EWU HANDS MONTANA FIRST LOSS SINCE DECEMBER

CHENEY, Wash. – Montana's historic stretch came to an end on Thursday night, falling at Eastern Washington, 74-65. The loss snapped Montana's 13-game win streak, which was one game shy of a school record. It also ended Montana's school-record seven-game road winning streak.

Montana last lost 55 days ago, a three-point defeat at Washington.

"We had a really good shootaround today, and I thought we'd have some energy going into this game," head coach Travis DeCuire said. "I just don't think we played hard enough."

The two teams were in a back-and-forth contest, trading leads early on. Eastern Washington broke a 25-25 tie with 5:42 to play in the first half, however, and led for the remainder of the contest.

Montana trailed by just 3 at halftime, 35-32, but opened the second half with four uncharacteristic turnovers on its first five possessions; the Grizzlies turned the ball over just three times in the entire first half.

Still, though, Montana was well within striking distance. The Grizzlies again got to within a single possession when Sayeed Pridgett secured a loose ball in EWU territory and drove it the length of the court, nearly completing a highlight-reel dunk. Instead, he was fouled, and hit both free throws to cut the score to 60-57 with 4:27 to play.

The Eagles, though, would score 11 of the next 15 points to take a double-digit lead – Montana's largest deficit of conference play.

"I felt like we've been playing with fire for three or four weeks now, and now that we've been burned, I think we have the chance to wake up and play with that effort we did in December," DeCuire said.

Montana allowed EWU to shoot 56.3 percent from the floor – a season high for a UM opponent – and knock down seven three-pointers (43.8 percent). The Grizzlies were 6-of-22 from long range, missing their first nine attempts of the second half.

Pridgett had one of his best games of the season, scoring 15 points on 5-of-8 shooting. At one point in the second half, the sophomore scored nine consecutive Griz points. Following those nine points, Pridgett followed with a steal and an assist on an Ahmaad Rorie dunk to make it a 52-50 game with 8 minutes to play.

Senior Fabijan Krslovic was perfect from the floor, shooting 4-of-4 to collect a dozen points and two steals. Rorie scored 18 points, including four three-pointers, and added four assists.

Montana struggled for the majority of the game to get the ball inside. Junior Jamar Akoh was held to seven points, and with 14 minutes to play, Montana had taken more three-point attempts (17) than two-pointers (15). The Grizzlies also had just seven offensive rebounds, nearly half of their season average.

"Offensive rebounds come from energy and effort, and I thought our energy has been down," DeCuire said. "They squeezed on the bigs and bated guys into quick, early 3s. We were reluctant to move the ball."

EWU's all-conference performer Bogdan Bliznyuk scored 19 points but was held relatively in check. After starting the game 7-of-8 shooting, he made just one of his final five shots over the last 25 minutes of the game.

With just one loss in conference play, Montana still owns a 1.5-game lead over second-place Weber State with four games to play. The Grizzlies have a steep challenge up ahead, facing Idaho on Saturday night. The Vandals are 10-3 and were the preseason favorites to win the league.

"You've got to move on," DeCuire said. "We move on from wins and we have to move on from losses the same way. We told them what they need to hear in the locker room, and now it's up to them to make those adjustments."

MOVE ON AND MOVE FORWARD: GRIZ TAKE ON VANDALS, LOOKING TO BEGIN NEW WIN STREAK

The streaks are over. Now the team can just go play basketball.

Montana's winning streak was snapped on Thursday, and before moving on, it's a streak that should be celebrated.

- The squad was the second in Montana history and the fourth in the history of the Big Sky to begin conference play 13-0. Prior to losing, Montana was one of four teams in the entire country still unbeaten in conference play.
- The 13-game winning streak overall was the third-longest in Griz history, coming one game short of matching the all-time record. Montana owned the third-longest active win streak in the country on Thursday evening, trailing only Rhode Island and Vermont.
- The seven-game road winning streak was a school record, surpassing the previous best of six consecutive road wins. The road winning streak was the fourth-longest active streak in the country.

Now that's they've been given their due respect – at least until after the season ends – it's time to move on. Because while a couple streaks came to a close on Thursday, Montana's main objective is still very much in front of the team.

"You've got to move on," head coach Travis DeCuire said. "We move on from wins and we have to move on from losses the same way. We told them what they need to hear in the locker room, and now it's up to them to make those adjustments."

The Grizzlies own a 1.5-game lead in the conference standings, with four games to play, and are squarely focused on starting a new win streak and earning the No. 1 seed in next month's conference tournament. The path won't be easy, as it includes a date with rival Montana State, second-place Weber State and third-place Idaho on Saturday night.

Montana is looking to bounce back. Yes, from Thursday night's setback, but also because Idaho was the team that ended the Grizzlies' season a year ago. Montana had beat the Vandals earlier in the season on the road, but when matched up in the conference tournament quarterfinals, a hot Idaho team got the best of Montana.

It won't be easy, as Idaho owns an 18-7 record, including five straight wins overall and an 8-2 mark at home.

Idaho ranks second in Big Sky Conference play for shooting – both overall and from three-point range – and has the third-best scoring and field-goal defense. The Vandals also lead the Big Sky for rebounding margin, assists and assist-to-turnover ratio.

Overall on the season, the Vandals rank in the top 50 nationally for three-point shooting (.410; 12th), rebounding margin (+6.7; 18th), field-goal defense (.410; 42nd) and three-point defense (.320; 47th). The team is allowing just 67.6 points per game.

The Vandals returned all five starters from last year's 19-win team, and with six seniors, have the second-most experienced lineup in the country. Victor Sanders ranks in the top five during conference play for both scoring (18.6; sixth) and assists (4.2; third), while Brayon Blake is the conference's top rebounder (9.3). Blake also ranks seventh in the Big Sky with 17.6 points per game.

"I felt like we had playing with fire for three or four weeks now, and now that we've been burned, I think we have the chance to wake up and play with that effort we did in December," DeCuire said.

SERIES HISTORY VS. THE VANDALS

Montana is 86-110 all-time against Idaho, including 3-4 since the Vandals rejoined the Big Sky Conference in 2014. The Grizzlies have only played Montana State more times than Idaho, and have more victories over the Vandals than any opponent aside from Montana State and Idaho State. Montana and Idaho first played in 1915-16.

Ahmaad Rorie averaged 15.3 points over three games vs. the Vandals last year, while Michael Oguine has scored in double figures in his last four meetings vs. Idaho. In the 2016 Big Sky semifinals, Bobby Moorehead scored 13 points on 5-of-5 shooting. All three were in double figures last January when Montana beat Idaho on the road, 70-57. The two teams did not play in Moscow two years ago, and three years ago, the Grizzlies fell in double overtime. In the 2017 Big Sky quarterfinals, Idaho shot 54 percent and out-rebounded Montana by eight to earn a four-point win.

