THE GAME

- NC State has faced Wake Forest more times than any other opponent in its 134 years of football. Thursday's game will mark the 119th meeting between the two squads, with NC State holding a 69-43-6 advantage.
- The teams have met every season since 1910, making it the longest continuous rivalry in the ACC and the second-longest in the FBS (Wisconsin-Minnesota have met every year since 1907).
- Since 2000, NC State has won just three games in Winston-Salem (2001, 2015, 2023). During that time the Wolfpack has posted a 10-3 mark in games played at Carter-Finley, while going 3-9 mark in games played at Wake Forest.
- Six of the last eight games between NC State and Wake Forest have been decided by 10 points or less (five by six points or less).
- The Deacons won last year's contest in Carter-Finley Stadium, 34-30. On the Wolfpack's opening drive, with NC State at the WF 19, starting quarterback Grayson McCall suffered a horrific injury that ended his playing career. CJ Bailey came in to throw for 272 yards and two touchdowns in the four-point loss.

NOTING THE WOLFPACK

THIS IS BECOMING A HABIT

NC State and Wake Forest first squared off on the football field in 1895. Back then, NC State was known as The North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, the team name was the "Farmers," they hosted games in Pullen Park and wore brown and white uniforms. Wake Forest ... well it was actually IN Wake Forest - about 30 minutes north of Raleigh.

The Wolfpack and Deacons have now met every single season since 1910. Among FBS schools, it's the second-longest continuous series (Minnesota and Wisconsin have played every year since 1907). The next longest continuous streak in the ACC is UNC-Virginia, which has been played every year since 1919.

GRIMES TIME

Wesley Grimes has played in two NC State vs. Wake Forest games in his career, but he's stood on different sidelines in each.

Grimes spent his first two seasons at Wake Forest, playing in 19 games and starting three. He tied for the team lead in touchdown catches in 2023, scoring four times while hauling in 20 catches for 339 yards.

He hauled in one catch for nine yards for the Deacons in the Wolfpack's 2023 win in Winston-Salem and had four grabs for 46 yards in last year's NC State loss in Raleigh.

In the '25 season opener, Grimes posted the best single-game totals of his collegiate career, hauling in four catches for 121 yards and a touchdown. His 48-yard touchdown reception in the contest was longest of his career as well.

He currently ranks 16th in the FBS in yards per reception with a 25.7 mark.

When Grimes transferred to NC State in January of 2024, he was actually coming home. The Raleigh native was a prep star at local Millbrook High School, where he set a single-season record for career receiving yards (1,594) in 2021, also scoring 26 touchdowns.

WHERE IT MATTERS

If you looked at the Wolfpack's defensive numbers two games into the 2025 season, you might not believe that the team posts a 2-0 record.

NC State ranks 16th in the ACC in total defense, giving up 463.5 yards per game. However, the defense has made crucial plays on fourth down in each of the first two games to preserve the victories for the Wolfpack.

In the season opener, with the Pack holding a 24-17 lead, ECU drove down to the NC State nine with under a minute remaining. On 4th-and-1, Jamel Johnson tackled the receiver for a one-yard loss.

Last week vs. Virginia, NC State came back from a 10-point halftime deficit and had held the Cavaliers to a single second-half score. With just over a minute to play, Virginia had 1st-and-10 at the Wolfpack 12, but Cian Slone intercepted the ball in the endzone to preserve the victory.

WHERE IT MATTERS, PART 2

Along those same lines, the Pack's first two opponents have struggled once they enter the red zone. NC State ranks second in the ACC and 21st in the FBS in red zone defense, as the opponents have converted just .625 (5-8) of their trips into points, scoring just three touchdowns.

ONE SCORE WONDERS

Since 2020, NC State has played in 31 one-score games (+/- 8 points),. That ties as the fourth-highest tally in the FBS during that time frame.

No other FBS squad has boasted more one-score victories during the Pack, however, as Dave Doeren's squad has posted a 20-11 mark in those close games. That one-score win total ties with Texas Tech, followed by Oklahoma State, UTSA and Washington with 18.

Under Dave Doeren, the Wolfpack has finished 54 games with just a one-score differential. Overall, Doeren is 32-22 in one-score games. Both wins this season have been by one score.

