GENERAL INFORMATION

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Credentials are issued to working members of the media only. All requests for season and single-game credentials should be made by contacting Kylie Magar (kamagar@ncsu.edu) for a link to the application form. Season credentials are granted to outlets that cover NC State women's basketball on a regular basis. Other outlets are granted credentials on a single-game, space-available basis at the discretion of the NC State Athletics Communications office.

INTERVIEWS

All requests for interviews with student-athletes and members of the women's basketball coaching staff must be made through Kylie Magar. Most interviews will be conducted around the Wolfpack's practice time, and media members may work with the communications staff to make arrangements for in-person or virtual interviews. There will be no interviews on game days except for the regularly scheduled postgame media availability.

MEDIA AVAILABILITY

Head coach Wes Moore and the Wolfpack student-athletes will conduct media availabilities throughout the season. These availabilities will be announced via email by Kylie Magar at least 24 hours in advance, and they will be a mixture of in-person availabilities and Zoom interviews.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The NC State locker room is closed following all home games. Coach Moore and select players are available for interviews in the Reynolds Coliseum media room after each home game. Interview space is limited in the media room, so priority for this space postgame will be given to writers and videographers who have questions for the coaches/players. In applicable cases, the visiting team head coach and select visiting players will also be available postgame either in-person or via Zoom. Media members should touch base with the opposing team's SID if they are interested in participating in their postgame press conference.

PRESS RELEASES

NC State news releases, statistics, recaps and additional information are available at the university's official athletic website (www.GoPack.com/WBB). Please contact Kylie Magar to be added to the women's basketball media distribution list to receive all media-related communication about the team.

GAMEDAY INFORMATION

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking is located in the Coliseum Deck. Parking passes are not needed for any games occurring on the weekends or on weekdays after 5 PM. Kylie Magar will pass along virtual parking permit information for any weekday games that begin at 5 PM or earlier.

MEDIA WILL CALL

The media entrance is located on the North side of the building on the same side as the box office. Media will call is located just inside the North entrance. This entrance opens 90 minutes prior to tip-off. Anyone needing access to Reynolds Coliseum prior to this can call or text Kylie Magar.

MEDIA ROOM

The NC State media room is located on the East hallway of Reynolds Coliseum closest to the box office entrance. A media meal will be provided before most games. The Wi-Fi password will be posted in the media room and is also located at each courtside media seat. For select games, there will be an auxiliary media work room also on the East hallway.

MEDIA SERVICES

Flip cards, game notes and updated conference notes/statistics are available online prior to each game. NC State does not print any of these items for the media. Final box scores are printed and distributed to working media following each home game, and full game books with a play-by-play account of the game are uploaded to GoPack.com. All media materials will also be posted under the "Media Central" tab on GoPack.com/WBB. Audio and video of Coach Moore's postgame radio interview and press conference will be posted on GoPack.com as soon as possible following home games.

STAT BROADCAST

Live stats are available online at: ncstate.statbroadcast.com.

PHOTOGRAPHERS/VIDEOGRAPHERS

There are designated photo and video spots reserved and labeled for both the home and visiting teams, and spots for media outlets will be first-come, first-served from there. For select games, the NC State communications staff will assign all photo spots along both baselines.

ROAD GAMES

NC State media wishing to cover the Wolfpack on the road should contact the home team's SID directly and copy Kylie Magar on the email. NC State will not conduct Zoom media availabilities after road games but will accommodate in-person requests from local media or from NC State media members who have traveled.

PERSONAL: Daughter of Qwanzi and Shanda Samuels ... Second oldest of seven children, with her older brother, Qwanzi, having previously played at Florida Gulf Coast, George Washington and IU Indy.

COACH MOORE'S TAKE: "We're excited to add Qadence to the Pack. She is someone we followed and recruited throughout her high school career. Offensively, she has the ability to score at all three levels. Her length and athleticism makes her a playmaker on the defensive end and a factor on the boards. I know our fans will enjoy her energy as well."

One of the top head coaches in NCAA women's basketball, Wes Moore has completed 12 seasons as NC State's head coach. The 12 seasons of the Moore era have been among the best in the 51 years of women's basketball at NC State.

Since taking over for the Wolfpack on April 5, 2013, Moore has posted a 301-95 (.760) record and has led NC State to nine NCAA Tournament appearances, as well as postseason invitations each year. His eight straight tournament appearances broke a school record for the longest streak of NCAA Tournament appearances. He has guided the Pack to a 144-56 (.720) clip in the ACC, a league that consistently ranks among the top conferences in NCAA Division I women's basketball. Nine of Moore's 12 seasons have concluded in top four finishes in the league and all 12 of his seasons in Raleigh have been winning campaigns with 11 including 20+ victories. The head of the helm is coming off having guided his team to its sixth Sweet 16 appearances in the past seven tournaments (2018, 19, 21, 22, 24, 25).

Moore guided NC State to three-straight ACC Tournament titles, being the first head coach of the program to do so. The team's win in 2020 was its first conference tournament championship since 1991, and the team repeated in 2021 and 2022.

The NC State program continued to elevate in 2024-25 under Coach Moore's leadership. After starting out the season 4-3, NC State finished the remainder of the season 24-4 with a 16-2 ACC mark to share the 2025 ACC Regular Season Championship. Coach Moore was awarded ACC Coach of the Year, his fourth such honor and 15th overall, and made his fifth appearance in the ACC Tournament Championship game as the head of the helm. NC State hosted the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time in the last six tournaments schools could serve as host sites. The Pack danced its way to wins over Vermont and Michigan State to earn Coach Moore's sixth Sweet 16 berth in the past seven tournaments.

During the 2024-25 season, the Pack picked up six ranked wins, including over No. 1/1 Notre Dame on College GameDay for Coach Moore's third win over a No. 1 opponent, fifth in school history. NC State finished a perfect 18-0 at home at Reynolds Coliseum, which featured 15 sellouts. The Pack finished the season ranked No. 9 in the Associated Press Poll, marking the sixth time a Coach Moore team has finished the season ranked inside the top 10.

NC State was well-represented by the ACC in all-conference awards. The Pack had three representatives on the All-ACC First Team with two-time recipients Aziha James and Saniya Rivers and first-time honoree Zoe Brooks, who became the first ACC Most Improved Player in school history. Tilda Trygger was also tabbed to the ACC All-Freshman Team.

The 2024-25 squad sported one of the best senior classes in school history. The trio of Rivers, James and Madison Hayes were pivotal in the Pack's success, being two-year regular starters, and all having averaged double-digits in scoring in back-to-back seasons. At the 2025 WNBA Draft, Rivers and James made history, becoming the first time NC State has had two players drafted in the first round, with Rivers being picked No. 8 by the Connecticut Sun and James picked by the Dallas Wings at No. 12. Rivers also became the highest drafted Wolfpack player in school history. Hayes was invited to training camp for the Connecticut Sun, playing in two preseason games.

Unranked at the beginning of the 2023-24 season, Coach Moore led the squad to the NCAA Final Four. The team was one of seven in NCAA history to start the season unranked in the AP Top 25 and reach a Final Four in the same season (the NC State 1998 team is included in that seven). NC State hosted the first two rounds of the NCAA Championship, as well as defeated No. 2 seed Stanford and No. 1 seed Texas to be crowned the Portland 4 Regional Champion.

NC State's 2023-24 squad finished with a No. 4 national ranking and was ranked in the top 10 for majority of the season. Moore's team earned a 31-7 overall record and logged nine wins over AP Top 25 teams to tie a single-season program record. The team was also the runner-up at the ACC Tournament.

In 2022-23, the Pack endured through one of the toughest schedules in the nation. The team's final NET ranking was No. 17, and the squad had the second-highest opponent success rating and average opponent NET. NC State earned four wins over NET Top 25 teams, defeating No. 10 Iowa, No. 7 Notre Dame, Louisville and No. 22 North Carolina. The squad ended the 2022-23 campaign with a 20-12 record on its way to qualifying for the NCAA Tournament for a sixth season in a row.

On March 2, 2023, in the first round of the ACC Tournament, Moore earned his 800th career win. He became the fifth active, third-ever ACC and 15th NCAA Division I coach of all time to reach that mark and accomplished it in his

1,048th career game.

Moore's 2021-22 Wolfpack squad put together one of the most historic seasons in program history that was capped off by an ACC regular season and tournament title sweep and the Pack's first Elite Eight appearance since 1998. NC State's league crowns marked the third time in history the team has won both the regular season and the tournament and its first time accomplishing the feat since 1984-85.

NC State went 17-1 in league action during the 2021-22 regular season, establishing a new program record for ACC wins while winning the league title for the first time since 1990. The Wolfpack went a perfect 9-0 in ACC games played at home.

In total, Moore's 2021-22 squad posted a 32-4 record on its march to the regional final. The 32 wins set a new single-season program record, and the Pack defeated a program-record nine nationally ranked opponents amidst one of the toughest schedules in the nation. The team finished the year ranked No. 3 in the AP Top 25, extending its streak of season-ending top 10 rankings to four.

In 2020-21, the Pack went 22-3 overall and 12-2 in conference play under Moore's leadership. The team defeated two No. 1 opponents on the road during the regular season (No. 1 South Carolina on Dec. 13 and No. 1 Louisville on Feb. 1), marking the first time a women's basketball team has accomplished that feat in the last 20 seasons. After winning the 2021 ACC Tournament, NC State earned a No. 1 seed for the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history. The team reached the NCAA Sweet 16 for the third season in a row, tying as the longest such streak for the team. During the campaign, Moore was deservedly named WBCA National Coach of the Year and ACC Coach of the Year by his peers and was also a finalist for Naismith Coach of the Year.

Moore's 2019-20 Wolfpack squad posted a 28-4 overall record and a 14-4 clip in ACC play. NC State finished the campaign ranked eighth in the AP Top 25 for its second top-10 final ranking in a row.

On Nov. 10, 2019, Moore earned the 700th victory of his head coaching career. At the time, it made him the 11th active and 22nd ever NCAA Division I women's basketball coach to achieve that feat.

The 2018-19 team finished the season ranked ninth in the final USA Today Coaches Poll after spending 14 weeks ranked in the national top 10. The Wolfpack advanced to its second straight NCAA Sweet 16, achieved the longest winning streak in program history (21 games) and recorded the best start to a season in program history (21-0). At 21-0, NC State was the last remaining men's or women's NCAA Division I team without a loss.

In 2017-18, the Wolfpack won 26 games and returned to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2007. That season, NC State posted a 16-2 record on Kay Yow Court, at the time marking the best home record in 44 completed seasons of Wolfpack basketball.

After an 18-15 campaign in 2014-15 and a 20-11 season in 2015-16, Moore guided the Pack to the NCAA Tournament second round in 2016-17 with a 23-9 (12-4 ACC) record. On March 1, 2017, he was honored as ACC Coach of the Year in votes by both the league's Blue Ribbon Panel and head coaches. It was the first such honor in the 43-year history of the NC State women's basketball program. Moore was also named a Naismith Women's College Coach of the Year semifinalist after authoring upsets over four top 15 teams that season: No. 2 Notre Dame, at No. 6 Florida State, No. 12 Duke and at No. 9 Louisville.

Moore's first season at NC State (2013-14) saw him lead the Pack to a 25-8 record, a fourth-place finish in the ACC standings and an NCAA Tournament appearance. For his efforts, he was named the ESPNW ACC Coach of the Year.

Before coming to Raleigh, Moore spent 15 seasons (1998-13) as the head coach at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga (UTC) where he led the Lady Mocs to 12 Southern Conference (SoCon) regular-season titles, nine SoCon tournament championships and nine NCAA Tournament berths. While at UTC, Moore became the winningest coach in program and SoCon history. He came to Raleigh as the reigning SoCon Coach of the Year, an award he earned on six separate occasions.

In the 2012-13 campaign, Moore guided the Lady Mocs to the SoCon regular season and tournament titles, equaled the best win total in school history at 29-4 and knocked off an NCAA Elite Eight Tennessee Lady Vols squad by a score of 80-71 in the regular season. The Lady Mocs posted a 19-1 conference mark that year and closed out the regular season on a 19-game winning streak to earn an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Moore was the first coach in history to advance three different teams to the NCAA Tournament at the Division I, II and III levels.