26 GAMES IN

At 20-6 through 26 games, Montana is off to one of its better starts in school history. The Grizzlies have begun a season 20-6 or better five times prior to this season, most recently in 2005-06 (20-6 through 26 games).

20 AND COUNTING

Montana reached the 20-win plateau for the third time in head coach Travis DeCuire's four-year tenure with the Grizzlies. Montana will finish with a .500 or better record for the 10th consecutive season.

WINNING WAYS

Montana won 13 consecutive games between Dec. 28 and Feb. 10, tied for the third-longest win streak in school history. It was the third-longest active streak in the NCAA at the time.

STARTING STRONG

Montana began Big Sky Conference play 13-0, marking the second time in the Grizzlies' 55-year history in the league. The Grizzlies also did it in 2012-13, winning their first 14 games.

It was the fourth-best start in Big Sky history, trailing only Weber State (15-0 start in 1969), Weber State (14-0 start in 2003) and Montana (14-0 start in 2013). At the time of Montana's loss, only three other schools nationally were undefeated in their conference.

ROAD STREAK

Prior to Thursday's loss at Eastern Washington, Montana had won a program-record seven consecutive true road contests. It was the fourth-longest streak in the country at the time.

NATIONAL RANKING

Montana cracked the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Top 25 poll for the first time this season on Jan. 15, and has steadily moved up each week since. The Grizzlies are No. 12 in this week's Mid-Major Top 25 and No. 16 in the

The Mid-Major Top 25 ranks the top teams from the America East, Atlantic Sun, Big Sky, Big South, Big West, Colonial, Horizon, Ivy, Metro Atlantic, Mid-American, Mid-Eastern, Missouri Valley, Northeast, Ohio Valley, Patriot, Southern, Southland, Southwestern, Summit, Sun Belt, West Coast and Western Athletic conferences, in addition to independents. The poll, now in its 19th season, is voted on by 31 head coaches.

TERRIFIC TRIO

Montana is the only school in Big Sky play to have three players rank in the top 10 for scoring, with juniors Ahmaad Rorie (16.6; eighth), Jamar Akoh (16.1; tied for ninth) and Michael Oguine (16.1; tied for ninth) accomplishing the feat.

Rorie has been in double figures 23 times this season – including 20-plus on 11 occasions. Oguine has been in double figures in all but four contests, while Akoh has accomplished the feat in 16 of his past 19 contests, including seven double-doubles.

SIMPLE ROUTINE

Montana is one of seven NCAA Division I schools to use the same starting lineup in every game this season, using guards Michael Oguine and Ahmaad Rorie, and forwards Jamar Akoh, Fabijan Krslovic and Bobby Moorehead.

The other schools to use the same starting lineup every game are: Central Michigan, Davidson, Old Dominion, Penn, Purdue and Virginia.

LEADING THE BIG SKY

With four games remaining, Montana holds a 1.5-game lead in the Big Sky standings. The Grizzlies, though, also are atop the conference for many offensive and defensive statistical categories. The Grizzlies rank first for:

- Scoring defense (67.4)
- Scoring margin (+13.3)
- Field-goal percentage defense (.396)
- Rebounding (37.2)
- Steals (8.4)
- Turnover margin (+3.6)

The Grizzlies also rank second for rebounding margin (+3.6), third for scoring offense (80.7), assists (13.4) and three-point field-goal defense (.327), and fourth for field-goal percentage (.486), three-point shooting (.386), and assist-to-turnover ratio (1.1).

FORCING TURNOVERS

Montana has forced at least 11 turnovers in every game this season and ranks among the nation's best, forcing 16.2 turnovers per game (17th in NCAA). The Grizzlies have turned the ball over more times than their opponent just six times in 26 games and hold a +3.4 turnover margin (21st in NCAA).

On four occasions, Montana has forced 20 or more turnovers in a game, and in a win at Pitt (Nov. 13), the Grizzlies forced the Panthers into 19 turnovers, converting them into 30 points – an average of 1.58 points per turnover.

STOUT DEFENSE

Montana ranks in the top tier nationally for the majority of defensive statistical categories:

- 16.2 turnovers forced per game: 17th in NCAA (2nd in BSC)
- +3.4 turnover margin: 21st (2nd)
- 8.0 steals per game: 20th (2nd)
- +4.0 rebounding margin: 59th (2nd)
- 68.3 points allowed per game: 74th (2nd)
- .423 field-goal percentage defense: 86th (3rd)

CRASHING THE GLASS

Montana has out-rebounded its opponents 19 times this season and holds a +4.0 rebounding margin (second in Big Sky, 59th nationally).

One-third of Montana's rebounds have come from the offensive end (32.9 percent); that number was 28.6 percent a year ago. The Grizzlies are currently averaging 12.1 offensive rebounds per game this season (47th in NCAA).

FABULOUS PLAY

Lone senior Fabijan Krslovic has stepped up his game of late, averaging 12.0 points and 5.2 rebounds over the past four games, shooting 71.9 percent. After doing it once in the first 21 games, Krslovic has been in double figures three times during that span, in addition to a nine-point performance.

In addition to scoring, Krslovic played a career-high 42 minutes vs. Sacramento State and has 10 assists and eight steals during the five-game span.

MONTANA BASKETBALL

PRIDGETT PERFORMING

Sophomore Sayeed Pridgett is Montana's first player off the bench, and he's quietly and consistently putting up strong performances for the Griz. In addition to 8.0 points per game, Pridgett ranks in the top five on the team for rebounding, assists, blocks and steals.

Pridgett has 19 steals during Big Sky play (fifth) and over the past six games overall is averaging 10.3 points on 53 percent shooting.

THE 1,000-POINT CLUB

Guard Michael Oguine became the 32nd member of Montana's 1,000-point club on Jan. 27, scoring 23 points against Northern Arizona. The junior now is tied for 23rd place and is one of 14 players in UM history to reach the milestone in his third season. At his current pace, Oguine could finish his junior season with more than 1,200 points, which would rank in the top 16.

Teammate Ahmaad Rorie is expected to reach the milestone on Saturday, needing five points. He would become the third player in Griz history to accomplish the feat in two seasons, joining Anthony Johnson (2009-10) and Martin Breung (2015-16).

TRENDING

- Montana is undefeated at home this season (11-0).
- The Grizzlies are a perfect 18-0 when leading or tied at halftime, compared to 2-6 when trailing.
- UM is 13-2 in games decided by double digits.
- The Grizzlies are 10-0 when scoring 80 or more points, and 18-1 when scoring at least 70 points.
- Montana is 14-1 when opponents score fewer than 70 points, with the exception coming in a three-point loss at Washington.
- Montana is 14-0 when shooting above .450.
- Montana is 7-0 when opponents shoot .400 or worse.
- The Grizzlies are 9-0 when holding a better three-point percentage and 12-2 when shooting more free throws.
- Ironically, the Grizzlies are 6-0 when opponents make eight or more three-pointers.
- Montana is 15-2 when turning the ball over less than its opponent.

