NC STATE VS. SYRACUSE

Saturday's meeting will mark the fourth time the Pack and the Orange have met as Atlantic Coast Conference foes and the 10th meeting overall in the series. NC State posts a 8-1 record against Syracuse, with the only loss coming in the 2013 game.

The Wolfpack posts a 4-0 mark at Syracuse, 4`
-1 in Raleigh.

The 1997 contest, played in the Carrier Dome, was literally one for the record book. That year, the unranked Pack took the No. 13 Orange into overtime, eking out a 32-31 victory. That contest was the first overtime game in ACC history.

In 2014, the Wolfpack also had a big win at the Carrier Dome, earning the first ACC victory under Dave Doeren. The Wolfpack won that contest 24-17 with the winning TD a 82-yard pick six by DE Pharoah McKever.

CLOSE CALLS FOR WOLFPACK

NC State has suffered its share of heartbreak in 2016. Four of the Wolfpack's five losses have been by seven points or less, two have been by four points or less and one went into overtime.

Since the beginning of ACC play in 1953, only four other Wolfpack squads have suffered more one-score losses:

1.	2006	7
2.	1959	6
	1958	6
4.	1984	5
5.	2016	4

STOPPING THE RUN

NC State has put together one of the most solid run defenses in school history in 2016. If the season ended today, the 107.3 yards allowed on the ground would rank as the fifth-best mark by a Wolfpack squad since 1953.

Rk	Year	Rushing Yards Allowed/Game
1.	1953	98.3
2.	2004	102.4
3.	1988	103.6
4.	2005	107.2
5.	2016	107.3

STOPPING THE RUN, Part 2
The Wolfpack rush defense mark of 107.3 yard allowed per game ranks 9th in the FBS (3rd in the ACC).

Four 2016 opponents have been held to less than 70 rushing yards: William & Mary, Wake Forest, Notre Dame and Florida State.

The 163 rushing yards by Louisville was the most against the Wolfpack all season at that time. However, that mark was 142.7 yards less that what the Cardinals were averaging on the ground heading into the contest (305.7 rushing ypg).

In the past three years combined, NC State has held 13 opponents to less than 70 rushing yards - four this year, four in 2015 and a school-record five in 2014.

RECEIVERS ROLL
In 2015, wide receivers accounted for just 46% of the Wolfpack's total receptions (114/246). This season, the Wolfpack's young wideouts are playing a bigger role in the passing game.

Heading into Game 10, 59% of the team's receptions have had wide receivers as the target. Although the team is still led in receiving by TE/FB Jaylen Samuels (37-356), Nyheim Hines has moved into 2nd place with 31 grabs and wide receivers have caught 111 of 187 passes for the season.

Almost half of the Wolfpack's 114 receptions by wide receivers last season (53) were caught by players who are not seeing action in 2016. Senior Jumichael Ramos was the second-leading receiver on the team last year (leading all WRs) with 34 grabs. He underwent knee surgery this summer and will redshirt this year.

Johnathan Alston had 18 receptions last season before moving to cornerback during spring drills.

DAYES CLOSES IN ON 1,000 YARDS
Heading into Game 10, senior running back Matt Dayes is just 169 yards from becoming the Wolfpack first 1,000 yard rusher since T.A. McClendon in 2002. He would be only the 8th player in school history to reach that goal and it would mark only the 11th time in school history.

Dayes currently ranks 3rd in the ACC in rushing with 92.3 yards per game. He has rushed for over 100 yards in six different contests this season and

An impressive 53% (442 of 831) of his rushing yards have come from yards after contact in 2016.

Dayes played just a quarter of the game at Louisville after getting banged up and had just 45 rushing yards versus BC when the Pack couldn't establish a running game. He hadn't played

#CF50

The Wolfpack's game against Notre Dame on Oct. 8 marked 50 years to the day since the first game was played in Carter-Finley Stadium in 1966. NC State is celebrating the anniversary of this special place throughout the 2016 season.

KNOCK ON WOOD

NC State has been virtually injury free in 2016, with only two starters missing a total of two games due to injury in the first seven games. RT Will Richardson missed the Louisville contest after being ill, while wide receiver Nyheim Hines missed the Old Dominion game with an injury earlier this year.

Only one season-ending injury has occurred during the season this year: running back Johnny Frasier will have shoulder surgery this week and will not return.

100-YARD CLUB

Only one FBS school has had more individual players turn in 100-yard receiving games than NC State. The Wolfpack has had four different players turn in five 100-yard games in 2016: Stephen Louis (2), Nyheim Hines (1), Bra'Lon Cherry (1), Jaylen Samuels (1).

Here's a look at where the Pack ranks nationally in individual 100-yard receivers this season:

1.	Missouri	6
2.	NC State	4
	Syracuse	4
	Colorado	4
	Troy	4
	Purdue	4
	Florida State	4

This marks only the third time in school history that the Wolfpack has had four different players turn in 100-yard receiving games:

2003 Jerricho Cotchery, Tramain Hall, Sterling Hicks, T.A. McClendon
2012 Tobais Palmer, Quintin Payton, Bryan Underwood, Mario Carter
2016 Stephen Louis, Nyheim Hines, Bra'Lon Cherry, Jaylen Samuels.

GOING DEEP

When you look at the "long" column in the NC State receiving stats, you see some pretty big numbers. Stephen Louis - long of 80 yards. Bra'Lon Cherry - long of 79 yards. Maurice Trowell - long of 70 yards.

For the first time in school history, the Wolfpack has three different receivers with catches of 70+ yards in the same season. No other ACC school has more than 2 receivers with catches of 70+ yards in 2016.

RECOVERY TEAM

NC State leads the ACC and ranks 5th in the FBS in recovered fumbles this season with 10. The Wolfpack has forced 14 fumbles in 2016.

WOLFPACK PLAYS DEFENSIVE TRIFECTA

The Boston College game on 10/29 marked the third straight that NC State played against a team ranked in the top 11 nationally in total defense.

