PREVIEW

The Montana men's basketball team continues its Midwest road trip on Monday night by facing Kansas State in Manhattan. It's the first meeting between the Grizzlies and Wildcats since 1978 as the Griz look to get their first Big 12 win under head coach Travis DeCuire.

The game will tip off at 6:00 p.m. (MT) and will be streamed on ESPN+ with Ben Boyle and Clent Stewart on the call. The "Voice of the Griz" Riley Corcoran will have the radio coverage on KGVO and the Varsity Network App.

Montana will have some momentum on their side following a come-from-behind win at North Dakota on Saturday night. The game was played under unusual circumstances, but the Grizzlies were able to overcome travel delays, power outages, and more for an 80-71 win.

Jordan Clark had his best day as a Grizzly to help seal the win, scoring 27 points on 7-of-10 shooting. He went a perfect 8-for-8 at the free throw line in the performance.

The Griz trailed by 11 points inside of 10 minutes to go, but Coach DeCuire and company were able to adjust defensively and go on a 17-2 run to take the lead. Montana had 43 rebounds, including 14 on the offensive end, as they won the battle on the boards by 18.

It led to 13 second chance points and 28 points in the paint for Montana as they pulled back to .500 on the year at 2-2. Garret Dutro led the Griz with eight rebounds. Tyler Thompson joined Clark in double figure scoring with 15 points.

Kansas State has had nearly a week off following an 89-82 win over Creighton on Nov. 10. The Wildcats, under first year head coach Casey Alexander, are 2-1 on the season with all three games coming at home.

GRIZ VS. THE BIG 12
This is just the third meeting between Montana and a Big 12 opponent in the Travis DeCuire era. DeCuire is 0-2 against the league with losses at Houston in 2023 and at Kansas in 2015.

Montana is 0-6 all-time against teams from the Big 12 Conference since the league was formed in 1994.

UP NEXT
Montana returns home on Nov. 23 to play against Carroll College. It's the only home game for Montana in a seven-game stretch.

GRIZ NOTES

• The Griz came back from 11 points down on Saturday night for the win. It's the largest come-from-behind win for Montana since Feb. 7, 2026 when they beat Idaho after trailing by 13.
• Montana outrebounded North Dakota by 18 on Saturday night. It's the best rebounding margin for UM against a D1 opponent since Dec. 17, 2023 when they outrebounded San Jose State 44-24.
• Jordan Clark led Montana in scoring for the second time this season in the North Dakota win. The Grizzlies have had four different players lead or co-lead the team in scoring.
• The Griz snapped a six-game losing streak on the road with Saturday's win.
• Kenyon Aguino is still out injured for Montana. The sophomore is expected to be a starter this season after starting all 34 games in 2025-26 as a freshman.
• Montana is one of the least experienced teams in the country in terms of D-1 experience. The Griz roster averages just 0.63 years, which ranks 333rd.
• The return of Kenyon Aguino will help, but Montana's current roster has an average height of 76.4", which ranks 327th in D-I basketball. The average roster height is 77.5", according to KenPom.

125 YEARS OF GRIZ BASKETBALL

This season marks 125 years of collegiate basketball at the University of Montana. The first known basketball game at the University was played on an outdoor court south of the old science hall on campus. Montana's team of Collegiates lost 18-11 to the Preps.

IMPRESSIVE DEBUTS

The backcourt duo of Jalen Brown and Jordan Clark made quite a splash in the season opening loss at Oregon. Brown and Clark each scored 19 points in their first games in Griz uniforms.

They join Kai Johnson (27), Ahmaad Rorie (21), and Money Williams (19) as the only players with at least 19 points in their debut under Coach DeCuire.

DeCUIRE IN NOVEMBER

Coach DeCuire is 36-43 overall in the month of November as Montana's head coach. The results have varied greatly depending on the location of the game. DeCuire is 28-6 at home in the first month of the season, but just 4-33 in true road games during the month.

Last season, Montana won 102-93 at UNLV on Nov. 11. The win snapped a 21-game road losing streak in the month of November as Montana has typically played against Power 4 schools during the early stages of the season.

FAMILIAR NON-CONFERENCE OPPONENTS

Scheduling is always a difficult task for a Montana team that has thrived over the last decade-plus with Coach DeCuire at the helm. The Grizzly mentor has established some scheduling connections with certain schools, and that has helped him when putting together the 2026-27 non-conference schedule.

Montana will play nine D-I opponents this year and seven of them are teams that DeCuire has played against already in his time in Missoula. Oregon is the 2nd most common non-conference opponent for DeCuire. He has played in Eugene six times.

North Dakota, San Francisco and South Dakota are all on the schedule for the 4th time in the DeCuire era. That's tied for the 3rd most of any team. DeCuire has only played seven teams four or more times in the non-conference, and four of those seven are on the schedule this year.

This will be DeCuire's third meeting against Pepperdine and second against both Cal Poly and Utah State. Arizona State and Kansas State are the only D-I teams on the schedule that DeCuire has never coached against.

