PACK FACTS

A WIN ON FRIDAY WOULD
- Be the 576th win in program history (575-493-120)
- Be the 258th win in Hubbard's head coaching career (257-59-46)
- Be Hubbard's 26th victory at NC State (25-7-9)
- Be the first win over Saint Louis (0-2-2)

THE PACK IS BACK
After defeating (7) Georgetown on the road by a 3-2 score, NC State advanced to the NCAA College Cup for the first time in over 30 years. The 2025 season is just the second-ever appearance for the red-and-white in the Final Four match, as the last feature of the Wolfpack was in 1990.

If NC State were to advance to the championship match, it would be the first time in program history. The victory would also mark the first-ever win over the Bilikens.

HUBBARD AT THE HELM
Joining in December of 2023, Marc Hubbard is the 10th head coach in program history.

In his first fall season at the helm of the Wolfpack, Hubbard led the program to one of their most successful seasons in 30 years. Through the first seven games under the new coach, NC State had its best start to a season since 1992, opening with a record of 5-0-2. His team posted a 10-win season and fell back into the United Soccer Coaches Poll rankings for the first time since 2019, climbing to a high of No. 12 in the country. The squad finished conference action with its best record (3-3-2) in the ACC since 2017. For the month of October, the team went undefeated, which included ranked matches against No. 2 Stanford, No. 24 Virginia Tech, No. 21 Hofstra, and No. 10 SMU. A 7-0 win over Winthrop in September marked the most goals scored by the Pack since the 1996 season.

The postseason led to a NCAA Tournament berth, reaching the Sweet Sixteen for the first time since 1996, taking out Charlotte and fourth-seeded Georgetown along the way. Hubbard was the only first-year coach to land in the third round of the 2024 NCAA bracket. All of this was capped off by two MLS SuperDraft selections, sophomores Hakim Karamoko and Donavan Phillip. Karamoko was the 10th overall pick by D.C. United, making him the second-highest overall pick in program history. As well as two All-ACC Seond Team honors (Taig Healy and Hakim Karamoko), an All-ACC Freshman Team honor (Niko Markovic), and two USC NCAA DI All-South Region honors (Karamoko on first team and Healy on second team).

REACHING NEW HEIGHTS
In the fifth release of the United Soccer Coaches poll this season, NC State landed at the very top of the list. That marked the first time the program had ever been No. 1 in the country in this poll. This comes after the team is officially the last school in the league to concede a goal. Eight games and eight shutouts, only one match was a draw. The last time a team had eight shutouts in its first eight games of the season was Creighton in 2011. The squad continues to prove it has one of the most dominant offenses as well as one of the most dominant defenses in the nation. The Pack's scoring differential of 47-9 leads the country, roughly one third of that comes from forward Donavan Phillip, who sits with 17 total goals on the season. Currently sitting at 15 wins, the team has tallied the most wins in a season for the program since 1990.

SERIES HISTORY (trails 0-2-2)
- Friday's meeting marks the fifth contest between the NC State Wolfpack and the Saint Louis Bilikens.
- The two met last in 2007, which resulted in a 1-1 draw. The only time they've met in the postseason was on Nov. 30, 1991, when Saint Louis ended NC State's season with a 3-0 win in the NCAA Quarterfinals in Saint Louis, Mo.

QUICK NOTES
- The Wolfpack started the season ranked at No. 14 in the preseason United Soccer Coaches poll, where it finished last season. After just week one of the regular season, the squad landed at eighth in the country, the last time the program was ranked that high was in September of 2018.
- The team has bested its highest-ever ranking in the United Soccer Coaches poll three times this season. The previous best for the program was No. 8 set in 2018, this season, the team has landed at No. 8, No. 5, No. 2, and finally No. 1.
- After being picked to finish eighth in a highly-competitive Atlantic Coast Conference, NC State finished third, just one league win away from sharing the regular season title with Virginia.
- Two players are on the MAC Hermann trophy semifinalist list (Nikola Markovic and Donavan Phillip).

PACK FACTS

• A crowd of 5,083 fans at the game vs. North Carolina on Sept. 5, set a new Dail Soccer Stadium attendance record.
• NC State was the last school in the entire NCAA to concede a goal.
• Six players were mentioned in TopDrawerSoccer's midseason Players to Watch list. Donavan Phillip at No. 1, Nikola Markovic at No. 16, Logan Erb at No. 21, Tyler Caton at No. 49, Taig Healy at No. 62, and then Riley Moloney at No. 7 on the freshmen list.

2025 SQUAD

• The full breakdown of NC State's 2025 squad includes 14 returners and 17 newcomers (7 freshmen, 10 transfers).
• The Pack brings back leading playmakers Taig Healy and Donavan Phillip, each who had six goals last season. Healy also tallied six assists while Phillip had four.
• In total, NC State has seven of its 14 goal scorers from 2024 back with the team in 2025. Those seven men accounted for 19 of the team's 38 goals last season.
• NC State returns six players who started 10+ games during the 2024 season - Logan Erb (12 starts), Taig Healy (20 starts), Isaac Heffess (20 starts), Drew Lovelace (11 starts), Nikola Markovic (17 starts) and Donavan Phillip (14 starts).

