Covering The Leopards

The 2017 edition of the Lafayette College Football Media Guide has been produced to assist with coverage of the Leopards. Additional information, including press releases, feature ideas, photographs, clips and video highlights, is available upon request. Please review the following pages to familiarize yourself with Lafayette College's media policies and feel free to contact any member of the Lafayette Athletic Communications and Promotions staff with questions.

Dan Mowdy

PUBLIC ADDRESS ANNOUNCER

Dan Mowdy begins his third season as Lafayette College's primary public address announcer. Mowdy, who has been involved with local sports for more than 20 years, fills the void left by Jim Finnen who spent 50-plus years behind the microphone of Fisher Stadium and Kirby Sports Center before retiring in 2015.

Mowdy has been a member of the Lafayette Sports Network announcing crew since 2000, serving in various capacities including play-by-play, analysis and sideline reporting duties.

He worked as a public address announcer at the Athens (2004) and Beijing (2008) Olympics in addition to his work for World Championships, U.S. Olympic Team Trials and National Championships in cycling and gymnastics.

Mowdy is currently the host of RCN's Community Spotlight interview show in the Lehigh Valley and Delaware Valley and the proud father of two daughters, Beth and Michelle.

Media Services

CREDENTIALS

Media credentials for Lafayette home games are issued to working members of the media only and should be requested as early as possible. Requests should be made to the Office of Athletic Communications and Promotions (610-330-5122 or labellap@lafayette.edu).

Lafayette College follows the guidelines set forth by the NCAA and the Patriot League governing the issuance of credentials. Season credentials will be granted only to media outlets that cover Lafayette football on a regular basis. Otherwise, media members will be granted credentials on a single-game, space-available basis.

Requests for season credentials should arrive by Aug. 25, 2017. Requests for single-game credentials at Fisher Stadium should arrive no later than one week in advance of the game. All requests for credentials should be made to:

Lafayette College Athletic Communications & Promotions
107 Kirby Sports Center
Easton, PA 18042-1772
Phone: (610) 330-5122

WEEKLY MEDIA LUNCHEONS

Each Tuesday during the season, head coach John Garrett and at least two members of the team will address the media and entertain questions. The luncheons will be held at Pfenning Alumni Center overlooking Fisher Stadium and begin at noon.

MEDIA PARKING

At the intersection of High and Hamilton streets, continue straight on High Street approximately 25 yards and turn right on the east side of Markle Hall which leads to the "visitors parking" deck. The Otis F. Rowland (1895) Press Box in Fisher Stadium is located just below the parking deck. Parking passes will be mailed if the Office of Athletic Communications and Promotions is notified in advance.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Media Will Call is located at Gate 2, between Markle Parking Deck and Oechsle Hall.

MEDIA SERVICES

Working media at Fisher Stadium will receive the following:

- Statistics displayed during the game
- Final statistics including play-by-play
- Game programs, pre-game notes and flipcards
- Halftime statistics
- Action photos when available

INTERNET

Wireless internet access is available throughout the Rowland Press Box and in the Kirby Sports Center interview room.

Ethernet jacks are also available for internet access in the Rowland Press Box. Please see a member of the Athletic Communications and Promotions staff for connection information.

TELEPHONES

Telephone lines are available in the Rowland Press Box and in the Kirby Sports Center interview room. Media outlets desiring their own lines to be installed in the press box should contact the Office of Athletic Communications and Promotions for further assistance.

REFEREE MIC FEED

Rowland Press Box offers a feed of the referee's microphone for use in radio and television broadcasts.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

All interviews with Lafayette players and coaches must be arranged through the Athletic Communications and Promotions Office. Players will not be available on game day until after the game.

POSTGAME MEDIA & INTERVIEW ROOM

The postgame media and interview room is located in Kirby Sports Center. Entrance to the building is through the glass atrium at field level.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following each game, there will be a 10-minute cooling-off period. The visiting team's press conference will be conducted in the interview room in Kirby Sports Center, followed by Lafayette head coach John Garrett and requested Lafayette players. Following the coaches' interview sessions, additional players will be available to members of the media.

PLAYER TELEPHONE INTERVIEWS

All requests for player telephone interviews should be made at least 24 hours in advance through the Office of Athletic Communications and Promotions. Telephone requests will be scheduled at an appropriate time, so as not to interfere with student-athletes' academic schedules.

PATRIOT LEAGUE SERVICES

The Patriot League communications staff provides weekly releases and updated statistics to working media. Contact Ryan Sakamoto (rsakamoto@patriotleague.com) for more information or log on to PatriotLeague.com

Leopards on Television

A national leader in Division I FCS television coverage, the Lafayette Sports Network will provide Leopard fans across the country and around the world with live coverage options of Lafayette's entire season for the 15th straight year. Now in its 21st year of existence, LSN has become a staple for Leopard fans.

Fans will hear the familiar voice of Gary Laubach handling the play-by-play duties for the 20th season. Mike Joseph '88, former Lafayette football standout and assistant coach, will serve as the primary LSN football analyst for the seventh season. John Leone, who is in his 19th season with LSN, will report on the Leopards from the sideline.

The Lafayette Sports Network, named a finalist in 2013, 2014 and 2015 for College Sports Media Awards by Sports Video Group and NACDA, has annually produced the most expansive television package in the Patriot League since its inception in 1997.

Each LSN telecast airs live regionally to more than 10 million viewers on RCN-1004HD and WBPH-60HD in the Lehigh Valley, Western New Jersey and Pocono areas, and RCN-608HD in Philadelphia. LSN can also be viewed in central New Jersey, New York City, Boston, Chicago and Washington D.C. live via the RCN television network (RCN-608HD). All LSN broadcasts are also streamed live in HD on the Patriot League Network via GoLeopards.com.

Select LSN telecasts are available live on ESPN College Extra and MASN (Mid-Atlantic Sports Network), LSN's national distribution partners via DIRECTV and DISH Network (more than 95 million viewers nationally). Select LSN broadcasts are also streamed live on ESPN3 and the WatchESPN app.

NCAA Division I Football Championship

The NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision is under the control, direction and supervision of the Division I FCS Football Committee appointed by the NCAA Management Council. Previously, Lafayette Director of Athletics Bruce McCutcheon served as the Patriot League representative on the committee. Dennis Poppe, NCAA Director of Championships, works closely with the committee on all matters related to the Division I Football Championship. Selection of teams and conduct of championship competition are the responsibility of the committee.

In 2013, for the fourth time in program history, Lafayette qualified for the FCS Playoffs. The Leopards' berth came with the Patriot League title.

The Division I Football Championship consists of a 24-team tournament, with the top eight seeds receiving a first-round bye. The championship game will be held in Jan. 6, 2018 at Toyota Stadium in Frisco, Texas and televised nationally.

The champions of 10 conferences—Big Sky, Big South, Colonial Athletic, Mid-Eastern Athletic, Missouri Valley, Northeast, Ohio Valley, Patriot, Pioneer, Southern and Southland—receive automatic bids to the tournament. The top eight seeds receive first-round byes and team pairings are determined according to geographical proximity.

The field grew from 16 to 20 teams in 2010 and expanded from 20 teams to its current 24-team format which began in 2013. The committee selects the remaining teams at large with assistance from regional advisory committees.

Teams are selected for the championship on the basis of the following criteria (not in preferential order): (1) eligibility and availability of student-athletes for NCAA post-season competition, (2) win-loss record and (3) strength of schedule.

Traveling to Lafayette

FROM THE WEST

Exit Route 22 at the 4th Street Exit (the last exit in Pennsylvania). At the end of the exit ramp turn left at the traffic light onto Bushkill Street. Proceed straight approximately 100 yards to the next traffic light and turn left onto 3rd Street and pass under Route 22. Continue straight approximately 100 yards to the base of College Hill and bear right as 3rd Street becomes College Avenue. Proceed uphill on College Avenue approximately 200 yards and turn left onto McCartney Street. Continue on McCartney Street to the first stop sign. At this point turn left onto High Street. Proceed to Markle Parking Deck located on the right behind Fisher Stadium. Spaces are reserved for media members.

FROM THE EAST

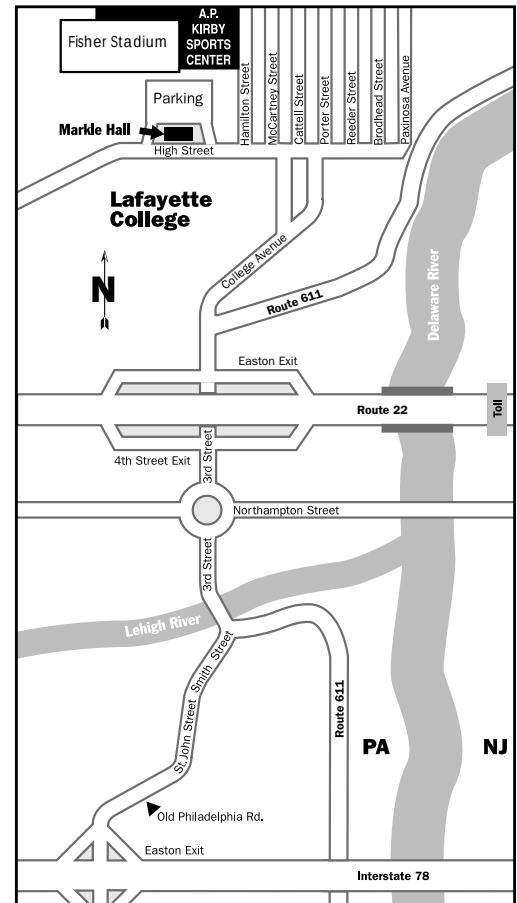

Exit Route 22 at the second exit (marked Lafayette College) after crossing the Delaware River from Phillipsburg, N.J. Proceed straight off the exit ramp approximately 200 yards and turn right onto 3rd Street at the traffic light. At this point refer to the westbound directions beginning with “continue straight approximately 100 yards to the base of College Hill.”

FROM THE NORTH

From Route 80 (east-west) take Route 33 south (exit 46A) approximately 25 miles. Exit Route 33 to Route 22 east. At this point refer to the beginning of the eastbound directions.

FROM THE SOUTH

From the Philadelphia area, take the Northeast Extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike northbound and exit off for Allentown/Lehigh Valley on Route 22 east. Proceed on Route 22 east for approximately 20 miles passing Allentown and Bethlehem. At this point refer to the beginning of the eastbound directions.

THE 2017 LEOPARDS

Season Outlook

A new era began in Lafayette football on Dec. 21, 2016 when John Garrett was introduced as the Fred M. Kirby '42 Head Football Coach. Garrett's first head coaching opportunity saw him replace Frank Tavani who retired after 30 seasons on College Hill and the last 17 as the head coach.

The changes in the program, from the coaching staff to practice structure to the walls of Bourger Varsity Football House, were immediate. Garrett, who brings more than 25 years of coaching experience at the NFL and collegiate level and was most recently the offensive coordinator at the University of Richmond, came in with a plan to rebuild the Leopard program. He wasted little time to implement it.

Ten of 11 coaches on staff are new to Lafayette, with Garrett selecting several assistants from his previous coaching stops at Florida and Virginia. The coaching staff has brought an energy to the Fisher Stadium sidelines. Garrett's attention to detail and love for the game of football has permeated the staff that features a mixture of assistants with NFL, FBS and FCS playing and coaching experience.

The majority of Garrett's staff was in place for the spring season, as the team began to learn his pro-style offensive system, while defensive coordinator Luke Thompson installed his relentless style of play on the other side of the ball.

During the spring, Garrett repeatedly said there were no "incumbents" or "returning starters" when it came to his staff's evaluation of the 90-man roster.

That theme of competition continued when the team opened training camp on Aug. 3 with a familiar goal – a conference title.

"The ultimate goal is a Patriot League championship, but we tell our team 'put that on the backburner, way in the back of your mind and focus on today, focus on how we play and getting better.' We talk a lot about constant and continual improvement," Garrett explained. "If we play our best and perform our assignments and do it with the right technique, the results will come. We've already seen immense improvement, and I like our progress so far."

One of the biggest questions for Garrett, who will serve as the offensive coordinator, is who will be the signal caller following the graduation of Drew Reed. Reed led the Leopards to their last Patriot League title in his freshman year of 2013 and left College Hill ranked third in career passing yards (7,007) and completions (968) and second in career completion percentage (65.2) after playing in 36 games over four seasons as the starter.

Defensively, the Leopards bring back eight starters and will add to the mix a Syracuse transfer along with two All-Patriot League caliber players who missed all or a large portion of the 2016 season.

RETURNING ALL- LEAGUE

Three All-Patriot League selections from 2016 in addition to one Preseason All-Patriot League honoree in 2017 return to the Leopard depth chart. Senior Brandon Bryant represented the defense on the Preseason All-Patriot League Team announced in late July. His 2016 season was cut short due to a knee injury. In 2015, he was an All-Patriot League Second-Team honoree, finishing 23rd in the nation in total tackles and sixth in the NCAA in solo tackles.

Alongside Bryant is versatile junior linebacker Jerry Powe. Powe secured All-Patriot League Second-Team laurels in 2016, playing at the STRIKE linebacker spot, while finishing third on the team in tackles.

On the offensive side of things, senior tight end Dylan Wadsworth joined Bryant on the 2017 Preseason All-Patriot League Team selected by the conference coaches and sports information directors. Wadsworth was an All-Patriot League First-Team honoree at the conclusion of 2016 in which he was second on the team in receptions, yards per catch and receiving yards per game.

Fellow senior pass catcher Matt Mrazek achieved All-Patriot League Second-Team status that same season, leading the team in touchdowns, receptions and receiving yards.

One other All-Patriot League

Senior WR Matt Mrazek

performer comes back for the Leopards on defense. Fifth-year senior Matt Rothrock sat out the 2016 season after sustaining an injury in training camp. He is part of a deep defensive line corps and was an All-Patriot League Second-Team honoree in 2015 at defensive tackle.

OFFENSIVE OVERVIEW

When Garrett talks about his offense, he uses the word “multiple,” referring to a pro-style scheme that has suited him in NFL coaching circles and during his many stints as a collegiate offensive coordinator. To start the season, Garrett expects to be calling the plays for his offense.

“We want to be explosive and hard to beat. It goes right in line with how we play. We want to put pressure on the defense and get big chunks of yardage because it’s really hard to drive the ball 15 to 20 plays and score. Other than turnovers, the biggest stat that correlates to winning is explosive plays – passing game yards per attempt.”