From 1993-95, Moore served as women's basketball assistant coach at NC State under legendary head coach Kay Yow. During that time, the Wolfpack went 34-24 and reached the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. His other head coaching stops include Maryville College (Division III) and Francis Marion (Division II). With 859 wins, he has the second most wins among active NCAA D1 women's basketball coaches and fourth among active D1 coaches in men's and women's basketball.

Originally from Dallas, Texas, Moore earned a bachelor's degree from Johnson University and his master's at Tennessee.

Clemson, '00 (Early Childhood Education)

Nikki West returned to the NC State coaching staff as an assistant coach prior to the start of the 2020-21 campaign and was re-elevated to associate head coach ahead of the 2022-23 season. West previously spent five seasons (2013-14 through 2017-18) on the Wolfpack staff, and she rejoined the Pack after spending the 2019-20 campaign as an assistant coach for the Charlotte 49ers.

In her nine completed seasons with the Wolfpack, West has helped the program post a 236-85 overall record and a 118-48 record in ACC games (134-56 vs. all ACC opponents). She's been a part of guiding NC State to postseason invitations each year, including eight NCAA Tournament appearances, five Sweet 16 berths (2018, 21, 22, 24, 25), two Elite Eight appearances (2022, 24) and the program's second Final Four (2024). With her assistance, the Pack has put together nine 20+ win campaigns, seven top four ACC finishes and seven top 25 national finishes.

Upon returning to the staff ahead of the 2020-21 campaign, West got back to work with the Wolfpack's post players. She played a large role in the development of two-time ACC Tournament MVP, WNBA draftee and All-American center Elissa Cunane. That season, NC State repeated as ACC Tournament champion, went 22-3 (12-2 ACC) and finished the year with a Sweet 16 appearance and a program-best-tying No. 3 final ranking.

A season later in 2021-22, West helped guide the Pack to its third-straight ACC Tournament title and its first regular-season and tournament crown sweep since 1984-85. In addition to reaching the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight for the first time since 1998, the team won a program-record 32 games and finished the year ranked No. 3 in the Associated Press Top 25. She also was a part of the team's quest through one of the toughest schedules in the nation in 2022-23, with that squad ending the campaign with a 20-12 record and a 9-9 mark in ACC games on its way to qualifying for the NCAA Tournament.

West played a big role in the team's memorable 31-7 season that ended in the program's first Final Four since 1998 and a No. 4 final AP ranking. The team tied a school record nine AP top 25 wins, with four of those being top five wins (No. 2 UConn, No. 3 Colorado, No. 5 Stanford and No. 4 Texas). West was also key in River Baldwin and Mimi Collins producing phenomenal graduate seasons, which included Baldwin's scoring and rebounding averages nearly doubling from a season before (2023-24: 10.6 PPG and 6.9 RPG vs. 2022-23: 5.7 PPG and 4.0 RBG) and Collins going from 6.9 points per game in 2022-23 to 10.6 points per game in 2023-24.

Coming off another memorable season in 2024-25, the Pack earned its sixth Sweet 16 berth in the past seven tournaments with a 28-7 record and 16-2 mark in the ACC. The Pack shared the ACC Regular Season title and earned the No. 1 seed at the ACC Tournament to make its fifth appearance in the title game in the past six years. Injuries hit the frontcourt early in the season, and West was key in the production and growth of freshman posts Tilda Trygger and Lorena Awou and sophomore Mallory Collier. Trygger earned ACC All-Freshman Team honors and earned a spot in the starting lineup in time for ACC play. Awou also stepped up in big moments off the bench in her rookie campaign. The Pack finished the season with a No. 9 final ranking.

In her first season at NC State (2013-14), West helped the Wolfpack to a 25-8 record, a fourth-place finish in the ACC standings and an NCAA Tournament appearance. After an 18-15 campaign in 2014-15 and a 20-11 season in 2015-16, she helped lead NC State to the NCAA Tournament Round of 32 in 2016-17 with an impressive 23-9 record (12-4 ACC). She also aided in authoring upsets of four top 15 teams throughout that season: No. 2 Notre Dame, No. 6 Florida State, No. 12 Duke and No. 9 Louisville.

During the 2017-18 campaign, West's final season in her first stint with the Pack, NC State went 26-9 on the year and won two NCAA Tournament games in Raleigh before advancing to the Sweet 16 for the first time in 11 years.

West also worked closely with 2014 WNBA Draft picks Markeisha Gatling (first round) and Kody Burke (third round). During the 2013-14 season, she helped Gatling become the nation's most accurate shooter (.663) and saw the Wolfpack's star center achieve an 81 percent increase in scoring output from the prior season (9.6 PPG to 17.4 PPG).

Prior to following Moore to NC State in April 2013, she served on his staff at Chattanooga for nine seasons. That included six years as an assistant coach before she was elevated to associate head coach for her final three seasons with the Lady Mocs.

At Chattanooga, West played a key role in the team's seven Southern Conference titles and five NCAA Tournament selections. The Lady Mocs earned 25 First Team All-SoCon honors, five SoCon Tournament MVPs and 23 All-Tournament selections dating back to her first season with the program (2004-05). The team posted an overall record of 220-68 (.763) with West on the sidelines.

No stranger to the ACC, the former Nikki Blassingame was an All-ACC performer at Clemson from 1996-99. She helped the Tigers make four NCAA Tournament appearances and played in 126 career games. Clemson won the program's first ACC Tournament title in 1996 when West was a freshman. The Tigers repeated that feat in 1999 when she was named to the ACC All-Tournament Team during her senior year. That 1998-99 squad won a school-record 26 games, reached the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 and finished the season ranked 10th by the AP.

As a senior for the Tigers, she started all 31 games while averaging 10.4 points and 7.9 rebounds per game. West graduated in 2000 with a degree in early childhood education from Clemson. She was a three-year member of the athletic department's Tiger Honor Roll.

West also previously coached for USC Upstate (2002-04), the Carolina Lady Flames AAU team (2002) and the junior varsity/varsity teams at Dorman High School (2000-02).

A native of Seneca, South Carolina, West led Seneca High School to the state championship her senior year.

In June 2011, she married Marcus West, who is an assistant coach for the Buffalo Bills.

ASHLEY WILLIAMS

ASSISTANT COACH4TH SEASON AT NC STATE

COACHING CAREER TIMELINE - 4TH YEAR AT NC STATE, 7TH YEAR IN COLLEGE COACHING

2022 - PRESENT: NC State, Assistant Coach
2020 - 22: Indiana, Assistant Coach
2019 - 20: Furman, Assistant Coach
2017 - 19: Indiana, Graduate Assistant

EDUCATION

NC State, '17 (Industrial Engineering)
Indiana, '19 (Athletic Administration)

Wolfpack women's basketball alumna Ashley Williams (Class of 2017) made her return to Raleigh as an assistant coach on NC State's staff prior to the start of the 2022-23 season and is approaching her fourth season ahead of 2025-26.

Williams joined the Wolfpack staff after spending the 2020-21 and 2021-22 seasons as an assistant coach at Indiana, which is where she also completed a two-year graduate manager stint (2017-19) immediately following her graduation from NC State.

Tasked with a vital role of leading a star-studded group of NC State guards, the Pack had one of the best backcourts in the country in 2024-25. Three members of the backcourt made the All-ACC First Team with Aziha James and Saniya Rivers becoming second-time selections and Zoe Brooks a first-time choice. Brooks also became the program's first ACC Most Improved Player. NC State earned its sixth Sweet 16 appearance in the past seven tournaments, as well as a share of the ACC Regular Season Championship. The Pack finished No. 9 in the final Associated Press poll, logging a 28-7 record and 16-2 mark in league play.

In Williams' second season as a coach at her alma mater, the 2023-24 squad had one of the most historical seasons in program history. Coach Williams helped to lead the program to its first Final Four appearance since 1998, as well as a 31-7 record, No. 4 final AP ranking and a tie for a program record nine AP top 25 wins.

Following the 2022-23 season, Junior Diamond Johnson (All-ACC Second Team) and sophomore Rivers (ACC Sixth Player of the Year) were both honored with awards under her guidance. Williams' first year back with the team in 2022-

23 had her being a part of the team's quest through one of the toughest schedules in the nation to qualify for the program's sixth straight NCAA Tournament. Since Williams' return to her alma mater in 2022, the Pack has earned a 79-26 record (38-16 in ACC games).

In her two seasons as a full-time member of the Hoosier staff, Williams helped that team to some of the best results in program history. In 2020-21, her first year as an assistant coach at Indiana, the team reached the NCAA Elite Eight for the first time in program history, went 21-6 overall and finished second in the Big Ten for the highest regular season finish in school history. Williams was a part of the team's second-straight NCAA Sweet Sixteen appearance in 2021-22 as the team posted a 24-9 record. She helped lead the Hoosiers to the 2022 Big Ten Tournament championship game, their first such appearance in 20 years, and their highest-ever NCAA Tournament seed.

During Williams' time at Indiana, the Hoosiers were ranked in the top 25 every week, including rising as high as No. 4 in the AP Poll in 2021-22. She was instrumental in helping develop the Hoosier guards, including the program's leading scorers in Grace Berger and Ali Patberg, who both earned All Big-Ten honors each of the two seasons of Williams' tenure there.

Perhaps most impressively, Williams was recognized as one of the WBCA's Thirty Under 30 honorees in 2020-21. She was honored among the nation's top up-and-coming women's basketball coaches under the age of 30 for exemplifying her involvement in community service, mentorship and impact on others, professional manner and attitude and professional association involvement.

After earning her master's degree in athletic administration from Indiana in the spring of 2019, Williams officially began her full-time coaching career as an assistant at Furman for the 2019-20 season. In her year with the Paladins, the program earned a fourth-place league finish, and Williams played a significant role in recruiting, scouting and in the development of Furman's guards. She most notably worked with Le'Jzae Davidson, who finished her career with the Paladins as the program's third all-time leading scorer, and Tierra Hodges, a SoCon First Team selection.

As a player, Williams enjoyed a well-rounded career at NC State during which she wrote her name into the program record book and was also heavily recognized for her accomplishments off the court.

She played in 117 games during her four years with the Wolfpack and earned the starting nod in 61 of those outings over her last two seasons on the team. Williams ended her NC State career ranked fourth in program history in career three-point percentage (.376) and sixth in career 3-pointers made (168). As a senior in 2016-17, Williams averaged 7.8 points, 3.3 rebounds and 2.0 assists as a starting guard on an NC State squad that advanced past the first round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 10 years.

A native of Cary, North Carolina, Williams graduated from NC State in 2017 with a degree in industrial engineering. She was named the 2016 Kay Yow Scholar Athlete of the Year and was also a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-District honoree and a three-time All-ACC Academic Team member.

SIMON HARRIS

ASSISTANT COACH

COACHING CAREER TIMELINE - 3RD YEAR AT NC STATE, 11TH YEAR IN COLLEGE COACHING

2025 - PRESENT: NC State, Assistant Coach
 2023 - 25: Loyola Chicago, Assistant Coach
 2021 - 22: ETSU, Head Coach
 2020 - 21: Ohio State, Assistant Coach
 2018 - 20: NC State, Assistant Coach
 2014 - 18: Dayton, Assistant Coach
 2011 - 14: Dayton, Men's Basketball Staff

EDUCATION

NC State, '08 (Sociology)

Simon Harris has made his return to Raleigh as an assistant coach of the NC State women's basketball team ahead of the 2025-26 season. Harris, who was a letterwinner on the NC State men's basketball team, was previously an assistant on Moore's staff from 2018-20.

"We're excited to bring a member of the Wolfpack family back home," said head coach Wes Moore. "Simon brings a lot of Power Four experience, including a previous stint here with our program, which will allow him to hit the ground running. As a former athlete at NC State himself, he will also be a good resource for our student-athletes as they look to excel on the court and in the classroom."

While Harris was an assistant at NC State, the 2019-20 squad won the 2020 ACC Tournament title, marking the program's first conference tournament championship since 1991. That team recorded a 28-4 record (14-4 in ACC) and finished eighth in the AP Top 25, its second straight year ending the season in the top 10 final rankings and its best AP poll finish since 1990-91.

