Scouting the Bison

SCOUTING BUCKNELL

Selected as the conference's preseason favorite, the Bison are coming off a win at Army on Wednesday and sit with a 2-1 record in the Patriot League.

Bucknell features a top-10 leading scorer in the conference in Kaitlyn Slagus who averages 12.3 ppg and 7.6 rpg.

The Bison are the league's highest scoring team, averaging 70.6 ppg and shoot it a league-best 44 percent from the field.

Four of Bucknell's five starters score in double-figures per game and the fifth is in the top-10 in the conference in assists per game.

In his seventh season, Bucknell is led by head coach Aaron Roussell.

ALL-TIME SERIES

The matchup dates back to the 1976-77 season with the Bucknell holding a 43-38 advantage overall.

LAST MEETING

Bucknell took care of business on the road last season to complete the season sweep.

Both Natalie Kucowski and Alexis Santarelli scored in double-figures, but the Leopards could not find much production elsewhere.

Kate Walker led the way for Bucknell with 21 points while Kyi English added 12. The Bison shot it over 50 percent from the field.

The Leopards were able to hold Slagus to just six points on 2-of-7 shooting.

Head coach Kia Damon-Olson and Lafayette women's basketball student-athletes will hold weekly media availability throughout the 2018-19 season. These sessions will be held the Monday of each game week, fifteen minutes prior to the start of practice. Additionally, the first 15 minutes of that practice will be open to members of the media.

Leopard Notes

A LONG-DISTANCE BATTLE

Against Holy Cross, sophomore Olivia Martino hit a career-high five 3-pointers, scoring 17 points. She joined Brya Freeland '15 on the all-time 3-pointers list in 16th place. Next in the ranks is April Shippee '99 who hit 55 in her career.

Against Colgate, classmate Drew Freeland knocked down a 3-pointer to break the tie with teammate Sarah Agnello. Freeland is now close behind with 48 3-balls in her career, while Agnello has 47 in 19th.

EFFICIENCY TOO

Along with climbing the 3-point field goals chart, Freeland and Martino would rank No. 1 and 2, respectively, on the all-time 3-point field goal percentage list. Freeland is shooting 38 percent from beyond the arc in her career and Martino is a 37 percent career shooter from deep.

The current No. 1 is Anna Ptasinski '18 who shot 39 percent a season ago. In her career, she shot 36 percent and hit 159, ranking third in program history.

STARTERS SCORING

For the first time in just over 10 years, Lafayette featured all five of its starters in double-figures against Holy Cross. Along with Martino's career game from beyond the arc, sophomore Natalie Kucowski tallied a double-double, Freeland scored 13, freshman Nicole Johnson had a career-high 11 points, going 8-of-10 from the line, and classmate Makaila Wilson had a double-double with 10 points and 12 boards.

50 REBOUND GAMES

Lafayette has pulled in 50-plus rebounds four times this season after doing so zero times in 2017-18. The last time a Lafayette team has had multi 50-plus rebounding games was in the 2013-14 season when it occurred seven times. Before this season, the last time the Leopards had a 50-plus rebound game was the opener of the 2016-17 season at La Salle.

WINNING THE TIP

Sophomore Natalie Kucowski has done the honors in the circle each game this season and has won 11-of-14 tip-offs on the season.

FREE AND EASY

The Leopards have shot 20-plus free throws six times already in 2018-19 compared to just one game last season. Against Delaware, Lafayette shot 29 free throws, making 22 in the game. It was the most free throws a Lafayette team attempted and made since Feb. 8, 2017 when the Leopards were 23-of-32 from the line in a win over Holy Cross.

Against the Crusaders this season, the Leopards took 24 free throws in the fourth quarter alone, going 18-of-25 in the game.

GETTING OVER THE HUMP

The Leopards hold a 5-1 record when scoring at least 60 points this season compared to their 1-7 mark when scoring under 60 points. Lafayette is also 2-0 when scoring over 70 points, doing so once in regulation and once in overtime this season.

CLASSROOM SUCCESS

The 2017-18 Leopards ranked No. 14 among Division I women's basketball programs for team GPA. Lafayette compiled a team GPA of 3.538 last season and were 1-of-2 Patriot League institutions to rank inside the top-25.

