WOLFPACK

2025 Record: 6-5 overall (3-4 ACC)
Head Coach: Dave Doeren (Drake '93)
Rec. at school: 93-70 (13th yr)
Overall Rec: 116-74 (15th yr)

TAR HEELS

2025 Record: 4-7 overall (2-5 ACC)
Head Coach: Bill Belichick (Wesleyan '75)
Rec. at school: 4-7 (1st yr.)
Overall Rec (College): 4-7 (1st yr.)

THE GAME

- Saturday's game will mark the 115th meeting in the series between the Wolfpack and the Tar Heels.
- The rivalry, which began in 1894, is the Wolfpack's oldest among ACC teams and the fourth-most played series in the ACC.
- Under Dave Doeren, the Wolfpack is 8-4 against the Heels.
- Since the year 2000, NC State posts a 16-9 record vs. UNC.
- The Tar Heels hold a 68-40-6 overall lead in the history of the series.
- NC State has won the last four matchups with UNC - a fifth win would tie as the longest winning streak for the Pack in the series (2007-2011 and 1988-92).
- Less than 25 miles separate NC State's Carter-Finley Stadium from UNC's Kenan Stadium.
- The Wolfpack will celebrate its Senior Night vs. UNC.

NOTING THE WOLFPACK

ONE FOR THE THUMB

NC State has won the last four contests vs. rival North Carolina, with three of those four wins being tight contests.

The Pack won in Carter-Finley, 34-30 in 2021, 30-27 in overtime over No. 18 UNC in Chapel Hill in 2022, 39-20 in Raleigh in 2023 and 35-30 last season on the road.

A fifth straight win over the Tar Heels would tie as NC State's longest winning streak over its rival since the Wolfpack won five straight under head coach Tom O'Brien from 2007-2011. Dick Sheridan also led the Pack to five straight from 1988-92.

WE'RE GOING BOWLING ...

With the win over Florida State, NC State is now bowl eligible for the sixth straight year. That's the longest continuous bowl streak under one head coach in school history and marks 10 bowl qualifications in Dave Doeren's 13 years as head coach of the Wolfpack.

NC State went to five straight bowls under Doeren from 2014-18.

The longest bowl streak in school history was seven between 1988-1994 under head coaches Dick Sheridan and Mike O'Cain.

... AND SO ARE OUR OPPONENTS

NC State has faced eight teams that are bowl bound in 2025. That mark is tied as the fifth-best mark in the country and if Florida State were to win this week at Florida, that number would increase to nine teams.

Here's a look at where the Pack ranks among FBS teams vs. bowl eligible opponents:

AND SPEAKING OF OPPONENTS...

NC State has four victories over teams with seven or more wins this season. Only three other teams in the Power 4 have more in 2025: BYU (6), Indiana (5) and Alabama (5).

NC State has defeated three P4 teams that boast eight or more wins this season (Virginia, Georgia Tech and Wake Forest). That mark ties with Oklahoma, Texas Tech, Georgia, and Alabama.

SPREADING THE WEALTH

NC State and Ole Miss are the only Power Four schools that boast seven receivers with 20 or more catches in 2025. All seven of those receivers have at least one touchdown grab this season (only six of Ole Miss's seven have scored).

TE Justin Joly (42), WRs Terrell Anderson (36), Noah Rogers (29), Keenan Jackson (26), Teddy Hoffman (23) and Wesley Grimes (21), as well as RB Hollywood Smothers (33) have all hit the 20+ mark.

Duke and LSU boast six players with 20 or more catches (all six of Duke's have scored TDs).

You have to go all the way back to 2010 to find the last time the Pack boasted seven receivers with 20 or more catches in a single season.

HOME-VEMBER

NC State has won 11 of its last 14 home games in November, dating back to the 2020 campaign (11 of 15 if you throw in a December regular season contest in 2020). That includes the Wolfpack's upset of eighth-ranked Georgia Tech on Nov. 1.

NC State is tied for the most November home victories in the ACC since 2020. Overall the Wolfpack has posted a 16-7 record in that time frame.

School W-L in November since 2020

NC State	11-3
Clemson	11-2
SMU	10-1
UNC	7-5

SELLING OUT

This week's regular season finale vs. UNC will mark the seventh sellout of 2025 for NC State Football.

That make 27 straight sellouts for Wolfpack football, - the longest streak in school history. The streak dates back to Sept. 17, 2022 vs. Texas Tech.

That makes three straight seasons of selling out every home game. The 2024 season marked the first time in school history that the Pack had sold out of single-game tickets in consecutive seasons. Season tickets have also sold out each of the past three years (and eight times under head coach Dave Doeren).

NC State has won 32 of its last 40 games in Carter-Finley Stadium (since 2020).

In 2022, NC State tied the school record for the longest home winning streak at 16 before falling in the last home game of the season. That streak, which tied the mark set under head coach Lou Holtz from 1972-75, was the sixth-best active home winning streak in the FBS at the time.

Since the beginning of the 2017 season, the Wolfpack has posted a 47-13 mark in games played at Carter-Finley Stadium.

As far as ACC games go, the Pack has won 16 of its last 22 at home.

DISRUPTIVE FORCE

Devon Marshall has quietly been a steady performer for the Wolfpack all season, starting every game at left corner. But there was nothing quiet about his performance in the Wolfpack win over Florida State.

Marshall broke up Florida State's first throw of the game and it just got better from there. Before the night was over, he had tallied eight passes defended in the contest - the highest single-game mark in the FBS this season.

His six PBUs also tied as the best mark in the country for 2025, and he added two interceptions to go along with that total.

Those six pass breakups was the most ever for a Pack player in a single game.