In Harris' first season at NC State in 2018-19, that team advanced to its second consecutive NCAA Sweet 16 and achieved the longest winning streak in program history (21 games) with the best start in a season in school history (21-0).

Following his first stint as an assistant coach in Raleigh, Harris served as an assistant coach at Ohio State from 2020-21, guiding the Buckeyes into one of the top offensive teams in the country, as OSU ranked ninth in the country in scoring and 20th in pace of play.

Harris was the head coach of ETSU from 2021-22 and spent the last two seasons, 2023-25, on Loyola Chicago's staff as an assistant coach.

Harris also served as an assistant coach at Dayton with the women's basketball program from 2014-18. The Flyers earned three NCAA Tournament appearances, one Elite Eight showing (2015), four postseason berths and a combined 87-39 record. Prior to working with the women's program, Harris spent three seasons with the Dayton men's program under head coach Archie Miller.

A former student-athlete, Harris played two seasons for the Pack from 2007-09 after transferring from Elon, where he played from 2004-06. Harris graduated with a bachelor's degree in sociology from NC State in 2008. He went on to play one season of professional basketball in Ireland during the 2009-10 season.

KEVIN LEATHERWOOD

DEVELOPMENT

3RD SEASON AT NC STATE

COACHING CAREER TIMELINE - 3RD YEAR AT NC STATE, 12TH YEAR IN COLLEGE COACHING

2023 - PRESENT: NC State, Assistant Coach/Director of Player Development

2020 - 23: Navy, Assistant Coach

2018 - 20: Georgia State, Director of Operations

2014 - 18: Hampden-Sydney, Men's Assistant Coach

EDUCATION

Carson-Newman, '14 (Business Administration)

Kevin Leatherwood joined the NC State women's basketball staff as an assistant coach prior to the start of the 2023-24 season following the NCAA vote to allow two more assistants on Division I women's basketball staffs. He approaches his third season on staff ahead of 2025-26, focusing on the post players and player development. The Pack has gone 58-14 (28-7 in ACC) since he's been in Raleigh.

Coming off a memorable 2024-25 season, the Pack earned its sixth Sweet 16 berth in the past seven tournaments, and a 28-7 record, 16-2 mark in the ACC, to share the ACC Regular Season title. With injuries to the frontcourt during the season, Leatherwood was big in the production and development of Tilda Trygger, Lorena Awou and Mallory Collier. Trygger earned her way into the starting lineup and earned ACC All-Freshman Team honors and Awou improved immensely in her short amount of time playing competitive basketball. That 2024-25 team finished No. 9 in the Associated Press rankings.

In his first season at NC State, the Wolfpack enjoyed a historical 31-7 season, which was highlighted by the program's first NCAA Final Four appearance since 1998. The team finished the season with a No. 4 final AP ranking and logged nine top 25 wins. Post players River Baldwin and Mimi Collins were instrumental to the Pack's success, each of whom saw their scoring averages double from the seasons prior.

Leatherwood came to Raleigh after spending the previous three seasons as an assistant coach at Navy. He also previously served as Director of Basketball Operations at Georgia State and assistant coach at Hampden-Sydney College.

During his time at Navy, Leatherwood helped guide the Mids to a total of four All-Patriot League honors and was a part of the team's run to the conference tournament semifinals in 2021-22.

Before heading to Annapolis, he spent two seasons as a member of the staff at Georgia State. As the Panthers' Director of Operations, Leatherwood managed the team's travel, long-range budgeting, breakdown of game film and direction of summer camp. Georgia State reached the postseason in Leatherwood's first year with a spot in the 2019 Women's Basketball Invitational, capping off a 17-win year that marked the most victories for the team since 2003-04.

Leatherwood's first coaching stop was as an assistant coach for the men's basketball team at Hampden-Sydney where he joined the Tiger staff prior to the 2014-15 season. In four years in Farmville, Virginia, he took on numerous responsibilities both on and off the court. He was leaned on as the defensive coordinator for Hampden-Sydney while also having heavy involvement in skill development, practice planning and recruiting. Leatherwood also managed operational aspects of the Tiger program during his tenure in addition to coordinating the team's social media accounts. Hampden-Sydney had a total of four Old Dominion Athletic Conference honorees under his guidance.

A native of Charlottesville, Virginia, Leatherwood was a four-year letterwinner at Carson-Newman. He ended his collegiate career having been a part of 65 wins for the Eagles between 2010-11 and 2013-14. During his senior season, the Eagles reached the NCAA Division II Tournament for the program's first such appearance in over 10 years.

Leatherwood graduated from Carson-Newman in 2014 with a degree in business administration. He is the proud father of his daughter Amiyah and his son Kai.

KAYLA JONES

ASSISTANT COACH/
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER
PERSONNEL

1ST SEASON AT NC STATE
AS ASSISTANT
(3RD OVERALL)

COACHING CAREER TIMELINE - 1ST YEAR AT NC STATE AS COACH; 3RD YEAR OVERALL

2025 - PRESENT: NC State, Director of Player Personnel/Assistant Coach

2023 - 25: NC State, Graduate Assistant

Former student-athlete and current graduate manager Kayla Jones has been promoted and named Director of Player Personnel of the NC State women's basketball team.

"We are thrilled to keep Kayla Jones here at NC State," said head coach Wes Moore. "After helping to lead us to three consecutive ACC Championships and an Elite Eight appearance as a player, she is a perfect fit as a mentor to our current student-athletes. Kayla's experience and outstanding performance on the court and in the classroom has paid dividends the last two years in her role as a graduate assistant. We're excited to have her continue that leadership in a full-time position as our Director of Player Personnel."

In her new role, Jones will serve as a mentor and continue to be a role model for the women's basketball student-athletes. She will be a liaison and point of contact with several departments across campus and within athletics and will also develop and participate in events involving the women's basketball program across the community.

"I am extremely grateful for the opportunity to stay home and give back to a program that has given so much to me," said Jones.

"I want to express my gratitude to Coach Moore and the staff for trusting me in taking on this bigger role. I'm excited to work with this team and watch the players grow and develop on and off the court throughout their careers at NC State and beyond."

Jones has served as the program's graduate assistant for the past two seasons, a part of the Pack's Final Four run in 2024, as well as an ACC Regular Season Co-Championship and the sixth Sweet 16 in the last seven tournaments for the Pack in 2025. In her role, Jones was a lead manager and assisted with the post players. She obtained a master's degree during her time as a GA.

A decorated five-year player at NC State, Jones played for the Wolfpack from 2017-22. She shot 47.6 percent from the field (414-of-870) and 35.5 percent from beyond the arc (119-of-335) during her career. She sits at No. 12 in 3-point percentage (.355) and No. 15 in rebounds (707) in her Wolfpack career.

Jones played a consistent role in the Pack's starting five her last three seasons, establishing herself as the team's "glue" player. She was named All-ACC First Team by the league's head coaches and Second Team on the Blue Ribbon Panel as a senior after being just one of three players in the ACC to average 11+ points, 7+ rebounds and 2.5+ assists per game in 2020-21. In her graduate season, she was an All-ACC Second Team honoree by the league's head coaches. Jones was an instrumental part of the Pack's three-straight ACC Tournament titles, as well as an ACC Regular Season Championship and NCAA Elite Eight berth in her final season as a player for the Pack.

After her collegiate playing career, Jones was drafted by the Minnesota Lynx in the 2022 WNBA Draft as a second-round selection and the 22nd overall pick. She then played a year overseas in Monterrey, Mexico and Budapest, Hungary.

The Jamesville, North Carolina product earned her undergraduate degree in sport management from NC State in May 2021 and added a graduate certificate in Sport and Entertainment Venue Management in May 2022. As a graduate manager, she earned a Master of Arts in Liberal Arts/Liberal Studies in December 2024.

Houston Fancher has completed seven seasons on NC State's staff, approaching year No. 8 in 2025-26. Head coach Wes Moore announced the addition of Fancher to the staff on May 17, 2018, and he was promoted to an assistant coach role ahead of the 2023-24 season after the NCAA voted to allow two more assistants on Division I women's basketball staffs.

In his second year with coaching duties at NC State, the Pack shared the 2025 ACC Regular Season Championship and made the ACC Tournament Title game for the second straight year. With a 28-7 record and 16-2 mark in the ACC, the Pack finished the season with its sixth Sweet 16 trip in the past seven seasons and a No. 9 ranking in the final Associated Press Poll.

In his first season as an on-court coach with NC State, the Wolfpack enjoyed a historical season. The 2023-24 season ended in the program's first Final Four appearance since 1998, as well as a 31-7 record, a top four final AP ranking and nine top 25 wins.

During his tenure in Raleigh, Fancher has been a part of helping the Pack to three ACC Tournament titles, two ACC regular-season crowns, six NCAA Tournament appearances, six final top 10 rankings and a Final Four in 2024.

Fancher joined the Wolfpack after serving as the interim head coach of the Charlotte men's basketball program from December 2017 through the remainder of the 2017-18 season. He was a member of the Charlotte 49ers coaching staff for a total of three seasons.

Prior to joining the Charlotte staff, he had 12 years of experience as a college head coach, including nine seasons as the head coach of the Appalachian State University men's program.

While leading the Mountaineers, his teams won Southern Conference North Division championships in 2003, 2007 and 2008. He was named SoCon Coach of the Year in 2003. In 2007, he was a finalist for the mid-major National Coach of the Year award after guiding Appalachian State to 25 wins (school record), the San Juan Shootout title and a berth in the NIT.

Fancher also worked on the coaching staffs at the University of Tennessee (2009-13) and at UNC Wilmington (2013-14). He began his collegiate coaching career as an assistant at Division III program Maryville College from 1988-92. He then took over as head coach at North Greenville from 1992-95 before taking a position as an assistant coach at Vanderbilt for the 1995-96 season. From 1996-00, Fancher worked as an assistant coach (1996-98) and associate head coach (1998-00) at Appalachian State.

A native of Newport, Tennessee, Fancher earned an undergraduate degree in physical education from Middle Tennessee in 1988 and a master's degree in educational administration and supervision from Lincoln Memorial University in 1990.

Fancher and his wife Cathy have two sons - Hayden and Ethan - and a daughter - Cameron. Cathy played college basketball at Maryville College when Moore was the program's head coach and was one of his first recruits. Houston and Cathy's sons, Hayden and Ethan, both attended or currently attend NC State. Ethan was most recently a four-year manager and practice player for the women's program from 2020-24.

RACHEL STOCKDALE

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

13TH YEAR AT NC STATE • NC STATE '06

Rachel Stockdale has completed 12 seasons in a recruiting and administrative capacity for NC State women's basketball. She is approaching year 13 on staff.

In October 2016, she was promoted to the position of Executive Director of Operations.

Stockdale's main focuses are the logistics of on-campus recruit visits, creating and distributing recruiting materials to potential student-athletes and communicating with and building relationships with high school coaches. Stockdale also works alongside the Director of Basketball Operations in coordinating the team's travel and daily activities.

A native of High Point, North Carolina, Stockdale was a four-year guard for Hall of Fame head coach Kay Yow from 2002-07. She helped guide the Wolfpack to three NCAA Tournament appearances and was an All-ACC Freshman Team selection for the Pack.

Stockdale spent the 2012-13 season as an assistant coach at East Carolina and was also an assistant at Wake Forest and Elon.

Stockdale and her husband, Brian, have one daughter - Charli Marie.

BRANDON MILLER

DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING & VIDEO OPS

9TH YEAR AT NC STATE • HIGH POINT '04

Brandon Miller has completed eight seasons as a member of the NC State women's basketball staff.

Miller came from Boston College, where he was the women's basketball team's video production analyst for the 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons.

Prior to his time with the Eagles, Miller was at North Texas as the team's director of operations from 2012-15. He also spent two seasons as the video coordinator for Clemson and two seasons as the video coordinator at Louisville.

A 2004 graduate of High Point University, Miller earned a degree in business administration and sport management. He also has a master's degree in sport management from the University of Florida that he earned in 2007.