BE LIKE MIKE

Junior guard Michael Oguine, a third-team All-Big Sky selection in 2016-17, scored in double figures in the first 11 games of the season, including 29 in a win at Pitt (Nov. 13), followed by 39 at Portland State (Jan. 13).

Oguine does it all for the Griz, leading the team with 38 steals and ranking second for scoring (15.3 points per game), assists (48) and blocked shots (14), and third for rebounding (5.0 per game). During league play, his 22 steals rank second in the Big Sky while his .450 three-point shooting percentage ranks eighth.

ALL-AROUND RORIE

Ahmaad Rorie is one of three players in the Big Sky Conference to rank in the top 15 for scoring (16.6 points per game; eighth), assists (3.4 per game; sixth) and minutes played (34.4; seventh). Additionally, his 1.8 assist-to-turnover ratio ranks fourth, while he ranks in the top 15 for steals (1.1; 14th).

NEARLY PERFECT FROM THE LINE

Ahmaad Rorie made his first 24 free-throw attempts to begin Big Sky action. He is now 39-of-41 and ranks second in the league with a .951 free-throw percentage. On the season, he is making a team-best 85.3 percent of his free-throw attempts (81-of-95).

AKOH TAKING OVER

The Grizzlies had high hopes for Jamar Akoh, a transfer from Cal State Fullerton who redshirted a year ago. In his first two games, however, he combined for just four points and two rebounds, being limited to 28 total minutes due to foul trouble.

Over the next 23 games, Akoh has taken over down low, averaging 15.0 points and 7.6 rebounds, and shooting 58.7 percent. He has 19 double-figure scoring games during that 24-game span and has recorded seven double-doubles (second in the Big Sky only to Idaho's Brayon Blake (eight)).

During conference play, Akoh leads the league with five double-doubles and 2.8 offensive rebounds per game. He also ranks in the top 10 in the league for scoring (16.1 points per game; ninth), rebounding (7.5; fourth) and field-goal percentage (.563; eighth). He is one of three players to rank in the top 10 for all three categories, also ranking 14th for steals (1.1).

AKOH EARNS WEEKLY HONORS

Junior forward Jamar Akoh was named player of the week by the Big Sky Conference and College Sports Madness on Jan. 8. It was the first weekly honor of his career. Akoh averaged 28.0 points and 9.5 rebounds per game in victories over North Dakota (Jan. 4) and Northern Colorado (Jan. 6).

Against the Fighting Hawks, he had a double-double with 22 points and 11 rebounds – both team highs – in addition to three assists and a steal. Two nights later, he scored 34 points, the most by a Grizzly in eight seasons.

MORE MOOREHEAD

Bobby Moorehead struggled offensively for much of his sophomore season in 2016-17, averaging 3.9 points per game on .320 shooting. The junior has turned things around in 2017-18, averaging 7.7 points per game and ranking second on the team with 41 three-pointers made. He also ranks second on the team for minutes played (32.0), rebounding (5.2 per game) and blocked shots (14).

Recently, Travis DeCuire called Moorehead his team's 'toughest' player, and following the first double-double of his career (10 points, career-high 12 rebounds at Montana State), he called him a 'beast', referencing his Twitter handle (@bobbyisabeast). More impressive than the double-double, Moorehead locked down preseason player of the year Tyler Hall, limiting him to zero field goals in the second half.

FRESHMAN FALLS

Timmy Falls scored 12 points through Montana's first 10 games of the season before breaking out vs. UC Irvine (Dec. 19). The freshman played 22 minutes off the bench and scored 14 points, including 4-for-4 shooting from three-point range. Falls also had several no-look passes and took a charge on defense.

Since his breakout performance vs. UC Irvine, Falls is averaging 20.1 minutes and 5.3 points per game. He's also added 38 assists and 14 steals during the 16-game stretch.

FIRST TO 50

In four seasons in the Big Sky Conference, Travis DeCuire has won at an historic pace. DeCuire holds a 52-16 mark in Big Sky action (.765), by far the best of any Montana coach in school history. However, with his win at North Dakota on Feb. 3, DeCuire became the fastest coach in Big Sky history to reach 50 conference wins (65 games). Weber State's Randy Rahe accomplished the feat in his 67th game with the Wildcats (50-17).

Additionally, DeCuire's current conference winning percentage is the third-best in Big Sky history, and the best among coaches with at least 40 wins.

Montana has made nearly half of its shots from the floor during its 14 conference games (.486). At home this season, the Grizzlies have made at least half of their shots seven times, including a season-high 62 percent vs. North Dakota (Jan. 4).

THREE-POINT IMPROVEMENT

Through non-conference play, Montana ranked last in the Big Sky Conference for three-point field-goal defense (.388) and second-to-last for three-point offense (.284). However, the Grizzlies have turned those numbers around and now rank third for three-point defense (.327) and fourth for three-point shooting (.387).

The key for the Grizzlies on offense has been shot selection. Montana ranks among the best in the league for three-point shooting despite making the fewest three-pointers in the league. Translation: Montana is only shooting treys when it's a good shot.

The improvement was best seen in wins over Southern Utah and Northern Arizona (Jan. 25 and 27). The Thunderbirds entered the contest averaging nearly 9 makes and 24 three-point attempts per game, but were held to just 1-of-11 shooting, with Montana's mindset on taking away SUU's go-to shot. Two nights later vs. the Lumberjacks, the Grizzlies made a season-most 12 three-pointers (42.9 percent) en route to an 18-point victory.

HOME SWEET HOME

The Grizzlies hold a perfect 11-0 mark at home this season, and over the past decade have won more than 80 percent of their contests inside Dahlberg Arena, going 115-25 (.821). All-time, the Grizzlies boast one of the best home-court advantages, going 689-240 (.742) in their home arena.

PLAYING FROM IN FRONT

Through 12 Big Sky games, the Grizzlies trailed for just 61 minutes, 51 seconds out of 480 total minutes (12.9 percent). More impressive, they had trailed for just 9:49 in the second half (4.1 percent).

Over the past two games, however, Montana has trailed for nearly 52 minutes, including the final 15:44 of regulation vs. Sacramento State (aside from the last 12 seconds) and the final 25:42 at Eastern Washington.