Marshall was matched up on the ACC's top receiver, Duce Robinson, for most of the night, allowing him to catch just two passes on nine targets (Robinson had four total grabs, but just two while matched up with Marshall).

Marshall now ranks second nationally in passes defended for the season, with 16 total (14 PBUs, 2 INTs). That PBU tally leads the FBS.

THE ROOM WHERE IT HAPPENS

AKA the Wolfpack's Tight End Room.

NC State's tight ends - Justin Joly, Cody Hardy, Dante Daniels and Griffin Reimer - have combined for 54 receptions, 576 receiving yards and nine receiving touchdowns this season (nine total TDs, as Hardy recovered a fumble in the endzone in the win over Georgia Tech).

That is the most touchdown receptions for any tight end room in the Power 4 (tied with New Mexico in the FBS).

Although most of those numbers come from the sure hands of Joly, a Mackey Award semifinalist who is the Wolfpack's leading receiver, the rest of the room is completely capable, as shown in the victory over No. 8 Georgia Tech.

With Joly (who currently boasts a team-best 42 catches) on the sidelines with an injury, Daniels hauled in three receptions for 36 yards (both career bests while with the Pack) while Hardy had two catches for 31 yards and was responsible for the first touchdown and the go-ahead touchdown in the Pack's win. One score was a 5-yard scoring grab on the Pack's dominating 10-minute drive on the first possession of the game to set the tone. Late in the second quarter, he recovered a fumble in the end zone which put the Pack back in front, 21-17, never to trail again.

TOP TEN WINS

The Wolfpack's victory over No. 8 Georgia Tech marked the second victory over a Top 10 opponent for NC State under head coach Dave Doeren. Doeren's Wolfpack also knocked off ninth-ranked Clemson (27-21 in 2OT) in 2021. It marked the third-largest margin of victory for the Wolfpack over a top 10 team in at least the past 75 years!

What's most impressive about the victory? The Wolfpack did it without its leading rusher (Hollywood Smothers - who also leads the ACC) and its leading receiver (Justin Joly).

Here's a look at the Wolfpack's victories over top 10 teams since 1950:

BAILEY BALL - THE CAREER

Quarterback CJ Bailey has now tallied 5,096 passing yards for his almost-two-year career - the second-most in school history for a Wolfpack sophomore. Only Philip Rivers had more in his freshman and sophomore seasons, compiling 5,640 aerial yards in 2000-01.

And he's not just been prolific, he's been accurate, boasting a .674 career completion percentage. That is the best mark in school history for a career (Ryan Finley's .645 was the previous record).

Bailey now has 38 career touchdown throws, which is tied for eighth in school history. Here's a look at where he ranks in other career categories:

Category	Mark	NCSU Rk.
Passing Yards	5,096	10th
Passing TDs	38	18th
Completion %	.674	1st
Completions	434	9th
Attempts	644	11th

BAILEY BALL - THE SEASON

For the season, CJ Bailey has 21 TD throws, the fourth-best mark in the ACC (24th in the FBS). That mark ranks 10th in school history for a single season. H

He's amassed 2,683 passing yards in 2025 - marks that are fifth and 25th respectively in the ACC and FBS this week.

He ranks third in the ACC - 13th in the FBS - in completion percentage with a .696 mark. If the season ended today, that would mark the second-best single-season mark in school history (behind Philip Rivers' .721 mark in 2003).

Bailey has completed more than 75% of his throws in (Virginia Tech, .765; Campbell .870; Georgia Tech, .750)

Here's a look at where he stands in the league, the FBS and in the Wolfpack single-season record books:

HOLLYGOOD

Redshirt sophomore Hollywood Smothers leads the ACC in rushing yards per game with 90.7 (he missed one complete game and was slowed in a second due to injury).

Just 21 games into his NC State career, Smothers ranks ninth in NC State history in career rushing yards per game with 70.4 while his career 6.2 yards per carry mark is the best in school history (5.46 was the previous mark).

Smothers broke the 1,000 yard mark in the loss at Duke and now boasts 1,478 yards in his NC State career. He needs 93 more yards to hit the 1,000-yard mark for 2025. That would make him the 14th 1,000-yard rusher in school history.

HIT PARADE

Linebacker and team captain Caden Fordham leads all Power Four players in tackles with 10.7 per game - the top mark in the ACC

He has led or tied the team in tackles eight times in 11 games this season and has seven double figure tackle outputs. He had set career highs with 15 stops in each of the games versus Virginia Tech, Georgia Tech and Florida State.

100 YARD GAMES

NC State has boasted five individual 100+ yard rushing games this season: four by Hollywood Smothers and one by Duke Scott. That's the most since the 2018 campaign and the Wolfpack still has two games left to play.

Earlier this season, Smothers became the first Pack player since Nyheim Hines (2017) to rush for 100+ yards in three straight games.

MISSING TIME

The 2025 season has been marked by injuries this season - mainly on the defensive side of the ball. Wolfpack players who have started games this season have missed a combined 33 games: 22 by six starters on defense and 11 by eight starters on offense.

Here's a look at players who have started this season then missed time:

Defense	Missed	Started	Offense	Missed	Started
Brody Barnhardt, SAF	6	3	Anthony Carter, Jr.	2	8
Sean Brown, LB	6	5	Wesley Grimes, WR	1	7
JJ Johnson, SAF	5	4	Rico Jackson, OG	1	3

SEVEN FOR SIX

Tight end Justin Joly, who is a semifinalist for the Mackey Award, is the Wolfpack's leading receiver in 2025, with 42 receptions for 438 yards.

