One of the top head coaches in NCAA women's basketball, Wes Moore will begin his fourth season as the head coach of NC State with the start of the 2016-17 campaign.

In his first season at the helm of the NC State women's basketball program (2013-14), Moore led the Wolfpack to the following accomplishments:

- A 25-8 record
- A top 25 RPI
- A fourth place ACC finish despite preseason prediction of 10th

- A first AP top-10 ranking since 2001
- Four wins over AP top-20 teams
- Ten wins over top-100 RPI teams
- A 13-2 nonconference record
- A 14-2 record at home

His second season (2014-15) at the helm of the Wolfpack was also impressive, as his team struggled through the significant adversity of having five student-athletes miss a combined 81 games throughout the season as a result of multiple injuries and an NCAA ruling on freshman Bosnian center Sara Boric to still finish with an 18-15 record which ended in the Sweet 16 of the 2015 WNIT.

In a WNIT first-round win at East Tennessee State on March 19 of his second season at NC State, Moore earned the 600th win of his career. In so doing, he became just the ninth head coach in NCAA history to earn 600 wins in 800 or fewer games (791).

During Moore's third season (2015-16), the Wolfpack posted a 20-11 record (10-6 ACC) to finish tied for fifth in the Atlantic Coast Conference standings. NC State dominated local rivals Duke and North Carolina throughout the season, sweeping the season series against both teams for the first time since the 1990-91 season. On January 14, the Wolfpack won 65-62 at No. 22 Duke, winning at Cameron Indoor Stadium for the first time since 1996. The Wolfpack followed this up with a 29-point win over North Carolina on January 31, the largest such NC State victory in the series since 1978. NC State would complete the sweep at North Carolina on February 21, winning 80-66 in front of a national TV audience during ESPN's Play 4Kay week.

NC State Director of Athletics Deborah A. Yow announced on April 5, 2013 that Wes Moore had been hired as NC State's new head women's basketball coach.

Moore spent 15 seasons (1998-2013) as the head coach at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga (UTC) where he led the Lady Mocs to 12 Southern Conference (SoCon) regular season titles, nine SoCon tournament championships, and nine NCAA Tournament berths, while becoming the winningest coach in UTC and SoCon history. He came to Raleigh as the reigning SoCon Coach of the Year, an award he has earned on six separate occasions.

In the 2012-13 campaign, Moore guided the Lady Mocs to the SoCon regular season and tournament titles, equaled the best win total in school history at 29-4, and knocked off an NCAA Elite Eight Tennessee Lady Vols squad by a score of 80-71 in the regular season. The Lady Mocs posted a 19-1 conference mark and closed out the regular season on a 19-game win streak, earning an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

He is the first coach in history to advance three different teams to the NCAA Tournament at the Division I, II, and III levels.

NIKKI WEST

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
FOURTH SEASON AT NC STATE
15TH YEAR IN COLLEGE COACHING

The 2016-17 season will be Nikki West's fourth as the associate head coach of the NC State women's basketball program.

During her first season with the Wolfpack, she helped the team achieve a 25-8 record, a top 25 RPI, a conference finish of fourth place despite a preseason prediction of 10th, and a berth in the 2014 NCAA Tournament.

West also worked very closely with 2014 WNBA Draft picks Markeisha Gatling (first round) and Kody Burke (third round). During the 2013-14 season, she helped Gatling become the nation's most accurate shooter and helped the Wolfpack's star center achieve an 81 percent increase in scoring output from the prior season (9.6 ppg to 17.4).

Gatling was an honorable mention All-American and first team All-ACC selection, while Burke was a second team All-ACC choice.

Her second season (2014-15) on the Wolfpack staff was also impressive, as the team struggled through the significant adversity of having five student-athletes miss a combined 81 games throughout the season as a result of multiple injuries and an NCAA ruling on freshman Bosnian center Sara Boric to still finish with an 18-15 record which ended in the Sweet 16 of the 2015 WNIT.