DeCUIRE ENTERS YEAR 13

Head coach Travis DeCuire has had unprecedented success as the head coach of the Griz-zlies, and he has also had unique longevity for a program like Montana. DeCuire's current stint of 13 years is the longest consecutive run by a single coach in program history.

He trails only George 'Jiggs' Dahlberg in years coached, but Dahlberg split his career into two stretches. DeCuire's stretch is the longest since the program began in 1901.

DeCuire is one of the winningest active coaches in the NCAA at his current institution. His 244 wins from 2014-26 rank 31st nationally among head coaches at their current schools. Of those 31, DeCuire ranks 15th in wins per season at 20.3.

DeCuire's .619 winning percentage is the best among all active Big Sky head coaches.

His teams have been .500 or better in all 12 seasons and he's had six 20-win years. In a line-age of great coaches, he has more 20-win seasons than any previous Grizzly mentor.

DeCUIRE TIES DURHAM
Montana head coach Travis DeCuire has 246 career wins. The win at North Dakota tied DeCuire with Montana State's Mick Durham for the second most wins by a Big Sky Conference coach in the league's history.

Durham won 246 games in 16 seasons from 1990-2006 in Bozeman.

Weber State's Randy Rahe is the league's all-time winningest coach with 316 victories in 16 seasons in Ogden.

DOMINANCE IN THE DeCUIRE ERA
Since head coach Travis DeCuire took over in Missoula back in 2014, things have been good for Griz fans. The team has not suffered through a single losing season while making three NCAA Tournaments.

Here are some of Montana's accomplishments and national ranks from 2014 to the start of this year:

- 244 total wins, most in the Big Sky and 63rd nationally
- .619 winning percentage, best in the Big Sky and 60th nationally
- 150 regular season conference wins, most in the Big Sky and 19th nationally
- 20 conference tournament wins, most in the Big Sky and t-12th nationally
- 0 losing seasons, 1st in Big Sky and t-1st nationally
- .792 home winning percentage, 2nd in Big Sky and 48th nationally
- 141 home wins, most in the Big Sky and t-83rd nationally
- 79 away wins, 2nd in Big Sky and t-34th nationally
- .472 field goal percentage, best in the Big Sky and 8th nationally
- .743 free throw percentage, 2nd in the Big Sky and 11th nationally

PICKED FOURTH IN THE PRESEASON POLLS
Montana was picked to finish 4th in the league by both the league's head coaches and media. The Grizzlies were tied with Portland State in the Coaches' Poll with 73 points. They were ahead of the Vikings in the Media Poll with 254 points.

The Grizzlies have been picked inside the top four every year since DeCuire's very first in charge back in 2014-15.

Montana State, Northern Colorado, and Eastern Washington went 1-2-3 in that order in both polls.

NO PRESEASON ALL-BIG SKY PICKS
For just the second time since the honor was created in 2015-16, Montana did not have a player named to the Preseason All-Big Sky team. The only other year was in 2021-22. Montana has had 11 Preseason All-Conference picks overall.

SEASON OPENER HISTORY
Under Coach DeCuire, Montana is 7-6 in season opening games. The result has always depended on the location of the game, which typically also reveals the quality of opponent for Montana.

The Grizzlies are 7-0 when opening the season at home under DeCuire. They are 0-6 when starting the season on the road after a loss at Oregon this year.

COACHING HIS ALMA MATER
Coach DeCuire is one of 47 coaches in NCAA Division I basketball that played at the school he is coaching. DeCuire is one of just 12 men to reach the NCAA Tournament with their alma mater as both a player (1992) and a coach (2018, 2019, 2025).

THE .500 STREAK
Montana is one of just 14 teams in the entire country that has been .500 or better in 18 straight seasons. It's a remarkable accomplishment and shows the consistency and great-ness in the program.

The Grizzlies have reached 20 wins nine times in the previous 15 years, and have reached the 20 win mark 25 times in program history.

Montana has had just one losing season in the last 20 years, and they have also had just five losing seasons in the previous half century. Since 1970, Montana has gone .500 or better 48 times.

SCOUTING THE WILDCATS

- The Wildcats lost their season opener at home 68-66 to South Dakota State. Since then, they have won consecutive games over CSUN (95-78) and Creighton (89-82).
- This is the fourth straight home game for the Wildcats. They start the season with five straight home games and don't play a true road game until Dec. 4 at Seton Hall.
- Head coach Casey Alexander is in his first season at Kansas State. He has a 305-181 (.628) career record with stops at Stetson, Lipscomb, and Belmont.
- K-State averages 83.3 points per game while giving up 76.0. The 7.3 scoring margin ranks 182nd in the NCAA.
- The 3-point line is key for Kansas State. They score nearly 47 percent of their points from beyond the arc, the 5th highest percentage in the country. They are 12th int eh country in made threes with 13.0 per game.
- Ball control has been a problem early for the Wildcats. They rank 316th out of 361 teams with a -3.3 turnover margin.
- Brandon Rechsteiner ranks 15th in the NCAA in scoring this season, averaging 22.7 points per game. Rechsteiner is making over five 3-pointers per game, ranking second in the NCAA in that category. He is shooting 42.1 percent from 3-point range on the year.
- Isaiah Braham is the only other Wildcat averaging double figures. He scores 12.0 points per game.
- Last year, the Wildcats went 12-20 and finished 3-15 in Big 12 play.
- The Wildcats tied for 14th in the Preseason Coaches' Poll.