Garrett isn’t tied solely to the passing game, however, when it comes to his offensive approach.

“The run game will be very prominent. When you can run the ball, you can really control the game. The biggest thing for us is preparing each week on how to win that game,” Garrett explained. “There are times when we are going to run it, but sometimes we may have to throw it more, and that may change during the game. Usually a good combination of the run game and passing game is what makes teams successful.”

“Overall, we need to eliminate turnovers with attention to ball security and avoid assignment errors and penalties.”

DEFENSIVE OVERVIEW

The Leopards will stay in a 4-3 for the 2017 season under Thompson, who last worked in that same position for three seasons at Patriot League foe Georgetown. Thompson, who also spent time at Army, Harvard and Holy Cross during his career, will return eight starters led by a deep group up front.

“When we take the field, you’re going to see us playing harder than our opponents. You’re going to see effort and constant, relentless pursuit of the ball,” Garrett described. “Our defense will be characterized by toughness, both mental and physical, whether it’s taking on blocks at the point of attack or handling a situation and being able to get off the field 3rd-and-3.”

“We’ll continue to place an emphasis on taking the ball away, getting after the quarterback and being the best tackling team we can be. We never want to be out-hit or out-hustled on either side of the ball.”

QUARTERBACKS

The good news for new quarterbacks coach David Girardi is that the Leopards have eight quarterbacks on the roster. The bad news is that those quarterbacks have combined to throw one pass in a game situation.

Garrett has been quite clear that there was no frontrunner coming out of spring ball and having four freshmen added to the mix when camp opened has muddied the waters at signal caller. Junior Josh Davis is responsible for the only collegiate pass completion among the Leopard quarterbacks, a 20-yard toss to Ross Scheuerman in the Leopards’ 2014 victory over Lehigh in Yankee Stadium. Davis spent time at wide receiver during 2016, but moved back to QB during the 2017 spring.

Sophomore Austin McCrum is second in terms of experience and snaps under center in practice. He was a two-time All-State honoree coming out of high school in Maine. Classmate Blake Meyer and junior Mike Lewis are also in the mix.

Garrett brought in four freshmen who will have a chance to earn the starting spot. Cincinnati native and All-Ohio selection Reed Aicholz is the biggest of the four passers at 6-5, 225. Cole Northrup threw for more than 7,000 yards and 72 touchdowns while playing in the football hotbed of Florida.

Like Davis, Sean O’Malley comes to College Hill from California where he was his school’s all-time leader in passing and touchdowns. Brycen Mussina matriculates to Lafayette from much closer, making the two-hour trip to Easton from the Williamsport, Pa. area. He was an all-state honoree, throwing for 6,956 yards and 69 touchdowns.

“We need to find a person who can lead the team and take charge and instill a belief in the offense that we can execute plays and drive down and score,” Garrett said of the open competition at quarterback. “That’s ultimately the leadership on the field that they need to display. It comes down to execution and making plays.”

Garrett hasn’t ruled out using multiple quarterbacks.

“I don’t think at this stage in college football that you necessarily have to choose one guy who is the starter no matter what. You have to earn it every week and I’m really excited about the competition.”

RUNNING BACKS

Josh Zidenberg will oversee the Leopards’ running backs. Entering training camp, senior DeSean Brown was at the top of the depth chart, having led Lafayette’s running game each of the last two seasons on his way to 1,177 yards and eight touchdowns.

Brown will be joined by classmate Rajhan Meriwether who played in 14 games the last two seasons and junior C.J. Amill who split time between running back and wideout in 2016.

Also making his push for playing time is sophomore Mike Dunn. Dunn played in nine games, finishing the season third on the team in rushing while enjoying a breakout game vs. Bucknell with 10 carries for 58 yards and a touchdown.

Two new faces, J.J. Younger and Selwyn Simpson, will look to have an immediate impact. Younger, a Pittsburgh native, was an all-state selection in high school and a member of three WPIAL championship teams. Simpson, from the Philadelphia area, was an all-conference running back who scored 43 career touchdowns.

“We have several experienced running backs, but it’s a position where a young player can go in and play. It’s one position where you need to play more than one guy,” Garrett said. “The day of one running back staying out there and taking all of that punishment is no longer. We feel like we have several guys who can go in the game and play and we’ll make sure those backs are fresh and ready to play when they go in there.”

TIGHT ENDS/FULLBACKS

Garrett invoked history to describe the role of the tight end in his offense.

“The tight end has to be the renaissance man – he can do it all. The problem is that it’s rare that you have a player who is great at all of the job requirements – run blocking, pass blocking and receiving short, medium and long,” the first-year coach said. “The versatility at that position is good with Dylan and some of the other guys. We feel pretty good about using them in different roles.”

Wadsworth, a 2017 Preseason All-

Patriot League selection and a 2016 First-Team honoree, started every game in his junior season when he reeled in 42 balls for 591 yards and a pair of touchdowns. He averaged 14.1 yards per catch as a top receiving option and had a career-long 56-yard touchdown against archrival Lehigh to end the 2016 season, his first as a starter.

Junior Angus Evans played in 11 games with four starts as a sophomore being used primarily as a blocker.

Garrett and tight ends coach Christian Pace haven’t tipped their hands as to whether fullbacks will make frequent appearances in the offensive sets. If they do, junior Will Eisler and sophomore Ryan Monteyne will figure in the mix.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Of all of the offensive positional groupings, the wide receiver corps may be the deepest. It’s headed by Mrazek whose 141 receptions rank him seventh all-time at Lafayette and his 12 touchdowns place him eighth. Mrazek, an All-Patriot League Second-Team selection, has played in 30 career games, needing just 24 yards to reach the Lafayette top 10 for career receiving yards. Mrazek is known for his acrobatic catches, using his size to out-duel shorter defensive backs.

He will be joined by seniors Rocco

Senior TE Dylan Wadsworth

Palumbo and Nick Franzese. Palumbo has seen time as a starter in two seasons and has 64 career catches for 664 yards. Franzese has played in 28 career games and his 17 catches for 220 yards were both career highs for the New Jersey native.

Junior Joey Chenoweth is also likely to figure prominently in pass-catching duties. He played in every game in 2016 with four starts. The California native has 83 catches for 760 yards through two seasons.

Sophomores Nick Pearson, Jake Liedtka and Julian Spigner look to contribute, joining junior Chris Granjean at wideout.

“We do have a history of production at wide receiver. We have several guys we can put in the game who are reliable and dependable, know where to go and how to get open,” Garrett said. “They have to have versatility and be able to play all of the receiver positions, as we will be multiple on offense. This group has really worked hard to learn the system.”

OFFENSIVE LINE

In contrast to the wide receivers, the offensive line is much less experienced. Three starters return, but the preseason depth chart shows a minimum of three freshmen in back-up roles for offensive line coach Gordon Sammis.

Senior Cam Smith is by far the most seasoned member of the front five. He enters his third season as a starter at tackle, beginning 11 games at left tackle in 2016, where he also will play in 2017. He started 11 games at right tackle in 2015.

The early frontrunner for right guard is Smith’s classmate Collin Raysor, who has played in just one game during three seasons with the Leopards’ program.

Lining up in the middle of the offensive line is likely to be another senior, Mike Donnelly. Donnelly has shown himself to be one of the team’s most versatile offensive linemen, starting six games (four at right tackle and two at right guard) in 2016 while playing in 10 games in 2015 (starting three at left guard and two at center).

On the right side of the line, junior Logan Grieser reprises his role as guard where he started nine games in 2016. Sophomore Jake Marotti is in the mix for the starting right tackle spot, competing in three games there as a rookie.

Backing up the front five are three freshmen (Gavin Barclay, Austin Pyne and Taron Hampton) and two sophomores (Dylan Murphy and Colin Bradley). Freshmen Trey Fallon and John Burk will also look to work their way into playing time.

“We have a few veterans who have played. They are picking up the new system well. But for the young guys it’s not just learning the system, but adjusting to the speed of the game,” Garrett said of his options on the offensive line. “We have some talent in this freshman class and it’s just a matter of how quick of a study they will be to earn the right to go in the game. I’m pleased with their progress so far.”

DEFENSIVE LINE

First-year coach Justin Hinds is in charge of mentoring the deepest position group on the squad, as the

Senior DL Beau Bosch

Senior CB Phillip Parham

Leopards can go as many as nine deep within the front four. Senior Beau Bosch is likely to return to his starting spot at defensive end for the third straight season. Bosch started all but one game in 2016, finishing with 38 tackles, 8.5 for loss with 3.5 sacks.

At the other end is junior Dante Lonardo who played in 11 games while starting the one game that Bosch did not in 2016. Lonardo registered 19 tackles in his first full season on the field.

Sophomores Andrew Chuma and Keith Earle will be pushing for playing time at both ends, with Chuma having been a key special teams contributor as a rookie and playing in every game.

Junior Tony Giudice is likely to see time at nose (tackle). The Syracuse transfer played in 14 games in two seasons with the ACC school. Sophomore Demetrius Breedlove will look to line up at the other tackle spot, having started four of the last five games of 2016.

A pair of fifth-year seniors, Matt Rothrock and Andy Labudev, will be eagerly battling for playing time having previously played starter minutes. Rothrock missed the 2016 season due to injury, a year after he was an All-Patriot League Second-Team performer.

Labudev started every game at tackle last season, finishing with 24 tackles and three sacks. Junior Lavel Ramsey also figures to be in the mix, having played in every game last season along with sophomore Ryan Barnett.

"Because of the depth and talent and experience, they need to just play as hard as they can every play — no holding back," Garrett said. "We know that we can rotate players in and not skip a beat or see a drop in talent."

LINEBACKERS

The linebacking corps features a pair of All-Patriot League caliber players in Bryant and Powe. Bryant was a second-team selection in 2015 when he led the team and was 23rd in the nation in total tackles and led the Patriot League in solo tackles. The WILL linebacker started the first five games of 2016 before a knee injury ended his season. Bryant, who rehabbed and trained with the team this summer, received his medical clearance well before training camp and is expected to be a defensive leader.

Powe, an All-Patriot League honoree in 2016, has settled into his SAM linebacker spot very nicely, now entering his third season as a starter. He was third on the team in tackles (78) and second in tackles for loss (9.5) as a sophomore, a year after being named the team's defensive rookie of the year.

Senior Michael Root started every game in 2016 at MIKE linebacker, leading the team with 85 tackles. He has played in 24 games over three seasons and with Bryant and Powe gives linebackers coach Nick Lezynski a formidable starting unit.

Rob Hinch is the likely back-up for Bryant, as he started the final six games of 2016 following Bryant's injury. Hinch was second on the team with 80 tackles, including a team-best 10 tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks and is a proven special teams contributor.

Sophomores Jack Lamb and Kevin Hutchinson, juniors Jacob Rose and Troy Dixon and senior J.J. Conn combined to play in 23 games last season and will vie for playing time, as will several freshmen.

"For us, the linebackers are the link between the defensive line and the secondary," Garrett explained. "They really have to set the tempo with the energy, the effort, the toughness and emphasis on getting after the ball. Right now, Brandon Jerry and Mike are doing just that."

SECONDARY

For the ninth straight season, the Lafayette secondary will be coached by Doug McFadden who will see players with starting experience return at three of the four positions. Leading that charge is senior cornerback Phillip Parham. Parham started every game in 2016 and combined for six starts in each of his first two seasons while playing in 28 total games. He was fifth on the team in tackles (49) and second for interceptions behind only Draeland James '17 whose No. 22 Parham acquired upon James' graduation.

Sophomore Eric Mitchell, who started seven games including the final four of the season, is expected to play the other corner spot. Mitchell finished with 31 tackles and an interception against Bucknell and a fumble recovery vs. Delaware.

Senior Parish Simmons started two games (Fordham and Army) at corner in 2016 and has played in 28 overall. He, along with sophomore Dmitry Smith, will challenge for playing time.

Senior Tymir Jones (37 tackles) started five games at strong safety last season and looks to return to the starting lineup, playing alongside sophomore Trent Crossan who has been used primarily on special teams during his first two campaigns.

Juniors Izaiah Avent (nine games played with two starts) and Clay Rush (five games played) will look to add depth in the secondary as will sophomores Yasir Thomas, Tre Jordan and Colin Thorne, who played in 11, four and eight games respectively in their rookie seasons. Thomas played on both sides of the ball and also was a kick returner.

"These guys are talented. We need to get them to overcome injury obstacles. If they stay healthy, we have a deep, talented group. We can play several guys and there won't be a drop off," Garrett said. "A big emphasis for them is tackling. We need them to be complete football players. It's not about covering and getting interceptions, but also establishing a toughness and a presence in the run game. When you have tough DB's, it's infectious, resonating with the team."

Junior RB C.J. Amill

Senior LS Michael Shiffert and sophomore WR Nick Pearson

SPECIAL TEAMS

On special teams, five of the seven key positions return for the Leopards and first-year special teams coordinator Marc Nudelberg.

The Leopards' placekicker unit looks to be a strength as junior Jacob Bissell continues the job he took over as a freshman. Bissell, an All-Patriot League selection and the team's special teams MVP as a freshman in 2015, converted eight field goals each of this first two seasons at a rate of 64 percent. He has not missed a PAT, making 41 straight. Bissell also likely will handle kickoffs, averaging 62 yards per attempt with 20 touchbacks last season.

"Bissell has a really strong leg. He can kick off as well as be our field goal kicker," Garrett said. "Talent wise, he's arguably as talented as anyone in the league."

Graduation took Ryan Forrester who was the team's punter the last four seasons. Forrester had his best year in 2016, turning in the school's second-best single season punting average at 41.4 yards per attempt. The frontrunner to replace him is freshman Michael Turk who spent the 2016 season training with his uncle, former NFL punter Matt Turk. Turk also is slated to be the team's holder.

Senior Michael Shiffert will continue as the team's snapper, a role he has filled for the last three seasons.

At kick and punt returners, juniors C.J. Amill and Joey Chenoweth will battle for opportunities at the outset. Amill led the team with 23 kick returns for 394 yards (17.1) as a sophomore and 36 returns for 698 yards as a freshman (19.4). Chenoweth did not serve as a returner in 2016, but had eight return opportunities as a freshman.