MULTIPLE MULTIPLES

Last week's win over Virginia marked the seventh time in the Dave Doeren era at NC State that multiple players rushed for multiple touchdowns in a single game.

In the Pack's 35-31 win, QB CJ Bailey and RB Hollywood Smothers each rushed for a pair of TDs.

Here's a look at the other multiple multiples since 2013:

THE BABY GIRAFFE

In the postgame press conference following the win over Virginia, running back Hollywood Smothers declared "the baby giraffe can run."

That nickname referred to the Pack's long-legged QB, CJ Bailey, and he can, indeed, run. In fact, he's rushed for three scores in the first two games, including a 30-yarder and a 12-yard in the win over Virginia. He is tied for the national lead in rushing TDs by a QB in 2025.

Last season, Bailey rushed for 279 yards, the 11th-highest rushing total for a quarterback in school history. With 344 rushing yards in his brief career, he already ranks seventh on the career list for rushing yards by a QB.

Bailey's eight career rushing scores is the most for a Wolfpack QB since Jacoby Brissett had nine (2014-15).

(AND HE PASSES TOO!)

Since Dave Doeren became HC prior to 2013 season, Wolfpack quarterbacks have passed for 300+ yards 36 times.

With just 11 career starts, CJ Bailey has reached that threshold three times, with the latest a 318-yard passing performance in the season opener vs. East Carolina.

Ryan Finley had 18 in 39 games started from 2016-18 while Devin Leary posted eight 300+ yard passing games in 25 career starts.

Other 300+ yard games in the Doeren era came from: Bailey Hockman (2), Brennan Armstrong (1), Jacoby Brissett (1), Grayson McCall (1), Matt McKay (1) and Brandon Mitchell (1).

Bailey currently ranks 31st in the FBS with a .702 completion percentage. He boasted a a 90 QBR according to ESPN for the win over Virginia - the highest of his career and 10th-best in the nation last week (second highest vs. a P4 defense).

DENYING THE RUN

The win over East Carolina marked the 54th time under Dave Doeren that the Wolfpack has held the opponent to less than 100 yards rushing. In fact, the Pirates' 30 total rushing yards tied as the 14th-lowest for Pack opponent in the Doeren era. It was the lowest rushing total for an opponent since 2023.

HOORAY FOR HOLLYWOOD

Speaking of players who can run the ball: Hollywood Smothers is pretty good at it as well. He currently ranks second in the ACC in rushing yards this season with 108 ypg.

Smothers has rushed for 100+ yards in three of his last seven games, averaging 90 yards per game in that span.

He rushed for a career high (by one yard!) 140 yards in the win over Virginia - the highest for a Wolfpack player since 2021 (Bam Knight). His 8.2 yards per carry vs. the Hoos was the highest for a Pack player with 17 or more carries since 2018 (Reggie Gallaspy was 24-220-9.2 per attempt)..

The Charlotte native started the last six games of 2024, posting a 6.4 yard average per carry - the sixth-best single-season mark in school history and the best for a Pack back in a decade.

FIRST SIGHTING

Twenty-five players have their first action in Wolfpack uniform in the first two games of the season, including six true freshmen, 12 transfers and seven players who either redshirted or did not see action a year ago. Six starters (two on offense, four on defense) were playing in their first game in Carter-Finley Stadium.

READY TEDDY

One of the brightest spots in the Wolfpack's season opening win was the performance of true freshman wideout Teddy Hoffmann. The Delray Beach, Fla., native hauled in the most receiving yards for a true freshman in his first game for the Wolfpack dating back to at least 1995.

His performance marked the seventh-highest receiving yards total overall by a true freshman under head coach Dave Doeren. His tally was the second-highest in the ACC for a true frosh in week 1 (BC's Dawson Pough had 3-96).

Here's a look at the top single-game receiving totals for true freshmen under Doeren:

13 is unlucky, because his wife Sara's birthday is on the 13th!).

It marks the second-longest tenure in school history (Earle Edwards was coach for 17 seasons between 1954-70).

It's also the second-longest current tenure in the ACC (behind Clemson's Dabo Swinney) and a mark that is tied for sixth among current FBS coaches.