The Eagles ranked 7th in the FBS in total defense prior to the contest vs. the Wolfpack, allowing just 292.9 yards per game. Louisville entered its game with the Pack ranked 11th in that category, allowing 309.8 ypg. Three weeks ago, Clemson was ranked 9th in total defense, giving up 282.2 ypg before the Wolfpack visited Death Valley and took the TIgers to overtime.

The Wolfpack gained 100+ yards more than what Clemson's defense was allowing and passed for more than Clemson and Louisville's defense had averaged allowed heading into the game.

Here's a look at where those three opponents have ranked and the yards allowed entering the game vs. NC State and the yards gained by the Wolfpack:

Category	Opponent	FBS Rk.	Previous Yds Allowed	NC State Yds Gained
Total Defense	Clemson	9th	282.2	397
	Louisville	11th	309.8	250
	Boston College	7th	292.9	338
Pass Defense	Clemson	6th	149.0	269
	Louisville	17th	176.7	236
	Boston College	22nd	190.3	307

JONES LEADS PACK

Free safety Josh Jones is having one of the best years of any defender in the ACC. The junior, who moved from strong safety prior to this season, leads the team in tackles with 84 and his 9.3 stops per game is the fourth-best mark in the ACC. He ranks fourth in the league in solo tackles with 5.3 per game - the 26th-best mark in the FBS.

Jones has also picked off two passes this season, and caused and recovered a fumble. His 15 tackles against Boston College was the most for a Pack player since 2012.

STARTING LINE(ups)

In the first six games of 2016, the Wolfpack started the same five players on the offensive line and the same four players on the defensive line in every game. That was the most consistent the Wolfpack had been in terms of starting line (offensive and defensive) lineups under Dave Doeren.

Last season and in Doeren's first year in 2013, NC State used three different OLine combos in the first six games, while in 2014 the Pack used a pair. The d-line had two different lineups in its first six games of 2015, five in its first six games of 2014 and four in 2013.

The Louisville contest marked the first time this season that the lineups had been shaken up. On offense, starting right tackle Will Richardson missed the game after suffering from migraine headaches all week and Terronne Prescod started in his place - his first career start. On defense, Darian Roseboro got the nod in place of Kentavius Street at end - marking his first career start as well.

THE WRIGHT STUFF

Throughout his career, nickel Dravious Wright has been a disruptive force on defense and special teams. The senior enters game 10 of his senior season ranked 5th in the FBS (3rd in the ACC) in forced fumbles, with four this season. He had a pair of FF in the overtime loss at No. 3 Clemson.

Wright has recovered two opponent miscues in 2016, tied (with three of his teammates) for the 11th-best mark in the FBS. He's also broken up four passes.

For his career, Wright has forced 7 fumbles - tied as the sixth-best mark in school history.

Head coach Dave Doeren calls Wright the best 'gunner' he's ever coached on special teams.

#STATEMENT

It means something different to everyone.

To us at NC State, it means an opportunity to share the passion, loyalty, history, tradition, and multitude of experiences on and off the field that are completely unique to the Wolfpack Nation.

It's true to our DNA and who we are. It's a student-athlete who does exceptional things here on or off the field, graduates, and uses those experiences to accomplish amazing things when he or she leaves. It's every bit as much about a loyal fan base that sticks with us through thick and thin.

The rationale and meaning behind it is simple:

- To help us adequately celebrate what's exceptional about NC State athletics, both on and off the field of play
- To take a simple concept and infuse deep emotional connection and meaning
- To provide a platform that strikes a balance between meaningful tradition and modern day relevance

BAND OF BROTHERS

One of the biggest question marks for the Wolfpack heading into the 2016 season was the offensive line. That group had to rebuild after three three-year starters from 2015 completed their eligibility: All-American tackle Joe Thuney (who is starting for the New England Patriots), guard Alex Barr and center Quinton Schooley.

First-year o-line coach Dwayne Ledford, also was without returning starters Tony Adams (injury) and Will Richardson (suspension) during the spring and had only four linemen healthy during spring drills.

But that unit, named the "Band of Brothers" by Ledford, has solidified into something special and the offensive line currently ranks 4th in the ACC and 27th in the FBS in sacks allowed - giving up just 14 this season

It's been 10 years since a Wolfpack line gave up less than 20 sacks in a season (19 in 2006).

HINES ON THE CATCH

Nyheim Hines has caught first in the Wolfpack last two outings, tallying 17 catches for 176 yards in the games versus Boston College and Florida State combined.

His 11 catches versus the Seminoles was the most for a Pack player this season and ties as the fifth-highest total in school history and his 124 yards was the second-highest for a Pack player this season.

Hines has moved into second on the team in catches with 31 - most for a wide receiver.

HINES ON THE RETURN

Just 21 games into his Wolfpack career, sophomore wide receiver/returner Nyheim Hines is already listed in the NC State career record books. The Garner native already ranks fifth in school history with 1,428 career kickoff return yards and his 25.0 KOR average ranks 8th in the Wolfpack career record books.

In the Oct. 22 loss at No. 7 Louisville, Hines tallied eight returns for 189 yards - the third-highest single-game tally in school history. He also holds the No. 6 single-game mark, as he had 169 yards last year against the Cardinals.

Hines was an honorable mention All-ACC performer as a specialist in 2015 after posting the fourth-best single season KOR yardage mark in school history (920). He also earned freshman All-America honors and was an outdoor track All-American in the 4x100m relay.

OVERTIME HEARTBREAKER

The Wolfpack came as close to an upset as possible on Oct. 15 at No. 3 Clemson, taking the defending ACC Champion and FBS runnerup into overtime. NC State's defense was stellar in the contest, forcing the Tigers into four turnovers, no plays over 29 yards and only two plays over 20 yards.

It marked the Wolfpack's first overtime game since 2010. NC State now posts an 8-6 mark in overtime games dating back to 1997.

500 YARDS

NC State has posted over 500 yards in total offense in three games in 2016. In 2015, the Wolfpack gained 500+ yards three times the entire season, did so just twice in 2014 and just once in 2013. The Wolfpack has had more 500-yard offense games in entire seasons that this year's 9-game total just twice: 2012 (four) and 2003 (five).

Prior to this season under new offensive coordinator Eliah Drinkwitz, the Pack had never posted 500+ yard outputs in three of its first four games. The most was two of the first four in 1998.