SCHEDULE

The 2017 football slate kicks off on Saturday, Sept. 2 at Monmouth. It will mark the first game in the Garrett era, coincidentally taking place just down the road from where he once lived with his parents in Monmouth Beach. Monmouth, which is a member of the Big South Conference in football, has faced the Leopards just one other time, a one-point Leopard victory in 2002. The Lafayette-Monmouth matchup is slated to open up Kessler Field, Monmouth's $16 million football venue.

Lafayette plays its 2017 home opener in week two of the season, welcoming Sacred Heart of the Northeast Conference. Sacred Heart leads the series 2-1 with the last meeting being played in Fairfield, Conn. in 2014. The ledger will see the Leopards rotate home and road games each week through the end of the season.

In week three, Lafayette makes its first-ever trip to Villanova (despite five series meetings dating back to 1898). The Wildcats, who are ranked No. 10 in the STATS preseason poll, are coached by first-year head coach Mark Ferrante who replaced the retired Andy Talley. Ferrante spent the previous 30 years as Talley's assistant, including the last 18 years as assistant head coach.

In week four, Lafayette returns to Fisher Stadium for Family Weekend and a 6 p.m. kickoff vs. Garrett's alma mater, Princeton. The Tigers eked out a four-point win in the Garden State in 2016. The last day of September marks the opening day of Patriot League play for Lafayette when the Leopards venture to Holy Cross for an afternoon game.

October begins with Patriot League foe Fordham coming to Fisher Stadium for a 3:30 p.m. kickoff. The Rams were 8-3 overall and 5-1 in Patriot League play in 2016 under first-year head coach Andrew Breiner, but missed out on the playoffs.

Lafayette will play its final non-conference game in week seven, traveling to Massachusetts for the second time in three weeks when the Maroon and White face off against the Harvard Crimson.

Week eight returns the Leopards to the friendly confines of Fisher Stadium to host Bucknell on Homecoming Weekend in a 3:30 p.m. kickoff.

The month of October opens when the Leopards embark on a trip to the nation's capital to face defensive coordinator Luke Thompson's last team, Georgetown. The Leopards beat the Hoyas 17-3 last season and have taken three out of the last four from the associate Patriot League member.

Oct. 28 will be a Saturday off from competition for Lafayette, leading into the Leopards' Nov. 11 meeting with Colgate in the penultimate Patriot League contest. The regular season closes in week 11 on Nov. 18 when Lafayette travels to Lehigh for the 153rd meeting of College Football's Most-Played Rivalry. Lehigh has won the last two meetings and was the preseason pick to capture a Patriot League crown.

2017 GEOGRAPHICAL ROSTER BREAKDOWN

THE COACHING STAFF

Fred M. Kirby II '42 Head Football Coach

John Garrett

Bringing more than 25 years of coaching experience in the collegiate and professional ranks, John Garrett was named the Fred M. Kirby II '42 Head Football Coach at Lafayette College on Dec. 21, 2016.

During the 2016 season, Garrett was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Richmond which posted a 10-4 record and advanced to the NCAA FCS Playoff quarterfinals under Danny Rocco. Richmond averaged 28.6 points and 410 yards of total offense per game, both second-best in the 12-team Colonial Athletic Association. Garrett's pro-style passing offense led the CAA with 271.5 yards per game.

Garrett spent the 2015 season as a quality control specialist for the offense at the University of Florida and served as the offensive coordinator at Oregon State University during the 2014 season. While at Oregon State, Garrett coached under current Nebraska head man Mike Riley, when OSU averaged nearly 26 points per game and put up 35 in a signature win against a top-10 Arizona State team.

His most recent NFL coaching assignment was in 2013 as the wide receivers coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He was also on the staff for the Dallas Cowboys from 2007-12 where his brother, Jason, is the head coach. Garrett was the Cowboys' tight ends coach for six years and the passing game coordinator for the final two seasons.

Garrett's coaching in the professional ranks followed a playing career in the NFL. He was a member of the practice squad and active roster for the Cincinnati Bengals in 1989, and on the practice squad for the Buffalo Bills in 1991. Garrett also spent training camp with the Cowboys in 1988 and with the Bengals in 1990.

Garrett was born in Danville, Pa., attended high school in Cleveland and lived part of his early years in Monmouth Beach, N.J. He began his coaching career in 1990 as a volunteer at his alma mater, Princeton University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in history in 1988. In 1992, he made the move to the NFL ranks as a personnel assistant, college scout and coaches' assistant for the Buccaneers, a position he held through 1994.

In 1995, he was named the offensive assistant/wide receivers coach with the Bengals, staying with the team through the 1998 season. Garrett was the Arizona Cardinals' quarterbacks coach for the 1999 and 2000 campaigns before returning to the Bengals as an offensive assistant coach in 2001, tight ends coach in 2002 and a scout in 2003.

He re-joined the college ranks in 2004, where for three years he was the University of Virginia's wide receivers coach and in 2006 added the title of assistant head coach for offense. The next season he moved to the Cowboys organization.

Garrett's father, Jim, spent 38 years in the NFL as a scout and assistant coach. His brother, Judd, is the current Director of Pro Scouting for the Cowboys. John and his wife, Honor, have four children (John Jr., Honor, Olivia and Caroline).

Gordon Sammis

Offensive Line

Gordon Sammis is in his first season as the offensive line coach on John Garrett's staff.

Sammis spent the last two seasons as the offensive line coach at Virginia Military Institute (VMI) in Lexington, Va. He was responsible for the running game and pass protection plans for a tempo run-pass option offense. From year one to year two of his VMI tenure, the offensive line cut its number of sacks allowed by seven.

Prior to VMI, Sammis spent time as the tight ends coach and offensive line coach at Columbia University from 2012-14. He served as the program's recruiting coordinator all three seasons, navigating the recruiting waters at an Ivy League school with the conference's highly selective academic index.

A 2007 University of Virginia graduate, Sammis graduated with a degree in Government after a playing career as an offensive guard that spanned from 2003-07. Sammis competed under Garrett, who was the wide receivers coach from 2004-06 and added the title of assistant head coach for offense in his final season before joining the Dallas Cowboys' staff.

Sammis returned to his alma mater as a graduate assistant coach from 2010-12, earning his Master's Degree in Education in 2012. He worked as offensive line assistant for three seasons and as the tight ends coach his last two.

Sammis is a native of Flemington, N.J. where he attended Immaculata High School.

David Girardi

Quarterbacks

David Girardi begins his first season as the quarterbacks coach on John Garrett's offensive staff. Girardi spent the last three seasons on the Northwestern University football staff, working both as a graduate assistant on the defensive side of the ball and as an offensive quality control assistant. While there, he earned his Master's Degree in Sports Administration.

Prior to his time with the Big 10 program, Girardi worked two seasons as a graduate assistant at Seton Hill University in Greensburg, Pa. where he earned his MBA in 2013.

Girardi, a native of St. Petersburg, Fla., spent his undergraduate career as the quarterback at Geneva College in Beaver Falls, Pa. from 2008-10. He earned three All-Presidents' Athletic Conference honors as a quarterback to go along with a pair of National Christian College Athletic Association All-America nods.

Girardi threw for more than 6,000 yards and 37 touchdowns and holds the single season and career records for completion percentage at Geneva. Girardi also punted for the Torandoes, earning All-PAC and All-NCCAA recognition at that position in 2010.

Gunnard Twyner

Wide Receivers

Gunnard Twyner is in his first season as the wide receivers coach on John Garrett's coaching staff. Twyner played with three different teams in the NFL and has previous collegiate coaching experience at Western Illinois University and Dodge City Community College.

After completing his playing career, he was a successful coach at the high school and collegiate levels and also added NFL coaching internships.

Twyner was the wide receivers coach from 2013-16 at Dodge City Community College in Dodge City, Kan. where the team is coming off a 2016 season in which it finished 15th in the final national poll. From 2010-13, Twyner was the wide receivers coach at his alma mater, Western Illinois University. During his coaching tenure in Macomb, Ill., one of Twyner's receivers earned All-Missouri Valley Football Conference First-Team honors each season.

Twyner and his two all-conference receivers, Lito Senatus and Terriun Crump, hold down the second, third, and fourth spots all-time in receiving yards at Western Illinois where Twyner was an All-Gateway Conference First-Team selection from 1993-95 before graduating in 1996 with a degree in Graphic Design.

In his junior season of 1994, Twyner was named Honorable Mention All-America. He ranks third in career receptions (144) and receiving yards (2,243) at Western Illinois where his records of four touchdown receptions in a game and 33 consecutive games with a catch still stand. Twyner also ranks sixth all-time with 14 touchdown catches and ninth with an average of 15.6 yards per catch. Twyner is listed in four different season top-10 receiving categories as well.

Following his graduation, Twyner played in the NFL from 1996-99, initially signing as a free agent with the Cincinnati Bengals for the 1997 season when Garrett was the team's wide receivers coach. He played with the New Orleans Saints from 1997-99 and attended the Jacksonville Jaguars training camp in 2000.

Twyner also played five seasons in the Arena Football League. During his rookie year with Tampa Bay in 2001, he set an AFL rookie season record for touchdown receptions as the team advanced to the second round of the playoffs. He also played with Buffalo and Columbus before concluding his professional playing career in 2004.

His coaching career began while he was still playing professional football, as Twyner was the wide receivers coach at Estero (Fla.) High School from 2002-03. A move to Maryland continued his coaching journey, serving as a volunteer wide receivers coach at Seneca Valley

High School from 2003-05 and as a volunteer offensive coordinator at Churchill High School in Potomac, Md. from 2005-06.

In 2006-07, he garnered his first head coaching assignment at John F. Kennedy High School in Silver Spring, Md. Taking over a program that had not won a game in four seasons, Twyner turned the 2006 squad into a 10-2 team that advanced to the second round of the Class 3A state playoffs. He was named the Maryland Coach of the Year, and the following season JFK went 9-3 and again advanced to the playoffs.

In the summer of 2009, Twyner participated in the NFL's Minority Coaching Internship, working as an assistant quarterbacks coach with the Indianapolis Colts under quarterback coach Frank Reich. He had a similar experience with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the summer of 2013 as an assistant wide receivers coach.

A native of Davenport, Iowa, Twyner has two daughters, Kelise and Maleah.

Josh Zidenberg

Running Backs

Josh Zidenberg is in his first season as the running backs coach on John Garrett's coaching staff. He is coming off a two-season stint on the football staff at Virginia Military Institute where he was the safeties coach and the co-coordinator for special teams. The Poquoson, Va. native also spent one season (2014) as a graduate assistant at Connecticut, working primarily with the linebackers.

He broke into collegiate coaching at his alma mater, Virginia, working three seasons (2009-11) as a graduate assistant while completing his Master of Education Degree in Administration and Supervision 2011. That followed a four-year undergraduate playing career at UVA where he secured his bachelor's degree in English in 2008. Following his graduation, he worked as a player personnel assistant with the Miami Dolphins from 2008-09.

Zidenberg joined the Virginia program as a walk-on, but was later awarded a football scholarship. He earned the George Welsh Award, as most outstanding special teams player, following his junior year of 2006 and the John Polzer Award, for ability, sportsmanship and character, in 2007. Zidenberg, a fullback, was the starting kick-off returner his senior season of 2007 and led the team in average yards per return.

Christian Pace

Tight Ends

Christian Pace takes over as the running backs coach on John Garrett's coaching staff. Pace comes to Lafayette fresh off a two-year coaching stint at the University of Florida.

A native of Avon Lake, Ohio, Pace coached the tight ends in 2016 and the offensive line in 2015 as a graduate assistant coach on Jim McElwain's staff in Gainesville, Fla. The Gators won the SEC East Division in 2015 and 2016, making appearances in the 2016 Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl and the 2017 Outback Bowl.

Pace played football at the University of Michigan, but injuries kept him off the field. He stayed with the program as a student assistant coach on the offensive line (2011-13) and with the running backs (2014). Pace coached current Green Bay Packers fullback Joe Kerridge and aided in the development of Associated Press First-Team All-Americans, David Molk and Taylor Lewan (currently with the Tennessee Titans) and Denver Broncos' third-round pick Michael Schofield. During his time in Ann Arbor, Mich., the Wolverines advanced to the 2012 Sugar Bowl, 2013 Outback Bowl and the 2013 Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl.

Pace, whose brother is the tight ends coach at Fordham University, graduated from Michigan with a bachelor's degree in Movement Science in 2014 and is nearing completion of a master's degree in sport management from Florida.

Luke Thompson

Defensive Coordinator/
Linebackers

Luke Thompson, who has nearly 20 years of coaching at the collegiate level, takes over as the defensive coordinator under first-year head coach John Garrett.

Thompson spent the last three seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Georgetown, overseeing a 2016 team that finished first in the Patriot League in scoring defense (23.3 ppg) and red-zone defense and second in turnovers gained and third-down defense. During his tenure, he mentored defensive end Alec May who led the nation in sacks in 2014 and defensive back Ettian Scott who led the nation in passes defended in 2015.

For the 2012 and 2013 seasons, Thompson was the special teams coordinator and an offensive assistant coach at Army. In 2012, he coached the fullbacks for an offense that finished first in the FBS in rushing offense. That followed his first stint at Georgetown (2006-12) where he spent time as the special teams coordinator and linebackers coach.

Thompson coached outside linebackers at Harvard during the 2004 and 2005 seasons, helping guide the Crimson to an Ivy League title in 2004. That season the defense limited its final six opponents to 14 points or fewer and surrendered just one touchdown in the final three games.

He served as an assistant coach at Amherst College from 2002-03, coaching the linebackers while coordinating video operations. He also spent 1999-00 as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Holy Cross in his hometown of Worcester, Mass. Thompson began his coaching career in 1998 as the offensive line and tight ends coach at Bowdoin College in Brunswick, Maine.

A 1998 graduate of Assumption College in Worcester, Mass. Thompson earned his bachelor's degree in Foreign Affairs and Economics. He and his wife, Kristin, have two children, Madelyn and Luke.

Doug McFadden

Defensive Backs

Doug McFadden begins his ninth season on the Lafayette coaching staff and first under new head coach John Garrett. He spent 2014-16 as the special teams coordinator in addition to his duties coaching the secondary.

As McFadden enters the 2017 season, he will turn his focus solely to the defensive backfield where six players who spent time in the starting lineup return, led by senior cornerback Phillip Parham. Parham was one of just two players in the secondary who started every game in 2016 and will lead a young, but talented corps.

In 2016, McFadden had to replace Matt Smalley '16, a four-time All-Patriot League cornerback/return specialist who signed with the N.Y. Giants.

