GAME 11: Syracuse

Nov. 21 • Raleigh, N.C. • Carter-Finley Stadium (57,600) • ACCN • 12:30 p.m.

GAME NOTES

NC STATE VS. SYRACUSE

Saturday's meeting will mark the third time the Pack and the Orange have met as Atlantic Coast Conference foes and the ninth meeting overall in the series. NC State posts a 7-1 record against Syracuse, with the only loss coming in the 2013 game.

The Wolfpack posts a 4-0 mark at Syracuse, 3-1 in Raleigh.

The 1997 contest, played in the Carrier Dome, was literally one for the record book. That year, the unranked Pack took the No. 13 Orange into overtime, eking out a 32-31 victory. That contest was the first overtime game in ACC history.

Here's a look at the series history between NC State and Syracuse:

#IRONWOLF

As part of NC State's annual Military Appreciation Day festivities on Nov. 21, the Wolfpack football squad will debut its new #IRONWOLF uniform. Developed in collaboration with Adidas, the iron gray uniform pays homage to the brave men and women who serve our country at home and abroad.

It will be the Wolfpack's sixth uniform combo of the season.

"Military Appreciation Day has become a very special event for our team," said head coach Dave Doeren, "We wanted to wear our next alternate uniform to honor those who serve and I think the color and design of the IRONWOLF uniform accomplishes that."

The #IRONWOLF helmet features a gray and black camouflage pattern, emblazoned with the classic red NC State logo. Red wolf claw marks highlight the shoulder pads and pants, the gloves and the pregame warmup shirt.

The inspiration for the name comes from one of the Wolfpack's team mottos: "Iron Sharpens Iron."

"When two iron blades are rubbed together, each blade gets sharper and more efficient," Doeren continued. "The same is true in the military and in football. We rely on each other to make each other better."

TOUGH NEIGHBORHOOD

Each of the Wolfpack's last six games - in other words each of its ACC contests - have been against some of the nation's top defenses. In fact, NC State's last six opponents have all ranked in the top 25 nationally in total defense, including the national leader.

Six of the seven teams in the Atlantic Division of the ACC rank in the top 25 nationally in total defense (including NC State at 16th) and the one Coastal Division team that ranks in the top 25 happens to be on the Wolfpack's schedule: Virginia Tech.

Here's a look at the Wolfpack's ACC opponents and where they rank nationally in total defense this week:

Rk	Opponent	Date Played
1.	Boston College	11/7
7.	Clemson	10/31
14.	Louisville	10/3
22.	Virginia Tech	10/9
23.	Wake Forest	10/24
25.	Florida State	11/14

ON TARGET

One of senior quarterback Jacoby Brissett's strengths is not forcing passes that would result in a turnover. In fact, during Brissett's short two-year NC State career he owns two of the top-8 interception-free streaks in ACC history.

For his NC State career, Brissett has thrown just seven interceptions in his 667 attempts - a rate of just 1 INT for every 95 pass attempts. By comparison, in Dave Doeren's first season at NC State in 2013, Pack QBs threw 14 INTs in 426 attempts (1 INT per 30 attempts).

A season after having just five INTs for the entire season, Brissett has an even better rate in 2015. Ten games into his final campaign, he has thrown just two picks in his 297 pass attempts.

In 2015, 71 FBS quarterbacks have attempted at least 250 passes. Of those, only three have thrown two interceptions or less:

Player	School	Attempts	INTs
Dak Prescott	Mississippi State	343	2
Jacoby Brissett	NC State	297	2

PROTECTING THE BALL

NC State leads the ACC and ranks 5th in the FBS in fewest turnovers this season with just eight - 2 interceptions and 6 fumbles lost. If the Wolfpack continues at this pace (0.8 turnovers per game), it would shatter the season record for fewest turnovers (13 in 2001).

TAKEAWAYS

The Pack has not been as effective at forcing turnovers as it has been at preventing them. NC State has 16 takeaways for the season, the No. 9 mark in the ACC. That stat has climbed significantly since last week after the Wolfpack forced five miscues at Florida State (3 interceptions and 2 fumbles lost).

BREAKING BAD

The NC State Wolfpack has broken a couple of bad streaks on the road in 2015. On Oct. 24, the squad posted a road victory at Wake Forest for the first time since 2001. Last Saturday, Dave Doeren's squad became the first State team to win at Boston College since 1937!

ROAD WARRIORS

The Wolfpack played six road games for only fifth time in the last 45 years this season. State posted a 4-2 in games played away from home. No other Wolfpack squad has had more road wins since 1957 (5-1).

Here's a look at the Wolfpack's best road records in school history.

Rk	Road Rec.	Year
1.	5-0-1	1957
2.	4-1	2001
4.	4-2	2015
	4-2	2002
	4-2	1974
	4-2	1967
	4-2	1963

BOWLED OVER

The Wolfpack gained bowl eligibility with its win at Boston College on Nov. 7. This marks the second straight year NC State has earned bowl eligibility. Head coach Dave Doeren has now coached bowl eligible teams in 11 of his 14 years as a Division I coach and in four of his five seasons as a head coach.

