CARD FILE

■ UofL has won its first conference road game in each of the last eight seasons.

■ Damion Lee needs 15 points to reach 1,800 for his career. Trey Lewis needs 23 points for 1,300 career points.

■ Louisville's 135 victories over the last five years are the second-most wins in the nation in that stretch. Louisville and Wichita State are the only schools in the nation to win 30 games in three of the last four seasons.

■ UofL leads the nation in scoring margin (+26.3) and rebounding margin (+13.9), is second in scoring defense (57.4), and fourth in field goal percentage defense (.363).

■ Louisville is ninth in the nation in field goal percentage (.508). UofL has shot above 50 percent in nine of its 14 games. The Cards shot 50 percent or above on eight occasions all last season. UofL is 24th nationally in scoring (83.6 ppg).

■ Louisville has opened with at least a 12-2 record through 14 games for the sixth straight season.

■ UofL has a 28-13 record during the month of January over the last five years, including a 12-4 record in the last three years.

■ Louisville has a 60-34 record over the last 10 years on its opponents' home court.

■ UofL has a 42-13 record in conference games over the past four seasons.

■ Damion Lee has been the Cardinals' top scorer in nine of 14 games this season. He is among the ACC leaders in scoring (17.9, 4th), steals (1.6, 5th) and free throw percentage (.892, 2nd).

■ About NC State — NC State (10-4, 0-1) has won six of its last seven games and eight of its last 10, but fell 73-68 in overtime at Virginia Tech on Jan. 2 in its ACC opener as junior guard Anthony "Cat" Barber scored 21 points and grabbed seven rebounds to lead the Wolfpack.

Barber leads the ACC and is 10th in the nation in scoring, averaging 22.9 points. He passed the 1,000-point career scoring mark on Dec. 22. Barber leads the ACC in minutes (38.9 minutes per game), is fourth in assists (4.9), sixth in free throw percentage (.847) and 10th in assist-turnover ratio (2.38). Junior forward Beejay Anya leads the ACC and is seventh nationally in blocked shots (3.1). Sophomore guard Caleb Martin is fifth in the ACC in three-pointers (35, 2.5 per game). Ranked 17th nationally in turnovers per game (10.2) and 32nd in the nation in rebounding margin (+7.0), NC State is 91st in the ratings percentage index (RPI) and 76th in the Sagarin Ratings through Jan. 3.

Louisville is tied 9-9 in its series against NC State, splitting the two meetings last season. The Wolfpack won 74-65 in the KFC Yum! Center (2-14-15) as Chris Jones led UofL with 20 points, while the Cardinals won 75-65 in the NCAA East Region semifinals in Syracuse, N.Y. (3-27-15) as Montrezl Harrell led UofL with 24 points and Terry Rozier added 17 points and a career-high 14 rebounds.

Until last year's matchup, it had been 27 years since the teams had last played (1988). NC State has won four of the last six. NC State was the last team to beat Louisville in 1986 before the Cardinals won their last 17 games to win the NCAA Championship.

Louisville beat Murray State 81-72 in Freedom Hall on Dec. 20, 1995 when NC State coach Mark Gottfried was there in his first year as a head coach; and split two games against Alabama in 1999 and 2000 when Gottfried coached there. Last year's matchups were the first time UofL Coach Rick Pitino had faced an NC State team.

Louisville will wear white uniforms for this road game to allow NC State to wear special black uniforms at home.

■ Five-League Champs -- UofL Coach Rick Pitino is the only coach to win both regular season and tournament championships in five different conferences, three of which have come at Louisville (ECAC North Atlantic, Southeastern, Conference USA, Big East, American).

■ Good Start — Louisville has opened with at least a 12-2 record through 14 games for the sixth straight season. The Cards have won at least 13 games in their first 15 outings in four of the last five years.

■ Impressive Academic Performance -- While the University of Louisville men's basketball team has performed well on the court, the Cardinals have excelled in the classroom as well. The team produced a collective 3.26 grade point average for 2014-15, just below its record 3.40 GPA from the previous season. Louisville has received an NCAA Public Recognition Award in 2013 and 2014 for ranking among the top 10 percent in men's basketball in the Academic Progress Rate, which measures academic eligibility, retention and graduation for student-athletes. The Cardinals had a perfect 1000 APR in the most recent four-year period, all while winning a combined 121 games — the second-most in the nation in that stretch — and the Cardinals won the 2013 NCAA Championship and reached the 2012 Final Four.