In 2014, McFadden got an early start to the season, participating in a summer-long minority coaching internship with the Cleveland Browns.

When the collegiate season rolled around, the Lafayette secondary proved to be the strength of the defense, as Smalley and strong safety Jared Roberts '16 collected All-Patriot League First-Team honors. Parham also emerged at cornerback, starting the final six games of his rookie season. McFadden, who took over as special teams coordinator in 2013, managed the kick (22.4) and punt (15.1) return units which led the league in 2014.

In 2013, the kick return unit was exceptional as Smalley and Ross Scheuerman '15 combined to finish fourth in the nation, averaging 25 yards per kick return. Individually, Smalley was eighth in the nation, bringing back kicks an average of 29.6 yards and was third in the nation with two runbacks for touchdowns on his way to All-Patriot League First-Team honors as a return specialist. The team's kicker, Ryan Gralish '16, made 82 percent of his field goals and was an All-Patriot League Second-Team honoree.

Smalley was also a key element in the secondary, garnering First-Team honors at cornerback while Roberts secured second-team laurels. The secondary enjoyed a solid season despite losing two projected starters to injury.

In 2012, the Lafayette secondary was productive, intercepting 22 passes (second most in the nation). Darius Safford '13, Kyni Scott '13 and Roberts accrued All-Patriot League laurels.

In 2011, the secondary was one of the top units in the Patriot League led by three-time All-League selection Brandon Ellis '12.

McFadden coached Ellis to First-Team honors in 2010 after earning Second-Team honors the year prior. That year, Ellis was one of just two sophomores in the conference to earn recognition on defense. Ellis was third on the team in tackles that season and was fourth in 2010.

Prior to coming to Lafayette, McFadden served as assistant head coach from 2005-09 at Fort Hays State University in Kansas, working as the secondary coach and special teams' coordinator.

A native of Columbia, S.C., he arrived at the Tiger football program after serving as the special teams' coordinator and secondary coach for two years at South Dakota State University. While at Langston University in 2002, McFadden was the defensive coordinator and secondary coach. He served in the same capacity at Hutchinson Community College in 2001 and was secondary coach for the Blue Dragons from 1999 to 2000.

A four-year letterwinner at Southwest Baptist University in Bolivar, Mo., the former cornerback was an NCAA Division II All-Star in 1999 and an All-MIAA selection in 1998. In 2000, he played professionally for the Wichita Warlords of the Indoor Football League.

McFadden earned his bachelor's degree in Organization Management and Leadership from Friends University in 2001.

He is married to the former Susan Cochran and the couple has three daughters, Olivia, Gabrielle and Payton.

Justin Hinds

Defensive Line

Justin Hinds is in his first season as the defensive line coach on John Garrett's coaching staff.

Hinds is coming off a one-season stint as the defensive line coach and academic coordinator at Valdosta State University in Valdosta, Ga. He helped lead the program to an 8-3 mark and a berth into the in 2016 NCAA Division II playoffs.

Prior to Valdosta state, Hinds was a defensive line graduate assistant coach at the University of Florida for the 2015 season and at Mississippi State University in 2014. During his time in the SEC, Hinds coached NFL Draft picks John Bullard (2nd round to Chicago Bears) at Florida, along with Preston Smith (2nd round to Washington Redskins) and Chris Jones (2nd round to Kansas City Chiefs) at Mississippi State. Alex McCalister (5th round to Philadelphia Eagles) also benefited from Hinds' tutelage while at Florida, and Hinds' recruiting efforts also helped the Gators acquire five-star defensive line recruit CeCe Jefferson, who went on to become an All-American during his freshman season in 2015.

Hinds' longest coaching foray came at Wagner College from 2011-13, when he worked as the assistant outside linebacker coach and defensive line coach, helping guide the FCS school to a Northeast Conference Championship in 2012. Prior to Wagner, he coached at Woodbridge and Plainfield high schools in New Jersey.

His coaching career began in 2009 at his alma mater Rowan University as the assistant defensive line coach.

He graduated from the Division III school in 2009 after a four-year career in which he played in 40 games at nose guard and defensive end. The native of Port Reading, N.J. earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from Rowan in 2009 and his MBA from Wagner in 2013.

Nick Lezynski

Linebackers

Nick Lezynski is in his first season as the linebackers coach on John Garrett's Lafayette football staff.

Lezynski spent the last three seasons as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Connecticut under Bob Diaco. For 2014 and 2015, he worked with the offense and special teams before moving to the defensive side of the ball during the 2016 season. Prior to UConn, he was the assistant secondary coach at Holy Cross from 2012-13.

Lezynski is a 2011 graduate of the University of Notre Dame where he was a letterwinner and four-year member of the football program which played in the 2008 Hawaii Bowl, 2010 Sun Bowl and the 2011 Champs Sports Bowl. He earned his bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Notre Dame and expects to complete his master's degree in Educational Psychology from Connecticut in 2017.

A native of Newtown, Pa., Lezynski is married to his wife, Jessica, and the couple has a daughter, Sloane.

Marc Nudelberg

Recruiting/Special Teams
Coordinator

Marc Nudelberg begins his first season as the Recruiting and Special Teams Coordinator.

Nudelberg spent the last season as the special teams coordinator and running backs coach at the University of Nevada under Brian Polian. That followed a one-year stint as the special teams quality control coach at the University of Florida under Jim McElwain when John Garrett was on staff there. Nudelberg oversaw the development of Johnny Townsend who was a Ray Guy Award (nation's top punter) semifinalist.

Before his time in Gainesville, Nudelberg spent two seasons on the University of Cincinnati coaching staff as a tight ends and special teams coach in 2014, and an offensive graduate assistant in 2013. Cincinnati managed 9-4 records in both of those seasons with trips to the 2013 Belk Bowl and the 2014 Military Bowl. While there, he coached Andrew Gantz who was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award given to the nation's top placekicker.

Nudelberg came to Cincinnati after eight seasons in multiple roles at his alma mater, Florida State, working with head coaches Jimbo Fisher and Bobby Bowden. He spent time as an offensive and special teams quality control coach from 2010-13, working with the specialists and running backs while assisting with the scout special teams. He mentored a pair of NFL specialists, punter Shawn Powell and kicker Dustin Hopkins, and the Seminoles were the nation's top-ranked special teams unit in 2011.

From 2009-10, he worked with the running backs and directly with Bowden on game day, coordinating communication between the head coach and the offensive staff. Nudelberg also served as a student equipment manager and assistant at Florida State from 2005-09.

A native of Cooper City, Fla., Nudelberg graduated from Florida State in 2009 with an Economics degree. Nudelberg is married to his wife, Rachel, and the couple has a son, Kai.

John Menegakis
Football Operations

John Menegakis is in his second season as the Director of Football Operations. Menegakis was with the Lafayette football staff as a defensive assistant/video intern from Aug. 2015 through May 2016.

He graduated from North Carolina State University in 2015 with a bachelor's degree in sport management. While there, he served as a facilities and operations assistant in the N.C. State Athletic Department in 2014.

Brad Potts
Asst. Director of Athletics for Peak Performance/
Head Strength &
Conditioning Coach

Brad Potts, who served seven years as Director of Sports

Performance and head strength coach, is in his fourth year as Assistant Director of Athletics for Peak Performance and Head Strength and Conditioning Coach.

Potts, who was promoted in July 2014, is charged with establishing a creative, realistic and holistic approach to student-athlete well-being and performance through performance training, nutrition, health and wellness. He coordinates the areas of sports medicine, strength and conditioning, mental performance and sports nutrition. Potts works with all of Lafayette's 23 Division I athletic teams, and is an integral part of the success of the Lafayette football program.

Prior to Lafayette, Potts was the assistant strength and conditioning coach at Wofford College in Spartanburg, S.C. for one year.

From March 2005 to August 2006, Potts spent time at the University of North Carolina and University of Georgia, working at both institutions as an intern to the head strength and conditioning coach.

Potts is a 2005 graduate of Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP), earning his degree in Exercise Physiology. During his time at IUP, Potts earned Division II All-America status at linebacker and was selected to the all-conference and All-Northeast Region teams. Potts went on to play for the Johnstown Riverhawks, a professional Arena League football team.

Potts received his master's of science degree in Heath Science from IUP in 2006. He is certified through the USAW as a sports performance coach and is certified by the NSCA as a Strength and Conditioning Specialist. In April 2012, he was published in American Football Monthly.

Potts and his wife, Tiffany, have a daughter, Evangeline, and a son, Ronin.

THE COLLEGE

Lafayette at a Glance

A beautiful campus overlooking the historic Delaware River. A tradition-rich liberal arts college. A selective enrollment small enough to make you feel like you belong to a real community. A college large enough to give you unique opportunities across the arts, sciences and engineering. This is Lafayette.

Founded: In March 1826, the citizens of Easton received a charter signed by the governor of Pennsylvania establishing Lafayette College. The vision: to teach the habits and subjects of a disciplined mind, the skills to conduct careful research and come to considered conclusions, and the desire and ability to lead a purposeful life.

Character: We are proudly independent, academically competitive, and diverse in culture and perspective. We offer undergraduate programs on a coeducational, residential campus rich in history and beauty.

Degrees: We offer a bachelor of arts in 37 fields and a bachelor of science in 14 fields, including 4 in engineering.

Enrollment: We have a close-knit population of 2,450 students, drawn from 46 U.S. states and territories, as well as 48 countries.

Faculty: We have 215 full-time faculty members, of whom 99 percent hold a doctorate or other terminal degree. This gives us an enviable 10.5 to 1 student-faculty ratio.

Campus: There are 69 buildings here, comprising approximately 1.76 million square feet, on 340 acres, including a 230-acre athletic campus.

Endowment: Total endowment of more than $750 million devoted exclusively to undergraduates.

Location: We overlook the Delaware River in Easton, Pennsylvania, population 30,000. Easton is located in the Lehigh Valley, population 800,000; about 70 miles west of New York City and 60 miles north of Philadelphia. The scenic Pocono Mountains are about 35 miles north.

Easton, Pennsylvania

The close, warm relationship between the College and the City of Easton dates back to 1826, when the people of Easton themselves came together to found Lafayette, and it continues to this day. For example, when the Williams Arts Campus opened in Fall 2015, it was intentionally sited at the base of College Hill to create a gateway between downtown residential and commercial districts and the College. This experimental black box theater, state-of-the-art film theater, sound stage, and high-tech media and teaching lab gives the city and College a striking new venue to welcome students and families through a variety of events and activities.

Founded in 1752 at the forks of the Delaware and Lehigh rivers, Easton is one of Pennsylvania's oldest and most historic towns. Easton was one of only three cities where the Declaration of Independence was publicly read after its adoption. The town's strategic position also made it a player in other historic events, such as the Walking Purchase and the French and Indian War and Revolutionary War.

There is far more to do in Easton than walk through the pages and places of history. Its many charms include its stunning architecture; the surrounding natural beauty of mountains, rivers, and valleys; cultural offerings from a vibrant arts scene; and an abundance of retail, dining, and entertainment opportunities for students and their visitors. It also boasts the longest continuous running open-air farmers' market in the country.

Students can spend leisurely afternoons and weekends exploring College Hill with its tree-lined sidewalks and mix of charming residences and unique businesses. Check out the coffee shops and snack spots or learn the location of convenience stores for late-night needs.

Downtown Easton is also home to many restaurants, art galleries and antique shops. The State Theatre hosts concerts, plays, musicals, stand-up comics, and dance performances by nationally and internationally known performers. No matter your age, you must see The Crayola Factory and all its multicolored wonders. The National Canal Museum is also very popular (and much more interesting than it sounds).

Nature therapy is just a short trip away to the Pocono Mountains. There's lots of skiing and snowboarding in the winter. In warmer weather, the rivers and wooded trails are full of places to fish, tube, walk, hike, and bike. And, in autumn, there are few places on earth better suited for a drive to see the changing leaves (pack a picnic).

Here's something else that's pretty hard to find: You not only get to live and learn in the friendly comforts of a small town, you also have easy access to two of the country's most exciting cities. Both New York City and Philadelphia, and all the amazing things those places have to offer, are each barely an hour away from Easton.

Easton's Main Street Initiative (eastonmainstreet.org) is a great resource to find out what's happening downtown. In addition, the Easton Business Association (eastonnow.com) puts out a monthly calendar of events for the city. Laini's Little Pocket Guide (littlepocketguide.com) offers an offbeat, insider's guide to cities in the region along with the hidden treasures and local favorites, and the Lehigh Valley Convention and Visitors Bureau (lehighvalleypa.org) provides an overview of the area's shopping, hotels, spas, restaurants, sports and more.

Alison Byerly

SEVENTEENTH PRESIDENT OF LAFAYETTE COLLEGE

Alison Byerly is Lafayette College's 17th and first woman president. Since her inauguration in October 2013, President Byerly has sought to leverage the hallmarks of a Lafayette education to position the College at the forefront of this country's finest colleges and as a leader of transformational change in higher education.

In November 2014, under President Byerly's leadership, Lafayette launched the public phase of the $400 million Live Connected, Lead Change campaign. The most ambitious fundraising effort in the College's history, Live Connected, Lead Change seeks to strengthen the connections between liberal arts and engineering to better educate students to meet society's increased demand for science and technology while preparing them to think critically and creatively. The campaign also seeks to foster innovation in teaching and learning and to support a campus community that creates lifelong connections among students and gives them the intellectual and social skills they need to succeed.

As one of her first academic initiatives, President Byerly led the creation of Connected Communities in fall 2015. This transformative program provides an immersive student experience that connects residence life to academic programs and student advising with the goal of supporting the diverse academic and developmental needs of students. New students are assigned to one of five Commons, which serve as the foundation for their first-year experience. The program supports the academic and developmental needs of Lafayette's diverse student body. Enhanced housing and dining services that put multiple living/learning options alongside flexible social spaces are strengthening the sense of community, creating opportunities for intellectual engagement, and broadening students' social options.

In February 2016, President Byerly

announced a new strategic direction for Lafayette that supports a shared conviction of the administration, faculty, and Board of Trustees that investing in the quality of the College's people and the vibrancy of its educational community is the best way to ensure its future strength and success. As a result of this new direction, Lafayette will strengthen its financial aid resources to improve access and affordability, with a goal of admitting the most qualified students regardless of their family's financial means. In addition, at this time when a Lafayette education has never been in more demand, the College will grow the size of its student body by 350 to 400 students through a carefully planned and managed process. To maintain or improve Lafayette's long tradition of close student-faculty interaction, the College will also add 35 to 40 new faculty positions and enhance faculty recruitment and retention through competitive salaries.

