Saint John's Football
"Win No. 700"

A graphic celebrating Saint John's football's 700th win, a mark only 56 programs at any level of college football have reached. The background features newspaper clippings from each of the Johnnies' other milestone wins - from one to 600.

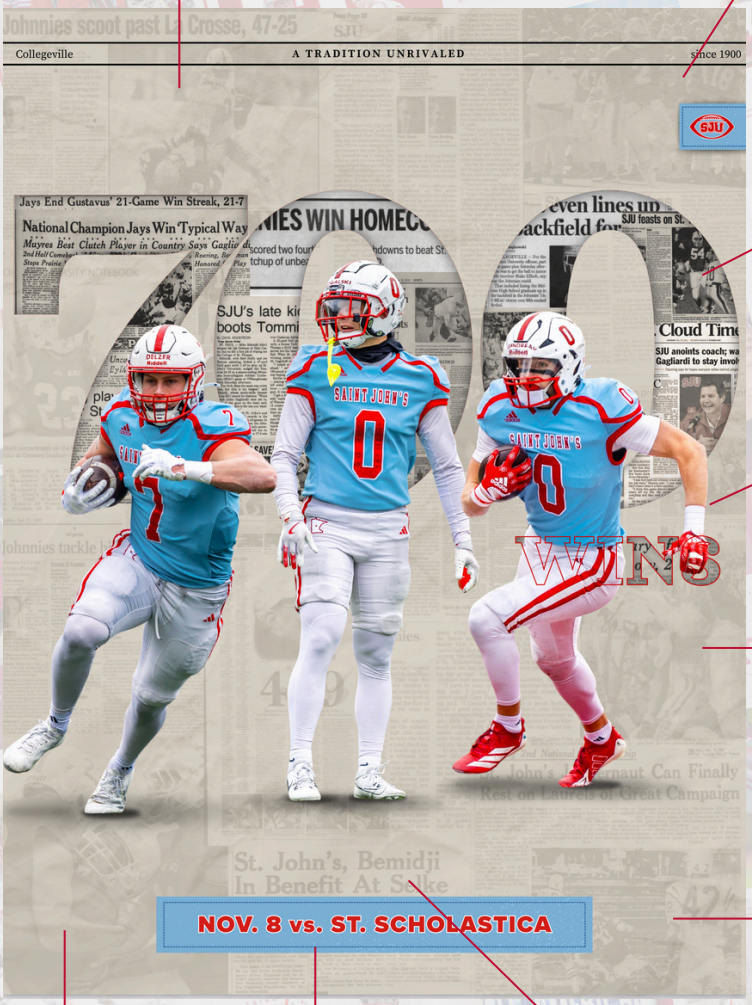

Saint John's Football
"Win No. 700"
BREAKING IT DOWN

SJU vs. UW-La Crosse newspaper clipping from Nov. 27, 1993 - win No. 400 for the Johnnies.

SJU vs. Augsburg on Oct. 18, 2003 - Win No. 500.

A number of other major program milestones are included in the clippings. All four of SJU's national championships, John Gagliardi's win to set the college football all-time record, Gagliardi's retirement, a number of Johnnie-Tommie games and more.

SJU carries 150+ players on its roster. Because of this, there are quite a few duplicate numbers. This image features SJU's offensive No. 7 (left) and both offensive and defensive No. 0s to spell out 700. These photos were also from the 700th win.

SJU at Hamline on Oct. 3, 1981 - win No. 300.

SJU vs. Linfield for the 1965 national championship - win No. 200.

SJU vs. St. Scholastica on Nov. 22, 2014 - win No. 600.

The date and game SJU reached win 700.

SJU vs. Bemidji State on Sept. 10, 1949 - win No. 100.

Saint Benedict Volleyball
"Youth Day Poster"

A poster created for the CSB volleyball youth day featuring every player from the 2025 season.

Saint Benedict Volleyball
"Youth Day Poster"

Every player is featured in their own square for signing purposes. The poster was passed out for free at Youth Day and young volleyball players were able to have them signed by each member of the team following a match

Year and team name specific to this season so the poster can be replicated in future years without confusion

Photos were sized based on seniority. The two largest, also in the center, were the two seniors on the 2025 roster