A bowl game in 2015 would mark the 28th in school history.

FAST STARTS

The Wolfpack has outscored its opponents 110-44 in the first quarter this season, 201-119 in the first half.

MANY HAPPY RETURNS

One area where the Wolfpack has shown vast improvement in 2015 is in the return game.

Heading into game 11, The Wolfpack's kickoff return average of 27.54 yards per return would rank as the best in school history. That mark leads the ACC and ranks 4th in the FBS this week.

NC State boasts a 13.2 yard punt return average - a mark that would tie as the 5th-highest in school history if the season ended today.

Junior Bra'Lon Cherry currently ranks third in the ACC and 8th in the FBS in punt return average with a 13.5 mark, while freshman Nyheim Hines ranks second in the ACC, 8th in the FBS, in kickoff returns with a 28.5 yards per return mark.

AT A LOSS

NC State has averaged 7.4 tackles per loss per game this season - the 4th-best mark in the ACC and the 24th-best mark in the FBS.

The Pack has averaged 2.9 sacks per contest, the second-best mark in the league, 9th in FBS..

PUNT OF NO RETURN

NC State has been very stingy when it comes to punt returns in 2015. The Wolfpack has allowed just 16 returns for a total of 51 yards this season. That 3.19 yard per return average ranks 12th in the FBS and 3rd in the ACC.

Of NC State's 55 punts on the season, only 15 have been returned (27 percent). Of those 15 punts returns, only five have been for positive gains. The other 10 punt returns against the Pack have either been for no gain or for negative yardage.

DAYS LOST FOR THE SEASON

Wolfpack junior running back Matthew Dayes had a goal of rushing for 1,000 yards in 2015. He was just 135 yards from that goal when he suffered a season-ending injury against Clemson on Oct. 31.

Dayes' 865 yards for the season is the 15th-best mark in school history. He led the FBS in rushing touchdowns earlier this season and his 12 tie as the 7th-best single season mark in school history.

In the Wolfpack's win over Wake, Dayes became just the sixth individual in school history to rush for over 200 yards in a game and his 205 yards ranks as the fifth-best mark in school history.

Dayes could have been the Pack's first 1,000 yard rusher since T.A. McLendon accomplished the feat in 2002. He is the first Wolfpack players since 2002 to rush for 100+ yards in five games during the season.

Last season, Dayes was one of just three players nationally with more than 300 yards rushing, receiving and in returns (Jamal Morrow of Washington St. & Temple's Jahad Thomas were the others). He was the ONLY player nationally to reach those marks and also boast five or more touchdowns rushing and receiving in 2014.

ROSE ARISES

Senior defensive end Mike Rose is currently the ACC leader in sacks with 10.5, the 4th-best mark in the FBS. That mark is tied as the third-best in school history and is just four from tying the school record set by Mario Williams in 2005.

The Bednarik Award candidate ranks fourth in the ACC and 21st nationally in tackles for loss with 35. He has now recorded a tackle for loss in 17 straight games dating back to last season. Over that span, Rose has 26.5 tackles for loss for 115 yards.

Rose has 35 career tackles for loss - the No. 12 mark in school history, while his 17.5 sacks rank 8th.

Here's a look at the Wolfpack all-time leaders in single-season sacks:

Rk	Name	Year	Sks-Yards
1.	Mario Williams	2005	14.5-80
2.	Tyler Lawrence	1993	11-73
3.	Mike Rose	2015	10.5-54

SPREADING THE WEALTH

It is no secret that NC State likes to spread the ball around in the aerial game, as a total of 14 players have caught a pass this season. But the majority of the Wolfpack's throws are not connecting with wide receivers. Instead, 112-of-196 passes (57 percent) have been caught by the tight ends, fullbacks and running backs.

FB/TE Jaylen Samuels currently leads the Pack in receptions with 57, followed by running back Matthew Dayes' total of 24. The top ranking wideout is Jumichael Ramos with 20 catches.

The last time a non-WR led the Pack in receptions was Anthony Hill (TE) in 2006, and the last time the Pack's top two receiving targets for a season were not wide receivers was in 1995 when tight ends Mike Guffie and Jimmy Grisett were tops in receptions.

FIRST & GOAL = TD, WOLFPACK!

If the Wolfpack gets into a 1st & goal situation, chances are the squad is coming away with a touchdown.

Thus far in 2015, the Pack has had 23 1st & goal possessions, and has come away with a TD 19 of those times (85 percent).

JAYSAM'S THE MAN

Fullback/tight end/touchdown scorer extraordinaire Jaylen Samuels seems to have the magic touch when it comes to finding the endzone. The sophomore currently ranks second in the ACC with 13 touchdowns in 2015.

"JaySam" has 13 touchdowns in just 101 touches (44 rushes, 57 receptions) in 2015. In the season opener, he scored three touchdowns in just four carries.

Samuels, who currently leads the Wolfpack in receptions with 57, has had more of an expanded role in the run game in the last five games following the dismissal of 2014 leading rusher Shadrach Thornton and the season-ending injury to Matt Dayes.

