Noting the Wolfpack

Six Seeded From @PackWrestle Lead School-Record Eight Total into NCAAs

With the second-most seeded wrestlers in school history, NC State will be looking for its first top-10 finish since 1993 at the 2016 NCAA Championships. The Wolfpack has six seeded wrestlers, four in the top-five, and will have a school-record eight overall competing for NCAA gold in New York.

For the second straight year, two-time defending NCAA champion Nick Gwiazdowski enters as the top-seed at 285 pounds. He becomes the first wrestler in school history to earn a top seed in back-to-back NCAA Championships.

Fellow ACC Champions Kevin Jack (No. 3 seed at 141 pounds), Tommy Gantt (No. 2 seed at 157 pounds), and Max Rohskopf (No. 5 seed at 165 pounds) also were awarded top-five seeds. All three will be competing in their second NCAA Championships.

The other two seeded Wolfpack wrestlers are Pete Renda, seeded No. 13 at 184 pounds and sophomore Michael Boykin, seeded No. 12 at 197 pounds. Redshirt freshmen Sean Fausz (125) and Jamal Morris (133) will each be making their first NCAA trip.

Reaching New Heights Entering NCAAs

NC State's six seeded wrestlers are the second-most in school history, only behind seven in 1982. This season also marks the only season in school history NC State will have four wrestlers seeded fifth or better.

The last season NC State had multiple seeded wrestlers at the NCAA Championships was in 1993 (with three), and the six this season equals the total amount of NC State seeded wrestlers from 2009-15.

The eight NCAA qualifiers this season ties the school record, also reached in 1996. In head coach Pat Popolizio's first four seasons at NC State he has had 21 NCAA qualifiers, the most in a four-year span at NC State since also having 21 from 1998-01.

NC State NCAA Championship Tradition

NC State wrestling has a rich tradition of performing well at the NCAA Championships. NC State has finished in the top 10 nationally three times, including a seventh-place finish in 1993, the best-ever showing at nationals. The Wolfpack has finished in the national top 25 in 16 of the last 36 seasons as well, including back-to-back top-20 finishes.

Six individuals have claimed national titles. Matt Reiss at 177 pounds in 1980, Tab Thacker at heavyweight in 1984, Scott Turner at 150 pounds in 1988, Sylvester Terkay at heavyweight in 1993, and Darrion Caldwell in 2009 at 149 pounds. Nick Gwiazdowski is going for his third title, as he has won at heavyweight each of the last two years.

NC State has also had two runner-ups (Michael Stokes-126 in 1989 and Terkay-Hwt in 1992.) In all, 19 NC State wrestlers have earned 30 All-America honors.

Gwiazdowski Earns Top Seed, Looks for Third Straight Title

From Delanson, N.Y., Nick Gwiazdowski will be looking to cement his legacy as one of the top wrestlers ever with his final collegiate tournament at Madison Square Garden.

Gwiazdowski enters the 2016 NCAA Championships as the No. 1 seed at 285 pounds for the second straight year. With an NCAA-best 84-match winning streak, he is a perfect 29-0 this season. He is 13-0 against the 2016 NCAA field as well.

He is already the first wrestler in NC State history with a pair of NCAA titles - having won in 2014 and 2015. He is now attempting to become the second ACC wrestler with three straight and the fourth heavyweight in NCAA history with three in a row.

Gantt Closing Out His Career in Style

Along with fellow redshirt senior Nick Gwiazdowski, Tommy Gantt is one of just nine undefeated D1 wrestlers entering the NCAA Championships, and will be looking to close out his Wolfpack career with his first trip to the podium at the NCAAs.

It has been a long journey for Gantt at NC State. They only leftover from the previous coaching staff, Gantt went 12-13 as a freshman in 2012. Improvement was shown as a sophomore going 16-9, but it wasn't until his junior season he made noise nationally.

Gantt went 35-10 as a junior in 2014, and was one win away from All-American honors. The coaching staff decided to redshirt him last season, and the benefits paid off as he won his first ACC Championship and is currently 24-0 and earned the No. 2 seed at 157.

Jack Looking for All-American Honors Once Again

It is a tale of two seasons for sophomore Kevin Jack. Last year he entered unseeded at 141 pounds after coming out of his redshirt in February, but posted multiple upsets and brought home a fifth place finish at the NCAAs and All-American honors as a freshman.

