HEAD COACH NATHAN DAVIS

Nathan Davis became Bucknell's 21st head men's basketball coach on Apr. 19, 2015. He took over the reins from Dave Paulsen, who accepted the head coaching position at George Mason following the 2014-15 season.

Davis is a familiar face to Bucknell fans, as he spent five years (2003-08) as the top assistant coach under Pat Flannery and was on the bench for the team's historic NCAA Tournament victories in 2005 and 2006.

After departing Bucknell in 2008, Davis spent one year as an assistant coach at Colgate before being named the head coach at his alma mater, Randolph-Macon. Davis achieved incredible success in his six seasons with the Yellow Jackets, posting a 141-39 (.783) record with three Old Dominion Athletic Conference championships, six NCAA Tournament berths, and a Division III Final Four appearance in 2009-10.

Last season, Davis' squad was ranked No. 1 in the country for three weeks during the season, went undefeated in league play and 28-3 overall, and advanced to the Elite Eight. The 28 victories tied the school record, and its 25-game winning streak set a program mark.

Following the 2014-15 campaign, Davis was selected as the ODAC Coach of the Year and the NABC South Region Coach of the Year, and he was a finalist for the Glenn Robinson National Coach of the Year Award. It was his second straight ODAC Coach of the Year honor.

A 1997 graduate of Randolph-Macon, Davis was a four-year letterman and two-year captain of the Yellow Jackets' men's basketball team. He was a two-time All-ODAC selection who finished his career with 983 points, and he was one of only five players in school history to record at least 500 rebounds, 300 assists and 100 steals.

Davis returned to Lewisburg with his wife, Miki, and his four children: nine-year-old son Kieran, seven-year-old daughter Hayden, and three-year-old twins Kellen and Ryan.

Head Coach: Nathan Davis (Randolph-Macon '97)

► John Griffin was an All-Patriot League guard for the Bison from 2004-08, and now he has returned to Bucknell as an assistant coach under Nathan Davis. ► Griffin was an integral part of Bucknell's 2005 and 2006 NCAA Tournament teams that won first-round games.

► He scored 1,084 points in his career. As a senior, Griffin earned First Team All-Patriot League honors after averaging 13.1 ppg. He ranks third on Bucknell's career list for 3-point field goals with 220, and his 127 games played was a school record at the time.

BISON NOTES &amp; NOTABLES

WITH A WIN OVER NORTH CAROLINA STATE, BUCKNELL WOULD ...

- ... snap a three-game losing streak.
- ... improve to 4-4 overall and 3-1 on the road this season.
- ... defeat an ACC team for the first time since the 1960-61 season (Virginia 99-81), and for only the third time ever.
- ... win a game in the state of North Carolina for the first time since 1958-59 (Bucknell went 2-1 at the Carrousel Tournament in Charlotte, defeating South Carolina and Pittsburgh and losing to St. Francis (Pa.)).

HEADLINES

► Bucknell has dropped three straight games after a 3-1 start, and now heads to North Carolina State for its second game of the season against an ACC opponent. The Bison fell to Wake Forest 90-82 at home on Nov. 15.

► After scoring 80 or more points in each of the first five games of the season for the first time in school history, the Bison have struggled offensively their last two outings against Penn State and Columbia. Bucknell was held to 29.8% shooting and a season-low 58 points at Penn State, and the Bison went 3-for-24 from 3-point range and shot 38.5% in Wednesday's 72-61 loss to Columbia. Still, the Bison rank No. 2 in the Patriot League in scoring at 78.6 points per game.

► Preseason All-Patriot League selection Chris Hass is Bucknell's leading scorer at 17.3 points per game, although he is looking to snap out of a 3-for-21 slump from 3-point range after a hot start. Hass had 26 against Wake Forest on Nov. 15 and has had at least 18 points in all but two games so far. Hass became Bucknell's 39th all-time 1,000-point scorer in Wednesday's game against Columbia.

► After being held to three points on opening night against Shenandoah, sophomore forward Zach Thomas has averaged 16.2 points and 6.3 rebounds per game since then. He has been the team's scoring leader in three of the last five games, including a season-high 20 against Siena.

► The Bison were picked to finish second (behind Lehigh) in the Patriot League in a preseason poll of the league's head coaches and sports information directors.

► A year ago, the Bison captured the outright Patriot League regular-season title for the fourth time in the last five years before being upset by Lafayette in the Patriot League Tournament semifinals.

► Bucknell lost four players from last year's squad: point guard Steven Kaspar (graduation), forward Joshea Singleton (graduation), forward Cory Starkey (graduation) and guard J.C. Show (transfer to Binghamton).