SENSATIONAL SOPHS

For the second straight season, 70% of the Wolfpack squad is made up of freshmen and sophomores. Those young players, particularly the sophomores, are making a big impact on the Wolfpack defense.

Five of NC State's top six tacklers this season are all sophomores: WLB Airius Moore is 1st with 61, DE Bradley Chubb is 2nd with 52, SS Josh Jones is third with 44, DT B.J. Hill is 5th with 42 and MLB Jerod Fernandez is 6th with 36.

ABLE MAPLES

Redshirt freshman kicker Jackson Maples has kicked off 57 times for the Wolfpack this season. Of those 57 KO's, 60% (34) have been touchbacks.

BRISSETT HOLDS STREAKS

In just 22 games as an ACC quarterback, Jacoby Brissett now holds two of the top eight interception-free streaks in ACC history.

Brissett threw 187 passes without being picked off in 2014 - the seventh-longest streak in ACC history. He threw an interception on the Pack's last play at Virginia Tech, ending his second streak at 241 attempts - the third-best mark in ACC history.

The senior was INT free for 37 quarters, dating back to the Georgia Tech game on Nov. 8, 2014. In the nine games following, he threw for 13 touchdowns.

SHORT ON SENIORS

Only 10% of the Wolfpack's 2015 roster is made up of seniors. In fact, NC State fields its fewest amount of players in their final year of eligibility (10) in 20 years.

#STATEMENT

It means something different to everyone.

To us at NC State, it means an opportunity to share the passion, loyalty, history, tradition, and multitude of experiences on and off the field that are completely unique to the Wolfpack Nation.

It's true to our DNA and who we are. It's a student-athlete who does exceptional things here on or off the field, graduates, and uses those experiences to accomplish amazing things when he or she leaves. It's every bit as much about a loyal fan base that sticks with us through thick and thin.

The rationale and meaning behind it is simple:

- To help us adequately celebrate what's exceptional about NC State athletics, both on and off the field of play
- To take a simple concept and infuse deep emotional connection and meaning
- To provide a platform that strikes a balance between meaningful tradition and modern day relevance

40 x 4

NC State has scored 40+ points 12 times during Dave Doeren's 33-game tenure as head coach, including two streaks of four 40-point games in a row. The Wolfpack opened the 2015 campaign with four straight 40+ point scoring outputs and posted 41 against No. 3 Clemson.

Prior to Doeren's arrival, the Pack had never scored 40 or more in four straight games.

EARLY ACTION

NC State has played the third-highest number freshmen of any school in the FBS in 2015, as a total of 26 rookies (16 true and 10 redshirt) have seen action. During Doeren's tenure with the Wolfpack, 34 true freshmen have played, and that action hasn't just been as role players or on special teams.

In 2013, 11 true freshmen combined to start 18 games. In 2014, 13 true freshmen combined to make 32 starts. This season, four true freshmen (WR Nyheim Hines, punter A.J. Cole, PK Kyle Bamard and LB Riley Nicholson) have gotten the nod. That 69 total starts by true freshmen in the last 33 games!

63% of the players who have seen action for NC State this season are freshmen and sophomores.

SHIFTING THE LINE

The Wolfpack offensive line has not only been effective, but versatile. Three of the current starters have played multiple positions during their Wolfpack career and two - Alex Barr and Joe Thuney - have started at more than one spot.

Thuney, the current starter at left tackle, has been the most versatile member of the line, having started at four different spots and playing all five spots on the line (he was in at center in the Wolfpack's 2012 upset of No. 3 Florida State). He moved from his starting LT position to LG during the game at Old Dominion due to injuries.

Here's a look at where the Pack's o-line starters have seen action during their careers:

DEGREES > CATCHES

Heading into the 2015 campaign, tight end Benson Browne had more degrees (two) than career catches (none). The graduate student, who has earned undergraduate degrees in psychology and communication, evened things out in the first two games, however.

Browne recorded his first career reception in the third quarter of the opener - a seven-yarder on first down. His second career catch was in that same drive, when he caught a one-yard touchdown pass. He also scored on his one receptions vs. Eastern Kentucky.

MAN ON A MISSION

The Wolfpack's success at sending quarterbacks into the NFL has been well documented. NC State was the only school with three alums starting in the NFL last season and Wolfpack alums hold two of the top four highest guaranteed salaries in the NFL. Don't be surprised if the legend of QBU grows a bit after the 2015 season.

Senior Jacoby Brissett is the latest in that storied line of great quarterbacks to wear the red and white. With just 23 games under his belt at NC State, he already ranks fourth in school history in career passing efficiency (135.05), sixth in passing touchdowns (37), 7th in passing yards (4,613), 7th in completions (408) and 8th in attempts (667).

Brissett's head coach calls him a "man on a mission." He put himself through two-a-day workouts all summer, working individually on technique and footwork in the mornings and then with the team in the afternoons. A true leader, Brissett wrote each member of the offense notes prior to each game last season and he is rumored to leave baked items for his offensive linemen each week.

