ERDMANN SHARES ACTIVE LEAD FOR CAREER TD PASSES

Senior quarterback Jackson Erdmann (left; Rosemount, Minn.) finished 28 of 40 passing for 407 yards and five touchdowns in last Saturday's 34-33 win at No. 3 Wheaton (Ill.), college football's top defense (across all divisions). The 400-yard passing performance was the fifth of the season and third consecutive for Erdmann, who now has 11,297 career passing yards. He has now passed for 300 yards or more 10 times this season and 14 times in his career. Erdmann also set SJU single-season records for pass completions (284) and pass attempts (439) last weekend. Erdmann currently leads NCAA Division III in passing yards (4,698), passing yards per game (361.4) and total offense (367.1 ypg.), is third in passing touchdowns (46), fourth in both pass-efficiency rating (185.1) and yards per pass attempt (10.75), and seventh in yards per completion (16.60). Among the NCAA's active career leaders (all divisions), Erdmann is tied for the most touchdown passes and is fourth pass-efficiency rating (see below).

CLIMBING SJU'S CHARTS

As mentioned above, senior quarterback Jackson Erdmann became the SJU single-season record holder for pass completions and pass attempts last weekend in Illinois. He owns the top five passing games in SJU history and has set program records for season passing yards (4,698), season yards of total offense (4,772), career passing touchdowns (138) and career yards of total offense (11,648) this fall. He has five games of 400 passing yards or more this season, including each of SJU's first three NCAA playoff games (1,346 passing yards and 14 touchdowns). He has 46 touchdown passes on the season, one away from tying his own single-season record of 47 touchdowns set last fall. Erdmann is approaching a pair of other SJU records (see below).

APPROACHING NCAA MARKS

Senior quarterback Jackson Erdmann is also climbing a number of NCAA Division III statistical charts. His 4,698 passing yards are the second-most in a Division III season, 370 shy of the single-season record of 5,068 set by Joe Callahan of Wesley (Del.) in 2015. Erdmann's 138 career passing touchdowns are fourth-most in Division III history, 19 from the record of 157 held by Alex Tanney (2007-11) of Monmouth (Ill.), and his career pass-efficiency rating of 182.37 is sixth. Only eight Division III quarterbacks have thrown for 50 touchdowns in a season, including Aurora's (Ill.) Gavin Zimbleman this fall (57). Three active quarterbacks, including Erdmann, could reach that mark over the next two weeks. Broc Rutter of North Central (Ill.) has 49 passing touchdowns and Michael Hnatkowsky of Muhlenberg (Pa.) has 45 this season.

SERIES HISTORY

Saturday's game is the fifth meeting between SJU and UW-Whitewater, and the fourth consecutive in the NCAA Division III Playoffs. The Johnnies defeated the Warhawks 42-18 in the series' first meeting during the 2002 regular season in Collegeville. Since then, UW-Whitewater has hosted and defeated SJU in three consecutive playoff games. The semifinal matchup on Saturday marks the latest the two teams have met in the NCAA playoffs. SJU is 33-13 against members of the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (right).

ALL ABOUT UW-WHITEWATER

Since 2004, UW-Whitewater is one of only three teams (aside from Mary Hardin-Baylor and Mount Union) to win the NCAA Division III Championship, bringing home the title in 2007, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2013 and 2014. Head coach Kevin Bullis is in his fifth season at the helm and touts a 56-8 career record with two WIAC championships and four post-season berths. According to the Warhawks' website, the program has sent 20 players to the NFL. Jake Kumerow, a 2015 graduate, currently plays for the Green Bay Packers. His younger brother, Derek, is a starting wide receiver.

SJU'S SEMIFINAL HISTORY

Saturday's NCAA Semifinal game is SJU's 12th in program history, at either the NCAA or NAIA level, and first since 2003. The Johnnies are 5-6 in their previous 11 semifinal games, including a 3-5 record away from Collegeville (which includes two neutral-site wins at Metropolitan Stadium in 1963 and 1965). The last time the Johnnies made it to the semifinals they defeated Rensselaer (N.Y.) 38-10 in Collegeville and went on to defeat Mount Union (Ohio) 24-6 for the program's fourth national championship.