► The Bison returned all five starters and five of the top six scorers from last season. In 2015-16 Bucknell brings back 77.6% of its scoring and 74.6% of its rebounding. Heading the list of returnees are 2014-15 First Team All-Patriot League guard Chris Hass, and 2014-15 Patriot League All-Rookie Team center Nana Foulland.

► N.C. State is 4-3 on the season following a 66-59 home loss to Michigan on Tuesday as part of the ACC/Big Ten Challenge. Cat Barber, this week's ACC Player of the Week, leads the team in scoring at 20.3 ppg. Barber, who had 37 points against Winthrop last week, ranks second nationally in free throws made (70) and attempted (79). Caleb Martin (16.1), Maverick Rowan (13.1) and Abdul-Malik Abu (10.6) also score in double figures for the Wolfpack, who average 77.1 ppg.

HOW TO GET THE GAME

► The Bucknell-North Carolina State game will be televised on Fox Sports South and many other regional sports networks, including ROOT Sports Pittsburgh and YES Network in the local area. The game will also be streamed online on ESPN3.

► Live statistics can be viewed at GoPack.com.

BUCKNELL VS. N.C. STATE (AND THE VALVANO CONNECTION)

► Bucknell and North Carolina State will be meeting for the very first time on Saturday, however the teams do have one significant common link.

► Jim Valvano served as head coach at both schools. He was head coach at Bucknell for three seasons from 1972-75. He then spent five years at Iona before going to N.C. State in 1980. Three years later he led the Wolfpack to the 1983 national championship, and he later became a noted television personality on ESPN.

► This will be the first time Bucknell has faced a team coached by Mark Gottfried.

BUCKNELL VS. THE ACC

► Bucknell has an 11-50 (.180) record against the 15 teams that now make up the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Bison are 9-18 against Pittsburgh, 1-2 vs. Virginia, 1-9 vs. Syracuse, 0-7 vs. Wake Forest, 0-3 vs. Notre Dame, 0-3 vs. Duke, 0-2 vs. Boston College, 0-2 vs. Clemson, 0-2 vs. Miami, 0-1 vs. Virginia Tech and 0-1 vs. Florida State.

► Bucknell has two all-time victories against teams that were in the ACC at the time of the game. The Bison defeated Virginia 99-81 on Jan. 27, 1961 and South Carolina 67-65 on Dec. 30, 1958.

LAST TIME OUT

► Bucknell had a tough shooting night and fell 72-61 to Columbia on Wednesday night at Sojka Pavilion. The Bison shot 38.5% overall and hit just 3 of 24 from 3-point range. The Lions were also held under 40% (37.0), but they hit 11 of 26 from 3-point distance and outscored the Bison 33-9 from the arc.

► The Bison had balanced scoring, with six players scoring at least seven points each. Nana Foulland led the way with 13 points, while Zach Thomas recorded his second double-double of the season with 11 points and 10 rebounds.

► Chris Hass was held to a season-low nine points (4-10 FG, 0-4 3FG), but he did score his 1,000th career point on a layup late in the first half.

ABOUT LAST YEAR

► Despite playing with one of the youngest starting lineups in the league, Bucknell captured the Patriot League regular-season title with a 13-5 record (19-15 overall), finishing one game clear of runner-up Colgate. The Bison were upset by eventual-champion Lafayette in the Patriot League Tournament semifinals.

► In 2015 the Bison made their second appearance in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT), where they lost a close, entertaining game, 73-67, at top-seeded Temple.

► The members of the Class of 2015 — Steven Kaspar, Joshea Singleton and Cory Starkey — finished their careers with an 88-45 (.662) overall record and a Patriot League record of 48-14 (.774). The seniors won three regular-season PL titles and played in one NCAA Tournament and two NITs.

► Chris Hass led the team in scoring at 16.0 points per game. Hass earned First Team All-Patriot League and Second Team NABC All-District 13 honors. With Hass' selection, Bucknell has now claimed at least one first team all-conference player in 29 of the last 32 seasons.

► Hass' 82 made 3-pointers last season were third-most in school history. His 32 points against No. 12 Villanova were the most ever by a Bison player against a nationally ranked opponent. Hass had another 32-point game in a Patriot League Tournament victory over Holy Cross. That set a Bucknell record for points in a PL Tourney game.

► Center Nana Foulland earned a spot on the Patriot League All-Rookie Team after averaging 10.2 points and 5.4 rebounds

Kaspar played in 133 career games, one shy of Joe Willman's school record.

►The Bison received major production from the freshman class last season. The foursome of Foulland, Stephen Brown, J.C. Show and Zach Thomas accounted for 36.9% of the team's scoring. All four started games, and the Bison finished the year with three freshmen in the starting lineup and four in the rotation.