President Byerly earned a bachelor's degree with honors in English at Wellesley College and a master's degree and doctorate in English at University of Pennsylvania.

She is the author of two books—Are We There Yet? Virtual Travel, which was published in 2012 by the University of Michigan Press, and Victorian Realism and Realism, Representation, and the Arts in Nineteenth-Century Literature, which was published by Cambridge University Press in 1997 and reissued in paperback in 2006—and many scholarly articles.

Before becoming Lafayette's president, she served in leadership positions at Middlebury College for 13 years, most recently as provost and executive vice president. In addition to serving as a member of the Middlebury faculty from 1989 through 2013, she also held an interdisciplinary appointment as college professor and served as a visiting scholar at MIT, Stanford, and Oxford.

President Byerly is married to Stephen Jensen, a medical editor. Their daughter, Laramie, a graduate of Carleton College, is now pursuing her doctorate in oceanography at Texas A&M. Their son, Ryan, a graduate of Moravian Academy, attends Dickinson College.

Director of Athletics

Bruce E. McCutcheon
Director of Athletics

Bruce McCutcheon enters his 17th year as director of athletics for Lafayette's 23-sport varsity athletics program. He was named the 10th director of athletics in the history of the College on Sept. 20, 2001.

In 2013, McCutcheon was named an Under Armour A.D. of the Year and presented with the award at NACDA's annual convention in Orlando, Fla.

Since his appointment as director, McCutcheon has orchestrated a far-reaching upgrade in athletic facilities, increased the number and quality of the coaching staff and other personnel, played a key role in the development of a visual identity program, implemented a comprehensive leadership development program for student-athletes, and built upon Lafayette's long-standing tradition of scholar-athlete excellence.

Upon assuming the athletic director reins, McCutcheon quickly began to change the culture of Lafayette Athletics and he garnered the support of the College's central administration and the Maroon Club on several major initiatives in the areas of facilities and personnel.

Early in his tenure as director, McCutcheon spearheaded the creation of an athletic facilities master plan, which has resulted in far-reaching upgrades in athletic facilities. The results of that endeavor include the $33 million renovation of Fisher Stadium, the construction of Kamine Stadium for baseball, renovation of Mike Bourger '44 Field at Oaks Stadium for soccer, the construction of a new softball stadium, the transformation of the swimming pool to Weinstein Natatorium and several Maroon Club Strength Center renovation projects.

Additionally, the track and field program has been relocated to Metzgar Fields Athletic Complex where a new track opened for competition in 2009 and hosted the Patriot League Championships in 2011. In the summer of 2007, Kamine Varsity House at Metzgar Fields, which houses 11 teams, received a drastic makeover and renovation. In 2011, the Morel Field House was opened, housing indoor batting facilities for baseball and softball and in Kirby Sports Center the men's and women's basketball locker rooms were expanded and renovated. McCutcheon also oversaw a renovation of the Kirby Sports Center arena which was completed in August 2013. The 2015-16 academic year saw the completion of a $5.6M renovation of Weinstein Natatorium.

McCutcheon has also upgraded the department by creating full-time positions in several sports, including volleyball, men's and women's soccer and baseball, as well as strength and conditioning, athletic training and athletic equipment services.

In 2011, McCutcheon introduced the Oaks Leadership Academy as a comprehensive program to develop, challenge, and support Lafayette student-athletes and coaches in their quest to become effective leaders in academics, athletics and life. The Oaks Leadership Academy was developed as a partnership between Lafayette and Janssen Peak Performance and provides the leadership development programming to accomplish this objective.

McCutcheon is proud to oversee a varsity athletics program with a proud tradition of academic excellence. Lafayette's scholar-athletes excel as witnessed by graduation rates among the nation's best, prestigious postgraduate scholarship awards and Academic All-America and Patriot League academic honors.

An experienced administrator, McCutcheon serves on the executive committee of the Division I Football Championship Subdivision Athletics Directors Association (FCS ADA) and served as chair of the Patriot League's Committee on Athletic Administration. In June 2017, McCutcheon was elected the First Vice President of the FCS ADA. He recently completed his term on the NCAA Division I FCS Football Championship Committee and the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee. He served a four-year term on the NCAA Academics/Eligibility/Compliance Cabinet and was chairman of the ECAC Division I Robbins Scholar-Athlete Committee. He holds memberships in the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics and the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame.

McCutcheon began his tenure at Lafayette in July of 1990, after serving as assistant director of athletics at Temple University for one year. That followed a five-year tenure as an assistant athletic director at Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, Ill. McCutcheon graduated from the College of William & Mary in 1976 with a bachelor's degree in Physical Education. He was a two-sport athlete at William & Mary, competing in football and track. He later earned a Master of Arts degree in Sports Administration from The Ohio State University in 1982 and completed his Doctor of Philosophy degree in Sport Management in 1988, also from Ohio State.

A native of Media, Pa., McCutcheon and his wife, Pat, reside on College Hill and have three children, Ian, Meghan and Gavin. Ian, a 2009 Lafayette graduate, went on to earn his law degree from Ohio State, and in June 2014 he was married to Cara Mulholland. Ian's sister, Meghan, graduated from Radford University in 2012 while Gavin graduated from Roanoke College in 2017.

Faculty Mentors

Susan Averett
Faculty Mentor

Susan L. Averett is the Charles A. Dana Professor of Economics. She has taught at Lafayette since 1991 and teaches courses on health economics, microeconomic theory, women and the economy, and econometrics.

Her current research focuses on the economic causes and consequences of obesity, untangling the relationship between marriage and health, and the effect of social policies on the fertility and health of mothers and children.

Averett is also the co-author, with Saul D. Hoffman of the textbook Women and the Economy: Family Work and Pay which is in its third edition.

Her research has been reported in various newspapers including the New York Times, USA Today and the Wall Street Journal and her research into adolescent health and risky behavior garnered an appearance on The Today Show.

Averett has been the recipient of numerous awards to recognize her excellence in teaching and mentoring. She serves as the college's Faculty Representative to the NCAA and as a faculty mentor to the football team. She also serves on the board of trustees for Easton Hospital.

A 1986 graduate of Colorado State where she earned a bachelor's degree in Economics, Averett went on to earn her Ph.D. in Economics from Colorado in 1991.

She is the mother of two daughters, the eldest who graduated from Colorado State University in 2016 and the youngest who is a first-year student at Occidental College.

Roger Ruggles
Faculty Mentor

Roger Ruggles is an associate professor in the Civil and Environmental Engineering Department at Lafayette. Ruggles has been at the College since 1985 and has taught courses in instruction of fluid mechanics, surveying, instrumentation, hydrology, planning and design, open channel hydraulics, independent study in geographical information systems and remote sensing, and AutoCAD. He also developed an interdisciplinary course to teach engineering methods to non-engineers, and served as a facilitator in the Lafayette College technology clinic.

Selected as a Fulbright Scholar in 2000-01, Ruggles worked through Markere University in Kampala, Uganda where he taught four undergraduate and two graduate level courses. In 1994, Ruggles also undertook a Department of Energy Summer Research Fellowship in Aiken, S.C. That followed a 1994 faculty research fellowship sponsored by the U.S. Navy/ASEE when he spent 10 weeks at the Naval Research laboratory's Polar Oceanography branch in Hanover, N.H.

Ruggles earned his bachelor's degree in Civil and Environmental Engineering from Clarkson College in 1980 and followed with his master's degree in Civil Engineering two years later and his Ph.D. in Engineering Science in 1986.

He served as an instructor at Clarkson from 1982-85. His time there came after four years in the Air Force (1972-76) where he repaired long-range radar systems. Ruggles also worked as a hydraulic engineer at Acres American, Inc. in Buffalo, N.Y.

Outside of teaching, Ruggles is a member of the Easton City Council in addition to his time as a faculty mentor for the football team.

Ruggles and his wife Susan, a Lutheran minister, reside on College Hill. They have four adult children, Bryan, Stefanie, Jacob '01 and Karen '08.

Fisher Stadium

Fisher Field at Fisher Stadium has been home to the Lafayette football program since 1926. The complete $33 million transformation, which began in 2006, has given Lafayette one of the premier venues in all of Division I football at the FCS level. The project, completed in 2007, consolidated all of the College's football operations on the main campus.

New spectator seating was built throughout the venue, including chair back seating in select areas of the home stands. Additional visitors' seating was also added, taking the stadium capacity to 13,132 fans.

The team plays on FieldTurf's state-of-the-art in-fill synthetic surface which was initially installed in 2006 and then replaced in 2016, allowing for year-round use by the football program. For the first time in the venue's history, night games were played in 2007 thanks to the installation of stadium lighting. A press box atop the home grandstands was added that includes individual booths for television and radio, coaching staffs and game administrators, while a VIP suite sits at the end opposite the media area.

The most visible feature of the venue during gameday is the state-of-the-art scoreboard which features a 19 by 35-foot video matrix board used to show live game action and replays. Other stadium improvements included new bathroom and vending areas in the middle and upper concourses.

The 24,000 square foot Bourger Varsity Football House at the west end of Fisher Field completed the transformation of Lafayette's football facilities into the state-of-the-art Fisher Stadium.

In addition to featuring a spacious lobby and reception area, the first floor of the Bourger Varsity Football House, named in honor of Eugene J. (Mike) '44 Bourger and Ruth P. '71 Bourger, contains the team's locker room, strength and conditioning areas and sports medicine facilities, including a hydrotherapy room. The upper level houses coaches' offices, a gallery with displays honoring "Legends of Lafayette Football," and several meeting rooms, one of which is theater style and large enough to accommodate the entire team. That area, which can also be divided into four separate spaces, features audio-visual capabilities that match those in the "smart classrooms" in the College's academic buildings.

The principal contributors to the comprehensive Fisher Stadium project were the F.M. Kirby Foundation, Jack Bourger '71 and Selena Vanderwerf and the Brenda Blythe Trust and James R. '77 and Tracey Fisher. The F.M. Kirby Foundation came under the leadership of Fred Morgan Kirby '42 until his passing in 2011. His lifetime of contributions to the College and the game of college football were honored by induction into the Lafayette College Maroon Club Hall of Fame and with his receipt of the Legacy Award presented by the National Football Foundation and the College Hall of Fame.

Now entering its 91st season, Fisher Field has been host to 446 Lafayette football games with the Leopards enjoying an overall record of 257-176-13. Of the previous 90 seasons, Lafayette has produced 12 undefeated home seasons with the most recent being the 1992 Patriot League champion Leopards who went 5-0, the first undefeated home season since 1970. During the 1991, 1992 and 1993 seasons, Lafayette won 10 straight home games, tying the school record for consecutive wins first set by the 1926 and 1927 squads in the first 10 games ever played in the stadium.

The first football game played in the then 18,000-seat structure came on Sept. 25, 1926, a 35-0 win over Muhlenberg College.

Friends of Lafayette Football

The continued success of the Lafayette football program is made possible through the generous support of the Maroon Club's Friends of Lafayette Football, a dedicated network of alumni, parents and friends of the program. For more than 10 years, the Maroon Club's Friends of Lafayette Football has been a driving force behind the program's success. This network of alumni and supporters has sustained dramatic growth over the last decade as both its long-time and new members have assisted in the development of a championship-caliber football program in the Patriot League and the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision.

In the 2016-17 fiscal year, a total of $371,778 was raised in support of the football program thanks to the group's 489 donors. In addition, more than $141,000 was raised for both annual and endowed football scholarships. Chaired by Fran Mustaro '72, the Maroon Club's Friends of Lafayette Football provides additional funds for financial aid, recruitment and the purchase of equipment and supplies not included in the football operating budget.

For the past 15 years, the Friends of Lafayette Football has paid for all three sets of the team's uniforms and has also undertaken the Sponsor-A-Player program that provides the playing equipment for members of the incoming freshman class through a one-time donation. Money raised by the Friends of Lafayette Football also is directed to custom-fitted knee braces, team travel, team apparel, recruiting costs and supplementing coaching salaries and benefits. Other recent commitments include the Fisher Stadium sound system upgrade, the team's charter flights to select road contests and blazers for graduating seniors.

Throughout the season, the Friends of Lafayette Football offers game-day events to enhance the Leopards' football experience for alumni, fans and parents. Pre-game tailgate gatherings are located on the Rowland Press Box plaza, adjacent to the lower level of the Markle Parking Deck behind Fisher Stadium. Pre- and post-game receptions are held at all road contests throughout the season as well. There are several events hosted by the group during the football team's calendar year as well, including the team banquet, luncheons and receptions with Head Coach John Garrett and the annual Ladies Football Clinic.

ROLE WITHIN THE MAROON CLUB

The "Friends of" groups are essential elements of the Maroon Club, an organization consisting of approximately 2,000 donors raising a total of more than $2 million in 2016-17 in annual giving and scholarships. Under the umbrella of the Maroon Club, each of the "Friends of" groups works closely with the Maroon Club Executive Committee. All fundraising activities performed by these organizations directly enhance the sport-specific Maroon Club accounts. All gifts to the Maroon Club general fund and/or sport or area of the donor's choice are a part of the $400 million Live Connected, Lead Change Campaign for Lafayette College.

For more information on the Maroon Club or to inquire about a major gift towards athletic scholarship or endowment, please contact Josh Azer (azerj@lafayette.edu, 610-330-5339).

Friend of the Year Award

Established on Feb. 24, 2007, the Friend of the Year Award is presented by the Maroon Club's Friends of Lafayette Football to an alumnus or friend of the program who has displayed an inordinate amount of support and passion for Lafayette football.

Maroon Club membership — which at the most is $50 annually per donor— benefits each of Lafayette's 23 varsity sports in several ways:

MAROON CLUB STRENGTH CENTER

The facility was made possible through Maroon Club membership dues as were the renovations in 2002.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT AND CAREER NETWORKING

The Maroon Club funds the Oaks Leadership Academy, strengthening select student-athletes skills in personal development. Membership dues also go towards sponsoring career networking programs for all student-athletes.

VISUAL IDENTITY PROGRAM

The Maroon Club membership dues covered all expenses associated with the creation of the current identity program.

ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS INTERN

The Maroon Club membership dues fund the stipend for an Athletic Communications Assistant who handles all communications (website, game programs, press releases, game management assistance, etc.) efforts for several sports.

