NYU BASKETBALL AWARDS

Each year, the Violet coaching staff selects the winners of two prestigious awards: The Howard Cann Award, presented to the team's Most Valuable Player, and the James Lancaster Award, presented to the team's Best Defensive Player. The Howard Cann Award is named after the Violets' all-time winningest coach, who guided NYU to 409 wins in 35 years of coaching from 1923-58. The James Lancaster Award is named after NYU's top defensive player on the undefeated 1933-34 team. Recent winners of the awards are:

NYC BASKETBALL HALL OF FAMERS

NYU has always had a rich history tied to the game of basketball. Several student-athletes enjoyed stellar collegiate careers, with several moving on to play in the National Basketball Association. The New York City Basketball Hall of Fame has recognized 11 past NYU greats who have made a significant contribution to the sport either by playing or coaching. The goal of the Hall of Fame is to help younger generations of players become better competitors while also cultivating their academic and personal lives off the court.