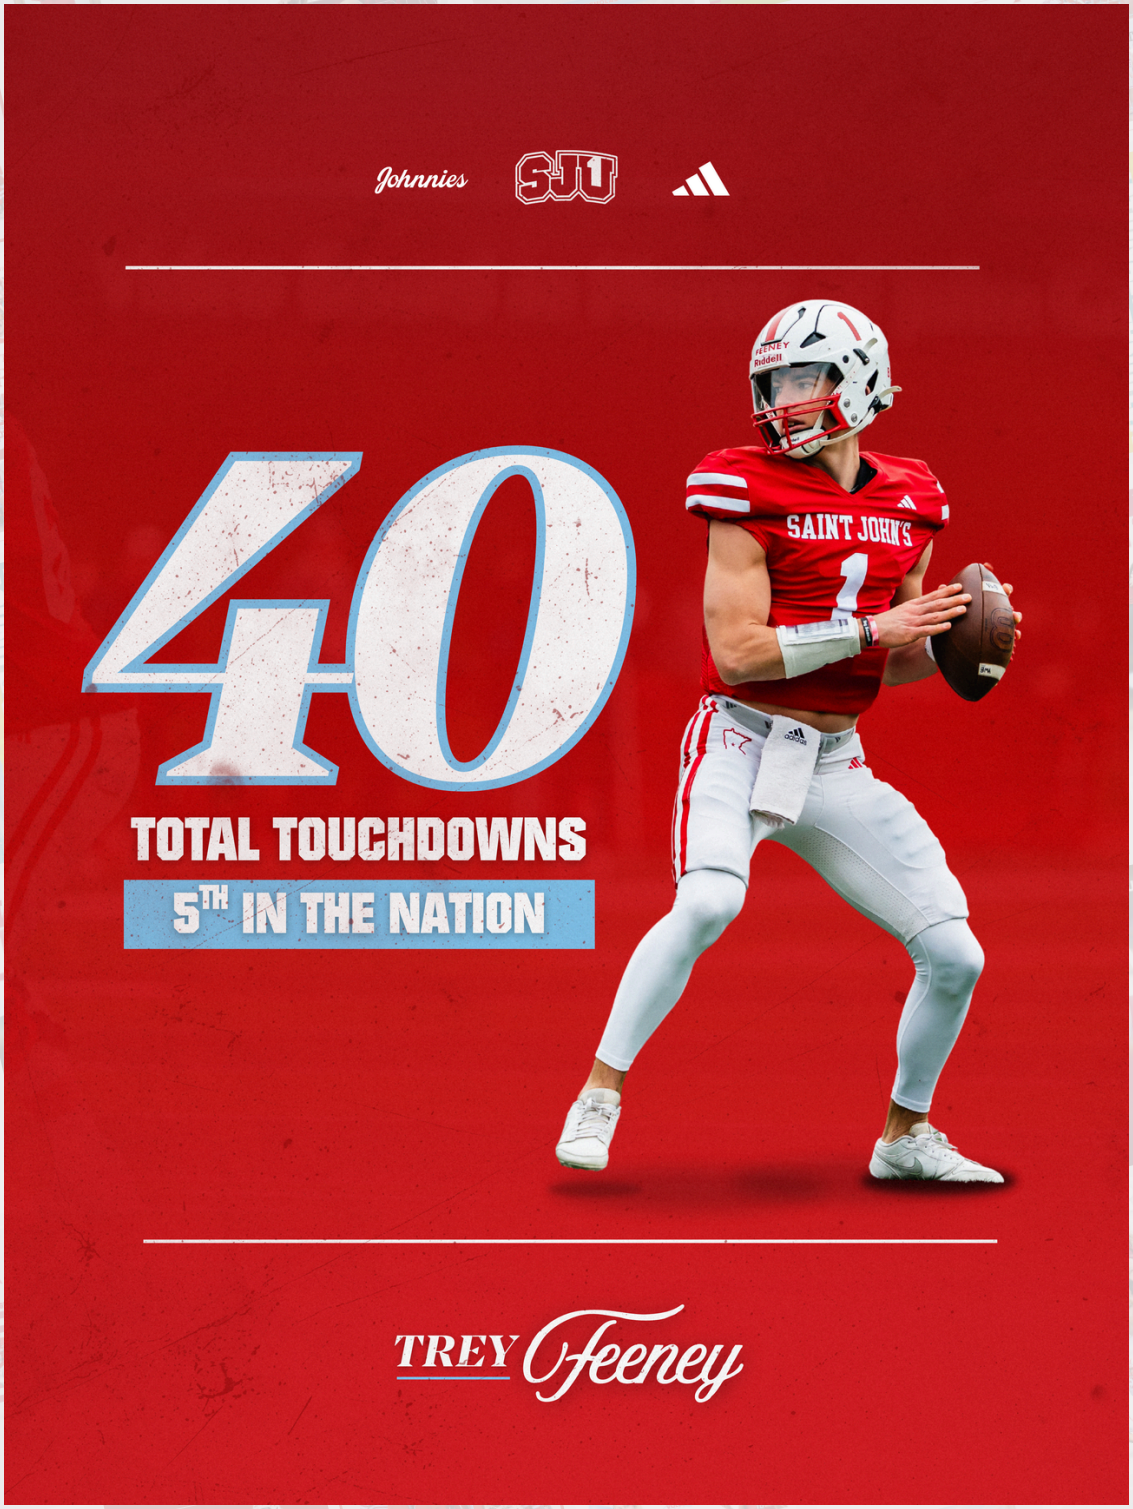

Attempted to use a variety of poses for each player so there are no exact duplicates next to each other

Names of every player listed by jersey number

Each square is sized based on class year (largest images are seniors) and was able to be signed by the players during their annual youth day.