NO TOs

The 2015 Wolfpack set a school record for fewest turnovers, losing the ball on an interception or fumble just 13 times. This season, the Pack was continuing that stingy patttern, with just 5 in the first five games, before turning it over 8 times in the next three contests. Playing three of the nation's top 11 defenses in a row definitely had some effect on that number and the Wolfpack had just one turnover (an INT) against Florida State.

NC State has lost just five fumbles in 2016 - the 3rd-best mark in the ACC

The six interceptions thrown by quarterback Jacoby Brissett (now with the New England Patriots) last season tied as the second-lowest mark since 1953, while the seven fumbles lost in 2015 was also one of the lowest marks in school history.

Since 1953, only seven Wolfpack squads have posted single-digit totals in both interceptions and fumbles lost. In the past 48 years (since 1967), only four teams have accomplished that mark, and two of those squads were coached by Dave Doeren.

Here's a look at the squads that have posted single-digit totals in INTs and fumbles since 1953:

Year	Int	Fumbles Lost	Total Turnovers
2016	9	5	14
2015	6	7	13
2014	6	9	15
2001	7	6	13
1991	9	8	17
1967	6	8	14

NO RETURNS

In 2015, the opponent's punt return yardage was the lowest in school history (52) and the Wolfpack ranked eighth in the FBS in punt return defense. The Wolfpack has ranked in the top five in the ACC in kickoff return defense each of the past two seasons.

This season, the Pack has been even more solid on its punt return defense. Opponents have returned just four punts against the Pack this season for a gain of 29 total yards.

FAST START FOR FINLEY

With three regular season games left to play, QB Ryan Finley has already posted the 16th-best single-season passing yardage total in school history. He's tied for 17th with 14 touchdown passes.

Heading into the game against No. 3 Clemson on Oct. 15, Finley boasted the nation's third-longest interception-free streak. Prior to a second-quarter pick, the Phoenix, Az., native had thrown 139 passes this season without an INT and had a streak of 146 attempts without a pick dating back to last season at Boise State.

In the last 37 seasons (since 1980), no other Wolfpack QB had attempted more passes before throwing his first interception as a starter at NC State.

HARMON(Y)

True freshman wide receiver Kelvin Harmon has only caught 18 balls this season, but his catches have been memorable ones.

Almost a quarter of his total catches (4-18) have been for touchdowns and he has more TD receptions than any Wolfpack wideout (TE/FB Jaylen Samuels, the team's leading receiver, also has four TD catches).

The Palmyra, N.J., native has started two games in 2016, more than any other true or redshirt freshman. True freshman Thaddeus Moss (TE/FB) has one start, while RS-freshman Jarius Morehead (SS) started one contest as well.

J-MAC IMPACT

Although he may not have won the starting quarterback job, no player on the team has made more of his limited snaps than redshirt sophomore Jalan McClendon.

McClendon didn't score a point or throw a TD in the win over Notre Dame, but he may have been the player of the game for the Wolfpack (he was given a game ball by the team following the game).

In what head coach Dave Doeren called the "monsoon package," McClendon came in at QB in the 3rd quarter and led the Wolfpack down the field on a drive that ate up 7:49 minutes. Although the drive did not end in a score (the Pack turned the ball over on downs after getting to the ND 2), he carried the ball 8 times for 51 yards on the drive and ended up with 56 yards on 10 carries for the game - a 5.6 yard avearge.

In the last five contests combined, McClendon has been in for 40 total snaps. In those plays, he's rushed for 57 yards and two TDs on 14 carries and passed 5-10 for 45 yards, a touchdown and an INT.

In the win against Old Dominion, McClendon was in for exactly one snap in each of the first three quarters. Here's a look at those results:

1st quarter	3&G	1	1 yard TD rush
2nd quarter	2&G	3	3 yard TD rush
3rd quarter	3&G	3	3 yard TD pass to Thad Moss

DEFENSIVE IMPROVEMENT

The Wolfpack defense has shown steady improvement since Dave Doeren was named head coach in December of 2012. He inherited a team that had ranked 68th in the NCAA in total defense, giving up over 400 yards game. In 2013, NC State improved its national ranking (FBS) to 61st, but still gave up 399.4 yards per contest. Prior to 2014, the Wolfpack switched to a 4-2-5 alignment and improved to a No. 46 total defense ranking, allowing 373.1 yards per game.

Last season, that ranking was up to 29th, as the Pack gave up 350.7 yards per game. The Wolfpack's passing yards allowed (2,642) in 2015 was the lowest total in 10 years.

Year	FBS Rank	Yards Allowed
2012	68th	404.7
2013	61st	399.4
2014	46th	373.1
2015	29th	350.7
2016	26th	358.4

SUPER SCORING DUO

Senior RB Matt Dayes ranks fourth in school history with 34 career touchdowns. Junior TE/FB Jaylen Samuels now ranks 7th in the career record book with 26 career TDs. With 59 combined career scores, the duo is the fourth-most prolific touchdown scoring duo in school history with 2/3 of a season left to play together.

Here's a glance at the most prolific scoring duos in school history:

Players	Total TDs	Years played together
Ted Brown/Scott Smith	69	1977-78

REDEFINED D-LINE

The strongest unit on the field for the Wolfpack, in terms of depth and talent, could be the defensive line. All four starters on the line had started multiple games prior to this season, while all four backups are also experienced (even redshirt freshman James Smith-Williams played

The Wolfpack currently ranks 12th in the FBS in tackles for loss with 58 in nine games. Of those, 39.5 have come from d-linemen. This year, the line used the offseason to get stronger and faster.

THE SWISS ARMY KNIFE

Jaylen Samuels SHOULD have been on everybody's preseason All-America team. Problem is, nobody knew where to list him. Called "the Swiss Army Knife" by one media outlet, he is a weapon wherever he lines up - at tight end, in the backfield or at wide receiver. He scored seven receiving touchdowns and rushed for nine scores last season.

Samuel is the Wolfpack's leading receiver with 37 catches this season and posted his first 100-yard game with 8 grabs at No. 3 Clemson on Oct. 22.