Miller is married to the former Heather Madern. The couple resides in Garner, North Carolina.

BRITTANY BLUNT

ATHLETIC TRAINER 6TH YEAR AT NC STATE

Blunt joined the NC State Sports Medicine Staff in August 2020 and oversees the medical care for the Wolfpack women's basketball program.

Originally from Texas, Blunt's educational endeavors started in Louisiana where she earned her Bachelor of Science in Exercise Science from Louisiana at Lafayette in 2014.

While at UL, she competed as a collegiate student-athlete for the track and field team. She then returned home to Arlington, Texas to obtain a Master of Science in Athletic Training at the University of Texas-Arlington in 2016.

Prior to joining the Wolfpack, Blunt became an athletic trainer at Kansas for the women's swimming and diving team in 2016. Blunt went on to spend two seasons in Wichita, Kansas working as the primary athletic trainer for the women's basketball team and the cheerleading squad at Wichita State. Her role included additional duties such as insurance coordinator, concussion management, supervision of softball/cheer graduate assistant and American Heart Association CPR instructor. In addition, she was selected to serve as a committee member for the American Athletic Conference Racial and Equality Action Group and was on the WSU Diversity and Inclusion Committee.

Blunt holds membership in the National Athletic Trainers' Association, College Athletic Trainers' Society and the North Carolina Athletic Trainers' Association. She is certified in Myofascial Decompression Technique and is a Corrective Exercise Specialist through the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

Currently at NC State, Blunt is involved in the Social Justice Group Action Committee and Girls Night In, which is a safe space of support for black women's student-athletes to express and explore shared experiences.

FELIPE LOPES

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH 9TH YEAR AT NC STATE

Felipe Lopes joined the Wolfpack Strength Staff in May of 2017 and was promoted to Associate Director of Strength and Conditioning in November 2020. His primary responsibilities include the performance program design and implementation for women's basketball, track sprints & jumps and gymnastics. Felipe also coordinates the Strength and Conditioning Internship for the Olympic Sports Department.

Prior to joining the Wolfpack, Lopes was a Strength and Conditioning Assistant/Intern at the University of Florida from January 2016 to May 2017. He designed the performance programs for the Gator gymnastics and cheer teams and assisted with the program implementation for women's soccer, women's lacrosse, swim & dive, track & field and volleyball.

2024 2025 REVIEW

OH HOW SWEET IT IS

- NC State is coming off its sixth NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 appearance in the last seven tournaments
- The Wolfpack's 2025 NCAA Tournament appearance marked the 30th in program history, as well as eight straight for Coach Moore, breaking a program record for the longest streak of consecutive NCAA Tournament showings
- This year's tournament run marked the fifth time in the Moore era that NC State received a top 16 seed to host the first two rounds. The Pack was picked as a No. 2 seed
- NC State defeated Vermont in the first round (75-55) before picking up its largest margin of victory in an NCAA Tournament game in program history with an 83-49 feat over Michigan State in the second round. The Pack would go on to face LSU in the Sweet 16 in the Spokane Regional
- The Pack has played 23 of its NCAA Tournament games in Raleigh throughout program history. The team elevated to 21-2 in those games and has not lost an NCAA Tournament game in its home city since 1983 (20-game streak)
- The Pack has played 25 NCAA Tournament games in Moore's 12-year tenure. Among ACC schools who have been members for at least 10 years, Notre Dame (43) and Louisville (33) have played more such games since 2013-14

2024-25 SEASON SUMMARY

- NC State finished the season 28-7, marking its 33rd 20+ win season of all time, 11th such season in the Moore era and 10th in a row. The 10 straight 20+ win seasons is a program's longest such streak
- NC State went a perfect 18-0 at home, the third undefeated home season and most home wins in school history
- The Pack's 25+ win season marked its 15th in program history and seventh in Moore's tenure
- The Pack earned its seventh ACC Regular Season Championship, which marked the second in the Coach Moore era. With a 16-2 league mark, NC State shared the regular season title with Notre Dame and with the tiebreaker, the Pack earned the No. 1 seed at the ACC Tournament
- NC State started the season 4-3 and went 24-4 in its final 28 games. With the third best NET opponent ranking of 64, the Pack endured one of the toughest schedules in the country and picked up six ranked wins, including vs. No. 1 Notre Dame, No. 10 Duke, No. 14 North Carolina and No. 18 Ole Miss
- NC State's upset over Notre Dame in double overtime fashion, 104-95, was heavily regarded as the game of the year. The victory marked Coach Moore's third win over a No. 1 opponent and the first home win over a No. 1 team since 1978
- The Pack's win over Notre Dame was also College GameDay, the first time women's basketball has hosted the event at Reynolds
- NC State was the runner-up at the 2025 ACC Tournament, making its 19th appearance in the title game and fifth berth in the last six seasons
- All seven of the Pack's losses were to NCAA Tournament teams
- The Pack went undefeated at home with an 18-0 mark. NC State has the fourth best active home winning streak in the country with 23 straight games won at Reynolds going into next season
- The Pack sold out 14 home games and had the fourth best percent capacity ranking fourth in the country (94.16). NC State also sold out season tickets shortly after they became on sale

ACC-OLADES

- The Pack was well represented on the All-ACC awards list, starting with Coach Wes Moore who earned his fourth ACC Coach of the Year honors
- NC State saw three All-ACC First Team recipients with second-time selections Aziahna James and Saniya Rivers, as well as first-time choice Zoe Brooks. Rivers was also tabbed on the ACC All-Defensive Team for the second straight year
- Brooks was also awarded the ACC Most Improved Player, having made a big jump from her freshman to sophomore years as the starting point guard
- Tilda Trygger was recognized on the ACC All-Freshman Team

SENIOR YEAR NIYA

- Saniya Rivers started in 82 of her 101 games played in a Wolfpack uniform and ended her career with 55 career double-digit scoring games and 12 double-doubles
- She finished with 17 points, an NCAA Tournament program record 11 assists, eight rebounds, two blocks and two steals vs. Michigan State, which marked the first time this century a player (men's or women's) has reached those marks in an NCAA Tournament game
- Rivers surpassed 1,000 career points and became the 39th member of the 1K club at NC State
- She tallied 22 double-digit scoring games and nine double-doubles as a senior, while leading the Pack in assists per game (3.8), steals per game (1.6) and blocks per game (1.3). She also averaged 11.9 points and 6.6 rebounds per game

ZAPPY ZAZA

- Aziahna James led the team in scoring for the second straight season, logging 17.9 points per game and 76 total 3-pointers, while reaching double digits in scoring in all but one of the 35 games. She also reached 20+ points 14 times
- In NCAA Tournament games, she finished with 184 points, the second most points scored by a member of the Pack in such games
- James logged a career-high 36 points off 15-of-19 shooting from the field against No. 10 Duke, tallying 27 second-half points. Her 36 points marked the most scored by a member of the Pack since 1987
- Became the 38th member of the 1K club at NC State and finished her career with the 12th most points (1,589) in school history
- She finished her career playing in 105 straight games along with

130 total appearances in the red and white

MADISON THE GLUE

- Madison Hayes established herself as the team's "glue" player, doing the little things that added up throughout a game and coming up with clutch moments. Playing at the four position most of the year, out of her normal guard spot, she came up big for the Pack and averaged 10.9 points and a team-leading 7.1 rebounds per game with five double-doubles
- Registered three straight double-doubles throughout the season
- Became the 40th member of the 1,000-point club at NC State, having logged 1,055 at NC State and 1,145 points in her career

ZO DAWG

- Zoe Brooks had a sensational sophomore year having averaged 14.2 points, 4.7 rebounds, 3.7 assists and 1.3 steals per game
- She reached double digits in scoring 28 times with four 20-point contests. Her 33 points vs. Notre Dame marked the most scored by a Wolfpack against an AP No. 1 team in 25 years, while her 14 made free throws tied for the sixth most in a single game in program history
- In her career, she has 800+ points, 300+ rebounds, 250+ assists, 90+ steals and 30+ blocks

FIRE FRESHMEN

- The Pack's freshman class was one of the top in the country, all contributing to wins last season
- Tilda Trygger earned a spot in the starting lineup to log 23 starts and average 6.6 points and 4.9 rebounds per game with seven double-digit scoring games, five 10+ rebound games and three double-doubles
- Zamareya Jones brought microwave scoring off the bench, finishing with 7.1 points per game and 35 total 3-pointers. She finished nearly perfect from the field with 18 points off 7-of-8 from the field vs. Louisville
- Lorena Awou came off the bench in pivotal moments in the post position, highlighted by eight points vs. Duke and 10 vs. North Carolina in the ACC Tournament Semifinals
- Devyn Quigley earned more playing time as the season went on, playing big minutes in the Pack's NCAA Tournament games. She logged a career-high 20 points vs. Coastal Carolina

POP OFF OFFENSE

- The Pack averaged 81.3 points in ACC games and 76.9 points per game overall, a value that was 26th in the country
- The Pack scored a season-high 104 points in its double-overtime win over No. 1 Notre Dame
- NC State scored 70+ points in 25 of 35 games and 80+ in 14

SPREADING THE LOVE

- NC State was the only school in the ACC to have three players to log 90+ assists - Saniya Rivers - 134, Zoe Brooks - 126 and Aziahna James - 92

DEFENSIVE PROWNESS

- NC State ranked third in the ACC in field goal percentage defense (.385) and led the conference, as well as third in the country in least fouls per game (12.1)
- The Pack held opponents to under 50 points in five games and was 5-0 when holding opponents to below 50 points, 14-0 when holding opponents to under 60 points and 21-1 when limiting opponents to less than 69 points
- In the Moore era, the Pack has held opponents to fewer than 60 points in 182 games
- The Pack is 172-10 (.945) in those outings and 96-2 (.980) in such games since the start of 2018-19

BALANCED ATTACK

- Five different players led the Pack in scoring in its 35 games
- Aziahna James led in 18, Zoe Brooks paced the way 10 times, Saniya Rivers led in four games, as well as Zamareya Jones in three and Madison Hayes in two
- Four different players recorded a double-double for the Pack with 16 of the 19 being from guards (Saniya Rivers: 9, Madison Hayes: 5, Tilda Trygger: 3 and Zoe Brooks: 2)

SHARP SHOOTING

- NC State shot over 50 percent in eight games
- NC State has won 37 straight games when shooting 50+ percent as a team and in Coach Moore's tenure, the Pack is 73-5 (.936) in games in which the Pack shot .500 or better
- The Pack has also hit 10+ 3-pointers in 71 games under Moore's leadership. NC State is 68-4 (.944) in those games and has not lost a game in which the Pack has made at least 10 triples since 2020

WOLFPACK WES

- Head coach Wes Moore's 859 career wins ranks No. 2 among active NCAA DI women's basketball head coaches and No. 14 all time
- The Pack had six ranked wins during the 2024-25 season, marking the third time Coach Moore has earned at least six ranked wins in a season

WOLF-PUPS

- The Pack's two-person signing class was ranked as the No. 25 best recruiting class according to ESPN in 2025
- Destiny "KyShe" Lunan is a four-star, No. 65 recruit in the ESPN HoopGurlz Recruiting Rankings and Adelaide Jernigan is also a four-star recruit and ranked No. 68 out of high school
- Both signees were named McDonald's All-America Game nominees

2024 FINAL FOUR

From unranked to the Final Four! The 2023-24 team became one of just seven in NCAA DI women's basketball history to start the season unranked and punch a ticket to the Final Four (the 1998 team also being one of the seven). The Pack hosted the first two rounds to defeat Chattanooga and Tennessee before defeating No. 2 seed Stanford and No. 1 seed Texas to win the Portland 4 Region and punch a ticket to Cleveland. NC State's historical run in the NCAA Tournament put a stamp on a phenomenal 2023-24 season that finished with a 31-7 record and nine ranked wins (tying a program most), including four top five victories.

March 23 - Reynolds Coliseum (Raleigh, N.C.) No. 3 NC State 64, No. 14 Chattanooga 45

Aziaha James scored a game-high 19 points, all in the second half, and River Baldwin delivered her seventh double-double of the season (10 points, 11 rebounds), as the Pack defeated head coach Wes Moore's former team in the Lady Mocs, 64-45. All 12 available players saw action on the court at Reynolds Coliseum.

