CREDENTIALS & SCOUTING PASSES

All requests for working media credentials should be made to Charles Bare at least one week in advance, preferably in writing. All requests received one week in advance will be mailed, while all others will be left at the will call window, which is located outside the main entrance to the stadium, in the southwest corner near the visiting locker room. Every effort will be made to accommodate all members of the media, but as space is limited, we may not be able to honor all requests.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Holy Cross subscribes to the policy suggested by the NCAA Football Rules Committee, in conjunction with the NCAA Public Relations Committee, the American Football Coaches Association and the National Press Photographers Association. Photographers must have a special photo credential issued by the athletic media relations office.

RADIO BROADCASTS

Holy Cross has installed phone and ethernet lines which can be used by visiting radio. Please confirm the availability of lines by contacting Charles Bare. Any radio station or reporting service seeking in-game or post-game reports must make arrangements through the athletic media relations office.

TELEVISION

News stations covering the game must shoot from either the designated areas on the photo decks, or on the field level outside of the team bench areas.

TELEPHONES

There is one community telephone in the press box for use by the media.

INTERNET ACCESS

There is high speed wireless internet access available for members of the media to use in the Fitton Field press box.

PARKING

Accredited media will be given passes allowing access to the garage just south of Fitton Field. Please note that there is no specific area for press parking, and any member of the media not arriving at least one hour before kickoff is not guaranteed parking space.

GAME DAY SERVICES

Pregame press notes, flip cards and programs are available in the press box approximately one hour before kickoff. A light breakfast is provided, along with beverages and a snack during the game. E-mail service is available after the game with advanced notice to the athletic media relations staff. Halftime statistics, final statistics, play-by-play, scoring summaries, defensive statistics and drive charts are provided. Complete books are available approximately 30 minutes after the game.

POSTGAME PROCEDURES

The Holy Cross football locker room is closed to the media. Members of the media should submit player requests to Charles Bare by the five-minute mark of the fourth quarter. Following a 10-minute cooling off period, Holy Cross head coach Bob Chesney and requested players will be available. Requests for interviews with the visiting team should be made with that school's sports information director. For games at Fitton Field, a postgame press conference will be held underneath the stands in the east end of the stadium.

MEDIA INFORMATION

COACH & PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Personal interviews with head coach Bob Chesney, his staff and players can be arranged through Charles Bare. Players are available in person and for phone interviews Monday through Thursday, subject to the individual student-athlete's academic responsibilities. Arrangements for all interviews should be made at least 24 hours in advance. Home phone numbers will not be given out. The best time to reach coach Chesney by phone is on weekday mornings.

WEEKLY MEDIA LUNCHEON

Head coach Bob Chesney will have a weekly luncheon with the media each Tuesday during the season at 12:00 p.m. Student-athletes can also be available for interviews near the end of the luncheon upon request, subject to their academic responsibilities. All members of the working media are welcome to attend. For more information, contact the athletic media relations office.

HOLY CROSS ON THE INTERNET

Information on Holy Cross football and all 26 other varsity sports is available through the Holy Cross Athletics home page at "www.GoHolyCross.com". All notes and statistics will be available through the site. In addition, live Crusader audio and video can be found on the internet, with information on webcast locations available on the Holy Cross Athletics home page.

THE PATRIOT LEAGUE

Jennifer Heppel
Commissioner

Now in its third decade as an all-sport conference combining academic and athletic excellence, the Patriot League sponsors championships in 24 men's and women's sports. Initially started as an NCAA Division I-AA football conference in 1986, the Patriot League became an all-sport conference in 1990 and includes American, Army West Point, Boston University, Bucknell, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh, Loyola (Md.) and Navy as full members, and Fordham, Georgetown, MIT and Richmond as associate members. These institutions are among the oldest and most prestigious in the nation and their alumni have and continue to play leadership roles in shaping our country.

The Patriot League's mission is simple: to provide successful competitive athletic experiences while maintaining high academic standards, and to prepare its student-athletes to be leaders in society. During the 2018-2019 academic year, Patriot League student-athletes and teams accomplished the following:

- 91 Patriot League teams (46.7 percent of league teams) earned NCAA Public Recognition Awards for ranking in the top 10 percent of their sport in Academic Progress Rate (APR), with 80 squads earning perfect scores.
- The Patriot League ranked second among all conferences in Public Recognition Awards, and also placed second behind only the Ivy League for the highest percentage of teams earning the honor at 46.7 percent.
- The league's 96 percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) is the second-best mark in the nation, finishing in the top-two in each year since the rating has been released in 2013. All 10 member schools were at 90 percent or higher, each exceeding the record-high national GSR of 88 percent. In addition, the league's 84 percent Federal Graduation Rate (FGR) places it as the national leader for the sixth-consecutive year.
- Loyola's Kristen Yanchoris (women's lacrosse) and Bucknell's Alex Pechin (football) were named the Patriot League Female and Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year honorees, respectively.
- 12 student-athletes earned Google Cloud CoSIDA Academic All-America recognition, including first team accolades for Army West Point's Lynne Mooradian (women's track and field) and Benjamin Petrella (men's track and field); Bucknell's Jeff Gottesman (baseball); Lafayette's Andrew Chuma (football) and Trent Crossan (football); and Navy's Sydney Fortson (women's soccer), Zach Piedt (men's swimming and diving), Stefano Pineda (men's track and field) and Anne Richter (women's lacrosse). Second team honorees included Army West Point's Anthony Giachin (baseball) and Navy's Patricia Mattingly (volleyball), while Lehigh's Conor Gaffney (men's lacrosse) was a third team selection.
- 41 Patriot League student-athletes received Google Cloud CoSIDA Academic All-District recognition.
- There were a Patriot League-record 3,123 student-athletes named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll in 2018-2019, besting the previous record, set in 2017-2018, by 112 members.
- Colgate's Regine Cooper (women's track and field) and Holy Cross's Declan Cronin (baseball) each received the Patriot League Award of Outstanding Leadership and Character.
- Lehigh's Sam Bencheghib (men's tennis) and Navy's Anne Richter (women's lacrosse) were named the league's Sportsmanship Award winners.
- American's Rafaela Rubas (field hockey) and Loyola's Kristen Yanchoris (women's lacrosse) were the league's nominees for the NCAA Woman of the Year award.

- Loyola's Pat Spencer became the second Patriot League student-athlete to win the Tewaaraton Award as the nation's top men's lacrosse player. He was also a finalist in 2017 and 2018. He joins Colgate's Peter Baum (2012) as the only Patriot League Tewaaraton Award winners.
- Lehigh's Craig Chick (men's lacrosse), Lehigh's Mark Forrest (men's soccer) and Army West Point's Johnny Surdick (men's lacrosse) were all named to the Senior CLASS Award first team. Loyola's Pat Spencer (men's lacrosse) and Jacob Stover (men's lacrosse) were placed on the second team.
- Navy won the Patriot League Presidents' Cup for the sixth-straight time and seventh time in the last eight years. Army West Point set a men's standings point record and Boston University topped the women's standings.
- Navy and Loyola both qualified for the 2019 NCAA Championship in women's lacrosse, marking the second time in as many years the league received two bids to the tournament. The Mids and Greyhounds both won their first-round matchups.
- Also winning NCAA Tournament contests in 2018-2019 were Colgate football, Colgate men's soccer and Loyola men's lacrosse. Overall the Patriot League collected five NCAA tournament victories this season.
- Colgate football received the Lambert Cup, presented to the top FCS team in the East by the Metropolitan New York Football Writers. The Raiders ranked No. 8 in the final Stats poll after advancing to the FCS playoff quarterfinals. Colgate tied an NCAA FCS record with five shutouts and led the nation in total defense (237.7) and scoring defense (9.3).
- Eight Patriot League football student-athletes were named to the 2018 FCS ADA Academic All-Star Team, including Bucknell's Alex Pechin, Colgate's Dillon DeLuliis and Chris Puzzi, Holy Cross' Ryan Brady and Martin Dorsey, Lafayette's Andrew Chuma and Trent Crossan and Lehigh's Harrison Kauffman.
- 29 Patriot Leaguers earned All-America honors, with first team status for Bucknell's Alex Pechin (football), Boston University's Ally Hammel (field hockey), Army West Point's Johnny Surdick (men's lacrosse) and Loyola's Pat Spencer (men's lacrosse), Jacob Stover (men's lacrosse) and Livy Rosenzweig (women's lacrosse).
- The Patriot League had five student-athletes selected in the 2019 Major League Baseball Draft with Lehigh's Levi Stoudt (97th overall) and Navy's Noah Song (137th overall) being selected on the second day. The 2019 draft marks the first time that two Patriot Leaguers were selected in the top-200.
- Eight Patriot Leaguers were selected in the Major League Lacrosse (MLL) Draft, with four in the top-20, including Loyola's Pat Spencer, Navy's Grayson Torain, Lehigh's Craig Chick and Army West Point's Johnny Surdick. Three league student-athletes were picked in the inaugural Premier Lacrosse League (PLL) Draft, with Spencer taken with the first-overall selection. Loyola's Taylor VanThof and Lindsey Ehrhardt were picked in the 2019 Women's Professional Lacrosse League (WPLL) Draft, while Lehigh's Mark Forrest was taken in the Major League Soccer (MLS) SuperDraft.

BOB CHESNEY HEAD COACH

Bob Chesney is in his second year as the head football coach at the College of the Holy Cross in 2019. The 28th head coach in the history of the program, he has posted a winning conference record in each of his nine seasons as a collegiate head coach with an overall career mark of 72-31 over nine years.

During his first year with the Crusaders in 2018, Chesney guided his team to a second place finish in the Patriot League with a 4-2 mark in conference games, while going 5-6 overall. Holy Cross set school single-season records with seven blocked kicks, six blocked punts and four blocked punts returned for touchdowns, in addition to posting the two largest comeback victories in school history. The Crusaders also had seven All-Patriot League selections, with four players making the first team.

A two-time Northeast-10 Conference Coach of the Year, Chesney previously spent five seasons at Assumption College (44-16, 2013-2017) and three years at Salve Regina University (23-9, 2010-2012). He took over an Assumption program that had posted two winning seasons in the 17 years prior to his arrival and led the Greyhounds to five-straight winning records and NCAA Tournament appearances in each of his last three years. Chesney previously rebuilt a Salve Regina program which had a streak of eight-consecutive losing seasons before his tenure, posting three winning campaigns in a row. During his eight seasons at the helm of the two programs, Chesney coached 94 all-conference selections and 12 All-Americans.

During the 2017 campaign, Chesney earned Northeast-10 Coach of the Year honors after leading Assumption to an overall record of 11-2, the Northeast-10 Conference title and a trip to the NCAA Division II Quarterfinals. The Greyhounds had a school-record 17 players named to the All-Northeast-10 Conference teams, including the Most Valuable Player (Deonte Harris), the Special Teams Player of the Year (Cole Tracy), the Defensive Player of the Year (Andrew Benson) and the Defensive Line-man of the Year (Ray Sarkodieh). Tracy also received the Fred Mitchell Award as the nation's top place-kicker in FCS, Division II, Division III, NAIA and NJCAA. Assumption led the nation in turnover margin (+1.8 turnovers/game), punt returns (23.3 yards/return), interceptions (26) and turnovers forced (39), while standing fifth in sacks (3.5 sacks/game) and sixth in scoring offense (43.4 points/game).

