome four turnovers — two fumbles and two interceptions — and the Wildcats (4-2/2-0) had seven sacks to defeat Montana for the first time in 10 years.

With less than 12 minutes left in the game, Montana brought the game within reach at 38-28 on a five-yard touchdown catch from quarterback Cole Bergquist to wide receiver Mike Ferriter.

But, Weber State put the game out of reach on the ensuing drive with 8:41 left in the game when sophomore quarterback Cameron Higgins hit Bryant Eteuati for a 28-yard TD pass.

WSU junior halfback Trevyn Smith, a 5-9, 210-pounder, rushed 22 times for 158 yards and a touchdown, and also had four catches for 54 yards and a score. Higgins threw for 237 yards on 21-of-30 passes, throwing touchdowns to three different receivers and tossed one interception.

The Grizzlies took a 21-10 lead on a six-play, 52-yard scoring drive, when Bergquist scored on a quarterback keeper from seven yards.

After a fumble recovery, WSU back-up quarterback Brandon Doyle took a keeper up the middle for a 20-yard touchdown to give the Wildcats a 24-21 lead with 6:23 left in the first half, and they never trailed again.

WSU ended the first half with a Higgins to Mike Phillips eight-yard touchdown pass, and WSU led 31-21 at halftime.

The first play of the fourth quarter was disastrous for the Grizzlies when Bergquist lateraled to fullback Kevin Klaboe who fumbled for the second time in the game.

WSU safety Scotty Goodloe picked up the fumble and returned it to Montana's five-yard line, and two plays later, Smith ran it in from five yards out to put the Wildcats up 38-21 with 14:43 to go.

Montana, down by 17 with 11:44 left in the fourth quarter, finally scored, as Bergquist's 5-yard touchdown pass to Mike Ferriter brought the Griz to within ten points, at 38-28. That touchdown was Montana's first and only points in the second half.

Higgins put the game out of reach when he connected with Eteuati on a 28-yard touchdown to give WSU a 45-28 lead with 8:41 left.

Bergquist completed 14-of-26 passes for 273 yards, two touchdowns, and threw two interceptions.

Palmer had career-highs of four catches for 115 yards and had his first career touchdown. Marc Mariani had 4 grabs for 71 yards, while Ferriter had 3 for 45 and a score.

Tyler Palmer had career-highs of four catches for 115 yards and had his first career touchdown reception at Weber State.

Reynolds rushed 12 times for 40 yards and a touchdown, while wide receiver/halfback Rob Schulte had three carries for 32 yards.

Griz senior safety Colt Anderson had a game-high 12 tackles.

Erik Stoll recovered a punt on the EWU 8-yard line, which led to a Griz touchdown.

CHENEY, WASH. - The 12th-ranked Montana Grizzlies held off the potent and 23rd-ranked Eastern Washington Eagles' offense for the win.

EWU was within a touchdown (10-3) for more than half the game, but they couldn't find the endzone.

Montana put EWU away with 10 minutes left when Andrew Schmidt blocked an Eagle punt and safety Erik Stoll recovered the ball on the EWU eight-yard line. One play later, Montana quarterback Cole Bergquist hit receiver Mark Mariani for a touchdown, making it 17-3, putting the game out of reach for the Eagles.

Bergquist threw for 199 yards on 15-of-25 passing and two touchdowns. Mariani caught five balls for 118 yards and scored the only two TDs of the game. Eagle quarterback Matt Nichols went 19-of-45-0 for 191 yards.

On EWU's opening drive, Alexis Alexander broke free for a long run, but Griz cornerback Andrew Swink forced a fumble which was recovered by UM's Shann Schillinger in the endzone for a touchdown.

Montana's Severin Campbell partially blocked a punt to give the offense the ball on the Eagles' 39-yard line, and on the first play after the block, Bergquist connected with a wide open Mariani for the game's first touchdown.

On EWU's fourth drive Alexander gave his offense a first-and-10 at Montana's 11-yard line after a 48-yard run, but UM's defense held, forcing EWU to kick a 24-yard field goal in the second quarter, giving them their only points of the game, making it 10-3, Montana.

The Grizzly defense held firm in the third quarter, and the offense dominated in time of possession, 11:27 to 3:33. With 13 seconds left in the third quarter, the Eagles, on fourth-and-12, decided to go for the first down and Nichols overthrew his intended receiver, giving UM the ball on its own 43-yard line.

On fourth-and-inches on the Eastern Washington 19-yard line, Montana went for it with just under 13 minutes left in the game, and Schmidt picked up the crucial first down on a three-yard run up the middle.

Early in the final quarter, the Griz defense forced EWU to punt, and Schmidt came up huge on special teams with his second blocked punt of the season.

Griz senior defensive end Michael Stadnyk was sacking Nichols in the endzone when Nichols was called for intentional grounding, which resulted in a safety, giving Montana a 19-3 lead with 6:21 left in the contest.

Montana dominated the time of possession battle, 38:52 to 21:08, and a whopping 22:59 to 7:01 in the final 30 minutes.

The Griz rushed 49 times for 208 yards, but ended up with 149 net yards, as Bergquist was sacked five times for a loss of 45 yards. Sophomore Chase Reynolds had 12 carries for 63 yards, Schmidt gained 39 on 12 totes, and Thomas Brooks-Fletcher picked up 34 yards on nine rushes.

Montana's Severin Campbell partially blocked an EWU punt to give the offense the ball on the Eagles' 39-yard line.

MISSOULA, MT - Montana senior quarterback Cole Bergquist passed for four touchdowns, two each to junior Marc Mariani and senior Mike Ferriter, to lead the eighth-ranked Grizzlies.

A record crowd of 25,486 in Washington-Grizzly Stadium saw Montana improve to 6-1 overall and 2-1 in league, while Sac State went to 3-4/1-3. The old Washington-Grizzly Stadium attendance record of 25,326 was set against Central Washington earlier this season.

Bergquist was 17-of-19 (89.5%) passing for 290 yards. Mariani's two TD grabs went for 24 and 46 yards, while Ferriter's scoring catches covered 31 and 73 yards. Mariani caught eight balls for 131 yards, while Ferriter had five for 119 yards.

Sac State sophomore QB Jason Smith was 20-of-36 for 185 yards and one touchdown, while Hornet senior wide receiver Tony Washington had 130 yards on 12 catches, and sophomore running back Bryan Hilliard ran 24 times for 96 yards.

Early in the first quarter Bergquist connected with Mariani for a 24-yard touchdown with 9:12 left, making it 7-0 Griz.

Montana went up 16-0 when Sac State punter Oscar DeAlba couldn't grab an errant snap, which resulted in a safety.

After senior linebacker Tyler Corwin had his first career interception, it led to a Bergquist to Ferriter 31-yard scoring pass, making it 23-0 UM with 5:19 left until half.

Sac State came alive on the next drive when

Smith connected with Washington on a deep 46-yard pass. A few plays later, Smith threw the ball into the left corner of the end zone and receiver Kyle Hill caught the 19-yard pass from Smith for the Hornet's first and only touchdown of the contest, making it 23-7 Montana with 2:51 left in the second quarter.

Montana scored again on a quarterback draw by Bergquist from 14 yards out to give the Grizzlies a 29-7 lead at halftime.

Bergquist and Mariani hooked up again with 12:44 remaining in the third quarter when Mariani caught a short pass in the left flat and broke several tackles to score from 46 yards out, giving the Griz a 36-7 lead.

The Grizzlies first play on their next drive resulted in another touchdown when Bergquist hit Ferriter on a 73-yard touchdown bomb down the right sideline, giving the Grizzlies a commanding and final 43-7 lead with 6:37 left in the third quarter.

Montana's defense held Sac State to 250 total yards, including 65 rush yards on 32 carries. The Griz had 439 total yards, 314 passing and 125 rushing.

Bergquist moved up to fourth in career touchdown passes with 47, and he moved up to seventh in career passing yards with 6,035.

Mariani now has 11 receiving touchdowns this season, which ranks him fifth in single-season history.

Ferriter moved up to 16th in career receiving yards with 1,744, while his 124 receptions are the 17th most in school history.

Marc Mariani's two receiving touchdowns against Sacramento State gave him 11 so far in the season.

GREELEY, COLO. - Sophomore halfback Chase Reynolds rushed for a career-high 137 yards and two touchdowns, and senior quarterback Cole Bergquist passed for 243 yards and two scores, as the eighth-ranked University of Montana Grizzlies won their seventh game of the season - guaranteeing them their 23rd winning season in a row.