THE LAST GAME

No. 8 Saint John's 34, at No. 3 Wheaton (Ill.) 33

Saint John's won a close 34-33 game over Wheaton in last Saturday's NCAA Division III quarterfinals thanks to some late-game drama. The Thunder's starting center, Jake Hibben, carried the ball four consecutive times inside the 10-yard line and scored from one yard out with nine seconds remaining. Hibben, however, spiked the football after scoring and was whistled for an unsportsmanlike-conduct penalty, which turned the ensuing extra-point attempt into a 35-yard kick. The first game-tying attempt sailed wide left, but both teams were called for off-setting penalties. The second attempt went wide right.

Senior quarterback Jackson Erdmann finished 28 of 40 passing for 407 yards and five touchdowns against a stout Wheaton defense. Junior wide receiver Blake Patrick (St.

STEPPING IN FOR THE LEGEND

A 1981 SJU graduate, Fasching became the 16th head coach in the 102-year history of Saint John's University football following the 2012 season. He succeeded John Gagliardi, who announced his retirement following 60 seasons at SJU, after serving 17 seasons as an assistant football coach and recruiting coordinator at SJU. Fasching was a three-year starter for Gagliardi and the Johnnies at linebacker during the 1978 and 1980-81 seasons. A knee injury held him out of the 1979 season.

AS AN ASSISTANT

The Johnnies posted a 164-39 record (120-22 MIAC) with 10 conference titles and 12 postseason appearances (22-11 playoff record), including the 2003 national championship, 2000 national runner-up performance and four national semifinal games during his tenure as an assistant coach. He also coached SJU's throwers as an assistant track and field coach from 1996-2011.

AT ST. CLOUD CATHEDRAL

Prior to joining the Johnnies' coaching staff, Fasching served as the head football coach at St. Cloud Cathedral High School from 1986-95, where he led the Crusaders to the State Class B title in 1992 and 1993.

A PLAYOFF REGULAR

The NCAA berth is SJU's 30th postseason appearance in program history and the 26th at the Division III level. The bid is also the sixth consecutive in seven seasons under the direction of head coach Gary Fasching, which ties the MIAC record held by former head coach John Gagliardi.

40 STRAIGHT WITH A TD

Senior quarterback Jackson Erdmann has thrown a touchdown pass in 39 consecutive starts and 40 straight games overall. In fact, there is only one game in Erdmann's career (42 appearances) in which he did not throw a touchdown...for the Johnnies. On Oct. 22, 2016, Erdmann entered the game in the third quarter at Gustavus Adolphus ahead 42-7 and went 0-for-2 passing, including a 17-yard interception return for a touchdown on his first attempt.

GAGLIARDI TROPHY SEMIFINALIST x 2

Senior quarterback Jackson Erdmann was named one of the 12 semifinalists for the 2019 Gagliardi Trophy, which is awarded to the most outstanding football player in NCAA Division III by Jostens and the J-Club of Saint John's University, Nov. 26. Announcement of the finalists for the 27th annual Gagliardi Trophy will be made Thursday, Dec. 12. The recipient's university will host an award presentation at a later date and details will be handled at the time of the announcement. The semifinalists include six quarterbacks, four running backs, a defensive lineman and a wide receiver. The final 12 semifinalists were selected by the J-Club Board of Directors.

Nominations were submitted by colleges across the country, and the semifinalists were selected by the J-Club Board of Directors. The Gagliardi Trophy national-selection committee is comprised of 16 Division III coaches (four from each NCAA region), four Division III administrators (one from each region), eight regional notable voters (two from each region), and eight national voters with Division III backgrounds. A fan vote, which runs until Dec. 9, is live on D3football.com.

The 2018 Gagliardi Trophy recipient, Erdmann was a consensus (AP, AFCA, D3football.com) All-American, the D3football.com National Offensive Player of the Year and MIAC Most Valuable Player last fall.

A global business leadership major with a 3.27 GPA, Erdmann earned a Fulbright English Teaching Assistant award, sponsored by the Department of State and the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board, to teach English in Malaysia starting in January 2020. He declined it, however, pending his possible professional football endeavors this winter/spring.