HALFTIME ADJUSTMENTS

Through Montana's first 12 Big Sky contests, the Grizzlies out-scored their opponents in the second half 10 times, in large part due to strong runs immediately out of the break:

- Dec. 28 at Northern Arizona: 6-0
- Dec. 30 at Southern Utah: 9-2
- Jan. 4 vs. North Dakota: 13-5
- Jan. 6 vs. Northern Colorado: 16-10
- Jan. 11 at Sacramento State: 21-8
- Jan. 13 at Portland State: 22-8
- Jan. 20 at Montana State: 20-9
- Jan. 25 vs. Southern Utah: 27-13

- Jan. 27 vs. Northern Arizona: 28-7
- Feb. 1 at Northern Colorado: 17-4
- Feb. 8 vs. Portland State: 12-0

COMEBACK WIN

Montana did not hold a lead for the final 15:44 of regulation vs. Sacramento State (Feb. 10), trailing by as many as nine points, including five points with under 3 minutes to play. The Grizzlies didn't allow a point over the final 3 minutes, however, and stole an in-bounds pass with 26 seconds remaining to tie the game and force overtime. The win improved Montana to 13-0 in Big Sky play.

POLISHED AGAINST PORTLAND STATE

The Vikings entered their Feb. 8 game against Montana ranked fourth nationally, averaging more than 88 points per game; the Griz held Portland State to a season-low 60 points. Additionally, the Vikings led the nation for steals (10.7 per game) and ranked second nationally for turnovers forced (19.7), but were limited to four and 10 against Montana – both tied for season lows.

The 20-point victory was the widest margin of loss for Portland State this season, surpassing the 19-point defeat to No. 1 Duke in November.

PULLING AWAY

Montana concluded the first half of Big Sky play with an 18-point victory over Northern Arizona (Jan. 27). After trailing early in the first half, Montana was able to take a seven-point lead into halftime by holding the Lumberjacks to just two made field goals over the final 10:57 of the first half. Following the intermission, Montana made 11 of its first 12 shots offensively, while forcing turnovers on six of NAU's first seven possessions of the half. Just 6:29 into the second half, the Grizzlies had expanded a seven-point lead to 28 points.

OUR STATE

Montana defeated Montana State on Jan. 20 for the 13th time in the past 14 meetings. The Grizzlies trailed by as many as nine points in the first half before they held the Bobcats to 19 second-half points and just four made field goals (16.7 percent).

Montana State's top-two scorers, Tyler Hall and Harald Frey, were held without a field goal in the second half.

WIDE MARGIN

The Grizzlies recorded back-to-back 30-point victories (at Southern Utah, Dec. 30; vs. North Dakota, Jan. 4), marking the first time in 44 years that Montana had won consecutive games by 30 or more points. The last time the Grizzlies did it was in 1973-74, under Jud Heathcote. In the midst of a 13-game win streak, Montana defeated Gonzaga by 35 and Northern Arizona by 32.

Montana is out-scoring its conference opponents 1,130-944, winning by an average of 13.3 points per game (league best).

OGUINE'S CAREER NIGHT

Michael Oguine was named the Big Sky Conference Ready Nutrition Player of the Week on Jan. 15, after leading the Grizzlies to a pair of road victories.

Oguine averaged 27.5 points per game on 68 percent shooting, also adding 12 total rebounds, six steals, five assists and a blocked shot on the week. It was highlighted by a 39-point performance at Portland State that got him and the Griz featured on SportsCenter. The 39 points scored were the most by a Grizzly since Anthony Johnson scored 42 vs. Weber State in the 2010 Big Sky Conference championship game, and the third-most by a Big Sky athlete this season.

Twenty-four of Oguine's career-high 39 points came in the second half, helping Montana overcome a six-point halftime deficit. The Grizzlies had runs of 11-0 and 13-2 in the second half, with Oguine scoring 11 points during those two stretches, including a huge three-pointer in the corner that gave Montana a game-high 13-point lead. Oguine also added a season-high eight rebounds vs. the Vikings. Two nights earlier, at Sacramento State, he scored 16 points and had a team-most four steals.

PULLING THROUGH

Although Montana led Portland State (Jan. 13) by as many as 13 points in the second half, its lead was trimmed to a single point with 1:12 remaining in regulation. The Grizzlies hit their free throws down the stretch, though, to pull out their narrowest win of the season at the time (92-89). Montana was previously 0-2 in games decided by a single possession.

TRIPLE DIGITS

Montana scored 109 points in a blowout win over North Dakota (Jan. 4), an offensive performance that was historic on many levels:

- Montana reached the century mark for the first time since December 2009 vs. Great Falls.
- It was Montana's first 100-point performance against a Division-I opponent since December 1999 vs. Youngstown State.
- The 109 points were tied for the third-most in school history, and the most against a Division-I opponent since the Grizzlies scored 109 points against Idaho State in March 1991.

FRESHMAN CONNECTION

Freshman Karl Nicholas scored a career-high 17 points on a perfect 8-for-8 shooting vs. North Dakota (Jan. 4), including four thunderous dunks that brought the crowd to its feet. The first two came on back-to-back possessions, both coming off of turnovers. The next two also came in transition and were fed by his freshman roommate Timmy Falls. First, Falls delivered a no-look, behind-the-head pass. He followed that up with an alley oop that he lobbed from half court.

Nicholas ranks 13th in league play with eight blocked shots.

SEASON LOWS

Montana's defense held Northern Arizona (Dec. 28) to season lows for field goals (16) and field-goal percentage (.327). Both figures were season lows for UM opponents this season as well. Those marks lasted just two days, however, as the Griz defense was again dominant two days later. Southern Utah (Dec. 30) was held to 49 points, 15 field goals and .263 shooting. All three figures are the lowest by a Big Sky team this season.

The 49 points and 15 field goals were the fewest by a Montana opponent since North Dakota scored 46 on 15-of-56 shooting on March 3, 2016. The field-goal percentage was the lowest by an opponent since Montana State shot .259 on Jan. 17, 2015. In late January, playing Southern Utah for the second time, the Thunderbirds were held to 47 total points and 15 made field goals once again.

WELL CONDITIONED

Entering conference play, Montana had three players who averaged at least 33:00 minutes played per game. Ahmaad Rorie was averaging 36:36 per game, including all 40 minutes vs. UC Santa Barbara (Nov. 21). Fellow juniors Bobby Moorehead (33:50) and Michael Oguine (33:00) were also among the nation's leaders. In fact, Montana was one of 14 Division-I schools nationally to have three players average 33 minutes per game or better.

NON-CONFERENCE SUCCESS

Montana closed its non-conference season with a winning record (7-5) for the first time in six seasons. In fact, despite a storied history that is littered with conference championships and postseason berths, this season marks just the fifth time since the turn of the century that the Grizzlies have posted a winning non-conference mark. The other times were in 2005-06, 2009-10, 2010-11 and 2011-12 – with Montana advancing to the NCAA tournament three of those seasons and the CBI in 2011.

The feat is even more impressive considering the level of competition Montana faced. The Grizzlies played four Power-5 opponents (Pitt, Penn State, Stanford and Washington, all on the road). The Grizzlies also played six of their first nine games away from home, with an additional road game at No. 23 UCLA being canceled once the team was already on site. In addition to the Power-5 opponents, UC Santa Barbara is off to a 20-5 start while UC Irvine was predicted to win the Big West and Georgia State was selected to finish second in the Sun Belt.

