CHARACTER IN ATHLETICS

The Crossroads League and Goshen College are committed to character-driven athletics with a strong emphasis on sportsmanship. To that end, the Crossroads League and Goshen College have developed an extensive character-driven initiative designed to raise awareness to the importance of good sportsmanship and encourage positive behavior at all athletic events.

Sportsmanship is following the rules, etiquette and positive spirit of competition. Your display of outstanding sportsmanship will have a positive impact on Crossroads League athletics and the experiences of the participating student-athletes. Thank you for your cooperation in this effort.

Tristan Smucker is one of five seniors on the GC roster who are three-year letterwinners.

LOWDOWN ON THE SHOWDOWN

UNBEATEN: While the Maple Leafs have dropped some points this year, playing to ties at Indiana University East and St. Francis (Illinois), the team has yet to suffer a defeat through its first five matches for the first time since starting the 2005 season 7-0-1. That team finished the year 14-1-3 and in the Mid-Central College Conference tournament semifinals.

HELLO, MY NAME IS...: The Maple Leafs have had six different goal scorers this season, but only two had previous goals for GC. Lucas Bontreger leads the team with three tallies and Henrique Eichenberger has one. Lars Razor, Jorge Keller Martins and Luiz Matteus Pontes are playing their first seasons in purple and white while Wendo Kisila is a junior who did not score in either of the last two seasons.

UP NEXT: Goshen plays its last non-conference home game on Saturday when Siena Heights University comes to town for a 7 p.m. kickoff. The team plays two more road games the following week and is idle from Sept. 18-25 before opening Crossroads League play on the final Saturday in September against Indiana Wesleyan.