A member of the 2018 Allstate American Football Coaches' Association (AFCA) Good Works Team, Erdmann is no stranger to community service. He currently teaches and tutors advanced math students ranging from grades 5-8 at All Saints Academy in nearby St. Joseph, Minn., for an hour each weekday. Erdmann was one of three student-athletes (the lone student-athlete from Division III) on the NCAA working group appointed by the NCAA president and Board of Governors that examined issues highlighted in recently passed federal and state legislation related to student-athlete name, image and likeness.

He taught English as a Secondary Language (ESL) classes one night a week last fall and has participated in SJU's Kids Fighting Hunger meal-packing event each of the last four years. Erdmann helped the SJU football team raise money for Tackle Cancer and the "Up Till Dawn" campaign, collecting donations for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital since 2016. Erdmann went on an 18-day service trip to Thailand in January 2018 (right), where he worked with various organizations that fight child sex trafficking. He spent his spring break in 2017 working at the Breaking Free House in the Twin Cities, which is a safe place for victims of sex trafficking and prostitution to recover from their experiences.

AFCA ALL-AMERICAN x 2

Senior quarterback Jackson Erdmann was named to the American Football Coaches' Association (AFCA) All-America first team for the second consecutive season Dec. 4. A total of 101 SJU football student-athletes have now earned All-America honors a total of 132 times in the program's 109-season history. Erdmann is the seventh SJU quarterback to earn All-America honors and the first to accomplish the feat twice.

A 2019 Gagliardi Trophy semifinalist and the award's 2018 recipient, Erdmann is a three-time All-MIAC first-team performer. He set SJU single-season records for passing yards (496) and yards of total offense (563) Oct. 29 at St. Olaf. Erdmann owns the top five passing games in SJU history and has set program records for season passing yards (4,698), season yards of total offense (4,772), career passing touchdowns (138) and career yards of total offense (11,648) this fall. He has five games of 400 passing yards or more this season, including each of SJU's first three NCAA playoff games (1,346 passing yards and 14 touchdowns).

ERDMANN vs. DIII'S TOP DEFENSES

Senior quarterback Jackson Erdmann has fared well against the stingiest defenses over the last two seasons. Last week's NCAA quarterfinal marked the fourth time in the last two years that Erdmann and the Johnnies have faced a top-2 defense in NCAA Division III. In those four games (3-1 record), Erdmann combined to go 116 of 188 passing (.617) for 1,746 yards (436.5 avg.), 13 touchdowns and seven interceptions.

St. Thomas earned the other share of the title with Nov. 16's 17-7 home win over Bethel. The Johnnies, however, earned the conference's automatic bid thanks to their 38-20 win over the Tommies Oct. 19 at Allianz Field in St. Paul.

362 yards and three touchdowns) this season. Six of his 13 catches went for 20 yards or more.

MIAC LEADERS

The Johnnies led the MIAC in five offensive statistical categories in league play this fall, two on offense and three on defense: total offense (563.3 ypg., second year in a row); passing offense (366.3 ypg., second year in a row); total defense (250.6 ypg.); passing defense (160.0 ypg.); and scoring defense (11.6 ppg.). Individually, senior Jackson Erdmann led all MIAC quarterbacks in passing yards (2,809); yards per game (351.1); yards per attempt (11.3) and pass-efficiency rating (190.1) in conference play.

NATIONAL STATS

The Johnnies ended the regular season in NCAA Division III's top 20, statistically, in 12 categories:

OFFENSE: second in passing offense (347.7 ypg.), fifth in total offense (521.7 ypg.), ninth in passing efficiency (182.36), 17th in yards per pass completion (16.02), 18th in first downs (237), 19th in completion percentage (.652) and 20th in scoring offense (41.0 ppg.).

DEFENSE: fifth in scoring defense (11.4 ppg.), 12th in total defense (246.6), 18th in pass-efficiency defense (100.79), 19th in first downs allowed (142) and 20th in passing defense (156.9 ypg.).