A total of 15 of 16 Cardinals earned a 3.0 or better for the 2014 fall semester, including seven with a 3.4 or above. The men's basketball team has been around a collective 3.0 GPA for 14 consecutive semesters. Louisville placed a league-high seven individuals on the 21-member 2015 ACC All-Academic Team. Prior to entering the ACC, UofL's men's basketball team earned its league's last four Team Academic Excellence Awards, which recognized the highest collective grade-point averages in each of the 23 conference sports (2014 American Athletic Conference, 2011-13 Big East).

■ Challenging Schedule — Three participants from the 2015 NCAA Final Four are among a challenging schedule that UofL will face this season. Louisville has played a schedule ranked among the top 16 toughest by the ratings percent index (RPI) in seven of the last eight seasons. Sixteen of the Cards' 31 games will be played against teams that participated in post-season competition last season, including 10 from the 2015 NCAA Tournament. Nineteen of the Cardinals' games will be played against teams that won at least 17 games last season.

Eleven of Louisville's 31 games this season will be against teams that were ranked among the nation's top 25 or were receiving votes in the preseason USA Today coaches poll, including six games among teams in the top six (1 North Carolina, 1 Kentucky, 4 Duke twice, 6 Virginia twice, 13 Michigan State, 18 Notre Dame; receiving votes: NC State, Florida State, Miami). Four of the top 20 teams in the preseason poll hail from the ACC, with four more among those receiving votes (including Louisville). The two teams that shared the preseason top ranking are among the Cardinals' foes.

■ Anniversary Year for Two Championship teams — The 2015-16 season marks notable anniversaries for two of Louisville's national championship teams. It is the 30th anniversary for UofL's 1986 NCAA Championship team (32-7 record), which was guided by future Hall of Fame Coach Denny Crum and featured four starters that currently rank among the top 11 scorers all-time at UofL: Pervis Ellison (2,143 career points), Milt Wagner (1,836), Herbert Crook (1,723) and Billy Thompson (1,685); starting guard Jeff Hall was also a career 1,000-point scorer (1,294). Louisville defeated Duke 72-69 in the 1986 title game and Ellison became the second freshman in NCAA history to be named the Most Outstanding Player after producing 25 points and 11 rebounds against the Blue Devils. This season also marks the 60th anniversary of the Cardinals' 1956 National Invitation Tournament title. The 1956 NIT Champions, which UofL Coach Peck Hickman had directed to a No. 6 national ranking entering the tournament, beat third-ranked Dayton 93-80 in the title game to cap a 26-3 season. Former U of L All-America Charlie Tyra was honored as the Most Valuable Player of the 1956 NIT, scoring 29 points against St. Joseph's in the national semifinal.

■ Non-Conference Success -- Louisville has a 190-44 record (.812) against non-conference opponents in Coach Rick Pitino's 15 seasons (includes post-season). The Cardinals are 131-10 at home in regular season non-conference games under Pitino, including a 56-3 mark over the last six seasons in the KFC Yum! Center.

■ Pitino Fourth in Wins Through 31 Seasons -- UofL Coach Rick Pitino is fourth in most career coaching victories through 31 seasons, passing Jerry Tarkanian on Dec. 16. Pitino needs six victories to add to his 734 current total to tie him for third on the list with Dean Smith (North Carolina).

HEAD COACH RICK PITINO

In his 31st season as a collegiate head coach and 15th at Louisville, UofL Coach Rick Pitino has compiled a 734-256 overall record (380-128 at UofL). A member of the Naismith Memorial

Basketball Hall of Fame, he is the first coach to take three different schools to the NCAA Final Four -- including his 2005, 2012 and 2013 Cardinal teams -- and the first to win an NCAA Championship at two different schools after guiding Louisville to the 2013 NCAA title. Among active coaches, Pitino (Massachusetts '74) has the second-highest winning percentage in NCAA Tournament games (.746 winning percentage, 53-18 record in 20 NCAA tournament appearances) and his overall .741 winning percentage ranks him 14th among active coaches. He guided Kentucky to three NCAA Final Four appearances in eight seasons (1989-97), winning the 1996 NCAA Championship and reaching the national title game in 1997. He has also served as head coach at Providence College (1985-87, 1987 Final Four), Boston University (1978-83), Hawaii (last six games in 1975-76) as well as the NBA New York Knicks (1987-89) and Boston Celtics (1997-2001).

