PREVENT CORONAVIRUS: THE BIG FOUR

The health and safety of all members of the Goshen College campus is of the utmost importance, and we each play a critical role in the health of everyone around us. Please help prevent the spread of COVID-19 by practicing these four behaviors.

1. Self-screen for COVID-19 symptoms; monitor your temperature.
2. Wash or sanitize your hands frequently.
3. Physically distance yourself from others; keep at least 6 feet apart.
4. Wear a face covering, which is required on campus.

LOWDOWN ON THE SHOWDOWN

THIRD TIME'S THE CHARM: The Maple Leafs were ranked 15th in the nation in the NAIA coaches poll that came out on Feb. 26, marking the third straight time that Goshen has been in the national top 15. Men's volleyball is the first GC sport on record to appear in the top 15 of three straight coaches polls, although not all sports have polls and in many cases the polls only started in the 1990s.

TRACKING MORE 1,000TH PRESENTATIONS: Alexander Rabadzhev, who holds GC's career record in kills, needs 55 more to reach the millennial mark after recording 20 last week at Indiana Tech. At his current rate of 13 a match, he would get there yet this regular season.

TODAY'S OPPONENT: Thomas More University is located in Crestview Hills, Kentucky, in the Cincinnati metropolitan area. The Saints are in their third season as members of the NAIA's River States Conference, to which they returned in 2019 after 29 seasons in NCAA Division III. 2019 was also their first season of men's volleyball and this is the first meeting between these two programs. GC's all-time record is 35-33 while TMU is 12-40.

UP NEXT: After tonight, Goshen's final four matches of the season are in conference, with two road matches bookending a pair of contests at home. The team will travel to Siena Heights University on Thursday, March 18, before hosting Lourdes two days later and Mount Vernon Nazarene on Tuesday, March 23. The Lourdes match is also Senior Day.
