SERIES VS. THE FIGHTING HAWKS

Montana and North Dakota will meet for the 23rd time on Thursday, and for the final time as Big Sky Conference foes. The Fighting Hawks will join the Summit League following this season. Montana holds a 17-5 record over North Dakota, winning seven in a row in the series – all under head coach Travis DeCuire (7-0).

The two teams first met in 1929-30, and then again twice in the 1940s and in four consecutive seasons in the 1960s. They wouldn't play again until 2008-09 and 2009-10 – both Griz wins in Missoula – and have played at least once each of the past seven seasons since North Dakota joined the Big Sky Conference. Montana has won 10 of the past 11 contests overall, and 17 of 20.

In two games this season vs. the Fighting Hawks, Jamar Akoh has a pair of double-doubles, totaling 45 points and 22 rebounds. Senior Fabijan Krslovic has played in all seven games during Montana's win streak over North Dakota, averaging 8.1 points and 4.4 boards per contest, including a double-double as a junior (16 points, 10 rebounds). Michael Oguine has scored in double figures in four of five career games vs. North Dakota, posting 11 rebounds in the other. Ahmaad Rorie has two 20-point performances in three games vs. the Fighting Hawks.

SCOUTING NORTH DAKOTA

- North Dakota enters Thursday's quarterfinals matchup with a record of 12-19. The Fighting Hawks are the No. 8 seed in the tournament.
- UND is 3-0 in neutral-site contests this season, including a win Tuesday over Montana State. The Fighting Hawks trailed by 19 points with just over 11 minutes to play before closing on a 31-10 run. Marlon Stewart scored a career-high 29 points, while Geno Crandall contributed 18.
- UND had an eight-game losing streak in December-January, but has alternated wins and losses each game since Feb. 17.
- Geno Crandall was named to the All-Big Sky second team this week. The junior averaged 16.2 points per Big Sky game (10th) while leading the league for steals (1.8) and ranking eighth for assists (3.4). Crandall shoots better than .500 from the floor, including .417 from three-point range (eighth).
- In addition to Crandall, Dale Jones (12.3 points per game; 20th in Big Sky), Conner Avants (11.5; 24th) and Cortez Seales (10.3; 30th) averaged double-figures scoring during league play.
- Avants (6.2 per game; 13th) and Jones (6.1; 15th) are among the league's top rebounders. Avants also shoots .572 from the floor (eighth).
- In two matchups vs. Montana this season, UND had six different players score in double figures (three in January and a different three in February).
- UND averages 7.1 steals per game (third in Big Sky, 21st in NCAA).
- UND ranks in the bottom third in the Big Sky for scoring and scoring defense, and last for field-goal defense (.495).
- The Fighting Hawks rank last in the Big Sky for rebounding (30.0 per game) and rebounding margin (-5.7).
- Brian Jones is in his 12th season in Grand Forks, leading the Fighting Hawks to the 2017 Big Sky Conference regular-season and tournament titles.

MONTANA SCORES REACHES TRIPLE DIGITS, REMAINS UNBEATEN

MISSOULA, Mont. – The Montana Grizzlies put the Big Sky on notice Thursday evening, dropping 109 points on the defending champions. The Grizzlies never trailed North Dakota, beating the Fighting Hawks, 109-79, to stay unbeaten in league play.

"I like the way we're playing together with some intensity and some urgency," head coach Travis DeCuire said. "We're resilient."

In its first two Big Sky games, Montana's defense was the story, holding Northern Arizona and Southern Utah to season lows for field-goal percentage, including just 49 points vs. the Thunderbirds. During the third game of league play, the offense rose to the occasion. The Grizzlies have now posted 30-point victories in back-to-back games and are out-scoring their Big Sky opponents 275-197, winning by an average of 26.0 points per game.

"We're still competing with desperation," DeCuire said. "We have to keep doing the right things every possession, regardless of the score."

Early on, it was the defense once again, holding North Dakota scoreless for the first 7 minutes, 16 seconds, as the Grizzlies raced out to a 14-0 lead. North Dakota missed its first 10 shot attempts, also turning the ball over three times before getting on the board.

Montana never trailed and led by as many as 40 points – a season high – when Karl Nicholas converted an and-one opportunity with 4:40 to play. Nicholas finished the game with a career-high 17 points, shooting 8-of-8 from the floor.

The freshman also added three blocked shots, three steals, two assists and five rebounds. Nicholas' stat line was impressive, but numbers can't describe his four jaw-dropping slam dunks, including two from freshman teammate Timmy Falls. Falls' first assist came on a no-look, behind-the-back pass in transition. The second was a half-court alley oop.

"Timmy's taking care of his roommate," DeCuire said. "He's got great court vision and I think Karl's starting to figure out that if he runs, it's coming. Karl has been active. His energy defensively is what gets him on the floor and keeps him on the floor, and then he puts himself in the right places offensively as he grows. I just think those guys have brought positive energy the last two weeks, and you're starting to see that as a group."

Falls scored eight points and had a team-high four assists, playing 27 minutes. Juniors Ahmaad Rorie (22), Jamar Akoh (22) and Michael Oguine (16) finished in double figures for scoring. For Rorie, it was his third consecutive 20-point performance, also adding three assists and two steals. Akoh posted his third double-double with 11 rebounds, in addition to three assists. Oguine had two assists and five rebounds, shooting 6-of-9.

