CHARACTER IN ATHLETICS

The Crossroads League and Goshen College are committed to character-driven athletics with a strong emphasis on sportsmanship. To that end, the Crossroads League and Goshen College have developed an extensive character-driven initiative designed to raise awareness to the importance of good sportsmanship and encourage positive behavior at all athletic events.

Sportsmanship is following the rules, etiquette and positive spirit of competition. Your display of outstanding sportsmanship will have a positive impact on Crossroads League athletics and the experiences of the participating student-athletes.

On behalf of Goshen College, Marian University, the Pandemic Task Force and the Crossroads League, thank you for your cooperation.

PREVENT COVID-19: DO THE BIG FOUR

The health and safety of all members of the Goshen College campus is of the utmost importance, and we each play a critical role in the health of everyone around us. Please help prevent the spread of COVID-19 by practicing these four behaviors.

1. Self-screen for COVID-19 symptoms; monitor your temperature.
2. Wash or sanitize your hands frequently.
3. Physically distance yourself from others; keep at least 6 feet apart.
4. Wear a face covering, which is required on campus.

Visit goshen.edu/coronavirus for more information.

Ryan Mansbarger is not one of the Maple Leafs who scored 1,000 career points. We just thought this photo looked cool.

LOWDOWN ON THE SHOWDOWN

LEAF LARCENY: Goshen ranks 15th in the NAIA in total steals with 166, partially because the Maple Leafs have succeeded in getting games in this season. The team is led by Kedrick Bibby with 31 takeaways, which ranks 50th in the nation among individuals.

PUT THE BISCUIT IN THE BASKET: Austin Branagan and Tahj Curry each rank in the top 25 in the NAIA in total scoring this season. Branagan has 374 points, which is 20th, raising his career total to 1,017, the 28th-best mark in program history. Curry has scored 369 points, which is 23rd in the nation, elevating his career figure to 817 points at Goshen and 1,203 including his time at Ohio Dominican. The latter figure would rank 14th on Goshen's list.

SCOUTING MARIAN: The Knights come into today's game holding the second seed in the Crossroads League tournament; they still have a mathematical shot at the league title if they win out and Indiana Wesleyan loses its last three games. Marian is an expert program when it comes to holding on to the basketball; the Knights have the eighth-best assist-turnover ratio in the NAIA and allow the 11th-fewest rebounds in the nation.

UP NEXT: After a scheduled open date for makeup games on Wednesday night, one which the Maple Leafs do not need as they have no outstanding postponements, GC will host two of its final three regular-season games on each of the following two Saturdays. The team plays Mount Vernon Nazarene at 1 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 13 and Bethel seven days later.