He has also hauled in six touchdown receptions this season, tied as the third-best mark in school history for a player at his position. Jaylen Samuels (who was actually more of an H-Back) had seven touchdown grabs in 2015 and again in 2016, while George Bryan had six in 2009.

After just 23 games in Wolfpack uniform, Joly's 85 career receptions ranks fourth all time for an NC State tight end, while his 1099 receiving yards is also the fourth-best career mark for a Pack TE. He has 10 total touchdown receptions for the Wolfpack (plus four at UConn).

Against Pitt he posted the first 100-yard game of his career with six grabs for 101 yards.

One of those catches was a 59-yard touchdown grab where Joly pulled up with an injury at the 25 yard line and by force of will made his way to the endzone for the score. He scored 12 of the Wolfpack 34 points in the contest (he also scored 12 of the Pack's 34 points in the win at Wake Forest earlier this season).

He ranks fifth among FBS tight ends with 4.2 catches per game.

GET IN THE ZONE

NC State's offense has been pretty good when it gets in the red zone this season.

The Wolfpack leads the ACC in red zone offense (sixth in the FBS). The offense has scored .941 of the time it's entered the zone.

The Pack has scored a touchdown on 79.4% of it's trips to the red zone (27-34) - the best percentage in the ACC.

Unfortunately, the team is tied for 14th in the league in trips inside the red zone, after not entering that sacred space vs. Notre Dame and getting in the zone just once at Pitt and once at Miami.

CAN YOU SPARE A NICKEL?

Or a safety?

The nickel and safety positions have been like the Bermuda Triangle for the Wolfpack defense in 2025. In 11 games this season, the Wolfpack has started eight different combinations at the free safety, strong safety and nickel spots.

The Pack lost two players for the season at those spots: Isaiah Crowell and Terrente Hinton. In game 1, Jaren Sensabaugh went down with a season-ending injury. In game 3, Jackson Vick was injured and missed three games. In game 5, Brody Barnhardt went down with an injury and has missed five games.

At Pitt, free safety Ronnie Royal - who had started six games this season - went down with an injury, while JJ Johnson has missed several contests with injuries in 2025.

Three different players have started at nickel, four at strong safety and four at free safety.

NO KICKS

One of the side effects of fewer trips to the red zone has been a lack of field goals attempted this season. NC State ranks last in the ACC in field goal attempts (8) and field goals made (5) this season. That FG made mark is the lowest among P4 teams this season.

The Pack did not attempt a field goal in the four straight games prior to going 2-2 vs. Georgia Tech and has not kicked a FG in six total games this season.

300 x 6

Since Dave Doeren became HC prior to 2013 season, Wolfpack quarterbacks have passed for 300+ yards 38 times.

With just 20 career starts, CJ Bailey has reached that threshold six times, including four games in 2025. He threw for 318 yards passing in the season opener vs. East Carolina, posted a career-high 364 yards at Duke, turned in 337 yards while playing just one half (+ one series) vs. Campbell and had 340 yards vs. GT.

Ryan Finley had 18 300-yard outputs in 39 games started from 2016-18 while Devin Leary posted eight 300+ yard passing games in 25 career starts.

WHERE THERE'S A WILL

They say where there's a Will, there's a way.

That has certainly been true for the Wolfpack in 2025. Wilson has converted for a first down or touchdown 20 of the 27 times he's rushed the ball this season. Two of his three pass completions have been for first downs as well.

South Carolina's Mr. Football for 2024 has scored five touchdowns in just 36 offensive snaps during his true freshman campaign (a fifth was ruled a fumble in the endzone after he had crossed the goalline). He is five of five on fourth down conversions.

Here's a look at Wilson's conversions on rushes this season:

	4th	3rd	2nd	1st	Total Conv
Wilson on	5-5	6-11	5-6	1-5	17-27

WITH A PURPOSE

Not only does Hollywood Smothers lead the ACC in rushing, but he's been pretty solid as a receiver as well. He's caught 33 passes on 38 targets with no drops. That reception total ranks third on the team. He boasts 237 yards after the catch

Smothers ranks third in the league in all purpose yards with 108.3 yards per game.

TERRELL ME SOMETHING GOOD

Sophomore wide receiver Terrell Anderson probably wasn't on anybody's bingo card as being the Wolfpack's top wideout in 2025, but he has certainly become the leader of that unit.

Anderson ranks second on the team in receptions with 36 - the top mark among wide receivers (only tight end Justin Joly has more).

He leads the team in receiving yards with 596 and is averaging 16.6 yard per catch. That mark ranks seventh in the league.

Three games into the 2025 season, Anderson had 23 receptions for 265 yards in his 16 career games played. In the eight games since he has hauled in 27 catches for 489 yards (an 18.1 yards per catch mark) and scored five touchdowns. He left the Notre Dame game with an injury and was limited in practice the week before the Pitt game.

The Greensboro native racked up 166 receiving yards on six receptions at Duke - the most for a Wolfpack player since the 2018 season, when Kelvin Harmon had 247 yards vs. Syracuse.

MORE BISCUITS, PLEASE

When NC State's leading tackler - linebacker Caden Fordham - was just a little guy, his dessert of choice was his grandma's biscuits topped with cane syrup. As a toddler, he would waddle up to the kitchen table, time and time again, and ask for "more biscuits, please." From that time forward, he affectionately became known as "Biscuit" to his family and friends.

Since then, Fordham has been known by that name to his coaches and teammates as well.

Fordham, whose dad Tom was a four-year letterman as an offensive lineman at Florida State and played 10 years with 44 starts in the NFL with the Jaguars, Steelers, and Panthers, entered game seven last season as the team's leading tackler in his first season as a starter. The WLB (who was taking the spot vacated by Butkus and Bednarik Award winner Payton Wilson) had tallied 49 total stops before suffering a torn ACL in practice leading up to the Cal game.

