Head Coach Kyle Perry

Limestone University and Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics Mike Cerino announced on May 9, 2019 that former USC Upstate head coach and longtime assistant Kyle Perry would take the reins of the men's basketball program in 2019-20 as it began its transition into the South Atlantic Conference.

Perry, a protégé of legendary coach Bobby Cremins, spent nine seasons with the Spartans, including one year as the head coach. Perry is the eighth head men's basketball coach in program history.

He played for Coach Cremins at Georgia Tech, and later worked on his staff during Cremins' tenure at the College of Charleston. Considered by many a rising star in the coaching ranks, Perry has also learned his craft under the mentorship of other legendary coaches such as Eddie Payne at USC Upstate, Tim Carter at South Carolina State, and Dale Clayton at Carson-Newman.

Perry began his tenure in the midst of a world-wide pandemic which would slow the development of his program. Now that the seasons and playing conditions are back to normal, Perry looks to put his stamp on the program.

ASSISTANT COACHES

WESLEY PITTMAN

Wesley Pittman begins his fthird year with the Limestone men's basketball program in 2019-20.

DENNIS DIAZ

Diaz enters his first year as the assistant coach for men's basketball.