This season, Jack has been ranked in the top-five all season, and enters as the No. 3 seed at 141 with a 23-3 record. Jack has won his last 17 matches, is 13-3 against the 2016 NCAA Field this year, and recently won his first ACC Championship.

Jack is trying to become the eighth NCSU wrestler to be a back-to-back All-American.

Pair of Juniors Back at NCAA Championships

Juniors Max Rohskopf (165 pounds) and Pete Renda (184) will both be making return trips to the NCAA Championships, where they have both posted previous victories.

Rohskopf is making a second consecutive trip to the NCAAs, as he upset the No. 16 seed in the first round last season. This year, Rohskopf has been ranked in the top-10 all season, and is the No. 5 seed at 165 pounds.

Renda will be making his third straight trip to the NCAAs, after he qualified in each of his first two seasons at 174 pounds. This year, Renda finished second at the ACC Championships and is 21-7 overall. He is 7-7 versus ranked foes this year, after going just 2-19 against ranked foes in his first two seasons.

Top-10 Starters Leading the Way

Four of NC State's 10 starters were ranked in the top-10 in every poll during the season. They have combined to go 91-5 (.948) thus far, including 62-4 in dual action (.939), and all four won an ACC Championship and received a top-five seed for the NCAAs.

A Look at the 2015-16 Season

Coming off back-to-back top-20 NCAA finishes, this year's Wolfpack set some high goals. The impressive 2015-16 campaign could go down as the best in school history.

- NC State won its first ACC Championship since 2007. The four individual champions are also the most since 2007.
- NC State finished the season #2 in the final NWCA/USA Today Wrestling Coaches poll, its highest ranking in school history for any poll. The Pack spent the final 10 polls ranked among the top-four, including eight straight polls at #3 (Dec. 15-Feb. 9).
- NC State finished 23-1 in duals, setting a new school record for most wins in a single season. The 23 wins led the NCAA, and also set a new ACC record.
- NC State was 9-1 vs. ranked teams this season - outscoring those teams 239-122 (avg. 23.9-12.2) and winning 63 of the 100 individual matches with 26 bonus point wins.
- 3-0 vs. top-five foes - wins at #2 Iowa and #4 Oklahoma St, and vs. #5 Missouri. NC State is the first program in NCAA history to win at Iowa and OK State in the same year.
- 6 of NC State's 10 starters are ranked in the top-20 nationally in every major poll (a 7th is ranked in some). Four starters are ranked in the top-10 overall.
- NC State signed the #2 recruiting class nationally in the fall signing period.

Wolfpack Finishes Regular Season Ranked No. 2

Thanks to a 23-1 overall record, including 9-1 against ranked foes, NC State finished the regular season ranked No. 2 nationally in the final USA Today/NWCA Coaches Poll, its highest ranking in school history. NC State also finished #2 according to FloWrestling, InterMat and WIN Magazine.

NC State spent the final 10 Coaches' Polls ranked fourth or better, including eight straight polls at No. 3. Previously, the highest ranking at any point in a season for NC State was No. 7 in 1992.

Nation's Longest Win Streak Belongs to Gwiazdowski

Two-time defending national champion Nick Gwiazdowski has won an NCAA-best 84 straight matches dating back to Jan. 2014. He finished last year with a new school record 55 straight wins, and has increased that mark in his final season. During his streak, he has won all 48 dual matchups, and 58 of the 84 wins were for bonus points and 31 came against ranked foes.

NC State Streaks

Of the nine remaining D1 wrestlers without a loss this season, two wrestle for NC State. Tommy Gantt is 24-0 and Nick Gwiazdowski is 29-0 in their redshirt senior seasons. NC State is one of just three schools nationally with at least two wrestlers still undefeated, and Gantt and Gwiazdowski are the only undefeated wrestlers left in the ACC.

Kevin Jack has won 17 straight himself, dating back to Dec. 29.

Gwiazdowski Dominating as Usual

Nick Gwiazdowski has been dominant since he joined the Wolfpack for the 2013-14 season. He currently holds an NCAA-best 84 match-winning streak, with his last loss coming in Jan. 2014. He has also won his last 31 matches vs. ranked foes.