Fordham attacked his rehab like he used to attack his grandma's biscuits, and was cleared to return prior to preseason camp. He was a preseason candidate for the national comeback player of the year award and is on the watch list for the Bednarik Award. He also earned the honor of wearing the No. 1 jersey for 2025.

BOOMER NOONER

Graduate student Caden Noonkester has been a sneaky weapon for the Wolfpack, starting the last 41 games at punter. That's the longest starting streak on the 2025 Wolfpack squad.

His 43.5 yard punting average ranks fourth in the ACC. That average might be a little better if he hadn't been so proficient against Florida State. In that contest, he placed four punts inside the 20 yardline.

He's done that 20 times this season - the top mark in the ACC.

Noonkester boasts the third-best career punt average in school history (43.1 ypp). His 197 career boots rank fifth in the record book, while his 8,493 yards is the fourth-best mark ever for a Pack punter.

STACKING YARDS

The Wolfpack offense racked up 583 total yards in the win over eighth-ranked Georgia Tech on Nov. 1. That was the 15th-most yards in a single game in school history - the seventh-best mark ever against an ACC opponent (highest vs. a league school under head coach Dave Doeren).

Offensive coordinator Kurt Roper was named the CBS Sports Offensive Coordinator of the Week following the win over the Yellow Jackets.

DIGGING DUKE

Facing the No. 8 team in the country without your top rusher (who also happens to be the top rusher in the ACC) would not be an ideal situation for most teams. But most teams don't have a Duke Scott.

The Wolfpack's redshirt freshman running back got the start due to the injury to Hollywood Smothers and rushed for nine yards on his first carry of the game en route to 196 rushing yards on the night. That tied as the No. 11 mark in school history, was the most since 2018 and was the highest total for a P4 freshman in 2025.

Scott was named ACC Rookie and Running Back of the Week for his efforts, and also won the Shaun Alexander National Freshman of the Week Award. He was the runner-up for AP National Player of the Week.

He tallied 207 total yards in the contest, posted the Pack's longest rush of the season (69 yards), and scored a touchdown on a 30-yard rush. He finished the game averaging 8.2 yards per carry.

TEN PLUS

In the Wolfpack's 56-10 win over Campbell, the offense gained 607 yards of total offense. That was the seventh-highest total in school history and the highest since 2018.

Even more impressive? The Wolfpack gained those yards on just 60 total plays - an average of 10.9 yards per play. That's the highest mark in school history. The only game that came even close was way back in 2003, when the Wolfpack gained 9.6 yards per play against Kansas in the Citrus Bowl (incidentally, the Jayhawks' linebacker coach that season was none other than Dave Doeren).

The 371 yards passing in the contest was the most since 408 yards vs. Wake Forest in 2021.

ON THE ROAD EARLY

This season marked the first time in 26 years that the NC State's first two conference games were on the road. The Wolfpack opened ACC play with a win at Wake Forest on Sept. 11 and then took the quick trip to Duke on Sept. 20.

In 1999, the Pack opened league play with games at Florida State and Wake Forest - dropping both contests. The Pack also had two road games to open ACC play in 1978, winning at Wake Forest and then falling at Maryland.

You have to go back another decade - to 1968 - to find the previous time the Pack had opened the league with two road games.

BAILEY IS RED-DY

In his Wolfpack career, quarterback CJ Bailey has had 174 snaps and 103 touches in the redzone (passes/rushes/receptions). In those 103 touches, he's scored 32 TDs and has not turned the ball over.

Bailey was 5-5 (all touchdowns) in the red zone on Oct. 5 vs. Campbell.

FOURTH AND NO

The Wolfpack defense made crucial fourth down plays in each of the first two games of 2025 to preserve the victories for the Wolfpack.

In the season opener, with the Pack holding a 24-17 lead, ECU drove down to the NC State nine with under a minute remaining. On 4th-and-1, Jamel Johnson tackled the receiver for a one-yard loss.

In week two vs. Virginia, NC State came back from a 10-point halftime deficit and had held the Cavaliers to a single second-half score. With just over a minute to play, Virginia had 1st-and-10 at the Wolfpack 12, but Cian Slone intercepted the ball in the end zone to preserve the victory.

ALL ABOARD!

Wolfpack offensive line coach Garret Tujague brought a new stat to his unit when he joined the staff in 2023.

In addition to charting knockdowns and pancakes for the o-line, Tujague also keeps track of "Raleigh Railroads."

A RR is an extended, sustained block - basically when the lineman pushes the defender back like a freight train.

Jacarrius Peak currently leads the team with 19 Raleigh Railroads in 2025.

DENYING THE RUN

The win over Campbell marked the 56th time under Dave Doeren that the Wolfpack has held the opponent to less than 100 yards rushing. It was the third time in 2025 that the opponent failed to reach 100 yards rushing.

ECU's 30 total rushing yards in the season opener tied as the 14th-lowest for Pack opponent in the Doeren era. It was the lowest rushing total for an opponent since 2023. Wake Forest rushed for just 59 yards.

THICK SIX

When 280-lb. defensive tackle Isaiah Shirley rumbled and stumbled 41 yards to the end zone after picking off a pass in the win at Wake Forest, it marked the first 'thick six' for the Pack since the 2020 season. Shirley was named the ACC's Defensive Lineman of the Week for his performance in the victory.