NON-CONS WON

NC State has lost just two non-conference home contests under head coach Dave Doeren, who is now in his 13th season at the helm of the Wolfpack program. During his tenure, the Pack has posted a 32-2 mark in non-ACC home games (the 32nd one was against an ACC team, but did not count as a conference game).

One of those losses was vs. No. 10 Notre Dame in 2023, while the other was at the hands of East Carolina on Nov. 23, 2013 - Doeren's first season in Raleigh.

The Wolfpack has won 30 of its last 31 non-conference home games.

SELLING OUT

NC State has not only sold out its first two games, but the next two (vs. Va Tech on 9/27 and vs. Campbell on 10/5) are already sold out as well.

That will make 24 straight sellouts for Wolfpack football, - the longest sellout streak in school history. The streak dates back to Sept. 17, 2022 vs. Texas Tech.

The 2024 season marked the first time in school history that the Pack had sold out of single-game tickets in consecutive seasons. Season tickets have also sold out each of the past three years (and eight times under head coach Dave Doeren).

DOEREN IT RIGHT

In Dave Doeren's 12 campaigns at NC State, his teams have had seven 8+ win seasons, four nine-win seasons and qualified for 10 bowl games. Five of his players have won seven national awards, three have been first-round draft picks and NC State posted what tied as the longest home winning streak in school history (16 wins between 2020-22).

Doeren is the winningest coach in NC State history with 89 victories.

MORE BISCUITS, PLEASE

When linebacker Caden Fordham was just a little guy, his dessert of choice was his grandma's biscuits topped with cane syrup. As a toddler, he would waddle up to the kitchen table, time and time again, and ask for "more biscuits, please." From that time forward, he affectionately became known as "Biscuit" to his family and friends.

Since then, Fordham has been known by that name to his coaches and teammates as well.

Fordham, whose dad Tom was a four-year letterman as an offensive lineman at Florida State and played 10 years with 44 starts in the NFL with the Jaguars, Steelers, and Panthers, entered game seven last season as the team's leading tackler in his first season as a starter. The WLB (who was taking the spot vacated by Butkus and Bednarik Award winner Payton Wilson) had tallied 49 total stops before suffering a torn ACL in practice leading up to the Cal game.

Fordham attacked his rehab like he used to attack his grandma's biscuits, and was cleared to return prior to preseason camp. He is a preseason candidate for the national comeback player of the year award and is on the watch list for the Bednarik Award. He also earned the honor of wearing the No. 1 jersey for 2025.

In his first two games back after the injury, Fordham as led the team in tackles with 20 total and ranks second in the ACC (20th in the FBS) in tackles per game in this short season.

CJ + LBs

When 17-year-old CJ Bailey arrived on NC State's campus in January of 2024, he weighed in at 187 lbs. The lanky 6'6 freshman ended up playing in 12 games and getting nine starts under his belt.

That belt may be a little tighter than this time a year ago, as he has added 25+ lbs. to his lanky frame and has weighed in at as much as 213 (although his playing weight is closer to 205)!

OLD O-LINE

The Wolfpack offensive line is well positioned in three main categories for 2025: depth, experience and size. But that experience could be the most important factor.

The starting five from game two: LT Jacarrius Peak, LG Anthony Carter, Jr., C Jalen Grant, RG Yousef Mugharbil and RG Teague Andersen, now have combined for 142 career games played and 111 career games started.

BOOMER NOONER

Graduate student Caden Noonkester has been a sneaky weapon for the Wolfpack, starting the last 32 games at punter. That's the longest starting streak on the 2025 Wolfpack squad.

He currently ranks second in the ACC and 11th in the FBS in punting average with a 47.9 mark this season.

Noonkester boasts the third-best career punt average in school history (43.2 ypp). His 155 career boots rank ninth in the record book, while his 6,699 yards is the seventh-best mark ever for a Pack punter.

GETTING COORDINATED

Although NC State boasts a new coordinator on both sides of the ball this season, only one is a new face for the Wolfpack.

On offense, 30-year coaching veteran Kurt Roper is now calling the plays. Roper has been on Dave Doeren's Wolfpack staff since 2019, coaching quarterbacks, running backs and now running that side of the ball. He has previously served as the OC at Duke, Florida and South Carolina.

On defense, DJ Eliot has taken the reins and will coach the linebackers. A 27-year coaching veteran, the 2025 campaign will mark Eliot's 10th as a coordinator.