Nine games into his junior season, "JaySam" ranks 7th in school history with 26 career touchdowns. His 18 TDs in 2015 (9 rushing, 7 receiving) tied with Torry Holt (1998) as the third-best single-season mark in school history and were the most ever for a Wolfpack sophomore.

Samuels, who was named a first-team All-ACC and third-team All-American performer as a tight end last season, was the team's leading receiver and ranked third in rushing a year ago and his 65 receptions ranked as the fifth-highest single season total in school history. In the past two seasons, he ranks seventh in the FBS in receptions by a TE.

In 2016, Samuels has the honor of wearing the No. 1 jersey for the Wolfpack. Head coach Dave Doeren says that because Samuels "shows up every day with the same work ethic, same effort, same attitude and same results," he recommended to his Leadership Council that he would be the player most deserving of that honor.

SELLING OUT

Before the 2016 calendar even turned to July, season tickets and Mini-Packs at NC State had already sold out. Wolfpack Nation purchased the highest number of season tickets in program history - over 36,000 - with over 3,000 new season tickets being sold.

EXPERIENCE DOMINATES DEPTH

For the first time in three seasons, there are no freshmen or redshirt freshmen listed as starters on the depth chart. Instead, the Wolfpack's depth chart is dominated sophomore (6) and junior (12) starters.

The defense is especially experienced, with nine junior starters and two seniors. Every defensive starter in 2016 had starting experience prior to this season.

WOLFPACK STORYLINES

Dave Doeren, Charlie Partridge (FAU) and Chris Ash (Rutgers) were once roommates at Drake. Now they're all head coached.

315 lb. offensive guard Tony Adams played competitive tennis all of his life before coming to NC State. He picked up the sport at the age of 2! His father, Carl Adams, was the head wrestling coach at Boston University for 34 years.

OG Garrett Bradbury's father Tim played college football at Eastern Washington. He was a tight end and his quarterback was current Florida head coach Jim McElwain.

Junior defensive end Bradley Chubb's brother Brandon was a starting linebacker at Wake Forest and now plays for the LA Rams. His cousin Nik plays RB at Georgia.

Freshman punter A.J. Cole III has spent his last three spring breaks on a mission trip to Kenya. He is sponsoring a young man to attend Mountain Park Academy in Kenya. Last year, two of his teammates (Nick Lacy and Brady Bodine) also made the trip.

TE Cole Cook's mother, the former Kelli Casteel, played basketball for the legendary Pat Summit at Tennessee. During her career (1989-92) with the Lady Vols, the team won two national titles, advanced to an Elite Eight and another Sweet 16. His father, Stan, is a former professional baseball player.

OT Peter Daniel is listed at 294 lbs. In 2014, he weighed 212 lbs.

Sophomore wideout Nyheim Hines was an All-American for the Wolfpack track team with the 4x100 meter relay squad. His twin sister, Nyah, is also a member of the Wolfpack track squad.

C Joe Scelfo, who was an All-Sun Belt performer last season at South Alabama, is the son of a former Tulane head coach Chris Scelfo. His dad recently was the tight ends coach for the Atlanta Falcons.

QB Jalan McClendon stands at 6'5. When he was a freshman in high school, he was 5'9 and was a triple option quarterback. Dave Doeren says he plays with a 'little man's mentality."

Cornerback Jack Tocho is the star of his own web series: "You Don't Know Jack!"

GRADUATE TRANSFERS EARN STARTS

Three first-time starters for NC State this season had started previously in their careers for other schools. Quarterback Ryan Finley graduated from Boise State after only three years and has three years left to play after earning a sixth year due to a season-ending injury. Placekicker Connor Haskins, who started the season opener and is listed as the starter heading into game 10, graduated from UNC Pembroke, where he led the team in scoring for three straight seasons (although he did not play in 2015). Center Joe Scelfo was an All-Sun Belt performer at South Alabama last season who is the Pack's starting center.

The only graduate transfer who had ever started for NC State prior to the William & Mary contest was placekicker Steven Hauschka, who decided to forego dental school after graduating from Middlebury College in 2007 and come to NC State, where he would lead the ACC in field goal percentage (.889) and PAT kicking (1.000) that season. (The dental career is still on hold, as Hauschka has spent the last nine years in the NFL, winning a Super Bowl with the Seahawks).

PERMANENT CAPTAINS

For the first time during Dave Doeren's tenure as head coach, the Wolfpack elected permanent captains for the 2016 captain. Each member of the team's Leadership Council (which is also elected by the team) was eligible for the honor.

The team selected two seniors - RB Matt Dayes and CB Jack Tocho - and two juniors - TE Cole Cook and DE Bradley Chubb. Each week, the LC will help select a fifth captain based on performance in practice or in games.

KEEPING UP WITH THE JONESES

It's not an easy task at NC State. The Wolfpack has three Joneses listed in the starting lineup: LT Tyler Jones, DT Justin Jones and FS Josh Jones.

Tyler Jones started games at left guard and right tackle last season, and is starting at the crucial left tackle spot in 2016. The redshirt sophomore now has 15 starts, 20 games played and 1,174 career snaps under his belt.

Justin Jones was a top reserve on the d-line last season, playing in all 13 games and starting three. He also played in 10 contests as a freshman. He now has 32 career games played, 12 starts and 946 snaps.

Josh Jones is the most experienced Jones on the squad. A two-year starter at strong safety, Josh moved to free safety for 2016, where his size and strength has been a huge benefit. He's started 28 career games, while playing in 34, and has seen action in 2,021 snaps from scrimmage, plus numerous special teams snaps. He is the Wolfpack's leading tackler in 2015.

NEW FACES ON OFFENSE

The Wolfpack has two new coaches on the offensive staff for 2016.

Eliah Drinkwitz, regarded as one of college football's brightest young offensive minds, joined the Wolfpack staff in January as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He has led prolific offensive attacks at both Boise State and Arkansas State in recent years. A disciple of Gus Malzahn, Drinkwitz served on his staffs at the high school level and at Auburn.

As offensive coordinator for Boise State, Drinkwitz's offense ranked in the Top 15 in the nation in points per game and total offense in 2015. The Broncos averaged 39.1 points and over 500 yards of offense per game last season.