During West's third season (2015-16), the Wolfpack posted a 20-11 record (10-6 ACC) to finish tied for fifth in the Atlantic Coast Conference standings. NC State dominated local rivals Duke and North Carolina throughout the season, sweeping the season series against both teams for the first time since the 1990-91 season. On January 14, the Wolfpack won 65-62 at No. 22 Duke, winning at Cameron Indoor Stadium for the first time since 1996. The Wolfpack followed this up with a 29-point win over North Carolina on January 31, the largest such NC State victory in the series since 1978. NC State would complete the sweep at North Carolina on February 21, winning 80-66 in front of a national TV audience during ESPN's Play 4Kay week.

NC State head coach Wes Moore announced on April 17, 2013 that Nikki West had been named Associate Head Coach for the Wolfpack women's basketball program.

West served on Moore's coaching staff at Chattanooga for nine seasons, including six years as an assistant coach before being elevated to associate head coach her final three seasons with the Lady Mocs.

At Chattanooga, West played a key role in winning seven Southern Conference titles, and making eight postseason appearances, including five NCAA Tournaments.

Under her tutelage at UTC, Alex Anderson and Shanara Hollinquest were both named SoCon Players of the Year twice, and were each selected SoCon Female Athlete of the Year.

In nine seasons with West on staff, the Lady Mocs earned 25 first-team All-SoCon selections. Additionally, UTC had five SoCon Tournament MVPs and 23 all-tournament selections dating back to 2004-05.

The Lady Mocs had a record of 220-68 (76.3%) with West on the sidelines.

No stranger to the Atlantic Coast Conference, the former Nikki Blassingame was an All-ACC performer at Clemson from 1996-99. She helped lead the Tigers to four NCAA Tournament appearances while playing in 126 career games.

Clemson won the program's first ACC Tournament title in 1996 when West was a freshman. The Tigers repeated that feat in 1999 when she was named to the ACC All-Tournament team. The 1998-99 squad won a school-record 26 games, advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament, and finished the season ranked 10th by the Associated Press.

As a senior she started all 31 games and averaged 10.4 points and 7.9 rebounds. West graduated in 2000 with a degree in early childhood education from Clemson. She was a three-year member of the athletic department's Tiger Honor Roll.

She also coached the Carolina Lady Flames AAU team in 2002, leading the squad to the 15-and-under state championship. She also served as head coach of the junior varsity team at Dorman High School and was a varsity assistant coach. She led the Lady Cavaliers to a 15-4 record and the junior varsity championship in 2001.

19TH YEAR IN COLLEGE COACHING

The 2016-17 season will be Gene Hill's fourth as the assistant coach/recruiting coordinator of the NC State women's basketball program.

During his first season with the Wolfpack, he helped the team achieve a 25-8 record, a top 25 RPI, a conference finish of fourth place despite a preseason prediction of 10th, and a berth in the 2014 NCAA Tournament.

His second season (2014-15) on the Wolfpack staff was also impressive, as the team struggled through the significant adversity of having five student-athletes miss a combined 81 games throughout the season as a result of multiple injuries and an NCAA ruling on freshman Bosnian center Sara Boric to still finish with an 18-15 record which ended in the Sweet 16 of the 2015 WNIT.

During Hill's third season (2015-16), the Wolfpack posted a 20-11 record (10-6 ACC) to finish tied for fifth in the Atlantic Coast Conference standings. NC State dominated local rivals Duke and North Carolina throughout the season, sweeping the season series against both teams for the first time since the 1990-91 season. On January 14, the Wolfpack won 65-62 at No. 22 Duke, winning at Cameron Indoor Stadium for the first time since 1996. The Wolfpack followed this up with a 29-point win over North Carolina on January 31, the largest such NC State victory in the series since 1978. NC State would complete the sweep at North Carolina on February 21, winning 80-66 in front of a national TV audience during ESPN's Play 4Kay week.

Hill, who works with the Wolfpack guards, was a key contributor to the most successful stretch in Georgia Tech women's basketball history. From 2009 to 2012, the Yellow Jackets made four consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament, including the program's first Sweet 16 appearance in 2012.

Hill was heavily involved in the player development of three WNBA draft picks between 2010-12, including first-rounders Alex Montgomery and Sasha Goodlett at Georgia Tech.

He was instrumental in recruiting multiple top-25 classes. In 2012, Tech had a top-five class and landed Kaela Davis, the No. 2 prospect in the 2013 class. That talent allowed Tech to win 109 games with Hill on the sidelines, boasting a winning percentage of 66.1 percent.