Here's a look at the Pack's "thick sixes" since 2000:

Name	Yds	Opponent	Year
Isaiah Shirley	41	@ Wake Forest	2025
Alim McNeill	18	@ Virginia	2020

CONTINUITY

NC State has a distinct advantage that few programs in the FBS can boast, as head coach Dave Doeren is now in his 13th season at the helm of Wolfpack football (and no, he doesn't think the number 13 is unlucky, because his wife Sara's birthday is on the 13th!).

It marks the second-longest tenure in school history (Earle Edwards was coach for 17 seasons between 1954-70).

It's also the second-longest current tenure in the ACC (behind Clemson's Dabo Swinney) and a mark that is tied for fifth among current FBS coaches.

Here's a look at the longest tenured coaches in the FBS:

Rk.	Name, School	Year
1.	Kirk Ferentz, Iowa	26th
2.	Kyle Whittingham, Utah	21st
3.	Troy Calhoun, Air Force	19th
4.	Dabo Swinney, Clemson	18th
5.	Dave Doeren, NC State	13th
	Mark Stoops, Kentucky	13th

DOEREN IT RIGHT

In Dave Doeren's 12 campaigns at NC State, his teams have had seven 8+ win seasons, four nine-win seasons and qualified for 11 bowl games. Five of his players have won seven national awards, three have been first-round draft picks and NC State posted what tied as the longest home winning streak in school history (16 wins between 2020-22).

Doeren is the winningest coach in school history with 93 victories.

CJ + LBs

When 17-year-old CJ Bailey arrived on NC State's campus in January of 2024, he weighed in at 187 lbs. The lanky 6'6 freshman ended up playing in 12 games and getting nine starts under his belt.

That belt may be a little tighter than this time a year ago, as he has added 25+ lbs. to his lanky frame and has weighed in at as much as 213 (although his playing weight is closer to 205)!

ADDING A LIMB

The Dave Doeren head coaching tree added another limb following the 2024 regular season, when Tony Gibson, who has served as defensive coordinator for the past five seasons, was named the head coach at Marshall.

Gibson became the fourth coach who has worked under Doeren at NC State to become a current head coach, joining Mike Uremovich (Ball State), Eliah Drinkwitz (Missouri), and Tim Beck (Coastal Carolina). Rod Carey, who was an assistant under Doeren at Northern Illinois in 2011 and 2012, would go on to be named the Huskies head coach, a position he held from 2013-18.

Here's a look at Doeren's former assistants who have gone on to become head coaches

Name	Years under Doeren	School	Years
Rod Carey	2011-12	Northern Illinois	2013-18
Mike Uremovich	2013-15	Ball State	2025-pres.
Eliah Drinkwitz	2016-18	Missouri	2020-pres.
Tim Beck	2020-22	Coastal Carolina	2023-pres.
Tony Gibson	2020-24	Marshall	2025-pres.

BLOOD IN THE BRICKS

One thing you might hear often if you hang around NC State football, is the phrase "blood in the bricks." It references those whose hard work and dedication helped build the success and culture of the Wolfpack program.

This season, the Wolfpack coaching staff is made up of several players who can claim "blood in the bricks."

Former Pack wide receiver Gavin Locklear was named tight ends coach in the offseason after serving as a quality control analyst. He originally walked on under Doeren before earning a scholarship prior to the 2016 season. The Apex native, who saw action in 38 career games, came back from a horrific leg fracture during his playing career.

Former Pack linebacker Isaiah Moore is now serving as a defensive QC, working mainly with the linebackers. Moore was a five-year starter during his career under Doeren and a three-time team captain. He also suffered a serious injury during his playing career, coming back from a torn ACL.

Nick Treco played safety for the Pack from 2019-23, mainly on special teams. Now working as a graduate assistant for the defense, Treco was a two-time defensive scout team player of the year.

Former Pack linebacker Dantonio Burnette has served as the Director of Strength & Conditioning for Pack Football since 2016. He played for Coach Chuck Amato from 1999-2002.

Alvis Whitted, who played wide receiver under Mike O'Cain from 1994-97, is working with the team as a senior offensive analyst. Also a standout track performer, Whitted played in the NFL from 1998-2006.

Former Pack running back Reggie Gallaspy is working in the Pack's strength and conditioning department, while former offensive lineman Tyler Jones is working with recruiting and DD Hoggard is the longtime Director of Player Development. Even the team chaplain, Al Byrd, is a former player.

GETTING COORDINATED

Although NC State boasts a new coordinator on both sides of the ball this season, only one is a new face for the Wolfpack.

On offense, 30-year coaching veteran Kurt Roper is calling the plays. Roper has been on Dave Doeren's Wolfpack staff since 2019, coaching quarterbacks, running backs and now running that side of the ball. He has previously served as the OC at Duke, Florida and South Carolina.

On defense, DJ Eliot has taken the reins and is coaching the linebackers. A 27-year coaching veteran, the 2025 campaign will mark Eliot's 10th as a coordinator.

This season (technically) marks the first under Doeren with new coordinators on both sides of the ball. (Although in 2020, Tim Beck joined the staff as offensive coordinator and Tony Gibson was named defensive coordinator after serving as Co-DC the previous season).

MARGIN CALLS

Winning the turnover battle has been a must for NC State in recent years. In the past six seasons (2020-25), the Pack posts a 28-2 record when winning the TO margin and is 6-17 when committing more than the opponent (the Oct. 4 win over Campbell was only the 11th victory when the Pack has lost the TO margin under Doeren!).

MAKING THE GRADE

NC State's football program has excelled in the classroom during head coach Dave Doeren's tenure, but recently has enjoyed unprecedented success.

The Wolfpack posted its highest spring term GPA ever for the spring of 2025 and its GPA for the 2024-25 academic year was also the highest in program history. It also marked the first time that the term and cumulative GPAs for the program were both above a 3.0.