■ Three With 375 — Louisville is the only NCAA Division I men's basketball program to have three different coaches with at least 375 victories at the school. Current Cards' Coach Rick Pitino has won 380 games in his 15th season at UofL, his predecessor Denny Crum won 675 games in 30 years (1971-2001) and Bernard "Peck" Hickman won 443 in his 23 years guiding the Cardinals (1944-67). Kansas can join that list when Bill Self wins his 375th game at Kansas (365) as Phog Allen (590) and Roy Williams (418) have at least 375 wins there (through Jan. 3).

■ Two Cards in International Competition -- Two UofL players competed in international events during the summer. Sophomore forward/center Chinanu Onuaku won a gold medal as a member of the 2015 USA Basketball Men's U19 World Championship Team, while junior center Mangok Mathiang competed with Australia in the 2015 World University Games.

In seven games during the event played June 27-July 5 in Heraklion, Crete, Greece, Onuaku started six games and averaged 4.6 points, 5.0 rebounds, hit 13-of-20 field goals (.650) and added 10 steals and a team-high 12 blocked shots while averaging 16 minutes a game for the deep USA squad, coached by Arizona's Sean Miller. Onuaku's 1.7 blocked shots were the sixth-most in the 16-team event. His team was named the co-2015 USA Basketball Team of the Year.

Mathiang led the 23-team World University Games in rebounding and finished tied for eighth in scoring, producing five double-doubles. He started all eight games for Australia, averaging 13.5 points and 10.3 rebounds while shooting 56.1 percent from the field (46-of-82, fourth-best in the event) and adding seven blocked shots. His top scoring effort was 23 points against Chinese Taipei and his best rebounding game was 17 against the home nation Korea. The USA won the gold medal.

Australia (5-3) finished 10th in the event played in Gwangju, South Korea July 4-13. Mathiang was born in Sudan, Africa, but lived in Melbourne, Australia before moving to the United States in 2010 to attend prep school.

In addition to the players, UofL's Rick Pitino coached the Puerto Rico National Team in the summer of 2015 in three international competitions. He guided an injury depleted Puerto Rico team to a fifth-place finish in the 2015 FIBA Americas tournament, keeping hopes alive for Olympic qualification.

The participation by both players, as well as Pitino's coaching stint with the Puerto Rico national team, were also part of the ACC Worldwide initiative that seeks to further the conference's member institutions internationally through promotion, marketing and athletic competition.

■ Cardinals Visited Puerto Rico -- The Cardinals gained valuable experience with its 10 days of practice and series of seven games over five days against the Puerto Rico National Team and Junior Team during their Aug. 10-17 visit to Puerto Rico. The competition coincided with UofL Coach Rick Pitino's decision to serve as the head coach of the Puerto Rico basketball team in two international events this summer. The opportunity to face off against the Puerto Rican teams was among the top reasons that Pitino took the position. UofL attained a waiver to allow the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, a United States territory, to serve as the destination for the team's foreign trip as Pitino was serving as head coach of the Puerto Rico National Team.

Louisville recently visited Puerto Rico for the 2014 Armed Forces Classic, facing Minnesota in Aguadilla, Puerto Rico for the opening game last season in a hangar at the Coast Guard's US Air Station Borinquen.

■ Two NBA Draft Picks -- A pair of UofL underclassmen were selected in the 2015 NBA Draft as guard Terry Rozier was selected in the first round by the Boston Celtics as the 16th overall pick, while forward Montrezl Harrell was taken in the second round by the Houston Rockets as the 32nd selection. Rozier left UofL following his sophomore year while Harrell played three seasons with the Cardinals.