In 2016, Chesney's Assumption team went 9-3 overall, played in the Northeast-10 Championship Game and earned a bid to the NCAA Tournament. Ashton Grant was named the Northeast-10 Offensive Player of the Year, while 13 Greyhounds were named all-conference. Assumption led the Northeast-10 in scoring offense (37.2 points/game) and ranked second in scoring defense (19.8 point/game) while ranking second nationally in passing efficiency defense (91.3 rating), fourth in passing defense (157.8 yards/game) and 11th in total defense (296.0 yards/game).

Chesney's 2015 team went 11-2 overall, won the program's first-ever Northeast-10 title and made its first appearance in the NCAA Tournament, advancing to the second round. The Greyhounds had 13 all-conference selections, with Harris being named the Northeast-10 Rookie of the Year. Assumption finished the season averaging a league-best 39.2 points per game, while converting in the red zone 88.3 percent of the time. At the conclusion of the season, Chesney was named the Northeast-10 Coach of the Year, the New England Football Writers Coach of the Year and the Hero Sports Division II National Coach of the Year.

In 2014, Chesney guided the Greyhounds to a 7-4 record and third place in the Northeast-10 standings. Assumption placed 10 players on the All-Northeast-10 teams, including Defensive Player of the Year Derrick Mann (who also earned Third Team All-America honors). Chesney's team led the Northeast-10 in rushing offense (159.7 yards/game), sacks (3.1 sacks/game) and red zone offense (83.3 percent).

In his first season as Assumption's head coach in 2013, Chesney directed the Hounds to a 6-5 overall mark and a perfect 5-0 record in Northeast-10 road games. The Greyhounds led the conference in pass defense (229.7 yards/game) and ranked 15th in the nation in turnover margin (+1.1 turnovers/game). Chesney's team also featured 11 All-Northeast-10 selections and three All-Americans (Tad Beuchert, Khalid Pitts and Scott Simonson).

Chesney came to Assumption from Salve Regina University in Newport, R.I., where he posted a 23-9 record as the head coach from 2010-2012. He coached 30 all-conference selections, three All-Americans (A.J. Albert in 2011, Phil Terio in 2012 and Floyd Shaffer in 2012), 41 academic all-conference selections and one Academic All-American, while his defense consistently ranked among the league and national leaders in Division III. The Seahawks led the New England Football Conference in scoring defense in 2010 and 2011 and ranked second in 2012 while never allowing more than 14.6 points per game. Chesney's team also led the nation in third-down conversion defense in 2012 and red zone defense in 2010.

In his final season at Salve Regina, Chesney guided his 2012 team to a 9-2 overall record, a 7-1 mark in the New England Football Conference and a trip to the NEFC Championship Game. The Seahawks previously went 8-3 during the 2011 season and posted a victory in the ECAC North-West Bowl. During Chesney's first year in 2010, Salve Regina went 6-4 overall to snap a streak of eight-straight losing seasons. In addition to the team's work on the field, the Seahawks were recognized as the Child and Family's Volunteers of the Year for their commitment to their foster home program and after-school homework club.

Prior to his arrival at Salve Regina, Chesney was a member of the staff at John Hopkins University in Baltimore, Md., from 2005-2009. He began his tenure as a defensive assistant and special teams coach for four seasons before being promoted to associate head coach in 2009. During his time at Johns Hopkins University, 21 players received all-conference recognition, including one Centennial Conference Offensive Player of the Year (Andrew Kase, 2009), one Centennial Conference Defensive Player of the Year (Colin Wixted, 2009) and one All-America selection (Kase, 2009). Chesney also helped Johns Hopkins lead the nation in interceptions in 2009.

Chesney previously served as an assistant coach and special teams coordinator at King's College in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., from 2003-2004. He was also the defensive coordinator at Delaware Valley College in Doylestown, Pa., in 2002, and served as an assistant coach at Norwich University in Northfield, Vt., from 2000-2001.

Chesney earned his bachelor's degree from Dickinson College in Carlisle, Pa., in 2000. He was a four-year varsity letterwinner as a defensive back at Dickinson, earning Second Team All-Centennial Conference honors in both 1998 and 1999. He was also the 1997 recipient of the team's Vincent Correal MVP Award and served as a team captain during his senior year.

Chesney and his wife, Andrea, currently reside in Worcester with their two daughters (Lyla and Hudson) and one son (Bo).

SCOTT JAMES DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Scott James is in his second season on the Holy Cross football coaching staff in 2019, serving as the defensive coordinator. During the 2018 campaign, James led a unit that ranked third in the Patriot League in scoring defense (26.0 points/game).

Prior to joining the Crusaders, James spent five seasons as the safeties coach at the University of New Hampshire from 2013-2017. During that time, he helped the Wildcats to an overall record of 46-22 with five trips to the NCAA playoffs. New Hampshire won the Colonial Athletic Association championship in 2014, while advancing to the NCAA semifinals in 2013 and 2014. James also coached a pair of All-CAA selections in Manny Asam (2013) and Pop Lacey (2016).

Previously, James served as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of New Haven from 2009-2012, with the team posting an overall record of 34-10 during that time. In 2012, he helped the Chargers to an undefeated regular season, as they beat all of their Division II opponents for the second-straight year and claimed a third-consecutive Northeast-10 Conference championship. James' defense ranked third nationally in total defense (274.4 yards/game), fourth in scoring defense (14.0 points/game) and fourth in rushing defense (81.7 yards/game). His defense previously ranked first in the Northeast-10 in passing defense in 2011 (192.6 yards/game) and sacks in both 2010 and 2011.

Other coaching stops for James include time at Northeastern (2005-2007 / outside linebackers), Boston College (2003-2004 / defensive graduate assistant), Holy Cross (2002 / defensive line), Albany (2001 / defensive tackles) and Norwich (1999-2000 / defensive line).

James is a 1999 graduate of Norwich with a bachelor's degree in sports medicine. He went on to earn master's degrees from Albany in 2002 and Boston College in 2005. James and his wife, Rebekah, reside in South Berwick, Maine, with their son, Caiden.

COACHING STAFF

PATRICK MURPHY OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Patrick Murphy is in his second season as the offensive coordinator at Holy Cross in 2019. During the 2018 campaign, he led an offense that ranked second in the Patriot League in scoring (24.4 points/game), total offense (327.3 yards/game), rushing (132.5 yards/game) and pass efficiency (129.1 rating). Murphy also coached quarterback Geoff Wade to second team All-Patriot League honors.

Murphy came to Holy Cross with over two decades of coaching experience and spent the 2016 and 2017 seasons at Tufts University. During his time at Tufts, Murphy served as the run game coordinator in addition to coaching the running backs and slot receivers. During the 2016 season, the Jumbos' offense averaged 31.5 points per game and led the New England Small College Athletic Conference with 239.3 rushing yards per contest and 25 rushing touchdowns.

Prior to his time at Tufts, Murphy was the head coach at St. Anselm College from 2008-2015, where he also served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He earned Northeast-10 Conference Co-Coach of the Year honors in 2014 after leading the Hawks to a school-record six victories and their first winning mark (6-5) since the program was revived in 1999. Murphy's offenses set school single-season records with 2,212 rushing yards in 2008, 3,431 passing yards in 2013 and 326 points scored in 2013.

During his time at St. Anselm, Murphy coached 30 All-Northeast-10 selections, three Northeast-10 Rookies of the Year and two All-Americans. Additionally, Justin Bernard became the all-time NCAA Division II receptions leader and Marc Wilson, another record-setting wide receiver, signed a free agent contract with the Arizona Cardinals.

Murphy previously served on the coaching staff at Harvard University in 2003, working with the defensive ends. He also spent time as the outside linebackers coach at Bryant University and was on the staff at the University of Massachusetts Lowell for five years from 1996-2000. He began as the secondary coach for the River Hawks, before being promoted to associate head coach and defensive coordinator.

In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Murphy spent four seasons as the head coach at Dracut (Mass.) High School from 2004-2007. As the head coach at Dracut, Murphy directed the Middies to the school's first league championship in nearly 20 years and was honored as the 2005 Lowell Sun Coach of the Year.

A 1996 graduate of Northeastern University with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice, Murphy played football for the Huskies as a fullback, tight end and linebacker. He and his wife, Lisa, have three daughters (Tyler, Riley and Ava).

Israel Abraham is in his first season on the Crusader coaching staff in 2019, serving as the running backs coach.

Abraham came to Holy Cross from American International College, where he served as the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator for two seasons. Under his direction, halfback Samad Davila earned third team All Northeast-10 Conference honors in 2018.

Prior to joining the Yellow Jackets, Abraham spent time in the National Football League as an external scout with the Cleveland Browns. Previously, he served as the running backs coach at Susquehanna University in 2015 and the special teams coordinator and running backs coach at Stonehill College from 2012-2014. During his time at Stonehill, Abraham coached three all-conference players and won a Northeast-10 Conference championship in 2013. He has also completed Bill Walsh minority internships with both the Tennessee Titans and the Los Angeles Chargers.

Abraham graduated from Endicott College in 2012 with a bachelor's degree in liberal studies. He played cornerback and fullback for the Gulls, helping lead the team to the 2010 Division III New England Football Conference championship and an NCAA tournament appearance.

Abraham's wife, Cara, is the director of the Crusader Athletics Fund.

ANTHONY BARESE SECONDARY

Anthony Barese is in his second season on the Holy Cross coaching staff in 2019, serving as the secondary coach.

Barese joined the Crusaders after spending 10 seasons on the coaching staff at Assumption College from 2008-2017. He served as the Greyhounds defensive coordinator from 2014-2017, helping the team to an overall record of 38-11 during that time with three trips to the NCAA playoffs.

During the 2017 season, Barese's defense ranked first in the nation in interceptions and fifth in quarterback sacks. In 2016, he led a defensive unit which ranked second in the nation in pass efficiency defense, fourth in passing yards allowed and 11th in total yards allowed. The Greyhounds also had 18 All-Northeast-10 selections on defense during Barese's four seasons as the defensive coordinator.

Barese was previously Assumption's linebackers coach from 2008-2013, with seven linebackers earning All-Northeast-10 honors during that time. He also served as the team's recruiting coordinator from 2011-2017.

Prior to his time at Assumption, he served as an assistant coach at St. Anselm College for two years, acting as the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 2007 and the defensive line coach in 2006.

Barese is a 2005 graduate of St. Anselm with a bachelor's degree in English. He played linebacker for the Hawks during his time as an undergraduate, serving as team captain during his senior year.

DREW CANAN TIGHT ENDS / SPECIAL TEAMS

Drew Canan is in his second season on the Crusader coaching staff in 2019, serving as the tight ends coach and special teams coordinator. During the 2018 campaign, he led a special teams unit that set school single-season records with seven blocked kicks, six blocked punts and four blocked punts returned for touchdowns.

Canan came to Holy Cross from Assumption College, where he served as the wide receivers coach and special teams coordinator under Chesney from 2014-2017. He helped the Greyhounds to an overall record of 38-11 during that time, with three trips to the NCAA playoffs.