THIS AIN'T TEXAS

But the Wolfpack football squad is certainly getting a good sample of the Lone Star State.

In the offseason, NC State added four defensive players and a tight end who hail from Texas. That group includes three talented transfers and two true freshmen: DE Joseph Adedire (Arlington), LB Ke'Von Carter (San Antonio), LB LaCorian Hodge (Arlington), CB Brian Nelson II (Pearland) and TE Ian Flynt (Katy).

In the past 30 years, the most players on the Wolfpack roster from Texas was three in 2000, 2001 and 2002, when George Anderson, Rod Johnson and Victor Stephens brought their talents east to Raleigh.

All five Texans saw action in the win over Campbell.

FAMILY TRADITION

Ropers run deep on the Wolfpack football staff and football runs deep in the Roper family.

Offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Kurt Roper and his brother Zac, the Pack's special teams QC coach, are coaching together at their third different school. The brothers have also crossed paths on the staffs at Ole Miss (1999-2004) and Duke (2008-13).

Along with brother Dan, Kurt and Zac grew up in the nomadic life of a football coach's family.

Their father Bobby played for Frank Broyles at the University of Arkansas, where he was a member of the 1964 national championship Razorback team.

He went on to enjoy a successful career in coaching that began under Bear Bryant at the University of Alabama and included stops at Wichita State, The Citadel, Virginia, Iowa State, Pitt, Tennessee, Oregon State, and Texas A&M. Roper was the defensive coordinator of the 1976 national championship Pitt Panthers.

FAMILY TRADITION, Part 2

Redshirt sophomore quarterback Lex Thomas is the third member of the Thomas family to play for the Wolfpack, following in the footsteps of his older brothers Thayer and Drake.

Thayer played wide receiver from 2018-22, tallying 215 career receptions - the second-highest total in school history. He is now on the practice squad for the Minnesota Vikings.

Drake, a first-team All-ACC performer at linebacker, played from 2019-22 and was the Pack's leading tackler twice in his career. He now plays for the Seattle Seahawks.

Lex redshirted last season and his 14 snaps in 2024 versus Clemson were the first of his career. He is the second Thomas brother to throw for a touchdown, as Thayer threw for four in his career. Lex's first collegiate TD throw was a 40-yarder to Terrell Anderson. Thayer also had 24 receiving TDs.

Drake scored a touchdown of his own during his Wolfpack career, reaching the end zone on a 38-yard pick six vs. Syracuse in 2021.

LEAGUEY LEGACY

The Wolfpack has three players whose fathers played significant time in the NFL: LB Caden Fordham, NIC Jaren Sensabaugh and C Spike Sowell.

Fordham's father, Tom, played at Florida State and then on to play 10 years in the NFL with the Jaguars, Steelers and Panthers, starting 44 games.

Gerald Sensabaugh played at East Tennessee State and UNC before his eight-year NFL career, where he played for the Cowboys and Jaguars.

Spike's dad, Isaac Sr, played collegiately at Indiana before his six-year NFL career.

FREAKY PACK

Three Wolfpack players made the list of 101 "freaks" as selected by The Athletic's Bruce Feldman. The annual list recognizes the most athletic players in college football.

Offensive tackle Jacarrius Peak was ranked 31st on the list. In the offseason, Peak clocked in at 4.86 in the 40 and hit 19.8 mph on the GPS. He jumped 32.5 inches, broad jumped 9-3 and timed a very impressive 4.37-second shuttle. (That would've been the fastest shuttle time of any offensive lineman at the 2024 NFL combine). He bench pressed 405 pounds, squatted 585 and cleaned 350.

Duke Scott came in at No. 66 on the list, which called him "one of the strongest running backs in college football." The redshirt freshman power cleaned 375 pounds this offseason and squatted 550. His vertical jump was 37.5 inches, he ran the 40 in 4.35 and clocked a 4.23 shuttle time.

Linebacker Sean Brown was No. 75 on the list. Although Brown has added weight since his days as a safety, the publication said he "still runs like a DB, and a fast one at that." His 40 time was a 4.47 with a 3.97 shuttle. He boasts a 10-3 broad jump and a 38.5-inch vertical jump, while squatting 530 pounds, benching 365 and cleaning 325.

ACC-OMPLISHMENT

Since the beginning of the 2020 season, NC State is tied for second in the ACC in conference victories. The Wolfpack has posted a 29-20 mark in league play over the past six seasons, second only to Clemson's 37-12 mark.

Here's a look at the league records since 2020:

School ACC Record Since 2020

Clemson	37-12
NC State	29-20
Miami	29-19
Pitt	28-21
Louisville	27-23
UNC	25-24
Georgia Tech	25-24
Florida St.	22-26
Virginia Tech	21-27
Virginia	20-27
Wake Forest	20-26
Duke	19-29
Boston College	16-33
Syracuse	15-34

Cal, SMU and Stanford not included since 2024 is their first year in the league, however results against those teams are included.

NUMBER ONE

Since 2014, the honor of wearing the No. 1 jersey has been awarded to the Wolfpack player who exhibits elite work ethic and practice and training habits, while also serving as an exemplary leader. This season, LB Caden Fordham has earned that honor.

Fordham was the team's leading tackler last season before suffering a season ending knee injury in practice. The postgraduate attacked his rehab in order to return full strength for 2025.

"Caden is the alpha wolf of our football team," said Doeren. "He learned under some of the best linebackers in school history - Payton Wilson, Drake Thomas and Isaiah Moore - and is carrying that tradition forward. I look forward to watching him lead on and off the field this season."

