NOTES

Marquette and St. Thomas have met just once previously, with the Golden Eagles holding a 1-0 advantage in the all-time series. The lone meeting came on Sept. 13, 1985, when Marquette earned a 3-0 victory over the Tommies at a neutral site. Friday's matchup will mark the first meeting between the programs in 41 years.

Marquette owns a 38-46-1 all-time record against Milwaukee in a series that dates back to 1975. The Golden Eagles have dominated the recent series, winning 15 consecutive regular-season meetings dating back to 2008. MU last defeated the Panthers, 3-0, on Sept. 14, 2025. Marquette has won 13 of its last 14 regular-season meetings with Milwaukee dating back to 2004, with its only loss during that stretch coming in a 3-1 setback on Oct. 10, 2006. The Golden Eagles are 21-17 against Milwaukee at home and 11-12-1 on the road.

SCOUTING THE TOMMIES/PANTHERS

St. Thomas enters Saturday with a 2-6 record, highlighted by victories over Montana State and Miami. The Tommies average 12.41 kills and 2.04 service aces per set, with Anya Schmidt leading the attack at 3.19 kills per set and 83 total kills. Morgan Kealy directs the offense with 250 assists (9.26/set), while Taylor McNear leads the back row with 85 digs (3.15/set). At the net, Addie Schmotzer has a team-high 28 blocks and adds 52 kills on .232 hitting.

Milwaukee enters the weekend at 5-3 and riding a five-match winning streak after opening the season with three consecutive losses. The Panthers average 12.26 kills and 2.16 blocks per set while hitting .203 as a team. Annie Eschenbach leads Milwaukee with 88 kills (2.84/set), while Josie Noble has 76 kills on .285 hitting and 32 total blocks. Kati Goba anchors the defense with 134 digs (4.32/set), and Milica Tomic leads the Panthers with 157 assists.

TYLER TAKES CHARGE

Junior outside hitter Carson Tyler has reached double figures in kills in all eight matches this season and leads Marquette with 117 kills (3.77/set), 136 points (4.39/set) and 12 service aces. Tyler has recorded at least 12 kills in every match, including 18 against Texas, 17 at Illinois and 16 at Wisconsin. She also ranks second on the team with 76 digs and has handled a team-high 161 serve-receive attempts with a .950 reception percentage.

MARKUS THE MAESTRO

Freshman setter Luanna Markus has directed the Marquette offense with 270 assists (8.71/set) through 31 sets. Markus has recorded at least 29 assists in seven of eight matches, including a career-high 39 against South Florida, 38 at Illinois and 36 at Stanford. She has also contributed 62 digs, 26 kills on .279 hitting and 20 blocks, ranking second on the team in the latter category.

EMI ANCHORS THE BACK ROW

Freshman libero Emi Juric leads Marquette with 94 digs (3.03/set) and has recorded double-digit digs in five consecutive matches. Juric posted a career-high 18 digs at Illinois before adding 10 at Wisconsin and has recorded at least eight digs in every match this season. She has also contributed 28 assists and eight aces while committing just two service errors on 122 attempts.

WELGE BUILDS A WALL AT THE NET

Freshman middle blocker Molly Welge has recorded at least three blocks in every match this season and leads the Golden Eagles with 36 total blocks (1.20/set). Welge has been particularly effective recently, totaling 13 blocks over the last two matches with six at Illinois and a career-high seven at Wisconsin. She has also contributed 41 kills and 62.5 points through 30 sets.

BLOCKS TRENDING UP

Marquette has produced 10 team blocks in each of its last two matches, matching its second-highest total of the season behind 12 against Texas. The Golden Eagles recorded 20 block assists at Wisconsin and

2ND SEASON | BUFFALO GROVE, IL | LEWIS '07

Tom Mendoza enters his second season at the helm of Marquette Volleyball in 2026 after being named to the position in March 2025. Mendoza is the sixth head coach in Marquette history. In his first season with the Golden Eagles, Mendoza guided the Golden Eagles to an 18-11 overall record and an 11-5 mark in BIG EAST play, highlighted by a first-round NCAA Tournament victory over Western Kentucky. Natalie Ring (Third Team) and Hattie Bray (Honorable Mention) both earned AVCA All-American honors, and Isabela Haggard earned BIG EAST Co-Freshman of the Year honors under his direction.