March 25 - Reynolds Coliseum (Raleigh, N.C.) No. 3 NC State 79, No. 6 Tennessee 72

The Pack extended its home winning streak in NCAA Tournament games to 19 to head to the program's 16th Sweet 16 with a 79-72 win over Tennessee. In what was the first-ever NCAA Tournament matchup between the two storied programs, four Wolfpack players reached double-digits in scoring, led by Aziaha James' 22 and Zoe Brooks' NCAA Tournament high 16 points. The Pack outscored Tennessee 25-8 in the second quarter to take an 18-point lead into the locker room and limited the Lady Vols to just three field goals in the final 4:15 of game action.

March 29 - Moda Center (Portland, Ore.) No. 3 NC State 77, No. 2 Stanford 67

After being down by 10 points at the half, the Pack outscored the Cardinal 28-10 in the third quarter, 50-30 in the second half, to defeat No. 5 ranked, second-seeded Stanford. Aziaha James scored an NCAA Tournament career-high 29 points, while Saniya Rivers (13 points) and Zoe Brooks (12 points) joined her in double figures.

March 31 - Moda Center (Portland, Ore.) No. 3 NC State 76, No. 1 Texas 66

The Wolfpack earned a spot in the national semifinal by taking down fourth-ranked, one-seeded Texas. NC State was up 43-31 at the half, only being outscored by three points in the third quarter. Five players scored in double figures, paced by Aziaha James once again, who broke a program NCAA record for most 3-pointers in a single game after shooting 7-of-9 from beyond the arc for 27 points. River Baldwin scored 16 points, with 12 of those in the fourth quarter. James and Saniya Rivers were named to the All-Regional Tournament Team.

April 5 - Rocket Mortgage Fieldhouse (Cleveland, Ohio) No. 3 NC State 59, No. 1 South Carolina 78

The Wolfpack's historical season came to a close in the national semifinal game at the hands of the eventual NCAA Champion South Carolina Gamecocks. NC State trailed by just one point after the first half, but the Gamecocks took control in the third quarter to outscore the Pack 29-6 in that frame. Aziaha James closed out her incredible run at the tournament with 20 points to log 117 points across the five games with four 20-point performances. Freshman Zoe Brooks logged 12 points in the game to finish with 54 across the five contests.

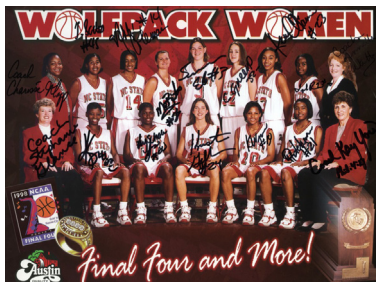

Head Coach Wes Moore holds up NCAA Portland Regional 4 Champion trophy. He has guided his NC State teams to nine NCAA Tournament appearances, six Sweet 16 berths, two Elite Eight appearances and one Final Four.

1998 FINAL FOUR

After 23 years at NC State, head coach Kay Yow found herself on the bench at the Kemper Arena - the 1998 site of the Women's Final Four. NC State advanced to the Sweet 16 when it defeated No. 1 seed Old Dominion and then moved on to hand UConn a loss in the Elite Eight. Senior Chasity Melvin made the most of her trip, completing her campaign for All-America honors. After scoring 37 points in the semifinals versus Louisiana Tech, a career high and NCAA women's tournament scoring record, she was named to the All-Final Four Team.

March 13 - Reynolds Coliseum (Raleigh, N.C.) No. 4 NC State 89, No. 8 Maine 64

NC State had five players in double figures as it cruised past Maine, 89-64, in the first round. Chasity Melvin led the way with 20 points, freshman Tyne-sha Lewis had 16 and LySchale Jones and Nailah Wallace added 14 points apiece. The Wolfpack opened strong, taking an 18-point lead into the locker room, and it didn't let up until it had solidified its chances of making it to the second round. NC State ran its record to 9-3 in the NCAA First Round.

March 15 - Reynolds Coliseum (Raleigh, N.C.) No. 4 NC State 88, No. 5 Youngstown State 61

Coach Kay Yow picked up her 550th career win in the second round of the tournament in front of an excited group of Reynolds Rowdies. The Wolfpack maintained a lead of at least 18 points throughout the entire second half and shot 45.3 percent for the game.

March 21 - Dayton Arena (Dayton, Ohio) No. 4 NC State 55, No. 1 Old Dominion 54

With Chasity Melvin on the bench and in foul trouble, Wolfpack center Summer Erb stepped up to the call when her team needed her most. She contributed 17 points and nine rebounds for her biggest output of the tournament. Trailing 45-39, Erb and Tynesha Lewis hit back-to-back layups, and Lewis tied the score on a short jumper. A basket by Erb, two free throws by Melvin and a basket by Lewis completed a 12-0 run for the Wolfpack and sealed a win over the region's No. 1 seed to advance to the regional finals.

March 23 - Dayton Arena (Dayton, Ohio) No. 4 NC State 60, No. 2 Connecticut 52

The Pack took down its second national power in three days and earned its first trip to the NCAA Final Four. Packing a potent defense and an iron will, the Wolfpack took down perennial powerhouse UConn, 60-52. Chasity Melvin led the way for the Pack, scoring 18 points and adding 11 rebounds, both game highs. The Huskies had a 10-point lead early in the second half, but Melvin scored eight of her 18 during a 14-0 run that brought the Wolfpack back into the game. UConn tied the score twice after NC State's comeback, but the Wolfpack hit eight free throws down the stretch to thwart any comeback hope the Huskies had.

March 27 - Kemper Arena (Kansas City, Mo.) NC State 65, Louisiana Tech 84

Chasity Melvin put forth her best career performance in front of 17,233 fans in Kansas City, Missouri. The effort wasn't enough to get the Wolfpack to the championship game or a win over Louisiana Tech, but it did earn Melvin a spot in the record books for years to come. Scoring 37 points in 40 minutes of work, she captured the single-game NCAA semifinal scoring record and topped off her All-America season.

In a home game on Jan. 8, 2023, NC State recognized the 25th anniversary of the 1998 Final Four run. Members of the team and staff were recognized at halftime and were surprised with the unveiling of a new banner that hangs in the rafters of Reynolds Coliseum.

ACC CHAMPIONSHIPS

WES MOORE: 2 Regular Season Championships (2025, 2022)
3 Tournament Championships (2022, 2021, 2020)

KAY YOW: 5 Regular Season Championships (1990, 1985, 1983, 1980, 1978)
4 Tournament Championships (1991, 1987, 1985, 1980)

2025 - ACC REGULAR SEASON CO-CHAMPION

The Wolfpack earned its seventh ACC Regular Season Championship, second in the Wes Moore era in 2024-25. The Pack finished ACC play with a 16-2 record, winning nine straight conference games at one point, and defeating four Associated Press Top 25 opponents in a competitive league. NC State's 16 ACC wins marked the second most in program history.

The Pack was projected to finish second in the ACC in the preseason poll, and at the latter part of the season, NC State was primed to finish in the top four at least. NC State then hosted No. 1/1 Notre Dame on February 23, as the Irish came into Reynolds Coliseum with an unblemished 15-0 mark in conference play. With a win over NC State, who was 13-2 in league play at the time, the Irish could clinch the regular season on the Pack's home court. The Pack put a wrench in those plans, defeating Notre Dame 104-95 in a double overtime thriller, handing the Irish its first conference loss. The Irish then went on to lose to Florida State the following game, with both teams sitting at a tie with one game to play in ACC play.

The Pack handled business at SMU, 69-45, and Notre Dame defeated Louisville, 72-59, marking both schools Co-Champions. With the head-to-head matchup and the Pack's win over the Irish a week prior, NC State clinched the No. 1 seed in the ACC Tournament for the second time in the Moore era, while Notre Dame followed with the No. 2 seed.

2022 - ACC REGULAR SEASON/TOURNAMENT CHAMPION

The start of the 2021-22 campaign came with high expectations for the Wolfpack women's basketball squad as the team was overwhelmingly selected as the preseason favorite to win the ACC. The two-time reigning ACC Tournament champion set out to add to its list of accomplishments, snap Louisville's four-year streak as regular-season title winners and win its own such title in over 30 years.

NC State took full control of its own destiny after a Jan. 20 comeback win over the then third-ranked Cardinals that officially put the Pack in front of the race for the regular-season crown. NC State overcame a 14-point fourth-quarter deficit in that outing, outscoring Louisville 31-8 in the final period to earn the 68-59 ACC win in front of a sold-out crowd. The Wolfpack dropped just one of its 18 league games in 2021-22. The team clinched its share of the title in its final home game of the year, a 95-53 domination over Syracuse, and secured the outright win with a gutsy 68-66 road victory at 23rd-ranked Virginia Tech to wrap up its pre-ACC Tournament slate. The regular-season championship was the first for the program since 1990, and Wes Moore was named ACC Coach of the Year.

History continued as the Wolfpack headed to the Greensboro Coliseum to defend its ACC Tournament champion status once again. Having earned the double-bye as the field's top seed, NC State cruised through the bracket. The Wolfpack earned an 84-54 quarterfinal win over Florida State and a 70-55 semifinal victory over No. 21 Virginia Tech to earn a date with the Miami Hurricanes in Sunday's championship game.

The Wolfpack scored the last 10 points of the first half to shift the game's momentum and lead in its favor. NC State went into the break up 32-32 on the Hurricanes and then took advantage of a 50 percent shooting clip to build up a double-digit lead that it would not relinquish. With a final score of 60-47, NC State completed the sweep of the ACC regular season and tournament titles, marking the team's third time accomplishing that feat and its first time doing so since the 1984-85 campaign.

The team put its tally at seven ACC Tournament titles in program history and extended its streak of conference tournament championships to three (2020, 2021, 2022). Senior center Elissa Cunane was named ACC Tournament MVP for the second year in a row after averaging 17.3 points and 9.7 rebounds on 52.8 percent shooting across the three games. Jada Boyd (First Team) and Jakia Brown-Turner (Second Team) also earned All-Tournament Team nods for the first time in their careers.

2021 - ACC TOURNAMENT CHAMPION

The Wolfpack continued to make history the following season by claiming the 2021 ACC Championship title for the first back-to-back tournament wins in program history. Elissa Cunane was named Tournament MVP after averaging 23.2 points and nine rebounds in the Pack's three victories over the weekend, and Kai Crutchfield earned a spot on the All-Tournament First Team.

NC State advanced to the semifinal for the fourth-straight year with a 68-55 win over Virginia Tech on Friday and punched its ticket to the championship game with a 66-61 comeback win over Georgia Tech. It set up a rematch against top-seeded Louisville which claimed the regular-season title despite being bested by NC State in February.

In the title game against Louisville, the Wolfpack was down by as many as eight points in the fourth quarter but did not get rattled. After cutting its deficit to three with seven minutes left, the Pack went on a 6-0 run to retake the lead.

Cunane knocked down a free throw to tie the game at 56 with 47 seconds left, and the Pack got a defensive stop at the other end to set up the game winner. It was the late-game heroics of Raina Perez that secured the win, as she drained a jumper with 2.1 seconds remaining. She came off a Cunane screen and both Louisville defenders stayed with the center, which left Perez open at the elbow where she buried the shot.

2020 - ACC TOURNAMENT CHAMPION

NC State capped off its 2019-20 campaign with an electric run at the conference tournament that ended with the Wolfpack lifting the 2020 ACC Tournament trophy. It was the program's first ACC Tournament title in 29 years.

Senior guard Aislinn "Ace" Konig was named ACC Tournament Most Valuable Player. She averaged 17.7 points per game in NC State's three tournament wins. Sophomore center Elissa Cunane also earned a spot on the All-Tournament Team.

NC State climbed out of a double-digit first-half deficit to beat Georgia Tech 57-48 in the quarterfinals. The next day, NC State took early control of its game against Boston College and defeated the Eagles 82-75 to punch its ticket to the championship game.