Montana took a three touchdown lead at the end of the first half on an eight-play, 93-yard drive, when Bergquist scored on a quarterback keeper on a six-yard touchdown run, making it 24-3 Montana at halftime.

Bergquist completed 78 percent of his passes, going 14-of-18-0 in three quarters of action.

Griz wide receivers Mike Ferriter and Marc Mariani again had impressive outings. Ferriter had three receptions for 88 yards and one touchdown, while Mariani caught two balls for 38 yards and one touchdown.

Reynolds had just 14 carries and had scoring runs of 43 and 32 yards.

Northern Colorado was forced to play all three of its quarterbacks after junior starter, Bryan Waggener did not return in the second half after an undisclosed injury. Waggener was 6-of-11 for 53 yards, while redshirt freshman quarterback Dylan Orms was 6-of-11 for one touchdown and 53 yards, and had a team-high 67 yards rushing and a touchdown. Sophomore QB James Schrenk saw limited action.

On the first Griz drive Reynolds had nine carries for 44 yards to get the Grizzlies within field goal range, and freshman kicker Brody McKnight put UM ahead 3-0 on a 20-yard field goal.

On their next drive, the Bears found themselves with a first-and-goal after a couple of long plays, but it stalled, and kicker Michael York tied the game three-all on a 27-yard field goal with 30 seconds left in the first quarter.

Montana kept giving the ball to Reynolds and when he took an inside draw through the line, he cut back to the right across the field and raced to the end zone for the 43-yard touchdown run, giving UM a 10-3 lead.

On the next Griz possession Bergquist hit Ferriter on a deep crossing route, and he cut down the right sideline and out-sprinted several UNC defenders for a 75-yard touchdown. The four-play, 94-yard drive gave Montana a 17-3 lead. UM got the ball back with 1:39 left on the clock and had an eight-play, 93-yard drive, culminating with a keeper by Bergquist, as he ran up the middle for a six-yard touchdown to give Montana a 24-3 halftime lead.

The Grizzlies started the second half the same way they ended the first, as Reynolds went untouched on a 32-yard touchdown run to extend Montana's lead to 31-3 to start the second half.

After a UNC field goal the Griz scored again, this time Bergquist connected with Mariani who scored on a 30-yard touchdown - his 12th TD reception of the season, giving the Griz a 38-6 lead with 3:32 left in the third quarter. McKnight added UM's final points on a 30-yard field goal with 13 seconds left in the third quarter, pushing the Griz advantage to 41-3.

UNC scored two TDs in the final minutes of the contest, the first a one-yard run by Orms, and the next an Orms pass to Brandon Smith for a five-yard TD.

Griz junior tight end Steve Pfahler had a career and game-high four catches for 55 yards, while senior receiver Rob Schulte and Reynolds each had two catches.

Senior strong safety Colt Anderson and senior linebacker Tyler Corwin each had a team-leading nine tackles, while sophomore end Ryan Fetherston had seven stops and two tackles for loss.

Sophomore halfback Chase Reynolds rushed for a career-high 137 yards and two touchdowns at UNC.

MISSOULA, MONTANA – Sophomore halfback Chase Reynolds rushed for a career-high 157 yards and three touchdowns, and senior quarterback Cole Bergquist passed for three scores, as the sixth-ranked Grizzlies defeated the 19th-ranked Lumberjacks.

The Grizzlies improved to 8-1 overall and 4-1 in league, while the Lumberjacks went to 6-3/4-2.

The victory was a milestone for six-year Griz head coach Bobby Hauck, as it was the 60th of his career.

Montana rushed for a season-high 223 yards against a team that started the game ranked first in the Football Championship Subdivision in rush defense, giving up just 18.8 yards per contest. NAU had allowed just 150 total net rush yards in its first eight games this season until the Griz erupted for 223 yards and averaged a season-high 5.4 yards on 41 carries.

Reynolds rushed 12 times for his 157 yards to average 13.1 yards per tote, and scored on runs of 6, 37, and a career-best 67 yards.

Bergquist was 14-of-23-0 for 186 yards and had touchdown throws of 11, 9, and 5 yards.

Senior wide receiver Mike Ferriter was on the receiving end of two of Bergquist's scoring passes, and he had a team-high four grabs for 56 yards.

Junior wide-out Marc Mariani scored on an 11-yard pass from Bergquist and had three receptions for 60 yards. Mariani now has 13 touchdown catches this season, which ties him for the third most in single season history with Marvin Turk (1991) and Mike Rice (1986).

On its first possession, Montana set the tone for the game, marching 80 yards on 13 plays, using up 6:23 on the clock. Reynolds scored on a six-yard run to give the Griz an early 7-0 lead.

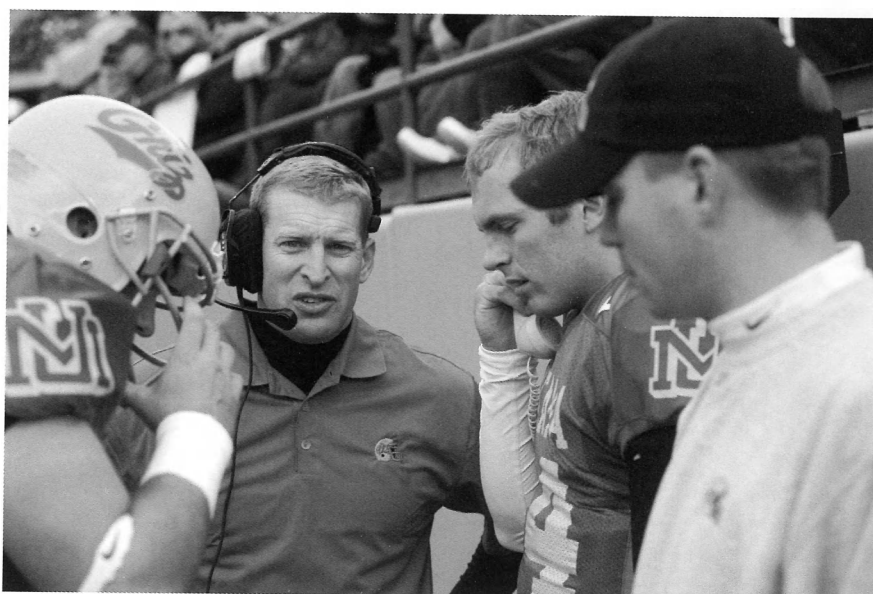

The floodgates then opened, as the Grizzlies capitalized on four first-half turnovers by NAU, two via interceptions and two fumble recoveries. Those four Lumberjack miscues led to 24 unanswered points, and Montana took a commanding 31-0 lead at halftime.

Montana's defense was once again solid in the third quarter. Reynolds broke loose for his 67-yard scoring scamper, although NAU did get on the board on a 24-yard field goal by senior kicker Robbie Dehaze, which made it 38-3 after three stanzas. The Grizzlies have now out-scored their opponents 61-6 in the third quarter this season.

The Griz "D" held NAU to 264 total yards, 151 rushing and 113 passing. Montana gained 436 total yards, 223 on the ground and 213 via the airways.

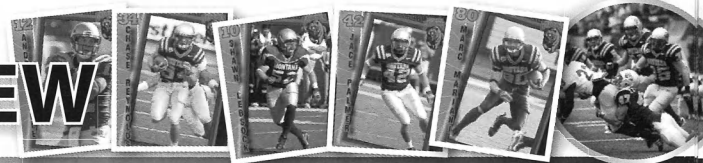

UM senior safety Colt Anderson had two picks, seven tackles, two PBs, and a tackle for loss. Senior linebacker Tyler Corwin had a team-best eight stops, a sack, and a fumble recovery, while senior end Mike Stadnyk added seven tackles, a sack, and a forced fumble.

NAU freshman running back Deonte Williams had 15 carries for 105 yards and had his team's only touchdown, scoring on an 11-yard run with 7:32 left in the game. Jack senior quarterback Lance Kriesien was 14-of-22-1 for 83 yards and had minus-one yard rushing.

The victory over NAU was a milestone for six-year Griz head coach Bobby Hauck, as it was the 60th of his career.

PORTLAND, OREGON - The fifth-ranked Montana Grizzlies were led by sophomore half-back Chase Reynolds' three touchdowns runs; senior quarterback Cole Bergquist added 91 rushing yards and a touchdown; and UM's defense limited the Vikings 210 total yards to lead the way in a 29-12 victory.

