

NO. 19 MARQUETTE HOSTS NO. 25 ILLINOIS AND ILLINOIS STATE

The Golden Eagles are off to their best start since 2012

The No. 19 Marquette University women's volleyball team hosts No. 25 Illinois and Illinois State this weekend for non-conference matches at the Al McGuire Center.

The Golden Eagles face the Illini at 6 p.m. on Saturday before a 1 p.m. Sunday contest against the Redbirds.

Both matches air live on FloSports with Bob Brainerd on the call. Michelle Griffin-Wenzel joins Brainerd as an analyst for Saturday's match.

Illinois and Illinois State also square off in a neutral site match at 10 a.m. on Saturday at the Al. Admission to the neutral site match is free and the contest is streamed live on the Marquette Athletics YouTube channel.

Live statistics for all three matches are available through GoMarquette.com.

No. 19 MARQUETTE (7-1): The Golden Eagles have won five-straight matches after a Sept. 2 loss at then-No. 6 Wisconsin, including their first four home matches of the year.

MU has picked up consecutive sweeps over in-state foes Milwaukee and Green Bay, and Saturday marks the fifth game in its season-long 10-match homestand.

Outside hitter Aubrey Hamilton leads the Golden Eagles with 94 kills (3.13 per set) on the year, while setter Yadhira Anchante has helped MU hit a BIG EAST-best .269. Marquette is also second in assists in the league and second in service aces, despite not posting a single ace in the five-set win over then-No. 11 Kentucky to open the year.

Individually, MU has a trio of players ranked third in the BIG EAST in three major statistical categories. Ella Foti currently sits third among qualified players in hitting percentage (.367), Anchante in assists per frame (10.03) and Carsen Murray in blocks per set (1.10).

Murray was named to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll on Monday afternoon.

No. 25 ILLINOIS (5-3): The Illini have won four-straight matches after a four-set loss to then-No. 14 Washington in Colorado on Sept. 4. U of I has claimed sweeps in each of its last three contests, including a match against Villanova on Sept. 10 and a contest at Eastern Illinois on Wednesday evening.

Junior outside hitter Raina Terry leads Illinois with 95 kills (3.52 per set), while senior Jessica Nunge has 84 (3.11 per set) on .256 hitting. Middle Rynee Hinton paces the Illini in both hitting percentage (.477) and blocks (1.58 per set). Illinois head coach Chris Tamas is in his sixth season in Champaign and has led the Illini to four NCAA tournament appearances and a Final Four appearance in 2018.

SERIES WITH ILLINOIS: Marquette is 0-6 all-time against the Illini and dropped the most recent meeting to then-No. 14 Illinois in five sets on Sept. 14, 2019 at Illinois State. MU and U of I have met twice in the NCAA tournament in Champaign in both 2013 and 2018. The Golden Eagles' last win over a Big Ten squad came at then-No. 4 Wisconsin on Sept. 5, 2019.

ILLINOIS STATE (6-3): ISU was swept by Memphis in its last match on Saturday and lost its lone lone power conference matchup this season to Florida State in four sets. The Redbirds swept the Redbird Classic defeating Oral Roberts, Green Bay and SEMO at Redbird Arena on Sept. 2-3.

ISU went 19-14 record last fall, sweeping both the MVC regular season and conference tournament championships. The Redbirds eventually fell to Purdue in the NCAA first round.

Illinois State is led by 2021 MVC Tournament MVP Kaitlyn Prondzinski with 113 kills (3.23 K/S) and an impressive .313 hitting percentage.

Ninth Year • Madison, Wisconsin • Milwaukee (2000)

Marquette head coach Ryan Theis will begin his ninth season at the helm of the Golden Eagles in 2022. Theis was named the fifth head women's volleyball coach in Marquette University history on Feb. 14, 2014.

Heading into the 2022 campaign, Theis (pronounced TICE) is in the top 15 among active NCAA Division I head coaches with a .736 winning percentage (327-117 career record) and a 180-63 record at Marquette. In his 14 years as a head coach he has never had fewer than 21 wins in a full season with a career-best 28 victories with the Golden Eagles in both 2018 and 2019.

Theis holds the highest winning percentage among head coaches in MU history (.741) and has guided Marquette to NCAA appearances in all seven of his full seasons in Milwaukee. He also has more wins in NCAA D-I action than any other MU women's volleyball coach. Over the past six seasons, the Golden Eagles are 19th in all of NCAA Division I with 137 victories.

Marquette made its 10th NCAA tournament appearance in 2021 while earning a share of its first BIG EAST Conference regular season title since 2013. The Golden Eagles went 26-6 overall and 16-2 in league play, while winning early season tournaments at Hawaii, Illinois State and their own Marquette Invitational.

Theis guided Marquette to a 28-6 record in 2019, including a mark of 16-2 in BIG EAST Conference action and a high ranking of No. 7 in the AVCA Coaches Poll during September. The Golden Eagles advanced to the NCAA Second Round by sweeping Dayton in West Lafayette, Indiana before falling to Purdue, 3-1. MU was led by BIG EAST Player of the Year Allie Barber, who became the all-time kills leader in program history and was the first player ever at MU to earn AVCA All-America recognition three times. Barber capped her record-setting career by earning CoSIDA Academic All-America of the Year honors as well as being named a Senior CLASS Award First Team All-American.

Marquette began the 2019 campaign with wins at No. 9 BYU, 3-1, on Aug. 31 and a five-set victory at No. 4 Wisconsin on Sept. 5. The victory over the Badgers, which came in a nationally televised appearance on FS1, was the first for Marquette and came in the 21st meeting in series history.

The 2018 season was a banner year for Theis and Marquette as the Golden Eagles earned an eighth consecutive NCAA tournament berth and were seeded nationally (No. 14) for the first time in program history. A pair of sweeps in the first and second rounds over High Point and Cincinnati, respectively, sent Marquette to its first-ever Sweet 16 appearance and a program-best final ranking at No 15.

Theis, a 2000 University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee graduate, returned to Milwaukee after a six-year tenure at Ohio University, where he led the squad to a record of 144-54 (.727). That mark placed him third in the history of the Mid-American Conference.

Under his leadership, the Bobcats made four NCAA Championship appearances, including a pair of trips to the second round (2009 and 2010), and claimed four MAC tournament championships. Both NCAA second round defeats came at the hands of seeded-hosts in pivotal fifth sets.

A two-time MAC Coach of the Year (2009 and 2013), Theis mentored three AVCA All-Americans during his tenure in Athens and helped 13 players earn all-conference accolades, including three conference player of the year selections.

Theis, a native of Madison, Wis., left Ohio tied with Ohio State head coach Geoff Carlston, whom he replaced in 2008, for the most victories in Bobcats' history with 144. He compiled a 79-17 (.823) record in league action at Ohio while winning three regular season league titles (six East Division championships) and was a combined 28-4 over his final two conference campaigns.

Prior to his arrival in Athens, Theis accumulated eight years of NCAA Division I coaching experience at various stops (Florida, Northwestern, Indiana and Eastern Illinois). In addition to his coaching duties, he spent six of those years in the role of recruiting coordinator at three different institutions.

Theis began his collegiate playing career at Milwaukee in 1996, but the program was discontinued after the season. He then served as head coach while playing for the UW-Milwaukee club team from 1997-00, and was a two-time All-Midwest 10 selection as a setter and a three-time team captain. In 1999-00, he also worked as a student assistant for the women's scholarship team while earning his bachelor's degree in kinesiology.

Theis and his wife, Jenny, have three sons, Carter, Caleb and Colby.
