NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION WILLIAM V. CAMPBELL TROPHY

Known as the "Academic Heisman" the William V. Campbell Trophy has become one of the most prestigious and desirable awards in college football. The trophy recognizes an individual as the absolute best in the country for his academic success, football performance and exemplary leadership.

Named in honor of the late William V. Campbell, the former chairman of Intuit, former player and head coach at Columbia University and the 2004 recipient of the NFF's Gold Medal, semifinalists are selected by the NFF Awards Committee in October. Finalists and the Campbell Trophy winner are all honored at the NFF Annual Awards Dinner in December at the Hilton Midtown in New York City. Each finalist receives an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship as a member of the NFF National Scholar-Athlete Class.

Nominated by their schools, which are limited to one nominee each, candidates must be:

- A senior or graduate student in their final year of eligibility
- Have a grade point average of at least 3.2 on a 4.0 scale
- Have outstanding football ability as a first team player
- Have demonstrated strong leadership and citizenship

NFF HAMPSHIRE HONORS SOCIETY

The NFF Hampshire Honors Society recognizes players from around the nation at all levels of college football who maintained a cumulative 3.2 GPA or better throughout their college careers.

Montana is one of only 29 colleges and universities nationwide that have had at least one player recognized in each of the Hampshire Society's existence since its inception in 2007.

"We've always believed that success on the field and success in the classroom go hand in hand. The NFF Hampshire Society is important in that it allows us to recognize the hard work these men put into their studies."

"It helps promote better all-around student -athletes and better citizens. We are proud to have had a Grizzly enter the NFF Hampshire Society in each of its 13 years, and we look forward to celebrating our academic achievements into the future."