He is 29-0 this year, following up a perfect 35-0 campaign in 2014-15 and 42-2 in his first season in 2013-14. In his three-year NC State career, Gwiazdowski is 106-2, including a perfect 55-0 in duals. In just three seasons, his 106 wins are third most at NC State.

Making School History

With a pair of dual victories at Pitt and West Virginia at the end of January, NC State set a new school record for most wins in a single season, and finished the year with 23, also a new ACC record. The previous high for NC State was in 1988 with 19. NC State also set a new mark with 21 straight wins to open the season, the previous high was nine in 1976.

Competing Against the Best

NC State did not back down from facing tough competition this season. In addition to competing at the prestigious Midlands Championships, the Pack faced 10 ranked teams in 2015-16. To close out the dual season, NC State faced seven ranked opponents in the last eight duals - including ending the season with #8 Virginia Tech and #5 Missouri at home, and then a trip to #2 Iowa for the National Duals Championship Series. The Pack faced six ranked non-conference foes, including three in the top-five.

NC State finished 9-1 against ranked foes this year - including 3-0 vs. top-5 opponents (19-15 at #4 Oklahoma State, 18-17 vs. #5 Missouri, and 21-17 at #2 Iowa). The Pack outscored its ranked opponents 239-122 and won 63 of the 100 individual matches with 26 being for bonus points.

Road Warriors

In dual action this year, the Wolfpack finished an impressive 15-0 away from Raleigh - 7-0 in away duals (outscored opponents 166-85) and 8-0 at neutral sites (261-56).

The Pack started the season with a 31-3 thumping of #16 Minnesota at the Northeast Duals for its most impressive neutral site win. In road action, the Pack took out #2 Iowa (21-17), #4 Oklahoma State (19-15), #11 Nebraska (19-15), and #16 Pittsburgh (28-6).

NC State became the first program in NCAA history to win at both Iowa and Oklahoma State in the same season. NCSU was also the first ACC school to record a win vs. Iowa.

Pack Rookies at the NCAA Championships

Three NC State wrestlers will be making their first trips to the NAAs - sophomore Michael Boykin (No. 12 seed at 197 pounds), and redshirt-freshmen Sean Fausz (125) and Jamal Morris (133) both earned automatic NCAA bids in their first seasons as starters with the Pack.

During his four-year career, head coach Pat Popolizio has now had at least one freshman each season advance to the NAAs, and a total of five overall.

Against the 2016 Field

Went 13-3 against those in the 2016 NCAA Championships, of those 13 wins, eight were against seeded wrestlers, six in the top-10. Included in the wins were: No. 4 seed Ashnault of Rutgers (5-2), No. 5 seed Manley of Missouri (4-2), and two wins over no. 7 seed Chishko of Virginia Tech (3-2 both times). All three losses on the season were to seeded wrestlers in the 2016 NAAs.

Noting Jack

- Enters NAAs as No. 3 seed, the first for NC State since Darrion Caldwell in 2009 - who went onto win.
- A 2015 All-American, he finished fifth at 141 pounds. His 31 wins were the most ever by a NC State freshman, after coming off his redshirt in February.
- Started the NCAA Championships unseeded, but went 4-2 all against seeded wrestlers, to become the Pack's first freshman All-American since 1991.
- 2016 ACC Champion. Went a perfect 7-0 vs. ACC wrestlers this year, with four wins against wrestlers that were ranked No. 11 or higher.
- Ranked #3 in all four Coaches' Panel Rankings. Also ranked #1 in the final RPI.
- Won his last 17 matches, dating back to Dec. 29. Six of those last 9 were vs. opponents No. 17 or better.
- ACC co-Wrestler of the Week after back-to-back wins over #7 Chichko of VT (3-2) and #6 Manley on Missouri (4-2). Did not give up a takedown in either.
- Finished third at the Midlands Championships - defeating #4 Ashnault of Rutgers 5-2 in last match.
- Perfect 7-0 in bonus point matches, including an 18-3 technical fall in win at Iowa.

First Round Rematch

In his first match of the season, Renda defeated Imonode of Army by a 15-3 major decision at the Northeast Duals.