This season (technically) marks the first under Doeren with new coordinators on both sides of the ball. (Although in 2020, Tim Beck joined the staff as offensive coordinator and Tony Gibson was named defensive coordinator after serving as Co-DC the previous season).

BLOOD IN THE BRICKS

One thing you might hear often if you hang around NC State football, is the phrase "blood in the bricks." It references those whose hard work and dedication helped build the success and culture of the Wolfpack program.

This season, the Wolfpack coaching staff is made up of several players who can claim "blood in the bricks."

Former Pack wide receiver Gavin Locklear was named tight ends coach in the offseason after serving as a quality control analyst. He originally walked on under Doeren before earning a scholarship prior to the 2016 season. The Apex native, who saw action in 38 career games, came back from a horrific leg fracture during his playing career.

Former Pack linebacker Isaiah Moore is now serving as a defensive QC, working mainly with the linebackers. Moore was a five-year starter during his career under Doeren and a three-time team captain. He also suffered a serious injury during his playing career, coming back from a torn ACL.

Nick Treco played safety for the Pack from 2019-23, mainly on special teams. Now working as a graduate assistant for the defense, Treco was a two-time defensive scout team player of the year.

Former Pack linebacker Dantonio Burnette has served as the Director of Strength & Conditioning for Pack Football since 2016. He played for Coach Chuck Amato from 1999-2002.

And finally, Alvis Whitted, who played wide receiver under Mike O'Cain from 1994-97, is working with the team as a senior offensive analyst. Also a standout track performer, Whitted played in the NFL from 1998-2006.

SAY IT CORRECT-LEE

Before we even start this note, make sure you're pronouncing his name correctly.

joe LEE.

Ok, with that out of the way: the most recognized member of the Wolfpack squad in the preseason is definitely and deservedly tight end Justin Joly.

After just 15 games in Wolfpack uniform, Joly's 52 career receptions already rank 10th for an NC State tight end, while his 727 receiving yards is the eight-best career mark for a player at his position.

Joly was named to the preseason watch list for the Biletnikoff and Mackey Awards, and had five catches for 27 yards in the season opener.

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

To gauge the importance of Wolfpack Nation on the NC State football team's success, you only need to check the records. NC State has won 29 of its last 36 games in Carter-Finley Stadium (since 2020).

In 2022, NC State tied the school record for the longest home winning streak at 16 before falling in the last home game of the season. That streak, which tied the mark set under head coach Lou Holtz from 1972-75, was the sixth-best active home winning streak in the FBS at the time.

Since the beginning of the 2017 season, the Wolfpack has posted a 45-12 mark in games played at Carter-Finley Stadium.

As far as ACC games go, the Pack has won 15 of its last 20 at home.

MAKING THE GRADE

NC State's football program has excelled in the classroom during head coach Dave Doeren's tenure, but recently has enjoyed unprecedented success.

The Wolfpack posted its highest spring term GPA ever for the spring of 2025 and its GPA for the 2024-25 academic year was also the highest in program history. It also marked the first time that the term and cumulative GPAs for the program were both above a 3.0.

BEFORE THE FOURTH

One of the points of emphasis for NC State football heading into 2025 was to come out of the gates stronger. NC State outscored the opposition 155-85 in the fourth quarter last season, but was outscored 307-216 in the first three quarters.

This season, the Pack has reversed that trend: scoring a combined 59 points in the first three quarters. However, NC State has yet to score a point in the fourth quarter in 2025

THIS AIN'T TEXAS

But the Wolfpack football squad is certainly getting a good sample of the Lone Star State.

In the offseason, NC State added four defensive players and a tight end who hail from Texas. That group includes three talented transfers and two true freshmen: DE Joseph Adedire (Arlington), LB Ke'Von Carter (San Antonio), LB LaCorian Hodge (Arlington), CB Brian Nelson II (Pearland) and TE Ian Flynt (Katy).

In the past 30 years, the most players on the Wolfpack roster from Texas was three in 2000, 2001 and 2002, when George Anderson, Rod Johnson and Victor Stephens brought their talents east to Raleigh.

ADDING A LIMB

The Dave Doeren head coaching tree added another limb following the 2024 regular season, when Tony Gibson, who has served as defensive coordinator for the past five seasons, was named the head coach at Marshall.