HE'S DEFINITELY NO STRANGER

Which Johnnie has been part of each NCAA postseason appearance, dating back to 1976? The answer is defensive coordinator Jerry Haugen '76, who is in his 44th season on the Johnnies' coaching staff. Saturday's game is his 66th NCAA postseason contest. Meaning, he has coached six additional seasons in playoff games alone. The Johnnies have posted a 392-93-5 (.805) overall record and a 297-59-4 (.831) MIAC record with Haugen as a defensive coach. Since 1977, his defense has finished in the top two of the MIAC in total defense 23 times, including 13 of the past 19 seasons, and in scoring defense 29 times, including 20 of the past 24 seasons. As a player, Haugen was a four-year starter and gained All-MIAC honors as a defensive back in 1975 (left). He ranks second on the school's career interception list with 15 (first place without postseason games).

A LOT OF GAMES, A LOT OF WINS

The Johnnies' NCAA second-round win in 2018 was also the 380th with Jerry Haugen as an assistant football coach at SJU. Bobby Bowden, a member of the College Football Hall of Fame and long-time head coach at Florida State (1976-2009), has the fourth-most wins in college football history with a 377-129-4 record. All told, Haugen has been a part of 1,501 wins (2,458 games) at SJU as a player and coach across four different sports, as well as 35 conference championships (including four MIAC Playoff titles in baseball) and 41 postseason appearances.

THREE JOHNNIES ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT

Three Johnnies were named to the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-District VI football team Nov. 14. Senior defensive lineman Kyle Borgeson, senior linebacker Alex Sais and sophomore running back Henry Trost all earned the honor. The distinction was the second consecutive for Sais. Nominees must be of a sophomore academic standing or better, with a 3.30 GPA or higher. The Academic All-District teams are voted upon and selected by registered members of CoSIDA. The three are now eligible for CoSIDA Academic All-America honors, which will be announced Wednesday, Dec. 11.

The Johnnies have now had 43 Academic All-District selections in the past 15 seasons, including a linebacker in each of the last eight: Maze Thompson (2012), Drake Matuska (2013), Carter Hanson (2014-16), David Franta (2017) and Sais (2018-19).

BARTCH HEADED TO THE SENIOR BOWL

Senior offensive tackle Ben Bartch has accepted an invitation to play in the 2020 Reese's Senior Bowl, which is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 25, at Ladd Peebles Stadium in Mobile, Ala. The game will be broadcast live on the NFL Network, as will the practices on Tuesday through Thursday (Jan. 21-23). The Wednesday and Thursday (Jan. 22-23) practice will also be covered live on ESPN. The NFL Network will produce hour-long recap shows each evening. The Reese's Senior Bowl is college football's premier senior showcase event. It annually features the country's best senior collegiate football players and top NFL draft prospects on teams representing the North and South. The teams are coached by the entire coaching staffs of two National Football League teams. Only college seniors and fourth-year junior graduates are eligible for the game. Fourth-year junior graduates must have graduated by the December prior to the game to be eligible.

A 2019 All-MIAC first-team selection and the MIAC's Mike Stam Award recipient as the conference's best lineman (defensive or offensive), Bartch has started each of the Johnnies' last 26 games at left tackle over the past two seasons (through Dec. 7). He played tight end his first two years as a Johnnie and caught four passes for 43 yards (10.8 avg.) and a touchdown in eight games in 2017. He switched to offensive tackle during the 2018 offseason and started on the left side immediately. His athleticism and size (6-foot-6, 305 pounds) have attracted scouts from all 32 NFL teams this fall.

Wide receiver Blake Elliott '03 was the last Johnnie football student-athlete to participate in a prestigious all-star game alongside Division I prospects. He played in the 2004 Hula Bowl, with former head coach John Gagliardi serving as an assistant to head coach Jim Tressel of Ohio State, following his record-breaking 2003 season.

BUT FIRST, NEW ORLEANS FOR THE SUGAR BOWL

Senior Ben Bartch (left) was named one of 22 student-athletes, across all divisions of college football, to the 2019 Allstate American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Good Works Team Sept. 12. A fan vote is running until Nov. 22 at www.ESPN.com/Allstate to decide this year's Allstate AFCA Good Works Team Captain, who will be recognized during the national ESPN broadcast of The Home Depot ESPNU College Football Awards in December. The 2019 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team will be invited to New Orleans to participate in a special community service project ahead of the 2020 Allstate Sugar Bowl, where the entire team will also be recognized on the field at halftime on New Year's Day.