Dwayne Ledford also joined the Wolfpack staff in January as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator. The seven-year NFL veteran came to NC State after his fourth season coaching the offensive line at Appalachian State, and his third as co-offensive coordinator for the run game. The Mountaineers set a Sun Belt single season record with 11 wins in 2015, the team's first full year of FBS eligibility, and averaged 257.2 rushing yards per game over the past two seasons.

CENTER OF ATTENTION

When someone graduates after starting 37 straight games and playing 2,774 snaps in three years, there typically isn't an experienced backup to take his place. However in 2016, the Wolfpack has replaced Quinton Schooley, who started 37 straight games at center, with one who has started 36 straight collegiate games at the same position.

Joe Scelfo is senior who had never started at NC State prior to 2016. He had, however, started 37 straight games at center. And although he hadn't played for the Wolfpack before the opener, he had played against his new team.

Scelfo (pronounced SELL fo) was a first-team All-Sun Belt performer last season at South Alabama, where he graded out at 90 percent or better in six contests and did not surrender a sack. He has been named to the Rimington Award preseason watch list for 2016 after being on that list and the Lombardi watch list in 2015.

Scelfo leads the offensive line with 28 knockdown blocks this season and has played 99% of the team's offensive snaps. He started and played the entire game when the Wolfpack visited Mobile last season and has started and played almost every snap of 2016.

WONDERFUL WALK-ONS

NC State has boasted a strong walk-on program during Dave Doeren's short tenure. Eight current or former walk-ons saw game action in the season opener, 12 played in 2015, 11 played in 2014 and 10 played during his first season at NC State.

In just 46 months, Doeren has awarded scholarships to 13 different walk-ons, including six players on the current squad: Clark Eyers, Ben Grazen, Ford Howell, Nick Lacy, Gavin Locklear and Josh Taylor.

TURNING THE TASSEL

Since Dave Doeren was named head coach of the Wolfpack, 67 NC State football student-athletes have earned their degrees. That means an average of almost 10 players have graduated in each of the past seven graduation ceremonies (fall or spring).

QBU

Four former Wolfpack quarterbacks entered the 2016 season on the depth chart of an NFL team and three started games two weeks ago. NC State is one of only two schools nationally (USC) that has more than one alum starting at QB in the NFL and has been the only school with three.

Philip Rivers, a first-round NFL pick in 2004, is in his 11th season as the starter for the San Diego Chargers. Rivers is a five-time NFL Pro Bowl selection and led the AFC in passing yards in 2015. His career passer rating of 95.7 ranks fourth in NFL history for quarterbacks with at least 1,500 passing attempts, while he ranks third in consecutive starts by a QB.

Since he joined the NFL as a third-round pick in 2012, Russell Wilson has started every game for the Seattle Seahawks. He has two Super Bowl appearances, including one victory, on his resume and been invited to the Pro Bowl following three of his first four seasons. On July 31, 2015, Wilson signed a four-year, $87.6 million contract extension with the Seahawks, making him the second-highest paid player in the NFL at the time.

In addition to those two Pack alums who are starting NFL QBs, two recent NC State starters are also on NFL rosters. Mike Glennon was a third-round pick of the Tampa Bay Bucs in 2013, and has thrown for 4,025 yards and 29 touchdowns in three seasons. In April, Jacoby Brissett was a third-round selection of the New England Patriots. He started in a victory a few weeks ago against the Houston Texans.

Seventeen of the 96 quarterbacks listed on NFL three-deeps are from current ACC schools, but only NC State has more than two. In fact, former NC State signal callers account for 23.5 percent (4 of 17) of the former ACC QBs in the NFL.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

One of the cornerstones of Dave Doeren's vision for NC State football is giving back to the community. His passion for service has been contagious, as now many members of his team are taking the initiative to find ways to give back individually and not just as part of the team.

During Doeren's tenure with the Wolfpack, his athletes have turned in over 5,000 collective hours of community service. His squad has won the NC State Athletics Community Service Award each of the past two years. In addition to countless initiatives that the players can sign up for, each position group has also chosen its own opportunity. In recent months the DBs, LBs and nickels participated in the MADD Walk, the RBs and WRs worked at a Foster Kids Clinic, the quarterbacks visited the Wake Med Children's Hospital and the tight ends and fullbacks worked with "Note in the Pocket,'" which provides clothing for impoverished children in Wake County.

REAL WORLD WEDNESDAYS

During Wednesday team meetings throughout the offseason, speakers have come in to present a variety of topics, including domestic violence, dealing with police, drug abuse, dining etiquette, proper dress attire, "What is masculinity?" and basic finances.

Irwin Holmes, NC State's first African-American graduate and student-athlete, spoke to the team about his experiences, while former players Levar Fisher, DaJuan Morgan, Perry Williams and Danny Peebles have also brought messages to the squad.

HEAD COACH DAVE DOEREN

2 JALAN McCLENDON, QB

6'5 ... 212 ...*So.. ... Charlotte, N.C. (W. Mecklenburg)

√ Came in during the second half of the Notre Dame contest in what his head coach called the 'monsoon package' and ended up rushing for 56 yards on 10 carries. Also completed two pass attempts.

√ Led the longest drive of the day for either team (7:49) in the 3rd quarter. Even though the Pack did not score on that contest, it ate up clock and gave the Irish the ball at their own 25.

√ Responsible for three touchdowns in three plays in the first 3 quarters of the ODU game. Rushed for two and threw for one.

√ As a freshman in high school, was a 5'9 option QB.

GAME 1: NC STATE 48, WILLIAM & MARY 14

Sept. 1 • Raleigh, N.C. • Carter-Finley Stadium (58,200)
7:30 p.m. • ESPN3

RALEIGH, N.C. - With a new offensive coordinator and a new starting quarterback, a balanced Wolfpack offensive display kicked off NC State's 2016 season with a 48-14 win over William & Mary. The Pack finished the contest with 262 yards passing and 259 yards rushing, and jumped out to a 28-7 lead at the half thanks to three second quarter touchdowns.