Mendoza has 10 seasons of NCAA Division I head coaching experience, including seven seasons at the University of South Carolina (2018-24) and two at High Point University (2016-17).

At South Carolina, Mendoza oversaw a significant program turnaround, leading the Gamecocks to four NCAA Tournament appearances (2018, 2019, 2021, 2024). His first two seasons produced the program's first back-to-back 20-win seasons in nearly two decades and its first NCAA appearance in 16 years. USC also recorded double-digit Southeastern Conference wins in each of his first three seasons.

Under Mendoza's leadership, USC earned NCAA Tournament victories over Colorado in 2018 and then-No. 10 Colorado State in 2019, marking the program's first win over a top-10 opponent since 2006. Overall, his teams notched 11 wins over AVCA top-25 opponents during his tenure in Columbia.

Mendoza's squads also excelled individually and academically. Five players earned All-SEC honors from 2018-24, highlighted by two-time AVCA All-American Mikayla Robinson. In 2024, outside hitter Riley Whitesides earned All-SEC recognition after averaging 4.47 kills per set, the second-highest single-season mark in program history. Each of Mendoza's teams at USC earned AVCA Team Academic Awards, and Gamecock student-athletes collected 74 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections in his first six seasons.

At High Point, he led the Panthers to back-to-back Big South Conference championships and earned AVCA Southeast Region Coach of the Year honors in 2017 following a perfect 16-0 regular-season conference campaign.

He compiled a 106-90 record during his seven seasons at South Carolina and a 47-18 mark in two seasons at High Point.

Prior to becoming a head coach, Mendoza spent six seasons at Creighton University (2010-15), including the final three as associate head coach and recruiting coordinator. He was part of five NCAA Tournament teams, multiple conference championships, and Creighton's transition into the BIG EAST. Mendoza also served as an assistant coach at Evansville and as a volunteer assistant at Michigan State, helping both programs reach NCAA Regionals.

A native of Buffalo Grove, Illinois, Mendoza was a three-year letter winner and 2004 NAIA All-American setter at Newman University before finishing his collegiate career at Lewis University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in management information systems in 2007.

Mendoza and his wife, Megan, have two dogs, Ace and Jay.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

ETHAN PHEISTER

2ND SEASON | SHOREWOOD, WI | BALL STATE '10

Ethan Pheister is in his second season as associate head coach in 2026.

Pheister, a native of nearby Shorewood, Wisconsin, spent seven seasons alongside Tom Mendoza at South Carolina and was elevated to associate head coach in 2024.

Serving as the team's defensive coordinator at South Carolina, Pheister developed the team's middle blockers into one of the best positional groups in the SEC. As a team, the Gamecocks consistently ended the season in the top three of the SEC and top 50 nationally for average blocks per set during Pheister's tenure.

Prior to his time in Columbia, he spent three seasons at LSU (2015-17), a pair of seasons at Duquesne in 2013 and 2014, in addition to a year at both Arkansas (2012) and Cincinnati (2011). He helped lead teams to NCAA tournament appearances at each institution, including the first-ever berth for the Dukes in 2013.

Pheister graduated from Ball State University in 2010, where he was a three-time all-conference setter and finished his career fourth in program history with 4,103 assists (11.21 per set).

Outside of the college ranks, Pheister served as the club coach for the Munciana Volleyball Club and High Performance Volleyball Club in Missouri.

Pheister and his partner, Jen Vilkoski, have two children together, Amelia and Conrad.

ASSISTANT COACH

STEF JANKIEWICZ

2ND SEASON | FARMINGTON HILLS, MI | IL STATE '20

Stef Jankiewicz is in her second season as an assistant coach in 2026. She spent the previous three seasons as an assistant at Central Michigan University.

Jankiewicz was a four-year starter at Illinois State and then finished her collegiate career in 2021 at Utah playing indoor and beach volleyball for the Utes.

She served as a team captain in all five seasons, was a four-time All-Missouri Valley Conference honoree, a two-time Missouri Valley Conference Setter of the Year, was twice named an All-MVC Scholar-Athlete, was named to the AVCA All-North Region Team in 2021, was named the MVC Freshman of the Year in 2017, and earned All-Pac-12 honorable mention in 2021.