COACHING STAFF

During his time at Assumption, Canan coached five wide receivers and four return specialists who earned All-Northeast-10 Conference honors, including 2016 Offensive Player of the Year Ashton Grant and 2017 Most Valuable Player Deonte Harris. His special teams unit also ranked in the top 10 in the country in blocked kicks in each of his four seasons, posting 12 in 2015 to lead the nation.

Prior to his time at Assumption, Canan served as the wide receivers coach and special teams coordinator at Endicott College from 2011-2013. He coached five all-conference receivers during that time while helping the team to the 2013 New England Football Conference championship. Canan was previously a graduate assistant at Endicott from 2008-2010, and the Gulls posted an overall record of 36-9, including a 25-3 mark in conference play, during his final four years on the staff.

Canan earned his bachelor's degree from Johnson & Wales University in North Miami, Fla., in 2005. He went on to receive a master's degree from Endicott in 2010.

Canan and his wife, Kerri, have one daughter (Kaia).

CASEY DEANDRADE CORNERBACKS

Casey DeAndrade is in his first season on the Holy Cross coaching staff in 2019, serving as the cornerbacks coach.

DeAndrade joined the Crusaders after spending the 2018 season as the running backs coach at the University of New Hampshire. Under his guidance, tailback Carlos Washington ranked sixth in the Colonial Athletic Association in rushing touchdowns and ninth in rushing yards. DeAndrade was previously a coaching intern for the Wildcats in 2017, working with the strength and conditioning program and in quality control.

A 2017 graduate of New Hampshire with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology, DeAndrade was a four-year letterwinner for the Wildcats. He earned first team All-America honors as a senior and finished his career with 285 tackles, nine interceptions and 53 pass breakups as a cornerback.

TODD GILCRIST WIDE RECEIVERS

Todd Gilcrist is in his first season on the Holy Cross coaching staff in 2019, serving as the wide receivers coach.

Gilcrist came to Holy Cross from Columbia University, where he was an assistant coach for four seasons. He served as the Lions' running backs coach from 2015-2016, then took over as the wide receivers coach from 2017-2018. Gilcrist coached four All-Ivy League selections during his time at Columbia, including wide receiver Josh Wainwright, who set a school record with 1,001 receiving yards in 2017.

Prior to joining the Lions, he spent time as the wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at Carnegie Mellon University (2014), the wide receivers and strength and conditioning coach at Thiel (Pa.) College (2013) and the defensive backs coach at Maine Maritime Academy (2012).

Gilcrist is a 2012 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh with a bachelor's degree in media and professional communications. He was a three-year member of the Panthers' football team, contributing primarily on special teams in addition to playing safety and wide receiver. He helped Pittsburgh to the 2010 Big East championship and three consecutive bowl game appearances. Gilcrist played his first two seasons of college football at Duquesne University.

Gilcrist is married to the former Bridget Erickson.

MIKE PUCKO DEFENSIVE LINE

Mike Pucko is in his first season on the Holy Cross coaching staff in 2019, serving as the defensive line coach.

Pucko joined the Crusaders after spending two years at Assumption College as the linebackers coach (2016) and defensive line coach (2017). He helped the Greyhounds to an overall record of 20-5 during that time, with two trips to the NCAA playoffs.

Prior to his time at Assumption, Pucko was the head football coach at Holy Name Central Catholic High School from 2005-2015, posting an overall record of 89-42 and winning the Division 2 Super Bowl twice (2005 and 2006) and the Division 1A Super Bowl once (2008). He previously served as the head football coach at West Boylston High School from 2001-2004 and the defensive coordinator at West Boylston (1993-1996, 1998-2000) and Marlboro High School (1997).

Pucko earned his bachelor's degree in finance from the University of Connecticut in 1976 and his master's degree in business administration from Anna Maria College in 1982. As a player, he was a two-year varsity letterwinner at UConn, earning second team All-Yankee Conference honors in 1975. Pucko was the recipient of the Distinguished Service to Central Massachusetts Football Award from the National Football Foundation and the College Hall of Fame, and is a member of the Fitchburg High School Hall of Fame.

Pucko and his wife, Paula, reside in Princeton, Mass.

CHRIS SMITH OFFENSIVE LINE

Chris Smith is in his third season on the Crusader coaching staff in 2019, serving as the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator. Over the last two years he has coached three players who have earned All-Patriot League honors in James Murray (2017), Brett Boddy (2018) and Brian Foley (2018).

Smith came to Holy Cross from the University of New Haven, where he served as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator for three years. He helped lead the Chargers to a 19-8 record in Northeast-10 Conference play during that time, with the team finishing either second or third in the league standings every season. Smith coached three All-Americans and eight All-Northeast-10 selections along the offensive line during his three seasons at New Haven, with the team leading the conference in yards per rush during both the 2014 (4.4) and 2015 (5.0) seasons.

Prior to his time at New Haven, Smith spent two seasons as offensive line coach at the University of Northern Colorado. In two years with the Bears, he coached an offensive line which ranked sixth (2013) and fifth (2012) in the Big Sky Conference in sacks allowed. Smith also coached four honorable mention All-Big Sky selections in his two seasons at Northern Colorado.

COACHING STAFF

Smith previously spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at the University at Buffalo where he worked with the linebackers. He also coordinated the scout team and assisted with all scout special team units.

Smith is a 2009 graduate of Holy Cross and was a four-year starting center for the Crusaders. He earned second team All-Patriot League honors as a senior, and still holds the school record for the most consecutive games started (45). Smith was a four-time Patriot League Academic Honor Roll selection and was a semifinalist for the 2009 William V. Campbell Trophy, given annually to the nation's top scholar-athlete.

Smith and his wife, Natalie, have one son (Calvin) and one daughter (Eleanor).

BRIAN VAGANEK LINEBACKERS

Brian Vaganek is in his third season on the Crusader coaching staff in 2019, serving as the linebackers coach. He helped Nick McBeath earn All-America honors during the 2017 season, while McBeath (2017) and Ryan Brady (2018) were both selected first team All-Patriot League.

Vaganek has an extensive coaching background with over 20 years of collegiate experience. He came to Holy Cross from the University of New Haven, where he served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach from 2014-2016. He helped lead the Chargers to a 19-8 record in Northeast-10 Conference play during that time, with the team finishing either second or third in the league standings every season. New Haven led the conference and ranked 10th in the nation in scoring defense in 2015 (17.6 points per game), while finishing in the top two in the league in rushing defense during each of his three seasons. The Chargers totaled 10 all-conference selections on the defensive side of the ball during Vaganek's tenure, including linebacker Tyler Condit, who set all-time school records for tackles in a single season and a career, and set the Northeast-10 record for career tackles.

Vaganek previously spent three seasons at the University of Rhode Island from 2011-2013, including two years as the defensive coordinator. During his tenure with the Rams, he coached five all-conference selections and two players who earned All-New England honors.

Prior to arriving in Kingston, Vaganek spent four years at Christopher Newport University as the associate head coach. During his four-year tenure, the Captains posted a 26-15 mark, including trips to the NCAA playoffs in 2008 and 2010. His defense limited opponents to just 20.1 points per game and forced 24 fumbles in 2008, while leading the USA South Conference in scoring defense in 2009 (20.5 points per game).

Vaganek began his coaching career at Highland (Kan.) Community College as the defensive line coach in 1993. He later served six years on the staff at William & Mary (1995-2000), including one year as defensive coordinator after previously coaching the defensive line and linebackers. Vaganek then moved to Hofstra University from 2001-2003, where he coached the defensive line. He also spent one year as the linebackers coach at Fort Scott (Kan.) Community College in 1994 and eventually returned for a two-year stint as head coach from 2004-2005.

Vaganek is a 1993 graduate of Temple University, where he played four years as an offensive lineman. He and his wife, Jeanette, have a son (Brian Jr.) and a daughter (Julia).

2018 GAME-BY-GAME RECAPS

COLGATE 24, HOLY CROSS 17

September 1, 2018 • Hamilton, N.Y.

The Holy Cross defense allowed just 75 yards of total offense and no points in the second half, but the Crusaders were edged by Colgate 24-17 in their season opener at Andy Kerr Stadium. After trailing 24-0 at halftime, Corey Stefanik recovered a fumble on a punt return at the Colgate 22-yard line midway through the third quarter to give the Crusaders their best field position of the day. Derek Ng then booted a 28-yard field goal to put Holy Cross on the board. Early in the fourth quarter, Emmett Clifford hit Domenic Cozier for a 41-yard touchdown on a fourth-down play to make the score 24-10. After another big stop by the defense on the Raiders' next possession, the Crusaders drove 69 yards in 14 plays with Cozier scoring from one-yard out on fourth-and-goal to trim the margin to 24-17 with 6:59 left to play. But after gaining just one first down on its first four second-half possessions combined, Colgate picked up three first downs on its next drive to run out the clock and clinch the victory. Holy Cross finished the day with 169 rushing yards and 282 yards of total offense, in addition to picking up 17 first downs. The Raiders recorded 285 yards of total offense and 15 first downs, while scoring 17 of their points off three Crusader turnovers. Cozier totaled 108 yards from scrimmage in the game, with 54 rushing yards on 12 carries and five receptions for 54 yards. Ryan Brady recorded a game-high 14 tackles with three tackles for loss, while Stefanik added five tackles, a quarterback sack and a fumble recovery.

BOSTON COLLEGE 62, HOLY CROSS 14

September 8, 2018 • Chestnut Hill, Mass.

Spencer Gilliam blocked one punt and returned another blocked punt for a touchdown, as Holy Cross fell to Boston College 62-14 at Alumni Stadium. A.J. Dillon led the Eagles by rushing for 149 yards and three touchdowns on the afternoon and received the Capt. Edward J. O'Melia Trophy as the game's most valuable player. Ryan Brady led the Crusaders with 15 total tackles, three tackles for loss and a fumble recovery, while Domenic Cozier carried 12 times for a team-best 43 yards. Boston College opened the game by jumping out to a 21-0 lead on three first quarter scoring runs by Dillon. The Eagles added 13 more points in the second quarter to make the score 34-0 at the break, with a touchdown pass from E.J. Perry to Ben Glines and an interception return by Hamp Cheevers. Boston College scored two more touchdowns in the third quarter, before Holy Cross put its first points on the board when Gilliam blocked a punt and Cristos Argys returned it 32 yards for a touchdown. The Crusaders would score again in the fourth quarter when Macklin Kortebein blocked a punt and Gilliam returned it one yard for a score, while the Eagles added 14 more points in the final frame.

2018 GAME-BY-GAME RECAPS

HOLY CROSS 31, YALE 28 (OT)

September 15, 2018 • Worcester, Mass.

