PREVENT CORONAVIRUS: THE BIG FOUR

The health and safety of all members of the Goshen College campus is of the utmost importance, and we each play a critical role in the health of everyone around us. Please help prevent the spread of COVID-19 by practicing these four behaviors.

1. Self-screen for COVID-19 symptoms; monitor your temperature.
2. Wash or sanitize your hands frequently.
3. Physically distance yourself from others; keep at least 6 feet apart.
4. Wear a face covering, which is required on campus.

LOWDOWN ON THE SHOWDOWN

THIRD TIME'S THE CHARM: The Maple Leafs were ranked 15th in the nation in the NAIA coaches polls that came out on Feb. 26 and March 10, marking the third and fourth straight time that Goshen has been in the national top 15. Men's volleyball is the first GC sport on record to appear in the top 15 of three straight coaches polls, let alone four, although not all sports have polls and in many cases the polls only started in the 1990s.

SENIOR RECOGNITION: GC's four graduating seniors — Elias Baer, Will Gaby, Joel Plank and Nick Yutzy — will be recognized before the match.

BRACKETOLOGY: The Maple Leafs are on track to qualify for their first Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference tournament in program history, likely with the third seed, but they could still finish anywhere from second to sixth and they cannot clinch a spot today. Lourdes is tied for the conference lead heading into a showdown with Indiana Tech on Tuesday that will likely determine the conference champion. The regular season ends next Saturday, at which point the top four schools qualify for the conference tournament beginning April 2 at the top seed.

UP NEXT: Today is not Goshen's final home game, but it is the last one on a weekend, and when half of your seniors are from not only out of state but out of time zone altogether, that is a consideration in scheduling Senior Day. Anyway. The Maple Leafs host Mount Vernon Nazarene at 7 p.m. Tuesday before wrapping up the regular season next Saturday at Cornerstone.