NARROW DEFEATS

Montana finished non-conference play with its first winning record in six seasons, but the Griz can't help but wonder, 'What if?' as well. Of Montana's five losses, the Grizzlies led or were within a single possession late in the second half in all five games.

- At Penn State (Big Ten), Montana held early leads and was within a single possession, 58-55, with under 4 minutes to play.
- In the championship game of the Legends Classic Malibu Region, Montana overcame an 18-point deficit to take the lead, including 48-46 with 12:51 remaining.
- At Stanford (Pac-12), Montana held multiple second-half leads, including by as many as six points, 50-44, with under 10 minutes on the clock.
- Montana overcame a 17-point halftime deficit at Georgia State, tying the game and having the ball with under a minute to play.
- At Washington (Pac-12), Montana led with 4:16 to play and had the chance to tie the game with two free-throw opportunities with 5.1 seconds left on the clock.

In Montana's lone conference loss, at Eastern Washington (Feb. 15), the Grizzlies were within a single possession on several occasions, including with 4:27 to play before the Eagles went on an 11-4 run.

ROAD WARRIORS

The Grizzlies traveled more than 12,000 miles during non-conference play – taking two trips to the East Coast, three flights to the state of California and one to nearby Seattle. Through the first 30 days of the regular season, Montana was on the road for 19 of them.

- Following a season-opening win over Whitworth (Nov. 10), Montana was on a plane nine hours later for a six-day trip to the state of Pennsylvania (Nov. 11-16).
- After back-to-back games against Power-5 opponents (Pitt and Penn State), Montana had two home practices before flying to California to continue the Legends Classic (Nov. 19).
- The Grizzlies returned from California and had two practices in Missouri to prepare for Carroll (Nov. 26).
- Montana had just one day in between its game against Carroll and flying to Stanford (left on Nov. 28).

MONTANA BASKETBALL

- Montana returned from its trip to Stanford and had two home practices before hosting CSUN (Dec. 3).
- Following its win over CSUN, the Grizzlies had one day at home before flying to UCLA and Georgia State for a six-day road trip (Dec. 5-10).

HEARTBREAK VS. THE HUSKIES

Montana had several chances at an additional non-conference victory over a Power-5 program, taking Washington down to the wire (Dec. 22). In the three-point loss, Montana held multiple second-half leads, including one with under 4 minutes to play.

Despite the loss, Montana out-rebounded the Huskies, 41-27, including 20-6 on the offensive glass. The Grizzlies also had 12 assists compared to Washington's four, and converted 18 turnovers into 24 points. Washington, however, got to the free-throw line 21 times compared to just six for Montana.

DOMINANT DEFENSE

In an 18-point win over UC Irvine (Dec. 19), Montana's defense forced 15 turnovers, including three shot-clock violations and two 10-second whistles. On offense, the Grizzlies shot better than 50 percent and scored 86 points (then a season high). Afterward, Travis DeCuire said his team's performance was the best of the season, and perhaps the best he's seen his team play in his four years as head coach.

"Tonight is the first time we've put 40 minutes together on both sides of the ball," DeCuire said. "Our energy and the way we played together, and the way we executed on both sides of the ball, was incredible. I don't know that we've played this well as a group, as a unit, since I've been here."

HONORING DELVON

Prior to Montana's game vs. UC Irvine (Dec. 19), the Grizzlies recognized former player Delvon Anderson, who passed away in August at the age of 47. His family was on the court during a video ceremony and DeCuire and former head coach Blaine Taylor presented them with the Legend of the Game plaque – an award given to a former player or coach from each participating team in the 2017 Legends Classic tournament.

DeCuire and Anderson played together in the early 1990s and Taylor was their coach. He is Montana's winningest coach in school history (.680 winning percentage) and is now an assistant coach at UC Irvine. During Anderson's two-year career at Montana, the Grizzlies won back-to-back Big Sky Conference championships. He was the conference MVP as a senior in 1992.

Throughout the season, players have worn No. 24 warmup jerseys to honor Anderson. Additionally, a black stripe has been displayed on the left shoulder of all jerseys, recognizing Anderson and former head coach Jud Heathcote, who also passed away in August.

FINALLY A SATURDAY

Montana will play at least 11 games on Saturdays this season – more than any other day of the week. However, the Grizzlies didn't play a Saturday game until Dec. 9, a full month into the season. Only Oklahoma played more games to begin the season without a Saturday game.

GAME CANCELED

Montana was scheduled to play five teams from Power-5 conference this season, but the Grizzlies' contest at UCLA (Dec. 6) was canceled due to wildfires that were spreading throughout the area and shut down UCLA's campus. The Griz held one practice at Pauley Pavilion and scheduled another at a nearby gym in Los Angeles before departing for Atlanta to take on Georgia State. Ironically, there were talks of that game being canceled as well when a rare snowstorm took over the southern region of the United States and closed Georgia State's campus.

NICHOLAS FINDING HIS FORM

Freshman Karl Nicholas was limited early in the season due to foul trouble. Through his first three career games, Nicholas averaged just 7.7 minutes per game, picking up four fouls in each contest.

The Texas native had a breakout week in Malibu, Calif., however, playing 18 minutes vs. Oral Roberts (Nov. 20) and 28 minutes vs. UC Santa Barbara (Nov. 21). Nicholas averaged 10.5 points per game over the two contests, connecting on 10 of 15 shot attempts. He also added nine rebounds in the two games.

CLUTCH RORIE

Junior guard Ahmaad Rorie has scored in double figures 23 times this season, averaging 17.4 points per game. The point total is impressive, but more impressive is when he is scoring. Six of Rorie's 18 points at Pitt (Nov. 13) came in the overtime period, while two nights later at Penn State (Nov. 15), he had four points, a steal and an assist during a 9-0 UM run to cut the Grizzlies' deficit to a single point, 51-50, midway through the second half.

The all-conference performer was on full display again vs. Oral Roberts (Nov. 20), scoring a team-high 18 points, in addition to six assists and three steals. Trailing 17-16 with 8 minutes to play in the first half, Montana closed the half on a 15-6 run. Rorie had nine points and two assists during that run, contributing to six of UM's eight made field goals. He was again clutch late, knocking down both free-throw attempts with 22 seconds to play to increase Montana's lead to two possessions.

Rorie was named to the Legends Classic Malibu Region All-Tournament team after playing 75 of 80 minutes and totaling 38 points, 12 assists, seven steals and six rebounds.

OGUINE RECOGNIZED BY COLLEGE SPORTS MADNESS

Junior guard Michael Oguine was the College Sports Madness Big Sky Player of the Week for games played Nov. 13-19. Oguine scored 29 points in a signature victory at Pitt (Nov. 13) and then two days later at Penn State (Nov. 15), totaled 15 points and grabbed seven boards in a narrow loss to the Nittany Lions.