Derek Ng booted a 45-yard field goal in overtime to break a 28-28 tie and lift Holy Cross to a 31-28 victory over Yale at Fitton Field. Yale had the ball first in overtime and reached the Holy Cross five-yard line, where it faced fourth-and-goal. The Bulldogs went for it, but Zane Dudek was tackled for a loss by Ryan Brady and Corey Stefanik. The Crusaders then took over on the 25-yard line, and after running the ball three times Ng kicked the game-winning field goal. Yale had opened the game by jumping out to an early 21-0 lead in the first quarter, before Holy Cross put its first points on the board with a 30-yard scoring run by Miles Alexander. After recovering the ensuing onside kick, the Crusaders marched 48 yards in six plays to make the score 21-14 on a one-yard touchdown run by Geoff Wade. The Bulldogs responded with a 20-yard touchdown pass from Kurt Rawlings to Reed Klubnik early in the second quarter, and led 28-14 at halftime. The score remaining the same until the fourth quarter, when Wade hit Martin Dorsey with a 29-yard scoring strike to trim the deficit to 28-21 with 4:32 left. After the defense forced Yale to punt on its next possession, Wade found Spencer Gilliam for a 30-yard touchdown with 52 seconds left to play, forcing overtime. Wade hit on 17 of 28 passes for 242 yards and two scores on the afternoon, while rushing the ball 11 times for 70 yards and a touchdown. Joe Lang finished the day with 11 tackles, a sack and a pass breakup, while Brady added 11 tackles and one tackle for loss. The Bulldogs were led by Dudek with 217 rushing yards on 22 carries.

DARTMOUTH 34, HOLY CROSS 14

September 22, 2018 • Worcester, Mass.

Ryan Brady made a career-high 17 total tackles, but the Crusaders were defeated by Dartmouth 34-14 at Fitton Field. Alex Johnson finished the game with a career-best 13 tackles, while back Joe Lang added eight tackles with one tackle for loss. On the offensive side of the ball, Geoff Wade hit on 20 of 31 passes for 196 yards and two scores. Dartmouth's Derek Kyler completed 25 of 35 attempts for 258 yards and three scored on the day, and Isiah Swan posted three tackles and three interceptions for the Big Green defense. Dartmouth moved the ball deep into Holy Cross territory on each of its first four possessions, but led just 6-0 midway through the second quarter as Connor Davis only made two of four field goal attempts. The Big Green then added a 25-yard scoring run by Caylin Parker, before Kyler hit Drew Estrada for a 17-yard touchdown with just three seconds left in the quarter to make the score 20-0 at halftime. In the second half, Dartmouth increased its lead to 34-0 as Kyler threw a pair of touchdown passes to Connor Rempel. The Crusaders put their first points on the board when Wade hit Derek Mountain for a 70-yard touchdown early in the fourth quarter. Tate Beachley then scored the final points of the day on a nine-yard scoring strike from Wade. The Big Green finished the game with 448 yards of total offense, in addition to holding the ball for 39:34. Holy Cross managed just 209 total yards and committed four turnovers.

BUCKNELL 19, HOLY CROSS 16 September 29, 2018 • Worcester, Mass.

Martin Dorsey set career highs with 10 receptions and 167 receiving yards, but the Crusaders were defeated by Bucknell 19-16 on Homecoming weekend at Fitton Field. Following the game, Bucknell's Jared Cooper received the Johnny Turco Award, which is presented annually by the Holy Cross Varsity Club, the Class of 1952 and the Holy Cross Club of Worcester to the Most Outstanding Player in the Homecoming day game. Cooper rushed the ball 24 times for 75 yards and a touchdown, while catching four passes for 15 yards. The Crusaders opened the game by taking a 7-0 lead at the 4:46-mark of the first quarter on a seven-yard touchdown run by Domenic Cozier. The Bison responded with a pair of field goals by Ethan Torres in the second quarter, and Holy Cross went into the locker room up 7-6. Bucknell pulled in front in the third quarter on a 36-yard scoring run by Cooper, then made the score 19-7 early in the fourth quarter when Alan Butler caught a 22-yard touchdown pass from Logan Bitikofer. The Crusaders trimmed the margin to 19-9 a few minutes later when Neil Vorster tackled Cooper in the end zone. Geoff Wade then found Richie DeNicola for a 59-yard touchdown to make the score 19-16 with 6:57 left to play. But Holy Cross would not get the ball back until just 36 seconds remained in the fourth quarter, and was unable to pick up another first down before the Bison ran out the clock. Wade finished the game by hitting on 18 of 32 passes for 265 yards and a score, while Cozier carried the ball 21 times for 87 yards and a touchdown. Teddy Capsis led the Crusader defense with six tackles, two sacks, three tackles for loss and a pass breakup.

2018 GAME-BY-GAME RECAPS

HARVARD 33, HOLY CROSS 31

October 12, 2018 • Cambridge, Mass.

Harvard's Jake McIntyre kicked a 25-yard field goal as time expired to lift the Crimson to a 33-31 victory over the Crusaders at Harvard Stadium. The Crimson led 30-14 after three quarters of play, before Holy Cross scored 17 straight points to take a 31-30 lead. The Crusader comeback began with a 24-yard touchdown run by Domenic Cozier, followed by a two-point conversion pass from Blaise Bell to Geoff Wade. After a safety trimmed the deficit to 30-24, Wade hit Martin Dorsey for a 13-yard touchdown to put Holy Cross up 31-30 with 8:12 remaining. Harvard had opened the game by jumping out to a 9-0 lead, before Wade found Dorsey for a 19-yard touchdown early in the second quarter to put the Crusaders on the board. The Crimson would add a touchdown and a field goal later in the quarter to build a 20-7 halftime lead. A two-yard scoring run by Cozier trimmed the deficit to 20-14 early in the third quarter, but Harvard came back with a 30-yard McIntyre field goal and a 28-yard touchdown pass from Tom Stewart to Tyler Adams to go up 30-14. Cozier finished the day with 74 yards on 15 carries, while Richie DeNicola posted four catches for 106 yards. Cullen Honohan led the Crusader defense with 10 tackles and two tackles for loss.

HOLY CROSS 56, LEHIGH 0

October 27, 2018 • Worcester, Mass.

Domenic Cozier rushed 24 times for a career-high 208 yards and a touchdown to lead the Crusaders to a 56-0 victory over Lehigh on Family Weekend at Fitton Field. Following the contest, Cozier received the Edward N. Anderson Award as the Most Valuable Player of Holy Cross' Family Weekend game. The Crusader offense racked up a season-high 540 total yards on the afternoon, including 405 rushing yards. On the defensive side of the ball, Holy Cross limited Lehigh to just 203 total yards and forced four turnovers. The Crusaders opened the scoring at the 4:45-mark of the first quarter on a 22-yard touchdown pass from Geoff Wade to Derek Mountain. Peter Oliver ran two yards for a score early in the second quarter, before a 16-yard touchdown scamper by Cozier made the score 21-0. Just before halftime, Wade found Martin Dorsey with a 26-yard scoring strike to put Holy Cross up 28-0 at the break. In the third quarter, Miles Alexander scored on a four-yard run and Wade threw a 19-yard touchdown pass to Dorsey to make the score 42-0. The Crusaders then concluded the scoring with a 15-yard touchdown pass from Wade to Tenio Ayeni and a nine-yard touchdown run by Oliver. Ryan Brady led the Holy Cross defense with nine tackles, a forced fumble and a tackle for loss, while Benton Whitley finished with six tackles, two quarterback sacks and three tackles for loss. The 56-point margin of victory was Holy Cross' largest since defeating Lehigh 63-6 on Sept. 26, 1987. In addition, the 56 points scored were the Crusaders' most since scoring 59 points at Lehigh on Oct. 20, 2007.

HOLY CROSS 17, FORDHAM 13

November 10, 2018 • Worcester, Mass.

Derek Mountain made a career-high five receptions for 60 yards and a touchdown, as the Crusaders came from behind to defeat Fordham 17-13 at Fitton Field. The Rams opened the scoring at the 9:40-mark of the first quarter on a 58-yard touchdown pass from Tim DeMorat to Isaiah Searight. Fordham then increased its lead to 10-0 on the final play of the first half, when Andrew Mevis kicked a 54-yard field goal. The Crusaders put their first point on the board midway through the third quarter when Geoff Wade threw a 23-yard scoring strike to Mountain. Holy Cross then took the lead later in the quarter on a five-yard touchdown pass from Wade to Martin Dorsey. In the fourth quarter, Derek Ng booted a 37-yard field goal into the wind to put the Crusaders up 17-10. Fordham would add a 34-yard Mevis field goal with 2:15 left to play, and would get the ball back one last time trailing by four. But on the final play of the game, DeMorat's pass into the end zone fell incomplete and Holy Cross held on for the victory. Ryan Brady finished the game with 11 tackles and two fumble recoveries, while Joe Lang totaled 12 tackles. The Crusaders' 221 yards of total offense were their fewest in a victory since a 13-10 win over Lehigh in 2005 (188 yards).

2018 GAME-BY-GAME RECAPS

HOLY CROSS 32, GEORGETOWN 31

November 17, 2018 • Washington, D.C.

Holy Cross rallied from a 26-point deficit with less than 20 minutes remaining to post a 32-31 victory Georgetown at Cooper Field. After trailing 31-5, Geoff Wade threw a 20-yard touchdown pass to Martin Dorsey with 4:21 left in the third quarter to begin the comeback. Early in the fourth quarter, Macklin Kortebein blocked a punt which was returned 38 yards for a touchdown by Spencer Gilliam. Less than five minutes later, Kortebein blocked a second punt which Peter Oliver brought back 27 yards for a score, and the Crusaders trailed 31-25. Still down by six with less than a minute and half to play, Wade found Tenio Ayeni for 30 yards on a third-and-15 play to give the Crusaders a first down at the Georgetown 23-yard line. Five plays later, Miles Alexander scored on a two-yard run with just 42 seconds on the clock to put Holy Cross up 32-31. Georgetown would have one last possession, but on the third play Chris Riley intercepted a pass to put the game away. The Crusader defense held Georgetown to just 212 yards of total offense and 10 first downs on the afternoon, while forcing a pair of turnovers. Ryan Brady led the way with 16 tackles, three tackles for loss and a safety, while Teddy Capsis added nine tackles with four tackles for loss. On the offensive side of the ball, Dorsey had a career-best 13 receptions for 139 yards and a score. The Crusaders' 26-point comeback was the largest in program history.

TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

1896-1929: THE EARLY YEARS

The first four seasons of Holy Cross football gave little indication of the great successes to come. In the school's first varsity game on Oct. 17, 1896, the Crusaders lost to Worcester Polytechnic Institute by a 10-0 margin. Later that first year, the Crusaders played the most controversial game in school history, a contest against Boston College which each school claims as a victory.

THE DISPUTED 1896 BOSTON COLLEGE GAME

On Nov. 14, 1896, Holy Cross claims to have won a 6-4 game over Boston College, while the Eagles claim to have won by a score of 8-6. With less than three minutes to play and the Crusaders leading 6-4, a fight broke out on the field. During the melee, Boston College's Hugh McGrath picked up the ball and crossed the Holy Cross goal line. The officials, however, did not allow the score, and the Eagles left the field in protest. The referee then awarded the win to Holy Cross, and the Crusaders left the field with an apparent victory. However, the story does not end there. The referee decided to reverse his decision after a Boston College protest, and asked both teams to return to the field. Holy Cross refused and claimed a 6-4 win, while the Eagles returned to field, scored without opposition, and claimed to have taken an 8-6 victory.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

Sept. 26, 1903: The Crusaders defeat Massachusetts Agricultural College 6-0 in their first home game on campus.

Sept. 26, 1908: Holy Cross defeats Norwich 5-0, in the first game played at the present site of Fitton Field.