Prior to joining the Yellow Jackets, Hill served six seasons on the Butler women's basketball staff, including two years as associate head coach. He worked as the Bulldogs' recruiting coordinator and assisted with on-court coaching.

Hill joined coach Beth Couture's first Butler staff in 2002 after serving as the interim head women's basketball coach at East Carolina University during the 2001-02 season.

The Bulldogs' resurgence to the upper tier of the Horizon League was due in large part to the talent that Hill accumulated at Butler. His first recruiting class included Jackie Closser and Ellen Hamilton, two players who scored 1,000 points in their Butler careers. Additionally, the Bulldogs landed at least one player on the Horizon League's All-Newcomer Team in each of Hill's four years as recruiting coordinator.

A tireless recruiter, Hill established relationships within the Indiana basketball community, as 15 of the 23 players signed by Butler during Hill's tenure had Hoosier State ties. However, he also showed the ability to sign some of the Midwest's best talent, landing all-state players from Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, and Ohio.

Hill was the head women's basketball coach at USC Spartanburg from 1999-01. While in Spartanburg, he recruited three USA Today Honorable Mention All-Americans and the 2000-01

Peach Belt Conference Freshman of the Year. From 1997-99, Hill served as an assistant women's basketball coach at Lander (S.C.) University. He helped lead the Bearcats to their first Peach Belt Conference Tournament championship and earned an NCAA Division II Tournament bid. He graduated from Coker (S.C.) College with a degree in physical education in 1997.

While at Coker, Hill played for the Cobras' basketball team for one season and also served as the assistant women's basketball coach for three seasons.

Hill has been invited to attend The Villa 7 Consortium multiple times in Beaverton, Ore., a group of women's basketball assistant coaches who are considered to be the next generation of rising head coaches in the country.

Hill and his wife, Heidi, have two children: daughter, Genevieve Ashlynn and son Guy Alexander.

LINDSAY EDMONDS

ASSISTANT COACH

FOURTH SEASON AT NC STATE

10TH YEAR IN COLLEGE COACHING

The 2016-17 season will be Lindsay Edmonds's fourth as an assistant coach of the NC State women's basketball program.

During her first season with the Wolfpack, she helped the team achieve a 25-8 record, a top 25 RPI, a conference finish of fourth place despite a preseason prediction of 10th, and a berth in the 2014 NCAA Tournament.

Edmonds also worked very closely with 2014 WNBA Draft picks Markeisha Gatling (first round) and Kody Burke (third round). During the 2013-14 season, she helped Gatling become the nation's most accurate shooter from Dec. 20, 2013 until the end of the season and helped the Wolfpack's star center achieve an 81 percent increase in scoring output from the prior season (9.6 ppg to 17.4).

Her second season (2014-15) on the Wolfpack staff was also impressive, as the team struggled through the significant adversity of having five student-athletes miss a combined 81 games throughout the season as a result of multiple injuries and an NCAA ruling on freshman Bosnian center Sara Boric to still finish with an 18-15 record which ended in the Sweet 16 of the 2015 WNIT.

During Edmonds' third season (2015-16), the Wolfpack posted a 20-11 record (10-6 ACC) to finish tied for fifth in the Atlantic Coast Conference standings. NC State dominated local rivals Duke and North Carolina throughout the season, sweeping the season series against both teams for the first time since the 1990-91 season. the sweep at North Carolina on February 21, winning 80-66 in front of a national TV audience during ESPN's Play 4Kay week.

Prior to her move to NC State, Edmonds was an assistant coach at James Madison University from 2009-13.

In her four seasons at JMU, the Dukes won two Colonial Athletic Association championships, played in two NCAA Tournaments, and made two WNIT appearances. The 2011-12 team appeared in the WNIT title game, while the 2012-13 club reached the quarterfinal round of the WNIT.

The Dukes had seven All-CAA selections with Edmonds on staff, while also boasting the conference Player of the Year in 2011, the Defensive Player of the Year in 2012, and the Rookie of the Year in 2013.

James Madison compiled a record of 106-34, a winning percentage of 75.7 percent, and an average of 27 wins per season with Edmonds on the bench.