Four players were in double figures, but the 109 points were a team effort. Sophomore Sayeed Pridgett had eight points, five rebounds, four assists and two steals. Fabijan Krslovic scored seven points, shooting 5-of-6 from the free-throw line. Sophomore Trevor Spoja hit a late three pointer, while freshman Admir Besovic had a three-point play that pushed the Griz to 100 points. Fellow freshman Lars Espe scored his first career points, knocking down a three-pointer, in addition to a pair of assists. As a team, Montana had a team-high 21 assists and shot a season-best 61.5 percent (40-of-65), including 57.1 percent on a season-most eight three-pointers.

Despite holding a 21-point lead at the half, Montana never stepped off the gas, extending the lead with a 13-0 run early in the second half.

MONTANA SETS PROGRAM RECORD WITH 7TH CONSECUTIVE ROAD WIN

GRAND FORKS, N.D. – Between the travel, the short rest and having to come from behind, nothing came easy on Saturday, but in the end, Montana overcame another tough test to defeat North Dakota, 72-67, and stay unbeaten in Big Sky Conference play. In addition to an 11th consecutive victory overall, Montana set a program record with its seventh straight road win. Additionally, head coach Travis DeCuire won his 50th Big Sky contest, becoming the fastest coach in league history to the milestone (50-15, .769 winning percentage).

Jamar Akoh was nearly unstoppable for the Grizzlies, scoring 23 points and grabbing 11 rebounds for his fifth double-double of the season. He was good all game long, but was at his best when it mattered the most, scoring seven consecutive Montana points in the second half to help turn a 49-45 deficit into a 52-50 lead with 9:50 to play.

"Grit, no glamour," DeCuire said. "We've come from behind every time we've won here, so we knew it would be a tough test. They stuck together and fought, and we found a way to win. Our pace got better and we got more aggressive. We had a sense of confidence as the game progressed."

The Grizzlies' top-two scorers were held to 21 points – 13 below their combined season average – but once again, both did big things at critical moments. With Montana trailing 57-56 with 5:21 on the clock, Ahmaad Rorie hit a three-pointer to give the Grizzlies the lead for good. Moments later and still nursing just a two-point advantage, Michael Oguine took over with a putback layup and a huge three-pointer to give the Griz their largest lead of the second half, 67-60, with 48 seconds remaining. The three was fed from Rorie, who had a career-high-tying seven assists on the day.

"I gave all credit in the locker room to Ahmaad Rorie," DeCuire said. "It wasn't his night, and he knew it, so he goes out and gets us seven assists and he made some big passes down the stretch. That's when it's a team effort."

Sayeed Pridgett scored seven points and had four assets and a steal, while Timmy Falls made a pair of three-pointers in the first half. Senior Fabijan Krslovic was also in double figures for the second consecutive game (12 points), making his presence down low, especially early.

"It really was a team effort," DeCuire said. "We knew there would be an advantage down low, but at the end of the day it was Bobby Moorehead, Sayeed Pridgett, Timmy Falls, Ahmaad Rorie, Michael Oguine that worked very hard to get it in there as those two (Akoh and Krslovic) really worked well together."

After allowing North Dakota to shoot 54 percent in the opening 20 minutes, the Grizzlies clamped down to limit the Fighting Hawks to 37 percent in the second half. UND also turned the ball over 14 times on eight Montana steals. Montana used a 7-0 run late in the first half to take a 39-31 halftime lead, but North Dakota came out strong to begin the second half, scoring nine of the first 11 points and taking the lead just over 7 minutes in. Montana did not panic, however, regaining the lead just over 2 minutes later. The result snapped North Dakota's three-game home winning streak.

He surpassed his point total from his first 10 games vs. UC Irvine alone, however, scoring 14 points vs. the Anteaters (Dec. 19). Over Montana's final 20 regular-season games, Falls averaged 6.0 points per game in 19.8 minutes of action.

- Entering the tournament, he ranks fourth on the team with 21 three-pointers, shooting at a team-best .412 clip.
- Ranks third on the team with 48 assists and has the second-best assist-per-minute average on the team (one assist every 9.8 minutes).
- During a stretch from Dec. 19 through Jan. 20, Falls had an assist in nine consecutive games – eight of which were multi-assist games.
- Dished out six dimes in a win at Northern Colorado (Feb. 1).
- Connected with freshman Karl Nicholas for a pair of dunks vs. North Dakota (Jan. 4) – one of which was a no-look, behind-the-head pass and the second being an alley oop from half court.

- Scored 13 points and tallied a career-most seven rebounds in a win over Montana State (Feb. 24).

MONTANA BASKETBALL

- After averaging just 7.7 minutes per game over the first three contests due to foul trouble, Nicholas had a breakout week at the Legends Classic Malibu Region (Nov. 20-21), averaging 23.0 minutes over two games and totaling 21 points on 10-of-15 shooting.

FIRST TO 50

In four seasons in the Big Sky Conference, Travis DeCuire has won at an historic rate. DeCuire holds a 55-17 mark in Big Sky action (.764), by far the best of any Montana coach in school history. However, with his win at North Dakota on Feb. 3, DeCuire became the fastest coach in Big Sky history to reach 50 conference wins (65 games). Weber State's Randy Rahe accomplished the feat in his 67th game with the Wildcats (50-17).

DeCuire's current conference winning percentage is the third-best in Big Sky history, and the best among coaches with at least 40 wins.