Bartch is the fourth Johnnie to be named to the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team and the third consecutive: senior quarterback Jackson Erdmann was named to the 2018 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team, wide receiver Will Gillach '19 in 2017 and defensive end Kevin McNamara '07 was SJU's first to achieve the distinction in 2006. Off the field, Bartch studied abroad in South Africa during spring 2019, where he served as a computer lab tutor for children ages kindergarten-seventh grade at Seyisi Primary School. He organized and implemented daily plans to teach the children how to use computers and tutored them as they used applications for writing, reading, mathematics and learning English.

Bartch volunteered with Catholic Charities' Meals on Wheels last fall in nearby St. Joseph and served as an after-school tutor for a sixth-grade student at All Saints Academy in St. Joseph during the 2017-18 academic year. At SJU, Bartch helped raise money for a pair of SJU football's initiatives, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital and Tackle Cancer. He also serves as treasurer for the Johnnies' Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC), which holds an annual Kids Fighting Hunger meal-packing event every March. He volunteered at Newman, the Roman Catholic parish at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire's Ecumenical Religious Center, in 2017 and 2018 when visiting his grandmother during breaks in the academic year. In spring 2017, Bartch volunteered at the St. Joseph Community Kitchen and at the All Saints Academy's fish fry. Bartch also volunteers for the Order of Saint Benedict sisters as a cross holder and Eucharistic minister at the Sacred Heart Chapel in St. Joseph. A psychology major, Bartch shadowed licensed psychiatrist Dr. Jon Bowar last fall at the St. Cloud Hospital's Psych Ward.

ERDMANN IN CONFERENCE PLAY

Senior quarterback Jackson Erdmann ended his MIAC career with four league records in conference play. He broke his own single-season record for pass-efficiency rating (190.14) and tied the record for 300-yard passing games - set by Augsburg's Jordan Berg in 2007 and 2008 - with six. Erdmann also set career records for completion percentage (.640) and multi-touchdown games (23).

WHAT A YEAR

Senior Jackson Erdmann recorded one of the best, if not the best, seasons by a Saint John's quarterback in 2018. He won the 2018 Gagliardi Trophy as the most outstanding football player in NCAA Division III, just the second junior to accomplish the feat in the award's 26-year history, and was named the D3football.com Offensive Player of the Year. Erdmann was a consensus (AFCA, AP, D3football.com) first-team All-American, played only five of the 13 games to completion and led NCAA Division III in three statistical categories: pass efficiency (189.8), passing touchdowns (47) and points responsible for (290). He also finished third in yards per pass attempt (10.03), fourth in passing yardage (3,450) and ninth in yards per completion (15.40). The 2018 MIAC Most Valuable Player, Erdmann set single-game program records for passing yards (470 on Oct. 13 vs. St. Thomas) and passing touchdowns (7 on Nov. 10 vs. Thomas More). He also set a single-season school record for passing touchdowns and yards of total offense (3,626), and fell 39 passing yards short of Tom Linnemann's '00 school record of 3,489 set in 2000.

PRESEASON ALL-AMERICANS

To very little or no surprise, two Johnnies earned preseason All-America honors over the summer. Senior quarterback Jackson Erdmann and senior guard Dan Greenheck were named first-team All-Americans by D3football.com and a pair of magazines, Lindy's and Street & Smith's. Both were consensus (AFCA, AP, D3football.com), first-team All-Americans last fall. SJU averaged 47.5 points per game and SJU's offense averaged 491.8 yards per contest (192.2 rushing and 299.5 passing) last fall. The 491.8 yards per game were the second-most in an SJU season (495.2 average in 1993) and the 299.5 passing yards per game were the most since the school record set in 1994 (314.5 avg.).

On This Date in Johnnie Football History...

The Johnnies are 1-1 all-time on December 14: 1963 vs. Prairie View A&M, Texas at Sacramento, Calif. (W, 33-27; and 2002 at Trinity, Texas (L, 34-41).