Oct. 30, 1920: Lou Smith boots a 38-yard field goal to hand Syracuse its first loss, 3-0.

Sept. 27, 1924: Holy Cross defeats Catholic 13-7, in the first game at the newly-constructed Fitton Field.

Nov. 29, 1924: The Crusaders whip Boston College 33-0, before 50,000 fans at Braves Field.

Oct. 17, 1925: Holy Cross scores its first victory over Harvard, as captain John Crowley kicks the extra point in a 7-6 comeback victory.

1930S: THE ANDERSON ERA

The great Crusader teams of the 1930s were among the most dominating in school history, compiling a 75-15-7 record. The outstanding .809 winning percentage is the best of any decade in Holy Cross history, and the 76 wins were only exceeded by the 78 victories during the 1980s.

A large part of that success was due to Dr. Eddie Anderson, who took over as the Crusaders' coach in 1933. Anderson led Holy Cross from 1933-1938, and later returned for 15 more seasons from 1950-1964. During his initial stint, Anderson racked up a 47-7-4 mark, including the school's first two undefeated campaigns — 1935 (9-0-1) and 1937 (8-0-2).

The Anderson era began with a bang, as Holy Cross crushed St. Michael's 50-0 in his first game as Crusader mentor on Sept. 30, 1933, and just got better from there.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

Oct. 10, 1936: "Bullet" Bill Osmanski's 76-yard interception return sparks Holy Cross to a 7-0 win over Dartmouth, its first in the series.

THE UNDEFEATED 1935 SEASON

Dr. Eddie Anderson's 1935 squad finished the season with an overall record of 9-0-1, to become the first undefeated team in school history. En route to the undefeated season, Holy Cross topped Colgate 3-0 on a Rex Kidd field goal, handing the Red Raiders their first loss to an Eastern opponent in four years. Also included in that season was a 79-0 blitzing of Bates on Nov. 16 (the school's largest ever margin of victory), in which the Crusaders totaled 736 rushing yards and 12 touchdowns. Fittingly, Anderson's Crusaders finished their undefeated season with a 20-6 victory over Boston College on Nov. 30.

Nov. 26, 1938: Holy Cross completes an 8-1 season with a 29-7 win over Boston College, and the Crusaders end the season ranked ninth in the final Associated Press poll. Dr. Anderson leaves Holy Cross for the University of Iowa after compiling a 47-7-4 record over six seasons.

Oct. 14, 1939: Holy Cross beats Georgia 13-0, giving the Crusaders three victories over the Bulldogs in three years. The visiting Crusaders had to overcome some shaky officiating from the southern officials, who later got into a shoving match with the two northern officials.

1940S: OF BOWLS & UPSETS

The Holy Cross teams of the 1940s did not distinguish themselves with their record (47-41-8), but instead with a pair of performances that are vivid in the minds of many even today.

In one of the greatest upsets in college football history, Holy Cross stunned undefeated and top-ranked Boston College 55-12 at Fenway Park on Nov. 28, 1942. Johnny Bezemes caught two touchdown passes from John Grigas, threw for a score, and returned an interception 64 yards for another touchdown, helping knock the Eagles out of a Sugar Bowl berth. Holy Cross finished just 5-4-1, but was 19th in the final Associated Press poll. That night, 496 people died in a fire at the Cocoanut Grove night club, where Boston College had planned a victory celebration, but cancelled after the loss. The fire was the nation's worst since 1903.

A few years later, the Crusaders faced Miami on Jan. 1, 1946, in the Orange Bowl, suffering a 13-6 defeat. The game was tied 6-6 in the closing seconds when Holy Cross tried a last-play long pass, but Miami's Al Hudson intercepted the tipped pass and took it back 89 yards for the game-winning touchdown.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

Sept. 27, 1941: The Crusaders open the season with a 19-13 victory over Louisiana State at Tiger Stadium in Baton Rouge, La.

Oct. 14, 1945: A Fitton Field crowd of 26,000 sees Stan Kozlowski score two touchdowns, pass for another and kick two extra points in a 26-7 victory over Villanova. Later that season, Kozlowski would throw Holy Cross' only touchdown pass in the Orange Bowl loss to Miami.

TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

THE ANDERSON ERA, PART II

After departing Holy Cross for Iowa in 1939, Anderson returned to Worcester to guide the Crusaders from 1950 to 1964. Although not quite as successful as his first stint with Holy Cross in the 1930s, Anderson's teams in the 1950s team compiled a 56-38-3 mark (.593). During his second tenure, Anderson's Crusaders also managed to defeat Boston College seven times.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

Dec. 2, 1950: Trailing Boston College 14-0, after suffering a 76-0 defeat against the Eagles the year before, Johnny Turco's 97-yard kickoff return sparks Holy Cross to a 32-14 win.

Sept. 26, 1953: Holy Cross defeats Dartmouth 28-6 in Lynn, Mass., in the first nationally televised game from New England.

Nov. 6, 1955: After Tony Santaniello recovers a Dayton fumble, Tom Roberts hits Dale Hohl for a nine-yard score with just 50 seconds remaining for a 13-7 victory.

Dec. 1, 1956: Bill Smithers finds Paul Toland with 39 seconds left for a 7-0 win over Boston College.

Nov. 30, 1957: Vince Promuto recovers eight Boston College fumbles in Holy Cross' soggy 14-0 victory.

Oct. 18, 1958: John Esposito's 81-yard return of a blocked field goal late in the game gives the Crusaders a 14-8 win over Dartmouth.

1960S:

A SHORTENED SEASON

The highlight, such as it is, of this decade was the season that wasn't — 1969. Along with the 1918 team, the 1969 squad played the shortest schedule of any Crusader team — just two games. After losing to Harvard and Dartmouth to start the season, nearly 90 players and coaches from Bill Whitton's squad were inflicted with hepatitis, forcing the cancellation of the final eight games of the season. In a touching gesture, the team from Sacramento State decided to dedicate its season to Holy Cross, wearing the Crusaders' purple jerseys against Puget Sound and flying Crusader co-captains Tom Lamb and Bill Moncevicz to the game. Sacramento State flanker Mike Carter, who initiated his school's involvement with Holy Cross, was presented with an honorary O'Melia Award.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

Nov. 28, 1964: In Anderson's final game as Crusader coach, Holy Cross falls to Boston College 10-8. Anderson finished his 21 seasons at Holy Cross with a 129-67-8 (.652) record.

Nov. 26, 1966: Jack Lentz hits Pete Kimener for a touchdown in the final minute to beat Boston College, 32-26. Mike Kaminski had kicked a pair of then-record 44-yard field goals in the first quarter. Lentz becomes the first player to win the Edward O'Melia Award twice.

1970S:

TRYING TIMES

Any program that spans over a century is bound to have some down years, and for Holy Cross football that period was the 1970s. Amazingly, this is one of just four decades in which the Crusaders finished below .500, as they posted an overall mark of 37-68-3 (.352) from 1970-1979. Even in the down times, however, Holy Cross had some high points — in this case back-to-back wins over Boston College in 1977 and 1978. In addition, head coach Ed Doherty took over a team that had not won a game since 1968 and directed the Crusaders to a 4-6 mark in 1971 — becoming the first coach to earn New England Coach of the Year honors with a losing record.

PAT MCCARTHY IN THE NCAA RECORD BOOK

A trio of NCAA records by a Crusader quarterback have stood the test of time. Pat McCarthy (Class of 1963) stands among Holy Cross' all-time leaders in scoring (176 points), touchdown runs (25), total offense (4,534 yards) and passing yards (3,289), but his knack for the two-point conversion remains impressive over 50 years later. In 1960, McCarthy scored six two-point conversions, which is still tied for the best single-season performance in NCAA history. His career totals of 13 conversion runs and 19 conversion passes are also NCAA records, which he continues to hold by himself.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

Oct. 17, 1970: In a 33-23 loss to Boston University, Colin Clapton connects with Eddie Jenkins on a 99-yard touchdown pass, tying an NCAA record.

Sept. 16, 1972: Joe Wilson romps to what was then a school-record 274 yards rushing, to lead Holy Cross to a 24-14 victory over Rutgers.

Sept. 21, 1974: John Provost intercepts four passes and returns two punts (59 and 82 yards) for scores against Brown. Provost would finish his career with 27 interceptions and 470 interception return yards, both of which currently rank as the second-most in NCAA Division I-AA history.

Sept. 23, 1978: The Crusaders travel to Colorado Springs, Colo., and post a 35-18 victory over a Bill Parcells-coached Air Force team.

1980S:

RETURN TO DOMINANCE

Simply put, the Crusaders of the 1980s were the most consistently dominating of any teams in school history. The numbers are gaudy: Holy Cross won more than 70 percent of its games (78-31-2, .711), outscored the opposition by an average of more than 10.5 points per game (27-16), won five Lambert Cups, four ECAC team of the year awards, and three of the initial four Patriot League championships.

The turning point for the program came on Dec. 17, 1980, when athletic director Ron Perry announced that Rick Carter would take the helm of the Crusaders, after leading Dayton to a 14-0 mark and the Division III national championship. On Sept. 12, 1981, Holy Cross topped Boston University 14-6 in Carter's debut, and the Crusaders' first game as a Division I-AA team. Carter compiled a 35-19-2 record in his five seasons, including leading Holy Cross to its first Division I-AA playoff game, a 28-21 home loss to Western Carolina in 1983.

Mark Duffner took over as head coach of the Crusaders on Feb. 8, 1986 — just six days after the death of Carter — and made an already successful program into the finest in Division I-AA. In his six seasons, Duffner's teams never won fewer than nine games, as he compiled an unbelievable 60-5-1 record.

TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

But great coaches need great players, and the Crusaders of the 1980s were blessed with many. In addition to Gordie Lockbaum, Holy Cross had 12 other players earn first team All-America honors during the decade, and eight more earn second or third team honors — including the school's all-time leaders in rushing yards (Gill Fenerty, 3,680 yards), passing yards (Jeff Wiley, 9,698 yards, now second all-time) and interceptions (Dave Murphy, 28 interceptions, most in New England history and second-most in NCAA Division I-AA history).

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

Oct. 29, 1983: Gill Fenerty has a spectacular game against Columbia, rushing for a school-record 337 yards and six touchdowns on just 18 carries (18.7 yards per carry).

Dec. 3, 1983: Third-ranked Holy Cross falls to Western Carolina 28-21, in the Division I-AA quarterfinals. The Crusaders claim their first Lambert Cup, and Rick Carter is named National Coach of the Year.

Dec. 1, 1984: A crowd of 25,000 fans pack Fitton to see Boston College's Doug Flutie on the day he would receive the Heisman Trophy. The Eagles won 45-10.

TWO-WAY STANDOUT GORDIE LOCKBAUM

If Gordie Lockbaum is not the greatest player in Holy Cross history, he is at least the most highly decorated. Lockbaum finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting as a junior, and then jumped to third in the voting as a senior, after capping his remarkable two-way career as a Crusader. Lockbaum was featured on numerous television shows, newspapers and magazines — including a feature in Sports Illustrated. Lockbaum was more than two-way hype however, as he still holds nine school records, in addition to being a two-time All-America selection for his play as a defensive back. His most explosive effort was a six touchdown performance against Dartmouth on Homecoming in 1986. Lockbaum was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001.