►Bucknell had a very deep team last season. The Bison bench averaged 25 points per game.

FOUR TITLES IN FIVE YEARS PUTS BISON IN ELITE COMPANY

RULES CHANGES

The NCAA Men's Basketball Rules Committee made more than 25 rules changes prior to this season. Here are some of the key changes:

►Shot clock reduced from 35 seconds to 30 seconds.

►Restricted area arc expanded from three feet to four feet.

►Reduction of 30-second timeouts from four to three; only two carry over to the second half.

►A 30-second timeout called within 30 seconds of a media timeout will become the media timeout.

►Coaches can call timeouts only during a dead ball situation.

►The 10-second backcourt count resets except when a defender causes the ball to go out of bounds; the offense retains possession on a held ball; or a technical foul is called on the offensive team. (A charged timeout by the offensive team results in a new 10-second count.)

►Removed the five-second closely guarded count on a dribble.

►Guarding in the post: Arm bar allowed in post area when offense has back to the basket with or without ball.

►Airborne shooter charge plays – cannot score basket; player-control foul.

►Removed the prohibition against dunking the ball while the ball is dead; teams will be allowed to dunk during pregame and halftime.

►Guarding exception: When a defensive player is clearly not going to contact a jump shooter (fly by), the offensive player cannot "seek out" the defender.

BINGO!

- The NCAA instituted the 3-point shot in 1986-87, and since then Bucknell has played 880 games.
- The Bison have failed to make at least one 3-pointer in only five of those 880 games (1/30/89 at Cornell, 1/16/93 vs. Lafayette, 2/5/00 at Navy, 12/22/00 at Penn State and 2/29/04 at Colgate).
- Bucknell has converted a trifecta in 361 straight games.

BISON SCHOLAR-ATHLETES

The Bucknell basketball program has also enjoyed tremendous success in the classroom in recent years. Among the highlights:

- The Bison men's basketball team combined for a 3.32 grade-point average in the spring 2015 semester, one of the highest in the country. Bucknell had combined GPAs over 3.0 in both semesters in 2014-15, the sixth straight year the team has accomplished that.
- The Bison men's basketball program posted a perfect score of 1,000 in the NCAA's Academic Performance Rate (APR) study, released last June. That earned the Bison program an NCAA APR Public Recognition Award. The APR awards have been given since 2007, and the Bison men's basketball program has been honored in all nine years.
- Bucknell has claimed 128 national Academic All-Americans since 1970, including nine from men's basketball.
- In the Patriot League's 25-year history, the men's basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year has come from Bucknell 10 times.
- In November the NCAA released its annual graduation rate report, and according to the U.S. Department of Education's standards, Bucknell ranked second nationally behind Stanford, with a four-class average of 90 percent for student-athletes entering between 2005-06 and 2008-09. Bucknell and Stanford tied for the national lead at 93 percent in the 2013 report, and Bucknell has ranked second in each of the last two years.

MUSCALA WITH ATLANTA HAWKS

- Mike Muscala '13 is now in his third season with the Atlanta Hawks. Muscala is the first Bison ever to play in an NBA game. In 2013 he became the third Bison to be selected in the NBA Draft, when he was taken 44th overall by the Dallas Mavericks and then traded on draft night to the Hawks.
- Muscala started out playing in Spain's top division in 2013-14, while the Hawks retained his draft rights. When the Hawks suffered some injuries in their frontcourt, they purchased Muscala's contract from Rio Natura Monbus Obradoiro, where he had been averaging 14.6 points and a league-high 7.8 rebounds per game.
- Muscala's NBA debut came on March 2, 2014 in Phoenix, and he recorded four points and five rebounds that night in a loss to the Suns. He went to log 3.8 points and 2.6 rebounds in 20 games, with a high of 15 points in a win over Milwaukee.
- In 2014-15, Muscala spent the entire year with the Hawks and was a big part of their rotation down the stretch. He averaged 4.9 points and 3.8 rebounds during the regular season. His biggest career highlight to date came in Game 3 of the Eastern Conference Semifinals against Washington, when he hit a game-tying 3-pointer with 0:14 left in the game to cap a huge comeback sparked by the reserve unit.

WHO'S GOT NEXT?

- Bucknell has just one more game — Tuesday at Northeast Conference preseason favorite Mount St. Mary's — before breaking for final exams.
- The Mount, coached by former Bison manager of basketball operations Jamion Christian, is off to a 1-6 start against a very difficult schedule. They picked up their first win of the season on Tuesday, an 81-56 rout of American.