Her first collegiate coaching stop came at her alma mater, Appalachian State, from 2007-09. Edmonds was the recruiting coordinator and worked with the Mountaineer back court.

In 2005-06, Edmonds was an assistant coach at Andrews High School in High Point, N.C., and also coached the under-16 AAU elite Team Phoenix.

A 2005 graduate of ASU, Edmonds, then Lindsay Smith, was a four-year starter and 1,000-point scorer and holds the school record for career three-pointers (177).

She was a team co-captain her final two seasons, and led the Mountaineers in assists both years.

A native of Winston-Salem, N.C., Edmonds holds a bachelor's degree in health promotions, and is a 2011 graduate of the NCAA Women's Coaches Academy.

Edmonds is married to Ulrick Edmonds, the football outside linebackers coach at Charlotte. The couple recently welcomed a daughter--Nylah--into its family on Sept. 2, 2014.

MIKE MURRAY

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
FOURTH SEASON AT NC STATE

The 2016-17 season will be Mike Murray's fourth at NC State. Murray was an assistant coach for the last seven years at Tennessee-Chattanooga under Wes Moore.

Murray, who spent the 2005-06 season as Director of Operations for the Chattanooga men's basketball team, oversees the daily operations of the Wolfpack women's program. That includes scheduling team travel and practices, as well as serving as a liaison for the coaching staff and the team with all the different facets that make up the athletic department and other constituents across NC State's campus.

Murray served as an assistant to Moore beginning with the 2006-07 season and worked extensively with post players. He was a key figure on four NCAA Tournament clubs and made six total postseason appearances. The Lady Mocs owned a 168-59 record with Murray on the bench.

He helped the Lady Mocs win five regular-season Southern Conference titles and four SoCon Tournament championships. Before his time with Moore, Murray spent two seasons with the Mocs' men's team, first as a student assistant in 2004-05, before moving to the operations role the following season.

A 2003 graduate of Appalachian State, Murray was a men's basketball manager for three seasons. Upon graduation, he spent one season at Milligan College as an assistant coach during the 2003-04 campaign.

Murray completed work on his Master's degree in education in May 2006 from UTC.

RACHEL STOCKDALE

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
FOURTH SEASON AT NC STATE

The 2016-17 season will be Rachel Stockdale's fourth year at NC State in a recruiting and administrative capacity. In October of 2016, she was promoted to the position of Executive Director of Operations.

Stockdale's main focus is the logistics of on-campus recruit visits, creating and distributing recruiting materials to potential student-athletes, as well as communicating and building relationships with high school coaches.

Stockdale works closely alongside the Director of Basketball Operations in coordinating the team's travel and daily activities. She also assists with community service and marketing efforts, while serving as the color analyst for the NC State women's basketball broadcasts.

A native of High Point, N.C., Stockdale was a four-year guard for Hall of Fame head coach Kay Yow from 2002-07. She helped guide the Wolfpack to three NCAA Tournament appearances and was an All-ACC Freshman Team selection for the Pack.

Stockdale spent the 2012-13 season as an assistant coach at East Carolina. The Pirates fashioned a 22-10 record and made a trip to the Postseason WNIT in her only season in Greenville.

She spent the previous season as an assistant coach at Wake Forest University. The Demon Deacons' 2011-12 campaign was one of the best in school history. Wake won 20 games for just the second time ever and made a trip to the postseason for only the fifth time in school history.

Before arriving in Winston-Salem, Stockdale helped Elon reach new heights as an assistant coach. The Phoenix finished the 2010-11 season with a 20-13 record - the program's best campaign at the Division I level. Elon made a postseason appearance that season for the first time since joining Division I.

Stockdale and her husband Brian have one young daughter, Charli Marie.

Dr. Randy Woodson was appointed the 14th chancellor of North Carolina State University on April 1, 2010. He brought to NC State more than 25 years of experience as an internationally renowned plant scientist and academic leader.