Gibson became the fourth coach who has worked under Doeren at NC State to become a current head coach, joining Mike Uremovich (Ball State), Eliah Drinkwitz (Missouri), and Tim Beck (Coastal Carolina). Rod Carey, who was an assistant under Doeren at Northern Illinois in 2011 and 2012, would go on to be named the Huskies head coach, a position he held from 2013-18.

Here's a look at Doeren's former assistants who have gone on to become head coaches

Since the beginning of the 2020 season, NC State ranks second in the ACC in conference victories. The Wolfpack has posted a 26-16 mark in league play over the past five seasons, second only to Clemson's 33-8 mark.

Here's a look at the league records since 2020:

Cal, SMU and Stanford not included since 2024 is their first year in the league, however results against those teams are included.

LEADERS OF THE PACK

The week prior to the opener, NC State head coach Dave Doeren announced the Wolfpack's team captains for the 2025 season. These leaders, as voted on by their teammates: QB CJ Bailey, LB Sean Brown, OG Anthony Carter, Jr., and LB Caden Fordham.

"All four of these men have earned their place as leaders by their words and their actions," said Doeren. "They represent the best of what we are ,on and off the field, and have earned the respect of their teammates and their coaches."

Postgraduate linebacker Sean Brown earned the honor for the second-straight season. An honorable mention All-ACC performer last season, Brown has played in 44 career contests for the Wolfpack at linebacker (2024, '25) and safety (2023).

Fellow linebacker Caden Fordham suffered a season-ending knee injury in 2024, his first year as a starter. Also a postgraduate, Fordham has been named to the ACC Academic Honor Roll each of the past three years.

Brown and Fordham are both on the preseason watch list for the Bednarik Award.

Sophomore QB CJ Bailey is the youngest player ever to be voted a team captain for the season under Doeren. The preseason candidate for the Manning and Maxwell Awards posted some of the top numbers in school history for a freshman quarterback last season.

Graduate Anthony Carter, Jr. is the most experienced returning offensive player on the squad, with 36 career games played under his belt. He has started 27 career contests at guard and has been a three-time All ACC Academic performer. The three-time All-ACC Academic honoree will earn a master's degree in December.

MARGIN CALLS

Winning the turnover battle is a must for NC State. In the past five+ seasons (2020-25), the Wolfpack posts a 25-2 record when winning the turnover margin and is 5-15 when committing more miscues than the opponent (the season opener was only the 10th victory when the Pack has lost the TO margin under Doeren!).

The Pack has won 14 of its last 15 games when winning the TO margin.

LEAGUEY LEGACY

The Wolfpack has three players whose fathers played significant time in the NFL: LB Caden Fordham, NIC Jaren Sensabaugh and C Spike Sowells.

Fordham's father, Tom, played at Florida State and then on to play 10 years in the NFL with the Jaguars, Steelers and Panthers, starting 44 games.

Gerald Sensabaugh played at East Tennessee State and UNC before his eight-year NFL career, where he played for the Cowboys and Jaguars.

Spike's dad, Isaac Sr, played collegiately at Indiana before his six-year NFL career.

FAMILY TRADITION

Ropers run deep on the Wolfpack football staff and football runs deep in the Roper family.

Offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Kurt Roper and his brother Zac, the Pack's special teams QC coach, are coaching together at their third different school. The brothers have also crossed paths on the staffs at Ole Miss (1999-2004) and Duke (2008-13).

Along with brother Dan, Kurt and Zac grew up in the nomadic life of a football coach's family.

Their father Bobby played for Frank Broyles at the University of Arkansas, where he was a member of the 1964 national championship Razorback team.

He went on to enjoy a successful career in coaching that began under Bear Bryant at the University of Alabama and included stops at Wichita State, The Citadel, Virginia, Iowa State, Pitt, Tennessee, Oregon State, and Texas A&M. Roper was the defensive coordinator of the 1976 national championship Pitt Panthers.

FAMILY TRADITION, Part 2

Redshirt sophomore quarterback Lex Thomas is the third member of the Thomas family to play for the Wolfpack, following in the footsteps of his older brothers Thayer and Drake.