THE 1,000-POINT CLUB

Both Michael Oguine (Jan. 27) and Ahmaad Rorie (Feb. 17) joined an exclusive list this season, with both surpassing 1,000 career points.

Oguine became the 32nd member of Montana's 1,000-point club, scoring 23 points against Northern Arizona. Oguine enters the Big Sky Championship in 18th place on the all-time list and is one of 14 players in UM history to reach the 1,000-point milestone during his third season.

Rorie became one of three players in Montana history (also Anthony Johnson and Martin Breunig) to reach the milestone in his second season. The transfer from Oregon is on pace to finish his career ranked in the top five.

HOME SWEET HOME

Montana closed its 2017-18 home slate with a 75-64 victory over Idaho State (March 3). The victory capped a perfect home season for the Grizzlies, improving their home mark to 14-0. It was the first time in 26 seasons and the fifth time ever that Montana has gone undefeated at home (also: 1991-92 (18-0), 1949-50 (15-0), 1983-84 (14-0) and 1974-75 (12-0)).

The win over the Bengals was also Montana's 700th all-time inside Dahlberg Arena. The Grizzlies boast one of the nation's best home-court advantages, going 700-245 (.741) in their home arena, including 118-25 (.825) over the past decade.

GOOD ALL AROUND

Montana ranks in the top 100 nationally (out of 351 Division-I programs) for both scoring offense (82nd) and scoring defense (63rd). The Grizzlies are one of 20 teams to rank in the top 100 on both sides of the ball. The 77.4

points per game and 67.9 points-allowed average has led to a +9.4 scoring margin – ranked 36th nationally, including the best figure in the Big Sky Conference.

CRASHING THE GLASS

Montana has out-rebounded its opponent 21 times this season and holds a +4.7 rebounding margin (second in Big Sky, 47th nationally).

Nearly one-third of Montana's rebounds have come from the offensive end (32.6 percent); that number was 28.6 percent a year ago. The Grizzlies are currently averaging 12.1 offensive rebounds per game this season (43rd in NCAA).

WINNING WAYS

Montana won 13 consecutive games between Dec. 28 and Feb. 10, tied for the third-longest win streak in school history. It was also the third-longest active streak in the NCAA at the time.

STARTING STRONG

Montana began Big Sky Conference play 13-0, marking the second time in the Grizzlies' 55-year history in the league. The Grizzlies also did it in 2012-13, winning their first 14 games.

It was the fourth-best start in Big Sky history, trailing only Weber State (15-0 start in 1969), Weber State (14-0 start in 2003) and Montana (14-0 start in 2013). At the time of Montana's loss, only three other schools nationally were undefeated in their conference.

ROAD STREAK

Prior to its loss at Eastern Washington (Feb. 15), Montana had won a program-record seven consecutive true road contests. It was the fourth-longest streak in the country at the time. Overall, the Grizzlies' eight true road wins on the season (8-6) are their most in five seasons.

STOUT DEFENSE

Montana ranks in the top tier nationally for the majority of defensive statistical categories:

- 15.9 turnovers forced per game: 16th in NCAA (2nd in BSC)
- 8.0 steals per game: 19th (2nd)
- +3.1 turnover margin: 24th (2nd)
- +4.7 rebounding margin: 47th (2nd)
- 67.9 points allowed per game: 63rd (2nd)
- .423 field-goal percentage defense: 77th (2nd)

BENCH PRESENCE

Montana has used the same eight-man rotation for the majority of the season, receiving 16.4 points per game from its three main bench players.

Recently vs. Montana State (Feb. 24), Montana had six players score in double figures, and just two of them were starters. Bench players Timmy Falls (14), Sayeed Pridgett (14) and Karl Nicholas (13) accounted for 41 points. Falls' total tied a career high, scoring nine of them during a span of 1:34. Pridgett's 14 points all came in the second half, also adding five rebounds, while Nicholas shot 6-of-7 from the floor.

MONTANA BASKETBALL

GETTING TO THE LINE

Montana ranks in the top 15 percent of all NCAA Division-I teams when it comes to getting to the free-throw line. The Grizzlies average 23.2 free-throw attempts per game (47th in NCAA) and make an average of 16.4 per game (52nd).

Ahmaad Rorie (86.0 percent) ranks in the top 50 nationally.

Montana has connected on nearly half of its shots this season, a figure which ranks in the top 50 nationally. The Grizzlies have made more than half of their shots in a game 11 times, including a season-best 62 percent vs. North Dakota (Jan. 4). The percentage was the highest by a Big Sky team this season.

HALFTIME ADJUSTMENTS

Montana out-scored its opponent in the second half 13 times in 18 Big Sky games, in large part due to strong runs immediately out of the break:

- Dec. 28 at Northern Arizona: 6-0
- Dec. 30 at Southern Utah: 9-2
- Jan. 4 vs. North Dakota: 13-5
- Jan. 6 vs. Northern Colorado: 16-10
- Jan. 11 at Sacramento State: 21-8
- Jan. 13 at Portland State: 22-8
- Jan. 20 at Montana State: 20-9
- Jan. 25 vs. Southern Utah: 27-13
- Jan. 27 vs. Northern Arizona: 28-7
- Feb. 1 at Northern Colorado: 17-4
- Feb. 8 vs. Portland State: 12-0
- March 1 vs. Weber State: 6-0

SHUTTING DOWN THE THREE

On two occasions this season, Montana has been able to shut down one of the nation's top three-point shooting teams.