AGUINO GOES 34/34
Freshman Kenyon Aguino set a program record last season by starting all 34 of Montana's contests. The 34 starts are the most in program history by a freshman and his 798 total minutes rank 8th in program history.

Aguino scored 287 points to rank 5th on the freshman lists and added 143 rebounds, which was also 5th most by a freshman.
He was also 5th in program history for freshmen in field goals made (108) and field goal percentage (.554).

THOMPSON SETS FRESHMAN RECORD
Tyler Thompson set a Montana freshman record last season, a somewhat confusing fact given that he now is classified as a junior with the recent NCAA changes to the 5-in-5 eligibility model.

Thompson made 69 three-pointers, breaking Gary Kane's record of 68 from the 1990-91 season. Thompson also had the fourth-best three-point percentage by a freshman (min. 50 3PA) in program history at .401 (69/172).

Thompson played the 2nd most minutes (967) by a freshman in program history, trailing only Michael Oguine at 1,010. He appeared in 33 games, starting all of them to rank second in both categories.

He was also top 10 in PPG (8.4, t10th) and total rebounds (132, t8th).

100% START RATE
Over 700 men have worn the Montana jersey over the last century-plus of Grizzly basketball. In all that time, only nine players have ever started every single game of their career.

Kenyon Aguino (34/34) and Tyler Thompson (33/33) both are part of that group after freshman seasons that saw them start every single game.

The other seven players are Jamar Akoh, Martin Breunig, Aanen Moody, Joe Pridgen, Ahmaad Rorie, Dischon Thomas, and Matt Williams.

ADDING AN ALL-AMERICAN
Montana added an NABC Division II All-American to its roster this offseason in Jalen Brown. He made a big impact in his lone season at Cal State Dominguez Hills, averaging 15.3 points, 4.0 rebounds, and 2.1 assists per game for the Toros.

Brown has over 1,000 career points after spending his first two collegiate seasons at Regis University in Denver, Colo.

He is one of nine players from last year's D-II All-American Team to make the jump to the D-I level this season. The others are Jeremiah Anderson (Merrimack), Terry Coner Jr. (Cal Baptist), Dallis Dillard (Temple), Tameron Ferguson (Arkansas State), Cam Lowe (Wofford), Amondo Miller Jr. (Colorado State), Zach Philipkoski (St. Bonaventure), and Pace Prosser (Siena).

FATHER/SON CONNECTION
Connor Dick enters his fourth season for the Montana men's basketball team. He is continuing a family legacy established by his dad, Ryan, who played for Montana from 1994-98.

Ryan Dick appeared in 92 games and ranks in the top 10 in program history for career offensive rebounds with 182. He averaged 7.8 points and 5.4 rebounds in his career. Connor's sister Lauren also played collegiately at Montana for the Lady Griz.

Connor has played in 44 games in his career, averaging 1.6 points and 1.2 rebounds, but is expected to take on a larger role this season.

MONTANA SEASON OPENING NOTES
• Montana starts the season ranks 243rd in KenPom. It's the lowest ranking for the pro-gram since DeCuire's first season in 2014-15 when they were ranked 265. The Griz-zlies went on to win the Big Sky that year.
• Zero players were selected to the Preseason All-Big Sky Conference team this year. It's just the second time since the honor was created in 2015-16 that Montana has not had a Preseason All-Conference player on the roster. The other instance was in 2021-22.
• Montana has at least eight newcomers on the roster for the fifth straight season. They have seven transfers and three true freshman this year, the 2nd largest transfer class in program history.
• The Grizzlies return 40 percent of their starts from last season and 33.0 percent of their minutes. The biggest losses will be in points and assists where they return just 27.1% and 20.6% from last season with the departure of Money Williams.
• Head coach Travis DeCuire needs just six more wins to reach 250 in his career. He's already the program's leader in wins and would be just the second Big Sky head coach to ever reach the mark.
• The last time Montana and Arizona State met was on Dec. 21, 1976. Griz Hall of Famer and NBA star Michael Ray Richardson was playing for the Grizzlies at the time.

HOME OPENER SUCCESS
The Grizzlies have won the previous nine home openers dating back to 2016 and are 11-1 in the first home game of the season under Travis DeCuire. They have outscored opponents 997-670 in the 12 years, winning by an average margin of 27.3 points per game.