Noting Renda

- NCAA Automatic Qualifier after earning 2016 All-ACC honors by finishing second, his highest finish.
- A three-time NCAA Qualifier in each of his first three seasons at NC State. Was the Pack's starter at 174 pounds first two seasons before moving up to 184.
- Ranked in all four NCAA Coaches' Panel Rankings, a season-high #13 in the final poll. Also #15 in the RPI.
- Last three wins have all been over ranked foes, including a pair over top-11 foes to end the regular season - an 11-0 major over returning All-American #11 Miklus of Missouri, then a 7-3 win over #9 Brooks at Iowa.
- 7-7 on the season against ranked foes. Was a combined 2-19 in his first two seasons. 6 of his 7 losses this year have been to top-10 foes.
- Final ACC Wrestler of the Week. Upset #9 Brooks of Iowa, 7-3 - avenging an earlier 8-7 loss to him at Midlands.
- Placed fifth at Midlands Championships - bringing home wins vs. #20 and #17 in the process.
- A two-time NWCA and ACC All-Academic selection.

NC State National Champions

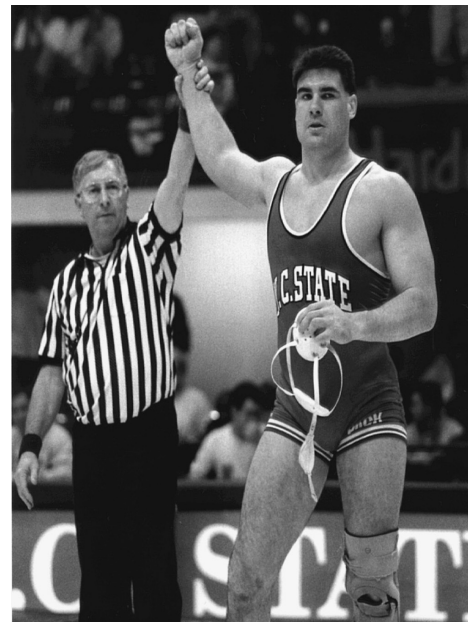

As a freshman in 1980, Matt Reiss surprised everyone at the NCAA Championships by capturing the national championship at 167 pounds. Reiss won two ACC championships while at NC State.

Tab Thacker, one of the biggest heavyweights of all time at more than 450 pounds, won four ACC championships and the 1984 NCAA crown. Thacker won 31 matches as a senior.

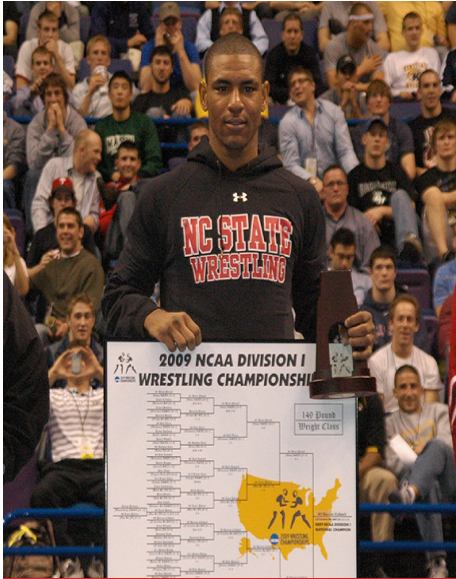

Scott Turner won the national championship at 150 pounds in 1988. Turner breezed through the competition, allowing just one point in six bouts. He was named the NCAA's Most Outstanding Wrestler.

Sylvester Terkay went undefeated at 41-0 his senior season and was 122-14 during his four-year career at NC State. He successfully concluded his career by winning the 1993 NCAA heavyweight championship.

NC State National Champions

Darrion Caldwell became NC State's fifth national champion in 2009, winning five bouts at the NCAA tourney by a combined score of 52-12 to win the Most Outstanding Wrestler award. Caldwell finished the season at 38-1, his only loss an injury default.

Heavyweight Nick Gwiazdowski's 2014 NCAA title was NC State's sixth individual crown and the third for a heavyweight. Gwiazdowski finished the year 42-2, including 20-0 in dual matches. His 42 wins set a new single-season NCSU record.

Nick Gwiazdowski made it back-to-back NCAA titles in 2015 as he posted a perfect 35-0 record on the year. Entering as the No. 1 seed, Gwiazdowski went 5-0 at the NCAA championships with a combined 46-15 score and became only the third wrestler in ACC history to win multiple national titles, and the first since 1995.