YOUNG DEFENSIVE LINE

One of the deepest units on the squad in 2015 is the defensive line. And it better be! Line coach Ryan Nielsen uses frequent substitutions along the front, looking for quality reps rather than quantity. In 2014, all 11 defensive linemen who saw action played over 100 snaps for the season.

Twelve defensive linemen have seen action in the season - four freshmen, six sophomores, 1 junior and 1 senior.

RAISING THE BAR

From the minute the 2015 Wolfpack squad arrived back on campus in January to begin the spring semester, its motto has been "Raise the Bar."

Even though the Wolfpack showed a five-game improvement in the win column - a mark that ranked second in the Power 5 conferences and tied for fifth among all Division I programs, qualified for and won a bowl game, and defeated both in-state rivals that it played (Wake Forest and UNC), Dave Doeren's third NC State squad was determined not to rest on its laurels.

Instead, the head coach has encouraged his charges to "Raise the Bar" - their expectations for themselves individually and for the team as a whole. Each day of fall camp, he asked his players what their 'one more' was for that day, with a goal of each individual doing one thing better each day.

WHEN THE GOING GETS TOUGH...

THE WOLFPACK'S 2015 RECORD WHEN...

... Dave Doeren gets going. Prior to the 2015 campaign, the Wolfpack's head coach was the active leader among Power 5 teams for wins in games decided by four points or less. Doeren posts a 7-2 (.778) mark in those games in his four-year head coaching career.

He's now posted a 13-5 (.722) mark in one-possession games.

REAL WORLD WEDNESDAYS

One of the goals of the Wolfpack coaching staff is to help its student-athletes succeed not only on the football field, but in life after football. To help his team achieve this goal, head coach Dave Doeren instituted "Real World Wednesdays" last winter.

During Wednesday team meetings throughout the offseason, speakers came in to present a variety of topics, including domestic violence, dealing with police, drug abuse, dining etiquette, proper dress attire (how to tie a tie!), "What is masculinity?" and basic finances.

FENCE 'EM IN

On the day he was introduced as NC State's head coach in December of 2012, head coach Dave Doeren said it was "upsetting" to see "all the great players from the state of North Carolina" starring for other programs.

"We will fight for every kid who we think belongs here," Doeren said then. "If we don't get one, it's not going to be for a lack of effort."

A look at his first two full signing classes (2014 & 2015) shows that Doeren has kept that promise, as the Wolfpack has signed some of the top players in North Carolina each year.

In February, The Pack signed 12 players from North Carolina, including four of the top eight rated players in the state (all four of whom were ranked in the top-300 nationally). Those 12 signees were also ranked in the top-five of their position group in the state, including eight in the top-three.

In 2014, Doeren and his staff signed 16 North Carolina players. Five of those young men were ranked as the top player at their position in the state, while seven overall were ranked among NC's top-25 players.

2014	16	2	11

WONDERFUL WALK-ONS

NC State has boasted a strong walk-on program during Dave Doeren's short tenure. Eleven (current or former) walk-ons saw game action in 2014 and 10 played during his first season at NC State.

In just 38 months, Doeren has awarded scholarships to 10 different walk-ons, including five players on the current squad: Ben Grazen, Nick Lacy, Gavin Locklear, Ernie Robinson and Charlie Twitty.

GIVING BACK

When Dave Doeren was named head coach in December of 2012, one of his first items of business was to ramp up the football squad's community service efforts. Since January of 2013, members of his team have donated almost 4,000 hours to good causes around the area - from read-a-thons, to Dance

PACK IN THE FRONT OFFICE

Not only does NC State boast an impressive number of former players on NFL rosters, but the Pack also is becoming a pipeline to the league's front offices.

All-ACC guard Steve Keim (1992-95) has been the General Manager of the Arizona Cardinals since January of 2013 after previously serving as Vice President of Player Personnel, Director of College Scouting and as a regional scout.

His Wolfpack teammate, Morocco Brown, who played linebacker from 1994-97, was recently named Vice President of Player Personnel for the Cleveland Browns after spending six seasons as Director of Pro Personnel for the Washington Redskins.

When Brown left for the Browns, another former State player, Alex Santos (1996-99) took over as the Director of Pro Personnel at Washington after working in the personnel department for seven years.

Another former 'Pack linebacker is in charge of the Pro Personnel department in Chicago, as Kevin Turks (1995-98) holds that position with the Bears.

Several former players are also working as NFL scouts, including John Ritcher (2002-05) with the Cardinals, Harrison Ritcher (2007-09) with the Browns, Darrell Moody (1968-70) with the Bills, and Ray Agnew (1986-89) with the St. Louis Rams.

QBU

Over the last three NFL seasons, no other school has enjoyed as much success at the quarterback position in the NFL than former NC State QBs. Philip Rivers (161 career starts) and Wilson (63 career starts) have both started every game the last three seasons in the NFL, while Mike Glennon of the Tampa Bay Bucs registered 18 total starts in his first three NFL campaigns.