The Vikings were moving the ball on their first drive of the second half, but that came to a halt when Griz senior safety Colt Anderson recovered a Mario D'Ambrosio fumble after a long reception. Reynolds, who had career-highs of 35 carries for 160 yards and the three touchdowns, made the most of the turnover by scoring from 18 yards out. The seven-play, 52-yard drive put the Griz up 16-5 with 8:18 left in the third quarter.

The Vikings bounced right back, though, on just three plays and 72 yards when sophomore quarterback Drew Hubel hit Raymond Fry on a 38-yard touchdown pass to bring the Vikings back within four points (16-12).

On the Grizzlies next possession it appeared as though Bergquist had completed a pass to senior wide receiver Mike Ferriter, but the initial call from the line judge was overruled by the field judge. Montana's bench disputed the call and was called for an unsportsmanlike penalty, which turned a 20-plus yard pass completion into a 15-yard penalty. The Grizzlies were able to overcome the penalty and set up to attempt a 44-yard field goal, but kicker Brody McKnight faked the kick and took the pitch from holder Jeff Larson and ran for the first down. Montana went for it again on fourth down from the PSU 11-yard line, and Reynolds scored his second touchdown of the game with 31 seconds remaining in the third quarter to increase Montana's lead to 23-12.

Hubel, after completing a 47-yard pass to Lavonte Kirven, was picked off near the goal line by junior linebacker Brandon Fisher with a little more than nine minutes remaining in the game. PSU forced Montana to punt, though, and Hubel was again intercepted by Fisher on the first play of the ensuing drive. Reynolds once again made the most of the turnover by scoring on a 21-yard run, which gave the Grizzlies a comfortable 29-12 lead with 3:51 left to play - the final points of the contest.

Both teams had come into this game with potent offenses, but it was a defensive first half as the Griz held the Vikings to just 50 total yards. Even though Montana dominated the time of possession (19 minutes to 11) in the first half, the Griz had just nine points to show for it, as they led 9-5 at halftime.

The 91 yards rushing on 16 carries by Bergquist was a career-best, bettering the 89 yards he gained against Albany last season. In UM's last three games Reynolds has rushed for 137 yards at Northern Colorado, 157 against Northern Arizona, and the 160 at PSU, giving him 454 yards and eight touchdowns in his last three games.

Junior wide receiver Marc Mariani had a game-high five catches for 38 yards but did not have at least one touchdown reception for only the third time this season. Reynolds also had four grabs for 19 yards, while Ferriter had three for 29.

Griz defensive ends Jace Palmer and Mike Stadnyk had two sacks each, while senior safety Colt Anderson had a team-best six tackles and a fumble recovery, and Fisher had two picks.

Montana dominated the game statistically. The Griz outgained the Vikings 427 to 210 in total yards and doubled PSU in first downs (24 to 12). UM's ground game racked up season highs of 309 yards on 62 attempts, which accounted for the lopsided time of possession numbers (43:21 to 16:39 for the Grizzlies).

The win improved Montana's record to 100-21 this decade, and those 100 victories are the most by any FBS or FCS team during that time span. Oklahoma has the second most wins at 98, while Appalachian State is the closest FCS team in number of wins in the decades, with a mark of 87 victories.

Griz defensive end Jace Palmer had two sacks at PSU.

MISSOULA, MT – Sophomore running back Chase Reynolds rushed for 153 yards and a touchdown to lead the fifth-ranked Grizzlies to the win over the spirited Bengals on “Senior Day.”

Montana has now won 10 or more games for the 14th time in school history and the third season in a row.

Griz head coach Bobby Hauck improved his career mark to 62-15 and has now won 10 or more games for the fourth time in his six-year tenure.

The Grizzlies improved to 10-1 overall and 6-1 in the Big Sky Conference and won their sixth straight game. The Bengals fell to 0-11 and 0-7, losing their 15th game in a row, dating back to last season.

Most of the scoring came in the second quarter. The Grizzlies took a 2-0 lead in the opening stanza when UM senior defensive tackle Craig Mettler tackled halfback Clint Knickrehm in the end zone for a safety, and that proved to be the only points scored in the opening quarter.

ISU took a 7-2 lead when junior quarterback Kyle Blum, in his first start, hit senior receiver Eddie Thompson for a 43-yard touchdown at the 13:48 mark of the second quarter. The Bengals score was set up when Griz quarterback Cole Bergquist was picked off by senior cornerback D.J. Clark, giving ISU the ball on its own 38-yard line. Bergquist had thrown 117 consecutive passes without an interception until Clark's pick.

Montana bounced back though, scoring 20 unanswered points to take a 22-7 lead at half-time. Junior Marc Mariani electrified the crowd of 23,527 (19th highest attendance in WGS in 166 games), taking a punt return 94 yards for a touchdown, tying the Big Sky record held by two others, one of whom is former Griz standout Tuff Harris who scored on a 94-yarder at Eastern Washington in 2006.

UM's other two scores in the quarter came on a 7-yard touchdown run by Bergquist and an 8-yard scoring pass from Bergquist to junior wide receiver Tyler Palmer.

The teams' defenses dominated the second half, ISU scoring on a 27-yard field goal by Mike Ramos in the third quarter and Reynolds scoring the game's final points on a one-yard dive into the endzone with 9:45 left to play.

Reynolds, who rushed 18 times for 153 yards, carried the ball 13 times for 123 yards in the second half.

Reynolds has rushed for 607 yards and nine touchdowns in Montana's last four games.

Bergquist was 10-of-21-1 for 77 yards. Senior receiver Mike Ferriter had a team-high three catches for 21 yards and also completed his first-ever pass, a 20-yarder to Bergquist. Senior running back Andrew Schmidt added 10 carries for 46 yards.

The Griz defense tied their season-high with six sacks (UM also had six sacks against Southern Utah), and senior end Mike Stadnyk had a team-high two sacks. Junior free safety Shann Schillinger led the Griz with a team-high 9 tackles, and he also had two interceptions, and he had another pick nullified due to a penalty. Mettler had two tackles for loss, two pass deflections, a fumble recovery, a sack, and a tackle in the end zone for a safety. Junior end George Mercer had a sack and a forced fumble that led to Mettler's fumble recovery.

Blum was 16-of-34 for 246 yards and a TD, while Thompson had game highs of 8 catches for 120 yards and a TD.

Junior end George Mercer had a sack and a forced fumble against ISU.

MISSOULA, MONTANA - The fifth-ranked Grizzlies donned their "old" copper color jerseys, last worn in 1995, and won their 11th Big Sky Conference championship in a row, defeating the Montana State Bobcats 35-3 in front of a record-setting crowd of 25,629 in UM's Washington-Grizzly Stadium.

Montana improved to 11-1 overall and 7-1 in conference, while MSU ended its season at 7-5/5-3. The Grizzlies tied Weber State (7-1) for the Big Sky title, as the Wildcats were upset 33-26 by visiting Eastern Washington.

It is the 11th time in Montana's 111 years of playing football that a Grizzly team has won 11 or more games, and the fourth time in the last five seasons (2004, 2006, 2007, 2008).

Both defenses played well in this, the 108th Griz-Cat meeting on the gridiron. Montana dominated the second half, shutting out MSU and allowing just 101 total yards (the Griz had 209 total yards) in the final two quarters.

The Grizzlies scored three unanswered offensive touchdowns in the second half, the first coming with 2:51 left in the third quarter on a 37-yard pass from quarterback Cole Bergquist to wide receiver Marc Mariani, which made the score 21-3 Montana.

Sophomore Chase Reynolds gave the Grizzlies a 28-3 bulge on his second scoring run of the contest, a 15-yarder, coming at the 4:51 mark of the fourth quarter. Junior defensive end George Mercer put the icing on the cake for the Griz when he picked off MSU quarterback Mark Desin and returned the interception 73 yards for a touchdown with 12 seconds left in the game.

The Grizzlies capitalized on three first-half MSU fumbles to take a 14-3 lead at intermission. Mariani got the Griz on the board first, breaking free for a 75-yard touchdown on a punt return, giving UM a 7-0 lead with 6:15 to go in the opening quarter. Last week Mariani tied a Big Sky record with a 94-yard punt return for a score in a 29-10 home win over Idaho State.

The Cats got their only score of the game in the first quarter on a 25-yard field goal by freshman kicker Jason Cunningham, making it

7-3 UM with 2:24 in the first stanza. Montana took a 14-3 lead when Reynolds scored on a 6-yard run with 4:04 to go until intermission.

Reynolds rushed 27 times for 115 yards and two touchdowns. He has rushed for 995 yards this season, ranking him ninth in school history, while his 15 TD runs this year are the third most ever. Reynolds has rushed for 100 or more yards in Montana's last five games.