Montana limited Southern Utah (Jan. 25) to 1-of-11 shooting from deep, despite the Thunderbirds entering the contest averaging nearly 24 attempts and nine makes per game. Against Weber State (March 3), Montana held a Wildcat team that ranked No. 2 nationally for three-point field-goal percentage to 2-of-11 shooting (18.2 percent).

OUR STATE

Montana has owned the Brawl of the Wild rivalry over the past decade, beating Montana State in 15 of the past 16 contests. The most-recent win was monumental, however. It marked the first time in 297 meetings, dating back to 1901-02, that the Grizzlies have led the all-time series. Montana now holds the series lead, 149-148.

On the road in January, the Grizzlies trailed by as many as nine points in the first half before they held the Bobcats to 19 second-half points and just four made field goals (16.7 percent). Montana's 27-point win in February was the second-largest final margin in the series history.

COMEBACK WIN

Montana did not hold a lead for the final 15:44 of regulation vs. Sacramento State (Feb. 10), trailing by as many as nine points, including five points with under 3 minutes to play. The Grizzlies didn't allow a point over the final 3 minutes, however, and stole an in-bounds pass with 26 seconds remaining to tie the game and force overtime. The win improved the Grizzlies to 13-0 in Big Sky play.

PLAYING FROM IN FRONT

Through 12 Big Sky games, the Grizzlies trailed for just 61:51 out of 480 total minutes (12.9 percent). More impressive, they had trailed for just 9:49 in the second half (4.1 percent).

POLISHED AGAINST PORTLAND STATE

The Vikings entered their Feb. 8 game against Montana ranked fourth nationally, scoring more than 88 points per game; the Griz held Portland State to a season-low 60 points. Additionally, the Vikings led the nation for steals (10.7 per game) and ranked second nationally for turnovers forced (19.7), but were limited to four and 10 against Montana – both tied for season lows.

The 20-point UM victory was the widest margin of loss for Portland State this season, surpassing the 19-point defeat to No. 1 Duke in November.

PULLING AWAY

Montana concluded the first half of Big Sky play with an 18-point victory over Northern Arizona (Jan. 27). After trailing early in the first half, Montana was able to take a seven-point lead into halftime by holding the Lumberjacks to just two made field goals over the final 10:57 of the stanza. Following the intermission, Montana made 11 of its first 12 shots offensively, while forcing turnovers on six of NAU's first seven possessions of the half. Just 6:29 into the second half, the Grizzlies had expanded a seven-point lead to 28 points.

OGUINE'S CAREER NIGHT

Michael Oguine was named the Big Sky Conference Player of the Week on Jan. 15 after leading the Grizzlies to a pair of road victories. Oguine averaged 27.5 points per game on 68 percent shooting, also adding 12 total rebounds, six steals, five assists and a blocked shot on the week. It was highlighted by a 39-point performance at Portland State that got him and the Griz featured on SportsCenter. The 39 points scored were the most by a Grizzly since Anthony Johnson scored 42 vs. Weber State in the 2010 Big Sky Conference championship game.

Twenty-four of Oguine's career-high 39 points came in the second half, helping Montana overcome a six-point halftime deficit. The Grizzlies had runs of 11-0 and 13-2 in the second half, with Oguine scoring 11 points during those two stretches, including a huge three-pointer in the corner that gave Montana a game-high 13-point lead. Oguine also added a season-high eight rebounds vs. the Vikings. Two nights earlier, at Sacramento State (Jan. 11), he scored 16 points and had a team-most four steals.

PULLING THROUGH

Although Montana led Portland State (Jan. 13) by as many as 13 points in the second half, its lead was trimmed to a single point with 1:12 remaining in regulation. The Grizzlies hit their free throws down the stretch, though, to pull out their narrowest win of the season at the time (92-89). Montana was previously 0-2 in games decided by a single possession.

AKOH EARNS WEEKLY HONORS

Junior forward Jamar Akoh earned player of the week honors by the Big Sky Conference and College Sports Madness on Jan. 8. It was the first weekly honor of his career. Akoh averaged 28.0 points and 9.5 rebounds per game in victories over North Dakota (Jan. 4) and Northern Colorado (Jan. 6).

Against the Fighting Hawks, he had a double-double with 22 points and 11 rebounds – both team highs – in addition to three assists and a steal. Two nights later, he scored 34 points, the most by a Grizzly in eight seasons.

MONTANA BASKETBALL

WIDE MARGIN

The Grizzlies recorded back-to-back 30-point victories (at Southern Utah, Dec. 30; vs. North Dakota, Jan. 4), marking the first time in 44 years that Montana had won consecutive games by 30 or more points. The last time the Grizzlies did it was in 1973-74, under Jud Heathcote. In the midst of a 13-game win streak, Montana defeated Gonzaga by 35 and Northern Arizona by 32.

On the season, Montana out-scored its conference opponents 1,447-1,207, winning by an average of 13.3 points per game (league best).

TRIPLE DIGITS

Montana scored 109 points (most by a Big Sky team this season) in a blowout win over North Dakota (Jan. 4), an offensive performance that was historic on many levels:

- Montana reached the century mark for the first time since December 2009 vs. Great Falls.
- It was Montana's first 100-point performance against a Division-I opponent since December 1999 vs. Youngstown State.
- The 109 points were tied for the third-most in school history, and the most against a Division-I opponent since the Grizzlies scored 109 points against Idaho State in March 1991.