ASSISTANT STRENGTH COACH

Membership dues fund the stipend for the Assistant Strength Coach position, which works with each of Lafayette's 23 sports.

Patriot League

ACADEMIC AND ATHLETIC SUCCESS

Now in its third decade as an all-sport conference combining academic and athletic excellence, the Patriot League sponsors championships in 24 men and women's sports. Initially started as an NCAA Division I-AA football conference in 1986, the Patriot League became an all-sport conference in 1990 and includes American, Army West Point, Boston University, Bucknell, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh, Loyola Maryland and Navy as full members, and Fordham, Georgetown, MIT and Richmond as associate members. These institutions are among the oldest and most prestigious in the nation and their alumni have and continue to play leadership roles in shaping our country.

The Patriot League's mission is simple: to provide successful competitive athletic experiences while maintaining high academic standards, and to prepare its student-athletes to be leaders in society. During the 2016-17 academic year, Patriot League student-athletes and teams accomplished the following:

- 97 Patriot League teams (45.8 percent of League teams) earned NCAA Public Recognition Awards for ranking in the top 10 percent of their sport in Academic Progress Rate (APR), with a Patriot League record 84 squads earning perfect scores.

- 97 Patriot League teams (45.8 percent of League teams) earned NCAA Public Recognition Awards for ranking in the top 10 percent of their sport in Academic Progress Rate (APR), with a Patriot League record 84 squads earning perfect scores.

- The Patriot League ranked second among all conferences in Public Recognition Awards, and tied for the national lead with the Ivy League for the highest percentage of teams earning the honor at 45.8%.

- The League's 93 percent graduation success rate (GSR) is the best mark in the nation for the second-consecutive year. Nine schools were at 90 percent or higher. All 10 member institutions exceeded the national GSR of 86 percent. In addition the League's 86 percent Federal Graduation Rate (FGR) places it as the national leader for the fourth-consecutive year.

- 43 Patriot League student-athletes received Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-District recognition.

- There were a Patriot League record 2,899

Lafayette Football—1988, 1992, 1994, 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2013 Patriot League Champions student-athletes on the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll in 2016-17.

- Bucknell's Sune Swart (Women's Basketball) and Lafayette's Matt Cortese (Men's Lacrosse) each received the Patriot League Award of Outstanding Leadership and Character.

- Lafayette's Amanda Magadan (Field Hockey) and Holy Cross's Mandy Sifferlen (Women's Volleyball) were the League's nominations for the NCAA Woman of the Year award.

- Fordham RB Chase Edmonds and Bucknell OL Julie'n Davenport became the 11th and 12th players in League history to be named Consensus All-Americans.

- Bucknell's Davenport became the first Patriot League football player selected in the NFL Draft since 2011 when he went in the 4th round (130th overall) to the Houston Texans.

- Lehigh quarterback Nick Shafnisky was named the ECAC Offensive Player of the Year while Colgate defensive lineman Pat Afriyie took home the organization's Defensive Player of the Year honor. Lehigh was tabbed as the ECAC FCS Team of the Year.

- Lehigh offensive lineman was named the FCS ADA Scholar-Athlete of the Year. He was joined on the FCS ADA Academic All-America team by Holy Cross wide receiver Jake Wieczorek and Lafayette offensive lineman Collin Albershardt.

2016 SEASON IN REVIEW

2016 Season in Review

GAME 1 LAFAYETTE 24 CENTRAL CONN. ST. 10

NEW BRITAIN, Conn. (9/2/16) - Drew Reed connected with Matt Mrazek for all three of Lafayette's touchdowns as the Leopards pulled away from Central Connecticut State for a 24-10 win.

Reed was 31-of-42 for 316 yards and three touchdowns, while Mrazek reeled in six catches for 93 yards in the season-opening victory. Two of the scores came in the fourth quarter. The Leopards, who did not commit a turnover, forced five Central Connecticut State turnovers in the game and four in the first quarter.

Lafayette led 10-0 after the first 15 minutes. On CCSU's first drive, LB Brandon Bryant popped the ball loose from the ball carrier near midfield and the Lafayette offense did the rest, covering 62 yards on nine plays. Reed looked sharp from the beginning, completing six of seven passes to three different receivers on the initial drive. The final completion was an 18-yard touchdown strike to the outstretched arms of Mrazek.

The defense continued to force turnovers. Safety Draeland James picked off a pass at midfield and returned it 27 yards. The offense settled for a 35-yard Jacob Bissell field goal and a 10-0 lead with 7:31 left in the first.

The Leopards, clad in white jerseys and white pants, continued to force turnovers. Sophomore CB Izaiah Avent, in the first start of his career, picked off a pass deep in Leopard territory. Classmate Jerry Powe followed suit, taking on a blocker out wide, forcing a fumble after the catch and then recovering on the sideline just before the end of the first quarter.

When the Blue Devils got the ball back, they started at their own 26-yard line. CCSU marched to the Lafayette two-yard line before ending up with a 19-yard yard field goal attempt by Ed Groth that missed.

After a three-and-out by the Leopards, CCSU's Najae Brown ran back a punt for a TD, but the score was nullified by a holding penalty. The Blue Devils took over at the Lafayette 27-yard line after the return. A 43-yard field goal by Groth cut the Leopard lead to 10-3 with 5:26 left in the half.

Just before intermission, Lafayette used its three timeouts and forced a punt. The Leopards took over at their own 48 with 39 seconds left. The offense picked up 20 yards on a Reed to Yasir Thomas toss that allowed Bissell to attempt a 46-yard field goal. The kick missed wide right and Lafayette led 10-3 at halftime.

Three minutes into the second half, CCSU missed another scoring opportunity. Jacob Dolegala found Dan Hebert for a 35-yard completion to the Lafayette 41-yard line. The Blue Devils attempted a 37-yard field goal, but the snap was high and the kick was no good. Andy Labudev registered his first sack of the season on the drive and pushed the attempt back five yards.

Ryan Forrester's second punt of the third quarter gave Central the ball back with six minutes left in the third. Dolegala eluded pressure and hit Alex Jamele in the corner of the end zone as Jamele wrestled the ball from the Lafayette defender to knot the game at 10-10.

Lafayette's next offensive possession started deep inside Leopard territory at the 11-yard line. A 21-yard toss from Reed to Joey Chenoweth underneath gave Lafayette some room to operate. The lengthy drive continued for 12 more plays before Reed found Mrazek near the goal line. Mrazek broke one tackle and stretched the ball across the goal line to propel Lafayette to a 17-10 lead with 12:53 left in the game.

The Leopard defense continued to make plays when it was needed most. Collin Albershardt sacked Dolegala for nine yards and another offensive miscue led to a punt.

The offense capitalized on the momentum, covering 61 yards on nine plays to put away the hosts. Reed completed five passes on the drive that also featured a pair of runs each by C.J. Amill and DeSean Brown. The final play, Reed to Mrazek for 15 yards, ran the final to 24-10.

Defensively, Powe led the team with 10 tackles while Michael Root added nine and Phillip Parham eight. The defense held CCSU to 85 rushing yards and 354 yards of total offense. Lafayette managed 22 rushing yards and 338 total yards while sporting a 10-minute advantage in time of possession.

GAME 2 LAFAYETTE 6 DELAWARE 24

EASTON, Pa. (9/10/16) - The Lafayette football team walked into Fisher Stadium for the first time in 2016, but could not contain Delaware's grinding running game. Two Blue Hen backs, Thomas Jefferson and Jalen Randolph, combined for 229 yards and two touchdowns in a 24-6 win over Lafayette.

Despite the final outcome, it was closely contested throughout. The Leopards' defense consistently came up with stops with Brandon Bryant in the middle of nearly every big defensive play for Lafayette. The junior linebacker finished the night with a game-high 14 tackles and a sack, a year removed from a career-high 18-tackle game at Delaware.

The teams traded punts on the first two possessions. On Delaware's (2-0) second offensive possession, they put together an eight-play drive that was capped by a 43-yard field goal by Frank Raggo.

On the ensuing kickoff, Lafayette started with the ball on its own 13. The Leopards looked to senior quarterback Drew Reed (14-31-2 for 111 yards) and he delivered, completing five passes for 38 yards and rushing for 10. Two of the five completions were to Matt Mrazek, who led the team with eight receptions for 59 yards.

Delaware committed a costly penalty on the drive that allowed the Leopards to move into field-goal range and the Maroon and White capitalized with a 27-yard field goal from Jacob Bissell to knot the game at 3-3.

The Blue Hens were threatening on their first drive of the second quarter, making their way to the Lafayette 36. Delaware handed the ball off to Randolph on a third-and-four, but he was stuffed at the line by Bryant and Collin Albershardt, forcing the Blue Hens to punt.

From that point forward, neither team was able to make it deep into the opposition's territory so the score remained even at 3-3 entering the half.

At the 11-minute mark of the third quarter, the Leopards went on a drive and were quickly forced to punt. Lafayette punter Ryan Forrester received the ball and kicked it 42 yards to the Delaware 19. Justin Watson, the Blue Hens' return man, circled under it, but muffed the catch, resulting in a Lafayette recovery at the Delaware 11-yard line. Forrester had a standout night, averaging 43.3 yards per attempt on nine punts while landing three inside the opponents' 20-yard line.

Lafayette made its way to the three-yard line on a C.J. Amill eight-yard rush, but that was as far as the Leopards were able to get before being forced to settle for a 20-yard field goal from Bissell.

With four minutes left to play in the third quarter, the Blue Hens got the ball and worked their way down the field with five rushes for 33 yards. From the Lafayette 16, Jefferson was given the ball and he scored after finding a hole up the middle to put Delaware on top 10-6.

The Blue Hens extended their lead in the early stages of the final quarter after a seven-play, 91-yard drive. The drive began with five straight runs from Randolph for a combined 68 yards.

Delaware quarterback Joe Walker found some running room and took off for 10 rushing yards of his own. Following one final run by Randolph, Walker found receiver Diante Cherry for a 35-yard touchdown to give the Blue Hens a 17-6 advantage.

The Leopards got the ball back, but the Blue Hens picked off Reed on the first play and scored once more on a four-yard rush by Randolph to seal the 24-6 victory over the Leopards.

GAME 3 LAFAYETTE 31 PRINCETON 35

PRINCETON, N.J. (9/17/16) - Drew Reed threw for 356 yards and three touchdowns, but Princeton's high-powered offense scored 28 points in the second and third quarters for a 35-31 win over the Leopards at Princeton Stadium.

It was the fourth 300-yard passing game of his Reed's career, as he completed 28-of-36 (78 percent) for three touchdowns and two interceptions. Reed threw five passes to Rocco Palumbo for 101 yards while Matt Mrazek caught five balls for 81 yards and two scores. Reed spread the ball to six receivers with Dylan Wadsworth finishing with a team-high six catches.

On the first possession of the game, it looked like the Lafayette defense stopped Princeton in its own half, but a personal foul penalty after the third-down play extended the Tigers' drive. Princeton took advantage, capping a nine-play drive before Joe Rhattigan scored from 23 yards out at 12:04.

The Leopards' offense answered. Reed's 41-yard pass to Mrazek put the Leopards to the Princeton four-yard line. Two rushes later, fullback Kyle Mayfield scored Lafayette's first rushing TD of the season and the first of his career to knot the game at 7-7. Mayfield's run capped a seven-play, 79-yard scoring drive just over six minutes into the game.

Lafayette longest drive (in terms of plays) of the year gave the Leopards the 14-7 lead just before the end of the first quarter. Mrazek snatched a ball from behind the Princeton defender to finish off a 14-play drive over 81 yards while running nearly eight minutes off the clock.

The Princeton (1-0) defense made the difference midway through the second quarter. Ty Desire hit Reed as he delivered the ball and the resulting errant pass was picked off by Dorian Williams and returned 22 yards to the Lafayette eight-yard line. Princeton scored two plays later on a two-yard run by John Lovett to knot the game at 14 apiece.

The Lafayette defense made its presence known, as Brandon Bryant sacked Princeton QB Chad Kanoff (15-of-29 for 160 yards) back to the Princeton two-yard line for a loss of 15 yards. After the punt, Lafayette took over Princeton 40-yard line. A 35-yard pass and spectacular grab by Palumbo across the middle set up a Leopard score. On third down, Reed eluded pressure and hit Nick Franzese for his first career touchdown reception along the back of the endzone for the 21-14 lead at 2:07.

The two minutes were enough for Princeton to tie the game just before the half. Lovett ended an 11-play drive with a one-yard run and a 21-21 score.

Lafayette maintained its lead on the first drive of the second half. A 19-yard run by Mayfield and a 26-yard pass from Reed to Palumbo led to a 36-yard Jacob Bissell field goal. The Leopards led 24-21.

Princeton took its first lead of the game on a 10-play, 67-yard drive. Rhattigan scored on a one-yard TD run with 4:48 left in the quarter.

The teams traded turnovers, with Mrazek having the ball knocked loose on a catch across the middle before Draeland James returned the favor with his second interception of the season. Princeton got the best of the turnover of the sequence when Markus Phox picked off a Reed offering as the QB faced intense pressure.

The Tigers capitalized, scoring on a 17-yard Rhattigan run after he bounced off two would-be tacklers. Princeton led 35-24 at the end of the third quarter. Rhattigan finished with 22 carries for 136 yards and three touchdowns.

Lafayette made it a one-possession game with 5:27 left. Reed found Mrazek for a 24-yard touchdown and Bissell's PAT cut the lead to 35-31.

Princeton salted away the game using eight straight runs, but it was a 10-yard pass from Kanoff to Lovett to pick up a final first down near midfield that ended the game.

Michael Root (12), Jerry Powe (11) and Bryant (10) all had double figures in the tackle department for the defense which registered three sacks.

GAME 4 LAFAYETTE 14 VILLANOVA (15/19) 31

EASTON, Pa. (9/24/16) - In the first meeting with Villanova in 96 years, the No. 15 Wildcats topped Lafayette, 31-14, at Fisher Stadium.

After the opening kickoff, Lafayette started with the ball on its own 25. On the first play of the drive, Villanova's Tanoh Kpassagnon jarred the ball loose from DeSean Brown after the handoff. Kpassagnon scooped it up and returned it 25 yards for a touchdown.

After forcing a three-and-out, the Wildcats regained possession and drove 88 yards to the Leopards' eight-yard line. The Lafayette defense stood its ground though and did not allow a single yard while forcing Villanova to send out the special teams unit.