Bergquist was 11-of-22-0 for 156 yards and a touchdown. Bergquist now has 6,705 career passing yards, edging by John Edwards (6,704, 1999-2002) for the fifth most in school history.

Griz senior receiver Rob Schulte had 3 catches for 30 yards, while senior wide-out Mike Ferriter had 2 for 54, and Mariani had 2 for 41 and a score. Mariani now has 14 touchdown catches, tying him for the second most ever in a season (14, Etu Molden, 2001).

Griz senior linebacker Tyler Corwin had a team-high 11 tackles, while junior free safety Shann Schillinger added 8 stops, a tackle for a loss, and picked off his fourth pass of the year.

MSU senior running back Demetrius Crawford rushed for 203 yards, the most by any Griz opponent this season. Desin was 7-of-20-2 for 81 yards. Senior linebacker Bobby Daly led the Cats with a game-high 13 tackles.

Junior free safety Shann Schillinger had eight stops, a tackle for a loss, and picked off his fourth pass of the year against the Bobcats.

MISSOULA, MT - The fifth-ranked Grizzlies overcame an early deficit to defeat the 23rd-ranked Bobcats in a first-round Football Championship Subdivision playoff game.

It was a tale of two halves, as the Grizzlies outscored the Bobcats 24-3 in the second half after being down 10-0 in the first quarter and trailing 10-7 at halftime.

The Griz (12-1) were able to take control because of the play of sophomore running back Chase Reynolds, who had career-highs of 38 carries and 233 yards and scored two touchdowns.

Texas State (8-5) struck first, as senior kicker Andrew Ireland hit a 47-yard field goal to give the Bobcats an early 3-0 lead.

On its third possession of the game, Texas State junior quarterback Bradley George connected with wide receiver Cameron Luke in the left corner of the end zone for a touchdown, extending Texas State's lead to 10-0 with 4:33 left in the first quarter.

Montana got the ball with 1:09 left in the first half, and Griz senior quarterback Cole Bergquist connected with junior wide receiver Marc Mariani for a 14-yard TD pass, which brought the Griz within three points (10-7) with 16 seconds left.

Montana's offense put together a six-play, 71-yard drive on its opening drive of the second half, and when Bergquist scrambled to his left and broke a couple of tackles, he scored from 21 yards out, giving the Grizzlies a 14-10 lead with 11:47 left in the third quarter. Montana led the rest of the way.

The Griz extended the lead to 21-10 when Reynolds scored on a 4-yard run at the 5:14 mark of the third quarter.

The Bobcats bounced right back, though, as George completed a 48-yard pass to freshman wide receiver Daren Dillard who was tackled on Montana's six yard line. But the Griz defense held, and Texas State had to settle for a 25-yard field goal by Ireland, making it 21-13 with 3:22 to go in the third quarter.

When Reynolds leaped into the endzone for a 1-yard touchdown run, UM took a 28-13 lead with 12:50 left in the game. Montana made it a three-score game at 31-13 when kicker Brody McKnight made a 37-yard field goal with 2:49 left in the contest.

Reynolds' 233 yards rushing is the third most in single-season history (since 1968), while his 38 carries tied the school mark. He has now rushed for 17 touchdowns this season, which ties the school record. Reynolds has 1,228 rushing yards this year, which is the fifth most ever in a season.

Bergquist was 13-of-23 for 177 yards. He threw for one touchdown and rushed for another. Bergquist now has 6,882 career passing yards, which moves him up to fourth all-time, while his 55 career touchdown throws ties him with Grady Bennett (55, 1988-90) for the third most in school history. He is now 29-5 as a starter, tying him for the second most wins ever by a Griz quarterback (29 wins, Brian Ay Yat, 1995-98).

Mariani led UM with four catches for 49 yards and a TD, while senior wide-out Mike Ferriter added three grabs for 64 yards.

Ferriter now has 2,056 career receiving yards, making him the 11th player in school history to have more than 2,000 career receiving yards. Mariani has 15 touchdown receptions this season, the second most in school history, while his 1,058 receiving yards in 2008 are the fifth most in single-season history.

Griz junior free safety Shann Schillinger had a team-high 11 tackles, while senior strong safety Colt Anderson had nine stops, three tackles for loss, and a forced fumble. Anderson now has 278 career tackles, which moves him up to 11th on UM's career list.

MISSOULA, MT - Halfback Chase Reynolds rushed for 185 yards and two touchdowns to lead the Grizzlies.

Fifth-ranked Montana jumped to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter thanks to a pair of turnovers by 10th-ranked Weber State.

The Griz scored first when senior quarterback Cole Bergquist broke loose for a 35-yard touchdown run with 9:41 to go in the first quarter, giving UM a 7-0 lead. The Griz started the drive on their own 45-yard line after senior defensive tackle Craig Mettler recovered a fumble by WSU sophomore quarterback Cameron Higgins.

The Grizzlies took advantage of WSU's second turnover, as Reynolds scored on a one-yard run with 27 seconds left in the opening stanza. WSU was moving the ball, but junior tight end Cody Nakamura fumbled after making a catch, and it was recovered by Griz junior free safety Shann Schillinger and UM took over on its own 24-yard line.

WSU got on the board with 9:24 remaining until halftime, as workhorse halfback Trevyn Smith powered his way into the endzone on a two-yard scoring run. Montana led 14-7 at half.

The Grizzlies extended their lead in the third quarter on a 38-yard field goal by freshman kicker Brody McKnight with 8:30 left in the third quarter, giving UM a 17-7 lead.

However, the Wildcats countered with a three-pointer of their own, as sophomore Jon Williams hit a 32-yard field goal, cutting the Montana lead to 17-10 with 45 ticks left in the quarter. When Williams connected on a 22-yard field goal with 9:17 left in the game, WSU cut the Montana lead to 17-13.

After the second WSU field goal, the Grizzly offense marched 74 yards on 10 plays and used more than five minutes (5:07) off the clock, as Reynolds broke around left end for a 12-yard touchdown run, and Montana led 24-13 with 4:02 to go. In that scoring drive Reynolds had seven carries for 34 yards.

On their next and final possession the Wildcats advanced the ball to the UM 37-yard line, but the Griz defense held, and Reynolds rushed five times for 38 yards and a pair of first downs to ice the game for Montana.

Reynolds had 33 carries for his 185 yards, and 23 totes for 129 yards in the second half. Bergquist rushed 10 times for 68 yards, while senior halfback Andrew Schmidt had seven carries for 61 yards.

On the season, Reynolds has rushed for 1,413 yards and a school-record 19 touchdowns. His 1,413 yards rushing are the second most in a season.

Bergquist was 8-of-19 for 113 yards passing, while Griz wide receivers Tyler Palmer, Marc Mariani, and Mike Ferriter had two catches each. Ferriter now has 144 receptions, which ties him with Mike Erhardt (1993-96) for 12th on the career list.

Bergquist has 2,747 passing yards this year, which are the 13th most in a season. His 7,096 career yards rank him fourth in school history, and his 55 career TD throws ties him with Grady Bennett (1988-90) for the third most.

Montana safety Colt Anderson and junior linebacker Shawn Lebsock each had a team-leading nine tackles, and Anderson also had an interception. Schillinger had seven tackles, a tackle for a loss, and a fumble recovery.

Anderson now has 287 career tackles, tying him for the ninth most in school history.

Smith rushed 19 times for 104 yards and a touchdown. Higgins was 19-of-40 for 270 yards. It was WSU's lowest point total of the season. Senior linebackers J.D. Folsom and Biff Swan led the Wildcats with a game-high 12 tackles apiece.

Junior linebacker Shawn Lebsock had a team-leading (tie) nine tackles in the FCS win over the Wildcats.

James Madison- Marcus Turner 4-25; Kerby Long 1-29; Eugene Holloman 1-16; Patrick Ward 1-15.

HARRISONBURG, VA - Running back Chase Reynolds ran for 123 yards and two touchdowns and also scored on a reception; senior quarterback Cole Bergquist passed for 142 yards and three touchdowns; while Montana's defense created four turnovers to lead the way.

On their first drive, the Dukes ran the ball nine out of 10 plays to the Griz 15-yard line, but Montana's defense held and forced them to kick a 32-yard field goal, giving JMU an early 3-0 lead.

On their first drive, the Grizzlies were faced with a third-and-10 on JMU's 49-yard line, and Bergquist snuck out of the pocket and picked up 13 yards to keep the drive alive. On a third-and-goal at the two, Reynolds powered his way into the end zone, and the Griz took a 7-3 lead with 4:59 left in the opening quarter.