FRESHMAN CONNECTION

Freshman Karl Nicholas scored a career-high 17 points on a perfect 8-for-8 shooting vs. North Dakota (Jan. 4), including four thunderous dunks that brought the crowd to its feet. The first two came on back-to-back possessions, both coming off of turnovers. The next two also came in transition and were fed by his freshman roommate Timmy Falls. First, Falls delivered a no-look, behind-the-head pass. He followed that up with an alley oop that he lobbed from half court.

SUFFOCATING DEFENSE

Montana's defense held Northern Arizona (Dec. 28) to season lows for field goals (16) and field-goal percentage (.327). Both figures were season lows for UM opponents this season as well. Those marks lasted just two days, however, as the Griz defense was again dominant two days later. Southern Utah (Dec. 30) was held to 49 points, 15 field goals and .263 shooting.

The 15 field goals were the lowest by a Big Sky team this season, as was the .263 shooting percentage. The 49 points were the second-lowest, just above the 47 points Southern Utah scored against Montana the next month in Missoula. Montana is the only Big Sky school to hold a conference opponent under 50 points this season, doing so twice.

The 47 points and 15 field goals were the fewest by a Montana opponent since North Dakota scored 46 on 15-of-56 shooting on March 3, 2016. The field-goal percentage was the lowest by an opponent since Montana State shot .259 on Jan. 17, 2015.

WELL CONDITIONED

Entering conference play, Montana had three players who averaged at least 33:00 minutes played per game. Ahmaad Rorie was averaging 36:36 per game, including all 40 minutes vs. UC Santa Barbara (Nov. 21). Fellow juniors Bobby Moorehead (33:50) and Michael Oguine (33:00) were also among the nation's leaders. In fact, Montana was one of 14 Division-I schools nationally to have three players average 33 minutes per game or better through December.

NON-CONFERENCE SUCCESS

Montana closed its non-conference season with a winning record (7-5) for the first time in six seasons. In fact, despite a storied history that is littered with conference championships and postseason berths, this season marks just the fifth time since the turn of the century that the Grizzlies have posted a winning non-conference mark. The other times were in 2005-06, 2009-10, 2010-11 and 2011-12 – with Montana advancing to the NCAA tournament three of those seasons and the CBI in 2011.

The feat is even more impressive considering the level of competition Montana faced. The Grizzlies played four Power-5 opponents (Pitt, Penn State, Stanford and Washington, all on the road). The Grizzlies also played six of their first nine games away from home, with an additional road game at No. 23 UCLA being canceled once the team was already on site. In addition to the Power-5 opponents, UC Irvine, UC Santa Barbara and Georgia State are all in second place in their respective conferences.

NARROW DEFEATS

Montana finished non-conference play with its first winning record in six seasons, but the Griz can't help but wonder, 'What if?' as well. Of Montana's five losses, the Grizzlies led or were within a single possession late in the second half in all five games.

- At Penn State (Big Ten), Montana held early leads and was within a possession, 58-55, with under 4 to play.
- In the championship game of the Legends Classic Malibu Region, Montana overcame an 18-point deficit to take the lead, 48-46, with 12:51 remaining.
- At Stanford (Pac-12), Montana held multiple second-half leads, including by as many as six points, 50-44, with under 10 minutes on the clock.
- Montana overcame a 17-point halftime deficit at Georgia State, tying the game with the ball and under a minute to play.
- At Washington (Pac-12), Montana led with 4:16 to play and had the chance to tie the game with two free-throw opportunities with 5.1 seconds left on the clock.

Montana's pair of conference losses were similar. At Eastern Washington (Feb. 15), the Grizzlies were within a single possession on several occasions, including with 4:27 to play before the Eagles went on an 11-4 run. At Idaho (Feb. 17), the Grizzlies had the last shot of regulation, led in overtime and were tied in the final seconds before a Vandals buzzer-beating tip-in ended the game.

ROAD WARRIORS

The Grizzlies traveled more than 12,000 miles during non-conference play – taking two trips to the East Coast, three flights to the state of California and one to nearby Seattle. Through the first 30 days of the regular season, Montana was on the road for 19 of them.

- Following a season-opening win over Whitworth (Nov. 10), Montana was on a plane nine hours later for a six-day trip to the state of Pennsylvania (Nov. 11-16).
- After back-to-back games against Power-5 opponents (Pitt and Penn State), Montana had two home practices before flying to California to continue the Legends Classic (Nov. 19).
- The Grizzlies returned from California and had two practices in Missoula to prepare for Carroll (Nov. 26).
- Montana had just one day in between its game against Carroll and flying to Stanford (left on Nov. 28).
- Montana returned from its trip to Stanford and had two home practices before hosting CSUN (Dec. 3).
- Following its win over CSUN, the Grizzlies had one day at home before flying to UCLA and Georgia State for a six-day road trip (Dec. 5-10).

MONTANA BASKETBALL

HEARTBREAK VS. THE HUSKIES

Montana had several chances at an additional non-conference victory over a Power-5 program, taking Washington down to the wire (Dec. 22). In the three-point loss, Montana held multiple second-half leads, including one with under 4 minutes to play.

Montana out-rebounded the Huskies, 41-27, including 20-6 on the offensive glass. The Grizzlies also had 12 assists compared to Washington's four, and converted 18 turnovers into 24 points. Washington, however, got to the free-throw line 21 times compared to just six for Montana.