1963 vs. Prairie View A&M, Texas @ Sacramento, Calif. (W, 33-27): Saint John's won its first of four national championships with a 33-27 victory over Prairie View A&M (Texas) in the 1963 Camellia Bowl, the NAIA Championship Game, on this date 56 years ago in Sacramento, Calif. SJU's first two offensive possessions ended in a blocked punt and an interception, and Prairie View scored on its first offensive play from scrimmage. Despite this, the Johnnies kept it close, trailing 14-13 going into halftime, thanks to a 41-yard punt return for a touchdown by Bob Spinner and a 44-yard interception return for a touchdown by John McCormick.

The Johnnies' offense came alive in the second half, as SJU took advantage of a Panther fumble with a 23-yard touchdown pass from Craig Muyres to Hardy Reyerson to gain a 20-14 SJU lead. After another Panther fumble, Muyres hit Ken Roering for an 18-yard touchdown. With the score at 26-21, Muyres found Reyerson for a 19-yard touchdown to give the Johnnies a 33-21 lead with five minutes to play. Prairie View found the end zone on its next possession, but Saint John's recovered the onside kick to seal the win.

2002 at Trinity, Texas (L, 34-41): The Johnnies lost an NCAA semifinal at Trinity (Texas), 41-34, on this date 17 years ago. Trinity led 34-13 at halftime before the Johnnies scored 21 unanswered points to tie the game in the fourth quarter. The Tigers, however, took the ensuing drive for a game-winning touchdown. Trinity scored the game's first 14 points before Blake Elliott got the Johnnies on the board with an 8-yard reception from Ross Denne. Trinity scored the next 14 as well to lead 28-6, but Elliott caught his second touchdown from 12 yards out late in the second quarter. Trinity returned the following kickoff 91 yards for a touchdown to lead 34-13 at the half as Jed Riegelman was tackled near the goal line on the second quarter's final play.

SJU cut its deficit to eight (34-26) on two third-quarter touchdowns from Kent Crowley, and got within two points on Elliott's third touchdown of game (a 7-yard pass from Denne). Denne's pass to Jed Riegelman was good for two points to tie the game at 34-34 with 9:57 remaining. Trinity followed with a 14-play, 69-yard scoring drive, all on the ground, that ate up 7:28. Trinity controlled the clock with 55 rush attempts, 37:45 of time of possession and converted 11 of its 16 third downs in the win. Crowley ran for 155 yards and two touchdowns on 26 carries, while Elliott caught a career-high 15 passes for 155 yards and three scores.

PASSING WITH EFFICIENCY

SJU once again excelled in the passing game last fall, as it led all 247 NCAA Division III teams in pass-efficiency rating (186.59). Individually, senior quarterback Jackson Erdmann became the fourth Johnnie to lead Division III in passing efficiency with a rating of 189.8 (see below). His rating was third, behind Alabama's Tua Tagovailoa (199.4) and Oklahoma's Kyler Murray (199.2), across all divisions of college football. Willie Seiler's '94 mark of 224.6 set in 1993 is still the second-best in Division III history (NCAA statistical champions consisted of regular-season stats only until 2002).

JOHNNIES AT THE 2019 MINNESOTA SPORTS AWARDS

Saint John's football will be well-represented at the third annual Minnesota Sports Awards gala Wednesday, Dec. 11, at the Renaissance Minneapolis Hotel, The Depot. Doors open at 5 p.m., followed by dinner at 6:30 p.m. and the awards show at 7:30 p.m.

Senior quarterback Jackson Erdmann is one of three finalists for Men's Collegiate Athlete of the Year, which were announced in late October. In addition, SJU's 2018 win over St. Thomas is a finalist for 2018-19 Minnesota Sports Moment of the Year. Former head coach John Gagliardi is one of six inductees into the Minnesota Sports Hall of Fame for 2019.

The Minnesota Sports Awards recognize the outstanding achievements of high school, collegiate and professional athletes during the 2018-19 athletic season, many of whom will be on hand for the evening's awards ceremony. The event includes a silent auction, dinner and an entertaining awards ceremony featuring athletes, coaches and high-profile Minnesota sports celebrities. A portion of the proceeds from the 2019 Minnesota Sports Awards will benefit the United Heroes League, a non-profit organization that actively works to ensure that children of military service members are afforded every opportunity to participate in sports. The third annual Minnesota Sports Awards will be carried live by FSN across multiple digital platforms and rebroadcast at a later date.