Montana is 23-3 in home openers this century. The three losses have come by a combined eight points. This is the 9th home opener against a non-D1 opponent that the Griz have played under DeCuire.

CALIFORNIA CONNECTION
Montana once again has a heavy California presence on the roster in 2026-27. The Grizzlies have seven players hailing from the Golden State. There have now been 79 total players from California to play for the Grizzlies in program history, the second most of any state.

Montana has the most Grizzlies in program history with Connor Dick being the 357th.

BIG SHOES TO FILL
Montana has to replace Money Williams this season after the guard transferred to Boston College this summer. Williams scored 699 points, averaging 20.6 per game. It's the third most points in a single season in program history and most since Larry Krystkowiak scored 709 in 1985-86.

Williams led Montana in scoring 25 times, assists 23 times, and minutes 16 times.

He also led Montana in rebounding 11 times, steals 11 times, and blocks 7 times last season.

TOURNAMENT SUCCESS
Montana reached the Big Sky Championship game in 2026 for the third consecutive season as their track record of postseason success continued both under DeCuire and in program history.

The Grizzlies won a Big Sky record 12th tournament championship in 2025 and are 53-34 all-time at the conference tournament. The 53 Big Sky Tournament wins are the most by any program in league history.

DeCuire is 20-8 at the Big Sky Tournament in his career. He has more wins at the conference tournament in his tenure than Idaho, Northern Colorado, Portland State, and Sacramento State do in their program's histories.

In the last 12 years, DeCuire has reached the championship game seven times. He is one of just six coaches nationally to reach that many title games with the same school since 2014.

TRACKING TRANSFERS
In the new era of college basketball, Coach DeCuire hasn't shied away from bringing in transfers to his team. Montana has seven transfers this season after bringing in six in 2025 and a program-record eight in 2024.

BRITISH BASKETBALL
Clayton Mpiana is just the second player in Montana history from England. The transfer big man was born in Birmingham, UK and joins Jonathan Brown (London, 2022-23) as the only British players in program history.

BAY AREA BOYS
Montana has a strong connection to the Bay Area and the state of California. Nearly half of Montana's roster is from California with seven players hailing from the Golden State. The Grizzlies have two players from the Bay Area in Tyler Thompson (Fairfield) and Courtney Anderson Jr. (Vallejo).

Jalen Brown (Salinas) and Garret Dutro (Auburn) will have family in driving distance to the game with three other Grizzlies from Southern California.

Staff members Mikey Eggleton and Brian Morgan are also originally from the Bay Area, while DeCuire coached at Cal in Berkley for six seasons.

NEW-LOOK BENCH
The Grizzly sideline will have a much different look in 2026-27 with the departure of two of the longest serving assistants in the country. Chris Cobb, associate head coach for 10 years and an assistant on every DeCuire staff since 2014, departed for the same role at Saint Mary's in the offseason.

Assistant coach Jay Flores, who spent 10 years at Montana, left for UC Davis this August. The top two assistants from the previous decade will now be gone, leaving DeCuire with a new-look staff for 2026-27.

Rachi Wortham and Ryan Frazer return this year. It's Wortham's second year back with Mon-tana and 5th overall after spending 2016-19 with the Grizzlies, winning two Big Sky titles. Fra-zer returns for his second year.

Brian Morgan, now in his second season, has been promoted to Director of Basketball Op-erations.

Mikey Eggleton joins the Grizzly coaching staff following eight years at Cal State East Bay. Last year, Eggleton helped the Pioneers to a 33-1 record and the No. 2 ranking in the final D-II NABC Poll of the season.

DEUCE RETURNS
Tyler Thompson wore the #4 in his first two seasons at Montana with Chase Henderson wearing the #2 jersey. Henderson departed this offseason, opening the #2 uniform up for Thompson to make the change.

Nicknamed "Deuce," Thompson should be more comfortable on the floor this year not only because of his experience as a freshman, but also because he's back in his preferred number.

NOTE ON NUMBERS
For the first time in program history, Montana does not have a player with a jersey number in the 30s. The NCAA rule change prior to the 2024-25 season allowing players to wear num-bers ending in 6-9 has changed the look of the Grizzly roster.

Kenyon Aguino, #24, has the highest jersey number on the team. Seven Pridgen is also the first player in program history to wear #9.

The number that has been active for the longest consecutive streak is #0. It has been worn every season since 2016-17 when Michael Oguine switched to it for his sophomore season. Since then, Kyle Owens (2019-22), Rhett Reynolds (2022-23), and Money Williams (2023-26) have worn it. Jalen Brown takes it over this year.

TEAMMATES AGAIN
There is some built in chemistry with newcomers Jalen Brown and Josiah Sanders. The duo starred for Cal State Dominguez Hills last season with both players earning First Team All-CCAA.

The Toros went 22-9 on the year, reaching the NCAA West Regionals where they fell 76-67 in the Semifinals to the No. 1 team in the country Cal State East Bay.

Brown averaged 15.6 points per game and Sanders averaged 14.5 points and 6.1 rebounds.

