WHAT IS A LEATHERNECK?: Western Illinois holds the distinction of being the only non-military institution to officially have its nickname derived from a branch of the military service. The school began use of the Marine Corps' official nickname, "The Fighting Leathernecks", in 1927 when then-athletic director and head baseball, basketball and football coach Ray "Rock" Hanson was granted permission by the U.S. Navy, based on his status as a Marine hero, to use the Marine's official seal, bulldog mascot and nickname.

LAST TIME OUT:

For the sixth-straight season, Western Illinois picked up a win in its Summit League opener. Behind the 28 points and 11 assists from senior point guard Emily Clemens, the Leathernecks defeated Fort Wayne 100-64 to improve to 11-4 overall and 1-0 in league play.

Western Illinois was able to get an early jump on the Mastodons (3-11, 0-1) after Michelle Farrow had five of the team's 10 points at the first media timeout. After getting the Mastodons into foul trouble, the Leathernecks were in the bonus, and took a 13-4 lead with 1:45 to go in the first following two drained shots from the charity stripe by Clemens.

Clemens then got a layup at the first quarter buzzer to give the Leathernecks a 22-9 lead. The lead eventually grew to 39-19 after Western drained its sixth 3-pointer to force a Fort Wayne timeout with 5:09 to go in the second. A Krishna Merriman 3-point play made it 46-23 Leathernecks with just over three minutes to spare in the quarter.

At the half, Western led 53-30 over Fort Wayne, with Clemens, Morgan Blumer, Farrow and Taylor Higginbotham all in double figures. Western opened the third with an 11-3 run that resulted in another Fort Wayne timeout, and eventually led 81-47 entering the fourth.

Every player for the Purple and Gold scored, as the Leathernecks were able to close out the game with the 36-point win.

QUOTABLE:

"I'm very proud of our mental approach following the tough loss at Bradley," said head coach JD Gravina. "Even yesterday, I could tell our players were humbled, but focused on getting better. We came out strong and improved on keeping our aggressiveness high throughout the game."

PROGRAM NOTES:

- Third time this season Western has had two players with 20 or more points...
- Head coach JD Gravina improves to 10-6 all-time against Fort Wayne...

PLAYER NOTES:

- Morgan Blumer also recorded her 41st career double-digit scoring game, and Michelle Farrow notched her 18th career game in double figures...

SCOUTING SOUTH DAKOTA:

The Coyotes are coming off a victory last night (Jan. 2) at North Dakota State (82-67) to improve to 2-0 on the season in league play. Their first league win happened Dec. 30 at home against Denver (79-51). At the helm of the program is head coach Dawn Plitzuweit, who is in her second season with South Dakota.

Both the Leathernecks and Coyotes have a similar strength of schedule this season, as there is only a one-spot difference in the RPI rankings.

Western Illinois is at 125, while South Dakota has a 126 ranking. The Coyotes are led by Allison Arens' 12.1 points per game, along with Ciara Duffy's 11.7 per game. Arens is a Preseason First Team All-League Selection, while Duffy is Preseason Second Team.

Duffy is also the reigning Co-Player of the Week with Emily Clemens. The Coyotes were also picked third in the Preseason Poll behind Western Illinois and South Dakota State.

The Coyotes are able to score from the charity stripe, as their 80.9 free throw percentage is a league-high, and ranks fourth nationally.

In the last meeting between the two programs, the Leathernecks captured the outright Summit League Regular Season crown after an 81-75 win over the Coyotes on Feb. 25, 2017 inside Western Hall. Western trails the series 10-3, but has won the last two meetings.

CLEMENS GARNERS WEEKLY HONORS:

Senior point guard Emily Clemens earned her seventh-career Summit League Player of the Week award and the first of 2018, as announced Tuesday (Jan. 2, 2018). She also earned her third-career spot on the NCAA Women's Basketball Starting Five weekly honor. Clemens has been named a Summit League Player of the Week twice this season, as she earned the award last week, along with her first career espnW National Player of the Week honor on Dec. 26.