It wasn't just the offense that impressed Wolfpack fans, after giving up a first quarter TD drive, the Pack's defense was stout the rest of the game. On the day, William & Mary gained just 168 total yards for the game - 62 rushing and 106 passing, and just 10 first downs.

NOTES

• Not only was today the first time in 306 days that RB Matthew Dayes played in a game, but it was also 306 days since he was even tackled. He sat out spring drills and went through all of fall practice without being tackled in any practices.

• Dayes finished with his sixth career 100-yard rushing game. His 138 yards was the highest total for a Pack running back in the season opener since 2000 (Ray Robinson, 139 vs. Arkansas St.).

• For the third time in the last two seasons, the NC State defense surrendered less then 200 total yards of offense - 168.

• Four true freshmen made their NC State debuts: WR Kelvin Harmon on TE Thaddeus Moss offense, CB Nick McCloud on defense and Trae Medaows (NIC) on special teams.

• All three grad transfers saw action, QB Ryan Finley, PK Connor Haskins and C Joe Scelfo.

• Also seeing action for the first time in a Pack uniform: WRs Jakobi Meyers and Vernon Grier, OT Emanuel McGirt, S Jarius Morehead DE Tyrone Riley.

• For the second year in a row, NC State scored touchdowns on each of its first two possessions.

• NC State improved to 37-12-2 in the first home contest of the season - since Carter-Finley opened in 1966.

• With the win, head coach Dave Doeren improved to 13-1 at NC State against non-Power 5 opponents.

GAME 2: EAST CAROLINA 33, NC STATE 30

Sept. 10 • Greenville, N.C. • Dowdy Ficklen Stadium
Noon • ESPNU

GREENVILLE, N.C. -In a game that featured six lead changes, NC State was unable to find a late fourth quarter score and fell 33-30 at East Carolina. The Wolfpack (1-1) took a 30-26 lead early in the fourth quarter, but the Pirates (2-0) responded with their own TD score with 5:49 left for the game's final score.

The Pack, looking for a FG to tie or TD to win, got the ball back with 51 seconds at its own 38-yard line. After four passes netted 16 yards, NC State had a 3rd & 10 from the ECU 46 with just eight seconds. Without any timeouts, QB Ryan Finley found WR Bra'Lon Cherry across the middle for a 22 yard gain down to the ECU 24, but the clock reach 0:00 before NC State could spike the ball.

NOTES

• WR Stephen Louis became the first Wolfpack player in 23 games to go over 100 yards receiving in a game. His game total of 142 yards is the second-highest for a Pack player under Dave Doeren - only Bryan Underwood's 148 in 2013 against Central Michigan is higher.

• RB Matthew Dayes rushed for over 100 yards for the second straight game to start the season. He also rushed for 100+ yards in the first two games of 2016.

• In his first two games as the Pack's starting QB, Ryan Finley completed 37-of-52 passes (.712).

• The NC State defense finished with 13 tackles for loss, and caused two turnovers - turned into nine points by the Pack's offense.

• On its first three drives of the game, the Pack was held to 71 yards. Starting in the 2nd quarter, the Pack had three straight scoring drives resulting in TDs to take the lead into the half (7 plays, 74 yards in 3:45 - 5 plays, 49 yards in 1:39 - 1 play, 80 yards in 0:19). Each drive had one explosive play during the drive: Reggie Gallaspy II 37-yd TD run, Ryan Finley to Stephen Louis 34-yd pass, Finley to Louis 80-yd TD pass.

GAME 3: NC STATE 49, OLD DOMINION 22

Sept. 17 • Raleigh, N.C. • Carter-Finley Stadium
6 p.m. • ACC Network Extra

RALEIGH, N.C. - A perfect seven-for-seven performance in the red zone led the Wolfpack to a 49-22 win over Old Dominion. Quarterbacks Ryan Finley (three TD passes) and Jalan McClendon (two TD rushes, one TD pass) combined for six of the Pack's seven scores on the night. NC State (2-1) defeated the Monarchs (1-2) for the third straight season, all by a combined score of 133-70.

Finley finished with a 24-28, 281 yards night, improving on one of the best completion percentages in the country. Matt Dayes tallied 71 yards rushing and 49 yards receiving. The Wolfpack defense frustrated the Monarchs offense with nine tackles for loss, five sacks and four QB hurries.

NOTES

• NC State scored at least 40 points for the sixth time in nine home games dating back to 2014.

• To start his NC State career, QB Ryan Finley completed 61-of-80 (76.3%) passes for six touchdowns and no interceptions.

• Before coming in to play QB midway through the fourth quarter, back-up QB Jalan McClendon scored a touchdown on all three of his first three snaps of the game - his first career TDs. In the first half, McClendon scored a pair of rushing TDs (1 and 3 yards), and in the third quarter he threw his first career TD pass.

• After a team-high five receptions, WR Stephen Louis tallied eight catches for 222 yards over his last two games.

GAME 4: NC STATE 33, WAKE FOREST 16

Oct. 1 • Raleigh, N.C. • Carter-Finley Stadium
3:30 p.m. • Regional Sports Networks

RALEIGH, N.C. - NC State outscored visiting Wake Forest 17-0 in the opening quarter, and started ACC play with a 33-16 win Saturday at Carter-Finley Stadium in front of a sellout crowd of 58,200.

The Wolfpack (3-1, 1-0 ACC) used a dominating first quarter to jump out to a 17-0 lead. In the opening 15 minutes of play, the Pack outgained Wake Forest 214-59, including 177-62 through the air. The Pack got TDs by Matthew Dayes (6-yd rush) and Jaylen Samuels (13-yd reception) to go along with a 20-yard Kyle Bambard field goal.

The Pack added another TD in the second quarter to score on its of its first four possessions and took a 23-9 lead into the break, and also outscored the Demon Deacons (4-1, 1-1 ACC) 10-7 in the second half.

NOTES

• Since 1986, NC State has won 15 times in 16 meetings against Wake Forest in Carter-Finley Stadium. The lone loss was in 2006. NC State has also won three straight in the series, the most consecutive wins since 2000-02.

• QB Ryan Finley threw for 300 yards for the first time in his Wolfpack career. Finley was the first Wolfpack QB to throw for 300 yards since Jacoby Brissett did so against Florida State in 2014 - a span of 26 games.