GRIZZLY BROTHERS
Griz fans were delighted by the addition of Seven Pridgen this offseason. How could they not be energized by the addition of the little brother of a former First Team All-Conference pick and Big Sky Champion?

Seven follows his brother Joe to Missoula. They are the 17th set of brothers to play for the Grizzlies, joining:
- Mark and Max Agather, Libby (1967-69)
- Dave and Eugene Clawson, Missoula (1939-46)
- George, Alfred, and Oscar Dahlberg, Butte (1922-34)
- Al and Darroll Dunham, Shelby (1954-49)

CHERRY ENTERS THE HALL OF FAME

Montana basketball legend Will Cherry entered the Grizzly Sports Hall of Fame this fall. Cherry was a fan favorite during his playing days from 2009-13, winning three Big Sky tournament titles and playing in three NCAA Touranments.

Cherry ranks 12th in program history with 1,484 points, 6th in assists with 397, and is the all-time leader in steals with 265.

WINNING WAYS

- Montana is one of 13 schools nationally to post a .500 or better record in 18 consecutive seasons (Arizona, Baylor, Belmont, Cincinnati, Duke, Gonzaga, Kansas, Michigan State, Montana, Saint Mary's, San Diego State, Vermont, VCU). Head Coach Travis DeCuire has never had a losing season at Montana.
- Over the last three years, Montana has gone 67-38 (.638). It's the most wins by a Big Sky team in that span and 53rd most nationally.
- Under Coach DeCuire, UM is 244-150 (.619). It's tied for 63rd in the country in wins during those 12 years. The Griz have more wins than notable programs Illinois, Indiana, and Syracuse during DeCuire's tenure.

CHAMPIONSHIP CULTURE

- Montana has won more Big Sky tournament titles than any other school (12). The Grizzlies also have won the regular-season title 13 times.
- From 1991-2026, all but one class of four-year players has won a Big Sky Championship.
- Montana has now won six regular-season Big Sky titles in the past 15 seasons. The Griz have finished outside of the top five in the Big Sky just once since 2004.
- Montana has won 20 Big Sky Tournament games under Coach DeCuire since 2014-15. It's six more wins than any other Big Sky team, and tied for the 12th most conference tournament wins in the country. The Griz have reached three straight title game and seven total under DeCuire
- Since the Big Sky moved the tournament to a neutral site, Montana is 18-7 (.720) with three conference titles. In the Boise era (2019-pres.), Montana is tied with Montana State for wins with 13.

DANCING IN MARCH

- Montana has played in the NCAA Tournament 13 times, and has three appearances under Coach DeCuire.
- The Grizzlies' first NCAA Tournament appearance came in 1975, earning a win over Utah State in the Round-of-32 before narrowly falling to John Wooden's final national championship team at UCLA. Montana also earned an NCAA Tournament win in 2006, knocking off No. 5 seed Nevada.
- Montana has played in the NCAA Tournament six times in the last 17 seasons.
- The Grizzlies have played in the NIT four times and CBI twice.
- The Griz won a game at the 2024 CBI Tournament. It was the first postseason victory since 2006.

GRIZ HISTORY

- Notable former head coaches include College Basketball Hall of Famers Jud Heathcote and Mike Montgomery, in addition to Montana alums Blaine Taylor, Larry Krystkowiak and Wayne Tinkle.
- Krystkowiak is Montana's all-time leading scorer (2,017) and rebounder (1,105). He is one of 123 Division-I players in NCAA history with more than 2,000 career points and 1,000 career rebounds.
- Montana has had seven NBA Draft picks, including first-round selections Michael Ray Richardson and Lee Johnson. Currently, more than a dozen former players are playing professionally overseas. At least 75 players total have continued their playing careers after college.
- Coach DeCuire is the winningest coach in program history with 244 wins. His head coach at Montana, Blaine Taylor, has the best winning percentage at .680 in seven seasons from 1991-98.
- DeCuire is also second in program history for assists with 435 in three seasons. He coached Brandon Whitney, the current record holder, from 2020-25.

Head coach Travis DeCuire, now in his 13th season as head coach of the Montana men's basketball program, has etched his name permanently into the Grizzlies' record book. DeCuire is the program's all-time winningest coach and the former Griz player has led Montana to four Big Sky Conference regular-season championships (2015, 2018, 2019, 2025), three Big Sky Tournament titles (2018, 2019, 2025), and three NCAA Tournament berths (2018, 2019, 2025).

In a lineage of historic coaches, DeCuire (pronounced: duh-CURE) is the only one to lead Montana to four Big Sky regular-season titles, winning in 2015 – his first season – despite Montana being picked eighth in the preseason poll, and going back-to-back in 2018 and 2019. That dominant two-year stretch saw the Grizzlies win regular-season and tournament titles both years, winning a school-record 52 games over the two seasons. He was named coach of the year by the Big Sky and NABC District 6 in 2018.