Villanova opted for a fake and John Hinchin completed a five-yard pass to Simon Bingelis. Bingelis made a move towards the end zone with only one man to beat. Draeland James was that man and came up with a clutch tackle that prevented the score and forced a turnover on downs.

Lafayette was held to one first down the remainder of the quarter. Villanova got the ball back late in the first and added a 39-yard field goal by Gerard Smith to lead 10-0 one minute into the second quarter.

The Wildcats extended their lead to 17-0, running the ball on six straight plays. The final carry was a one-yard score by Javon White with eight minutes left to go in the half.

With less than four minutes remaining, Lafayette took over at the Villanova 22-yard line. The Leopards turned to senior quarterback Drew Reed and he drove the Maroon and White down the field. Reed connected on all five of his passes for 64 yards, including a 13-yard dish to Dylan Wadsworth. The junior tight end led the team with career-highs in receptions (6) and yardage (97) and a touchdown.

The Leopards capped the drive off with a 14-yard touchdown pass from Reed to freshman Yasir Thomas in the end zone for the score. Reed finished the game 19-of-27 for 229 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions.

Phillip Parham's interception in the end zone prevented another Villanova score just before the half. Lafayette trailed 17-7.

In the third quarter, Lafayette stayed committed to the run and Brown took off for 24 yards to help the Leopards get into scoring position. On 2nd-and-10, Reed scrambled to his right and found a cutting Tim Vangelas in the end zone for the score. Lafayette closed the gap to 17-14.

The teams exchanged punts, but Lafayette's effort was blocked, setting up Villanova at the Leopard 25-yard line with five minutes left in the third. Five straight running plays, the final a three-yard scamper by Aaron Forbes, gave Villanova a 24-14 lead. Forbes ended the night with 11 carries for 111 yards and a score. The Wildcats added another score on a 45-yard interception return to touchdown to run the final to 31-14.

Defensively, Brandon Bryant made 12 stops to go along with seven tackles by Jerry Powe (three of which were for loss).

LAFAYETTE

28
38

EASTON, Pa. (10/1/16) - Holy Cross scored 22 straight points in the fourth quarter to recover from a five-point Leopard advantage and hand Lafayette a 38-28 setback on Homecoming Weekend at Fisher Stadium. It was the Patriot League opener for both teams.

Senior quarterback Blake Searfoss played all but the first series after starting quarterback Drew Reed was knocked from the game by a vicious hit after a 10-yard run. Searfoss was ready to go, completing 32-of-45 for 280 yards and four touchdowns (all career-highs). He connected with junior Matt Mrazek for three of the touchdowns as Mrazek finished with 11 catches for 109 yards (both career highs). Mrazek's 11-catch performance was the first for a Leopard since Ross Scheuerman had 10 grabs on Nov. 8, 2014.

Holy Cross (2-3, 1-0) scored on its first three possessions of the game and led 13-0. The Crusaders, who were playing without starting QB Peter Pujals, saw backup Geoff Wade take the 7-0 lead on a 39-yard pass to Jake Wiczorek. Zane Wasp added field goals of 32 and 23 yards as Holy Cross led 13-0. A 37-yard Diquan Walker run opened up the first drive of the second quarter. Holy Cross moved the ball to the two, before settling for Wasp 23-yarder.

The Lafayette offense earned its first first-down of the game on Searfoss' eight-yard pass to Joey Chenoweth to start the second quarter. The play was followed by a 27-yard completion to Mrazek that put the Leopards in Crusaders' territory on the 48-yard line. Lafayette settled for a 38-yard Jacob Bissell field goal attempt that missed wide left.

Holy Cross returned the favor when Wasp missed a 43-yarder and gave the Leopards the ball back with 3:58 to play. Searfoss orchestrated a 77-yard drive, going 9-of-10 through the air and finishing it off with a touchdown throw to Mrazek from seven yards out to put Lafayette on the board at 13-7 heading into halftime.

Both teams opened the second half of play with unsuccessful offensive possessions before Lafayette took over on its own 25 with 11:26 to go in the third. A 24-yard rush from DeSean Brown put the Leopards within scoring range and Searfoss found Mrazek again, this time from 13 yards out to push Lafayette ahead 14-13.

The Crusaders answered. A 36-yard pass from Wade to Wiczorek set up a Wasp 41-yard field goal to switch the lead back to the visiting side, 16-14.

The scoring was not over in the third quarter. Searfoss used his arm, through a 17-yard completion to Tim Vangelas, and his feet on a 20-yard run, to set up Lafayette in the red zone, 1st-and-goal at the Holy Cross eight-yard line. After a pair of rushes netted five yards, Searfoss found his top option across the middle from three yards out as Mrazek reeled in his third TD of the game and gave the Leopards a 21-16 lead at the end of three.

The fourth quarter wasn't kind to the Maroon and White as Holy Cross tallied 22 unanswered points to break the game open at 38-21 with 7:34 to go. A pair of Wade touchdown passes made it 31-21 and a fumble recovery for a touchdown on strip sack of Searfoss was the final blow.

Lafayette added a late score with 5:54 left in the game, on a 16-yard pass from Searfoss to Wadsworth before the clock ran out on the 38-28 final.

Defensively, Lafayette played most of the game without All-Patriot League linebacker Brandon Bryant who was injured in the first half. His replacement, Rob Hinchin, made a team-high 11 tackles while defensive tackle Robin Cepeda made eight tackles, including 2.5 for loss.

FORDHAM

BRONX, N.Y. (10/8/16) - Fordham rushed for 516 yards en route to a 58-34 victory over Lafayette in Patriot League action at Coffey Field.

Fordham junior RB Chase Edmonds ended with 17 carries for 359 yards and four touchdowns to break his own school rushing record (348 yards). He scored on runs of 29, 19, 74 and 67 yards. With his second score of the game, he became the Patriot League's career leader for points scored. Fordham QB Kevin Anderson was also elusive, rushing for 108 yards and a touchdown while throwing for three more.

The Leopards' defense recorded the first score of the game on Fordham's first drive. Phillip Parham picked off Anderson and ran it back 35 yards for a touchdown, the second pick six of Parham's career. Lafayette led 7-0.

It took just two offensive plays on Fordham's next drive to even the score. A 23-yard strike from Anderson to Phazahn Odom set up a 29-yard touchdown run by Edmonds.

Anderson did the damage on Fordham's next scoring drive, rushing for 20, 14, 7 and finally 33 yards for a touchdown. He fumbled before picking the ball up and weaving his way through the Lafayette defense.

As the first quarter wore on, the Leopards inched closer converting a fourth down near midfield on an 11-yard pass from Searfoss to Kyle Mayfield. Jacob Bissell then booted a 35-yard field goal to make it 14-10.

Edmonds did the bulk of the work for Fordham on its next drive, racking up 71 yards before Anderson connected with Corey Caddle for an 11-yard score.

The Leopards' responded. Blake Searfoss, who started for the injured Drew Reed, hit Joey Chenoweth for a 65-yard catch and run, as Lafayette pulled within 20-17 with 1:13 left in the quarter. It was the Leopards' longest play from scrimmage this season.

The Rams extended the lead to 27-17 on Edmonds' 19-yard run just a minute into the second quarter.

On the ensuing drive, Searfoss found Matt Mrazek for 21 yards on 3rd-and-10. Mrazek finished the day with a game-high nine catches for 88 yards. Later on the drive on fourth down, Searfoss scrambled and hit Dylan Wadsworth for 22 yards to put Lafayette 1st-and-goal to the Fordham seven. Lafayette settled for a 35-yard Bissell field goal, but pulled within one score, 27-20.

Fordham put away the game with two scores before the end of the first half. Edmonds ripped off a 74-yard TD run with 1:52 left and a turnover allowed Anderson (12-18-1 for 181 yards, 3 TDs) to throw a 22-yard score 18 seconds later to give Fordham a 41-20 lead.

The Lafayette offense put together two long drives at the end of the third and fourth quarters. DeSean Brown capped a 13-play, 73-yard drive with a six-yard touchdown run. Searfoss (25-41-2 for 325 yards, 1 TD) ended a 14-play, 93-yard drive with a seven-yard option run to put the final at 58-34.

WEST POINT, N.Y. (10/15/16) - Army's triple-option offense was too much for the Leopards in Lafayette's first meeting with an FBS opponent since 1997. The Black Knights rushed for 537 yards in a 62-7 final at Michie Stadium.

Army scored on its first five possessions of the game, including two scores in the first quarter and three in the second quarter. On the Black Knights' fourth play from scrimmage, QB Ahmad Bradshaw broke off a 60-yard touchdown run down the home sideline for the 7-0 advantage.

When Army got the ball back after a Lafayette punt, Jordan Asberry ran it in from 20 yards out to cap an eight-play, 50-yard drive over four minutes.

Chris Carter (19-yard run) and Jeff Ejekam (7-yard pass from Bradshaw) added second-quarter scores for the hosts who led 28-0 with nine minutes left in the half. Three minutes later, Carter did it through the air, throwing for a 59-yard pass to Asberry for the 35-0 lead.

Drew Reed's five-yard run got the Leopards on the scoreboard just before the end of the first half. The offense advanced the ball with the pass. Reed hit Dylan Wadsworth for 26 yards and then two more completions to Nick Franzese for 13 and 29 yards, taking the Leopards to the Army five-yard line. Two plays later Reed ran the bootleg into the end zone for his first rushing touchdown of the season. Reed ended the day 21-of-36 for 205 yards with two interceptions.

The Leopards had another solid scoring chance late in the first half. Army had the ball 4th-and-44 at its own 30-yard line and went for the fake punt. The Lafayette defense (and perhaps karma) intervened when Dmitry Smith jarred the ball loose from Nick Schrage before Franzese returned it to the Army 11-yard line.

The Maroon and White offense took over and began with an eight-yard completion to Matt Mrazek that was wiped away by an offensive pass interference penalty. The scoring chance stalled when Reed was intercepted by Marcus Hyatt in the end zone for the 35-7 halftime score.

Mrazek finished the day with nine catches for 85 yards and leading the team on the season with 51 grabs for 539 yards and eight scores. The Illinois native has 121 career grabs and surpassed Jeremy Burkes '04 (120) for ninth spot on Lafayette's career receptions list.

The Army offense continued to roll in the second half, as it scored on four straight possessions to push the final to 62-7. Fifteen different Army players carried the ball led by Cole Macek who had 11 yards and a TD. Bradshaw added 109 rushing yards with a score.

Defensively, Rob Hinchey, who has taken over for injured All-Patriot League linebacker Brandon Bryant, recorded 13 tackles while T.J. Jones made seven from his safety spot.

17

LEWISBURG, Pa. (10/22/16) - Bucknell scored on three straight possessions in the fourth quarter to close out the Leopards, 42-17 at Christy-Mathewson Memorial Stadium.

Despite trailing from the outset, Lafayette pulled within four points, 21-17, six minutes into the third quarter. With Bucknell leading 21-3, Lafayette scored twice in a minute in a half. On the Leopards' first play from scrimmage in the second half, Drew Reed hit a wide-open Joey Chenoweth for a 65-yard touchdown, tying Lafayette's longest play from scrimmage this season.

The Leopards' defense took its turn after the score. Freshman CB Eric Mitchell intercepted an R.J. Nitti (8-18-1 for 90 yards) offering, allowing the offense to score two plays later. Mike Dunn's 18-yard touchdown run cut the Leopard deficit to 21-17. Dunn finished with 10 carries for 58 yards.

The Bison rushing game answered with scores on its next three possessions. A Nitti to Butler pass for 24 yards set up a one-yard touchdown plunge for Chad Freshnock to give the Bison a 28-17 lead.

Bucknell intercepted Reed (12-21-1 for 167) and the Bison took over at the Lafayette 24-yard line. Joey DeFloria ran for 20 yards and then scored again from four yards out to lead 35-17 with 11 minutes left in the game. DeFloria finished the day with 27 carries for 130 yards.

Frank Tavan brought Blake Searfoss off the bench after Reed's interception and the senior handled Lafayette's final two possessions, each stopping near Bucknell's 40-yard line.

Buoyed by a converted fake punt and Leopard substitution penalty, Bucknell added a final score with 4:14 left in the game. Freshnock ran five straight times, the final a two-yard dive for score.

The Leopards opened the scoring in the game, moving the ball through the air on their second drive. Reed started with back-to-back passes to Matt Mrazek for nine and 13 yards, with the 13-yard grab picking up a 3rd-and-10. A 20-yard completion to Nick Franzese and an 18-yarder to Yasir Thomas moved Lafayette to the Bucknell 10. The drive ended with a 25-yard field goal by Jacob Bissell.

After a Leopard punt into a stiff, swirling wind, Bucknell took over at the Leopard 43. Nitti hit Will Carter for a 25-yard pass which set up a 17-yard run by Carter on the reverse and gave Bucknell a 7-3 lead with 1:32 left in the quarter.

Midway through the second quarter, Bucknell converted a pair of fourth downs. The first was a three-yard run by Nitti on 4th-and-3 at the Lafayette 33 and another on 4th-and-8 at the Lafayette 26 on a roughing penalty. Bucknell eventually scored on a nine-yard toss from Nitti to Andrew Podbielski.

Bucknell opened the second half by pounding the ball into the Lafayette defense. DeFloria rushed the ball eight times for 33 yards to take the Bison to the Lafayette 18. Bucknell reused its scoring play from the first half with the misdirection to Carter who scored again, this time a 10-yard TD for the 21-3 advantage.

Lafayette's two quick scores by Chenoweth and Dunn pushed the Leopards back into the game before Bucknell responded with its three fourth quarter rushing scores.

Junior LB Michael Root was Lafayette's leading tackler with 15 tackles and a sack as Lafayette gave up 349 yards of total offense.

17

EASTON, Pa. (10/29/16) - Lafayette scored 14 third-quarter points to break a 3-3 tie and run to a 17-3 Patriot League win over Georgetown at Fisher Stadium.

Two sophomores, strike linebacker Jerry Powe and tailback Tyler West, were key performers for the Leopards. Powe led the defensive effort with 12 tackles (including two sacks) on a day when the Lafayette held Georgetown to 173 total yards and 40 rushing yards. West made the most of his opportunities, carrying 15 times for a career-high 117 yards and a touchdown. His 40-yard TD run late in the third quarter put away the game for Lafayette's first conference win of the season.