On the following kickoff, UM linebacker Caleb McSurdy forced Dukes' returner Scotty McGee to fumble and fellow freshman Donny Lisowski recovered the ball at James Madison's 15-yard line. It took Montana just two plays to punch it in for their second touchdown, Reynolds scoring on a seven-yard run which put the Griz up 14-3 with 4:02 to go in the first quarter.

JMU running back Eugene Holloman cut the Grizzly lead to 14-10 with 11:54 on a 1-yard run to go in the second quarter, and Montana led by that score at halftime.

The Griz got excellent field position to start the second half when Marc Mariani returned the kickoff to UM's 48-yard line. On a second-and-three from JMU's 27-yard line, Bergquist faked a handoff and threw to a streaking Reynolds who scored on a 27-yard reception, putting the Griz up 21-10 with 11:06 in the third quarter.

On the ensuing kickoff, freshman defensive end Ryan Fetherston stripped Dukes' returner Patrick Ward and recovered the fumble at JMU's 34-yard line. Five plays later Bergquist found junior tight end Steve Pfahler for the 16-yard touchdown catch, and Montana took a 28-10 lead at the 8:14 mark of the third quarter.

James Madison was not going to go away, though. On third-and-5, backup quarterback Drew Dudzik ran a quarterback keeper for a 10-yard touchdown run to make it 28-17 with 5:02 left in the third quarter.

Montana answered the JMU score, as Bergquist had a 32-yard run to the JMU's nine-yard line, and then three plays later he hit Mike Ferriter on a 9-yard touchdown pass and UM took a 35-17 lead with just over a minute to go in the third.

James Madison scored with 6:10 remaining in the game when Dudzik scored from 18 yards out on a quarterback draw. JMU elected to go for the two-point conversion and got it when Dudzik jumped for the end zone, as an instant replay ruled the ball had made it over the goal line, to bring the Dukes within eight points (35-27).

James Madison got the ball back with 2:06 on its own 7-yard line and moved the ball to their own 41, but the Griz held them off and then ran the game clock out to punch their ticket to Chattanooga.

Bergquist was 11-of-17-0 and completed 9-of-10 passes in the second half. He also rushed five times for 42 yards.

Reynolds and Mariani each had 3 catches for 50 yards, while Pfahler had 3 for 29, and Ferriter had 2 for 13 yards. Reynolds and Pfahler had their first career touchdown catches.

Reynolds' three touchdowns gives him a school-record 132 points this season, as he broke the record of former kicker Chris Snyder, who scored 124 points in 2003.

Griz senior strong safety Colt Anderson had a career-high 18 tackles, while junior free safety Shann Schillinger had 12 stops, and junior linebacker Brandon Fisher added 10.

Dudzik - replacing JMU's star quarterback Rodney Landers, who was knocked out with an injury in the first half - ran 12 times for 88 yards and two touchdowns. JMU rushed 58 times for 334 yards and three scores. Holloman added 105 rushing yards and one touchdown.

Special teamer Caleb McSurdy forced Dukes' returner Scotty McGee to fumble, which led to a Grizzly touchdown.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN. – The University of Montana Grizzlies could not overcome a three-touchdown first-half deficit to the University of Richmond Spiders in the Football Championship Subdivision championship game, Richmond winning 24-7 in a game played in front of a national audience on ESPN2 in Finley Stadium/Davenport Field.

For the Spiders, it was their first national championship in any team sport.

Senior Griz quarterback Cole Bergquist was 19-of-36 for 267 yards and one interception. He connected with junior wide receiver Marc Mariani seven times for 172 yards. Sophomore running back Chase Reynolds ran 12 times for 47 yards and scored Montana's only touchdown.

Bergquist was pressured all night by Richmond senior defensive end Lawrence Sidbury, Jr., who had three sacks. Spider senior quarterback Eric Ward completed 12 of his 18 passes for one touchdown and caught a touchdown pass. Senior running back Josh Vaughan rushed 23 times for 162 yards and one touchdown.

Richmond struck first, when on a third-and-4 Ward pitched to fullback John Crone and Crone then passed across the field back to a wide-open Ward for a 23-yard touchdown pass and catch at the nine-minute mark of the first quarter.

After Mariani laid out for a fingertip catch that went for 47 yards, Montana faced a fourth-and-1 from Richmond's 21-yard line. The Grizzlies went for the first down, and got it on a 4-yard run by Reynolds. However, the Griz drive was hampered by a penalty, and UM was forced to try a field goal after Bergquist was sacked by Sidbury, and freshman kicker Brody McKnight's 33-yard attempt was wide right.

With 11:29 remaining in the second quarter, Vaughan bounced to the outside and scored from five yards out to give Richmond a 14-0 lead. When Ward connected with freshman running back Garrett Wilkins for a 13-yard touchdown, the Spiders took a commanding 21-0 lead with 2:13 remaining in the first half.

After missing an offensive possession due to an injury, Bergquist returned to action, and on third-and-10 from their 48-yard line, he connected with Mariani for a 22-yard pass and a first down. Reynolds broke Montana's scoring drought and made it a 21-7 game when he scored from 4 yards out with 11:56 to go in the game.

The final points came on a 39-yard field goal by Richmond kicker Brian Radford, making it 24-7 with 6:54 left to play.

Montana had 306 total yards, compared to Richmond's 327, but the Grizzlies had just 39 net yards rushing (the Spiders had 208), and Bergquist was sacked seven times. The Spiders had one more first down (16 to 15) than the Grizzlies.

Griz junior linebacker Shawn Lebsack had a game-high 13 tackles and a tackle for loss, while senior strong safety Colt Anderson had eight stops and a sack, and senior linebacker Tyler Corwin added seven tackles.

The Griz run onto Davenport Field in Chattanooga, Tenn., at the start of the FCS championship game vs. Richmond.

QUICK FACTS

DID YOU KNOW THE MONTANA GRIZZLIES...

- Have had 23 winning seasons in a row, dating back to 1986 and have 225 wins during that time, for an average of 9.8 victories per year.
- Since 1993, have won or shared 14 (of the last 16) league championships, have an overall record of 178-40 (.817), and are 103-16 in conference games since then.
- Were the first team to earn 100 victories during this decade (the Grizzlies won their 100th game of the millennium on Nov. 8, 2009, a 29-12 victory at Portland State), and are 59-8 in league contests since 2000.
- In the first nine years of the millennium have a record of 105-19 overall for a winning percentage of .847.
- Head coach Bobby Hauck reached the 60-win plateau faster than any coach in Big Sky history, winning his 60th game in his 74th contest at UM.
- Current coaching staff has now won six Big Sky titles, three more than any other staff in school history.
- Have 66 wins over the past six seasons, which are the most by any FCS (Appalachian State is second with 63 victories) school.
- Begin the 2009 season with 105 victories, three more than Oklahoma at the FBS level and 15 more than Appalachian State, which is second in the FCS.
- Set Big Sky regular-season home attendance records in 2008, drawing 174,236 fans in seven games, averaging 24,891 per contest.

- Also set the league standard for the largest crowd at a regular-season game with 25,326 against Central Washington.
- Have gone 23-1 in the Big Sky over the past three seasons, the most in a three-year span by any team in league history.
- Have won 10 or more games 11 times in the past 16 seasons.
- Have been ranked in the Sports Network's top 25 for 150 weeks in a row since 1993.
- Added to their on-going record with their 16th straight FCS playoff appearance in 2008.
- Have 27 playoff victories - the second most in FCS history.
- Have played in the FCS's championship game six out of the past 14 seasons.
- Have participated in 19 of 31 (61.2%) FCS tournaments - the most berths in playoff history.
- Have won 11 straight Big Sky Conference titles, a Big Sky record.
- Won 27 straight regular-season games from 2006-08, a Big Sky record.

BIG SKY CONFERENCE

SENIOR WIDE RECEIVER/RETURNER

BIG SKY CONFERENCE

The Big Sky Conference enters its 47th year of athletic competition in 2009-10. The Big Sky is an NCAA Division I member in all sports, with member institutions classified in the Football Championship Subdivision (formally I-AA). The Big Sky returned to a nine-team format in 2006 with the addition of Northern Colorado.

The current lineup includes Eastern Washington, Idaho State, Montana, Montana State, Northern Arizona, Northern Colorado, Portland State, Sacramento State and Weber State. The league has become one of the strongest Division I conferences in the West and is a national leader in the Football Championship Subdivision.