A SIGNATURE VICTORY

After coming close, but not close enough, multiple times against Power-5 teams, Montana finally got over the hump and knocked off Pitt on Nov. 13 in Pittsburgh. The win snapped Montana's 14-game losing streak against Power-5 schools and was the program's first since 2010. It marked Montana's first over a team currently in the ACC since 1966.

Montana led for nearly 24 minutes against Pitt, including by as many as seven points. Below are key stats that led the Grizzlies to their signature victory:

- Montana forced Pitt into 19 turnovers, turning them into 30 points. Two of the turnovers were offensive charges, one taken by Karl Nicholas and another by Fabijan Krslovic. Krslovic finished with a team-most nine rebounds, two blocked shots and two steals.
- Montana out-rebounded Pitt, 39-38, including 14-12 on the offensive

- The Grizzlies held the lead for 23:46, compared to 14:07 for the Panthers.
- Montana overcame foul trouble – three players finished the game with four fouls – and a slow start at the free-throw line. The Grizzlies began the game just 4-for-11 from the charity stripe before finishing 12-of-14 down the stretch – including 10 makes in a row at one point – to put the game out of reach.
- After trailing by a game-most seven points, 28-21, with under 5 minutes to play in the first half, Montana closed the half on a 16-7 run to head into the intermission leading by two, 37-35.
- The Grizzlies started the game 0-for-7 from three-point range before Ahmaad Rorie hit back-to-back threes late in the first half. Bobby Moorehead followed with two more, giving the Grizzlies 12 consecutive points off of three-pointers and a 33-32 advantage.
- Trailing by four, 69-65, with under 3 minutes to play, Montana went on an 8-2 run over the next 2 minutes to take a 73-71 advantage. Oguine scored all eight points for the Griz.
- After alternating baskets to begin overtime, Montana scored to take a 79-77 lead and then held Pitt without a made field goal over its final three attempts.

PARTIAL ARRIVAL

Montana's win at Pitt (Nov. 13) was huge for the program. The Grizzlies knocked off an ACC team that has played in 13 of the last 16 NCAA tournaments, on its home court no less. Pitt entered the contest with a 135-5 all-time mark in non-conference games at the Petersen Events Center and had never lost a home opener in the building.

The victory, however, will mean little if the team doesn't use it as a springboard into the rest of the season, particularly in March.

"We want to win these games in November so we can win these games in March," Travis DeCuire said afterward, noting that he schedules games like these in order to prepare his team for Big Sky Conference action and, eventually, the postseason.

BIG-GAMER OGUINE

Junior guard Michael Oguine scored 29 points (then a career high) in Montana's win at Pitt (Nov. 13), but more impressive than the 29 points or team-most five assists was the fact that Oguine took over when it mattered most. He scored 16 of his points in the final 8:32 of regulation, including Montana's final 10 points overall. Trailing 67-63 with 4:32 to play, Oguine out-scored Pitt's entire team, 10-4, to give Montana a two-point lead in the final minute of regulation.

"Mike's one of those guys where when he's mad he's better," Travis DeCuire said. "If he thinks it's time to put everybody on his back, he's going to get it done. He carried us when we needed him to."

100 AND COUNTING

Nov. 13 was a special night for the Montana basketball program, but for two Grizzlies in particular.

Fabijan Krslovic played in his 100th consecutive game. The senior from Australia has played in every UM game since the start of the 2014-15 season (now 124, including 108 starts). Additionally, the game against Pitt was Travis DeCuire's 100th game as head coach. The former Griz player was 59-41 following the signature victory, the fifth-best mark through 100 games out of Montana's 25 head coaches. DeCuire has led Montana to a 2014-15 regular-season conference title and back-to-back appearances in the Big Sky Conference tournament championship game (2015 and 2016).

STARTING STRONG

Montana's wins over Whitworth (Nov. 10) and Pitt (Nov. 13) gave the Grizzlies their first 2-0 start to a season since the 2009-10 squad began the year with three consecutive wins. That team finished with a 22-10 record, winning a Big Sky championship and advancing to the NCAA tournament.

WORKING OVERTIME

Montana won its first overtime game in nearly two years on Nov. 13, defeating Pitt, 83-78. Prior to that, Montana's last overtime victory was a double-overtime win at Northern Arizona on Dec. 31, 2015.

Montana picked up a second overtime win on Feb. 10, defeating Sacramento State. The Grizzlies lost both overtime contests in 2016-17.

HOME-OPENING SUCCESS

With Montana's win over Whitworth (Nov. 10), the Grizzlies improved to 15-3 in home openers since the turn of the century.

DEBUTING

Montana's season opener vs. Whitworth (Nov. 10) marked collegiate and UM debuts for several Grizzlies. Junior Jamar Akoh, a transfer from Cal State Fullerton, earned the start. Also seeing consistent time were freshmen Timmy Falls and Karl Nicholas. In the final minute of the game, Travis DeCuire inserted Admir Besovic, Niko Bevens and Lars Espe.

DEFENSE WINS CHAMPIONSHPS

The offense had been clicking, but the defense needed work. That was Travis DeCuire's assessment through the first month of practices and scrimmages, leading up to Montana's exhibition contest vs. Saskatchewan (Nov. 6).

DeCuire saw his team's ability to get stops, as Montana held Saskatchewan to 26-percent shooting in an 85-44 exhibition victory. Leading by just two, 25-23, with under 8 minutes to play in the first half, Montana went on a 36-4 run over the next 14 minutes – extending across both periods – and did not allow a field goal during that span. The Huskies were 0-for-18 from the floor with 11 turnovers during that stretch. On the evening, Montana forced 12 steals and blocked a dozen shots.

ANDERSON SIGNED

Montana signed Mack Anderson to a National Letter of Intent on Nov. 8. The Bozeman native selected Montana over offers from Montana State and Air Force, and after visiting Boise State and Denver.

Anderson averaged nearly two blocks per game during the 2017 state tournament, helping Bozeman High School to a runner-up finish at the Montana Class 2A state tournament. After mostly talking with NAIA schools, Anderson burst onto the scene over the summer while playing for Montana Elite.

"I like his athleticism and agility," Travis DeCuire said. "Not very often do you get a 6-8 athlete who can run and jump and ball a little bit. We're excited about what he presents in the future."

LOOKING AHEAD

Montana's final three games of the regular season will come at home. The Grizzlies will get an extended break, only playing one game next week, Saturday vs. Montana State.

MONTANA BASKETBALL

PRESEASON NOTES

RETURNING TALENT

The Grizzlies have the pieces to contend this season, returning three of their four consistent starters from 2016-17, in addition to a pair of guards – Sayeed Pridgett and Bobby Moorehead – who each started about one-third of last year's contests.