He added to his legacy in a major way in 2025 by winning his fourth regular season title and third tournament title. The 2024-25 team went 25-10 and 15-3 in Big Sky play. DeCuire received his second Big Sky Coach of the Year honor as a result.

DeCuire's 244-150 record (.619 winning percentage) entering the 2026-27 season is historic on many levels. In 2025, he passed George 'Jiggs' Dahlberg, the man whom the arena is named after, for the most wins in program history. In January 2022, DeCuire passed College Basketball Hall of Famer Mike Montgomery and his predecessor, Wayne Tinkle, on the school's all-time wins lists.

He also had his sixth 20-win season in charge of Montana in 2025, moving him past Tinkle for the most in program history. DeCuire has never had a losing season in 11 years at the helm.

On a conference level, DeCuire is the Big Sky's active leader for wins, owning a 150-69 league mark (.684 winning percentage), including a .500 or better record against all but one Big Sky opponent. His 244 overall wins rank 3rd in Big Sky history. His 150 Big Sky wins rank second all-time, trailing only Weber State's Randy Rahe at 198.

DeCuire was the fastest coach in league history to win 50 Big Sky games, needing just 65 games to do so, and the second-fastest to 100 wins.

Montana has had a winning record each season under DeCuire, including six 20-win seasons and six postseason berths (2018 NCAA, 2019 NCAA, 2015 NIT, 2016 CBI, 2024 CBI, 2025 NCAA). At the Big Sky tournament, DeCuire has produced an impressive 20-8 record, including seven appearances in the title game and a league-record eight straight wins from 2018 through 2021.

DeCuire has coached 11 first-team All-Big Sky selections, in addition to nine second-team honorees, plus the Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year, Freshman of the Year, Newcomer of the Year (twice), Top Reserve (three times) and tournament MVP (three times). He has developed four of the top nine scorers in school history in Sayeed Pridgett, Ahmaad Rorie, Michael Oguine, and Brandon Whitney.

He has coached 10 of Montana's 39 1,000-point scorers in his time in Missoula. In addition to the previously mentioned quartet, he has also coached Jordan Gregory, Josh Bannan, Martin Breunig, Aanen Moody, Money Williams, and Te'Jon Sawyer as they reached 1,000 career points. Moody and Breunig were able to achieve this historic feat in just two seasons under DeCuire.

Williams was the Big Sky Preseason MVP in 2025-26 and put together one of the most prolific seasons in program history, averaging 20.6 points per game (5th most in a single season in program history) and 160 assists (7th most in UM history).

Whitney, the 2025 Big Sky Tournament MVP, eclipsed Coach DeCuire's own school record for career assists. DeCuire mentored his point guard to 443 career assists, which broke DeCuire's record of 435. He finished his five-year career with 1,620 points, breaking the Big Sky Conference's all-time record for minutes played with 4,754 minutes.

Rorie, the 2019 Big Sky tournament MVP, reached 1,500 career points faster than any player in Montana history, doing so in his third season with the program. Oguine was the 2018 tournament MVP and league's top defender, and finished his career ranked in the top 10 for scoring, steals and games started.

Pridgett was a two-time All-Big Sky first-team selection who finished his career ranked fourth for career scoring, sixth for steals and in the top 15 for assists and rebounds. DeCuire also coached big man Martin Breunig, a two-time first-team all-league pick, and Jordan Gregory, who earned first-team honors in 2015.

Josh Bannan earned first-team honors in 2023 and second-team in 2022 before leaving Montana to go pro prior to his senior season and establishing himself immediately as one of the top players in the highly competitive NBL in his native Australia.

Aanen Moody, a transfer from Southern Utah, scored 1,040 points in just two years at Montana, averaging 16.8 per game as a senior while leading Montana to 24 wins and a Big Sky Championship appearance.

Joe Pridgen left a massive mark on Montana basketball in his lone season with the Grizzlies. Pridgen earned first-team All-Big Sky honors after averaging 11.5 points and 6.8 rebounds per game.

Off the court, DeCuire proudly boasts a 100-percent graduation rate, in addition to earning the NABC Team Academic Award seven times (2016, 2017, 2020, 2021, 2022, 2023, and 2025). DeCuire has mentored two of Montana's eight Academic All-Americans in Gregory (2015) and Josh Bannan (2022, 2023).

Also off the court, multiple team conversations about social and racial injustices led to action in 2020, including 100-percent voter registration, a solidarity message on the backs of each jersey and the launch of a Free Little Library on campus. The library, which was funded and established by the men's basketball program, features minority-themed literature that the community can freely take from or add to.