Thayer played wide receiver from 2018-22, tallying 215 career receptions - the second-highest total in school history. He is now on the practice squad for the Minnesota Vikings.

Drake, a first-team All-ACC performer at linebacker, played from 2019-22 and was the Pack's leading tackler twice in his career. He now plays for the Seattle Seahawks.

Lex redshirted last season and his 14 snaps in 2024 versus Clemson were the first of his career. He is the second Thomas brother to throw for a touchdown, as Thayer threw for four in his career. Lex's first collegiate TD throw was a 40-yarder to Terrell Anderson. Thayer also had 24 receiving TDs.

Drake scored a touchdown of his own during his Wolfpack career, reaching the end zone on a 38-yard pick six vs. Syracuse in 2021.

AWARD WINNERS

Head coach Dave Doeren has coached five different Wolfpack players to seven different national awards.

2017	Bradley Chubb, DE	Nagurski Trophy

2022	Christopher Dunn, PK	Groza Award
2023	Payton Wilson, LB	Bednarik Award

NUMBER ONE

Since 2014, the honor of wearing the No. 1 jersey has been awarded to the Wolfpack player who exhibits elite work ethic and practice and training habits, while also serving as an exemplary leader. This season, LB Caden Fordham has earned that honor.

Fordham was the team's leading tackler last season before suffering a season ending knee injury in practice. The postgraduate attacked his rehab in order to return full strength for 2025.

"Caden is the alpha wolf of our football team," said Doeren. "He learned under some of the best linebackers in school history - Payton Wilson, Drake Thomas and Isaiah Moore - and is carrying that tradition forward. I look forward to watching him lead on and off the field this season."

Here's a look at who has worn the honorary No. 1 for the Pack: under Doeren

FREAKY PACK

Three Wolfpack players made the list of 101 "freaks" as selected by The Athletic's Bruce Feldman. The annual list recognizes the most athletic players in college football.

Offensive tackle Jacarrius Peak was ranked 31st on the list. In the offseason, Peak clocked in at 4.86 in the 40 and hit 19.8 mph on the GPS. He jumped 32.5 inches, broad jumped 9-3 and timed a very impressive 4.37-second shuttle. (That would've been the fastest shuttle time of any offensive lineman at the 2024 NFL combine). He bench pressed 405 pounds, squatted 585 and cleaned 350.

Duke Scott came in at No. 66 on the list, which called him "one of the strongest running backs in college football." The redshirt freshman power cleaned 375 pounds this offseason and squatted 550. His vertical jump was 37.5 inches, he ran the 40 in 4.35 40 and clocked a 4.23 shuttle time.

Linebacker Sean Brown was No. 75 on the list. Although Brown has added weight since his days as a safety, the publication said he "still runs like a DB, and a fast one at that." His 40 time was a 4.47 with a 3.97 shuttle. He boasts a 10-3 broad jump and a 38.5-inch vertical jump, while squatting 530 pounds, benching 365 and cleaning 325.

CHANGE OF PLANS

Head coach Dave Doeren's original plan was not to be a football coach.

In fact, when he left Kansas to attend college at Drake, his plan was to play football, earn a pre-med degree, go to med school and become an orthopedic surgeon.

He ended up accomplishing the first two.

Doeren majored in pre-medical biology, earning Academic All-America honors as a senior and took the Medical College Admission Test (MCAT).

After his junior year at Drake, he needed to have both of his knees scope and was so interested, he asked to watch his own surgery. But as he went through the rehab process, he realized that his surgeon didn't have much time to talk to his patients or to build relationships - something that was very important to him in his career choice.

That summer, he coached 7-on-7 drills for his old high school coach and never turned back. He realized that coaching was the way he could impact others and be involved in their lives and more than three decades later, he's still in the game.

THE GOATS

We've got goats.

Seriously.

In an ongoing effort to improve sustainability, NC State Athletics is partnering with Triangle Goatscape to clear land adjacent to the outdoor practice facility on Westchase Blvd.

Known as 'nature's weed-whackers,' a group of goats will graze the invasive weeds and brush that damage the landscape, helping the Pack avoid the use of harmful chemicals or noisy, gasoline-powered equipment.

NC State Athletics has long been recognized for its sustainability programs, earning Front Office Sports' 2024 Most Sustainable Award, as well as recognition from the City of Raleigh, Carolina Recycling Association, and Green Sports Alliance.