The Big Sky Conference was established in 1963 by six charter members - Idaho, Idaho State, Gonzaga, Montana, Montana State and Weber State. Those six schools formed the foundation of the Big Sky before the league expanded in 1970 by adding Boise State and Northern Arizona. Gonzaga left the Sky in 1979 and was replaced by Nevada, which gave the league eight members. The conference grew to nine schools in 1987 with the addition of Eastern Washington.

The 1990s saw change in the makeup of the league, beginning in 1992 when Nevada departed and put the Big Sky back at eight teams. In 1996 Boise State and Idaho left and at the same time the conference added Portland State, Sacramento State and Cal State Northridge. The Big Sky maintained nine teams for five years before Cal State Northridge departed in the spring of 2001.

With the addition of Northern Colorado, the Big Sky spreads across eight states spanning from the Pacific Ocean to the Rocky Mountain Front. The Big Sky is represented along the entire west coast with schools in Washington, Oregon and California. League schools also range up and down the Rocky Mountains with institutions in Montana, Idaho, Utah, Arizona and now Colorado.

Of the eight western-most states in the contiguous United States only one, Nevada, is not represented in the Big Sky.

On Feb 25, 1963, the name Big Sky was adopted by the six presidents of the charter members as the name of the new conference. The name Big Sky originated in a novel written by the late A.B. (Bud) Guthrie of Great Falls, Mont., in 1947 entitled "The Big Sky." Jack Hollowell, a former Montana advertising director, promoted the Big Sky theme for the Treasure State. While on a track and field trip from Pocatello, Idaho, to Missoula, Mont., the legendary Dubby Holt of Idaho State saw a "Welcome to Big Sky Country" sign as his team entered Montana. Holt, and his athletes thought "Big Sky" would be a perfect name for the new conference. Harry Missildine of the Spokane Spokesman-Review called for the newly formed league to be named the Big Sky Conference in his column dated Feb. 20, 1963.

The Big Sky sponsors championships in 14 sports, including men's and women's cross country, indoor and outdoor track and field, basketball and tennis. In addition, there are also championships in football, and women's volleyball, golf and soccer.

The 2009-10 season will mark the 22nd year that the Big Sky Conference will sponsor championships in women's sports. The former Mountain West Conference existed from 1982-88, sponsoring championships for women's sports at the same institutions the Big Sky had men's programs. The Big Sky merged with the Mountain West in 1988, forming one league for both men and women.

Doug Fullerton, the fifth commissioner of the Big Sky Conference, will enter his 15th year at the helm. Fullerton took over the Big Sky on July 1, 1995, replacing longtime commissioner Ron Stephenson. Stephenson served the league for 14 years. Steve Belko was the commissioner from 1977-81 while John Roning held the post from 1971-77. The first league commissioner was Jack Friel, who served from 1963-71.

POST-SEASON PLAY

Under the lights in Chattanooga - 2008 FCS Championship game vs. Richmond

2008: Montana Plays For Sixth National Title

Despite losing 14 starters from a team that had gone undefeated (11-0) in the regular season the previous year, Montana had one of its best seasons in school history, advancing to the Football Championship Subdivision championship game, as the fifth-ranked Grizzlies lost 24-7 to No. 7 Richmond in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Although they were in an unfamiliar rebuilding mode going into the season, the Grizzlies advanced to the FCS title game for the sixth time in school history.

In 2008, Montana participated in the FCS playoffs a record 16 years in a row and made its 19th appearance, also a division record.

In its first-round game UM defeated visiting and 23rd-ranked Texas State 31-13. In the quarterfinals Montana stayed at home and avenged its early-season loss at Weber State, defeating the 10th-ranked Wildcats 24-13.

In the FCS semi-final game Montana had its biggest ever playoff road win, beating top-ranked James Madison 35-27.

Montana had some outstanding players on its FCS title-contending team.

On offense, quarterback Cole Bergquist was ranked eighth in the country in passing efficiency, as he passed for 3,156 yards and 28 touchdowns. He also rushed for eight scores and was the second most successful quarterback in school history, compiling a record of 31-6 as a starter. Wide-out Mike Ferriter finished his career ranked ninth in school history with 2,089 receiving yards. Linemen Colin Dow, J.D. Quinn, and Brent Russum all earned all-league and All-American recognition. Sophomore running back Chase Reynolds rushed for a school-record 22 touchdowns, while his 1,583 yards were the second most ever in a season at UM.

The defense was led by strong safety Colt Anderson, a Buck Buchanan Award finalist, who was Montana's leading tackler with 129 stops, while fellow senior Kevin Corwin was third on the team from his linebacker position with 104 tackles. End Mike Stadnyk, a second round draft pick by Saskatchewan following the 2007 season, had eight-plus sacks.

Head coach Bobby Hauck is now six-of-six in advancing his Grizzly teams to the FCS playoffs during his tenure, and UM has also won its sixth Big Sky title in a row. Hauck reached the 60-win plateau faster than any coach in Big Sky history, winning his 60th game in his 74th contest, a 29-12 victory at Portland State.

The Grizzlies won their 11th consecutive Big Sky Conference championship, meaning a UM team has now won league titles 14 of the past 16 seasons (starting in 1993). Montana is 23-1 in Big Sky games the past three seasons.

Montana's FCS playoff run now stretches from 1993 to 2008. The Grizzlies won national titles in 2001 and 1995, and was the runner-up in 2008, 2004, 2000, and 1996.

The Grizzlies' "rebuilding" team of 2008 was ranked second in the nation in the Sports Network's final poll and have been ranked in that organization's top 25 for 150 consecutive weeks.

In the current millennium, Montana has won 105 games – the most victories by any FCS or Football Bowl Subdivision team in the nation. Those 105 victories over the last nine seasons translate to 11.7 wins per year.

2007: Grizzlies Make 15th FCS Playoff Appearance In a Row

The Grizzlies had a perfect 11-0 record in the regular-season, and made their 18th overall playoff appearance and their 15th in a row. That 18 FCS playoff moved Montana past Eastern Kentucky for the most (17) in division history. Montana suffered a rare home loss in the playoffs, 23-22, in a first-round set-back to Wofford.

Several players from the 2007 squad left their names in the UM record books. Senior defensive end Kroy Biermann became Montana's first ever Buck Buchanan Award winner (the FCS Defensive Player of the Year). Senior halfback Lex Hilliard set school career records with 50 rushing touchdowns. Kicker Dan Carpenter set FCS career records with 75 field goals and 413 points by a kicker. Senior linebackers Tyler Joyce and Kyle Ryan finished second and sixth in UM history with 352 and 304 career tackles, respectively.

POST-SEASON PLAY

2006: Griz Advance to Semis for Eighth Time

In 2006 the Grizzlies narrowly missed playing for their sixth national title in 12 years. After losing at 16th-ranked Iowa, Montana won 11 straight games, finished 12-2 overall and 8-0 in the Big Sky.

Hilliard, a 2006 Walter Payton Award candidate, was lost for the season to an injury in fall camp.

The Griz were led by senior quarterback Josh Swogger, who passed for 17 touchdowns, while wide receivers Eric Allen, Ryan Bagley, and Craig Chambers, combined for 147 catches and 17 scores. Halfbacks Reggie Bradshaw, Brady Green, and Thomas Brooks-Fletcher combined for 19 rushing touchdowns.

A young defense was ranked ninth in the FCS in total defense, allowing 226.4 yards a game.

Host Montana defeated 22nd-ranked McNeese State 31-6 in an FCS first-round game, knocked off No.10 Southern Illinois 20-3 in the quarterfinals, but lost (19-17) to third-ranked UMass in the semi-finals in a game televised nationally on ESPN2.

Hauck became the first Griz mentor in history to win four Big Sky titles.

2005: Griz Lose in First Round

Montana was 8-4 overall and received an at-large bid into the playoffs. The Griz were led by Hilliard who rushed for 1,322 yards – the second highest total (at the time) in single-season history. The defense was ranked sixth in the country in turnover margin at +1.08.

The ninth-ranked Griz hosted a first-round playoff game, losing 35-21 to 10th-ranked Cal Poly. Montana had defeated Cal Poly 36-27 at home earlier in the season.

2004: Fifth Trip to the FCS Title Game

Montana was 12-3 and advanced to the FCS championship game for the fifth time in the last 10 years.

Quarterback Craig Ochs passed for 3,807 yards and 33 touchdowns and set a league record by completing 68.7% of his passes. The Griz defense was ranked third in the country in turnover margin (+1.47) with 38 take-aways.