Sunday's championship game did not disappoint. In a tightly contested game that featured 12 lead changes and nine ties, Florida State appeared to make a game-defining 10-0 run to take its largest lead of the game, 63-58, with 3:45 remaining.

The Pack, however, did not waver and put together a 9-0 run of its own. Konig hit a three in transition to tie the score at 63 with 2:28 left in the game, and the Wolfpack-favoring crowd inside the Coliseum exploded. NC State would go on to take a 67-63 lead with just a minute left to play and never let Florida State get closer than two points for the remainder of the outing.

1991 - ACC TOURNAMENT CHAMPION

Expectations were high for the NC State women's basketball team as the Pack, led by Kodak All-America guard Andrea Stinson, returned a squad loaded with talent. The previous season, the foundation had been formed as the team went 25-6 and advanced to the NCAA Midwest Regional semifinal game. Returning a balanced squad that included three starters, the team was committed to winning the ACC title that had slipped away the year before.

Ranked among the Top 10 teams in the nation throughout the season, NC State set numerous records and collected various team and individual honors on the way to posting a 27-5 record. NC State was the only ACC team to finish the regular season with a perfect (14-0) non-conference mark. The Wolfpack swept its season series with four league teams.

The 1990-91 squad opened the year with 10 straight victories, the best start in program history at the time. NC State was ranked as high as second in the nation for four consecutive weeks.

The team concluded its regular season with 11 wins in its last 14 games. The Wolfpack then defeated Wake Forest, Maryland and Clemson to take its fourth ACC Championship.

NC State lived up to the many expectations, shattering records and collecting honors on its way to its 27-6 clip. The Pack provided a season of memorable moments which culminated in appearing in the NCAA Tournament for the ninth time in 10 years.

1990 - ACC REGULAR SEASON CHAMPION

NC State claimed yet another ACC championship with the trio of Andrea Stinson, Sharon Manning and Rhonda Mapp. The team posted a 12-2 conference record in a highly competitive league to claim the ACC regular-season title. Stinson was the star for Coach Yow's squad, averaging over 21 points and five assists per contest. Manning led the Wolfpack on the boards with over eight rebounds per outing.

The Pack posted big wins over ranked opponents during the campaign - #10 Virginia, #12 Maryland, #15 South Carolina and #25 Old Dominion. NC State advanced to the NCAA Midwest region semifinals before being eliminated by Texas on the Longhorns' home court.

1987 - ACC TOURNAMENT CHAMPION

Senior leadership was the theme of the 1986-87 season for the NC State women's basketball team. The Wolfpack women rode the shoulders of Trena Trice, Annemarie Treadway, Carla Hillman and Angela Daye to a 24-7 overall record and their third ACC Championship.

In their four-year career together, the quartet led NC State to a 90-33 overall record, a 50-16 record against ACC opponents and four NCAA Tournament berths. Trice, Treadway, Hillman, Daye and Mary Lindsay are the only players in program history to play on two ACC Championship-winning teams. The four were also instrumental in NC State's 1985 ACC crown.

Omitted from the Associated Press Preseason Top 20 poll, the Wolfpack started the year 3-0 and appeared in all of the regular-season rankings before finishing the year ranked 13th nationally.

1985 - ACC REGULAR SEASON/TOURNAMENT CHAMPION

During the 1984-85 season, the Wolfpack won 13 of its 14 ACC games. However, it wasn't until the team wrapped up the ACC Tournament that it could claim to be the class of the conference. Coach Kay Yow's squad went into the tournament with a 21-5 record and was riding an 11-game winning streak. It had been five years since the Pack had won an ACC title, and the NC State team went to Fayetteville's Cumberland County Memorial Coliseum with only one objective.

"Our attitude for the tournament was great," remembered Yow. "The team was very businesslike about the tournament, yet they played with a great deal of emotion. They just prepared so well for each game that I knew we were ready to give a good effort. We played smart - like we wanted to win."

NC State opened the tournament with a strong showing in an 87-60 victory over Georgia Tech. In the semifinals, the Wolfpack went against a tough Duke squad. The Blue Devils had edged NC State twice during the regular season but were no match for the driving Pack as the team won 89-57. In the finals, NC State was matched up with rival North Carolina in front of a crowd of 4,000. In the 1984 championship game, UNC had defeated NC State, 99-76. This time, the script was changed as the Wolfpack pulled out a dramatic 81-80 victory in the final moments. For Yow, the championship game was a great memory, and she was fond of calling it a true "team victory."

1983 - ACC REGULAR SEASON CHAMPION

With an impressive 12-1 mark against ACC competition, the Wolfpack women claimed the regular season championship. NC State advanced to the ACC Tournament championship game to face Maryland, a nationally ranked team the Pack had defeated twice during the regular season.

This time, the Terps would prevail with a narrow 84-81 victory. Sophomore sensation Linda Page was the leader of the Pack, averaging 23 points and 7.5 rebounds per game. She received numerous awards during the season, including ACC Tournament MVP.

1980 - ACC REGULAR SEASON/TOURNAMENT CHAMPION

The 1979-80 NC State's women's basketball team brought in the new decade in style by winning the ACC Tournament after claiming the league's regular-season crown. "The talent and character of this team was best reflected in the ACC Tournament finals," said head coach Kay Yow. "That championship was one of the biggest thrills of my coaching career."

Not only did the Wolfpack women bring home the first ACC title in the program's history, but it also carried on the tradition of going undefeated against Division I in-state opponents. NC State had a 45-0 record against such foes. The 1979-80 squad finished with a 28-8 overall record and was selected No. 10 in the nation in the final Associated Press Coaches Poll. The season ended in the second round of the AIAW National Championship in Long Beach, California.

In December of that season, NC State flew to Portland, Oregon, and finished third in the GIUSTI Tournament of Champions before hosting the Russian National Team later that month. Even though the Pack fell 109-79 in that game, NC State still scored more points against the team than any other team on its American tour. Also highlighting the regular season was a 14-game winning streak that tied the school record, and when it came to playoff time, NC State was in the winner's circle once again. The Wolfpack women captured their fifth consecutive NCAAIAW Tournament Championship. All in all, it was an exceptional year for NC State's women's basketball team, but no doubt the most cherished moment was cutting down the nets that signified the ACC Tournament championship.

1978 - ACC REGULAR SEASON CHAMPION

In just her third year at NC State, Kay Yow led the Wolfpack women to the ACC regular-season championship. It was the first season women's basketball was recognized as a league sport by the ACC. The Pack was led by Genia Beasley, who averaged 19.3 points and 10.6 rebounds per game on her way to earning Kodak All-America honors.

NC State finished the season with a 29-5 mark and an undefeated 9-0 clip in conference play. The Pack swept through the AIAW regionals, advancing to the sectionals in Denton, Texas, where the season came to an end at the hands of national power Wayland Baptist.

HONORED JERSEYS

On February 1, 2000, NC State retired the first class of women's basketball jerseys in school history. Seven former Wolfpack women stars that donned the red and white were honored following an ACC matchup against Clemson. The ceremony was also held in conjunction with Coach Kay Yow's 15th anniversary celebration. Replicas of these seven players' jerseys currently hang from the rafters of Reynolds Coliseum.

Genia Beasley (1977-1980)

Genia Beasley is NC State's all-time leading scorer with 2,367 points. A 1978 Kodak All-American, Beasley became the first women's player ever to score over 2,000 career points. Playing at the Junior Pan American Games, the Senior Pan American Games and the World University Games, she won three gold medals. Beasley holds multiple school records and was named all-state, all-NCAIAW and all-Region II. She was also elected North Carolina's AAU Female Amateur Athlete of the Year in 1978. Since her playing career ended, Beasley has been recognized as one of the best to wear a Wolfpack uniform. In 2007, she was inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame, and she was part of the 2012 NC State Athletic Hall of Fame class. She was also a member of the ACC 50th Anniversary team.

Andrea Stinson (1988-1991)

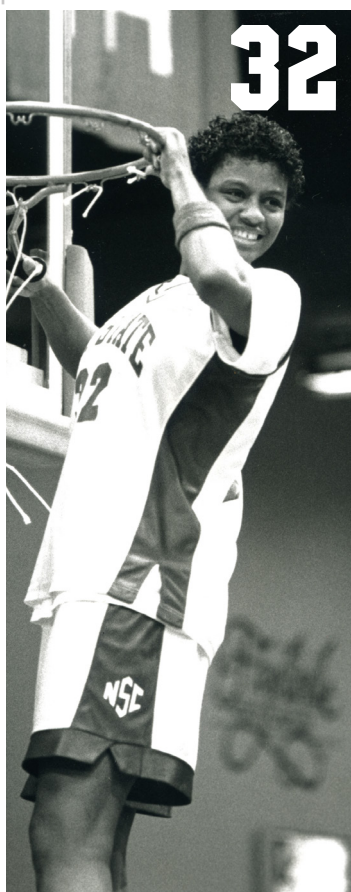

Andrea Stinson is the Wolfpack's only two-time Kodak All-American. She scored 2,136 career points, which ranks third on NC State's all-time scoring list. Stinson was unanimously selected as ACC Player of the Year in 1990 and was listed as an All-ACC Team member three times during her career. A consensus All-American in both 1990 and 1991, she holds multiple school records, including the most points scored in a single game with 50 against Providence during the 1989-90 season. After her three-year career, Stinson played nine seasons for the WNBA's Charlotte Sting and was the first player in franchise history to have her jersey retired. Stinson was a member of the ACC 50th Anniversary team and was inducted into the NC State Athletic Hall of Fame as part of the 2013 class.

Chasity Melvin (1995-1998)

Chasity Melvin led the Wolfpack to its first and only Final Four appearance in 1998. She became the fourth Kodak All-American from NC State that season and earned Final Four Team honors. Melvin set the record for the most points scored (37) in an NCAA semifinal game when the Pack took on Louisiana Tech, and that record stood until 2010. She compiled 2,042 career points and 1,020 career rebounds, with both of those numbers ranking in the top four of the NC State record book. After her Wolfpack career, Melvin was drafted in the first round by the WNBA's Cleveland Rockers and played in the league for 12 years. She was a 2001 WNBA All-Star, a member of the ACC 50th Anniversary team and a 2014 NC State Athletic Hall of Fame inductee. Melvin also previously spent time coaching for the WNBA's Phoenix Mercury.

Linda Page (1982-1985)

Linda "Hawkeye" Page is one of four Wolfpack women to eclipse the 2,000-point mark, tallying 2,307 for her career to rank second on the NC State scoring chart. A two-time First Team All-ACC selection, she was named to the All-Tournament Team three times and was MVP in 1983. Page averaged 21.1 points and 17.6 rebounds her senior season and helped lead the Wolfpack to the 1985 ACC Championship. She holds the school record for career free-throw percentage (.853). Page twice scored 42 points in a game, both against Clemson, which ranks second in NC State history for most points in a single contest. The late Page was inducted into the NC State Athletic Hall of Fame as a member of the 2016 class.