Wilson and Rivers also currently rank in the top 10 of the NFL's highest contracts (Wilson is 2nd and Rivers is eighth).

Of the stats compiled by ACC alums in the NFL over the last three seasons (2013-pres.), former Wolfpack signal callers have contributed the majority. Here's a look at the total numbers by ACC alums in the past three seasons:

- Of the 5,041 completions by ACC alums, NC State has accounted for 41.5% (2,093).
- Of the 57,734 passing yards by ACC alums, NC State has accounted for 42.5% (24,532).
- Of the 335 passing TDs, NC State has accounted for 49.6% (166).

SELLING OUT

Wolfpack Nation has shown its excitement and support once again as 2015 season tickets and mini-packs are sold out. NC State fans purchased the second-highest number of season tickets in program history - 35,065 - with over 3,000 new season tickets being sold. Wolfpack fans have shown their loyalty to the tune of a 96 percent renewal rate.

WOLFPACK STORYLINES

1PACK1GOAL

The Wolfpack's battle cry under head coach Dave Doeren has been "1Pack, 1Goal." That mantra confirms Doeren's belief in the power of a team working together and focused on its goals.

Doeren also introduced his "12 Commandments" to the squad when he took over the program. This is a list of attributes that he wants his program to exhibit. During fall camp each year, each position group takes one of the 12 and presents it to the team.

Dave Doeren's 12 "Commandments"

- | | |

| 1. Accountability | 7. Pride |
| 2. Hard Work | 8. Discipline |
| 3. Family | 9. Urgency |
| 4. Faith | 10. Focus |
| 5. Detail | 11. Perseverance |
| 6. Loyalty | 12. Three P's (Prepare, Practice, Play to win) |

Close-King Indoor Practice Facility

The Wolfpack's new Close-King Indoor Practice Facility is a beautiful addition to NC State's vast array of football facilities. This privately-funded $14 million facility boasts a full 120-yard football field with a roof height sufficient for kicking game and suspended goal posts. There are additional training and conditioning space beyond both end zones and four sprint lanes down the full length of the field.

Other features include an in-ground and above-ground pads for long jump, triple jump, high jump and other track events, end zone and 50-yardline viewing platforms, clerestory windows and glass roll-up doors to allow natural daylight, a complete sound system, and support areas for equipment, strength and conditioning and sports medicine.

The facility is in close proximity to Carter-Finley Stadium, the Murphy Football Center and the Dail Outdoor practice complex.

300 lb. offensive guard Tony Adams played competitive tennis all of his life before coming to NC State. He picked up the sport at the age of 2! Adams, who was 5-7 and weighed 250 lbs. in the fifth grade, is the son of Carl Adams, who was the head wrestling coach at Boston University for 34 years.

OG Alex Barr's father is a pilot for Delta and flew the team on a road trip to Maryland in 2012.

Quarterback Jacoby Brissett writes (not types, writes!) a note to every player on offense before every game. He also bakes for his offensive linemen each week.

WR Naquan Brown's college career started a little late. He worked full-time at Wal-Mart following high school to provide for his mother and younger brother.

Tight end Benson Browne has two undergraduate degrees (psychology and communication). He is now enrolled in a liberal arts Master's program.

Sophomore defensive end Bradley Chubb's brother Brandon is a starting linebacker at Wake Forest and his cousin Nik plays RB at Georgia.

Freshman punter A.J. Cole III has spent his last two spring breaks on a mission trip to Kenya. He is sponsoring a young man to attend Mountain Park Academy in Kenya.

Freshman wideout Nyheim Hines has a twin sister, Nyah, who is a member of the Wolfpack track squad.

Senior safety Hakim Jones was given the No. 1 jersey for this season in recognition of his hard work and leadership.

6'6 Defensive end Pharoah McKeever started his NC State career at wide receiver.

RS Fr. quarterback Jalan McClendon stands at a towering 6'6. When he was a freshman in high school, he was 5'9 and was a triple option quarterback. Dave Doeren says he plays with a "little man's mentality."

Freshman defensive end Emmanuel Olenga was born in Kinshasa (Congo) Africa. He speaks four languages: French, English, and two native African languages: Lingala and Kitatala.

DE James Smith-Williams started an athletic service club at Millbrook High School during his prep career. He and other student-athletes volunteered at a local middle school to help students prepare for End-of-Grade exams.

Quarterback Josh Taylor spent part of his summer with NC State's study abroad program in Spain.

Offensive guard/tackle Joe Thuney is a voracious reader. He often has a book open during breaks between meetings, practices, etc. Rumor has it that he scored a 39 on his Wonderlic test.

Cornerback Jack Tocho is the star of his own web series: "You Don't Know Jack!"

Nickel Dravious Wright was diagnosed with Crohn's disease last season and undergoes frequent treatments to keep the disease in check.