The Johnnies defeated St. Thomas 40-20 in front of 16,922 spectators on Oct. 13, 2018, en route to an undefeated regular season and the program's 33rd MIAC title. Erdmann passed for a then-school record 470 yards and wide receiver Will Gillach '19 hauled in 14 passes for a school-record 256 yards and two touchdowns in the win. With the Tommies driving in the fourth quarter trailing 33-20, senior linebacker Alex Sais forced a fumble that safety Max Jackson '19 returned 99 yards for a touchdown to put the game out of reach. The emotional victory came six days after Gagliardi's passing on Oct. 7, 2018.

The other finalists for Minnesota Sports Moment of the Year are Henning boys' basketball wins state championship; Minnesota-Duluth captures second straight NCAA men's hockey title; Minnesota Twins set MLB home run record; and SJU tops St. Thomas in annual football rivalry game.

Gagliardi, college football's all-time wins leader with 489 career victories, coached the Johnnies from 1953-2012 and led them to four national championships and 27 conference titles. He was the first active coach to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2006. The Star Tribune's Minnesota Hall of Fame Class of 2019 includes Gagliardi, Willard Ikola, Randall McDaniel, Randy Moss, John Randle and Lindsay Whalen.

NO. 18 AMONG ESPN'S TOP 50 FOOTBALL PROGRAMS

Saint John's was ranked No. 18 out of ESPN's top 50 programs (see chart on right) over the last 150 years in August. The ranking formula took into consideration a program's number of national championships and various winning percentages: dominance (best 50 seasons in program history), since integration (1969-2018), early modern (1919-1968) and pre-modern (1869-1918). ESPN noted: "It is not true that the Johnnies' late head coach, John Gagliardi, coached against Frank Leahy. But it is true that Gagliardi became head coach at Saint John's in 1953, the last season that Leahy coached at Notre Dame, and didn't retire until 2012, after 60 seasons and 465 victories. Saint John's, according to our metrics, had one of the 10 most successful programs of the past 100 years. That's another way of saying Gagliardi won 27 conference titles and four national championships."

SJU Football in the Classroom

-SJU returns five of last year's 10 Academic All-MIAC (minimum 3.5 cumulative GPA) honorees in 2019: Chris Backes, Jarod Fike, Collin Franz, Alex Sais and Andrew VanErp. The Johnnies have had totaled 91 Academic All-MIAC recipients in Gary Fasching's first six seasons, the most in the MIAC during that span (Concordia is next with 86 honorees since 2013).

-The Johnnies have had 16 football Academic All-Americans in the last 15 seasons, including wide receiver Will Gillach '19 last fall. SJU leads the MIAC in with 30 football Academic All-Americans (as selected by CoSIDA).

-Gillach earned SJU's third consecutive Stein-Fallon Scholar-Athlete Award from the Minnesota chapter of the National Football Foundation in May 2019. Linebackers David Franta '18 (2018) and Carter Hanson '17 (2017) previously won the award, which is given to a senior football student-athlete who demonstrates outstanding academic achievement, football leadership and community citizenship.

-Chris Backes earned the MIAC's Elite 22 Award for football in 2018. Modeled after the NCAA Elite 90 Award, the MIAC Elite 22 Award for football is presented to the individual with the highest GPA among the conference's top two teams in the final standings. The honoree must be a sophomore, junior or senior and in at least his second season of competition with his current team. Backes is the 12th SJU student-athlete in all sports to receive the award and the second football player. Hanson won it in 2014 and 2016.

-For the 14th consecutive year, CSB and SJU were ranked among the top baccalaureate schools nationally for the total number of students who studied abroad. That was one of the findings of Open Doors 2018, the annual report on international education published by the Institute of International Education (IIE) in partnership with the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs last November.