Sept. 13, 1986: Scott Rudy's 82-yard interception return for a touchdown lifts Holy Cross to a 17-14 win over Lehigh in the Colonial League's inaugural game.

Oct. 18, 1986: Bill Young's 38-yard field goal and a heroic defensive stand in the final minutes lift the Crusaders to a 17-14 victory at Army.

Nov. 22, 1986: Unbeaten Holy Cross takes a 14-0 lead over Hall of Fame Bowl-bound Boston College, but the Eagles come back to win 56-26 before a crowd of 25,000 at Fitton Field. The 82-game series is discontinued three months later.

Sept. 26, 1987: Quarterback Jeff Wiley throws for 414 yards and seven touchdowns in a 63-6 rout of Lehigh.

Nov. 19, 1987: Playing before an ESPN national television audience, Holy Cross defeats Villanova, 39-6, to complete its first 11-0 campaign and finish the season ranked No. 1 in the polls. Gordie Lockbaum catches 15 passes for 196 yards and sets or ties seven school records in his final game.

Sept. 24, 1988: Darin Cromwell laterals to Tim Donovan for a 72-yard kickoff return touchdown as time expires, stunning Princeton 30-26.

Sept. 9, 1989: In his first collegiate start, quarterback Tom Ciaccio completes 31 of 43 passes for a school-record 449 yards (in addition to finishing with a school-record 491 yards of total offense) in a 38-17 drubbing of Villanova.

1990S: A DECADE OF TRANSITION

The start of the 1990s was really a continuation of the heady successes of the 1980s, as the final two seasons of Mark Duffner's reign resulted in another pair of Patriot League titles in 1990 (9-1-1) and 1991 (11-0). But the 1990s also saw full transition to the non-scholarship Patriot League.

The 1990s featured a pair of milestones, as the Crusaders won their 500th game and made their first international trip. Win No. 500 came on Nov. 3, 1990, when Holy Cross defeated Bucknell 43-14. The first trip outside the country saw the Crusaders down Fordham 24-19 on Nov. 16, 1991, at the Wild Geese Classic in Limerick, Ireland. That win was also Holy Cross' 19th straight, breaking the Division I-AA record held by Eastern Kentucky.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

Nov. 17, 1990: The Holy Cross defense limits Colgate to 14 rushing yards in a 35-6 victory, clinching the Patriot League title. The Crusaders win their ninth straight game, and the defense finishes the season allowing just 106 points, the fewest since 1958.

Oct. 19, 1991: Mark Roman makes 11 catches for a school-record 216 yards in Holy Cross' 42-28 comeback win over Brown.

Oct. 26, 1991: In a battle of unbeatens that went above and beyond expectations, Holy Cross outslugged Lehigh for a 43-42 victory in one of the school's most exciting games ever. The score was tied 7-7 at halftime, before the teams went on to combine for a league record 1,172 yards in total offense.

Nov. 23, 1991: The Crusaders complete their second-ever 11-0 season with a 28-3 thumping of Colgate at Fitton Field. Holy Cross finishes the season at No. 3 in the Division I-AA national poll, its second-highest ranking ever.

Nov. 6, 1993: Chris Summers catches eight passes for 127 yards and a school-record four touchdowns against Lafayette. He finishes the year with a Holy Cross single-season record 13 touchdown receptions.

Sept. 17, 1994: J.R. Walz rushes for 103 yards on 12 carries, becoming the first Holy Cross freshman to record 100 yards or more in the Division I-AA era.

Nov. 5, 1994: Rob Callahan throws a 38-yard scoring pass to John Myers with eight seconds remaining, as Holy Cross tops Bucknell 27-20 at Fitton Field. Earlier in the game, Anthony Pignio hit a 47-yard field goal to become the school's all-time leader in field goals made. He would finish his career with 37.

Oct. 28, 1995: Four years after the Holy Cross-Fordham clash in Ireland, the teams once again travel abroad, meeting in Bermuda Bowl III. Fordham prevails 17-10 in a contest played in National Stadium in Hamilton, Bermuda.

Nov. 22, 1997: Jeff Laboranti breaks the school record for career receiving yards by catching seven passes for 102 yards in the final game of his career. Earlier in the season he set the career mark for receptions.

Oct. 17, 1998: In the first overtime game in school history, the Crusaders fall at Harvard 20-14.

Nov. 20, 1999: Brian Hall becomes the first player in school history to throw for more than 300 yards (301) and rush for more than 100 yards (105) in the same game, while accounting for four touchdowns.

TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

2000S: A NEW MILLENNIUM

The Holy Cross football team entered the new millennium with high hopes of returning to the dominance of the 1980s. The opening season of the decade put the Crusaders back on the map in New England football circles. Holy Cross posted a mark of 7-4 in 2000, good for the Crusaders' highest win total since 1991.

Entering head coach Tom Gilmore's 13th season, Holy Cross has become a perennial Patriot League contender as it continues its rise back to the top of Division I-AA football. In 2009, the Crusaders won their first Patriot League championship since 1991, and advanced to the NCAA playoffs for the first time since 1983.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

Oct. 7, 2000: David Thompson and Erreich Stewart are picked as co-winners of the Johnny Turco Memorial Award, becoming the first players to share the honor.

Nov. 4, 2000: Ryan Rolfert hits a 39-yard field goal as time expires to lead Holy Cross to a 10-9 win over Bucknell.

Oct. 20, 2001: Brian Hall leads the Crusaders to a 63-53 victory over Lafayette, completing 32 of 42 passes for 416 yards and five touchdowns.

Sept. 7, 2002: Holy Cross defeats a Division I-A opponent for the first time since 1987, with a 30-21 victory at Army.

Sept. 27, 2003: Holy Cross falls at San Diego 46-45 in double overtime, marking the first two-overtime game ever played by the Crusaders.

Nov. 22, 2003: Ari Confesor posts 11 receptions for 161 yards in the season finale against Colgate, to set school single-season (1,213) and career (2,352) marks for receiving yards.

Nov. 20, 2004: The Crusaders post their first-ever overtime win, defeating Georgetown 31-28.

Sept. 3, 2005: Steve Silva accounts for six touchdowns — three rushing, two passing and one receiving — in a 56-21 victory over Sacred Heart.

Oct. 15, 2005: Steve Silva sets school single-game records with 353 all-purpose yards and 167 punt return yards in a 28-16 win over Dartmouth.

Sept. 15, 2007: Dominic Randolph throws four touchdown passes, including a 40-yard strike to Thomas Harrison with 19 seconds remaining, as Holy Cross defeats Harvard 31-28 at Fitton Field.

Oct. 6, 2007: The Crusaders post a thrilling 48-37 victory at Brown, as Dominic Randolph throws for 404 yards and six touchdowns.

Nov. 17, 2007: Holy Cross comes from behind to down Colgate 27-20 at Fitton Field, with Dominic Randolph throwing for 441 yards and accounting for 473 yards of total offense.

Oct. 4, 2008: The Crusaders suffer a 31-28 double overtime loss at Yale, after rallying from 14 points down with less than four minutes left in the fourth quarter.

Nov. 15, 2008: Dominic Randolph throws a 27-yard scoring pass to Rob Koster with six seconds left, as Holy Cross comes back for a 27-26 win at Lafayette.

Nov. 14, 2009: The Crusaders rally from a 12-point second quarter deficit to defeat Lafayette 28-26, clinching the Patriot League title.

Nov. 28, 2009: During a 38-28 loss at eventual national champion Villanova in the first round of the NCAA playoffs, Dominic Randolph breaks the all-time Division I-AA record for career completions. He finished the game and his career with 1,131 completions.

Oct. 23, 2010: Ryan Taggart threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Bill Edger with 5.2 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter, to give Holy Cross a 31-24 victory at Colgate.

Sept. 17, 2011: The Crusaders defeat Harvard 30-22 at Fitton Field, to hand the eventual Ivy League champions what would be their only loss of the season.

Oct. 5, 2013: In the first triple overtime game in school history, Holy Cross is defeated by Harvard 41-35 at Fitton Field.

Nov. 2, 2013: During a 32-30 loss at Fordham, Mike Fess posts the 191st reception of his Holy Cross career, to become the Crusaders' all-time leader. He went on to finish his career with 209 receptions.

Oct. 17, 2015: Peter Pujals throws for 508 yards in a 47-41 overtime loss at Fordham.

Oct. 24, 2015: Brendan Flaherty ties the school single-game record with four touchdown receptions in a 42-0 victory over Lafayette.

THE LEGEND OF DOMINIC RANDOLPH

After missing his entire freshman season in 2005 due to injury, few people expected anything out of quarterback Dominic Randolph heading into the 2006 campaign. A wide receiver in high school, he was just one of the players competing for the open quarterback job that fall. When Randolph first stepped onto the field on Sept. 2, 2006, little did people know that they were seeing the beginning of one of the greatest careers in college football history. Randolph would eventually break nearly every passing record in school history, finishing his career by completing 1,131 of 1,786 passes for 13,455 yards and 117 touchdowns. He posted a 30-13 record in the 43 games he played during his collegiate career, and became the first player in conference history to be selected the Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year three times.

Nov. 21, 2015: In the third quarter of a 45-7 victory over Georgetown, Brendan Flaherty makes his 102nd reception of the season, to break the Patriot League single-season record. He would finish the year with 106 total catches.

Sept. 16, 2017: Peter Pujals totals 367 passing yards and five touchdowns as the Crusaders knock off ninth-ranked New Hampshire 51-26 at Fitton Field.

Oct. 7, 2017: Peter Pujals throws for a school record 509 yards in a 48-36 loss to Monmouth.

Sept. 15, 2018: After trailing Yale 21-0 in the first quarter, Holy Cross comes back to defeat the Bulldogs 31-28 in overtime on Derek Ng's game-ending 45-yard field goal.

Nov. 17, 2018: The Crusaders rally from 26 points down with less than 20 minutes remaining to post a 32-31 victory at Georgetown.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

1946 Orange Bowl

Miami (Fla.) 13, Holy Cross 6

January 1, 1946 • Orange Bowl • Miami, Fla.

Al Hudson of Miami is the only player ever to score a touchdown after time had officially expired in an Orange Bowl. This climax, the greatest in Orange Bowl history, gave the Hurricanes a 13-6 victory over Holy Cross in the 1946 contest, which appeared certain to end in a 6-6 tie. The deadlock appeared so certain that thousands of the spectators had headed for the exits. They were stopped in their tracks by the roar of the crowd, who saw Hudson leap high on the northeast side of the field to intercept Gene DeFillipo's long, desperation pass on last play of the game — and turn it into an 89-yard touchdown return. It was to his credit that DeFillipo did not want to settle for a tie. He flung the pass to Fran Parker, a 6'4" end, at Miami's 11-yard line. Parker made a frantic snatch at the ball, which bounced off his hands and hovered in the air long enough for Hudson to grab it. The Hurricanes had opened the game with a 6-0 lead in the second quarter, driving just 26 yards after Stan Kozlowski's punt was partially blocked by Carlos DiBuono. Joe Krull scored the touchdown from one yard out around left end, but Harry Ghaul's extra point attempt was blocked by Charley Stephenson. The Crusaders struck right back, with Kozlowski tossing a 16-yard touchdown pass to Walter Brennan in the southeast corner of the field. Joe Byers had a key 54-yard run during the drive, but Kozlowski missed the extra point to leave the score tied at 6-6. Neither team could muster much offense for the remainder of the game, before Hudson's interception return concluded the scoring.