EYES ON PHILLIP

Junior forward Donavan Phillip was named to the 15-player ACC Men's Soccer Preseason Watch List. He closed out his sophomore campaign being drafted to the Colorado Rapids, but elected to come back and continue using his collegiate eligibility. Spending his 2025 summer with the Flint City Bucks, the Saint Lucia native shared the title as the leading scorer in the USL2. He was also named to the USL2 Team of the Year for the Central Conference, as well as the Player of the Conference for his league. He was then ultimately named the Player of the Year for the entire USL2 league.

Phillip leads the team with 17 goals. He recorded a hat trick in five minutes against Wofford, making him the first player for the Pack to have a hat trick since Conor Kelly did it (also against Wofford) in 2022. He then went on to record another hat trick in the William & Mary game, scoring four goals in 25 minutes. He is the first NC State player to tally double-digit goals in a season since 2012.

In the TopDrawerSoccer Midseason Top-100 Players to Watch list, Phillip was listed as the top in the nation. He is the first member of the Pack to score this many goals in a season since Roy Lassiter netted 18 in 1991.

PACK AT HOME

In the last five seasons, the Wolfpack has posted a 28-16-8 (.615) record in games played on its home turf. Included in that record is a 1-1 draw against No. 4 Syracuse in 2022, 1-1 draw against No. 10 Clemson in 2023, and a 5-1 victory against No. 12 SMU in 2024.

In just the first season with Hubbard at the helm, the Pack only lost two home matches (back-to-back against No. 6 North Carolina and Duke). Eight home wins in 2024 marked the most wins in a season at Dail since 2019.

RANKED OPPONENT RECORD

The five seasons leading up to the Marc Hubbard era only included one victory and five draws against ranked opponents. In just the first season with Hubbard at the helm, the Pack picked up two victories, two losses, and three draws to opponents in the top-25. One loss being to sixth-ranked North Carolina and the other to eighth-ranked Marshall in the NCAA Sweet 16.

2024 REWIND

• The Pack went 10-5-5 (3-3-2 ACC) during the 2024 season.
• NC State went undefeated against non-conference opponents during the regular season, winning five matches and tying three, and outscoring opponents 19-5.
• The Pack gutted out several draws during the 2024 regular season, three of which were against ranked opponents, but most notably a scoreless decision at No. 2 Stanford.
• NC State concluded the regular season with a 0-1 loss at Wake Forest, who would go on to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament. Its postseason run was finished by Marshall, who fell by one goal to Vermont in the national championship.
• The Pack shut out six opponents in 2024, which included No. 2 Stanford, No. 24 Virginia Tech and fourth-seeded Georgetown in the NCAA Tournament, all on the road.
• In 2024, NC State finished ninth in the Atlantic Coast Conference. The squad fell to Virginia at home in the first round of the 2024 ACC Tournament.

FOOTY IN THE FAMILY

• Isaac Busenze: grandfather and father both played on the National Team for Uganda, older brother played at Loyola Maryland
• Mohamed Kallon: uncle played at Inter Milan and is the head coach of Sierra Leone National Team
• Drew Lovelace: father played soccer at Methodist
• Donavan Phillip: father played professionally in Jamaica, uncle also played professionally and is currently on the Senior National Team, mom also represented Saint Lucia in soccer
• Carlos Santamaria: dad, Porfirio played professionally in Mexico
• Sam Terranova: dad, Justin, is the men's coach at Methodist
• Caden Tolentino: sister, Paige, was a member of UNC women's soccer (2020-23 seasons) and then NC State team in 2024

NEW COACH

Marc Hubbard added Joel Tyson back in January to round out his assistant coaching staff. Tyson spent the last six seasons as the head coach of the men's soccer program at Wofford College. While with the Wolfpack, he will focus on all aspects of recruiting and coaching, including but not limited to the goalkeepers.

In his six years as the leader of the Terriers, his student-athletes garnered 22 All-Southern Conference Honors, including one SoCon Player of the Year and two SoCon Freshman of the Year recognitions. In his fifth season as head coach, a successful conference campaign in 2023 led to him being named the SoCon Coach of the Year.

Prior to taking over the helm in Spartanburg, S.C., Tyson coached in the USL for two years with Charlotte Indepdence.

RED TERRORS

The Red Terrors is the official support group for NC State soccer. The student-led organization has helped create one of the best home atmospheres in the ACC and in the nation and is now the largest student club on campus.