A total of 68 former Louisville players have been selected in the NBA Draft, including five in the last three years. Currently with the Memphis Grizzlies, Russ Smith was selected by the Philadelphia 76ers in the second round of the 2014 NBA Draft with the 47th overall pick, and was subsequently traded to the New Orleans Pelicans. Gorgui Dieng was a first-round selection and the 21st overall pick by the Utah Jazz in 2013, with his rights subsequently traded to the Minnesota Timberwolves, where he has played the last two seasons. Peyton Siva was a second round choice of the Detroit Pistons in 2013 with the 56th pick overall.

Louisville has produced 22 first-round NBA Draft choices, including 11 in the top ten and five among the top three picks (Pervis Ellison first in 1989; Wes Unseld second in 1968; Darrell Griffith second in 1980; Charlie Tyra second in 1957; Rodney McCray third in 1983).

In conference games overall, Louisville had the most Big East Conference victories over its eight years in that league during the regular season (from 2005 to 2013). Louisville had a 95-45 Big East record in league victories during the regular season, just ahead of Syracuse and Pittsburgh (both at 92-48). Louisville finished fourth in its first year in the ACC with a 12-6 league record.

■ Cards Will Host 2016 NCAA Regional — The University of Louisville will serve as the host institution for the South Regional of the 2016 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship to be played March 24 and 26, 2016 at the KFC Yum! Center. It is the first time in which Louisville has served as the site for an NCAA Regional since 1987, when a Rick Pitino coached Providence squad beat Georgetown in the Southeast Regional Championship in Louisville's Freedom Hall to move on to the Final Four. UofL and the KFC Yum! Center also served as host for the Second and Third Rounds of the 2015 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship on March 19 and 21, 2015 at the KFC Yum! Center.

■ Redshirt Planned for McMahon -- A redshirt season is planned for freshman guard Ryan McMahon. Louisville has been the top market each of the last 13 years, averaging a 5.9 rating for the 2014-15 season. The remaining top 10 was Raleigh-Durham (2.7), Kansas City (2.4), Columbus (2.1), Cincinnati (1.9), Dayton (1.9) Indianapolis (1.8), Charlotte (1.8) and Memphis (1.8). The Cardinals' NCAA Sweet 16 game against Kentucky in 2014 drew a 51.5 rating and 73 share, making it the second highest-rated event in Louisville television history. Louisville's 2013 NCAA Championship game against Michigan is the top-rated television event all-time in the Louisville market.

■ Sixth Season in KFC Yum! Center -- This is Louisville's sixth season in the spectacular KFC Yum! Center, located on the banks of the Ohio River in downtown Louisville. The Cardinals had previously played basketball for 54 years in Freedom Hall (1956-2010). The 22,000-seat multi-purpose arena was built at a cost of $238 million and includes 71 luxury suites, 62 four- or six-seat premium boxes, over 2,000 side-court club seats and four party suites with a seating capacity of 32 each.

UofL's men's and women's teams have permanent locker rooms. There are five additional team locker rooms, two officials locker rooms, five star dressing rooms, a full-function media work room and a full-sized basketball practice court on the event level. The seven levels of the arena (including the upper catwalk) include a collective 721,762 square feet, or roughly the area of 13 football fields.

After passing through the one and a half acre landscaped entry plaza that features a basketball-themed fountain, entering fans can visit the 2,500-square foot U of L adidas store, the 3,000-square foot U of L Hall of Honor, or head to their seats using one of the eight escalators or seven elevators within the building.

The 7,000-square foot main concourse restaurant overlooks the river and a main concourse sports bar has views directly into the arena bowl. Two 4,000-square foot club lounges on the event level, as well as the terrace club and premium box lounges, provide amenities for their respective patrons. The KFC Yum! Center served as the site for the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament second and third rounds in 2012 and 2015, will be the site for the South Regional in March 2016 and was the site for the 2012 NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship on December 13 and 15.

Cardinals in the NCAA Tournament

■ Louisville made its 41st NCAA Tournament appearance in 2015. The Cardinals have reached the NCAA Tournament 32 of the last 39 years (nine straight, 12 of the last 13, 14 of the last 17 years, and 20 of last 24). The Cards have reached the Sweet 16 on 21 occasions (four straight) and have advanced to the Elite Eight five of the last eight seasons. Louisville is sixth in tournament victories (75) and is fifth in tournament appearances (41). UofL has a 75-42 overall NCAA Tournament record, reaching the Final Four 10 times.