1983 NCAA Division I-AA Quarterfinals

Western Carolina 28, Holy Cross 21

December 3, 1983 • Fitton Field • Worcester, Mass.

In a game which proved to be one of the most exciting ever at Fitton Field, a well-oiled Western Carolina passing attack dissected the Holy Cross defense for a 28-21 win in the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. Holy Cross jumped on top 7-0, as Gill Fenerty, coming off a shoulder separation, ran for a 33-yard touchdown early in the first period. It was not long, however, before a brilliant Western Carolina passing game had its first tally, a 30-yard pass from Jeff Gilbert to Eric Rasheed. A 7-7 halftime score had the 10,814 on hand anxious for a shootout in the second half. A hard hit in the first half kept Fenerty from further action, but substitute Sandy McMurtry stepped in and showed there was no difference between the two runners when he danced for a 38-yard touchdown and a 14-7 Crusader lead. Less than two minutes later, a Holy Cross breakdown gave the visitors a 14-14 tie after a 60-yard blocked punt return. For the first time, the stadium grew quiet. Another Gilbert scoring pass opened the fourth quarter, and Holy Cross trailed for the first time all day. Not to worry, the Crusaders' Chuck Doyle finished off a beautiful drive with a two-yard burst to tie the score again, at 21-21. But Western Carolina responded once again, as Gilbert hooked up with Rasheed for a 25-yard touchdown, making the score 28-21. Holy Cross would have the ball two more times, but was unable to score, and Western Carolina moved on to an eventual national runner-up finish.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

2009 NCAA Division I First Round

Villanova 38, Holy Cross 28

November 28, 2009 • Villanova Stadium • Villanova, Pa.

Dominic Randolph accounted for 353 yards of total offense and four touchdowns, but 17th-ranked Holy Cross was defeated by No. 2 Villanova 38-28 at Villanova Stadium in the first round of the NCAA football championship subdivision playoffs. Villanova took the opening kickoff and marched right down the field, taking a 7-0 lead on a six-yard scoring run by Aaron Ball. The Crusaders responded on their first possession, with Randolph rushing two yards for a touchdown. The Wildcats came right back with 29-yard touchdown pass from Chris Whitney to Dorian Wells, before Randolph threw a two-yard scoring strike to Alex Schneider to tie the game at 14-14 at the end of the first quarter. On Villanova's next possession, Michael Wright forced a fumble at the Holy Cross 15-yard line, but the officials ruled that the runner was down, allowing the Wildcats to keep the ball. Four plays later, Whitney scored on a one-yard rush to make the score 21-14. Angelo Babbaro then added a two-yard touchdown run late in the second quarter, and Villanova led 28-14 at halftime. In the third quarter, Bill Edger caught a 17-yard touchdown pass from Randolph, before Matt Szczur scored on a five-yard run for the Wildcats to make the score 35-21. Early in the fourth quarter, Randolph hooked up with Schneider on a five-yard scoring pass to cut the Villanova lead to seven points. But Nick Yako then kicked a 25-yard field goal to put the Wildcats up 38-28, and Villanova was able to hang on for the victory. C.J. Martin led the Holy Cross defense with 13 total tackles, including two tackles for loss.

ALL-TIME HEAD COACHES

1896-1897: 6-5-3

Peterson was a Worcester resident who starred at tackle and on the rowing team at Penn State. He coached in the controversial 1896 game with Boston College in which Holy Cross claims a 6-4 win.

JOHN J. CORBETT

1898: 1-0

For reasons undetermined, Corbett coached but one game at Holy Cross, defeating Massachusetts 23-0 in 1898.

MAURICE CONNOR

1898-1902: 27-15-4

An 1896 graduate of Harvard, Connor took over during the 1898 season, and led the Crusaders to a 7-1-1 mark in 1901. Connor later became a lawyer, and passed away on March 22, 1939.

MAJOR FRANK CAVANAUGH

1903-1905: 16-10-2

Cavanaugh coached Holy Cross for three seasons, and also spent time as head coach at Cincinnati in 1898 (5-1-3), Dartmouth from 1911-1916 (42-9-3), Boston College from 1919-1926 (48-14-5) and Fordham from 1927-1932 (34-14-4). He compiled a 145-48-17 career mark with 105 shutouts in 210 games, and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1954. A native of Worcester, Cavanaugh captained the 1898 Dartmouth team from his end position. He earned the nickname 'Iron Major' from shrapnel lodged in his head in World War I, and passed away on Aug. 29, 1933.

GEORGE W. KING

A 1904 Holy Cross graduate and All-America center, King coached but eight games. He died on Feb. 6, 1961.

TIMOTHY F. LARKIN

1907-1912: 18-25-8

The first Holy Cross coach to post a losing record, Larkin was a 1905 graduate who played quarterback and was inducted in the Holy Cross Hall of Fame. Larkin also earned a law degree in 1909, and later became a reporter for the Worcester Gazette. He passed away on Jan. 14, 1960.

HARRY VAN KERSBERG

Van Kersberg lasted just one season at Holy Cross, but counted a 13-0 defeat of Boston College among his victories.

LUKE J. KELLY

1914-1917: 12-17-3

Kelly spent four seasons as head coach, with his teams posting shutout victories over Boston College in both 1914 and 1915.

BART F. SULLIVAN

1918: 2-0

Sullivan was called 'Mr. Holy Cross' for his 52-year tenure as track coach, trainer and football coach. A 1904 Olympian who later coached three Olympians, he was inducted into the Helms Foundation Hall of Fame in 1961 and the Holy Cross Hall of Fame in 1959. Sullivan, who finished third in the 1904 Boston Marathon, passed away in 1968.

CLEO A. O'DONNELL

1919-1929: 69-27-6

A 1908 Holy Cross graduate, O'Donnell ranks second all-time in victories (69), and third in winning percentage (.706) and games coached (102). He also spent time as the head coach at Purdue from 1916-1917 (5-8-1) and St. Anselm from 1935-1940 (27-11-1), leading St. Anselm to two undefeated seasons. In addition, O'Donnell was Holy Cross' athletic director from 1926-1935.

CAPTAIN JOHN J. MCEWAN

1930-1932: 21-5-1

A 1914 All-American at Army, McEwan was called the greatest center in the history of college football at the time. He coached at Army from 1923-1925 (18-5-3) and Oregon from 1926-1929 (20-13-2), before moving to Holy Cross where he compiled a .796 winning percentage. He was fired with three games left in the 1932 season after a sideline fight with Bart Sullivan over the use of a player. A colonel in the Army and later the chairman of the New York Touchdown Club, McEwan also coached the Brooklyn Dodgers of the NFL and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1962. He passed away on Aug. 9, 1970.

ARTHUR CORCORAN

An assistant to O'Donnell and McEwan, Corcoran finished the 1932 season, but his teams did not win a game or score a point.

DR. EDWARD N. ANDERSON

Anderson took two turns at the helm of Holy Cross football, and remains the all-time leader in games coached and wins. He had a 47-7-4 record in his first tenure, including undefeated marks in 1935 and 1937. In 1938, Anderson led the Crusaders to a 9-1 record and a No. 9 national ranking. He then spent eight years at Iowa from 1939-1942 and 1946-1949 (35-33-2), and in 1939 helped Nile Kinnick win the Heisman Trophy while earning National Coach of the Year honors. Anderson returned to Holy Cross in 1950 and was 82-60-4 in his second tenure, including 8-2 marks in 1951 and 1952. Anderson graduated from Notre Dame, where he played end and served as team captain under Knute Rockne. He also coached at Loras (16-6-1) and DePaul (21-22-4), while earning a medical degree from Rush Medical College and playing professional football. Anderson's career record of 201-128-15 still ranks him 24th all-time in Division I-A victories. Inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1971, he passed away on April 26, 1974.

JOSEPH L. SHEEKETSKI

Sheeketski came to Holy Cross in 1933 and coached the backfield for six seasons before taking over for Eddie Anderson, earning the head coaching job on a secret ballot of the players. Sheeketski's 1939 team went 7-2, while his 1941 squad posted a 19-13 win at Louisiana State. He later coached at Nevada from 1947-1950 (24-18). A 1933 graduate of Notre Dame, Sheeketski played halfback for Knute Rockne. He passed away in 1996.

ANTHONY J. SCANLAN

1942-1944: 16-8-3

Scanlan served as the Crusaders' head coach for three seasons, and led Holy Cross to one of the greatest upsets in college football history, the 55-12 demolition of unbeaten and No. 1-ranked Boston College in 1942. Prior to his time with the Crusaders, Scanlan coached at St. Joseph's Prep in Philadelphia. Oddly, Scanlan never moved to Worcester and continued his position with his own textile firm in Philadelphia, commuting to some practices and games.

JOHN DAGROSA

1945-1947: 17-10-2

DaGrosa came to Holy Cross in 1942 as backfield coach, and worked under Ank Scanlon for three years, serving as day-to-day head of the team while Scanlon traveled in his other position. He then took over as head coach for three years, and in 1945 guided Holy Cross to a sterling 8-2 mark and an Orange Bowl appearance. A graduate of Colgate, DaGrosa coached the line at Georgetown while studying law, and also served as an assistant at Temple and with the Philadelphia Eagles. Throughout his tenure at Holy Cross, he also held a federal appointment.

ALL-TIME HEAD COACHES

DR. WILLIAM T. OSMANSKI

1948-1949: 6-14-0

A 1939 Holy Cross graduate, Osmanski led the Crusaders for two seasons from 1948-1949. A native of Providence, R.I., he scored touchdowns on his first and last carries at Holy Cross, and is the only player in school history to have his jersey number (25) retired. Osmanski then joined the Chicago Bears, and in 1939 became the NFL's first rookie to earn all-league honors. He studied dentistry at Northwestern while playing for the Bears, and accumulated five world championship rings. Following a stint in the Navy, he returned to the Bears as backfield coach. Osmanski was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1973, and passed away on Dec. 25, 1996.

MELVIN G. MASSUCCO

Massucco served as Holy Cross' head coach for two years, with his 1966 team going 6-3-1. He was previously an assistant coach for 11 years, in addition to serving as hockey coach, a freshman baseball and lacrosse assistant, recruiting coordinator and assistant to the athletic director. A 1954 graduate of Holy Cross, Massucco was a three-year starter at halfback and punter, earning All-East and Catholic All-America honors. Massucco also served as the head coach at Worcester Polytechnic Institute from 1967-1977 (25-60-1), and was a color commentator on Crusader football radio broadcasts. He passed away on March 23, 2002.

TOM BOISTURE

1967-1968: 8-11-1

Boisture took over as the Crusaders' head coach in 1967, serving for two years. His top season came in 1967, when he led Holy Cross to a 5-5 record. Prior to his time as head coach, Boisture served as the Crusaders' defensive coordinator in 1966, and as offensive backfield coach at Houston for four years. A native of Detroit, Mich., he went on to spend several years as the New York Giants director of player personnel. Boisture was a 1955 graduate of Mississippi State, where he was a two-way guard. In addition, his son, Dave, played quarterback at Holy Cross from 1979-1981. Boisture passed away on March 11, 2011.