• Finley finished the game with 116 pass attempts without throwing an INT to start his Wolfpack career, the most consecutive passes for a Wolfpack starting QB to start his career.

• For the second time of the young season, NC State had a player go over 100 yards rushing (Matthew Days - 125 yards) and a player go over 100 yards receiving (Stephen Louis - 102 yards) in the same game. Dayes and Louis also both accomplished the feat at ECU.

• Dayes posted his third 100-yard in four games and eighth in his last 12 games overall dating back to 2015.

• Louis tallied over 100 yards receiving for the second time in three games, averaging 108.0 yards.

• For the third straight home game to open the 2016, NC State took its opening possession in for a TD.

• After a first quarter touchdown, Matthew Dayes' career total of 33 for his career tied hime for fourth all-time in career TDs at NC State (Torry Holt).

• Freshman WR Kelvin Harmon caught his first career touchdown in the second quarter, a 36-yard TD pass from QB Ryan Finley. He added a second TD catch in the fourth quarter to put the game away.

• So. PK Kyle Bambard's 48-yard field goal in the third quarter was a career long. His longest pf his career prior to today was 36 yards.

• NC State's 13 penalties tied as the fourth-most in school history, and the 144 yards as the most-ever against a NC State team (121).

GAME 5: NC STATE 10, NOTRE DAME 3

Oct. 8 • Raleigh, N.C. • Carter-Finley Stadium
12 p.m. • ABC National

RALEIGH, N.C. - Playing in a constant downpour with heavy winds due to Hurricane Matthew hitting the East Coast, NC State defeated visiting Notre Dame in a defensive battle, 10-3, as the Wolfpack celebrated the 50th anniversary of Carter-Finley Stadium.

With the score tied 3-3 in the fourth quarter, the Wolfpack (4-1) broke through with the game's lone touchdown - which came on a special teams play. The Irish (2-4) lined up to punt deep in their own territory, but NC State tight end Pharoah McKever broke through the middle blockers to block the punt, which was scooped up by safety Dexter Wright and returned 16 yards for the game winning score.

NOTES

• The Pharoah McKever blocked punt returned by Dexter Wright for a TD in the 4th quarter was the first punt block returned for a score since a game against Boston College in 2010. The blocked punt was the first for NC State since a game against FSU in 2012.

• Notre Dame's final total of 113 yards of total offense was the lowest for a NC State FBS opponent since Maryland had 91 in 2004.

• The Wolfpack's total of 198 yards of total offense was the lowest in a NC State win since a victory against Maryland in 2005 (196).

• RB Matthew Dayes rushed for over 100 yards for the fourth time in the first five games of the season, as he finished with 126 yards on 23 carries. Dating back to 2015, Dayes rushed for over 100 yards in nine of his last 13 games played.

• For the first time this season in its four home games, NC State failed to score a TD on its first possession. A Wolfpack TD (QB Ryan Finley to TE Cole Cook - 8 yard pass) was called back due to a penalty. NC State ended up missing a 31-yard FG on its opening drive.

• Starting safety Shawn Boone was forced to miss the first half due to a targeting call last game. In his place, redshirt freshman Jarius Morehead made his first career start. He picked off a Notre Dame pass at the Pack's 1-yard line in the second quarter, and finished with three tackles.

• The three combined points scored in the first half were the fewest in a NC State game since 2012 at Connecticut (NCSU had a 3-0 halftime lead as well). The last time NC State scored just 10 points in a win was also that UConn game.

• The Pack held Notre Dame to its first scoreless first half since the 2012 National Championship game, and the Irish's 48 total yards in the first half were the fewest since 2008 against USC (9).

GAME 6: NC STATE 17, 3/3CLEMSON 24

Oct. 15 • Clemson, S.C. • Memorial Stadium
12 p.m. • ABC National

RALEIGH, N.C. -No. 3 Clemson scored on the opening possession of overtime, then picked off a NC State pass on the very next play to narrowly escape the Wolfpack's upset bid, 24-17 Saturday afternoon.

Tied 17-17 with 6:39 left, NC State marched down for a game winning 33-yard field goal attempt with just two seconds left, but Kyle Bambard's attempt pushed wide right sending the game into OT. Clemson started on offense, and capped their possession off with a TD pass from 10 yards out. On NC State's first play of OT, QB Ryan Finley looked for WR Bra'Lon Cherry in the end zone, but Clemson boxed him out and recorded the INT to end the game.

The overtime game was the first for NC State since 2010 at East Carolina. The Pack is now 8-6 in OT since it started in 1997, having lost its last two - both on the road.

NOTES

• In the first quarter, NC State had 154 yards of total offense (111 pass, 43 rush) - compared to 96 for Clemson - but the offense was flagged six times for 45 yards in the opening 15 minutes. The Pack reached the Clemson 22 and 19-yard lines on its first two drives, but was held without a point both times.

• Overall in the first quarter, NC State had eight penalties for 76 yards - compared to none for Clemson.

• For the second time in 2016, NC State committed 13 penalties - the fourth-most in a single game.

• On his first pass attempt of the second quarter, QB Ryan Finley threw his first interception of the season - off a tipped pass. Finley had gone 139 straight attempts to begin his Wolfpack career with an INT - the longest streak by a starting QB without an INT in school history (Philip Rivers held previous record at 99 attempts).

• On the first play of the third quarter, cornerback Mike Stevens picked off a Clemson pass and returned it 28 yards for a touchdown. Its was the Pack's first defensive score of the season, and the first INT returned for a TD since Darian Roseboro returned one for a score last year against Syracuse.

• Clemson's four turnovers were the most forced by the Pack this season, and the most since Florida State had five last season. Over the last two games, NC State has forced seven turnovers.

• NC State forced three fumbles during the game, all-coming within the Pack's end of the field. Clemson turned the ball over on the NC State 24, 5 and 8-yard lines. Clemson was also held out of the end zone when NC State stopped the Tigers on 4th & Goal from the 1-yard line in the second quarter.

• TE Jaylen Samuels finished with career-highs of eight catches for 100 yards. A Wolfpack player recorded at least 100 yards receiving in three of the first six games of 2016.