DOMINANT DEFENSE

In an 18-point win over UC Irvine (Dec. 19), Montana's defense forced 15 turnovers, including three shot-clock violations and two 10-second whistles. On offense, the Grizzlies shot better than 50 percent and scored 86 points (then a season high). Afterward, Travis DeCuire said his team's performance was the best of the season, and perhaps the best he's seen his team play in his four years as head coach.

"Tonight is the first time we've put 40 minutes together on both sides of the ball," DeCuire said. "Our energy and the way we played together, and the way we executed on both sides of the ball, was incredible. I don't know that we've played this well as a group, as a unit, since I've been here."

HONORING DELVON

Prior to Montana's game vs. UC Irvine (Dec. 19), the Grizzlies recognized former player Delvon Anderson, who passed away in August at the age of 47. His family was on the court during a video ceremony and DeCuire and former UM head coach Blaine Taylor presented them with the Legend of the Game plaque – an award given to a former player or coach from each participating team in the 2017 Legends Classic tournament.

DeCuire and Anderson played together in the early 1990s and Taylor was their coach. He is Montana's winningest coach in school history (.680 winning percentage) and is now an assistant coach at UC Irvine. During Anderson's two-year career at Montana, the Grizzlies won back-to-back Big Sky Conference championships. He was the conference MVP as a senior in 1992.

Throughout the season, players have worn No. 24 warmup jerseys to honor Anderson. Additionally, a black stripe has been displayed on the left shoulder of all jerseys, recognizing Anderson and former head coach Jud Heathcote, who also passed away in August.

FINALLY A SATURDAY

Montana will play at least 11 games on Saturdays this season – more than any other day of the week. However, the Grizzlies didn't play a Saturday game until Dec. 9, a full month into the season. Only Oklahoma played more games to begin the season without a Saturday game.

GAME CANCELED

Montana was scheduled to play five teams from Power-5 conference this season, but the Grizzlies' contest at No. 23 UCLA (Dec. 6) was canceled due to wildfires that spread throughout the area and shut down UCLA's campus. The Griz held one practice at Pauley Pavilion and scheduled another at a nearby gym in Los Angeles before departing for Atlanta to take on Georgia State later in the week. Ironically, there were talks of that game being canceled as well when a rare snowstorm took over the southern region of the United States and closed Georgia State's campus.

CLUTCH RORIE

Rorie was named to the Legends Classic Malibu Region All-Tournament team (Nov. 21) after playing 75 of 80 minutes and totaling 38 points, 12 assists, seven steals and six rebounds. The all-conference performer was on full display vs. Oral Roberts, scoring a team-high 18 points, in addition to six assists and three steals. Trailing 17-16 with 8 minutes to play in the first half, Montana closed the half on a 15-6 run. Rorie had nine points and two assists during that run, contributing to six of UM's eight made field goals. He was again clutch late, knocking down both free-throw attempts with 22 seconds to play to increase Montana's lead to two possessions.

OGUINE RECOGNIZED BY COLLEGE SPORTS MADNESS

Junior guard Michael Oguine was the College Sports Madness Big Sky Player of the Week for games played Nov. 13-19. Oguine scored 29 points in a signature victory at Pitt (Nov. 13), and two days later at Penn State (Nov. 15) totaled 15 points and grabbed seven boards in a narrow loss to the Nittany Lions.

A SIGNATURE VICTORY

After coming close, but not close enough, multiple times against Power-5 teams, Montana finally got over the hump and knocked off Pitt on Nov. 13 in Pittsburgh. The win snapped Montana's 14-game losing streak against Power-5 schools and was the program's first since 2010. It marked Montana's first over a team currently in the ACC since 1966.

Montana led for nearly 24 minutes against the Panthers, including by as many as seven points. Below are key stats that led the Grizzlies to their signature victory:

- Montana forced Pitt into 19 turnovers, converting them into 30 points. Two of the turnovers were offensive charges, one taken by Karl Nicholas and another by Fabijan Krslovic. Krslovic finished with a team-most nine rebounds, two blocked shots and two steals.
- The Grizzlies held the lead for 23:46, compared to 14:07 for the Panthers.
- Montana out-rebounded Pitt, including 14-12 on the offensive glass.
- Montana overcame foul trouble – three players finished the game with four fouls – and a slow start from the free-throw line. The Grizzlies began the game just 4-for-11 from the charity stripe before finishing 12-of-14 down the stretch – including 10 makes in a row at one point – to put the game out of reach.
- After trailing by a game-most seven points, 28-21, with under 5 minutes to play in the first half, Montana closed the half on a 16-7 run to head into the intermission leading by two, 37-35.
- The Grizzlies started the game 0-for-7 from three-point range before Ahmaad Rorie hit back-to-back threes late in the first half. Bobby Moorehead followed with two more, giving the Grizzlies 12 consecutive points off of three-pointers and a 33-32 advantage.
- Trailing by four, 69-65, with under 3 minutes to play, Montana went on an 8-2 run over the next 2 minutes to take a 73-71 advantage. Oguine scored all eight points for the Griz.
- After alternating baskets to begin overtime, Montana scored to take a 79-77 lead and then held Pitt without a made field goal over its final three attempts.