Under his leadership, NC State has built upon its reputation as a pre-eminent research institution. It is a time marked by many transformative changes — the opening of the James B. Hunt Jr. Library on Centennial Campus, the launch of the College of Sciences and the completion of the Lonnie Poole Golf Course. Woodson also guided the university in securing leadership roles in groundbreaking research projects, such as the Next Generation Power Electronics National Manufacturing Innovation Institute, the Consortium for Nonproliferation Enabling Capabilities and the Laboratory for Analytic Sciences. During his time at NC State, the university's two National Science Foundation Engineering Research Centers — FREEDM and ASSIST — have gone from strength to strength.

Even in the face of unprecedented financial challenges, these advances were made possible thanks to Woodson's strategic plan and the accompanying Strategic Resource Management initiative, which aligned the university for greater effectiveness, efficiency and — most importantly — student success.

At NC State, Woodson has solidified the spirit of the land-grant university and its hallmarks of commitment and service by spearheading efforts to increase college access. As the landscape of funding for public universities continues to change, NC State consistently ranks in the top five best values among public universities in the U.S., according to U.S. News and World Report and Princeton Review.

During his tenure, Woodson has overseen two of the largest private gifts in university history. Additionally, the university's endowment nearly doubled and currently stands at $984 million.

Woodson arrived at NC State from Purdue University, where he served as executive vice president for academic affairs and provost. He also served as the Glenn W. Sample Dean of Agriculture, associate dean of agriculture and director of the Office of Agricultural Research Programs at Purdue.

Woodson grew up in Fordyce, Ark., and attended the University of Arkansas, receiving a B.S. in horticulture. He received his M.S. and Ph.D. in plant physiology from Cornell University. He joined the Louisiana State University faculty in 1983, moving to Purdue University as an assistant professor of horticulture in 1985. Prior to his administrative appointments, Woodson also served as head of the Department of Horticulture and Landscape Architecture at Purdue and was a visiting scholar at the École Nationale Supérieure Agronomique de Toulouse in France.

Over his decades-long career in higher education, Woodson has contributed a substantial body of knowledge to the field of plant science, which has been published in more than 100 journal articles and book chapters. His research has covered topics such as plant genetics, molecular biology, biotechnology and sustainable bioproducts development, spanning the gap between the detailed science of plant physiology and the practical application of this knowledge in the field of horticulture. His research has been featured in stories published in BusinessWeek, The Futurist and Discover.

Woodson has received a number of professional honors during his career, including the Purdue University Agriculture Research Award, the American Society for Horticultural Science Outstanding Researcher Career Award and the Sagamore of the Wabash Award, the highest award presented by the governor of Indiana for service. He is a fellow of the American Society for Horticultural Science.

He and his wife, Susan, an accomplished artist, have three adult children: Samantha, a librarian at Central Carolina Community College; Patrick, an agricultural engineer at RTI International; and Chloe, a care provider and educator in the TEACCH Autism Program at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. The Woodsons have one granddaughter.

DR. DEBORAH A. YOW

When Deborah A. Yow was hired to be NC State's director of athletics on June 25, 2010, her goal was to make the department she inherited one of the best in the nation.

In six years, she has taken many steps to accomplish that goal by recalibrating competitive and academic expectations. Working closely with her senior staff, she has ensured that financial resources for teams have improved dramatically and that coaches are encouraged to recruit the best prospects available – in both character and competitive achievement.

The Wolfpack's program of 23 varsity sports has made remarkable improvement in its national standing in the NACDA Director's Cup, a measure of competitive accomplishments for all NCAA varsity sports. From 2010-12, the school made the biggest single jump of any ACC school in the 20-year history of the rankings, improving from No. 89 to No. 37.

Over the past five years, NC State programs have registered five of the 10 highest Directors' Cup finishes in program history, including the highest ever in 2015 (No. 27) and tied for the second-highest in 2016 (No. 32), showing a remarkable consistency.

After inheriting a program that had just one team finish ranked in the Top 25 in their respective sport the year prior to her arrival, a combined 19 teams have finished ranked in the last two years, including nine in 2015-16. Five NC State teams finished in the Top 11 in their respective sports, while three teams were crowned conference champions in 2015-16,

In the classroom, NC State student-athletes continue to progress in a similar trajectory. Over the last three years NC State athletes have produced the three highest Graduation Success Rates in program history, as well as the three highest Federal Graduation Rates. In 2015-16, 256 NC State student-athletes earned ACC Academic Honor Roll recognition with GPAs better than 3.0 for the full academic year.