MARC HUBBARD

2ND YEAR AT NC STATE // 11TH YEAR AS DI HEAD COACH

OVERALL: 257-59-46 (.774) • AT NC STATE: 25-7-9 (.720) • ACC: 7-3-5 (.633)

The 2025 season marks Marc Hubbard's second at the helm of the NC State men's soccer program, as he was named head coach of the Wolfpack in December of 2023. Hubbard, who led New Hampshire to seven straight NCAA Tournament appearances from 2017 to 2023, is the 10th coach in Wolfpack men's soccer program history.

In his first fall season at the helm of the Wolfpack, Hubbard led the program to one of their most successful seasons in 30 years. Through the first seven games under coach, NC State had its best start to a season since 1992, opening with a record of 5-0-2. His team posted a 10 win season and climbed back into the United Soccer Coaches Poll rankings for the first time since 2019, reaching a high of No. 12 in the country. The squad finished conference action with its best record (3-3-2) in the ACC since 2017. For the month of October the team went undefeated which included ranked matches against No. 2 Stanford, No. 24 Virginia Tech, No. 21 Hofstra, and No. 10 SMU. A 7-0 win over Winthrop in September marked the most goals scored by the Pack since the 1996 season.

The postseason led to a NCAA Tournament berth, reaching the Sweet Sixteen for the first time since 1996, taking out Charlotte and fourth-seeded Georgetown along the way. Hubbard was the only first year coach to land in the third round of the 2024 NCAA bracket. All of this was capped off by two MLS SuperDraft selections. Hakim Karamoko was the 10th overall pick by D.C. United, making him the second highest overall pick in program history. As well as two All-ACC Second Team honors, one All-ACC Freshman Team honor, and two USC NCAA DI All-South Region honors.

Hubbard (257-59-46 career record) spent nine seasons at New Hampshire, posting an impressive 115-32-21 (.747) overall record with seven NCAA Tournament appearances and four America East Tournament championships.

The Wolfpack's head coach led the Wildcats to a 13-3-4 record and their fifth-straight America East regular season championship in 2023, securing the No. 8 national seed in the NCAA Tournament - the highest seed in program history. Hubbard's squad advanced to the Sweet 16 after a dominant 3-0 victory over Syracuse in the NCAA second round.

Consistent success has been a staple throughout Hubbard's 16-year head coaching career, as he has recorded double-digit win totals in all 15 of his full seasons (8-1-1 in a COVID-shortened campaign in 2020-21). He has recorded eight 15+ win seasons, highlighted by leading Southern New Hampshire to a D II National Championship and a 22-1-1 record in 2013.

Hubbard has earned four regional coach of the year honors, nine conference coach of the year honors and was tabbed the NSCAA Division II Coach of the Year in 2013. His New Hampshire coaching staff was also named the America East Staff of the Year six times and the Northeast Region Staff of the Year four times (2017, 2019, 2021 & 2023).

In 2021, Hubbard led the Wildcats to their highest national ranking in program history when his squad checked in at No. 4 in the United Soccer Coaches Poll on Oct. 16. The Wildcats finished the 2021 campaign 17-2-2 and advanced to the Sweet 16 after notching a 4-1 victory over UNC in the NCAA Second Round. In 2017, Hubbard guided New Hampshire to an undefeated home record (10-0-3) and the first home NCAA Tournament game and victory in program history. The Wildcats then won a penalty kick shootout at Dartmouth to advance to the Sweet 16.

In Hubbard's first season in 2015, he led the Wildcats to a four-win improvement from 6-10-1 in 2014 to a 10-5-3 overall record the following year. New Hampshire's final RPI of No. 52 was an improvement of 112 spots from the previous season.

Player development has also been a cornerstone of Hubbard's coaching career, as he has guided over 20 players to All-America honors under his tutelage, as well as coached nine MLS Draft picks.

Before returning to New Hampshire, Hubbard led Southern New Hampshire to a 117-20-16 (.817) record in seven seasons and a national championship in 2013. He collected the Northeast-10 Coach of the Year award three times and was named the NSCAA East Region Coach of the Year in 2008. In 2008, his first season at SNHU, Hubbard guided the Penmen to a dramatic 10-win improvement. Hubbard went 15-3-4 in 2008 after inheriting a squad that finished 5-8-5 the year before. In seven seasons at SNHU, Hubbard won 12 or more games each campaign and never suffered more than four losses in a single season.

Hubbard's defensive tactical dominance has persisted throughout his 18-year head coaching career. At Southern New Hampshire, Hubbard's squad led Division II in team goals-against average three times. During his nine-year tenure at New Hampshire, the Wildcats have ranked inside the top-10 nationally in goals-against average six times, including first-place finishes in the category in 2019 and 2021.

As a player at Colgate, Hubbard earned three Patriot League second-team selections. The three-year captain graduated in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in political science before earning a master's degree in kinesiology from New Hampshire in 2006.

After college, Hubbard went on to play professionally for five years. While competing with the New Hampshire Phantoms of the USL Second Division, he was a captain twice and a 2006 USL first-team honoree as well as a Defender of the Year finalist. He also played for the Syracuse Salty Dogs in 2003 and for the Wilmington Hammerheads in 2004.