PARTIAL ARRIVAL

Montana's win at Pitt (Nov. 13) was huge for the program. The Grizzlies knocked off an ACC team that had played in 13 of the last 16 NCAA tournaments entering 2017, on its home court no less. Pitt entered the contest with a 135-5 all-time mark in non-conference games at the Petersen Events Center and had never lost a home opener in the building.

"We want to win these games in November so we can win these games in March," Travis DeCuire said afterward, noting that he schedules games like these in order to prepare his team for Big Sky Conference action and, eventually, the postseason.

BIG-GAMER OGUINE

Junior guard Michael Oguine scored 29 points (then a career high) in Montana's win at Pitt (Nov. 13), but more impressive than the 29 points or team-most five assists was the fact that Oguine took over when it mattered most. He scored 16 of his points in the final 8:32 of regulation, including Montana's final 10 points overall. Trailing 67-63 with 4:32 to play, Oguine out-scored Pitt's entire team, 10-4, to give Montana a two-point lead in the final minute of regulation.

"Mike's one of those guys where when he's mad he's better," Travis DeCuire said. "If he thinks it's time to put everybody on his back, he's going to get it done. He carried us when we needed him to."

100 AND COUNTING

Nov. 13 was a special night for the Montana basketball program, but for two Grizzlies in particular.

Fabijan Krslovic played in his 100th consecutive game. The senior from Australia has played in every UM game since the start of the 2014-15 season (now 128, including 112 starts). Additionally, the game against Pitt was Travis DeCuire's 100th game as head coach. The former Griz player was 59-41 following the signature victory, the fifth-best mark through 100 games out of Montana's 25 head coaches. DeCuire has led Montana to a pair of Big Sky Conference regular-season titles (2015 and 2018) and back-to-back appearances in the conference tournament championship game (2015 and 2016).

STARTING STRONG

Montana's wins over Whitworth (Nov. 10) and Pitt (Nov. 13) gave the Grizzlies their first 2-0 start to a season since the 2009-10 squad began the year with three consecutive wins. That team finished with a 22-10 record, winning a Big Sky championship and advancing to the NCAA tournament.

WORKING OVERTIME

Montana won its first overtime game in nearly two years on Nov. 13, defeating Pitt, 83-78. Prior to that, Montana's last overtime victory was a double-overtime win at Northern Arizona on Dec. 31, 2015.

Montana picked up a second overtime win on Feb. 10, defeating Sacramento State, before falling in extra time at Idaho (Feb. 17).

HOME-OPENING SUCCESS

With Montana's win over Whitworth (Nov. 10), the Grizzlies improved to 15-3 in home openers since the turn of the century.

DEBUTING

Montana's season opener vs. Whitworth (Nov. 10) marked collegiate and UM debuts for several Grizzlies. Junior Jamar Akoh, a transfer from Cal State Fullerton, earned the start. Also seeing consistent time were freshmen Timmy Falls and Karl Nicholas. In the final minute of the game, Travis DeCuire inserted Admir Besovic, Niko Bevens and Lars Espe.

ANDERSON SIGNED

Montana signed Mack Anderson to a National Letter of Intent on Nov. 8. The Bozeman native selected Montana over offers from Montana State and Air Force, and after visiting Boise State and Denver. Anderson averaged nearly two blocks per game during the 2017 state tournament, helping Bozeman High School to a runner-up finish in Class 2A. After mostly talking with NAIA schools, Anderson burst onto the scene over the summer while playing for Montana Elite.

"I like his athleticism and agility," Travis DeCuire said. "Not very often do you get a 6-8 athlete who can run and jump and ball a little bit. We're excited about what he presents in the future."

DEFENSE WINS CHAMPIONSHPS

The offense had been clicking, but the defense needed work. That was Travis DeCuire's assessment through the first month of practices and scrimmages, leading up to Montana's exhibition contest vs. Saskatchewan (Nov. 6).

Using a newly implemented defense, DeCuire saw his team's ability to get stops, as Montana held Saskatchewan to 26 percent shooting in an 85-44 exhibition victory. Leading by just two, 25-23, with under 8 minutes to play in the first half, Montana went on a 36-4 run over the next 14 minutes – extending across both periods – and did not allow a field goal. The Huskies were 0-for-18 from the floor with 11 turnovers during that stretch. On the evening, Montana forced 12 steals and blocked a dozen shots.

STARTING THEM YOUNG

Montana is one of 11 NCAA Division I schools nationally to have at least nine newcomer and just one senior.

DORSEY TO MISS SEASON

Junior Donaven Dorsey, who redshirted in 2016-17 after transferring from the University of Washington, suffered a pair of hip injuries that required separate surgeries in the fall. Dorsey played in 55 games over two seasons with the Huskies, earning eight starts. He totaled 166 points and 77 rebounds.

PICKED TO FINISH 3RD

Montana was picked to finish third by both the coaches and media. The Grizzlies were slotted to finish behind Idaho and Weber State in both polls.

TEAM BONDING IN COSTA RICA

The Grizzlies got a head start to the basketball season, taking a foreign tour to Costa Rica in early August. The NCAA allows for teams to participate in such trips once every four years. The trip was beneficial in several facets. In addition to key bonding time – being in a foreign country with your teammates and being able to partake in several activities, including pool time and a zip line through a jungle – and service initiatives – the team spent a day at an orphanage, playing sports with the children and reading to them – the team also competed in a pair of scrimmages and was allotted 10 practices in Missoula leading up to the trip.