BILL WHITTON

Named the Crusaders' head coach in 1969, Whitton's first team played and lost two games before an outbreak of infectious hepatitis ended the season. The next year was not much better, as the team went 0-10-1. Prior to his time with the Crusaders, Whitton served as an assistant coach at Lehigh for six years and at Princeton for 13 seasons. Born in Scotland in 1920, Whitton had a three-year football career as two-way end at St. Lawrence University, graduating in 1947. He passed away on Nov. 1, 2007.

ED DOHERTY

1971-1975: 20-31-2

Doherty spent five years as Holy Cross' head coach from 1971-1975. During the 1971 season, he became the first man to earn New England Coach of the Year honors with a losing record, as his team went 4-6 following an 0-10-1 campaign in 1970. Prior to his time with the Crusaders, Doherty served as the head coach at Arizona State from 1947-1950 (25-17), Rhode Island in 1951 (3-5), Arizona from 1957-1958 (4-15-1) and Xavier from 1959-1961 (15-15). Doherty graduated from Boston College in 1944, and was a two-time All-East quarterback. He passed away on Jan. 2, 2000, in Tucson, Ariz.

NEIL WHEELWRIGHT

1976-1980: 20-35-0

Wheelwright served as the Crusaders' head coach for five seasons, from 1976-1980. His teams posted victories over Boston College in both 1977 (35-20) and 1978 (30-29), marking Holy Cross' last two wins over the Eagles. A 1954 graduate of Springfield College, Wheelwright came to Holy Cross after posting a 41-37-2 record as the head coach at Colgate from 1968-1975. He also spent time as an assistant at Hofstra and Colgate.

RICK CARTER

1981-1985: 35-19-2

Carter spent five seasons as the Crusaders' head coach from 1981-1985, laying the groundwork for the success Holy Cross would achieve in the late 1980s and early 1990s. His 1983 team was ranked No. 3 in the nation, and was the first Holy Cross team to ever qualify for the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. The Crusaders also won the Lambert Cup and were named the ECAC Team of the Year in 1983, as Carter took home National Coach of the Year honors. Carter came to Holy Cross after compiling a 39-7-2 record in four seasons at Dayton (1977-1980). In 1980, he led the Flyers to the Division III national title, posting a 14-0 record and earning National Coach of the Year honors. Carter also went 36-11 in five years as head coach at Hanover (1972-1976), and 27-21-3 in six years at Earlham College (1966-1971). A 1964 graduate of Earlham, Carter was an All-America quarterback on the football team. He passed away on Feb. 2, 1986.

MARK DUFFNER

Named head coach on Feb. 8, 1986, Duffner took over a team in a state of emotional despair and quickly transformed it into the nation's most successful Division I-AA program. He guided the Crusaders to a 60-5-1 record in six seasons, including 11-0 marks in 1987 and 1991. Holy Cross won five Patriot League championships, four Lambert Cups and four ECAC Team of the Year awards during Duffner's tenure, and also earned the No. 1 ranking in the final 1987 NCAA Division I-AA poll. In addition, he was named National Coach of the Year three times. Duffner left Holy Cross following the 1991 season to become head coach at Maryland, where he went 20-35 in five seasons. A native of Annandale, Va., Duffner was a standout defensive tackle at William & Mary, graduating in 1975. He also served as an assistant coach at Ohio State, defensive coordinator at Cincinnati and defensive coordinator at Holy Cross. Inducted into the Holy Cross Hall of Fame in 2008, Duffner has spent a number of years coaching in the National Football League, and is currently the linebackers coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

PETER VAAS

A native of Westwood, Mass., Vaas spent four seasons as the Crusaders' head coach from 1992-1995. His only winning season came in 1992, when he led his squad to a second place finish in the Patriot League. A 1974 Holy Cross graduate, Vaas started at quarterback for three seasons. He was also the head coach at Allegheny College from 1986-1989 (29-11-1), leading his team to the 1987 NCAA Division III playoffs. Currently a private football consultant, Vaas also spent time as an assistant coach at Allegheny, Duke, Miami (Ohio), New Hampshire, Notre Dame and South Florida.

DAN ALLEN

1996-2003: 26-63

Allen spent eight seasons as head coach at Holy Cross from 1996-2003. He earned New England Coach of the Year honors in 2000 after leading the Crusaders to a 7-4 record and a second place finish in the Patriot League. Prior to his time with the Crusaders, Allen served as head coach at Boston University from 1990-1995, leading the Terriers to a 35-34 record. He was named the Division I-AA National Coach of the Year in 1993 after leading his squad to a 12-1 record, and guided Boston University to NCAA playoff appearances in 1993 and 1994. Previously, Allen spent eight seasons as an assistant coach at Holy Cross under Carter and Duffner. He passed away on May 16, 2004.

TOM GILMORE

2004-2017: 72-81

Gilmore spent 14 seasons as the Crusaders' head coach from 2004-2017. He was named the Patriot League Coach of the Year in 2006 and 2009, the New England Coach of the Year in 2009 and was a finalist for the 2009 Eddie Robinson Award. Gilmore's 2009 squad posted an overall record of 9-3, won the Patriot League championship and made a trip to the NCAA playoffs. He was relieved of his coaching duties with four games left in the 2017 season. Prior to his time at Holy Cross, Gilmore served as an assistant coach at Lehigh (2000-2003), Dartmouth (1992-1999), Pennsylvania (1986, 1990-1991) and Columbia (1987-1989). An Academic All-American and the Ivy League Player of the Year at Pennsylvania, Gilmore graduated in 1986 with a bachelor's degree in computer mathematics. He currently serves as the head coach at Lehigh.

BRIAN ROCK

The offensive coordinator under Gilmore for three years, Rock served as the team's interim head coach for the final four games of the 2017 season. The Crusaders posted a 2-2 record under his direction.

HONORS & AWARDS

RETIRED JERSEY #25 BILL OSMANSKI

The only football jersey number ever retired by the College of the Holy Cross is the No. 25, worn by "Bullet" Bill Osmanski. A member of the College Football Hall of Fame, Osmanski scored touchdowns on his first carry as a Crusader (against Bates in 1936) and his last (against Boston College in 1938). Osmanski went on to play several seasons for the Chicago Bears in the National Football League, and later returned to Worcester to coach the Crusaders from 1948-1949.

HONORS & AWARDS

THE DAVITT AWARDS

The Davitt Awards are presented annually to the top back and lineman for both the offense and defense. They were instituted by Jim Davitt (Class of 1913) of Holyoke, Mass., in memory of his brother, Rev. William Davitt (Class of 1907), who played football and ran track as an undergraduate, and was the last United States officer to lose his life in World War I. The awards are presented at the Holy Cross Varsity Club's Hall of Fame Banquet.

FITTON FIELD RECORDS & HISTORY

Today's Crusaders are fortunate to call Fitton Field their home. Storied Fitton is considered to be the finest natural grass facility for viewing and playing a college football game in the Northeast. Always in impeccable playing shape, the field has played host to some of the greatest teams in college football — Louisiana State, Boston College, Georgia, Syracuse and Penn State, to name a few.

The first home football game ever played at Holy Cross was a 6-0 defeat of Massachusetts Agricultural College on Sept. 26, 1903. It was not until 1905, however, that the field was dedicated Fitton Field, and again it was a meeting with the Aggies that christened the new field. This time, the Crusaders won 17-0.

Still, the football field was laid out across what is now the baseball field, and it was not until Sept. 26, 1908, that the first game was held at what is now the field's current site. The Crusaders defeated Norwich 5-0 on that inaugural day, over 100 years ago.

In 1908, Holy Cross added new wooden stands to the field, while just four years later a concrete structure replaced many of those seats, thus increasing the seating capacity of the stadium. It was not until 1924 that Holy Cross built the steel structuring that makes up today's stadium.

Prior to the 1986 season, the wooden stands were removed and replaced with aluminum stands and a complete horseshoe design with a capacity of 23,500.

FITTON FIELD FACTS

NAME: Fitton Field is named for Father Fitton, who was born on April 10, 1805, and ordained a Catholic priest in 1827. Born and raised in Boston, he purchased land in the name of the church in 1840, upon which he founded the Seminary of Mount St. James. In 1842, Father Fitton deeded the land to Bishop Benedict Joseph Fenwick, who founded the College of the Holy Cross in 1843.

FIRST GAME: The Crusaders defeated Massachusetts Agricultural College 6-0 on Sept. 26, 1903, in the first game played on the Holy Cross campus. The first game played at the current site of Fitton Field was on Sept. 26, 1908, as Holy Cross beat Norwich 5-0.

VINTAGE YEAR: The steel structure which comprises Fitton Field was erected in 1924, a popular year for the construction of several of the nation's more prominent football facilities. Among the other stadiums completed in 1924 are: Tiger (Louisiana State), Memorial (Texas), Ross-Ade (Purdue), Folsom Field (Colorado) and Michie (Army).

SEATING CAPACITY: 23,500. Fitton underwent a major renovation prior to the 1986 season, which included replacing the old wooden stands with new aluminum seating, maintaining the horseshoe configuration.

LARGEST CROWD: Holy Cross played before numerous crowds of 25,000 prior to the stadium renovation in 1986. The largest unofficial crowd was 27,000 for the Holy Cross-Brown clash on Nov. 11, 1938, as "Bullet" Bill Osmanski scored twice in the fourth quarter of his final home game for a 14-12 Crusader win.

LONGEST WINNING STREAK: 16 Games. Holy Cross broke the previous mark of 14, set from 1917-1921 and again from 1922-1924, with its victory over Brown on Oct. 28, 1989. The Crusaders saw their 16-game streak end with a 10-10 tie against Massachusetts on Sept. 8, 1990.

LONGEST UNBEATEN STREAK: 29 Games. The Crusaders did not lose at Fitton from the 1935 through 1938 seasons. After beating Manhattan in the 1939 home opener, Holy Cross fell to Louisiana State on Oct. 7. Holy Cross was 26-0-3 during that stretch. The Crusaders took a 26-game (25-0-1) home unbeaten streak into the 1992 season, but lost to Massachusetts 7-3 in the home opener.

LONGEST LOSING STREAK: 10 Games. Holy Cross lost its final five home games of the 2003 season and its first five home contests in 2004.

BEST SEASON RECORD: Holy Cross was 7-0 in 1923, outscoring the opposition, 242-0. The 7-0 record was matched in 1935, as Holy Cross outscored its home foes 184-0, and compiled a 9-0-1 overall record. The 1938 squad was also 7-0, en route to an 8-1 overall mark.

WORST SEASON RECORD: The Crusaders were 0-6 at home during the 2013 season.

CONSECUTIVE WINNING SEASONS: Holy Cross recorded 25 consecutive winning seasons at Fitton Field from 1916-1940.

UNBEATEN AND UNTIED SEASONS: The Crusaders have posted 21 unbeaten and untied seasons at Fitton Field, including a perfect 6-0 mark in 2009. In 1987, 1988 and 1989, Holy Cross had consecutive unbeaten and untied home seasons for the first time since 1918, 1919 and 1920.