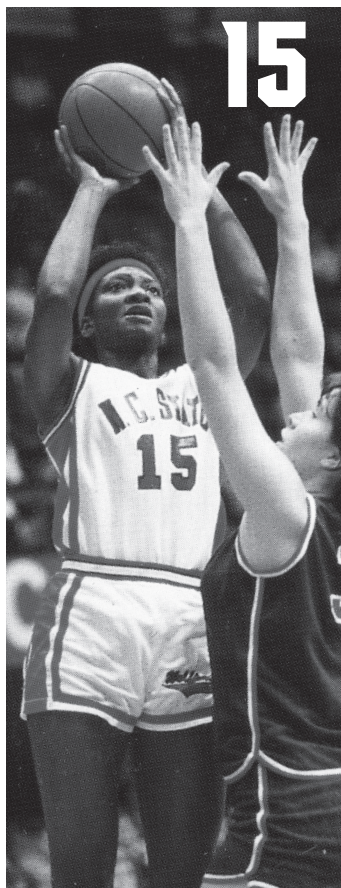

HONORED JERSEYS

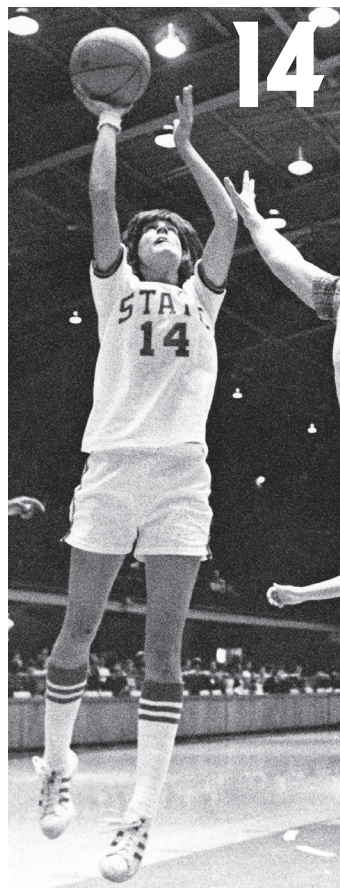

Trena Trice (1983-1987)

Trena Trice, a dominating center for the Wolfpack, ranks sixth on the program's scoring charts (1,761 points) and fifth in career rebounds (984). She was a member of two ACC Championship teams in 1985 and 1987. A three-time All-ACC center, she was a Street & Smith All-American and Women's Sports Federation All-American in 1987. She was also selected to compete on the USA Select National Team and USA Basketball Jones Cup team. Trice's 184 career blocked shots ranks third in NC State history, and she also owns some of the top marks in multiple other categories. She was drafted in the third round by the WNBA's New York Liberty and also played professionally overseas. Trice served as an NC State assistant from 2004 through 2009 before making multiple other stops in her collegiate coaching career. She was inducted into the NC State Athletic Hall of Fame in 2024.

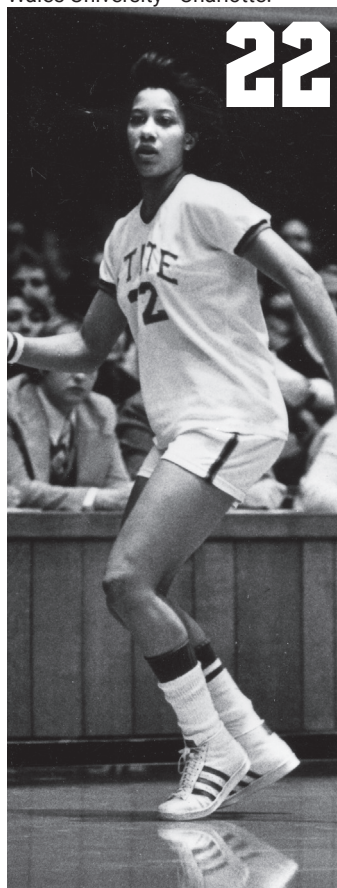

Susan Yow (1975-1976)

Susan Yow only played one season for the Wolfpack, but she left her mark on the program. She was honored as a Kodak All-America Team member in 1976, the first-ever Wolfpack women's basketball player to garner the honors. That season, she led the squad in scoring, rebounding, field-goal percentage and free-throw percentage. She still holds the school record for rebounds in a single game, as she hauled in 27 in a January 17, 1976 contest against East Carolina. The younger sister of Coach Kay Yow, Susan was honored as an all-NCAIAW and all-NCAIAW Tournament selection in 1976. After her playing career, Yow served as an assistant coach on her sister's staff at the 1988 Olympics. Yow was inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame in 2016.

Trudi Lacey (1978-1981)

Trudi Lacey ranks as one of the best all-around players to ever wear an NC State uniform. She ranks fifth on the all-time scoring chart (1,957 points) and third in career rebounds (1,051). Lacey was part of the 1980 team that brought home the program's first ACC Championship, and she was named to the All-Tournament First Team during all four years of her career. A three-time member of the USA Select National Team, Lacey was honored as an All-American in 1980 by the Women's Sports Federation and the National Scouting Service. She was named head coach of the WNBA's Charlotte Sting in 2003 and directed the team to the Eastern Conference Playoffs. Lacey was inducted into the NC State Athletic Hall of Fame in 2018, and she currently serves as the Director of Athletics at Johnson & Wales University - Charlotte.

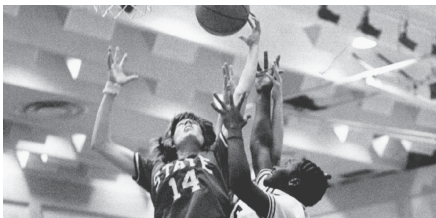

Debbie Antonelli (1983-86)

Debbie Antonelli, formerly Mulligan, played for Head Coach Kay Yow, and was a three-year starter for the Pack and two-time ACC Champion. Antonelli has worked her way to becoming an Emmy Award winning, Hall of Famer broadcaster for ESPN and the ACC Network. She was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2022 and the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame in 2021. In the fall of 2024, Antonelli was awarded with the 2024 Curt Gowdy Electronic Media Award by Hoop Hall, given to media members who have given outstanding contributions to basketball. Among her philanthropic efforts, Antonelli is a lifetime board member of the Kay Yow Cancer Fund, and is on the Special Olympics South Carolina Board of Directors.

KODAK/AP ALL-AMERICANS

Susan Yow (1975-76)

Although she only played one season for the Wolfpack, Yow left her mark in the NC State record book. The first Wolfpack women's basketball player ever to be named to the Kodak All-America Team, Yow led the 1975-76 squad in scoring (19.4), rebounding (11.9) field-goal percentage (213-of-265; .584) and free throw percentage (79-of-95; .832). The younger sister of head coach Kay Yow, Susan was also an All-NCAIAW and All-NCAIAW Tournament selection in 1976.

Andrea Stinson (1988-91)

The Wolfpack's only two-time Kodak All-American, Stinson rewrote the NC State record book in her three seasons of collegiate play. A dazzling all-around player, she scored 2,136 points. Stinson was unanimously selected as ACC Player of the Year in 1990 and was named to the All-ACC Team three times. A consensus All-America selection in both 1990 and 1991, Stinson was also selected to the all-tournament team of each of the regular-season tournaments that NC State participated in during her career.

Chasity Melvin (1994-98)

Melvin led the Wolfpack women to their first-ever Final Four appearance in 1998. She became the fourth Kodak All-American from NC State in 1998 and earned All-East Regional and Final Four team honors during her senior season. One day after being named an All-American, Melvin set the record for most points ever scored in a national semifinal game with a career-high 37 in her final collegiate game. She was only the second player in NC State basketball history, men's or women's, to compile 2,000 career points and 1,000 career rebounds. She was the recipient of the 1998 NC State Alumni Athletic Trophy and the H.C. Kennett Award. Melvin led the ACC in total rebounds and offensive rebounds as a senior, and she posted 16 double-doubles.

Elissa Cunane (2018-22)

After her breakout sophomore campaign in 2019-20, Cunane became the first NC State women's basketball player to earn a spot on an AP All-American Team after six honorable mention recognitions in the program's history. The center repeated as an honoree in 2020-21 and 2021-22 in addition to being a top five finalist for the Lisa Leslie Award, a semifinalist for Naismith Player of the Year and ACC Tournament MVP each of those seasons. Cunane helped the Wolfpack to four ACC Championships (three tournament titles, one regular-season crown) during her career and ended her time at NC State ranked sixth in program history in career points (1,855), fifth in rebounds (986) and seventh in double-doubles (34). She became the program record holder in free throws made (513) in addition to ranking in the Wolfpack's top 10 in a multitude of other categories.

WOLFPACK AND USA BASKETBALL

NC State has a rich history with USA Basketball. Former head coach Kay Yow was an assistant coach for Team USA from 1974 to 1984, winning a gold medal at the 1984 Los Angeles Olympic Games in the process. She then became the head coach of Team USA from 1981 to 1988 and helped lead her squad to a gold medal at the 1988 Seoul Olympic Games.

The Wolfpack has also sent more than a dozen players to compete with USA Basketball. Most recently Elissa Cunane (2021 AmeriCup Team), Jakia Brown-Turner (2021 AmeriCup Team), Diamond Johnson (U19 World Cup) and Madison Hayes (FIBA U23 3x3) represented the Wolfpack and USA Basketball on international stages. Khamil Pierre was invited to the 2025 USA Basketball Women's AmeriCup Trials.

In 2017, NC State head coach Wes Moore was selected to serve on the USA Basketball Women's Junior National Team Committee. In that capacity, Moore took part in issuing invitations for trials and training camps and selecting coaching staffs and team members for college-aged teams, including USA Basketball's U18 and U19 National Teams that competed in the FIBA World Cup, the FIBA Americas Championships, the World University Games and the Pan American Games. The USA Women's Junior National Team Committee also selects the staff and athletes for the USA U23 National Team.

"We all have visions of being involved with USA Basketball or our respective national teams, so it was a great honor to receive that phone call," said Moore. "It's also very humbling. The selection of players that will vie for Olympic spots is both a great honor and a great responsibility."

PLAY4KAY

Play4Kay at NC State is a yearly event, which inspired a national movement. Former NC State head coach Kay Yow began the tradition in 2006 when one of the Wolfpack's home games was dedicated toward raising awareness and money for the fight against women's cancers. Donations made toward this cause now go directly to the Kay Yow Cancer Fund.

The fund was officially founded on December 3, 2007, from the vision of Coach Yow. Yow was diagnosed with breast cancer in 1987 and passed away on January 24, 2009, after facing her third bout with the disease. Before her passing, she joined forces with the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) and The V Foundation for Cancer Research to form the Kay Yow Cancer Fund, a 501 (c)(3) charitable organization committed to being a part of finding an answer in the fight against women's cancers through raising money for scientific research, assisting the under-served and unifying people for a common cause.

Now, the event is held every season to celebrate the life and legacy of Coach Yow and to honor all who have battled and are battling cancer.

NC State fans and sponsors regularly raise the most money nationwide each February. The Pack's 2023 Play4Kay game resulted in a record-setting number of over $532,000 in total donations to the Kay Yow Cancer Fund thanks to the support of Wolfpack Nation, the university community and multiple local businesses. In 2025, the Pack raised nearly $500K with $477,860.77 raised.

NC STATE

KEVIN HOWELL

Kevin Howell was named NC State's 15th chancellor in May 2025. He leads the largest university in the state of North Carolina with about 39,000 students.

Howell was previously the chief of external affairs for UNC Health and UNC School of Medicine. In this role, he developed and executed strategies for shaping public policy and legislation for a health care system with 19 hospitals, more than 900 clinics, 3,000 physicians and more than 40,000 employees.

Howell has a long record of service to North Carolina, the UNC System and NC State University. Before his stint with UNC Health, Howell served as NC State's vice chancellor for external affairs, partnerships and economic development from 2018 to 2023. He was also the assistant to the chancellor for external affairs within the University of North Carolina System from 2006 to 2016. In that role, he directed the university's legislative strategy and served as legislative liaison to state and local government agencies and elected leaders.

Before coming to NC State in 2006, Howell served as legislative liaison for two N.C. governors and worked for the N.C. Bar Association as director of governmental affairs.

His work and efforts in building and managing relationships and economic partnerships has enhanced local and global engagement and has created new jobs and investments for the state of North Carolina.

Howell received a bachelor's degree in political science from NC State and served as student body president during his senior year in school. A former student-athlete himself, Howell competed on the wrestling team at NC State. He earned a law degree from the UNC-Chapel Hill and later served as a legal clerk on the N.C. Court of Appeals.

Making his return to his alma mater, Howell has taken the helm of a forward-looking university that leads the nation in biotechnology, nanotechnology, proteomics, nonwoven textiles and other fields of study, such as food safety, biomedical research and artificial intelligence, which affects the health and livelihoods of people across the globe.

With deep expertise in driving economic investment and growth, Howell will continue to strengthen NC State's role as a frontier research university to keep North Carolina competitive in the most important fields in the future.

Howell is a native of Shelby, North Carolina. Howell and his wife, Aleta, have two adult children.

BOO CORRIGAN

Since Boo Corrigan began his tenure as NC State's McMurray Family Director of Athletics in April of 2019, the Wolfpack has enjoyed unprecedented success. His vision when he took over the helm was clear: to cultivate a culture defined by trust, accountability, passion and empathy. In other words: a culture centered around the Pack.