The tour allowed for Travis DeCuire to introduce concepts to his team – particularly the newcomers – much earlier than he usually would, and noted that the team was ahead of where they normally were early in fall camp.

RETURNING TALENT

The Grizzlies returned three of their four consistent starters from 2016-17, in addition to a pair of guards – Sayeed Pridgett and Bobby Moorehead – who each started roughly one-third of last year's contests. In total, Montana returned the majority of its production in all aspects of the game, bringing back its top two scorers, and four of its top five. On the other end of the floor, Montana had six players with 90 or more rebounds a year ago; five of them are on this year's roster.

TRAVIS DECUIRE

Head Coach | Fourth Season | Montana, 1994

In his first two seasons as the University of Montana's 27th men's head basketball coach, Travis DeCuire accomplished something no other coach in UM history had: he posted two 20-win seasons in his first two seasons.

Now entering the fourth season at his alma mater, DeCuire is once again poised to put the Grizzlies back on the road to a 20-win campaign.

DeCuire (pronounced: dee-CURE) was formally introduced as the Grizzlies' head basketball coach in June 2014, at a press conference at UM's Adams Center after the initial announcement from UM's Director of Athletics Kent Haslam in May of that year.

In his first season at the helm of a program with a rich history of success, DeCuire's Griz started the year picked to finish eighth in the conference. Led by future European professional Jordan Gregory, UM would go on to defy expectations and win the Big Sky regular-season championship and advance to the National Invitational Tournament (NIT) before finishing the season 20-13 (14-4 BSC).

At the time, he became only the second coach in UM history to notch 20 victories in his first season at the helm – a feat also accomplished by Blaine Taylor in 1991-92 (27-4).

In DeCuire's second year, he followed up with another 20-win season and another trip to the Big Sky championship game, this time led by future European professional Martin Breunig. DeCuire's Grizzlies would once again advance to the postseason, competing in the first round of the CBI tournament against Nevada, finishing with a 21-12 (14-4 BSC) record.

Paced by 10 underclassmen and just two seniors who played significant time, the Grizzlies went 16-16 (11-7 BSC) in 2016-17, earning a first-round bye in the Big Sky tournament. During the season, DeCuire became the second-fastest UM head coach to reach 50 wins (doing so in 84 contests). He coached a pair of UM sophomores – both returning in 2017-18 – to All-Big Sky Conference recognition.

The 2016-17 season was also the second consecutive year in which the Grizzlies have posted a team grade-point average above 3.0, earning NABC Team Academic Excellence recognition both seasons.

Prior to returning to his alma mater as head coach, DeCuire spent six seasons (2008-09 through 2013-14) on the University of California coaching staff – including the final four as associate head coach. Regarded as one of the top tutors in the game, DeCuire helped former Montana mentor Mike Montgomery – a member of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame – transform Cal into one of the winningest programs in the Pac-12 during his time in Berkeley. The Bears reached the postseason all six years he was on the staff, including the NCAA tournament four times. The Golden Bears boasted 130 wins in his six seasons – the best six-year stretch in school history – winning the 2010 Pac-10 championship. He coached numerous all-conference selections, including conference players of the year Jerome Randle (2010) and Jorge Gutierrez (2012).

DeCuire he spent five seasons (2003-04 through 2007-08) as an assistant coach at Old Dominion, under former Griz head coach and player Blaine Taylor. There, he helped the Monarchs to a combined record of 117-53. The mark included 94 wins during his final four seasons – the most in school history over a four-year stretch. ODU reached the postseason each of those four seasons and advanced to the NCAA tournament in both 2005 and 2007 – winning a school-record 28 contests in 2005. Additionally, the Monarchs reached the NIT semifinals in 2006 and the quarterfinals of the College Basketball Invitational in 2008.

DeCuire, from Seattle, Wash., also has head coaching experience from stints at Sammamish High School and Green River Community College in Washington. At GRCC, DeCuire took over a last-place program and guided it to a conference championship and its first 20-win season in more than 20 years, earning league coach-of-the-year honors in 2003 – his second season. At Sammamish High School in Bellevue, DeCuire led his team to a pair of conference titles, a state tournament appearance and three consecutive trips to the district tournament.

As a point guard for Montana from 1992-94 DeCuire was named All-Big Sky Conference as a junior and senior. He set a school record in just three seasons with 435 career assists. He also established UM's single-season mark with 199 assists as a senior in 1993-94, when he was ranked 12th in the nation, averaging 7.1 assists a game. He was the recipient of the Grizzlies' Carl Dragstedt Award (MVP) as a junior and senior, and received the John Eheart Award (Outstanding Defensive Player) following his senior year.

As a freshman at Chaminade-Hawaii, he was a starter and team MVP in 1990. He then transferred to Montana and redshirted in 1991. DeCuire attended Mercer Island High School (Wash.), where he was a three-year starter and all-state, team MVP, and a McDonald's All-America honorable mention pick as a senior.

He has a strong commitment to community service and founded and acted as president of the Fastbreak Basketball Association – an organization that assists in teaching life lessons and building self-esteem through basketball to more than 500 students in the Seattle-Tacoma area. Additionally, he has extensive experience in counseling at the Echo Glen Children's Center in Snoqualmie, Wash., from 1996-98, and with the Ryther Children's Center in North Seattle, from 1995-97.

DeCuire graduated from Montana in 1994 with a degree in business marketing. He and his wife, Sabrina, have two daughters – Brianna (24) and Tamia (5).