Here's a look at who has worn the honorary No. 1 for the Pack: under Doeren

Year	Name, Pos.
2014	Jarvis Byrd, CB	2020	Isaiah Moore, LB
2015	Hakim Jones, SAF	2021	Isaiah Moore, LB
2016	Jaylen Samuels, TE	2022	Isaiah Moore, LB

2018	Stephen Louis, WR	2024	Davin Vann, DE
2019	James Smith-Williams, DE	2025	Caden Fordham, LB

AWARD WINNERS

Head coach Dave Doeren has coached five different Wolfpack players to seven different national awards.

2017	Bradley Chubb, DE	Nagurski Trophy
		Hendricks Award
2018	Garrett Bradbury, C	Rimington Trophy
2022	Christopher Dunn, PK	Groza Award
2023	Payton Wilson, LB	Bednarik Award
		Butkus Award
	Joe Shimko, LS	Mannely Award

CHANGE OF PLANS

Head coach Dave Doeren's original plan was not to be a football coach.

In fact, when he left Kansas to attend college at Drake, his plan was to play football, earn a pre-med degree, go to med school and become an orthopedic surgeon.

He ended up accomplishing the first two.

Doeren majored in pre-medical biology, earning Academic All-America honors as a senior and took the Medical College Admission Test (MCAT).

After his junior year at Drake, he needed to have both of his knees scope and was so interested, he asked to watch his own surgery. But as he went through the rehab process, he realized that his surgeon didn't have much time to talk to his patients or to build relationships - something that was very important to him in his career choice.

That summer, he coached 7-on-7 drills for his old high school coach and never turned back. He realized that coaching was the way he could impact others and be involved in their lives and more than three decades later, he's still in the game.

THE GOATS

We've got goats. Seriously.

In an ongoing effort to improve sustainability, NC State Athletics is partnering with Triangle Goatscape to clear land adjacent to the outdoor practice facility on Westchase Blvd.

Known as 'nature's weed-whackers,' a group of goats will graze the invasive weeds and brush that damage the landscape, helping the Pack avoid the use of harmful chemicals or noisy, gasoline-powered equipment.

NC State Athletics has long been recognized for its sustainability programs, earning Front Office Sports' 2024 Most Sustainable Award, as well as recognition from the City of Raleigh, Carolina Recycling Association, and Green Sports Alliance.

The Wolfpack community is invited to help NC State Athletics strive for zero waste at every home football game by properly sorting their waste on game day between recycling, compost or landfill.

NON-CONS WON

NC State has lost just two non-conference home contests under head coach Dave Doeren, who is now in his 13th season at the helm of the Wolfpack program. During his tenure, the Pack has posted a 32-2 mark in non-ACC home games (the 32nd one was against an ACC team, but did not count as a conference game).

One of those losses was vs. No. 10 Notre Dame in 2023, while the other was at the hands of East Carolina on Nov. 23, 2013 - Doeren's first season in Raleigh.

The Wolfpack has won 30 of its last 31 non-conference home games.

WOLFPACK TRADITIONS

Lighting It Red: After ACC wins in football, the Memorial Belltower on campus is lit RED to celebrate. It's a unique celebration that is often imitated, but never duplicated.

The Wolf Sign: Touch your ring finger and middle finger to your thumb and raise your pinkie and pointer fingers. You've made the sign of the Wolf!

Law of the Jungle: After wins, when Coach Doeren calls the team up in the postgame locker room, the entire team chants a verse from Rudyard Kipling's poem Law of the Jungle.

*Now this is the Law of the Jungle – as old and as true as the sky;
And the Wolf that shall keep it may prosper, but the Wolf that shall break it must die.
As the creeper that girdles the tree-trunk the Law runneth forward and back –
For the strength of the Pack is the Wolf, and the strength of the Wolf is the Pack.*

Alpha Wolf Starter: Before every home game, a fan favorite serves as the 'starter of the game.' This could be a former player, famous alum or just somebody special to Wolfpack nation. The starter gets the crowd going in a chant of "WOLF!" "PACK!" prior to the team's entrance.

Walk of Champions: A couple of hours before kickoff, NC State's team buses arrive at the stadium on Trinity Rd, in front of the Murphy Football Center. The team walks down the steps through the cheerleaders, band and Wolfpack Nation before entering the building on the far side and heading to the locker room.

El Lobo: Leading the band onto the field (and the team down Trinity Rd. before the Walk of Champions) is the helmet cart, also known as "El Lobo."

Equipped with it's own sound system and smoking 'tailpipes', the cart was originally given by a donor in the late 70s, then restored a couple of decades ago.

The cart brings the Pack's beloved mascots (see next note) onto the field.

Mr. and Ms. WUF: NC State's Mr. WUF mascot has been around since the 60s, and he was joined by a female version in 1975. On Feb. 28, 1981, the two were married in a mock ceremony by the Wake Forest Demon Deacon mascot during halftime of a men's Basketball game at Reynolds Coliseum. The two were joined in "canis matrimonium," and Chancellor Joab Thomas gave the bride away.

Tuffy III: A dog named Tuffy became the new live mascot for football games in 2010. Tuffy was a Tamaskan - a breed of dog that resembles a wolf. Tuffy II took over in 2016, followed by Tuffy III in 2021.

Wagon Wheel: The song "Wagon Wheel" has long been a Wolfpack favorite due to its lyrics about our state and city.

However, in the past several years, it's become a tradition to play the song between the 3rd and 4th quarter and for Wolfpack Nation to sing it together:

*Headin' down south to the land of the pines
I'm thumbin' my way into North Caroline
Starin' up the road and pray to God I see headlights
I made it down the coast in seventeen hours
Pickin' me a bouquet of dogwood flowers
And I'm a-hopin' for Raleigh, I can see my baby tonight*

ONEPACK EMPOWERED

A generous gift from Dave and Sara Doeren established a new initiative at NC State in 2023-24 to support students with executive functioning challenges and those who are neurodivergent. Their $1.25 million commitment is among the largest made by a college football coach to his NCAA-member institution.