-CSB and SJU are ranked No. 2 among baccalaureate schools with 365 students who studied abroad in mid-length study abroad programs during the 2016-17 academic year, the most recent data measured by the IIE. The IIE defines mid-length study abroad programs as lasting one semester or one or two quarters (CSB and SJU operate under the semester system). CSB and SJU are No. 3 nationally among baccalaureate schools with 555 students who studied abroad during the 2016-17 school year. CSB and SJU have been ranked among the top six schools nationally in this category for the past 14 years. Before graduating, it is estimated that 65.5 percent of all CSB and SJU students will participate in a study abroad program, according to the IIE. CSB and SJU annually offer students 18 semester-long programs, 14 of which are faculty-led, and 14 short-term study abroad programs.

GAGLIARDI NO. 16 ON ESPN'S TOP 150 LIST

Former Saint John's coach John Gagliardi was ranked No. 16 in ESPN's list of the top 150 college football coaches released Dec. 10.

ESPN noted: "Gagliardi's teams became better known for what they didn't do than what they did. They didn't tackle in practice. They didn't lift weights. They didn't practice longer than 90 minutes. And they didn't lose -- not very often, anyway. Gagliardi won four national championships at Saint John's and, between the two campuses, 30 conference titles. That's one way to look at his career. The other is that he began as a head coach during the Truman Administration and retired after Barack Obama's re-election."

Gagliardi (left, during his first season at SJU in 1953), college football's all-time wins leader with 489 career victories, coached the Johnnies from 1953-2012 and led them to four national championships and 27 conference titles. He was the first active coach to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2006.

BLAKE ELLIOTT '03 ON HALL OF FAME BALLOT

Former Saint John's University award-winning student-athlete Blake Elliott '03 was named to the College Football Hall of Fame ballot for the seventh consecutive year in June. Elliott, who played wide receiver for the Johnnies from 2000-03, is one of 177 former student-athletes on the ballot, including one of 100 from the NCAA divisional and NAIA ranks. The announcement of the 2020 inductees will be made in January 2020 in New Orleans. Those selected will be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame Dec. 8, 2020, at the New York Hilton Midtown and permanently enshrined at the Chick-fil-A College Football Hall of Fame in Atlanta.

Elliott excelled for the Johnnies for four years and ended his career as the recipient of the Gagliardi Trophy and a national championship in 2003; a season that included Gagliardi's record-breaking 409th career victory. He owns three NCAA playoff records, two MIAC records and 29 SJU receiving records. Elliott was a three-time All-American, a two-time MIAC Player of the Year, a Gagliardi Trophy finalist as a junior in 2002 and was invited to play in both the AFCA Aztec Bowl and Hula Bowl following the 2003 season. His NCAA all-divisions record for consecutive games played with a reception (47) ended in 2008. He ended his career second all-time in all NCAA divisions in catches (327) and second in NCAA Division III in touchdown receptions (56). Elliott posted 369 receptions for 4,826 yards and 63 touchdowns in his career, as well as 744 rushing yards and eight touchdowns on 109 carries (prior to the 2002 season, the NCAA did not recognize playoff-game stats in season or career totals). Elliott (right) was just as dangerous on special teams as he was on the offensive side of the ball, totaling 3,065 yards and seven touchdowns on 195 returns, kickoff and punt combined.

To be eligible for the ballot, players must have been named a first-team All-American by a major/national selector as recognized and utilized by the NCAA for their consensus All-America teams; played their last year of intercollegiate football at least 10 years prior; played within the last 50 years and cannot be currently playing professional football. From the coaching ranks, 219 individuals have achieved Hall of Fame distinction, including SJU's John Gagliardi (Class of 2006).

WINS IN FIRST 6 SEASONS, FIRST 83 GAMES

SJU's Gary Fasching is off to the best start, in regard to wins, by any head coach in the program's history, including the likes of college football's all-time wins leader, John Gagliardi. He also has John's number in regard to their respective first 83 games coached at SJU.

LEADING THE COUNTRY IN TOTAL ATTENDANCE

Collegeville was the place to be for NCAA Division III football in 2018, as Saint John's attracted a division-best 47,297 fans to Clemens Stadium last fall. That cumulative total was greater than 98 Football Championship Subdivision teams and all but one of the 167 Division II programs (Grand Valley State's total of 67,865). SJU finished second nationally in Division III with an average of 5,912 spectators over eight games, including two in the NCAA playoffs. The Johnnies have finished in Division III's top two in per-game attendance each of the last 18 seasons.