Six years later, the McMurray Family Director of Athletics' vision has become a reality, delivering exceptional outcomes. Competitively, NC State has enjoyed unprecedented success. Academically, Wolfpack student-athletes have achieved marks that are the highest in school history. Additionally, the student-athlete experience has been enhanced in several ways - large and small - under Corrigan's veteran leadership.

In 2024-25, NC State boasted its fifth consecutive top 25 Directors' Cup ranking, with five of the six top 25 finishes in school history coming under his leadership. The Wolfpack has captured 20 ACC team titles since he arrived on campus, more than any other league school during that time frame, and Wolfpack student-athletes have won 16 individual national titles in five different sports.

Corrigan's tenure has seen women's cross country boast a trifecta of NCAA national team titles and five straight ACC championships. Wrestling won six consecutive conference titles, and women's basketball won three to go along with six Sweet 16 appearances in the past seven years and a trip to the 2024 Final Four. Men's swimming also captured three straight league titles.

Baseball has taken two trips to the College World Series, football has qualified for five straight bowl games, women's tennis brought home the first ACC title in the history of the program, and gymnastics won the first conference championship since the sport was reinstated - all since he took the helm of the department. In 2023-24, NC State became only the third school ever to send its men's and women's basketball teams to the Final Four and its baseball team to the CWS in the same year, while the Wolfpack was one of just eight Division I schools to advance to the postseason in all of its "Big Four" sports: football, men's basketball, women's basketball and baseball.

NC State's most recent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) is the highest it's ever been at 92%, and the Wolfpack has either matched or bettered its all-time high every year under Corrigan's guidance.

In the past two years, NC State's Academic Progress Rate (APR) has been the best in school history, ranking first and second (996 and 994). In the most recent report, nine of the Wolfpack's 20 teams earned a perfect 1000, while 19 of the 20 teams finished above the national average for their sport.

Recent improvements to the Wolfpack's facilities include new nutrition centers in Weisiger-Brown and the Murphy Center, renovations to the Case Academic Center and the football weight room, locker room renovations for women's basketball, women's track and field/cross country and wrestling, a renovation of the Dail Center player lounge for men's basketball, new field surfaces at Dail Soccer Stadium and Doak Park, and the new videoboard and sound system at Carter-Finley Stadium. Ongoing improvements to baseball's home, Doak Park, are in the works.

Corrigan was named a Cushman & Wakefield Athletics Director of the Year in 2022. It marked the second time in six years that Corrigan was honored, as he was named a 2017 Athletic Director of the Year by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics while he was the leader at Army.

In January of 2021, Corrigan was selected as a member of the College Football Playoff Selection Committee, beginning a three-year term. He served as chairman of that prestigious group in 2022 and did so again in 2023.

Prior to his time in Raleigh, Corrigan presided over one of the most successful eras in Army's history, setting milestones and records in competition and in the classroom. He oversaw a program that claimed 20 Patriot League regular-season or tournament championships and sent 14 teams to their respective NCAA postseason competitions.

Corrigan oversaw an unprecedented increase in athletic fundraising during his time at West Point, including a 30 percent increase in membership for the Army A Club, a 200 percent increase in money raised and significant growth of the Athletic Department's endowments.

No stranger to the Atlantic Coast Conference, Corrigan also had stints at Duke and Florida State. His resume also includes stops at Notre Dame and the U.S. Naval Academy.

Corrigan spent much of his youth in Charlottesville while his father, the late Gene Corrigan, served as Virginia's athletic director from 1971 to 1981. Gene Corrigan was later the athletics director at Notre Dame and commissioner of the ACC.

Corrigan is married to the former Kristen Aceto, who played field hockey and lacrosse at the University of Virginia and also earned a master's degree from the school. The couple has three children: Finley, Tre and Brian.

Corrigan received his bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Notre Dame in 1990 and earned a master's degree in education from Virginia Commonwealth University in 2013.

- Top 50 among universities in the U.S. (QS World University Rankings)
- Top 1% of universities worldwide (Center for World University Rankings)
- Top 10 best value among public universities (U.S. News & World Report and Princeton Review)

EACH YEAR, NC STATE ADDS $6.5 BILLION TO THE STATEWIDE ECONOMY, WHICH IS EQUIVALENT TO CREATING MORE THAN 90,000 NEW JOBS.

That represents significant return on investment for the citizens of North Carolina in the form of research advances, innovative technologies, successful companies, skilled graduates and new jobs waiting for them.

NC State's 9,000+ faculty and staff are world leaders in their fields, bridging the divides between academic disciplines and training high-caliber students to meet tomorrow's challenges. Together, they forge powerful partnerships with government, industry, non-profit and academia leaders to remake our world for the better.

NC State is leading efforts to curb nuclear proliferation, develop a smart electric grid, create self-powered health monitors, help farmers confront climate change and build a new American manufacturing sector. The award-winning Centennial Campus is home to more than 70 public and private partners - as well as the innovative Hunt Library, which Time magazine has dubbed "the library of the future."

CENTENNIAL CAMPUS

- Home to the College of Engineering, the College of Textiles, the College of Veterinary Medicine and the Institute for Emerging Issues (a think tank focused on tackling big issues that impact North Carolina's prosperity)
- Public-private research campus where 70+ corporate, government and nonprofit partners work alongside 70+ NC State research and academic units
- The Incubator: supporting high-tech startups by facilitating unparalleled access to world-leading researchers

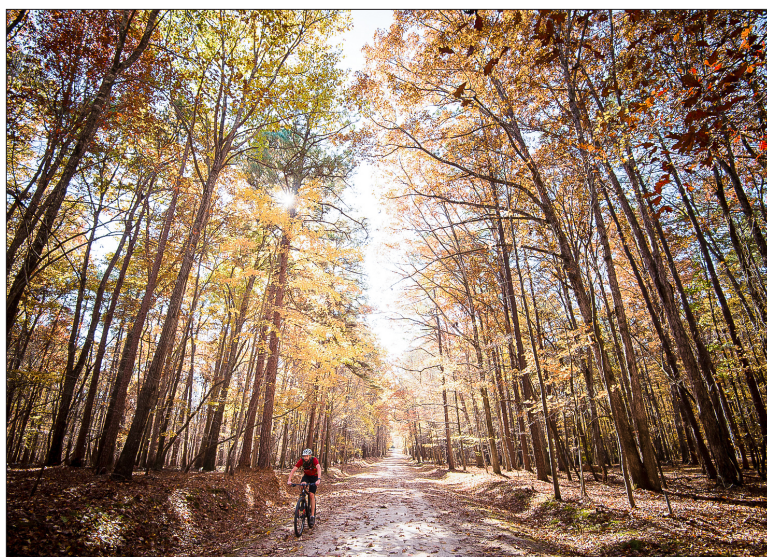

JAMES B. HUNT LIBRARY

- Opened on January 2, 2013, as Centennial Campus' intellectual and social center with $115.2 million in state appropriations plus donor support
- 221,000 gross square feet with almost 100 group study rooms and dramatic views of Lake Raleigh and the downtown city skyline
- Bold design is a visual statement of its bold purpose: to be a place not of the past but of the future, a place where students, faculty and partners can gather to research, learn, experiment, collaborate and strengthen NC State's long tradition of leading transformative change
- Winner of the prestigious Stanford Prize for Innovation in Research Libraries; considered one of the most technologically advanced learning and collaboration spaces in the world
- Added much-needed study seating for the over 10,000 daily visitors to the NC State Libraries
- Serves as a bold technology incubator for NC State and allows students to immerse themselves in the technologies that drive the economy
- The robot-driven bookBot automated book delivery system holds up to 2 million volumes in 1/9 of the space of conventional shelving

RALEIGH, N.C.

RALEIGH IN THE RANKINGS:

- No. 3 happiest city
- No. 3 among U.S. state capitals
- No. 5 best places to live for quality of life
- No. 6 best places to live
- No. 7 fastest growing city in the U.S.
- No. 22 best cities to live in America

North Carolina's capital city, RALEIGH is the apex of the area known as the Research Triangle - home to more than two million residents. A top spot for jobseekers and tech professionals, Raleigh is nationally recognized as a leading urban center. More than 125 years after its creation, NC State continues to make its founding purpose a reality. Every day, NC State's career-ready graduates and world-leading faculty make the fruits of learning and discovery available to people across the state, throughout the nation and around the world.

Ideally situated between the Blue Ridge Mountains and the Atlantic Ocean, Raleigh boasts more than 9,000 acres of parkland and almost 1,300 acres of water, offering recreational activities year-round. A nationally acclaimed greenway system spans more than 180 miles, providing walking, jogging and hiking trails that connect many of the City of Raleigh's 200+ parks and the Town of Cary's 30+ parks.

NC State and Raleigh both host many events and opportunities for quick diversions, including live music and concerts, professional sporting events, the North Carolina State Fair, museums, performing arts, food and craft breweries.

Founded in 1959, Research Triangle Park (RTP) is the largest research park in the United States and a premier global innovation center that houses hundreds of companies including science and technology firms, government agencies, academic institutions, startups and non-profits.

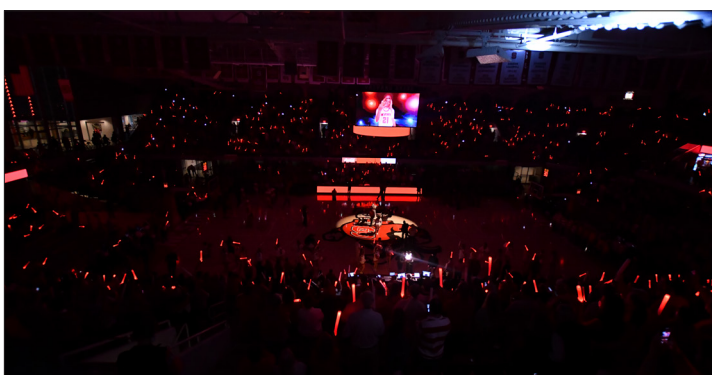

REYNOLDS COLISEUM

One of nine “hallowed spaces” on the NC State campus, venerable “old” Reynolds Coliseum is now a place where the Wolfpack’s legendary past meets its promising future. On Nov. 14, 2018, a naming gift helped to rename the facility the James T. Valvano Arena at William Neal Reynolds Coliseum in honor of the legendary former men’s basketball coach.

The largest basketball arena in the southeast when it opened its doors in 1949, Reynolds reopened in the fall of 2016 after undergoing a $35 million renovation. The basketball court, where Hall of Famers Kay Yow, Norm Sloan and Jim Valvano once coached, was shifted to the south end, seats were arranged closer to the playing surface and air conditioning was added for the first time in the building’s then-57-year history.

Seating capacity was reduced from 8,300 to 5,500 during the renovation to provide an intimate home court environment for the Wolfpack. The building boasts new hospitality areas, restrooms, concessions, merchandise stands and other amenities. All building systems were overhauled, including the addition of new LED sport lighting and a new, center-hung video board and secondary LED displays, which help enhance the in-game experience for fans. Adjacent to the iconic north lobby, the first third of the arena has been transformed into the Truist Grand Hall and serves as the heart of the NC State Athletics Walk of Fame & History. Ahead of the 2023-24 season, NC State Athletics finished construction on a renovated and enhanced women’s basketball locker room inside of Reynolds Coliseum. The space is named the Gayle and Dwain Lanier Women’s Basketball Locker Room in honor of the team’s loyal supporters who made the single-largest gift ever to the program. NC State Athletics is excited for this opportunity to have its student-athletes see a woman’s name on their locker room every day.

Reynolds Coliseum has forever stood as the most formidable women’s basketball venue in the ACC and is among one of the best home atmospheres in the nation. In 2023-24, Wolfpack women’s hoops sold out a program record 14 home games and season tickets have been sold out for the past five seasons. During the 2022-23 season, the program sold out eight games and ranked second nationally in percent capacity (.916) in the country. The Pack is coming off a perfect 18-0 record at Reynolds Coliseum in 2024-25, and since the renovation in 2016, the Pack has gone 135-15 (.900) at home.