Hilliard tied the school record for touchdown runs with 17, while senior wide receiver Jefferson Heidelberger had the second most receiving yards in single-season history with 1,240.

In the playoffs the host Griz beat Northwestern State (56-7), New Hampshire (47-17), and Sam Houston State (34-13), losing 31-21 to James Madison in the FCS title game in Chattanooga.

2003: Griz Break Playoff Record Streak

Montana broke the FCS record by making its 11th consecutive playoff appearance, eclipsing the mark of 10 that it shared with Eastern Kentucky, which played in 10 straight from 1986-1995.

Montana received an at-large bid into the playoffs, losing a 43-40 double overtime thriller to visiting Western Illinois in the first round.

Senior kicker Chris Snyder set four NCAA career records in the FCS with 394 points and 182 PATs, and a single-season mark scoring 123 points. He also set a record by connecting on 126 consecutive PATs. Defensive end Tim Bush finished his career as Montana's all-time career leader in sacks (32.5) and tackles for loss (50).

2002: Griz Tie FCS Mark for Consecutive Wins

The Griz started the season with 10 wins in a row, and, combined with 14 straight wins the year before, they tied the FCS mark for consecutive wins with 24. The streak began on September 22 of 2001, with a 30-0 home win over Western Washington, and was stopped on Nov. 16 of 2002, with a 30-21 setback at Eastern Washington in Spokane.

Montana tied Pennsylvania, which had 24 wins in a row from 1992-95, for the record. UM also set the record for most consecutive Big Sky wins (25) and most league road wins in a row (13).

Senior quarterback John Edwards was named the Big Sky's co-MVP on offense and senior safety Trey Young was the league's defensive player of the year.

Montana defeated Northwestern State 45-14 at home in a first-round playoff game, but lost 24-20 at McNeese State in a quarterfinal contest.

2001: Griz Win Second National Title

Montana won its second FCS national championship in history, defeating Furman University 13-6. Edwards engineered a 16-play, 99-yard scoring drive for UM's only touchdown in the title game. Halfback Yohance Humphery, Montana's all-time rusher, was a work-horse in the game, gaining 142 yards on 30 carries, and scored UM only touchdown on a 2-yard run.

The Griz defense limited the Paladins to 121 yards rushing forced three turnovers. Furman's only score came on a Hail Mary pass as time expired. Humphery wrapped up his illustrious career with a record 4,070 career rushing yards.

The Grizzlies' 15 victories are the school record for the most wins in a season.

2000: Third Trip to the Title Game

The Griz earned a trip to the championship game for the third time in six seasons, losing a heart-breaker, 27-25 to Georgia Southern in Chattanooga.

Starting Griz quarterback Drew Miller was injured late in the first quarter, and Edwards,

The Grizzlies' lead was short-lived as Eagle halfback and 2000 Walter Payton Award winner Adrian Peterson broke loose for a 57-yard touchdown run for the game-winning touchdown.

1999-97: A Difficult Stretch, As the Griz Lose Three Straight First-Round Games

The Griz dropped three first-round playoff games during this time, but in 1999 set the Big Sky record with a seventh consecutive FCS playoff appearance. The old standard of six straight was set by former Big Sky member Idaho from 1985-90.

In 1999, visiting Youngstown State, coached by current Ohio State mentor Jim Tressell, kicked a late field goal for a 30-27 win. In 1998 Montana suffered its worst playoff setback ever, losing 52-9 at Western Illinois. UM's three-game playoff losing streak started in 1997 with a 19-14 setback at McNeese State.

1996: Moss Is Too Much and Griz Are Runners-Up

Montana reeled off 14 straight wins to advance to the title game. For the second year in a row they played at Marshall, as NFL star wide receiver Randy Moss grabbed four touchdowns to lead the Thundering Herd to a 49-29 win. It was the first time ever two undefeated (14-0) teams played for the I-AA crown.

In the title game Grizzly quarterback Brian Ah Yat set (then) playoff records for pass completions with 36 and total plays (67). Wide receiver Joe Douglass set a playoff record with 13 receptions, and he also set Montana single-season standards with 82 catches for 1,469 receiving yards and 18 touchdowns.

POST-SEASON PLAY – BOWL GAMES

1995: Griz Win First National Championship

The Grizzlies won their first national championship with a last-second, 22-20 come-from-behind victory over host Marshall in front of an FCS playoff-record crowd of 32,106 in Huntington, West Virginia.

Walter Payton Award-winning quarterback Dave Dickenson passed for 1,219 yards and 11 touchdowns in Montana's first three playoff games, and the Grizzlies out-scored their opponents 163-14. In its first three playoff victories the host Grizzlies beat (in order): Eastern Kentucky (48-0), Georgia Southern (45-0), and Stephen F. Austin (70-14).

In the title game, Dickenson orchestrated a 12-play, 72-yard scoring drive, culminating with a 25-yard field goal by Andy Larson with 39 seconds left for the game-winner. The key play in that winning drive came on a fourth-and-three from the 50-yard line, when Dickenson hit wide receiver Mike Erhardt on a short slant pass for a 20-yard gain and a crucial first down. Senior receiver Matt Wells scored both of Montana's touchdowns. En route to the title Montana set FCS playoff records for first downs (125), pass completions (137), pass attempts (197), and passing yards (1,703).

1993-1994: A Program on the Rise

The host Griz squeaked by Northern Iowa 23-20 in a 1994 first-round contest, and then edged visiting McNeese State 30-28 in a snow storm on a game-ending field goal by Larson. Unfortunately, Dickenson was re-injured early in the win over McNeese, and he was not able to play in the semifinal – a 28-9 loss to host and eventual national champion Youngstown State.

In 1993, Montana rolled to a 10-1 regular-season record, with its only blemish a 35-30 loss at Oregon. After that loss to the Ducks, the Griz reeled off nine straight wins and won their first league title since 1982. The season ended in a 49-48 first-round shoot-out loss to visiting Delaware. The Grizzlies won 93 games in the 1990's—second only to Youngstown State (103).

1989: Griz Host Their First Playoff Game

Montana hosted and won its first playoff game in school history, beating Jackson State 48-7 in the first round. UM defeated visiting Eastern Illinois 25-15 in the quarterfinals, and then lost 45-15 to eventual national champion Georgia Southern in Statesboro in the semis.

1988 and 1982: In the Playoffs

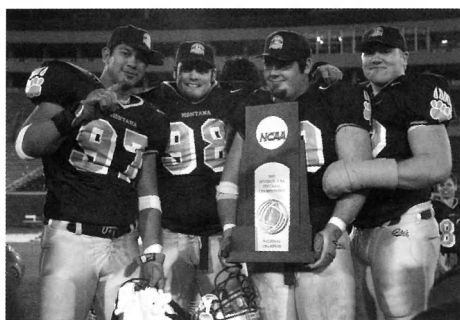

After a six-year hiatus, in 1988, the Griz earned their first at-large bid into the playoffs, losing (38-19) at Idaho. Montana's initial trip to the playoffs came in 1982 when it won its first Big Sky title since 1970. Despite winning the league championship in '82, the Grizzlies had to travel to Moscow, Idaho, losing 21-7 to the Vandals.

FCS Playoff Format

The FCS playoff field goes up to 20 teams in 2010. In the inaugural season (1978) of Division I-AA there were four teams in the playoffs. The tournament was expanded to eight teams in 1981, and then in 1986, it went to a 16-team format.

1969-1970: Montana Plays for NCAA College Division Titles

Montana played for the College Division national championship in 1969 and 1970. The Griz went undefeated and untied for the first time in school history at 10-0 and won their first-ever Big Sky title in 1969. Both years Montana advanced to the Camellia Bowl in Sacramento, Calif., but, missing many starters because NCAA's rules on junior college transfers, the under-manned Griz lost 30-3 to top-ranked North Dakota State in 1969 and 31-16 to the same team a year later.

UM Athletic Facilities

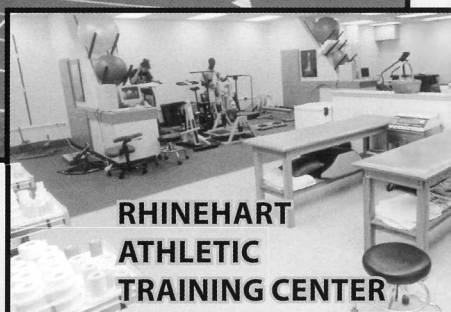

DORNBLASER STADIUM

WASHINGTON-GRIZZLY STADIUM AT JOHN HOYT FIELD

Washington-Grizzly football stadium accommodates 25,217 fans.