GAME 1

NC State 49, Troy 21

Sept. 5, 2015 • Raleigh, N.C. • Carter-Finley Stadium • ESPN3

QB Jacoby Brissett posted the best completion percentage for a Pack QB since 1992

RALEIGH, N.C. - Jacoby Brissett turned in a 21-for-23, 196-yard passing performance, while Matt Dayes tallied 191 all-purpose yards, as NC State powered past Troy, 49-21. The Pack dominated time of possession, holding the ball for 41:34. The team also showcased discipline, drawing just one penalty during the game.

The Wolfpack opened the scoring on a 10-play drive, which was capped off by a 14-yard jet sweep from Jaylen Samuels. Troy tied the game with an eight-play touchdown drive, but the Pack pulled away, scoring 21 unanswered points. Dayes had six carries on NC State's second scoring drive, and scored his first touchdown of the season on a one-yard carry with 3:29 left in the first quarter. After forcing a Troy punt, the Pack added a 70-yard scoring drive behind Samuels' second rushing touchdown of the day.

With 28 seconds remaining in the half, Brissett found Jumichael Ramos on a 14-yard pass for NC State's fourth touchdown of the half. A quick four-play drive from Troy brought the game within two scores, as the Wolfpack entered the half up, 28-14.

In a similar fashion to the first half, both teams traded early touchdown drives before NC State pulled away. A Dravious Wright #SCTop10 sack and fumble recovery led to a three-yard touchdown run from Samuels - his third score of the game. Early in the fourth quarter, Brissett capped off his night with a one-yard touchdown pass to Benson Browne to make it 49-21 and end the scoring.

Josh Jones led NC State's defense with six tackles, while 21 Wolfpackers recorded at least one tackle. Brissett's .913 completion percentage led all FBS players in week 1 and was the best for an NC State quarterback in a single game since Terry Jordan went 23-25 (.920) in 1992.

NC State 35, Eastern Kentucky 0

Sept. 12, 2015 • Raleigh, N.C. • Carter-Finley Stadium • ESPN3

RALEIGH, N.C. - The NC State defense held ECU to 112 yards of total offense and Jacoby Brissett threw for 216 yards and a touchdown, as the Wolfpack rolled past ECU, 35-0. Along with its second win of the season, the Pack is one of the most balanced teams in the nation, recording 450 rushing yards and 443 passing yards over two games, while the defense has forced 14 three-and-outs in 23 attempts.

Benson Browne opened the scoring, catching his second touchdown in as many games to put NC State up, 7-0, with 12:54 remaining in the second quarter. The following drive, Brissett and Matt Dayes led the Pack on a 75-yard drive before Jaylen Samuels found the end zone on a 12-yard rush for his fourth touchdown of the season. With the half winding down, the Pack's defense produced a goal line stand to keep Eastern off the board, and entered halftime leading, 14-0.

A 1:29-scoring drive was capped off by a 35-yard breakaway run from Dayes to open the second half. After trading two three-and-outs with ECU, a 38-yard punt return from Bra'Lon Cherry kick started the Wolfpack offense and Dayes found the end zone for the second time in the quarter to extend the score to 28-0 with 4:37 remaining in the third.

A methodical 7:13-scoring drive, which started in the third quarter helped ice the game for the Wolfpack. Rushes from Reggie Gallaspy and Jonathan Alston, as well as two catches from Samuels set up Dayes for a three-yard rush for his third touchdown of the game with 11:22 remaining in the fourth. Leading 35-0, reserve quarterback Jalan McClendon, running back Brady Bodine, and receivers Maurice Morgan and Maurice Trowell, all saw action in the Wolfpack's final possession of the game, which ran another 7:15 off the clock.

After its first two games, the Pack once again led the FBS in time of possession, averaging 40:49 minutes on the ball, while Brissett continued to post the nation's top completion percentage at 84%.

NC State 38, Old Dominion 14

Sept. 19, 2015 • Norfolk, Va. • Ballard Stadium • ASN

NORFOLK, Va. -The NC State football team continued its perfect start to the season, as the defense held Old Dominion offense to 148 yards and the Wolfpack's multi-threat offense racked up five touchdowns to win, 38-14. Matt Dayes became the first NC State back to open the season with 100 rushing yards in three-straight games since 1981, while Jaylen Samuels continued to fill up the stat lists with 43 passing yards, 13 rushing yards and two touchdowns. The defense forced eight punts and eliminated the rushing game, holding the Monarchs to -3 rushing yards.

Samuels opened the scoring for the Wolfpack, completing the a 7:42 drive on a three yard run with 5:49 left in the first quarter. After a missed NC State field goal, ODU only took one play -- a 70-yard pass, to even the score. The Pack answered back minutes later with big plays of its own, recording three 20-plus yard plays in a four-play drive to push the lead to 14-7 with 12:47 remaining in the second. After failed drives from both teams, the Pack switched to its quick offense and drove down the field to add another score before the half -- a 10 yard pass from Jacoby Brissett to Samuels. NC State entered the half leading 21-7.