GAME 7: NC STATE 13, 7/7LOUISVILLE 54

Oct. 22 • Louisville, Ky. • Papa Johns Cardinal Stadium
12 p.m. • ABC National

LOUISVILLE, KY. - No. 7 Louisville used a strong first half performance and defeated the visiting Wolfpack 54-13 Saturday afternoon.

The Cardinals (6-1, 4-1 ACC) raced out to a 44-0 halftime lead, limiting the Wolfpack's (4-3, 1-2 ACC) offensive production in the first 30 minutes. NC State put up back-to-back TDs in the third quarter to close within 44-13, but Louisville scored the games final 10 points.

Pack QB Ryan Finley completed 16-of-31 passes for 236 yards and a pair of touchdowns. In the second half, Finley threw for 192 of his yards.

NOTES

• Redshirt sophomore Terronne Prescod (RT) and sophomore Darian Roseboro (DE) both made their first career starts today. Today marked the first time that either the defensive line or the offensive line made a lineup change since the season opener. Starting RT Will Richardson did not make the trip due to illness.

• RB Matthew Dayes went to the locker room just five minutes into the second quarter, and although cleared to return, was held out a majority of the rest of the game. Dayes finished with just five carries for 13 yards and one catch for 21 yards.

• With the ACC's third-leading rusher out most of the game, NC State was held to just 14 yards rushing - the lowest total for the Pack since 2011 at Cincinnati (-26).

• The Pack put together a 12-play, 98-yard TD drive in the third quarter - culminating with a Finley-to-Harmon 14-yd TD pass. The 98-yard drive was the longest for NC State since the 2014 season opener vs. Georgia Southern (99 yards).

• On the Pack's next possession, NC State went 95 yards in just five plays - culmination with a Finley-to-Trowell 80-yd TD pass. Today marked the first time since a 2010 game vs. Cincinnati that NC State had multiple scoring drives of 90+ yards in the same game.

• After being held to 54 yards of total offense in the first half, NC State had 184 yards of total offense (181 passing) in the third quarter in outscoring Louisville 13-0. The Pack outgained the Cardinals 184-55 in the quarter.

• On kickoff returns, Nyheim Hines set a career-high with 189 yards. The 189 yards are the third-most in a single game in school history.

GAME 8: NC STATE 14, BOSTON COLLEGE 21

Oct. 29 • Raleigh, N.C. • Carter-Finley Stadium
12:30 p.m. • ACC Network

RALEIGH, N.C. - Boston College scored the game winning touchdown with 4:43 remaining in the fourth quarter, and NC State was unable to answer, as the Eagles left Carter-Finley Stadium with a 21-14 ACC win Saturday afternoon.

The Wolfpack (4-4, 1-3 ACC) took a 14-13 lead midway through the third quarter capitalizing on a BC INT, when QB Ryan Finley found WR Kelvin Harmon on the very next play from 23 yards out.

The lead would last until the final five minutes, as BC used a 9-play, 63 yard drive to score the go-ahead TD, and two-point conversion, to take a 21-14 lead with 4:43 left.

After the Pack returned the ensuing kickoff to the BC 42, NC State worked the ball down to the BC 10 for a first and goal. After two run plays were stopped, BC was called for pass interference in the end zone and NC State had a first and goal from the 2. After two more runs were stopped, Finley was intercepted in the end zone to end the scoring threat.

NOTES

• • Both teams were scoreless in the first quarter. In five home games this season, the Pack has outscored its opponents 34-7 in first quarter action.

• Justin Jones' blocked field goal in the second quarter was the first for NC State since Alan Michael-Cash had one against North Carolina in 2009.

• QB Ryan Finley threw for a career-best 307 yards, the second time this season he has gone over 300 yards passing in a game.

Bra'Lon Cherry, WR

• WR Bra'Lon Cherry posted 105 receiving yards - his first career 100+ game, and his previous best was 51 in a game. A Pack player had 100+ receiving yards for the fourth time this season.

• Josh Jones' 15 tackles were a season-high for a Pack player, and the most since Robert Caldwell had 17 against BC in 2013.

GAME 9: NC STATE 20, [19/19]FLORIDA STATE 24

Nov. 5 • Raleigh, N.C. • Carter-Finley Stadium
7 p.m. • ESPNU

RALEIGH, N.C. - Leading 20-17 over No. 19 Florida State in the fourth quarter, the NC State football team's attempt to beat the Seminoles in Raleigh fell just short due to a late comeback Saturday evening inside Carter-Finley Stadium during NC State's annual Military Appreciation Day.

Down 20-17 with 4:37 left, Florida State went 83 yards in five plays for the game winning score. After back-to-back passes led the Seminoles into the red zone, FSU's Deondre Francois found Travis Rudolph from 19 yards out for the game's final score.

The Pack pushed the ball down to the FSU 24 on the ensuing drive, but turned the ball over on downs after a pair of incomplete passes on third and fourth down.

NOTES

• The Pack scored the lone points in the first quarter, taking a 7-0 lead after the first 15 minutes of action. On the season, NC State has outscored its opponents 41-7 in first quarter action in Carter-Finley Stadium.

• Jaylen Samuels' 23 yard TD rush was his first TD since the Wake Forest contest, and his first rushing TD since the East Carolina game.

• Nyheim Hines finished with a career-best 124 receiving yards. He becomes the fourth different Wolfpack player to go over 100 yards receiving in a game this season (Louis - 2, Cherry, Samuels).

• PK Connor Haskins kicked his first career field goal in a NC State uniform - making kicks of 20 and 39 in the first half. Coming into the game, Haskins was 0-2 (both misses at East Carolina).

• WR Bra'Lon Cherry has 161 receiving yards over the last two games (3 catches for 56 yards tonight). In the first six games of the season, he posted just 136 receiving yards.

• For the third time this season (East Carolina and Clemson), NC State had both a 100+ rusher (Dayes) and 100+ receiver (Hines) in the same game.

• QB Ryan Finley has posted back-to-back 300+ passing games. He is the first Wolfpack player to throw with over 300 in two straight games since Mike Glennon did so in 2012.