2025-26: Montana reached the Big Sky Championship game for the seventh time under coach DeCuire, beating Northern Colorado in the quarterfinal before upsetting No. 1 seed Portland State in the semifinals. They swept the season series over the regular season champion Vikings, going 3-0 against them. Montana fell in the title game in Boise to Idaho. Williams' season finished in the top 10 in program history for total points (699, 3rd) and assists (160, 7th), earning unanimous First Team All-Big Sky honors. He scored 40 points in a Big Sky quarterfinal win over Northern Colorado, the fourth most in a Big Sky Tournament game in league history. The Grizzlies also had two freshmen set records in Kenyon Aguino and Tyler Thompson. Aguino started 34 games, more than any other freshman in program history, while scoring 287 points, the 5th most by a freshman in UM history. Thompson set the freshman record for three-pointers with 69 while starting the second-most games as a freshman at 33.

2024-25: The Grizzlies returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in six years after a 22-9 regular season that saw them share the regular season Big Sky title. Montana won 10 straight games during league play and finished at 15-3 to earn the No. 2 seed in Boise. They defeated NAU, Idaho, and No. 1 seed UNC in the tournament to punch a ticket to March Madness for the third time under DeCuire. The 25 wins were tied for the 6th most in a season in program history, and the 49 total wins over the previous two seasons is the fourth-best stretch in program history. DeCuire was named Big Sky Coach of the Year for the second time in his career and had sophomore guard Money Williams named Top Reserve. Joe Pridgen was a first-team All-Big Sky selection and a trio of Grizzlies (Williams, Malik Moore, Brandon Whitney) were all named second-team. Whitney (MVP), Williams, and Kai Johnson were all named to the All-Tournament team. The Griz ranked 4th in the NCAA in field goal percentage (49.8) and finished the season ranked 143 in the NET.

2023-24: Montana won a postseason game for just the second time in program history as the Griz reached the quarterfinals of the CBI. The 24 wins were tied for eighth-most in program history as DeCuire led his team to the Big Sky title game for the fifth time in 10 seasons. The Grizzlies were 12-6 in Big Sky play to finish in a tie for second, and built much of their success around a terrific offense that set a program record for total points with 2,768. Aanen Moody earned first-team All-Conference honors and reached the 1,000-point mark as a Grizzly, while Brandon Whitney and Dischon Thomas also scored their 1,000th collegiate points during the year.

2022-23: The Griz won 17 games and reached the semifinals of the Big Sky Conference tournament. After a slow start to Big Sky play, Montana turned things around by winning seven of the final eight games of the regular season. The Grizzlies set school record for the third year in a row with a .788 percentage, which ranked 6th in the NCAA. Bannan and transfer Aanen Moody both reached 1,000 career points during the season. Montana were elite from beyond the arc offensively (.372 percentage, 32nd nationally) and defensively (.322 percentage, 81st nationally).

2021-22: Montana earned 18 wins, including a 7-4 mark in non-conference play, which saw the Grizzlies win the Zootown Classic tournament title. Paced by Bannan, Montana then started 8-2 in Big Sky play, helping DeCuire become the fourth coach in Big Sky history to win 100 league games. Montana set a school record from the free-throw line for the second year in a row (.782, 10th in NCAA in 2021-22) and was among the nation's leaders for turnovers per game (10.2, 20th), turnover margin (+2.9, 35th) and assist-to-turnover ratio (1.28, 46th).

2020-21: Montana continued to develop young talent, with a trio of freshmen setting school records for scoring, minutes played and starts by a freshman class. Montana was the only school in the nation to have three true freshmen average at least 25.0 minute per game and was one of only two schools to have its freshman class total 2,000 minutes played. Despite all of that, Montana earned a Pac-12 road win over Washington before peaking at the right time and winning its final four games of the regular season, followed by a pair of victories in the Big Sky tournament, including an upset win over No. 3-seed Weber State. Montana set a then-school record from the charity stripe, making 78.2 percent of its free-throw attempts.

2019-20: Following back-to-back championship seasons, Montana began developing its next wave of talent, with true freshmen – including the Big Sky Freshman of the Year – accounting for a then-school-record 40 starts. The Grizzlies ranked 21st nationally for shooting (.498) and led the Big Sky for field-goal percentage, 3-point field-goal percentage and turnover margin, also ranking in the top three for seven additional categories. Led by Pridgett, an MVP candidate, Montana entered the final week of the regular season in first place and would have been a legitimate Big Sky tournament contender had the tournament and postseason not been wiped out due to the emergence of the COVID-19 pandemic.

2018-19: After graduating just one senior from the 2018 championship team, Montana was an overwhelming favorite to repeat as champions in 2019. The Grizzlies, led by Rorie and Oguine, didn't disappoint, winning 26 games, tied for the third-most in school history. During non-conference, the Grizzlies beat a pair of NCA tournament teams in Georgia State and North Dakota State, and snapped South Dakota State's nation-leading 26-game home winning streak. After beginning Big Sky play just 3-2, Montana then won 16 of its next 18 games to repeat as Big Sky regular-season and tournament champions.

Montana was one of 20 schools nationally to rank in the top 100 for both scoring offense and defense, and was incredible efficient, making 49.2 percent of its shots (10th in the nation), including 37.6 percent from beyond the arc (38th.).