Both teams opened the game strong defensively as neither team entered opposing territory until their second possessions. Just as the defenses had locked in, Drew Reed (18-of-28 for 245) and Joey Chenoweth connected for a 37-yard pass play down the home sideline that, coupled with a late hit and targeting disqualification on Hunter Kiselick, set up the Leopards up in the red zone at the Georgetown 15. Lafayette settled for a field goal, that Bissel knocked through from 28 yards out to put the Leopards in front, 3-0.

The defense continued to hang tough and Lafayette took the ball back to open the second quarter on its own 20. After falling into a 2nd-and-26 hole, Reed found Tim Vangelas and C.J. Amill on the next two plays to move into Georgetown territory. The Hoya defense wouldn't break and a blocked punt put the Hoyas in position to light their side of the scoreboard, taking over at the Lafayette 45-yard line.

Again, Lafayette's defense stood up, keeping the Hoyas out of the end zone and forcing a 26-yard field goal from Henry Darmstadter to knot the game at three with 6:56 left in the half.

After taking possession at their own 25, the Leopards moved the ball offensively late in the half, using a pair of long sideline pass plays of 11 and 18 yards to Matt Mrazek to move over midfield with just over four minutes remaining. The drive stalled and a turnover on downs gave the ball back to the Hoyas at midfield.

A sack from linebacker Rob Hinchin (12 tackles) on a delayed blitz off the left side of the line put a stop to the final Hoya drive of the half. Georgetown punted it back to Lafayette with less than a minute left and the two teams went into the break tied at 3-3.

A 20-yard pass from Reed to Dylan Wadsworth opened the second half, but the drive broke down, forcing a Ryan Forrester punt. The senior punter booted a 51-yarder and a stifling tackling from Yasir Thomas pinned the Hoyas at their 11. Thomas made the first defensive start of his brief career, starting at strong safety after moving from wide receiver.

The visitors gained just 11 yards before kicking it back to Lafayette, who used a 14-yard pass to Vangelas to get the drive going with a first down near midfield. Another sideline look for Mrazek moved the ball into Georgetown territory and a deep pass toward the left pylon on 3rd-and-6 resulted in a leaping, juggling catch from Nick Franzese for 34 yards to place Lafayette 1st-and-goal at the one.

Then, it was all Reed, who took a quarterback keeper to his right, and reversed course to the left where he beat the corner to the goal line for the first touchdown of the game and a 10-3 lead with 5:28 left in the third.

Lafayette continued that momentum on the defensive end as Eric Mitchell's pass breakup fell right into the hands of Draeland James to give the Leopards the ball right back on the Georgetown 23. Freshman, Mike Dunn, who started the game at tailback, carried for six before West finished off the final 17, rumbling through the middle of the Hoya defense to make it a two-touchdown game at 17-3.

Lafayette put together another drive, moving the ball through the visiting half early in the final period. A 40-yard touchdown grab from Reed to Rocco Palumbo was called back for holding, stunting the drive at the 40 and forcing a Lafayette punt.

The Leopard defense never wavered and the Hoyas couldn't stay on the field on third downs, going 3-for-15 on the afternoon. Lafayette took over with less than two minutes remaining and a 40-yard run from West iced the second win of the season for the Maroon and White.

It was the longest run from scrimmage for the Leopards this season. West's 100-yard rushing afternoon was the first since Nov. 21, 2015 when DeSean Brown had 146 at Lehigh.

HAMILTON, N.Y. (11/12/16) - Colgate used a potent mix of the run and pass to rack up 437 yards of offense in a 38-17 win over Lafayette. The Leopards pulled within a touchdown with 11 minutes left in the third quarter, but Colgate added two late scores.

The hosts took the early lead, scoring on their first drive of the game after covering 65 yards on seven plays before John Wilkins punched it in from a yard out.

Colgate (4-5, 3-2) added another score just before the end of the first quarter. The drive started with a 48-yard strike from Jake Melville to Owen Rockett. Rob Hinchin's 14-yard sack slowed the Raiders who eventually picked up the first down. More pressure by Lafayette, this time a sack by Michael Root, forced a 39-yard field goal by Jonah Bowman that gave Colgate a 10-0 lead.

It looked as if Colgate was going to run away and hide as the Raiders stretched their lead to 17-0 when Melville and Rockett hooked up again, this time for 19 yards. Colgate led 17-0 lead with 7:03 left in the half.

Lafayette had a solid scoring opportunity on the ensuing possession. A 19-yard DeSean Brown run and pass interference penalty put Lafayette 1st-and-10 at the 28. Three Brown rushes later, Lafayette was 4th-and-1 at the Colgate 19. Drew Reed's pass to Vangelas was just out of bounds and Colgate took over on downs.

Colgate didn't waste any effort on its next drive, using four plays to score. Melville picked up the bulk of those yards with carries of 26 and 37 yards. Then, he found Nick Martinsen for a 12-yard touchdown and a 24-0 advantage.

Lafayette got on the scoreboard just before the close of the half. Reed connected with Rocco Palumbo for a 32-yard TD. Palumbo finished with seven catches for a career-high 104 yards. Bissell added the PAT to put the halftime margin at 24-7.

The Lafayette defense made an early stand in the second half, when Hinchin recorded a safety as one of his game-high eight tackles. It was the first safety a Lafayette player registered since 2010 (Mike Schmidlein at Bucknell).

The offense seized the momentum, taking over near midfield after the free kick. Brown had a 25-yard run on the drive and eventually scored on a two-yard carry. He finished the day with 15 carries for 91 yards. A Reed (24-of-41 for 202 yards) to Joey Chenoweth pass gave the Leopards the two-point conversion to cut the margin to 24-17 with 11 minutes left in the half.

The teams traded punts and then Colgate put away the game. The Raiders took over at the Lafayette 34-yard line. Melville handled most of the drive, picking up two first downs on his own with a pair of 10-yard runs before eluding several would-be tacklers on a 24-yard touchdown scamper. Melville ended the day with 17 carries for 141 rushing yards while completing 15-of-23 for 202 passing yards.

Colgate took advantage of Lafayette's punt from its own end zone and a penalty on the return. On the first play from scrimmage, Colgate scored on an 11-yard run by Wilkins that put the final at 38-17.

EASTON, Pa. (11/19/16) - Lafayette senior quarterback Drew Reed and Blake Searfoss combined to complete 36 of 54 passes for 398 yards with Reed throwing for two touchdowns for Lafayette in a 45-21 loss to Lehigh.

It was the 152nd meeting of college football's most-played rivalry and the first played in Fisher Stadium since 2012. Lafayette continues to lead the all-time series, which began in 1884, 78-69-5. Lehigh (9-2, 6-0) signal caller senior Nick Shafnisky threw for three touchdowns and ran for another, ending the day 19-of-29 for 268 yards on his way to game MVP honors.

The Lafayette offense appeared to be moving in the right direction to start the game. A 28-yard pass from Reed to Rocco Palumbo and a 15-yarder to Matt Mrazek put the Leopards deep inside Lehigh territory. DeSean Brown's seven-yard run set up the Leopards in the red zone, but his fumble on the next play gave Lehigh the ball at its own 21.

Lehigh converted a pair of third downs, despite two sacks from junior Beau Bosch. The defense held strong, forcing a turnover on downs and handing the Lafayette offense the ball at the 22. Reed was picked off on the resulting drive and Lehigh took advantage. The Mountain Hawks used five plays to get on the board, scoring on a 16-yard pass from Shafnisky to Troy Pelletier.

Lehigh stretched the lead to 14-0 just into the second quarter as Shafnisky hit Gatlin Casey for a 15-yard strike to end a six-play drive in 1:24. The Leopard offense went three and out as Lehigh took over on its own 40 and marched down the field once again, settling for an Ed Mish field goal to stretch the edge to 17-0 with 10:46 remaining in the first half.

Lafayette put together a drive midway through the second quarter with the big play coming at 9:30. Reed dropped back and fired a strike over the middle for Dylan Wadsworth, who rumbled 56 yards down the left sideline and into the end zone. Ryan Forrester finished it off with the PAT and brought the Maroon and White within 10 at 17-7.

A 54-yard kickoff return by Casey put Lehigh in prime field position and forced Lafayette's defense to defend a short field. The Mountain Hawks worked it down to the goal line and Shafnisky scrambled through two Lafayette defenders for a four-yard touchdown run with 6:36 left in the opening half, putting lead at 24-17.

Lehigh added another touchdown on a three-yard run by Dom Bragalone with a minute left in the half. Lafayette had a final scoring chance in the opening half, but Reed was sacked on the final play on 3rd-and-goal at the two-yard line to move the game into the locker room with the Leopards in a 31-7 hole. The Mountain Hawks opened the second half with an eight-play, 67-yard drive. Pelletier finished it off with a four-yard reception from Shafnisky to make it 38-7.

Lafayette responded late in the third quarter as Reed and C.J. Amill connected from 17 yards out for the Leopards' second touchdown of the game. The play finished off a nine-play drive that went 65 yards in 3:14.

The Leopard defense made a play to start the fourth quarter as Yasir Thomas picked off Brad Mayes at midfield. Then, a 29-yard Searfoss pass to Wadsworth put Lafayette in scoring position and Brown ran it in from a yard out. The Leopards pulled out a trick play for the two-point conversion as Searfoss took a lateral from Reed, then threw it back across the field to his position mate, who made a circus catch to put the final score at 45-21.

Mrazek and Wadsworth finished with solid receiving days. Mrazek's seven catches put him at 141 for his career and rank him seventh all-time. He passed Frank Corbo '85 (136) and Joe McCourt '05 (139). Wadsworth tied his best single-game output with 97 yards on four catches with career-long 56-yard catch. With 268 passing yards, Reed eclipsed the 7000-yard plateau, finishing his career with 7,007 and a 64 percent completion percentage, second all-time at Lafayette.

Defensively, Robin Cepeda returned to the fold for the Leopards after missing four games due to an elbow injury. Cepeda registered three sacks, the first time since Oct. 5, 2013 (Tyus White vs. Bucknell) that a Lafayette player had three or more in a game.

Tradition of Excellence

MILESTONE FOOTBALL WINS

Since fielding its first college football team in the fall of 1882, Lafayette has had a proud, colorful gridiron tradition on the way to a total of 672 victories. Football followers on College Hill have been able to lay claim to two outright national championships and a share of still another. In 1896, Lafayette and Princeton both claimed a piece of the national championship following a scoreless tie. The Leopards finished the season 11-0-1 while the Tigers were 10-0-1. Undefeated 9-0 records in 1921 and 1926 gave Lafayette followers reason to believe they were number one in the country both seasons.

Victory #	Year	Opponent (Score)
1	1883	Rutgers (25-0)
58	1896	Princeton (0-0) (tied for national championship)
100	1900	Dickinson (10-6)
200	1915	Pennsylvania (17-0)
231	1921	Lehigh (28-6) (clinched national championship)
261	1926	Pittsburgh (17-7) (clinched national championship)
300	1934	Muhlenberg (19-0)
315	1938	Penn State (7-0) (last meeting)
326	1940	Army (19-0) (lone win in series to date)
348	1944	Lehigh (64-0) (biggest win in series to date)
400	1959	Temple (52-20)
500	1982	Kutztown State (36-3)
600	2003	Marist (49-0)
612	2004	Lehigh (24-10) (clinched first-ever postseason berth)

669	2014	Lehigh (27-7) (150th Meeting played in Yankee Stadium)

GAMES PLAYED LEADERS

Lafayette and Lehigh own the distinction of being college football's most-played and longest consecutive rivalry. The two teams squared off for the 150th time at the end of the 2014 regular season. That game was played at Yankee Stadium on Nov. 22, 2014, just the second neutral site meeting in series history.

LAFAYETTE RANKS 44TH IN ALL-TIME WINS

Lafayette College fielded its first football team in 1882 and won its first game in the fourth contest of the following season, beating Rutgers, 25-0. Since that win, the Leopards have joined the elite group of institutions with 660 or more football victories. Lafayette played its 1,000th football game on Sept. 16, 1989, and was the first founding Patriot League school to eclipse the 500-victory plateau.

McGaughey Memorial Award

The George L. McGaughey Memorial Award is presented each year to the outstanding players on both teams in the Bucknell-Lafayette football game. The selections are made by the coaching staffs at each school, and the first awards were presented for the 1983 game won by Lafayette, 33-3.

McGaughey, who was an outstanding football player at Bucknell University and later a coach at Lafayette College, is honored each year through an award established by gifts from his friends at both schools.

The initial winners were both senior co-captains, Lafayette QB Frank Novak and Bucknell C Shane Snyder.

A 1935 Bucknell graduate and one of the finest centers in the school's history, McGaughey was a standout on the Bison team that defeated Miami (Fla.), 26-0, in the inaugural Orange Bowl game on January 1, 1935. McGaughey, who died in June of 1983, was a teacher, intramural director, and assistant football coach at Lafayette for 32 years. He was inducted into Bucknell's Athletic Hall of Fame in November 1982 and entered Lafayette's Hall of Fame the following January.

David Nelson '06

David Nelson '06 Award of Valor

Established on Feb. 25, 2006, the David Nelson '06 Award of Valor is presented to the member of the football team who displays an exceptional amount of heart and courage. A co-captain of the 2005 Patriot League title team, Nelson overcame a near-fatal stabbing in Boston before his senior season to start all 12 games at fullback. He finished fourth on the team with 19 receptions for 212 yards and caught touchdown passes against Harvard and Holy Cross. Nelson was honored with the 2006 ECAC Award of Valor, along with high school teammate Brian Benvie of Stonehill College.

Did You Know?

Lafayette played Lehigh twice annually from 1884-1901, with the exception of 1896, the only disruption in the series. The two teams played three times in 1891.

Lafayette and Lehigh also met twice in 1943 and 1944 during World War II, with the College Hill men winning all four games by a combined score of 205-7.

The first game between Lafayette and Lehigh.

Lafayette vs. Lehigh

COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S MOST-PLAYED RIVALRY

"The Lehigh-Lafayette game is an integral part of a college education. The game provides thrills and excitement and instills an attitude that is essential to succeed in all walks of life. Traditions, pregame hype and celebrations are all as important as the game itself.

No other football rivalry is quite like Lehigh-Lafayette. The traditions are pure and the festivities are genuine. Sportswriters are afraid to predict the winner, oddsmakers shy from a point spread and coaches don't have to worry about getting their players up for the game.

Previous records, scores and games against common opponents are meaningless. It's one game—all or nothing."
