RETIRED JERSEY #25 BILL OSMANSKI

The only football jersey number ever retired by the College of the Holy Cross is the No. 25, worn by "Bullet" Bill Osmanski. A member of the College Football Hall of Fame, Osmanski scored touchdowns on his first carry as a Crusader (against Bates in 1936) and his last (against Boston College in 1938). Osmanski went on to play several seasons for the Chicago Bears in the National Football League, and later returned to Worcester to coach the Crusaders from 1948-1949.

THE DAVITT AWARDS

The Davitt Awards are presented annually to the top back and lineman for both the offense and defense. They were instituted by Jim Davitt (Class of 1913) of Holyoke, Mass., in memory of his brother, Rev. William Davitt (Class of 1907), who played football and ran track as an undergraduate, and was the last United States officer to lose his life in World War I. The awards are presented at the Holy Cross Varsity Club's Hall of Fame Banquet.