In total, Montana returns the majority of its production in all aspects of the game, bringing back its top two scorers, and four of its top five. On the other end of the floor, Montana had six players with 90 or more rebounds a year ago; five of them are back on the court.

NEW GUYS COMING IN

While Montana returns the majority of its production from a year ago, the team also turned over roughly half of its roster, with several newcomers expected to slide in and fill roles immediately. The Grizzlies signed six freshmen, in addition to sophomore JUCO transfer Niko Bevans.

- Admir Besovic – Originally from Bosnia and Herzegovina, has spent the past two seasons at the Virginia Episcopal School in Lynchburg, where he averaged 11.2 points and 6.8 rebounds last year as a team captain.
- Niko Bevans – As a freshman at North Idaho College, led the Cardinals to an NWAC Eastern Conference championship by making 50 percent of his three-point attempts.
- Lars Espe – 2016-17 Young Player of the Year in the BLNO, Norway's premier professional basketball league.
- Timmy Falls – 2016-17 East Bay Athletic League MVP.
- Peter Jones – Played in 26 games as a senior at O'Dea High School, averaging 4.8 points per game.
- Kelby Kramer – No. 2 prep prospect from the state of Wyoming, being named to USA Today's All-USA Wyoming Boys Basketball Team
- Karl Nicholas – As the 17th-best prep prospect from the state of Texas, was named the 2016-17 Texas District 22-6A MVP.

DYNAMIC DUO, PART II

Montana boasts one of the top duos in the Big Sky with junior guards Ahmaad Rorie and Michael Oguine. The two combined to score well over one-third of the team's points a year ago, also ranking No. 1 and 2 for minutes played.

A transfer from Oregon, Rorie made a name for himself during his first season in the league, earning second-team All-Big Sky honors. He started all 31 contest, and led the Grizzlies in minutes (32.5 per game), points (17.6), assists (97), field goals made (192), three-pointers (63) and free-throw percent-age (.833). His 1.2 assist-to-turnover ratio helped Montana have the 12th-fewest turnovers in Division I in 2016-17.

After recording the second-most points ever for a Montana freshman, Oguine followed up his debut season with an even better sophomore campaign. He averaged 11.9 points per game – including 13.3 during conference play – and shot .481 from the floor. He ranked second on the team for points, re-bounds (6.0 per game) and steals (37), and earned third-team all-conference honors.

Both players have been named to various publications' preseason all-conference teams, with Rorie being one of six players selected to the official preseason All-Big Sky team voted on by the league's coaches.

FABULOUS SENIOR

Montana's lone senior is Australian Fabijan Krslovic, who entered the season having played in 100 consecutive games – starting 83. Krslovic was Montana's top rebounder in 2016-17, with more than one-third of his boards coming on the offensive glass. He also led Montana with 15 steals and 20 blocked shots and was one of just three Big Sky players to rank in the top 15 in the conference for both categories.

Krslovic will admit he's not the most athletic player on the court, but he's consistent and is the glue of the team, according to the coaching staff. After being forced to be more of a center last year because of Montana's lack of height, he will now transition into a more natural role as a 6-8 forward.

ADDED HEIGHT

A year ago, Fabijan Krslovic (6-8) was the Grizzlies' tallest player, which forced him to play a different role as Montana's only true post player. This year, he is one of five players at 6-8 or taller. It was a conscious effort by DeCuire, looking to add more height and depth to his team's roster.

Admir Besovic (7-0) and Kelby Kramer (6-10) are still raw as true freshmen, adjusting to the quicker style of play in the college game, but both can play a true center position. Kramer is more of a shot-blocker and rebounder, while Besovic has the ability to clog the lane and make it tough for opposing offenses to penetrate to the rim.

Montana believes it has a solid low-presence combination of Krslovic and transfer Jamar Akoh, and also has 6-8 Karl Nicholas, who can be an athletic force on both ends of the court.

MORE RETURNING TALENT

In addition to Montana's senior and pair of all-conference guards, the team returns three other players, including Sayeed Pridgett and Bobby Moorehead.

As a true freshman, Pridgett earned 11 starts and ranked ninth in the Big Sky with a .524 field-goal percentage. He was also the team's third-best rebounder (3.9 per game) and ranked fourth on the team for points (8.1 per game) and assists (44). In his second collegiate season, Moorehead started 10 games and averaged 2.8 rebounds per game while adding 3.9 points, 10 total steals and nine blocked shots. Sophomore guard Trever Spojka is also back. The Billings native saw action in eight contests as a redshirt freshman, totaling 10 points on 3-of-7 shooting.

STARTING THEM YOUNG

Montana is one of 11 NCAA Division I schools nationally to have at least nine newcomer and just one senior.

Kentucky leads the nation with 12 newcomers and zero seniors, while Auburn has a dozen newcomers and one senior. Tennessee, Toledo and Wofford each have 10 newcomers and one senior, while Montana, Bowling Green, Holy Cross, Kansas State, Louisiana Tech and Oklahoma have nine new players and one expected graduate.

DORSEY TO MISS SEASON

The Grizzlies will be without junior forward Donaven Dorsey this season. Dorsey, who redshirted in 2016-17 after transferring from the University of Washington, suffered a pair of hip injuries that require separate surgeries. The first was performed on Oct. 23. He played in 55 games over two seasons with the Huskies, earning eight starts. He totaled 166 points and 77 rebounds.

PICKED TO FINISH 3RD

Montana has high expectations for itself, and those who follow Big Sky basketball feel similar. In the preseason polls, Montana was picked to finish third by both the coaches and media. The Grizzlies were slotted to finish behind Idaho and Weber State in both polls (complete listing on Page 24).

Travis DeCuire said being picked to finish in the upper echelon is a sign of respect, but he and his team have their own set of goals, especially after winning a regular-season championship in 2015 and playing in the conference tournament title game in both 2015 and 2016.

TOUGH SCHEDULE

A year ago, Travis DeCuire believed he compiled the most-challenging schedule in program history, facing an all-Division-I slate. This year, it may be even tougher. The Grizzlies open the season with 13 non-conference games, five of which are against Power-5 teams. The team's first road trip is at Pitt (ACC) and Penn State (Big Ten) – part of the prestigious Legends Classic. The tournament will continue the following week in Malibu, Calif., as Montana takes on Oral Roberts and either UC Santa Barbara or host Pepperdine.

The Grizzlies will get their air miles several weeks later, traveling to Georgia State, in addition to three contests against Pac-12 foes – Stanford, UCLA and Washington. The Bruins are ranked in the AP pre-season top-25 poll.

In Missoula, Montana will host Cal State Northridge, Carroll, UC Irvine, UC Riverside and Whitworth. The 18-game league schedule will begin Dec. 28 and include home-and-home contests against Montana State, North Dakota, Northern Arizona, Northern Colorado, Portland State, Sacramento State and Southern Utah. Montana will also will travel to Eastern Washington and Idaho, and will host Idaho State and Weber State to close the regular season.