The Rhinehart Athletic Training Center (RATC) boasts 7,200 square feet of space and includes an enlarged rehabilitation area. The primary goal of the athletic training staff is to provide quality care for student-athletes while helping them safely return to competition. The RATC provides numerous ways to treat injuries: electrical stimulation units, whirlpools, free weights and balance boards.

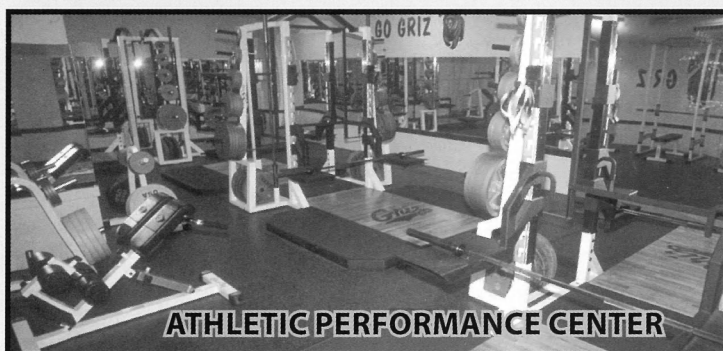

RHINEHART ATHLETIC TRAINING CENTER

DAHLBERG ARENA

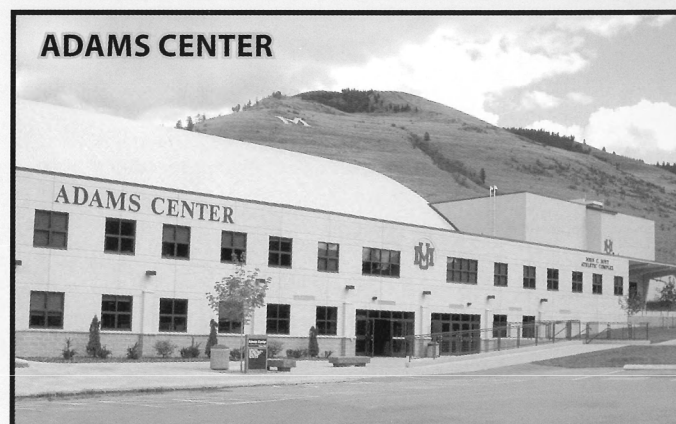

Dahlberg Arena has a capacity of 7,321.

ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE CENTER

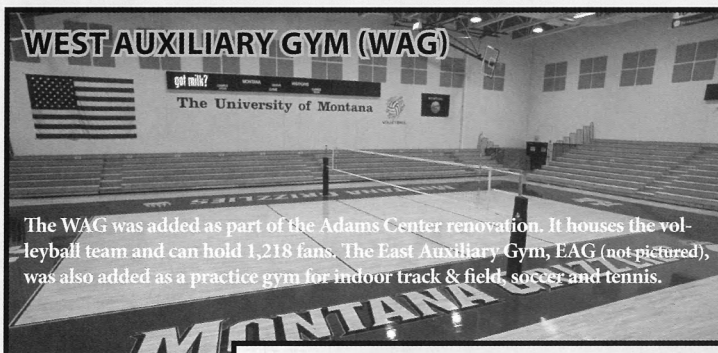

As part of the renovation to the Adams Center, a 7,000-square foot Athletic Performance Center was created. The new center, which is home to the Griz student-athletes, is geared to enhance the overall athletic performance of the teams.

The Athletic Performance Center is as sport specific as possible, and the program is scientifically based and intended to increase one's athleticism, as well as decrease an athlete's susceptibility to injury.

ADAMS CENTER

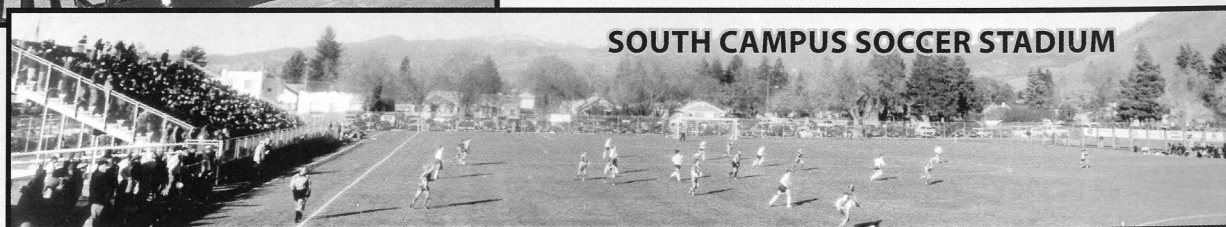

The renovated Adams Center, hub of The University of Montana Intercollegiate Athletic Department, features two auxiliary gyms, remodeled Dahlberg Arena, new weight center, athletic treatment center, locker rooms, academic center and the John Hoyt Athletic Complex, which houses the athletic staff.

WEST AUXILIARY GYM (WAG)

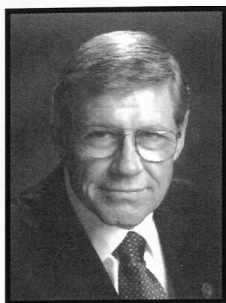

The WAG was added as part of the Adams Center renovation. It houses the volleyball team and can hold 1,218 fans. The East Auxiliary Gym, EAG (not pictured), was also added as a practice gym for indoor track & field, soccer and tennis.

The South Campus Soccer Stadium features a fully-fenced venue, scoreboard, locker rooms and seating for 1,000 fans.

President George M. Dennison

George Dennison became the 16th president of The University of Montana in August 1990. Dennison came to UM from Western Michigan University where he served as the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs. He spent time at the Universities of Arkansas and Washington prior to 18 years at Colorado State University where he started as a history professor and then served as Associate Dean of the College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences; Associate Dean of the Graduate School for International Development Studies; Acting Academic Vice President; Associate Academic Vice President; and Director of Admissions and Records.

An historian by training, Dennison received his bachelor's degree with highest honors in history from The University of Montana in 1962. He received his master's degree from The University of Montana in 1963, then earned his Ph.D. in history from the University of Washington in 1967.

Dennison actively serves on the board of the International Student Exchange Program and National Security Education Board as well as the Montana Commission on Community Service, and the Boards of the International Heart Institute of Montana, the Montana Campus Compact, the Maureen and Mike Mansfield Foundation, the Neuro Science Institute Foundation, and World Innovation Foundation.

George and his wife, Jane, have two children, Rick and Rob, and six grandchildren.

Jim O'Day, Director of Athletics

Jim O'Day is beginning his fifth year as Director of Athletics at The University of Montana. A 1980 graduate of the UM School of Journalism, O'Day returned to the University in 1998 after an 18-year career in the newspaper business, first as sports editor of the Kalispell (Mont.) Daily Interlake, then in his hometown of Cut Bank, Mont., as owner/publisher of the twice-weekly Western Breeze newspaper.

O'Day served as assistant director of the Grizzly Athletic Association (now the Grizzly Scholarship Association) for three years before becoming Director of Development for UM Athletics in 2001. On June 30, 2005, he was named by UM President George Dennison as the Director of Athletics at his alma mater.

O'Day currently serves on the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee and the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision Playoff Selection Committee. In addition, he sits on the board of directors for the Master's of Education in Intercollegiate Athletics Leadership program with the University of Washington and is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA). In 2007, he was honored by the All-American Football Foundation by receiving the Gen. Robert R. Neyland Outstanding Athletics Director Award.

Prior to returning to UM, O'Day was a charter member of the Cut Bank Education Foundation and Alumni Association and was Cut Bank's Citizen of the Year in 1992. He organized the Golden Triangle Chapter of the GAA in 1992 and served as president until his appointment at UM in 1998. He was also actively involved in many other community service organizations. In 1991, he was the recipient of The University of Montana Service Award.

Jim and his wife Kathy have three sons: Chris (24), Kevin (23) and Brian (18). Chris and Kevin are graduates of The University of Montana, while Brian will be a freshman at UM this fall.

Several of Jim's many accomplishments during his four years in the athletic department include UM Athletics winning the school's first Sterling Savings Bank Presidents Cup in 2007 (Montana was second in 2009.); paying off a $1 million deficit two years early; instrumental in constructing a 2,000-seat east-side expansion to Washington-Grizzly Stadium that was ready in time for the 2008 football season; and capturing conference titles in women's golf (coached by Joanne Steele) in 2006 and in women's basketball (coached by Robin Selvig) in 2007, 2008 and 2009, among other accomplishments.
