BROADCAST ROSTER

HEAD COACH TIM CUPELLO

Tim Cupello enters his 11th year at the helm of UC Riverside Men's Soccer in 2024. Cupello, who joined the men's soccer staff as an assistant coach in June of 2010 before being named interim head coach prior to the 2013 season, earned the program's first Big West Coach of the Year honor in 2022 while leading the Highlanders to the Big West regular season title, Big West postseason title and the program's second ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

UCR has seen 13 First Team All-Big West nods since Cupello's first full year, including five in 2022. The program has also collected seven of its 11 NSCAA All-Far West Region honorees under Cupello's leadership, including current LA Galaxy midfielder Daniel Aguirre and current LAFC and U.S. Men's National Team defender Aaron Long.

Cupello was named to the NCAA Rules Playing Committee in June of 2020 as the only Big West representative on the nine-person roster and the only Division I representative from the west coast.

Cupello took UCR to the Big West Tournament in his interim 2013 season, a year after the program set a single-season record for wins. UC Riverside continued to roll, capturing the 2014 Big West South Division championship and making the program's fourth trip to the Big West Tournament in six years in the 2016 season. In 2018, Cupello guided the Highlanders to the two seed in the Big West Tournament and the program's first Big West title.

In 2014, UC Riverside had six players honored with All-Big West accolades - the most ever for the Highlanders in a single season. In all, UCR has seen 21 All-Big West performers under Cupello, including Aguirre and Long. Cupello also has been either an assistant or head coach at UCR for five of the program's seven MLS draft picks.

In addition to his responsibilities at UC Riverside, Cupello also coaches with the U-16 FC Golden State team in the US Soccer Development Academy. Cupello came to UC Riverside following three seasons as an assistant at Syracuse University. While at Syracuse, Cupello helped oversee the development of five All-Big East players, including Kyle Hall, who was selected in the 2009 MLS SuperDraft by Toronto FC. In 2007 and 2008, SU posted an undefeated non-conference record.

Also during his time with the Orange, Cupello helped create a student fan club known as "Colvin Street Elite," the official student support group of Syracuse men's soccer that was featured on ESPNU's "Campus Connection" during the fall of 2009.

Prior to his time at Syracuse, Cupello was the assistant coach at his alma mater, NCAA Division III Fredonia State University in Fredonia, NY, for two years. He helped guide the Blue Devils to a 29-11-6 overall record and a 13-4-1 conference mark during that time.

In 2005, Fredonia went 17-4-4 and ranked 15th in the final NSCAA Division III rankings after losing to eventual national runner-up Gustavus Adolphus in the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals. In 2006, the Blue Devils returned to the postseason and won the ECAC Upstate Championship, finishing the year with a 12-7-2 record.

Cupello earned his bachelors of science degree in sport management and exercise science from Fredonia in 2006. As a four-year player for the Blue Devils, he was team captain and earned All-Conference and All-Tournament Team honors as a senior. He was the squad's leading scorer with four goals and 10 points in 2004 and tallied seven goals and 16 points while starting all 22 matches in 2003.

Cupello holds a USSF "B" Coaching License, and is currently pursuing a masters of science degree in instructional design, development and evaluation at Syracuse University.

Cupello prepped at Aquinas Institute in Rochester, NY, where his senior season was marked with a state championship and selection as Sectional MVP and Team MVP.

His father, Nelson, played professionally in the North American Soccer League for the Rochester Lancers from 1975-80 and in the American Soccer League for the Rochester Flash from 1981-83. He has also been a collegiate coach for over 30 years at Fredonia State University and Monroe Community College.

In his free time, Cupello enjoys playing and watching sports, listening to live music, and doing anything outdoors. He married former UC Riverside Assistant Volleyball Coach Brianna Koche in the spring of 2015, and in 2016 the couple celebrated the birth of their first child.

KEY STORYLINES

LAST TIME OUT

UCR played to a second consecutive draw on Wednesday's International Night with a wild 3-3 affair against Cal State Fullerton at the UCR Soccer Stadium. Jackson D'Alessandro notched a goal and an assist in his first appearance since being named to Top Drawer Soccer's Team of the Week on Tuesday.

KING CARLOS

Carlos Gonzalez became UC Riverside's all-time clean sheet leader with number 17 in UCR's 1-0 win over UC Irvine on October 9, bumping that number up to 18 with October 12's 0-0 draw at Cal Poly. Gonzalez is also tied with Ashkan Khosravi for most wins all time at 22 and is tied for third all-time with 67 career starts. Gonzalez's stellar week earned him Big West Defensive Player of the Week for the third time in career.

D'ALESSANDRO EARNS TEAM OF THE WEEK

Jackson D'Alessandro was named to Top Drawer Soccer's Team of the Week after helping UCR shut out UC Irvine and Cal Poly last week. D'Alessandro played all 180 minutes last week and added an assist while holding the Anteaters and Mustangs scoreless in a span of four days. D'Alessandro and the rest of the back line limited UC Irvine to nine shots with just one on frame – both are the fewest by a Highlander opponent this season.

MORE MILESTONES

Noah Lopez ranks fifth in program history with 15 career goals and fourth in program history with 37 career points (15 goals, 7 assists). Christian Ceja also passed the 4,000-minute mark for his career on October 12 at Cal Poly.

FIRST TIME GOAL SCORERS

UCR went 1-1-1 in a crucial stretch that saw the Highlanders receive goals from three first-time goal scorers. True freshman Wyatt Ponting's late equalizer sealed a point for UCR at CSUN on October 2, while fellow true freshman Mika Sebastian Kosch opened his account on October 5 at Sacramento State. Ethan Gonzalez became the third consecutive Highlander to score first career goal on October 9 with his 89th-minute winner against UC Irvine.

NEW STAFF WHO THIS?

Tim Cupello bolstered his staff in the offseason with two vital members of the Riverside soccer scene in Tony Huerta and Romario Lomeli. Riverside native Huerta comes to UCR from California Baptist and has soccer ties all over the city, while Lomeli comes back into the family as the program's all-time leader in assists, matches played and matches started. He is also the only four-time All-Big West selection in program history.

SATURDAY'S MATCH

UCR is 8-17-1 all-time against UC Davis. The Highlanders currently own a two-match win streak in the series after last year's 3-0 win in Davis, UC Riverside's largest margin of victory in series history. Prior to UCR's 1-0 home win in 2022, the Highlanders' last home win in the series was a 4-2 penalty shootout in the 2018 Big West Final that sent UC Riverside to its first NCAA Tournament in program history.

Current assistant coach Romario Lomeli scored the opener in UCR's 2-1 win in Davis on October 6, 2016 with current El Paso Locomotive defender Ricky Ruiz bagging two assists that day.

HIGHLANDERS HIT THE BOOKS

UCR Men's Soccer was one of 14 athletic programs on campus to earn a 2022-23 single-year APR score of 960, checking in at 961. Cupello's squad was also one of 168 across the country to earn the United Soccer Coaches Team Academic Award after posting a 3.02 GPA for the 2023-24 academic year. Five student-athletes were named Big West All-Academic last season, and over 40% of last year's roster made the 2023-24 Big West Commissioner's Honor Roll.