The Big Sky Conference tournament will be held in Reno, Nev., for the final year before moving to Boise, Idaho, next spring.

TEAM BONDING IN COSTA RICA

The Grizzlies got a head start to the basketball season, taking a foreign tour to Costa Rica in early August. The NCAA allows for teams to participate in such trips once every four years. The trip was beneficial in several facets. In addition to key bonding time – being in a foreign country with your teammates and being able to partake in several activities, including pool time and a zip line through a jungle – and service initiatives – the team spent a day at an orphanage, playing sports with the children and reading to them – the team also competed in a pair of scrimmages and was allotted 10 practices in Missoula leading up to the trip.

The tour allowed for Travis DeCuire to introduce concepts to his team – particularly the newcomers – much earlier than he usually would, and noted that the team was ahead of where they normally were early in fall camp.

SECURING THE BALL

Montana averaged just 10.8 turnovers per game a year ago, the 12th-fewest in all of NCAA Division I basketball.

PROUD HISTORY

Travis DeCuire is well aware of Montana's proud history, and has experienced it firsthand. During the 1990s, Montana won the Big Sky Conference and played in the NCAA tournament three times in a seven-year period, including DeCuire's sophomore campaign. The two-time All-Big Sky selection still holds Montana's record for career assists.

Since Montana's first conference championship in 1975, no Big Sky team has won more conference titles (10) than Montana. Additionally, the Grizzlies have won nine tournament titles and have nine runner-up finishes – including three championships and three runner-up finishes in the past eight seasons. In the league's history, Montana has won more games than any Big Sky school except for Weber State.

DECUIRE REACHES MILESTONE

Midway through last season, DeCuire's third in Missoula, the Grizzlies defeated Northern Colorado to earn the head coach his 50th victory. He is the second-fastest Griz coach to reach that milestone (84 games). The fastest to 50 was Blaine Taylor, DeCuire's head coach when he played for the Griz.

TRAVIS DECUIRE

Head Coach | Fourth Season | Montana, 1994

In his first two seasons as the University of Montana's 27th men's head basketball coach, Travis DeCure accomplished something no other coach in UM history had: he posted two 20-win seasons in his first two seasons.

Now entering the fourth season at his alma mater, DeCure is once again poised to put the Grizzlies back on the road to a 20-win campaign.

DeCure (pronounced: dee-CURE) was formally introduced as the Grizzlies' head basketball coach in June 2014, at a press conference at UM's Adams Center after the initial announcement from UM's Director of Athletics Kent Haslam in May of that year.

In his first season at the helm of a program with a rich history of success, DeCure's Griz started the year picked to finish eighth in the conference. Led by future European professional Jordan Gregory, UM would go on to defy expectations and win the Big Sky regular-season championship and advance to the National Invitational Tournament (NIT) before finishing the season 20-13 (14-4 BSC).

At the time, he became only the second coach in UM history to notch 20 victories in his first season at the helm – a feat also accomplished by Blaine Taylor in 1991-92 (27-4).

In DeCure's second year, he followed up with another 20-win season and another trip to the Big Sky championship game, this time led by future European professional Martin Breunig. DeCure's Grizzlies would once again advance to the postseason, competing in the first round of the CBI tournament against Nevada, finishing with a 21-12 (14-4 BSC) record.

Paced by 10 underclassmen and just two seniors who played significant time, the Grizzlies went 16-16 (11-7 BSC) in 2016-17, earning a first-round bye in the Big Sky tournament. During the season, DeCure became the second-fastest UM head coach to reach 50 wins (doing so in 84 contests). He coached a pair of UM sophomores – both returning in 2017-18 – to All-Big Sky Conference recognition.

The 2016-17 season was also the second consecutive year in which the Grizzlies have posted a team grade-point average above 3.0, earning NABC Team Academic Excellence recognition both seasons.

Prior to returning to his alma mater as head coach, DeCure spent six seasons (2008-09 through 2013-14) on the University of California coaching staff – including the final four as associate head coach. Regarded as one of the top tutors in the game, DeCure helped former Montana mentor Mike Montgomery – a member of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame – transform Cal into one of the winningest programs in the Pac-12 during his time in Berkeley. The Bears reached the postseason all six years he was on the staff, including the NCAA tournament four times. The Golden Bears boasted 130 wins in his six seasons – the best six-year stretch in school history – winning the 2010 Pac-10 championship. He coached numerous all-conference selections, including conference players of the year Jerome Randle (2010) and Jorge Gutierrez (2012).

DeCure he spent five seasons (2003-04 through 2007-08) as an assistant coach at Old Dominion, under former Griz head coach and player Blaine Taylor. There, he helped the Monarchs to a combined record of 117-53. The mark included 94 wins during his final four seasons – the most in school history over a four-year stretch. ODU reached the postseason each of those four seasons and advanced to the NCAA tournament in both 2005 and 2007 – winning a school-record 28 contests in 2005. Additionally, the Monarchs reached the NIT semifinals in 2006 and the quarterfinals of the College Basketball Invitational in 2008.

DeCure, from Seattle, Wash., also has head coaching experience from stints at Sammamish High School and Green River Community College in Washington. At GRCC, DeCure took over a last-place program and guided it to a conference championship and its first 20-win season in more than 20 years, earning league coach-of-the-year honors in 2003 – his second season. At Sammamish High School in Bellevue, DeCure led his team to a pair of conference titles, a state tournament appearance and three consecutive trips to the district tournament.

As a point guard for Montana from 1992-94 DeCure was named All-Big Sky Conference as a junior and senior. He set a school record in just three seasons with 435 career assists. He also established UM's single-season mark with 199 assists as a senior in 1993-94, when he was ranked 12th in the nation, averaging 7.1 assists a game. He was the recipient of the Grizzlies' Carl Dragstedt Award (MVP) as a junior and senior, and received the John Eahart Award (Outstanding Defensive Player) following his senior year.

As a freshman at Chaminade-Hawaii, he was a starter and team MVP in 1990. He then transferred to Montana and redshirted in 1991. DeCure attended Mercer Island High School (Wash.), where he was a three-year starter and all-state, team MVP, and a McDonald's All-America honorable mention pick as a senior.

He has a strong commitment to community service and founded and acted as president of the Fastbreak Basketball Association – an organization that assists in teaching life lessons and building self-esteem through basketball to more than 500 students in the Seattle-Tacoma area. Additionally, he has extensive experience in counseling at the Echo Glen Children's Center in Snoqualmie, Wash., from 1996-98, and with the Ryther Children's Center in North Seattle, from 1995-97.

DeCure graduated from Montana in 1994 with a degree in business marketing. He and his wife, Sabrina, have two daughters – Brianna (24) and Tamia (5).