WANTED FOR STEALING

Kucowski had a career-high seven steals against Holy Cross as part of the Leopards' season-high 15 steals against the Crusaders. It was the most thefts by a Lafayette player since Jamie O'Hare had nine against Bucknell in the 2015-16 season.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

Lafayette did not start an "upperclassman" until the Albany game, as the Leopards featured three sophomores and a pair of freshmen in the starting lineup in eight of the nine games this season. However, the Maroon and White have turned to senior Alex Cantwell and junior Tasha Vipond to be the first and second players off the bench this season. Martino is leading the team at 29.8 minutes per contest.

FREE THROW SUCCESS

The Leopards shot it over 80 percent from the free throw line for just the second time this season against Lehigh. In the game, Lafayette was 9-of-11 from the stripe and 7-for-7 in the second half.

The other game was at Manhattan when Lafayette was 19-of-23 (83 percent), its season high on the year. Surprisingly, the Maroon and White is 0-2 on the year when shooting above 80 percent at the line.

BLOCK PARTY

Sophomore Natalie Kucowski leads the Patriot League in total blocked shots (31) and blocked shots per game (2.2) by nearly 10 and 1.0 respectively.

Over the course of the last five games, Kucowski has had at least three rejections in four of those and 13 blocks over the span. She has helped the Leopards take the second spot in the Patriot League rankings in blocked shots per game behind Bucknell.

OVERTIME TRIUMPHS

This is the first time since the 2008-09 campaign that Lafayette has won multiple overtime contests in the same season. The Leopards won their first overtime game since the 2012-13 season, outlasting Albany in double overtime on Dec. 1. They followed that up with another comeback win against Monmouth in extra time.

THE COMEBACK KIDS

Lafayette has overcome 13-point fourth quarter deficits twice this season, forcing overtime in both and eventually earning victories in each. The Maroon and White has also erased a nine-point deficit in the final 1:09 against Saint Peter's, but ultimately fell on a last second bucket. A similar situation occurred against Cornell, as the Leopards overcame a 15-point deficit to take their first lead with 53 seconds left, but lost the contest.

Leopard Notes

THE DAMON-OLSON EFFECT

The Maroon and White saw drastic improvements in head coach Kia Damon-Olson's first season at the helm. The Leopards topped the Patriot League in 3-point field goal percentage (34.7%), ranked third in rebounding margin (plus-0.5), fourth in rebounds per game (36.4) and free throw percentage (70.8%), and fifth in scoring defense (60.7).

HEATING UP

Freshman Makaila Wilson recorded the second double-double of her Lafayette career and second in three games against Holy Cross. In the stretch against LIU, Lehigh and Holy Cross, she is averaged 11.0 ppg and 10.0 rpg.

MAROON AND WHITE DEBUTS

In the season opener, five Leopards made their Lafayette debuts in freshmen Nicole Johnson, Makaila Wilson, Jiselle Havas, and Naomi Ganpo, along with junior Sydney Sabino. All four of the freshmen recorded their first collegiate points in the win. Freshman Becca Margolis made her collegiate debut in the Delaware game, grabbing a rebound in two minutes of action.

MEET THE ROOKIES

Each of last year's three freshmen were key contributors and the five newcomers this season will have big roles to fill, as well.

Naomi Ganpo comes to College Hill by way of Ontario, Canada and is a big time presence in the paint. Standing at 6-3, Ganpo will play a true forward position and play a factor in the rebounding and defensive game while continuing to develop her offensive package.

Jiselle Havas is the southern-most resident on the team hailing from Windermere, Florida, winning two state championships in high school. Havas comes in with the ability to shoot from distance which plays right into the strategy of the team.

Nicole Johnson was a four-year starter at East Brunswick High School in New Jersey. She is a true point guard and brings speed to both sides of the ball.

Becca Margolis was a three-time all-league performer in high school on the hardwood while starting all four years on the basketball and soccer teams.

Makaila Wilson was a state champion at Penfield High School in Fairport, New York and brings size at 6-foot. Wilson has the ability to play multiple positions and started all four years on the basketball court and soccer field in high school.

NO CAPTAINS... LEADERS