The Wolfpack clearly has embraced Yow's comprehensive and energized vision for the future of the department, which has rallied under its trademark motto: "Wolfpack Unlimited: Refuse To Accept the Status Quo."

Yow's expectations are clear and concise:

Every sport with a full complement of scholarships should be among the nation's top 25, working towards the top 10 and competing for conference and national championships.

Every student-athlete should be provided the opportunity and resources to be as successful in the classroom as on the field of competition.

Every alumnus and supporter should be treated as a valued customer, with dedicated service from athletics department personnel.

In her first six years on the job, Yow has made significant changes to the structure, branding and outcomes of the athletics department.

She has hired 10 new head coaches. The department has established Wolfpack Sports Properties in a new working agreement for multi-media rights with Learfield Communications; a department-wide apparel agreement with Adidas; and a new Five-Year Strategic Plan. She also led in the creation of the comprehensive NC State Athletic Hall of Fame, which inducted 10 members in its inaugural class in 2012 and added another 10 members each in 2013 and '14.

The $14 million Close-King Indoor Practice Facility opened in 2015 while completion of the renovation of historic Reynolds Coliseum, the home of multiple Wolfpack sports, will be completed for the 2016-17 athletic year. In a joint venture with the university, the $35 million renovation began in March of 2015 and has reconfigured the coliseum and created the NC State Athletics Walk of Fame & History to honor the Wolfpack's athletic legacy in all sports and to have a permanent home for its Hall of Fame.

Yow knows the importance of her position, leading the gateway department of the largest university in North Carolina. The ACC's first female athletics director also knows NC State's reputation as a pioneering program that first established basketball as a dominant sport in the South, was the first to integrate varsity athletics in the Atlantic Coast Conference and was the first public school in the state to dedicate full resources to women's athletics.

Hardly unfamiliar to Wolfpack fans, the native of Gibsonville, N.C., has been deeply connected to NC State since her youth, when her parents Hilton and Lib Yow introduced their three daughters and one son to college athletics.

Later, she watched her older sister, Kay, become the first full-time women's coach in the state of North Carolina, when she was hired by then-athletics director Willis Casey to coach NC State's first three women's sports: basketball, volleyball and softball.

Debbie Yow served as a high school coach at Burlington's Williams High School and Gibsonville's Eastern Guilford High before becoming the women's basketball coach at the University of Kentucky. She also served as the head coach at Oral Roberts University and the University of Florida, before switching career paths to become an administrator, at both Florida and UNC Greensboro. In 1990, she was named the athletics director at Saint Louis, where she hired Charlie Spoonhour as men's basketball coach. In his first season, Spoonhour was named ESPN National Coach of the Year.

She moved to the University of Maryland in 1994 and in 2000 selected Ralph Friedgen as football coach. Friedgen was named consensus National Coach of the Year in 2001 after leading the Terps to the ACC championship and an appearance in the Orange Bowl. In 2002, she brought in Brenda Frese, the 2002 Big Ten and AP National Coach of the Year, to guide the Terrapin women's basketball program. In 2006, Frese led Maryland to the NCAA championship.

Under her leadership, Maryland's 27 varsity programs won a remarkable 20 national championships and consistently graduated student-athletes, including an all-time high federal graduation rate of 80 percent. In 2009, the NCAA News named Maryland as one of the Top 10 athletics programs in the nation.

At NC State, Yow oversees a department that includes approximately 185 full-time staff and 550 student-athletes.

Yow has served as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics and the national Division I-A Athletic Directors Association. She is a member of the National Football Foundation board of directors, and has served on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Academic Enhancement Committee, as well as having represented the ACC on the NCAA Management Council.

Both Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal and the Chronicle of Higher Education have cited Yow as being one of the 20 most influential people in college athletics. She was selected to serve on the President's U.S. Department of Education Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She earlier served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television, which is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and other related broadcast issues.

Like her older sister, Yow has been inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame.

Yow has written numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior. She holds a bachelor's degree from Elon University and a master's degree from Liberty University. She also has been awarded honorary doctorates for professional achievement from Elon, Liberty and the United States Sports Academy. She is married to Dr. William W. Bowden.