A 34-yard punt return from Bra'Lon Cherry sparked a 20-yard touchdown drive to open the scoring in the second half. Four consecutive rushes from Dayes put the Pack up 28-7 early in third. The following drive, ODU completed its longest scoring drive of the night, taking 4:02 to reach the end zone and pull the game within two scores. In the fourth quarter, a strong Wolfpack defense brought the ODU offense to a halt, limiting the Monarchs to just 3 yards of offense. Kyle Bamard scored the first field goal of his career, drilling in a 36-yard attempt with 12:52 remaining in the game. On his season debut, Shadrach Thornton added an insurance score, busting through the line into the end zone to put the Wolfpack up, 38-14. In his season debut, the senior rushed for 92 yards.

The Pack continues to dominate possession, holding the ball over 40 minutes for the third consecutive game. Brissett has managed the time with poise and without turnovers, throwing 156 completed passes over 26 quarters without an interception.

NC State 63, South Alabama 13

Sept. 26, 2015 • Mobile, Ala. • Ladd Peebles Stadium • ESPNNews

MOBILE, Ala. - NC State tied a school record with seven rushing touchdowns as it crushed South Alabama, 63-13, to improve to 4-0. Jacoby Brissett led the Wolfpack with 218 passing yards and a pair of passing touchdowns as the team racked up 586 yards of total offense. NC State ran its streak of wins away from Raleigh to five - the longest non-home winning streak since the 1973-74 season.

South Alabama opened the scoring on a 75-yard touchdown drive early in the game, but the Wolfpack's multi-threat offense struck early and often. The Wolfpack produced four sub-three minute drives in the first quarter. Matt Dayes torched the Jaguar defense for three scores, including a 77-yard rush that was the longest for the 'Pack since 2001. Shadrach Thornton added a 39-yard scoring rush, as the Wolfpack closed the first quarter with a 28-7 lead. Dayes' three touchdowns gave him nine rushing scores on the season -- the highest in the NCAA.

In the second quarter, Jaylen Samuels took over the scoring duties, catching a pair of touchdown passes from Brissett. Samuels caught the ball and ran through South Alabama's defense for a 33-yard score to put NC State up, 35-10 with 12:10 remaining in the second quarter. After the Jaguars fumbled on its second consecutive punt return, Brissett found Samuels alone in the end zone to put the Pack up, 42-10, heading into halftime.

After trading punts during the opening drives of the third quarter, the Wolfpack opened the scoring in the second half as Thornton found the end zone for the second time of the night to put NC State up 49-10. Late in the third, Jalen McClendon and Reggie Gallaspy entered the contest. Gallaspy picked up his first career touchdown on a 12-yard run early in the fourth quarter. On the following drive, NC State switched to its slow-down offense to finish off the game. Dakwa Nichols helped power the Wolfpack down the field before Gallaspy found the end zone for his second score of the game. The Wolfpack's 63 points were the most in an away contest since scoring 65 points at Navy in 2002.

On the Wolfpack's second offensive possession, Matt Dayes and Jaylen Samuels led the Wolfpack down the field. Dayes opened the drive with a 28-yard rush, while Samuels caught three passes during the drive. Brissett found Samuels, as the fallback broke free to complete the 21-yard pass for the score. Kyle Bamard's extra point attempt failed, as the Wolfpack cut the lead to 17-13 with 7:56 remaining in the third. After a Matt Dayes fumble, Louisville pieced together a 36-yard drive, which ended with a 26-yard field goal to push the score to, 20-13 with 14 seconds remaining in the third quarter. NC State 35, Wake Forest 17

Oct. 24, 2015 • Winston-Salem, N.C. • BB&T Field • RSN

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - NC State used an explosive first-quarter to roll past Wake Forest, 35-17 for its fifth win of the season. The Pack got back on track as Jacoby Brissett threw for 227 yards and Matt Dayes led a potent rushing attack with 205 yards and a pair of touchdowns – which earned him BMW's Ultimate Performance Award. The defense also had a big showing, limiting the Demon Deacons to just 271 yards of offense and recording a season-high seven sacks.

The Wolfpack took less than a minute to open the scoring as Brissett found Maurice Trowell for a 59-yard touchdown pass on the fourth play of the game. The touchdown was Trowell's first of his career. Less than two minutes later, Matt Dayes broke through the Wake Forest line and sprinted down the field for an 85-yard touchdown run. NC State led 14-0 with 12:15 remaining in the first quarter. On its fourth drive of the game, The Red and White added another score, as Brissett tossed his second touchdown pass to Nyheim Hines. The freshman receiver found space deep down the field, caught the ball and sprinted away from the Wake Forest defense for his first career touchdown. With the first quarter winding down, Dayes broke through Wake's defense again to bring the score to 28-0 with 0:44 remaining in the opening quarter. NC State's four touchdowns of 50-plus yards in the first quarter are the most of any FBS team in the last 10 seasons.