2017-18: The 2017-18 season was historic on many levels, with the Grizzlies winning 26 games and winning both the Big Sky regular-season and tournament titles to advance to the NCAA tournament. The team's record included a road win at Pitt of the ACC and a perfect 14-0 mark on its home court.

Montana won its first 13 Big Sky games, the third-longest winning streak in school history and the third-longest active streak in the NCAA at that time, including a program-record seven consecutive road victories. Montana used the same starting lineup in all 34 contests and led the Big Sky in five statistical categories while ranking in the top 30 nationally for turnovers forced, steals and turnover margin.

2016-17: Paced by 10 underclassmen and just two seniors who played significant time, the Grizzlies earned a .500 record and a first-round bye in the Big Sky tournament. The 2016-17 season was also the second consecutive year in which the Grizzlies posted a team grade-point average above 3.0, earning NABC Team Academic Excellence recognition.

2015-16: In DeCuire's second season, he posted another 20-win season and another trip to the Big Sky championship game, this time led by Breunig. DeCuire's Grizzlies would once again advance to the postseason, competing in the first round of the CBI tournament against Nevada, finishing with a 21-12 record. DeCuire is the only coach in Montana history to win at least 20 games in each of his first two seasons.

2014-15: In his first season at the helm of a program with a rich history of success, DeCuire's Grizzlies started the year picked to finish eighth in the conference. Led by Gregory, Montana would go on to defy expectations and win the Big Sky regular-season championship and advance to play Texas A&M in the National Invitational Tournament (NIT). At the time, DeCuire became only the second coach in Montana history to notch 20 victories in his first season – a feat also accomplished by his former coach Blaine Taylor, in 1991-92 when DeCuire was a player for the Griz.

Prior to returning to his alma mater as head coach, DeCuire spent six seasons (2008-09 through 2013-14) on the University of California coaching staff – including the final four as associate head coach. Regarded as one of the top tutors in the game, DeCuire helped former Montana mentor Mike Montgomery – a member of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame – transform Cal into one of the winningest programs in the Pac-12 during his time in Berkeley. The Golden Bears reached the postseason all six years he was on staff, including the NCAA tournament four times. They boasted 130 wins in his six seasons – the best six-year stretch in school history – winning the 2010 Pac-10 championship. He coached numerous all-conference selections, including conference players of the year Jerome Randle (2010) and Jorge Gutierrez (2012).

DeCuire spent five seasons (2003-04 through 2007-08) as an assistant coach at Old Dominion, under former Griz head coach and player Blaine Taylor. There, he helped the Monarchs to a combined record of 117-53. The mark included 94 wins during his final four seasons – the most in school history over a four-year period. Old Dominion reached the postseason each of those four seasons and advanced to the NCAA tournament in both 2005 and 2007 – winning a school-record 28 contests in 2005. Additionally, the Monarchs reached the NIT semifinals in 2006 and the quarterfinals of the College Basketball Invitational in 2008.

In 18 seasons as an assistant or head coach at the Division-I level, DeCuire is 448-250, a .642 winning percentage.

DeCuire's roots remain in the Seattle area, where he grew up, started his non-profit and broke into the coaching profession. He served as the head coach at both Sammamish High School and Green River Community College. At GRCC, DeCuire took over a last-place program and guided it to a conference championship and its first 20-win season in more than 20 years, earning league coach-of-the-year honors in 2003 – his second season. At Sammamish High School in Bellevue, DeCuire led his team to a pair of conference titles, a state tournament appearance and three consecutive trips to the district tournament.

As a point guard for Montana from 1992-94 DeCuire was named All-Big Sky as a junior and senior. He set a school record, despite playing just three seasons, with 435 career assists – a mark which still stands today. He also established Montana's single-season record with 199 assists as a senior in 1993-94, when he ranked 12th in the nation, averaging 7.1 assists per game. He was the recipient of the Grizzlies' Carl Dragstedt Award (MVP) as a junior and senior, and received the John Eaheart Award (Outstanding Defensive Player) following his senior year. Montana won a pair of Big Sky championships during his Griz career, advancing to the NCAA tournament in both 1991 and 1992.

As a freshman at Chaminade-Hawaii in 1989-90, he was a starter and team MVP. He then transferred to Montana and redshirted in 1991. As a prep, DeCuire starred in the Rainier Valley and at Mercer Island High School, where he was a three-year starter and all-state selection, team MVP, and a McDonald's All-America honorable mention pick.

DeCuire has a strong commitment to community service and founded and acted as president of the Fastbreak Basketball Association – an organization that assists in teaching life lessons and building self-esteem through basketball to more than 500 students in the Seattle-Tacoma area. Additionally, he was a counselor the Echo Glen Children's Center in Snoqualmie, Washington, from 1996-98, and with the Ryther Children's Center in North Seattle, from 1995-97.

DeCuire graduated from Montana in 1994 with a degree in business marketing. He and his wife, Sabrina, have two daughters – Brianna and Tamia. He also has a grandson, Nasir.