Tasked with coaching the setters, Jankiewicz coached Claire Ammeraal in 2022 and 2023 as Ammeraal earned Second Team All-MAC honors in 2023 along with a spot on the All-Freshman team. Ammeraal posted five triple doubles in those two seasons. She also coached Allie Korba to a MAC Setter of the Year honor in 2024.

In game, Jankiewicz ran the serve game for the Chippewas and CMU charted 352 service aces in that time frame. In the 2023 season, Devon Bright, a graduate transfer, recorded 38 aces, good for 9th best in program history. Those 38 aces averaged to 0.50/set – good for second best in program history.

Jankiewicz, a Farmington Hills, Mich. native, holds two Bachelor of Science degrees with majors in psychology and criminal justice sciences

ASSISTANT COACH/DIRECTOR OF OPS

KENNEDY FABIAN

1ST SEASON | MAPLEWOOD, MN | MINNESOTA '18

Kennedy Fabian is in her first season as assistant volleyball coach and director of operations in 2026.

Fabian most recently served as assistant girls program director at Milwaukee Sting Volleyball, where she managed coaches and training for the girls program, served as a master coach for the 17s division, helped establish offensive and defensive systems, and assisted as a recruiting coordinator guiding 17s and 18s athletes through the recruiting process.

Previously, Fabian spent three seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Wright State University from 2022-25. While at Wright State, she also served as offensive coordinator, worked with setters, and directed travel operations and planning.

Fabian spent the 2020-22 seasons as an assistant coach and offensive coordinator at Minnesota State University, Mankato, and also served as a volunteer coach and marketing assistant at the University of Cincinnati from 2019-20.

Fabian has coached multiple setters who received individual recognition, including three who earned Setter of the Year honors, and one ranked No. 1 nationally in assists per set in 2024. She was named Minnesota Assistant Coach of the Year (4AAA) in 2018.

Fabian earned a Bachelor of Arts in Strategic Communication with a minor in Design from Minnesota in 2018, where she participated in club volleyball. She previously attended Indiana University, competing as a varsity volleyball student-athlete.

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

HATTIE BRAY

1ST SEASON | HANCOCK, WI | MARQUETTE '25

Hattie Bray is in her first season as Director of Player Development in 2026.

A four-time All-BIG EAST selection, Bray concluded her Golden Eagle career as a two-time AVCA All-North Region First Team honoree, AVCA Honorable Mention All-American and NCAA All-Regional Team selection.

Bray finished her career as one of the most decorated middle blockers in school history, earning All-BIG EAST honors in each of her four competitive seasons. She was named to the BIG EAST All-Freshman Team in 2022 and helped lead the Golden Eagles to five NCAA Tournament appearances throughout her career and two Round of 16 appearances in 2022 and 2024.

Following graduation, Bray was selected by the Grand Rapids Rise in the fourth round of the 2025 Major League Volleyball Draft and made her professional debut in January 2026. During the 2026 season, she appeared in 19 matches for the Rise before signing with Minnesota MLV.

As Director of Player Development, Bray serves as a mentor and resource for Marquette student-athletes, assisting with personal growth, leadership development and the overall student-athlete experience.

A native of Hancock, Wisconsin, Bray earned a bachelor's degree in environmental studies from Marquette and completed a master's degree in management in 2026.

TECH COORD./PERFORMANCE ANALYST

ZACH CHAMPAGNE

1ST SEASON | SOUTH MILWAUKEE, WI | ST. THOMAS '24

Zach Champagne is in his first season as Technical Coordinator/Performance Analyst in 2026.

In his role with the Golden Eagles, Champagne oversees performance data collection and analysis while supporting coaches in areas including athlete workload management, performance monitoring and on-court evaluation. His work focuses on helping optimize player development and team performance through evidence-based decision-making and advanced analytics.

Prior to joining the volleyball staff, Champagne served as a sports performance assistant with Marquette Athletics, where he worked with Catapult, VALD, DXA and BioDex technologies while assisting coaches with reporting, athlete monitoring and applied performance analysis. He also gained professional sports experience as a sports science intern with the Milwaukee Admirals, helping collect and evaluate athlete performance data during training sessions and competitions.

A graduate of the University of St. Thomas, Champagne earned a bachelor's degree in data analytics with minors in statistics, political science and biblical studies. He recently graduated with a master's degree in sports and exercise analytics from Marquette and holds a graduate certificate in data science.

A native of South Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Champagne remains active in community service through youth STEM initiatives and food bank volunteer work.