The Wolfpack community is invited to help NC State Athletics strive for zero waste at every home football game by properly sorting their waste on game day between recycling, compost or landfill.

WOLFPACK TRADITIONS

Lighting It Red: After ACC wins in football, the Memorial Belltower on campus is lit RED to celebrate. It's a unique celebration that is often imitated, but never duplicated.

The Wolf Sign: Touch your ring finger and middle finger to your thumb and raise your pinkie and pointer fingers. You've made the sign of the Wolf!

Law of the Jungle: After wins, when Coach Doeren calls the team up in the postgame locker room, the entire team chants a verse from Rudyard Kipling's poem Law of the Jungle.

> Now this is the Law of the Jungle — as old and as true as the sky;
> And the Wolf that shall keep it may prosper, but the Wolf that shall break it must die.
> As the creeper that girdles the tree-trunk the Law runneth forward and back —
> For the strength of the Pack is the Wolf, and the strength of the Wolf is the Pack.

Alpha Wolf Starter: Before every home game, a fan favorite serves as the 'starter of the game.' This could be a former player, famous alum or just somebody special to Wolfpack nation. The starter gets the crowd going in a chant of "WOLF!" "PACK!" prior to the team's entrance.

Walk of Champions: A couple of hours before kickoff, NC State's team buses arrive at the stadium on Trinity Rd, in front of the Murphy Football Center. The team walks down the steps through the cheerleaders, band and Wolfpack Nation before entering the building on the far side and heading to the locker room.

El Lobo: Leading the band onto the field (and the team down Trinity Rd. before the Walk of Champions) is the helmet cart, also known as "El Lobo."

Equipped with it's own sound system and smoking 'tailpipes', the cart was originally given by a donor in the late 70s, then restored a couple of decades ago.

The cart brings the Pack's beloved mascots (see next note) onto the field.

Mr. and Ms. WUF: NC State's Mr. WUF mascot has been around since the 60s, and he was joined by a female version in 1975. On Feb. 28, 1981, the two were married in a mock ceremony by the Wake Forest Demon Deacon mascot during halftime of a men's Basketball game at Reynolds Coliseum. The two were joined in "canis matrimonium," and Chancellor Joab Thomas gave the bride away.

Tuffy III: A dog named Tuffy became the new live mascot for football games in 2010. Tuffy was a Tamaskan - a breed of dog that resembles a wolf. Tuffy II took over in 2016, followed by Tuffy III in 2021.

Wagon Wheel: The song "Wagon Wheel" has long been a Wolfpack favorite due to its lyrics about our state and city.

However, in the past several years, it's become a tradition to play the song between the 3rd and 4th quarter and for Wolfpack Nation to sing it together:

> Headin' down south to the land of the pines
> I'm thumbin' my way into North Caroline
> Starin' up the road and pray to God I see headlights
> I made it down the coast in seventeen hours
> Pickin' me a bouquet of dogwood flowers
> And I'm a-hopin' for Raleigh, I can see my baby tonight

ONEPACK EMPOWERED

A generous gift from Dave and Sara Doeren established a new initiative at NC State in 2023-24 to support students with executive functioning challenges and those who are neurodivergent. Their $1.25 million commitment is among the largest made by a college football coach to his NCAA-member institution.

Launched through the Doeren Family Fund, OnePack Empowered benefits NC State students who face challenges with executive function skills critical to academic success, such as organization, planning, setting priorities, task completion and decision making.

The program has grown from 15 participants in the spring semester of 2025, to 50 this fall. The group include seven freshmen, 10 sophomores, 17 juniors, 14 seniors, on associate and one Prague Connect student.

OnePack Empowered also has student representation from all the university's undergraduate schools/colleges plus the Agriculture Institute.

With a focus on one-on-one mentoring, individual support plans, career readiness and additional specialized assistance, the program was designed to bolster academic and personal success and ensure students can complete their degrees.

In addition, students in the OnePack Enpowered program can take part in the Howl Together program, which which covers topics spanning academic, professional, and personal development.

The Doerens' commitment will pilot the program for five years, and the hope to inspire other donors to join them in contributing to OnePack Empowered as a sustainable source of support and guidance for an expanding number of participants over the next several years.