Launched through the Doeren Family Fund, OnePack Empowered benefits NC State students who face challenges with executive function skills critical to academic success, such as organization, planning, setting priorities, task completion and decision making.

The program has grown from 15 participants in the spring semester of 2025, to 50 this fall. The group include seven freshmen, 10 sophomores, 17 juniors, 14 seniors, on associate and one Prague Connect student.

OnePack Empowered also has student representation from all the university's undergraduate schools/colleges plus the Agriculture Institute.

With a focus on one-on-one mentoring, individual support plans, career readiness and additional specialized assistance, the program was designed to bolster academic and personal success and ensure students can complete their degrees.

In addition, students in the OnePack Empowered program can take part in the Howl Together program, which covers topics spanning academic, professional, and personal development.

The Doerens' commitment will pilot the program for five years, and the hope to inspire other donors to join them in contributing to OnePack Empowered as a sustainable source of support and guidance for an expanding number of participants over the next several years.

HEAD COACH DAVE DOEREN

•In his 13th season at NC State, his 15th season as a head coach overall. Boasts the second-longest tenure in the ACC and tied for sixth in the FBS.

•Has taken 11 of his last 12 teams to bowl games - 13 in his 15 total years as a head coach.

•NC State has qualified for six straight bowl games under his leadership.

•The all-time NC State leader in coaching victories with 93.

•Has more nine-win campaigns than any coach in school history (four) and the Pack has at least eight wins in six of the last eight seasons.

- Between 2017-25, 23 of his players have been drafted by the NFL - including an ACC-best seven in 2017 - the sixth-highest total nationally. Three of his players have gone on to be first-round picks.
- The Wolfpack ranks second in the ACC in conference wins since 2020.
- The Wolfpack has boasted 75 Academic All-ACC performers under his guidance - including a program-high 13 in 2022 - and in 2018 had a player named to the prestigious NFF National Scholar-Athlete Team.
- Five of his players have won seven national awards: Bradley Chubb (2017 Nagurski Trophy, 2017 Hendricks Award), Garrett Bradbury (2018 Rimington Trophy), Christopher Dunn (2022 Lou Groza Award), Payton Wilson (2023 Butkus Award, 2023 Bednarik Award), Joe Shimko (2023 Mannelly Award).
- Over the 2021 and 2022 seasons, the Pack won 16 straight home games, tying the longest home winning streak in school history (1972-74).
- 2022 NC State squad was the first since 1980 not to give up more than 30 points in a single game all season.
- He and his wife Sara have donated $1.25 million to establish a new initiative at NC State to support students with executive functioning challenges and those who are neurodivergent. Their commitment to inaugurate the OnePack Empowered program is among the largest made by a college football coach to his NCAA-member institution.
- Led Northern Illinois to the most successful two years in program history.
- His first Husky squad won the school's first MAC Championship since 1983 and tied the school record with 11 wins.
- His 2012 NIU team repeated as league champ and set a new school mark with 12 victories, earning a trip to the Orange Bowl - the first BCS berth ever for a MAC school.
- Was a finalist for several national coach of the year awards in 2012.
- NIU boasted the nation's longest conference winning streak (17) and never lost a home game during his tenure.
- Spend five seasons in the Big Ten, serving as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Wisconsin.
- Spent four seasons at Kansas and was on staff when the Jayhawks ended a seven-year bowl drought.
- In 2000 and 2001, coached the secondary at NCAA Division I-AA powerhouse Montana. The Grizzlies advanced to the national title game in 2000, losing by two points, but returned in 2001 to win the championship.
- Montana posted a 28-3 record and won two Big Sky titles during his tenure.
- Planned to go to medical school following college and become an orthopedic surgeon. He took the MCAT but after helping coach high school between his junior and senior years, fell in love with coaching.
- Lettered at tight end at Drake and was an Academic All-American.
- Earned his undergraduate degree in pre-medical biology. Earned his master's from Drake in educational leadership and began work on a Ph.D. while serving as a graduate assistant at the University of Southern California.

7 JUSTIN JOLY

TE | Sr. | 6'3 | 263

Brewster, N.Y. | Iona Prep | UConn

PRONUNCIATION: joe LEE

- A semifinalist for the Mackey Award.
- The Pack's leading receiver with 42 grabs.
- Ranks fourth among Power 4 tight ends in receptions per game.
- Has hauled in six touchdown receptions this season, tied as the third-best mark in school history for a player at his position. Jaylen Samuels had seven touchdown grabs in 2015 and again in 2016, while George Bryan had six in 2009.
- Missed the Georgia Tech game with an injury.
- Has tallied 85 catches for 1099 yards since joining the Pack prior to the 2024 season.
- His 85 receptions rank fourth in school history for a tight end, as do his 1,099 yards.
- Had a pair of TDs at Pitt. His second was a career long 59-yarder. He pulled up injured at the 25 and still managed to score.
- Scored his first ... and second ... touchdown of the season in the win at Wake Forest, he also scored in the win over Campbell.
- Named to the preseason watch list for the Biletnikoff and Mackey Awards.
- Named a second-team preseason All-American by Walter Camp and was a third-team choice of Athlon.
- In 2024, ranked second in receptions with 43, his 661 yards led the team. That reception total ranked fifth in school history for a TE in a single season, while his yardage ranked fourth all-time at his position.
- Transferred to NC State in January of 2024 from UConn.
- Major: Sport management