The Pack failed to score in the second and third quarters, but the defense held strong and limited Wake to only 10 points. With the half winding down, Kendal Hinton exploded down the field for 69 yards and a score to put Wake on the board. The Pack went into halftime leading 28-7. In the third quarter Mike Weaver hit a 38-yard field goal, to bring the score to 28-10. However, NC State iced the game late in fourth quarter, as it scored its first special teams touchdown of the season. Bra'lon Cherry evaded several Wake tacklers and found a stitch down the sideline for a 52-yard punt return. Cherry's score ended the chance for a Wake comeback, as the Pack jumped out to a 35-10 lead. With 44 seconds remaining in the contest, Hinton found the end zone for a second time to round out the scoring. The ensuing onside kick was unsuccessful, and the Pack ran the final seconds off the clock.

With a minute remaining in the third quarter, Clemson added another score for Watson's fourth touchdown pass of the day. Clemson entered the third quarter with a 47-27 lead. In the fourth, the Wolfpack clawed its way back into the contest and pulled within eight points after a pair of touchdowns. However a Clemson field goal with 5:47 to go and a stalled offensive drive would be enough for Clemson to win 56-41 and improve to a perfect, 8-0 on the season.

GAME 9

NC State 24, Boston College 8

Nov. 7, 2015 • Chestnut Hill, Mass. • Alumni Stadium • ACCN

RALEIGH, N.C. - NC State earned bowl eligibility for the fourth time in the last five years in a dominating, 24-8, road victory over Boston College. The win was the Pack's fourth on the road in 2015 - most since 2002. The Pack's defense ran rampant, forcing four turnovers, seven sacks and 13 tackles for loss. The defense also limited the Eagles to just 28 rushing yards on 34 carries.

Both defenses were dominant early on (the Eagles led the nation in total defense), as neither team was able to produce a scoring play in the first quarter. A Boston College interception on the 10-yard line stopped a promising NCSU drive, while NC State forced back-to-back punts. The Pack's offense came to life in the second quarter. For the second time in as many games, Brissett found Maurice Trowell on a deep touchdown throw. Trowell caught the ball in space and sprinted into the end zone for an 83-yard reception and his second career touchdown. NC State scored again on its next possession with an eight-play 84-yard touchdown drive. Jaylen Samuels found the end zone on a five-yard run to put the Pack up 14-0 with 8:46 remaining in the half. For the rest of the quarter, NC State's defense took over, forcing two turnovers and pair of punts.

After holding Boston College to -11 yards on its first possession of the second half and forcing a punt from deep in Eagle territory, NC State used the short field to its advantage for a four-play scoring drive. Brissett found Samuels for a nine-yard reception before freshman running back Gallaspy broke through a hole in the defense for a 35-yard touchdown run -- his third of the year. Both Hakim Jones and Josh Jones picked off BC throws late in the third quarter. In the fourth quarter, NC State increased its lead with a 37-yard field goal from Bamard. The score capped off a six-play, 30-yard scoring drive to give NC State a 24-0 lead with 4:14 remaining in the contest. Boston College added a late touchdown and two-point conversion with 1:21 remaining on clock, but failed to recover the ensuing on side kick as NC State earned its sixth win of the season.

GAME 10

NC State 17, ¹⁶Florida State 34

v. 14, 2015 • Tallahassee, Fla. • Doak Campbell Stadium • ACC

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - NC State went toe-to-toe with 16th-ranked Florida State until the Seminoles pulled away late in the game. NC State had a strong defensive effort, forcing a pair of fumbles and three interceptions. The Pack's offense clicked early and scored its 17 points in the first quarter. Jacoby Brissett led the offense with 249 passing yards, 25 rushing yards and a pair of touchdowns.

NC State got off to a quick start, as Mike Rose forced and recovered a fumble on Florida State's opening drive. Kyle Bamard nailed a 31-yard field to open the scoring and put the Pack up, 3-0. NC State stalled on its second drive and was forced to punt from deep in its own end zone. FSU only needed two plays to score, as Heisman hopeful Dalvin Cook carried the ball 13 yards for the score to take a 7-3 lead with 8:40 remaining. NC State's offense responded well and went on a 15-play scoring drive. Brissett found Jaylen Samuels in the end zone off a play-action pass for the score. On the next Florida State drive, Evert Golson turned the ball over again, as Jack Tocho earned his first interception of the year. The turnover led to points, as Brissett scrambled into the corner of the end zone to put the Pack up 17-7. The secondary continued to cause problems for Golson and picked him off the for second time, as Niles Clark made an acrobatic tip and catch for the interception. However, the Seminoles stuck again with 5:17 left in the half. Cook found a hole in the defense and broke free for a 30-yard touchdown run to bring FSU within three points. Just before halftime, Roberto Aguayo made a 40-yard field goal to tie the game at 17.

After the break, freshman quarterback Sean Maguire entered the game for Florida State. He led the team down the field on his first drive, but stalled out in the red zone. Florida State settled for a field goal to take a, 20-17, lead. After a costly fumble on the Pack's next possession, FSU scored on a 27-yard pass from Maguire to Kermit Whitfield, which pushed to score to 27-17 with 7:57 remaining in the third. The Maguire-Whitfield combo struck again late in the fourth to extend Florida State's lead to 34-17. A late fumble recovery gave the Pack a chance to score as time ticked off the clock, but the FSU defense held Brissett on the one-yard line as time expired.
